INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Russian Soviet government has opened a new offensive in Persia, according to a Central News agency dispatch received here. It says:

WINTER'S OVER.

"Some say he do" and some say "He don't," but the office dictionary after being consulted states in clear and indisputable language that when Mr. Groundhog comes out today and does not see his shadow he will stay out and the winter is over.

Chief Reynolds the following morning and entered on the police blotter as a vagrancy fine.

Wouldn't Sign Complaint.
In his statement, Reynolds declared that he had asked Mrs. Weir and others to sign a complaint charging Rissick with theft for taking his wife's money but they would not, saying that they did not want to cause him any trouble. They only wanted the woman to have her money back, since they knew she had worked for it. He declared he could not return it to them, when so requested, because it had been taken from the man at the time of his arrest and would have to be returned to him when released.

After reaching Cisco, Mrs. Rissick wired Mrs. Weir that she could not get her husband's tools, or watch or the $50 and that her husband was in the hospital.

Mrs. Weir said she with Mrs. Clai-borne and Mrs. McCombs went to Cisco to see her and when she came back the tools and watch were returned to her with the bottle of whisky but she would not accept the latter. Chief Cooper explained that he had found the timepiece in a torn envelope on his desk the next morning and that the department had the right to confiscate the tools, since liquor had been found in them. How the whisky came there was never explained.

Detective Rust asserted that beyond striking the man when he said he had been a German soldier, he had only carried out his instructions, in sending the people out of town, and the money retained went into the city funds.

Had Woman's Aid.
The evidence showed that the detective had a woman companion with him in his car during the night, but he defended himself on the grounds that he had a foreign woman to handle who could barely speak English and had asked the woman to help him. He denied that she was not a nice woman and also denied that she had a gun. The statement of the Russian woman was that she did have a gun. Rust said his companion in cases had helped him before that time.

Mayor Hagaman in summing up the situation declared that it appeared that the whole matter was one that should have been settled by the police in five minutes at the time of its inception, but since it had not been settled he believed that the man was entitled to the return of his money because he had been punished enough.

Police Have Problems.
He also said that the police had problems to settle that was not understood by the outsiders, yet he was certain that Mrs. Weir and her companion were acting in good faith.

Mrs. Weir declared that both the Russian and his wife had been very nice since she had known them and that she had treated the woman like a sister, she thought so much of her.

SCHOOLS WILL BRING MANY OLD-TIMERS BACK, W. L. McCLESKEY SAYS

W. L. McCleskey, a member of the pioneer Ranger family, is here today looking after business interests. Mr. McCleskey and two brothers now reside in Weatherford. However, they retain nearly all their property interests here and still regard Ranger as home, he said.

Poor school facilities attending the boom caused the family to move, and he as well as a considerable number of Ranger families located in Weatherford on account of the excellence of that city's schools. These old-timers are watching Ranger's program of better schools with interest, he continued, and it is highly probable that a number of them, including himself, will move back here now that the school system has been put on an established basis.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE LAW'S REPEAL WILL BE FOUGHT BY LAWYERS

International News Service.
AUSTIN, Feb. 2.—Governor Neff's recommendation to the legislature that the suspended sentence law be repealed is expected to bring forth a storm of protest from many parts of Texas, mostly however, from criminal lawyers.

Before the governor made his recommendation he obtained statistics from many counties which showed that thousands of persons have been given their freedom on felony charges since the law was passed in 1913. It is expected that some of the legislators will favor amending the law so that it would apply only to persons under 21 years of age. However, this amendment is sure to meet stiff opposition as advocates of the complete repeal declare that youths 19 to 20 years of age in many instances are leaders in the "crime wave" that has struck Texas.

WOULD SUPPRESS CRIME.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 2.—District attorney Brown today declared that the abolition of the suspended sentence law "would do more to suppress crime in Texas than anything I know of." He commended Governor Neff's action in advocating the repeal of the law.

War Department expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, were $1,002,100,850.02.

LADIES! HERE ARE SPRING AND SUMMER STYLES

By Associated Press

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Overskirts ruffled and scalloped, caught up at one side, hanging straight to within a few inches of the hem of the skirt, but more often following the lines of an old-fashioned apron; and sashes with butterfly bows, sashes with long fringed or tasseled ends, narrow sashes, and broad soft sashes of one or more contrasting colors; make the dominant note of the gowns to be shown at the spring and summer fashion show to be held here on Feb. 9 to 19 by the Chicago Garment Manufacturers' association, the Wholesale Milliners' association of Chicago and the Chicago Furriers' association.

The overskirt is especially in evidence in the little all-day frocks which will be shown in great numbers. They come in taffeta, crepe de chine, and canton crepe, and the prevailing colors are brown, grey, black and navy blue. Skirts are short, some as much as fourteen inches from the ground, sleeves stop at the elbow and necks either are round or V-shape with an occasional lace collar.

A grey canton crepe is made with a slightly bloused bodice, and a skirt trimmed with diagonal bands that fall in points around the bottom.

A black taffeta shows the little basque effect with a very full overskirt banded above the hem with a dozen rows of narrow white soutache braid which is repeated on the elbow sleeves.

A grey crepe de chine has a scalloped apron overskirt with a bloused bodice, and a little bunch of French flowers finishing the soft girdle.

A navy blue taffeta has a plain bodice, elbow sleeves and an apron overskirt of elaborate eyellet embroidery.

A grey canton crepe has an overskirt draped up on one side under a huge sash bow.

One brown canton crepe defies the insistent overskirt and sash. It has a little bloused bodice and a short skirt that hangs in perfectly straight lines with a narrow edge of brilliant henna around the hem, the belt, the sleeves and the collar.

Street suits to be seen have short skirts—either very narrow, or flaring almost to circular. Most of the coats are arm-length with a high waist line. Box coats will be shown only a few inches below the waist line in length. Girdles and narrow belts show many fringed and tasseled ends. One tan colored suit of polka-dot twill has the coat slit over the hips on both sides and laced with tasseled finished cords.

BUSINESS WOMEN WON'T STAGE PLAY; PLAN BIG PARTY AND ATHLETICS

The Business Women's club will hold its first party on Monday evening, Feb. 14, it was decided last night at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. It will be a Valentine affair and much pleasure is promised to the lucky youths and husbands who are given an opportunity to attend. This first entertainment of the organization will be a card party, poker and galloping dominoes served. A dance is planned for a later date.

The physical culture department will begin activities in the basement of the First Methodist church tomorrow evening, under the direction of Mrs. Cauffield. Regular work at setting up exercises will be staged every Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Inability to obtain the Majestic theatre on the nights desired forced the club to abandon plans for the home talent play, in which considerable interest had been aroused.

PARAMOUNT HOTEL LOWERS ROOM PRICES

To boost along the falling prices, the Paramount hotel has cut its daily rates for room rent from $3 to $2.50. The cut was effective Monday and made in the face of the coming convention next week, when it is certain that every available sleeping place will be utilized.

BEAUTY DISPENSER SAYS MEN BECOMING MORE EFFEMINATE

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—American men are:

- Roughing their faces.
- Using lip sticks.
- Shaving their eyebrows.
- "Permanently" waving their hair.
- Wearing corsets.
- Carrying lace handkerchiefs.
- Pinking their earlobes.
- Reading their eyelashes.

This from no less an authority than Sidney Brooks, who has charge of the beauty parlors in the Waldorf-Astoria and who formerly was court dresser in the czar's palace in Petrograd.

"The tendency of men to make themselves 'beautiful' has been growing for the last several months and now fully 20 per cent of my patrons are of what used to be the sterner sex," Brooks said Thursday.

"Men apparently are becoming more effeminate in just the ratio that women are becoming more masculine. Everyone knows the rapidly with which women are bobbing their hair, taking up smoking and entering male occupations."

CINCINNATI'S 'GOLDEN RULE' FACTORY DOES BIGGER BUSINESS DESPITE FINANCIAL SLUMP

By Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2.—Since employees of the A. Nash Co., a manufacturing concern of this city, voted to take a voluntary vacation if necessary to avert work to unemployed, there have been further developments in this business which is being run on the Golden Rule basis. Mr. Nash outlined today these recent steps:

"Employees of the Cincinnati factory have bought into ownership to the extent of $50,000 since opportunity was given them in January.

"Employees are so much interested in the Golden Rule that they conducted a service in the Cincinnati People's church in January.

"Arrangements have been made to conduct classes in business management and economics for employees.

"Business has expanded so much since employees presented their petition proposing they take a vacation that a new shop has been opened.

"This growth has employed a large number of men out of work and with the reopening of activity for the spring, the need of Nash employees stepping out to make room temporarily for others has passed."

Mr. Nash said he had salesmen in many other cities and that the goods of the firm were sent to nearly every state in the Union.

Not Interested in Money.

"I am not interested in this business simply from the standpoint of production but from seeing what results can be obtained when everybody works from the basis of doing to others as he would have done by," Mr. Nash said. "I am not interested in making money. I have already more than I ever dreamed of having. In fact I am worried about the money, for I have seen too many crimes committed under the shadow of great wealth."

"That the Golden Rule pays in the operation of a business I think has been demonstrated in ours.

"No other manufacturer can produce the results that our workers do, when they know they are working for themselves and for the good of others around them.

"Increased output of course would not count and we would have broken up if we had not had the business. But the Golden Rule works right there too. It has gotten us the business. Through the period of depression as well as through the period of high prices we have kept right on growing.

Owned by Workers.
"Incidentally we have written into the charter of the Chattanooga factory that it shall be co-owned by the workers. The men who subscribed stock I insisted should give themselves in a measure to the work."

"We have treated our customers as we would be treated. So the chain of the operation of the Golden Rule has completed itself."

Mr. Nash was ordained a minister, but after a short experience in this field gave it up abruptly and took to labor at whatever he could find to do. For a time he carried load.

LAMB.

"Cinderella's Twin," the Metro special production which comes to the Lamb the afternoon for a run of two days as the feature attraction, has the double distinction of having been written by the well-known Luther Reed and scenario used by him.

It has been described by a critic who saw it as "a wonderful picture having the Cinderella motive with a satisfying reasoning of laudable humor, whimsicality, charm and thrilling romance."

Viola Dana has the stellar role of the little queen of the kitchen who accidentally finds herself gazing on the prince charming of her day dreams. The scullery maid is whisked into a dazzling party by a gang of notorious jewel thieves, as their catnap. She drops a slipper containing the key to a safe and brings on the catastrophe.

As in the tale of the original Cinderella, so in the screen romance, it is necessary to fit the slipper to just that irration of hair that permits the wearer to spill it into the path of the oncoming Prince Charming at the psychological moment. This is one of the climaxes of the picture.

The cast includes Wallace MacDonald as Prentice Blue; Ruth Stonehouse, Edward Connelly, Edward Cecil, Gertrude Short, Irene Hunt, Victory Bateman, Gilbert Clayton and Calvert Carter. The picture was directed by Dallas M. Fitzgerald under personal supervision of Bayard Veiller, Metro's director of production.

MAJESTIC.

Thomas W. Lawson, who stirred the country with his "Frenzied Finance," a few years ago, turned his pen to fiction and wrote a story of Wall Street, calling it "Friday, the 13th." Some points of the story have been taken, together with the title, for this screen production and it makes a mighty interesting evening's entertainment. Director Emilie Chentard has given the picture a most elaborate production and has exerted great care in the settings. Views of Wall Street, "The avenue with a grave yard at one end and the river at the other," are shown before it goes into the story. It is absorbing, fast moving and ends with an unusually strong climax. The work of Robert Warwick, as a young Wall street broker, stands out strong and convincing and he is accorded excellent support by Gerda Holmes, as Beulah Sands, his secretary. Playing at the Majestic today and Thursday.

LIBERTY.

Olive Thomas in a "baby vamp" role that made her famous is promised in "The Flapper," a delightful Selznick comedy, which is to be shown at the Liberty theatre today only.

"The Flapper" is just another "Seventeen." And you remember that "Seventeen" was a Booth Tarkington story that painted the first faithful picture of a boy suffering his first romance. "The Flapper" had been raised in a very strict atmosphere and she longed for the jazzy climate of the wild and wicked world.

So she is sent to a boarding school. Her pose as a woman of the world went over big with her schoolmates. Her ambitions to be wild led her into a flock of scrapes, which reached a climax in a robbery mystery and a thrilling episode.

Olive Thomas has never had a role that fitted her so neatly perfectly. The direction at the hands of Alan Crosland has made of the Frances Marion story a most entertaining photoplay.

TEMPLE.

There have been chorus girls and chorus girls depicted on the screen, and invariably they have been of the same type—beautiful, seductive creatures, gowned in the latest Parisian fashion, leading a prize dog on the leash, with a host of millionaires ever at their feet clamoring to give them all their hearts desire. Constance Binney creates a new type of chorus girl in her portrayal of Penelope Penn in "39 East," the Rachel Crother play shown in picture form today only at the Temple theatre.

Miss Binney, delightfully herself, sweet and demure, portrays the role of a daughter of a poor minister, who has been

He dug up in a careful though old-fashioned manner, and goes to the city to make her fortune. Contrary to the story of most chorus girls, it was only after he failed to obtain other employment that she was forced to enroll in a concert choir training in the ranks of the chorus, however association with the soft accented "gold diggers" of the chorus did not taint Penelope, and even when she became a premiere danseuse she remained a sweet and wholesome girl.

John S. Robertson of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" fame directed the production. Reginald Denny is the leading man.

CHRISTIAN UNITY IS CONFERENCE AIM

By Associated Press. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 2.—The first of a series of inter-denominational conferences, looking toward unification of all Christian denominations, will open here today, with prominent churchmen present from various sections of the country.

Similar conferences are scheduled to be held at Dallas, Texas, Feb. 5 to 7, and at Cleveland and Baltimore, respectively in Easter week.

Methods of effecting harmony and cooperation among the Christian sects, will be the paramount issue before all the conferences, according to the Rt. Rev. F. F. Johnson of this city, coadjutor bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri, chairman of the arrangements committee.

"If he accepted," Bishop Johnson explained, "that the conference will issue a strong appeal to the churches of America for cooperation and unity of fellowship, with ultimate union of all denominations as the end to be desired and gained."

The conference was called by the association for the Promotion of Christian Unity, the president of which is the Rev. Peter Ainslie of Baltimore.

The death of the cruellest, the most sagacious and most successful animal outlaw the range country has ever known was announced with a sigh of relief by the department of agriculture Friday.

YOUTH CHARGED WITH MURDER WILL BE DEFENDED BY WOMAN

Written by Margery Rex, for the International News Service. NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—For the first time in the state of New Jersey a woman will help defend a man on trial for his life. Mrs. Augusta E. Maley, of Hackensack will be one of the counsel for defense when William Gleason comes to trial for murder within the next three weeks. The first woman of Hackensack to practice law, she is also the first woman in her state to try a criminal case. A jury of men will hear the testimony. But a woman will question their fitness to pass upon that testimony before she permits them to attain a place in the jury box.

through and passed the bar examination as soon as it could be done," interposed her proud husband. "Although I do not consider criminal practice the proper field for a woman in this case," said Mrs. Maley. "My husband will be counsel for the Gleason boy, but I have prepared the case for him and will help in the trial. Just how I can't say yet. Developments will decide that for me."

"I Was On the Verge of a Complete Breakdown," Says Bryant—Tanlac Overcomes Troubles. Harry L. Bryant, of 1226 Montgal Ave., Kansas City, Mo., receiving clerk for the John T. Taylor Dry Goods Co., is still another who has cause to be glad that he was induced to give Tanlac an honest trial. In relating his experience with the medicine recently Mr. Bryant says: "Tanlac has a good chance in my case to show what it can do. Why, before I got hold of the medicine my liver was all out of order. I had no appetite and my stomach gave me no end of trouble. The little I did manage to eat wouldn't digest properly but seemed to lump together in my stomach, causing me terrible dis-

Any information leading to her recovery will be rewarded by a good drink of whiskey. A. F. Deem, supervisor. Next day Supervisor Deem was looking over a dozen heifers brought in by farmers all claiming to have found the lost animal. All were willing to swap a heifer for a drink. Deem finally located his heifer in the night. It had been found by H. C. Sweet, who lives a short distance east of Galva. Sweet's wife objected to his collecting the reward. During the past year 27,371 deaths occurred to veterans of the Civil war.

HOLDS RECORD FOR ENDURANCE AT TYPEWRITER—Other typists have speed records, but Agnes K. Clay, a New York typist, adds to that record of volume and endurance. For she is responsible for the typing of the 127,000,000 words in the million copies of a recent month's issue of a magazine. Miss Clay became speedy and accurate to relieve the humdrum of every day mechanical typing, and is willing to meet other New York typists in an endurance test, except that she is too busy to think much about contests. Miss Clay is shown with some of those billion copies behind her.

NURSES CLAMOR TO URGE VOTE FOR SOLDIERS' AID—At a meeting of the war nurses, all of whom had seen service overseas, in Chicago recently, the Government compensation for veterans of the World War was heartily endorsed. Miss Marion Levin, commander of an American post of war nurses, is shown collecting votes on soldiers' compensation.

They were all of one mind—for the bonus. When the war nurses who had formed an American Legion post in a little town, Mar-sur-Allier, came back, they didn't forget the men whom they had seen fight and suffer there. When they met in Chicago they took a ballot and voted a resolution indorsing the adjusted compensation for ex-service men.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON CHARGED WITH ATTACKING YOUNG GIRLS IN CHICAGO PARK DENIES IT

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Women and girls who have been accosted or attacked by strange men in the vicinity of Lincoln park were summoned to the detective bureau Friday to confront Herbert Prentice Crane, Jr., 37 years old, Yale graduate and son of Herbert P. Crane, Chicago millionaire, who is held on a charge of annoying two young girls. Police believe that many recent attacks on women will be cleared up by the arrest of Crane.

Although detectives declared that Crane confessed attacking Louise Sturm, a 13-year-old girl, in Lincoln park, the prisoner strenuously denied the charge Friday.

"I can prove I was not in the park that night," he said.

The detectives said he confessed after identification of him by the Sturm girl and by Marie Fisher, companion of Miss Sturm, as the man who attacked her.

The attack on the Sturm girl took place at dusk Wednesday evening as she and Miss Fisher were passing the Grant monument. Her assailant struck her in the face, knocking out a tooth, and then threw her to the ground. Her screams and those of Miss Fisher attracted passersby and her assailant fled.

Crane was arrested in his apartment near the park after the Sturm girl had identified his photograph as that of her assailant.

Crane brought suit about a year ago against his father for an accounting of the inheritance left him by his mother. The suit still is pending. Herbert P. Crane, his father, recently was divorced from his young Costa Rican bride, Elida Piza Crane, who obtained $100,000 in alimony.

Wife of Hal Chase Granted Divorce; Alleged Desertion

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Anna M. Chase, 3947 Warwick avenue, was granted a divorce from Harold Chase, known to thousands of baseball fans as "Hal" Chase, in domestic relations court on the allegation of gross neglect. Chase is said to be in California. He offered no defense to the suit. During the hearing before Judge Stanley Matthews, the story of Chase's alleged gambling on ball games was retold. Mrs. Chase alleged that, because of his gambling, he was unable to support her properly at times. She also alleged that he associated with another woman who lived at Port Chester, N. Y. A letter which she charged was written by the other woman was introduced in evidence. It was signed "Billy" and contained the admonition "Don't fail to destroy this." This writer begged Chase to "think of me often. I'm just awfully loving for you." She addressed Chase in terms of endearment. Mrs. Chase said that other women also had associated with her husband. She charged that when Chase was earning $10,000 a year as first baseman of the Cincinnati Reds he had his copy of the contract altered to make her believe his salary was but $7,000. When he was transferred to the New York Giants, she said, he had a copy of a contract calling for $7,000, but told her he was only getting $6,000. The American soldier has finally become a curiosity in Belgium, England and France.

J. CAESAR AND WILD WEST NOVELS FAVORITE BOOKS OF DOUGHBOYS ON RHINE

COBLENZ, Feb. 2.—Tales of adventure in the American West are the favorite reading matter of the American troops in Germany and Zane Grey is the most popular author. Strangely enough, Julius Caesar runs a close second with the doughboys, who are very keen about translations of Caesar's Gallic wars. This is due to Caesar's activities in the Rhine valley and the ruins of a bridge he built across the Rhine, which lifts Caesar's work out of a book and into the lives of the American boys back nearly 2,000 years. Books which describe the legends centering about the Rhine are also popular, especially with the soldiers who are musically inclined and attend the Wagnerian performance given by the various German grand opera companies which play in Cologne, Coblenz, Wiesbaden and the other cities near the Rhine frequented by soldiers on leave. Like Adventure. All story magazines which specialize in the American West are the favorite reading matter of the American troops in Germany and Zane Grey is the most popular author.

CATTLE NECESSARY FOR SUCCESSFUL FARMING

By Associated Press. FORT WORTH, Feb. 2.—Asserting that successful agriculture depends largely upon livestock farming, Dr. H. Grafke, inspector in charge of the Texas division of the United States bureau of animal industry, said that the Texas fever tick is the cause of the state's "fallure in the greatest industry in the world." He urged that more attention be given to the eradication of the tick among cattle and that sufficient funds be spent to make the eradication complete and effective. Bankers and business men in the tick infested counties of Texas "would rejoice themselves and their section of the state a valuable service" if they would discuss and encourage tick eradication, Dr. Grafke said. He cited the prosperity in the northern states where the farmers own a few milk cows and market dairy products and a few beeves every year under conditions less favorable than in Texas and declared that the cattle tick is largely responsible for the present condition in this state. The cattle tick, he said, transmits Texas fever, which kills thousands of cattle annually, abstracts the nourishing blood from the cattle, retarding growth and production of milk and beef and prevents the introduction of better livestock into the country without almost prohibitive cost and considerable loss from artificial inoculation.

MOONSHINERS FIGHT AGENTS WHEN STILL RAIDED IN N. Y. CITY

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Fighting their way into a fifth floor tenement room in City Hall place early Friday, police discovered an elaborately equipped moonshine still, a rack of shotguns and many rounds of ammunition.

When the police broke down the door they were attacked by three men. The three were subdued after a thirty-minute fight and arrested, charged with operating a still in violation of the liquor law.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 2.—A total of 9,401 illicit stills were seized and 5,328 arrests were made during the year 1920 in the southern prohibition district, which comprises the states of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee, according to figures made public Friday by S. R. Drane, supervising agent of the district. Of the arrests, Kentucky had 1,182.

Prosecutions, the report said, resulted in fines aggregating $228,585, and imprisonments totaling 2,378 months. Carriers of illicit whisky confiscated included 309 automobiles, eight boats, sixty-six vehicles, ninety-three horses and mules and one house.

'JAZZ IS DEAD,' LONDON DANCING MASTER SAYS

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The "jazz" is dead in London, says P. J. S. Hiccupson, one of the foremost English authorities on dancing. He declares that no "new" dances will be popularized this year, but the fox-trot, one-step and tango, which have held international interest for two or three seasons, will be standardized.

"Previously those taught the same dances by different teachers found themselves hopelessly at sea when they tried to dance together," he said. "Thorough standardization, on which the majority of dancing instructors in London have now agreed, a common framework in the steps will be insured without eliminating all chance of introducing individual variations. Freakish and eccentric "light gymnastic" such as exaggerated forms of "jazz" are rapidly passing out."

"PATRIOTIC" DRY OBEDIENCE URGED IN BAY STATE

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—An appeal to Governor Cox and the members of the legislature to take steps to bring Massachusetts "into patriotic and harmonious relation to the Eighteenth Amendment," is made by the Massachusetts Total Abstinence society in a letter to the governor today.

The letter also urges legislation providing for strict enforcement of the Volstead act.
