OIL MEN AIDED GIRL'S GETAWAY

T. & P. WELCOMES DELAY IN DEPOT, BELIEVED HERE

Attorney General Rules City Charter Cannot Be Changed Until April.

Unless some scheme can be devised to satisfy the Texas & Pacific officials, the new passenger station will not be built before spring, due to the objections they raise to a section of the city charter.

It is said that a portion of the wording was left out of this section when it was printed and it allows the city control of buildings in public streets. The city sent an attorney to Austin to confer with the attorney general as to how the objectionable features could be removed by amendment, and that department has ruled that the amendment cannot be made until next April, when the city will be two years old. This decision was given under a state law which sets out that city charters cannot be amended except once every two years.

The city commission has offered every plan that it can think of to cure the objections but they have all been refused. Their last offer was to pass an ordinance to lessen the width of Commerce street for the necessary number of feet. This offer has not been entirely refused by the legal department of the railroad but it is doubted that it will be accepted.

In the past the city has granted several franchises under the charter as it now exists and no objections have been raised, and on a former occasion the fifteen feet of Commerce street was given the Texas & Pacific under this plan. At that time they accepted the land without question but because the station was not built within a set time the franchise was revoked.

SPAR FOR TIME. It is the general opinion that the Texas & Pacific is sparing for time, and probably had no intention of constructing the new station before spring and if it is found necessary to wait for the amendment of the charter work cannot begin before early summer. It is also a general opinion that if the company would agree a plan would be found to make it perfectly safe in putting its building on Commerce street.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC ANNOUNCES FORMATION OF NEW OIL COMPANY

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Announcement was made here today of the formation of a new oil company to be known as the Pacific Oil company. The announcement comes from the Southern Pacific railroad company and the plan provides for the separation of the oil and rail holdings of the Southern Pacific. Organization of the company will be effected under the laws of the state of Delaware and will have a capital stock of 3,500,000 shares of no par value, for which the Southern Pacific company will subscribe $15 per share, or $52,500,000.

The land to be purchased is situated in California. About 25,000 acres of the 250,000 acres acquired are proven oil lands and the remainder are lands heretofore withdrawn from sale as probable oil lands.

Directors of the new company were named as follows: James S. Alexander, R. B. Caldwell, Henry W. Forrest, Charles A. Peabody, Samuel Rea, Mortimer L. Schiff, E. P. Swenson and Paul Shoup, the latter now president of the Associated Oil company of which the Southern Pacific controls 50 per cent.

DAIRYMAN'S DEATH MEANS ASSAULT MYSTERY WILL REMAIN UNSOLVED

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES. FORT WORTH, Dec. 2.—With the death here of Frank Jones, prominent stock raiser and dairyman of Tarrant county, the chances for clearing up the mystery concerning the assault on him are diminished. The case is considered one of the most difficult to solve in years.

Jones died at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning at a local sanitarium, where he was taken after having been found in an unconscious condition on Oct. 16 in a pasture about six miles south of this city. A hole in his head indicated he had been assaulted with a blunt instrument. Jones' car was found a short distance from his body and a shotgun with both chambers empty was found halfway between the body and car. In his only conscious moment Jones is said to have uttered the words, "struck" and "troubled". Jones is survived by a wife and several children.

Rangers Have Shifted Drive Against Vice to North Central Fields

Wichita Falls District Has Been Cleared of Lawbreakers, They Say; Assistant Attorney General in Charge.

Texas rangers, who for the past several months have been engaged in the work of stamping out lawlessness in the North Texas fields, have shifted their main base of operations to the Eastland and Stephens county districts, according to statements made last night by rangers here. Their advent was marked Monday night by wholesale arrests for gambling at Doodemona, and four arrests at Ranger. Tuesday they arrested C. B. Sears, sheriff of Stephens county, whose term expired at midnight that night, J. M. Ellis, a deputy, and "Cadillac" Bill Rawsey, a taxi driver, at Breckenridge. Sears was indicted by the Stephens county grand jury on a bribery charge, Ellis on two counts of murder and one count of bribery, and the taxi driver on two charges of murder. B. H. Hughes, chief deputy sheriff at Breckenridge, was indicted on the same charges as Ellis. All indictments are said to have grown out of the killing of two alleged bootleggers two weeks ago.

Hughes was not in Breckenridge when the indictments were returned. He was arrested by a ranger captain at a hotel here yesterday and taken to Abilene in an automobile. No one has said why Ellis was taken from Breckenridge to Eastland "for safe keeping" and why Hughes is in the Abilene jail for the same reason. Both are held without bond, it is understood.

The rangers said that scores of gamblers, bootleggers and other vicious characters have been jailed as a result of their activities in the Wichita Falls district, and many others have been driven out, a considerable number of them, it is believed, coming to this field. Church and Sunday school are being held now, they said, in all towns of Wichita county which before their coming had never heard the name of God except in blasphemy.

State Attorney in Charge. That district has been quieted, and leaving a small force there to see that lawlessness remained curbed, the main force of rangers, accompanied by an assistant attorney general, has been transferred to this district. They are now stationed in Breckenridge, Ranger, Doodemona, Eastland, Cisco and perhaps other towns in this section, according to information given out last night, and propose to hunt every nook and cranny of the country. It is understood they are acting under orders of the governor, after an investigating tour made by Adjutant General Cope some months ago.

It is not believed that much work will be found for them inside the city of Ranger, but a force will make headquarters here.

Unwarranted Refutation. British Foreign Office Threatened By Mob Raids

LONDON, Dec. 2.—For the first time in years, the gigantic iron gates of the foreign office were closed today to all but those having official business inside. This precaution was taken as the result of evidence secured by the police anti-Sinn Fein raids. It is said that West Minister Abbey will probably be closed to visitors. Scotland Yard detectives say that important names have been secured in these raids.

BILLION IN BACK TAXES TO BE COLLECTED BY U. S. NEXT YEAR

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.—Republican leaders, who are striving to work out an economic program, were informed by government actuaries today that federal revenues for next year will be increased by nearly $1,000,000,000 in delinquent taxes. This additional revenue will be made possible as a result of new audits by experts who maintain that thousands of individuals and corporations have understated their tax obligations to the government for the previous two or three years. Revenues from this source may mean a decrease of tax rolls in some other directions, it was stated.

TRACTOR MAKES LATEST MODEL WHISKY STILL

Rangers Find Best Camouflaged Plant Yet Used for Distilling.

A ten-ton tractor which could not only function as such, but in its idle time could engage in the profitable sideline of manufacturing moonshine of excellent potency was found yesterday several miles out of Ranger and considerably messaged up by state rangers M. T. Gozauillas, H. P. Brady, and Coonsman, and Deputy Sheriff Ames. One man was arrested and is being held for investigation by the federal authorities. The officers would not reveal his name nor where he was taken, but he is believed to be in the Abilene jail. This discovery probably marks the height of moonshine making camouflage. The tractor, which had attached to it a regular trailer on which was a 500-barrel wooden tank, could be used in the legitimate manner and could be moved from one portion of the country to the other. In fact, it is believed that it had regular route from town to town. When used as a still, the mash is placed in the tank, and a tube connected the tank with a double still which was run through the fire. When not used for distilling purposes, the coal could be removed. No liquor was found, but the tank was about one-third full of mash when wrecked by the officers.

Plans for Home Building Ass'n. Made Tonight

A building and loan association will be formed tonight at a meeting to be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, if plans for such an association mature at the meeting. It is hoped to work out a scheme whereby such an organization can be brought into existence with a capital of $50,000 to $100,000. This capital will be raised by selling memberships in the organization, shares to be valued at $100. It is intended to limit subscriptions to five shares, in order to place it in as many hands as possible. If plans work out loans will be advanced to home builders who own their own lots and can pay a small part of the building cost. Members of the organization will naturally be favored in applications for loans. It is also thought that by this plan homes can be built and offered for sale.

While it is not intended that the association be formed for a money-making scheme, stockholders will be assured of a reasonable interest on the money they invest. The idea behind the plan is to provide the city with more homes and to give an impetus to home building. It is thought that many additional homes will be built in the spring if the association is formed and gets into action.

WILLARD NEXT CHAMPION.

LAWRENCE, Dec. 2.—"I am going back into the fight game to win a championship, the money means nothing to me," Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion, told an International News Service man today in an exclusive interview. Willard confirmed reports to the effect that he had signed up for a fifteen round bout with Tex Rickard to be staged on St. Patrick's day at any place to be selected by Rickard.

MOTHER LOVE.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 2.—Lula Boocock, 23 years old, wife of Ray Boocock, farmer, near here, is dying at the county hospital from the effects of poisoning. She swallowed the poison after having walked the streets of this city all night in distress because her year-old babe had been taken from her. A divorce suit filed by her husband was tried in the Bartholomew circuit court, when the custody of the babe was given to the husband's parents.

LEAGUE THANKS WILSON FOR TAKING ARMENIAN JOB

GENEVA, Dec. 2.—The League of Nations assembly sent a message to President Wilson today, thanking him for his acceptance of the invitation extended him to act as mediator between Turkey and Armenia. Similar messages were also sent to Spain and Brazil, which governments have promised to aid President Wilson in restoring peace between the two countries.

MANY CAUGHT UNDER FALLING WALL, NEW YORK

Collapse at Forty-second and Broadway Kills Workmen and Pedestrians.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—With one person missing and eleven others injured, labor squads were working at top speed this morning to remove the debris, resulting from the collapse of a thirty-foot section of a nine-story apartment house at Broadway and Forty-second streets yesterday afternoon. The section tumbled in while the building was being remodeled. The overcoats of four workmen employes are unclaimed in the lockers on the basement and it is believed this morning that they, as well as a number of unfortunate pedestrians who happened to be in the path of the falling wall, may be found in the debris. There is very little hope of finding any of them alive.

EX-POLICEMAN SAYS MEN TRIED TO MURDER HIM

Complaints of assault to murder have been filed against Tom Anderson and Jack Eaton before justice of the Peace Roger Fenlow following an allegation that they beat H. D. Black over the head with pistols yesterday morning and threatened to take his life. Both Eaton and Anderson also paid fines in police court for rudely displaying deadly weapons. The complaints on the assault to murder charges were signed by Black, who is a peace officer of Big Spring. At one time he was a member of the local police force.

Hit From Behind. In detailing the circumstances to Judge Fenlow Officer Black said that he was in the Tee Pee drink stand on Commerce street and one of the men hit him from behind with a pistol, knocking him down. He was hit, he said, several other times. While down, he declared, he made a motion as if to draw his own gun and was told that if he did he would be killed. The officer, however, stated that when he reached toward his hip pocket he had forgotten that his pistol had been placed in the trunk of his car. Black asserted that after he had been beaten up the men would not let him leave the drink stand for more than an hour, but finally deciding that if he did not get medical attention he would bleed to death, he left the place left at home when he left Big Spring. Black asserted that after he had been beaten up the men would not let him leave the drink stand for more than an hour, but finally deciding that if he did not get medical attention he would bleed to death, he left the place left at home when he left Big Spring.

CURFEW EXTENDED IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Dec. 2.—The British government contemplates an extension of the military curfew order throughout the whole of southwestern Ireland, prohibiting residents of that section of the island from leaving their homes at night. Virtually all the important Irish cities are now under the curfew order and the residents are not allowed to appear on the streets after 10 o'clock at night. The chief reason for the extension of the order is said to be the failure of British military leaders to capture several important leaders of the Sinn Fein army, whose arrests are being sought.

CONFESION CLEARS UP PHILADELPHIA MURDER

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—Despite the confession of Peter D. Treadway to the effect that he had killed Henry Pierce, the district attorney's office announced today that all four persons in the room at the time of the murder will be charged with murder in the first degree. Al Smith, one of the four persons that were in the room at the time that the murder was committed, still remains a fugitive and is being sought in Ohio, where detectives have traced him. Treadway has assumed the sole responsibility for the murder, since Marie Phillips, his companion in escape, has turned from him.

U. S. INDEBTEDNESS GREW $120,646,571 LAST MONTH

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The gross indebtedness of the United States increased $120,646,571 during November, the treasury department announced today. The total gross indebtedness of the country on Nov. 30 was $24,175,156,244.

BENEDICT XIV WILL INTERVENE IN IRISH SITUATION

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Pope Benedict XIV has signified his approval of the letter sent by Cardinal Legue, archbishop of Armagh, protesting against the latest waves of violence in Ireland and invoking his aid in the Irish situation, according to a Central News dispatch from Rome.

D'ANNUNZIO THREATENS WAR AGAINST ITALY

Troops at Fiume Fire on Warships of Blockading Squadron.

MILAN, Italy, Dec. 2.—Gabriele D'Annunzio, military dictator of Fiume, is threatening to make a formal declaration of war against Italy. If the Rome government upholds General Cavaglia's blockade of Fiume, said dispatches from Fiume today. D'Annunzio has sent wireless instructions to the representatives of his government at Rome to return to Fiume tomorrow, unless the Italian government backs down. General Cavaglia, commander of the government troops in Istria, that are blockading Fiume, has warned his legionnaires to retire from the islands of Arbe and Dalia which were recently seized in defiance of Rome's wishes.

MILAN, Dec. 2.—During a demonstration by Italian warships off Fiume, Gabriele D'Annunzio's troops fired upon the warships with rifles, said a dispatch received from Fiume today. The transport, Cotellazzo, of D'Annunzio's fleet, is reported to have sunk at the entrance to the Fiume harbor.

THEATRE FOLK DIE IN FIFTH AVENUE FIRE

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Five persons were burned to death in a fire which wrecked a five-story apartment house just off Fifth avenue this morning. The dead are: Marjorie Lescomb, 20 years old, a movie actress; Mrs. G. Roswell Reid, concert singer from California, and her sister, who was visiting her from the same state, but whose name could not be learned; Dr. F. M. Potter, who was attached to the staff of the Hippodrome theater, and the fifth victim proved to be a young woman who was so badly burned that she could not be identified.

HAMON ROAD TO BUILD WALKS AROUND STATION

Cement walks, extending for fifteen or twenty feet on three sides of the Hamon road's passenger depot, will be laid within the near future. In fact, just as soon as the necessary material and labor can be secured, it was announced at the general offices of the Wichita Falls, Ranger and Fort Worth Railroad company this morning. That portion of the street paving, now being laid on Lamar street, which crosses the company's property will be financed by the railroad.

ARDMORE ATTORNEY WILL INDICT THEM AS ACCESSORIES

ARDMORE, Okla., Dec. 2.—Investigation into the slaying of Jake L. Hamon, Republican national committeeman and multi-millionaire, centered today upon learning the identity of wealthy oil men, who aided Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, who is charged with the murder of Hamon, in her flight, according to County Attorney Russell Brown. The prosecutor told the International News Service's representative that he would institute criminal proceedings against every man who had assisted her in flight, as accessories after the act, if the evidence, which is now being gathered, points to the fact that Mrs. Hamon was aided in her escape, Mr. Brown declared.

CHEER FUND

Received heretofore: $ 94.60
Mrs. E. F. Jones: 10.00
Mrs. E. J. Barnes: 5.00
Ranger Sun Company employees: 33.50
Total: $143.10

In order that all the needy children and old folk of Ranger be given a little Christmas Cheer Fund of the Times. The ing of the children's patron saint and in order that the Times' Christmas Cheer Fund may accomplish its purpose and that Santa may not miss a poor child in the entire city of Ranger, it must have the names of poor people and poor children and needy old folk, who would have no Christmas if it were not for the fund. Their names will be as acceptable as cash.

ARDMORE ATTORNEY WILL INDICT THEM AS ACCESSORIES

Also Says Hamon's Friends Delay Probe of Shooting; Doesn't Know Whereabouts of Woman, But Has Evidence to Convict.

ARDMORE, Okla., Dec. 2.—Investigation into the slaying of Jake L. Hamon, Republican national committeeman and multi-millionaire, centered today upon learning the identity of wealthy oil men, who aided Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, who is charged with the murder of Hamon, in her flight, according to County Attorney Russell Brown. The prosecutor told the International News Service's representative that he would institute criminal proceedings against every man who had assisted her in flight, as accessories after the act, if the evidence, which is now being gathered, points to the fact that Mrs. Hamon was aided in her escape, Mr. Brown declared.

The prosecutor also intimated that his probe was being delayed by Hamon's friends and that he might have to make still other charges. He had, he said, arranged such a police net around El Paso that it would be impossible for Mrs. Hamon to get through, unless she has already succeeded in making her way into Mexico. He admitted that he did not know the exact whereabouts of Hamon's former stenographer, but when asked whether a murder charge would be filed against her, he stated that one would be filed just as soon as she was apprehended.

"Clear Confession." "I have the statement of E. W. Sallis, the Dallas taxicab driver. It is a clear confession that she killed Hamon, and I also have other evidence that I am not willing to make public. I will use Sallis as a witness against her, just as soon as she has been arrested and appears for trial," Mr. Brown declared.

By Associated Press. ARDMORE, Okla., Dec. 2.—With publication of the sworn statement of E. W. Sallis, service car driver of Dallas, giving details of the drive along the road between Dallas and Cisco with a "young lady" who told him she shot "a wealthy man" in a hotel in Ardmore Sunday night, Nov. 21, many influential persons in Ardmore are beginning today to discount the story of the alleged "accidental shooting" of Jake Hamon, republican national committeeman, which resulted in his death on Nov. 20.

Frank Ketch, Hamon's business manager, throughout has maintained that the wounding of Hamon was the result of the "accidental" discharge of a pistol he was cleaning. County Attorney Brown today made public Sallis' statement. The driver declared in this statement that a woman passenger had engaged his car in Dallas for a trip of four or five days. She did not tell her name, declaring he would find out "in the next thirty-six hours." It is known that the Clara Smith Hamon went south after leaving Ardmore, and the county attorney announced yesterday that he had traced her itinerary through a number of towns to Dallas and Cisco. Brown's announcement that the Smith woman purchased a ticket from Cisco to El Paso coincides with the assertion in Sallis' sworn statement that his unknown passenger asked him at Cisco to purchase a ticket to El Paso for her.

Arctic Rescue Party Fails to Reach Schooner

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Repeated efforts to reach the Arctic fur trading schooner Polar Bear, which was caught in the ice about fifty miles north of Banks Land, Alaska, last September, during its valiant attempt to reach the distressed Ananuk exploration party, have failed, and the crew of the little ship, without sufficient food, will not survive the rigorous winter, it is feared. Considerable apprehension is felt in maritime circles in San Francisco since the word was received yesterday that the last attempt had been unsuccessful.

PARTIN DIVULGES PLAN OF POLYTECHNIC BANK ROBBERY

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—Marvin L. Partin, held in the Dallas county jail on three charges of automobile theft, two of which were filed in the district court and one in the federal court, divulged details of the plan by which the First State bank of Polytechnic was robbed of $5,047.05 on Monday, Nov. 22. Partin was formerly a member of the Fort Worth detective department, acting as secretary and doing free lance work ostensibly recovering stolen cars. He was taken into custody last Saturday by Detectives Bargis and Jay of the Fort Worth police department and was released to the Dallas authorities Sunday, one charge being filed against him here Saturday.

CHICAGO STYLE HIJACKING.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Four men leaped from a black automobile in the 2400 block of South Court avenue shortly before noon today and dragged Vanhorn, secretary-treasurer of the National Milk company, into the automobile and took $1,900 away from him. Vanhorn was on his way to a nearby bank to deposit the money when he was seized. They threw him from the car at the corner of Fifteenth and Turner streets, a few miles away. Something like $1,000 of the money was in cash.

Legion Hospital Nears Completion at Kerrville

By Associated Press.
 KERRVILLE, Texas, Dec. 2.—The progress being made in the construction of the American Legion hospital here is highly gratifying, according to Adrian F. Levy, legal adviser and member of the hospital executive board.

This board has just completed an investigation of the status of the memorial hospital, which is being erected to care for the hospital by Charles Schaefer of pointed jointly by the War Risk Reuevalent Society of Texas and the state branch of the American Legion.

Situated on an elevation overlooking the Guadalupe river, 70 miles from San Antonio and but two miles from Kerrville, Mr. Levy said, the institution nestles in one of the state's beauty spots. The units under consideration are in the midst of a tract of 735 acres donated for the hospital by Charles Schaefer of Kerrville.

Five units of the hospital are almost completed, Mr. Levy said. They comprise a power station, a subsistence division, two ward units of thirty-two beds each and one cottage of the two-patient type. Construction is of the hollow tile type, while the architectural lines are in keeping with the natural beauty of the surroundings. A complete sewage plant already is in operation.

The buildings and equipment now under construction, Mr. Levy estimated, will cost approximately $160,000. In addition it is proposed to erect a 100-bed unit to cost in the neighborhood of $285,000.

The department of Texas, American Legion, has agreed to raise the remaining funds necessary to complete the hospital, but as yet definite plans for raising the money have not been formed, according to Mr. Levy.

Y. M. C. A. IN PALESTINE.

JERUSALEM, Dec. 2.—The Young Men's Christian association in Palestine has been asked to open centers in Hebron, Bethlehem, Haifa and other towns.

Dr. A. C. Harie, who has charge of the work in Palestine, has prepared plans for an international Y. M. C. A. building in Jerusalem, with a memorial tower to be used for devotional purposes, in which shall be recorded the name of every Y. M. C. A. worker in every country who gave his life for his country in the great war.

SINN FEIN LEADER ARRESTED WHILE IN BED; SPIRITED AWAY

Arthur Griffith, M. P., organizer of the Sinn Fein, and acting president of the Irish Republic, in the absence of Eamonn De Valera, who has been arrested by Black and Tan police. According to cable dispatches, Mr. Griffith was arrested at his home at 2 a. m. while in bed. No formal charges were made against him. He was taken away in a motor lorry to a destination which was not made public.

SOUTH TEXAS BANKERS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO MARKETING PLAN

By Associated Press.
 HOUSTON, Dec. 2.—More than a score of South Texas bankers have pledged their support to the proposed international marketing corporation. Meeting in this city recently, bankers from most of the towns and cities in the southern portion of the state promised either to purchase stock in the corporation or to recommend such purchase to their respective directorates.

The new corporation will not be exclusively a cotton concern, it was pointed out at the meeting, but will market various of the chief crops of the country to purchasers abroad on a basis of liberal credits. It was pointed out that the paper held by the banks could be sold in the investment market.

T. J. Caldwell, vice president of the Fort Worth National bank, who presided, told the meeting that while paper running longer than ninety days could not be handled by the federal reserve banks, bills coming before the time limit had expired would be handled. J. A. Pondrom, vice president of the South Commercial National Bank of Houston, declared that the new corporation would open up many hitherto closed markets to American trade.

Bankers from Galveston, Bastrop, Roscoe, Giddings, Huntsville, Richmond, La Grange Fort Worth, Beaumont, Temple, Bellville and Dallas attended the meeting here.

IRISH BESTS MEX. IN INTERNATIONAL BATTLE AT POLICE STATION

The honor of the Irish was upheld this morning in the police station when one of her sons did valiant battle with a native of Sunny Mexico. It can be said for the Mex. that he made a game fight, but the strategy of the Irish was too swift for his understanding.

It all came about over a "ham an' sandwich." Both men are in, hopping the boys, and due to his sunny disposition, the Irishman was retained around the station, acting as janitor and bringing the other prisoners their meals. He had a ham and egg sandwich which he declared the "naisus had made for him special." In an unguarded moment he laid it down while he did something else. The Mexican ate it.

The honor of the Irish had impugned. War was declared. Irish led with a left to the jaw. Mex. got into action and retaliated with a glass of hot coffee to the right eye. The Irish withdrew to clear decks for more action, a man with an eye full of coffee being under a handicap. Then the attack was renewed. Irish being about fifty pounds lighter than Mex. was losing the battle. Something had to be done—the honor of the Emerald Isle was at stake.

Ah! Strategy. The attacker withdrew and without a policeman's knowledge, borrowed his "fifty" from his overcoat pocket. With blood in his eye he advanced, the club behind his back. It is thought that the enemy will probably be laid up for several days.

TWENTY-CENT DRAG LATEST STUNT OF SHORT CHANGE ARTISTS; SMALL BUT STEADY PROFITS ASSURED

Are there or are there not "short-changers" operating in some of the local restaurants and off drink stands? Traveling men, either coming into or going out of the city, maintain that on frequent occasions they have been victimized by "short-changing" cashiers. Officials of the police department maintain that they have had no complaint on that score. In no case, however, does it seem that the "short-changers" get away with over fifty cents and, in the majority of instances, with over twenty cents for each turning of the trick.

According to two policemen at the Texas & Pacific depot this morning, the victims are always those who seem to be in a hurry and who take little or no time in counting the change given them out of a bill of larger or lesser denomination. The efficiency of the scheme rests upon the similarity between a nickel and a quarter. Never is the "stunt" pulled twice in the same instance and, if the intended victim calls the hand at the moment—well, the matter is readily explained. It was perfectly unintentional. No one would possibly make so little a mistake on purpose and what is twenty cents or a half-dollar to raise how about anyway?

Conscientious Counting.

As an example, one of the traveling men who told of the modus operandi of an alleged "short-changer," said that his breakfast cost him $1.15, in payment for which he handed the cashier a $5 bill and received in change three $8 bills, a half-dollar, a nickel and a dime.

LARGEST TOYLAND WEST OF DALLAS TO BE LOCATED IN RANGER

Ranger will have the largest toyland between Dallas and the Rio Grande river, it is understood. T. R. Valliant, manager and owner of the Valliant Book store, has just received a $20,000 consignment of the most modern toys that have been manufactured by Santa Claus this year. Santa Claus, himself, will be on hand to welcome his "kiddies" to toyland.

The store has just moved from its old site, 109 Austin street, to its new home, 210 Main street, where the grand opening of toyland will be held either Saturday or Monday, Mr. Valliant announces.

The largest stationary crane in the world is located at the Navy Yard in Philadelphia. Its capacity is 550 tons.

 THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Runabout

The Ford Runabout needs no advertising. About all we have to do is to tell you we can supply the demand with something like promptness and the selling is over. We have never been able to get enough from the factory to meet the demand and do not suppose we ever will get enough. There are more than four million five hundred thousand Ford cars in operation today, and of this number about three hundred thousand are in foreign countries, the rest right here in America, but we have one hundred and five to one hundred and ten millions of people and it looks from the way demand comes in that we will have to sell that many Runabouts before we can satisfy that demand.

It is one great, little utility. It fits into every man's wants, from the physician to the worker in the factory, from the country blacksmith to the millionaire railroad owner, from the contractor and his employees to the millionaire sporting man's entourage, almost as necessary these days as the handkerchief.

ROGER J. I. ISLAND. FIRST M.M. D. DARE APPEARED IN. IT WAS A SERIAL.

Love letters of another man, stolen jewels and a bride of a day who is heart-broken because her hubby presumably has deceived her, and other amusing developments contributed to make Bryant Washburn's latest Paramount photocomedy, "A Full House" which was shown at the Temple theatre yesterday, delightful entertainment for the great audience that attended the premier.

Mr. Washburn was irresistible as George Howell, a newly-wed. He gets in and out of trouble in a manner that makes the laughs continuous while he is on the screen. Lois Wilson is charming as the young bride whose heart is broken when she discovers that her husband of a day apparently a thief.

Practically all of the action takes place in the five rooms of the Fleming home. "Rapid-fire" would be the term—especially when the police take a hand with an Irish cop at the door who says "You can come in but you can't go out!"

In minor characters Guy Millan, Hazel Howell, Vera Lewis, Catherine Wallace, Lottie Williams, John Wild, Z. Wall Covington and Frank Jonsson do work that splendidly supplements the laugh-making efforts of the star. The picture was finely directed by James Cruze.

When a story written by such a master of plot and action as Gouverneur Morris has been adapted for motion picture purposes by an expert of the type of Rudolph de Cordova, and then the adaptation has been gone over by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester to receive the final touches, it may be depended upon that wonderful material has been provided for an impressive motion picture drama.

All that and more has been done to make "Trumpet Island," which is being shown at the Lamb theatre today only, one of the most remarkable motion picture productions ever seen.

These situations abound throughout the drama, the climax coming in the wrecking of an airplane bearing a bride and groom through a terrific electric storm.

Hunting Bargains in Ranger

Bargains discovered in trips through Ranger shops and department stores are here presented briefly, for the benefit of Times readers.

1. Some interestingly low prices at Richardson-Brown's, beginning today, may prove valuable to economical shoppers. Sheeted at 44c a yard being one of them. Bleached domestic, thirty-six inches wide, for 17c, gingham for 15c, and outing for 14c. One-half price for all suits and coats will be the amount asked tomorrow. If you have a husband to shop for, you may find good values in men's ready-to-wear, also.

2. The Marinello Shop carries a full line of fancy combs, also the Mary Garden gift boxes of toilet articles.

3. The Winner Store has just received a complete line of clever things for infants. Caps, sweaters, booties, coats, buggy robes and dresses. 4. Hume's entire stock of dresses will go on sale tomorrow at the special prices of $12.50, $25, $45 and $55. A full line of flannellette pajamas, Billy Barke and nightgowns at this shop are most reasonably priced. 5. The Woman's Exchange is in receipt of some beautiful Oriental candle holders with candlesticks to match. Also book ends of Oriental design.

ENGLAND'S OLDEST PAPER.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The official London Gazette, the oldest newspaper in England, and the only one until 1695, has just increased its price from one shilling to two shillings. The increase has been made by the government, which issues it, to enable the paper to pay its way.

Little of its original character as a news sheet remains to the Gazette. It is now little more than a copious miscellany of state and public intelligence in an official or statutory character.

EVERY HOME A PRIZE RING, SAYS DEMPSEY'S BROTHER-IN-LAW

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 2.—"My wife is the sister of Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion of the world, and she can't forget she has fighting blood in her veins," declared William Barrow, 24, yesterday in court.

Barrow was up for battery. "Every married couple today is fighting," he declared.

"Do you mean to say that your attorney, the prosecuting attorney and even the court fight with their respective wives?" inquired the judge. "My statement stands," declared Barrow. "It is the fault of the present unrest of the Twentieth century which has crept into the home. Everybody is doing it." Barrow was released, as the complaining witness, his wife, declined to appear against him.

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in a rural district and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this remarkable tonic, corrective and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this "Golden Medical Discovery" for the stomach, liver and heart. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country.

to the United States and back up to secure the treaty" is the Sixty-ninth Congress. It is the duty of every member of the union to stand firmly behind the international officials. To stand back, to hesitate or to fail to give the international officials full support and co-operation would be an indication of division.

Wilson's veto pre-empted a separate peace with Germany last spring. Senator Knox is preparing to resubmit his resolution for a separate peace, and although this congress may defer action because of the certainty of another presidential veto, there is no room for doubt as to what the Sixty-seventh congress will do.

If anything is certain in this troubled world, the Knox resolution will be adopted and Mr. Harding will sign it as President of the United States. This country will endeavor to hold whatever advantages it has gained from the treaty of Versailles but it will assume none of the responsibility for enforcing the treaty. Mr. Harding has publicly announced that he will withdraw the American troops from the Rhine district, and when that is done it will be the end of American guarantees.

The Anglo-American convention with France for the enforcement of the treaty is already dead. Although it has been before the senate committee on foreign relations for considerably more than a year, it has never been considered, no report has ever been made and there is no sentiment favorable to it in the senate. Its terms are so wholly incompatible with the terms of the Knox resolution that there is no possibility of its ratification.

Ever since the German government asked for an armistice in October, 1918, French official sentiment has been Republican in its sympathies. It took the Republican attacks on President Wilson seriously and literally. It convinced itself that no matter what concessions the President made to French extremists in imposing a victor's peace on Germany, the Republican leaders in the United States were willing and eager to go much further. It had before its eyes the vision of a Republican party that were unreservedly in favor of the economic and political destruction of Germany and the substitution of France as the dominant military power on the continent. No element in French official life was so irreconcilable in its attitude toward Germany that it did not believe the Republican party was willing to co-operate with it.

The period of disillusionment has now arrived. The Republican leaders were willing to use the French to weaken President Wilson's position, but they have no intention whatever of adopting the French programme or of assuming any responsibilities toward France. They will make a separate peace with Germany, they will scrap the Anglo-American pledge of assistance, they will withdraw the American troops, and in place of guarantees they will give France an old-fashioned Dingley tariff that will exclude her goods from the American market. That is what France will get from the Harding administration, and that is all she will get. She might as well reconcile herself to it first as last.—N. Y. World.

THE WOMAN WHO SAW

All-Conquering Courtesy. There come times in the average person's life when "alright" stuff is absolutely unbearable; days when, for no apparent reason, one simply insists upon being miserable and refuses to buck up and be joyful. Such a day was just passing for the Woman as she returned home after having had tea with a particularly optimistic friend who had persisted in playing Pollyanna.

The train was crowded and she stood by a surcharged seat where a very young couple with two children were having an impromptu picnic. Every body was eating. The infant waved a nearly depleted milk bottle between noisy draughts; mother nibbled popcorn, offering the open bag to father whenever he stopped munching; while Sonny, on his daddy's knee, was doing his sticky best to get outside of an interminable banana. The Woman hung to her strap, like a dismal fate overhanging this merry young family, and expecting momentarily to be hurled into the middle of the impromptu picnic.

Then the Father Familias glanced up, and thinking her face the index of some hidden sorrow or possible physical infirmity, he rose and, depositing Sonny on his two sturdy legs, said: "Here, youngster, we men folks musn't sit and let the ladies stand."

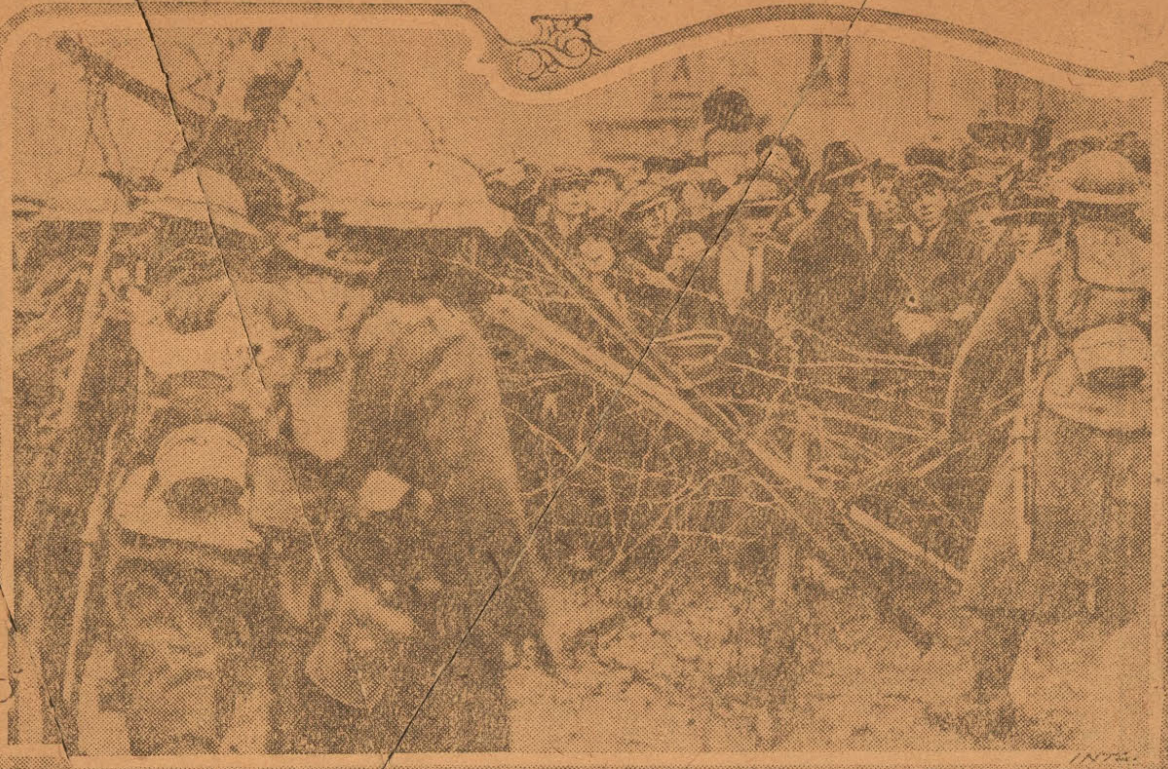

In a flash the Woman weighed the merits of politeness against the danger to her new tailor-made by closer proximity to the creature comforts. Possitiveness won and she sank down beside mother and baby, while Sonny teetered precariously by her knee. It was distinctly her turn to do the polite, so she suggested taking him upon her lap, and was relieved when he refused upon the score that men didn't sit on ladies' laps. In reparation for this rebuff he offered her a bite of his banana. Although it was now her turn to decline, still amenities were established, and when she reached her station the Woman was realizing that, after all, the world was rather jolly in spots.

A Birdseye View. The Girl Who Works for Her Living was enjoying a birdseye view of a popular musical comedy from the second balcony.

In one scene, while the dainty little star was holding the center of the stage with the comedian, the chorus men came in from behind the scenes, taking their places behind an artistic, if unsubstantial, "stone" wall, waiting their cue to swing jauntily into sight of the audience. The girl became so absorbed in this unintended "show" of human nature that she quite lost track of the real plot.

One Apollo had a newspaper, and thought what he was reading of sufficient importance to nudge his neighbor. This was followed by doleful shakes of the two heads, but whether it was the price of sugar or the football score that day she could only guess. A group of four collar advertisements were having a young riot over their straw hats, which evidently had been mixed. There were

Santa Claus' Letters

NORTH POLE, Dec. 2.—Santa Claus spent the greater part of today in cleaning up his accumulated correspondence, so that he would have more time to take care of the incoming mails and his factories, which he has sadly neglected for the past few days. So I, C. Seal, his private secretary started in a wireless communication to the Times today. He sent orders to his various factory managers to redouble the working force and work double shifts between now and Christmas, as he estimates that there are at least 100,000,000 children that he wishes to visit this year. An additional force of 300 secretary birds was also added to his present rather large force of stenographers.

Among the letters that he received from the little folks of Ranger were the following:

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl, 7 years old. I live on the Caddo road and I wish you would give me a set of China dishes, a table and three little chairs. Don't forget my little cousin, Anna, in Sheffield, Pa. Dear Santa Claus. Now, if you will bring me these things, I will leave our door open—with love.

MABLE LAVELLE BAKER.

Dear Santa Claus—I want just five things. I want a bicycle, a motor wagon with a modern brake, like Carl's, if you have it, an army motor tank, like they have at Thompson's Variety store; one sky rocket and Oliver Curwood's new book, "Swift Lightning and Firefly."

I want to thank you for being so kind to me in the past and hope you will have enough things to take something to every little child. Lovingly, JAMES DONALD PHILLIPS.

Dear Santa Claus—I would like to have a doll for Christmas and my little brother, Junior, would like to have a train that runs on a track. I am 7 years old and my brother is 4 years old. We live at 429 South Rusk street. With lots of love, FAY JUNIOR ELBERLE.

Dear Santa Claus—I want a raincoat, a big box of stationery, a ball and some candy and apples and oranges. Your little friend, LOUVERNE HATCHITT.

Dear Santa Claus—I will write you a few lines to let you know that I want a pair of roller skates for Christmas. I also want a box of stationery, a book, a pretty doll and some other pretty things. With lots of love, NELLIE MAE SEBY.

Dear Santa Claus—I will write and tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a pair of roller skates (No. 11), a set of nice furs, a manure set, a nice bed for my dolly and a pair of grey kid gloves. Oh yes, Santa, if you have anything for Russell Keller, please leave it. I guess this is all I want, so don't forget to come. I live at 911 Pershing avenue. With lots of love, ETHEL GRACE KAYLOR.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl, 3 years old, and I wish you would bring me a piano, a pian stool, a dolly with brown curls, a dolly with a fire truck, a game and a Sletlan bed. Our house has a large chimney and you can come down it easily. I will have some candy for you when you come and I am so sorry the Polar Bear is so naughty. I will be a good little girl. With lots of love, NETTY JEAN BURDEN.

changes all around, until each seemed satisfied that he once more had his. Two more were good naturedly fixing each other's ties, while another sank on a packing box (on which he was later to stand to appear peeking over the wall, his head buried in both hands—a sick headache, worried the girl or a love affair gone wrong or a late party the night before? But his troubles were forgotten by the unsuspecting witness when, just as they were all lining up with a final perk at their ties and pokes and winks, to go "on," the tenth removed from his mouth what had kept him both busy and supremely happy during this two-minute interval, stuck it on a post supporting the wall and fell into his place as the first man came swinging into view through the paper gate.

After all seats at $1.10 have their compensations!

A Gaunt Guardian Angel. The young girl who was too small to reach a strap in the crowded subway balanced skillfully in the center of the aisle. With feet apart and body swaying forward with the motion of the train, she found by long practice that she could do very well. She was exceedingly startled therefore when a tall, gaunt woman rose from her seat and without ceremony pushed the small girl into it. She was still more confused when the woman remarked to the interested neighborhood: "I always feel so sorry for little people like you who can't hang on the straps." People began to grin, and the girl, after thanking the woman, stared at her shoes divided between rage and amusement. She was grateful for the friendly protection, but she did not care to have her helplessness boomed through the whole car. The rescuer, however, towered above, with the attitude of a faithful, responsible watchdog, her picture hat on the back of her head and a very manly swagger to her shoulders.

MAN OF MYSTERY MUST LIVE WITH BULLET IN BRAIN

DENVER, Dec. 2.—As long as John Lane lives he will have a bullet in his brain. The "Man of Mystery," suspected by the police of complicity in the hold attempt to hold up a Union Pacific passenger train near the outskirts of Denver eleven days ago, is proving a medical enigma as well as a psychological puzzle. The leaden bullet which, the officers say, may have been fired from the gun of a trainman who helped to repel the bandits, is lodged in a part of Denver's brain where, physicians say, it cannot be removed without killing the patient. The doctors are surprised that Lane is alive at all. But he continues to show remarkable vitality, and in spite of the fact that the bullet is known to be in the occipital lobe at the base of the brain, where it might easily affect the powers of speech, Lane has regained the ability. He talks with apparent intelligence on most subjects, but whenever the train robbery attempt is mentioned, he reverts to the one exclamation, "Right away, I don't know."

That Lane can live long with a bullet in his brain, attending doctors say they do not believe. It is considered probable that he will die, retaining the secret of the manner in which he received the bullet locked in the chambers of his mind. Although two other suspects said to have been friends of Lane, have been arrested, efforts to obtain a confession of the robbery attempt so far have failed.

One Arrested; Two Flee Under Fire, From Box Car Loot

Four shots were fired by Special Officer Tom Figg at two fleeing men in an automobile last night and one man arrested following the discovery by the officer of a large quantity of cigarettes hidden in the weeds near the Hamon-Kell tracks. Several cases of car thievery have been reported here and the officer has been watching the section of the Hamon tracks near where they cross the Texas & Pacific. Yesterday afternoon he found three cases of cigarettes and one case of tobacco hidden in the weeds near by. He lay in wait and last night at 8 o'clock three men approached in an automobile and while two of the number remained in the car the third came for the goods. The officer placed this man, who gave his name as Jack Burnham, under arrest and called to the other two to surrender. Instead of obeying, they fled. Officer Figg fired four shots at them and expressed the opinion that one bullet at least had found a mark, because one of the occupants gave a loud scream at the time of the shooting.

The cigarettes were stolen from a car and were billed from the makers to a firm in Breckenridge. It is said that much thieving of this class has been going on in the Hamon yards and the officer has been patrolling the entire section for about three weeks, but last night was the only instance in which he had been fortunate enough to get close to the thieves. In discussing the matter today the officer is of the opinion that some one in Ranger is receiving the stolen stuff and finding a market for it and while he would not directly admit the fact, he intimated that he had knowledge as to the identity of the person. Burnham will be given an examining trial today.

DRY LEAGUE AIDS BLUE SUNDAY BODY TO REFORM NATION

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Anti-Saloon league in several states, it was learned yesterday, is co-operating with the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States in its newly launched offensive for the adoption of an amendment to the federal constitution providing strict laws for the observance of Sunday. According to the Rev. Dr. Harry L. Bowlby, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, the Anti-Saloon league as a national organization has no direct connection with the alliance. "But the league in several states," said Dr. Bowlby, "is rendering us invaluable aid. I do not want to say just how many state organizations of the Anti-Saloon league are affiliated with us. Neither do I care to say in what states such action has been taken by the state organization of the Anti-Saloon league. What I do say is that we would welcome with open arms the co-operation of the league as a national organization in the fight we are waging to make the Sabbath purer and more sacred." A dispatch from Washington on Tuesday bore the intelligence that the blue law Sunday observance movement was assuming formidable proportions, and that one of its exponents was the Rev. Dr. E. C. Dinwiddie, of the Anti-Saloon league, who contacted the campaign for the federal prohibition amendment. Dr. Dinwiddie was cited as a member of the committee on moral and social welfare of the United Lutheran church. When this dispatch was called to the attention of Dr. Bowlby he said again that he was very sure the Anti-Saloon league "as a national organization" was not behind the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States.

ALIENS FACE CHARGES.

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 2.—Refused entrance to the United States, where they lived prior to the world war, two Hungarians and a German paid $125 for a ferry ride across the Rio Grande from Mexico and now face charges of entering the United States illegally. The men were picked up here by United States immigration agents as they were aboard a train from Laredo. The trio told officials they landed at Vera Cruz recently from Holland. The German, according to federal agents, was a watchmaker at Newark, N. J. prior to 1909 when he is said to have returned to Germany. The two Hungarians left the United States early this year, working their way across the Atlantic, but became appalled by conditions in Vienna and took desperate steps to return to America.

COTTON GINNERS' REPORT.

The cotton ginner's report for Eastland county, just issued, shows 5,108 bales ginned to Nov. 14, 1920, as compared with 8,020 for 1919. The drop for the present year is explained by the facts that less acreage was planted in cotton this year, due to enlarged drilling activities and other all operations, and that considerable cotton remains to be gathered, due to the shortage of pickers.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK ISSUES MONTHLY REVIEW OF BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—A further spread of the price reduction movement, begun early in the fall, is reported in the October business and industrial review for the eleventh federal reserve district, issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. Price reductions granted by the wholesaler on dry goods and wearing apparel, it is pointed out, now are being passed on to the public, resulting in a stimulation of retail trade. A further shrinkage in wholesale trade, however, is reported. A marked increase in unemployment is reported, both skilled and unskilled labor being affected. Building enterprises launched during October were larger in number but smaller in value than those of September. Bank clearings were slightly in excess of those of September, but were below the amount recorded in October of last year. A heavily increased movement of cotton is reflected by the statistics of exports through the port of Galveston for October as compared with the previous month. Both receipts and exports for October were more than twice as large as those for the month of September. By comparison with the corresponding month of 1919, last month's receipts, exports and stock at Galveston showed substantial increases, while the total number of bales passing through the port during the present season exceeds by 40 per cent the total for last season.

Rains, which fell during the latter part of October, interfered with the harvesting of cotton and other matured crops, but were beneficial to pastures, fall gardens, truck and winter grains, according to the report. As a result of these rains it is said movement of the cotton crop will be delayed greatly. Aside from this damage the conditions of the cotton crop has not changed materially since the September report and a large yield is assured except in the areas of greatest insect damage. South Texas is completing the harvesting of what is said to be the largest cotton crop on record in that section.

A larger acreage of winter wheat is being sown than was sown last fall, reports from over the district indicate. Among the reasons assigned for the increase is the fact that weather conditions have been more favorable for fall plowing and also the fact that the trend on the cotton market has tended to increase crop diversification. On account of the excessive rains in the fall of last year, the 1920 winter wheat acreage was greatly reduced, the crop being one of the smallest produced in many years. A noticeable shrinkage in the volume of grain receipts at the principal grain centers of the district during the month of October as compared with the figures for the month of September is noted in the report.

Range conditions in Arizona, New Mexico, the Panhandle and Southwest Texas improved during October as the result of beneficial rains, the report said, and the condition of livestock everywhere is reported to be good. Low night temperatures in the western and northwestern portions of the district and the drying out of ranges by high winds in scattered localities in New Mexico were the only exceptions to the generally favorable trend of range reports for the month.

shipment of livestock to markets of this district during October. Receipts at the Fort Worth yards showed a heavy decline as compared with October receipts of other years. Downward price movements continued to feature the trading at livestock markets. For the fourth month in succession the top price of beef steers at the Fort Worth market recorded a decline, having receded from $13.50 in June to $10 in October.

Oil wells in the district produced 12,200,197 barrels of oil during October, exceeding the September output by 790,687 barrels. This yield lacked only 63,689 barrels of equaling the district's record-breaking production for the month of August, 1920.

A marked improvement in drilling results was also a notable feature of October's developments in the district's oil industry. As compared with September results there was an increase in the number of wells, in the number of producers, in the combined initial flow of new wells and an improvement in the ratio of producers to failures.

A falling off in lumber milling activities during the four-week period ending October 29, as compared with the previous month, is reflected in the operation statistics of the eleventh district mills reporting to the Southern Pine association. Unfilled orders on the books of the reporting mills on October 29 amounted to 43,101,652 feet, which is equivalent to slightly more than two weeks' normal production. During the month of October there was a decrease of 4.4 per cent in the volume of loans made by the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas to its member banks. Eleventh district paper held by other federal reserve banks, which amounted to $38,036,352 at the close of September, had decreased to $32,828,033 on October 30.

APPELL CLUB TO MAKE FIGHT ON FAKE SALES

Tending toward the elimination of false advertising and profiteering, which is alleged to exist among a number of local retail dry goods and clothing stores, a proposition which calls for the creation of a directorate sub-division of the Ranger Apparel club, with power to take such action as is necessary for the realization of its endeavors, was laid before a meeting of that organization at 8 o'clock last night at the Alexander store.

The fixing of a sliding scale of minimum and maximum profits, correct representation of goods in advertising, the elimination of fake bankrupt and fire sales, and co-operative opening, spring and fall sales are several of the objectives of the directorate.

It was pointed out that flagrant misrepresentation of their goods by a number of the merchants during the oil boom had hurt the town to a large extent and that those merchants who are still here and who intend to remain wish to regain the confidence of the people by honest, systematic and business-like methods.

Poet's Wife Let Babes Go Hungry, Is Court Charge

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Donald Evans, wife of a well-known poet whose writings have often delighted Greenwich Village and other centers of "bohemianism," was arraigned before Justice Hoyt in children's court yesterday morning charged with neglect of her 3-year-old daughter Anne and her 6-months-old son Donald.

The Evanses are well above the average in circumstances and occupy a well furnished seven-room apartment at 39 East 10th street, as well as owning an automobile. Yet the testimony showed that their children were constantly neglected, and were suffering, when rescued by agents of the S. P. C. C., from malnutrition, eczema and other complaints. They were in such a condition that they had to be taken to Bellevue hospital for treatment.

The attention of the children's society was called to the case Tuesday night by neighbors in the Tenth street

SPIRAL PUTTEES ADORN LIMBS OF SOUTHERN BELLES

Society girls of Wheeling, W. Va., are setting a pace for Dame Fashion. Bare legs, painted legs, gauzy nothings and other freak "leg wear" have all been taken up by America's modern girls. But it remained for the ultra-exclusive Wheeling buds to institute a new "leg gear," the "spiral puttee" hose. The spiral puttees are the same as those worn by our soldiers during the war. They are easy to keep on, keep the limbs warm and fit snugly all around. They come in all colors. The photo shows a modern girl putting on her puttee-hose.

apartment house. Agent Schiapelli went there and found the door locked, but from the outside he could hear the youngsters crying. He had the superintendent open the door. The children were in a deplorable condition, he testified. They were hungry, unclean, and the little limbs were red, as though from scalds. No fresh air was entering the place. He had them sent immediately to the hospital and left a note for Mrs. Evans informing her

So she retired without further investigation. When Mrs. Evans later was arraigned Agent Schiapelli and Miss Aline Smith, a resident of the Tenth street house, were the witnesses. Miss Smith said the Evanses' neglect of the babies was continuous. "I frequently heard them crying and tried to get into their home to help them, but it was always locked," she said.

Mrs. Evans wept when she took the stand, and said her only excuse for the neglect—which she admitted—was that she was "without experience concerning babies." She said she had been raised in a boarding school, after her parents' death, with a Philadelphia trust company as her guardian. She eloped with the poet in 1916.

Justice Hoyt put over the case until the circumstances might be made.

Donald Evans wrote, among other things, "Ironia," "Sonnets from the Patagonian," "Two Deaths in the Bronx," and "Nine Poems from a Valetudinarian." He is a native of Philadelphia and has edited several minor magazines. At present he is engaged on the unromantic Daily Garment News.

COUNTY MEDICS HOLD NEXT MEET IN RANGER

Eastland county physicians, at a meeting held in Cisco Tuesday, accepted the invitation of the Ranger medical society to hold the next meeting of the county medical association in Ranger, about the first of February. Ranger physicians in attendance were Harry Farmer, A. K. Weir, W. J. Jackson and C. H. Ray.

what had become of them. He learned from neighbors that the mother had left the house in the early morning and had been gone all day. She had stopped in for a few minutes in the evening, then had departed again. Yesterday Mrs. Evans appeared at the offices of the S. P. C. A., and said she had just got the note left by the agent. She returned home at 2 a. m., she said and not noticing the children about thought they had "put themselves to bed."

MEN WORK WAY FROM STREET FORCE TO JOB

Fourteen men are at work today in the city street force. They are all working out fines for various offenses. The majority however, are guilty of riding a freight train into the city, instead of out.

During the past few days the force has cleaned much of the mud from the paved area. It is piled up and a wagon provided to haul it away.

Several of the men who have been placed on the street force have been found jobs by the police and placed at work. An effort will be made to place as many of the number as possible in this manner. In the gang today are several "mule skinner" as well as other classes of workmen. The city would be glad to turn them over to any one who is needing help they can supply.

The cost of a modern battleship of the United States navy is about $32,000,000. Of this amount $21,000,000 is for machinery.

GROWTH OF SHRINE CLUB WARRANTS BELIEF TEMPLE IS POSSIBLE

At a meeting of the local Shrine club last night thirty-nine novices were put over the hot sands, bringing the total membership of the club to 148, since the organization of the club April 21 of this year.

Among business transacted was the completion of arrangements for a dance to be held Dec. 8, and the outlining of a Christmas charity program, upon which committees were appointed. The remarkable growth of the club justifies the belief of its members that their number will soon warrant a temple.

RED CROSS SCHOOL. By Associated Press DENISON, Texas, Dec. 2.—Establishment of an Americanization school by the North Grayson chapter of the American Red Cross in this city has proved a most successful venture, according to those in charge. The school was established in the vicinity of the local Mexican colony where classes are held three nights a week. More than fifty Mexicans have been admitted to the classes, the older Mexicans appearing as anxious to learn the ways and languages of their adopted country as their sons and daughters.

Members of the faculty of the Denison public schools donate their services. The English language, an elementary course in civil government and geography are taught.

Mary Mears wrote the story of three women and one man which has been made into the movie called "The Forbidden Thing."

DENMARK IMPORTING MUCH AMERICAN COAL

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 2.—There has been a steady increase of imports of American coal to Denmark throughout the year. This has been a dominant factor in the coal market here. Beginning in January with a few hundred tons, the American coal imports in September reached 274,390 tons. Meaning in January with a few hundred tons while imports from Great Britain fell during the summer to about 85,000 tons but rose in September to 164,000 tons. Little coal was imported from Germany and this entirely stopped in October.

At present it is understood that Denmark is not buying much coal from any source since she has enough in hand for the time being and the rate of exchange is adverse.

Some Danish coal dealers say that the quality of American coal has been so good as to compensate for the higher freight rates as compared to coal imported from Great Britain, but that this quality of late has fallen off.

Recently Denmark has supplemented her imports from America by bringing coal from China for use of the Danish railways. The price of Chinese coal is said to be considerably less than either American or British.

WOMAN SINN FEIN LEADER IS CHARGED WITH SEDITION

DUBLIN, Dec. 2.—Countess Markievicz, prominent Sinn Fein leader, who was recently elected to Parliament and refused to take her seat, has been arrested in that city on a charge of sedition and will be formally arraigned in court tomorrow morning, it was announced at the Dublin headquarters today.
