Fats and Leans to Do Battle Sunday at Municipal Park

Ranger goes on the road Sunday and as a succeeding attraction, Joe Harness of Texas Drug and Ralph Stockman of the Stockman Insurance company, will offer an extravaganza, burlesque fare tragedy in nine scenes, entitled "Baseball as the game should not be played."

Nominally the game will be the Fats vs. the Leans, and Joe will head one of the aggregation and Ralph the other. Two guesses as to which is which.

Both camps are in strenucus training already, though the idea for the great holocause. as Lardner 8 .73, was only corn this we rning Though the baseball played may not be the best, the cause will certainly beall funds to go to the new roof for the grandstand. Funds for the stand have been coming in slowly and it is expected to bring in enough by a contest of leading Ranger business men, bankers and oil operators to finish it up.

Few Pitchers Gain Laurels of "Not a Hit"

International News Service. NE WYORK, May 11.-No-hit games in the major leagues are not as common

The hitless pitching performance, in fact, pops up very seldom in any class of baseball company and many a pitcher comes and goes without realizing the ambition of every pitcher who ever drew on a glove—to pitch a no-hit game. With the new pitching rules in force and freak deliveries under the ban, it is vs. Chicago, June 13.

Papin of France to Meeta Tendler in Ring Tonight

By JACK VEIOCK, International News Sporting Editor. NEW YORK, May 12.—Georges Palightweight champion of France, and Lew Tender, the Philadelphia "south-paw" boxer, will stage the first important twelve-round boxing contest held in his section of the country in years when they meet tonight in Jersey City.

The recent amendment to the New Jer ef boxing law, extending the limit o outs from eight to twelve rounds has greatly stimulated interest in the game of fisticuffs and because of the prominence of Papin and the status of Tendler in American lightweight circles tonight's bout is expected to attract a record-breaking crowd. Papin arrived here recently from France to seek battles with the best sales manager wanted for Ranger. Trade already established. Interest in the bantamweight division has also picked up of late.

The matching of champion Pete Heran and Joe Lynch for a twelve-roun championship battle at Lawrence, Mass May 29, has brought the "banties" back into the spotlight.
