to a fortune of $1,000,000, for which his father, Llewellyn B. Reakirt, Cincinnati capitalist and real estate owner, agreed to make provision for him in his will der the alimony decree entered by Common Pleas Judge John A. Caldwell when his mother, Mrs. Anne Howard Reakirt, was granted a divorce March 21, 1906. In deliberately signing away his rights in a claim against his father's estate the young heir's motive is defined by his father's attorney, Milton Sayler, to be simply a desire to aid his father, for whom he has the deepest affection, and to enable the Cincinnati capitalist and club-man to handle properties of the immense

Rebkirt estate to better advantage. Through his act young Reakirt lifts a cloud which is alleged to have hung over his father's real estate holdings ever since the divorce decree was entered, nearly fifteen years ago. To carry out the young man's desires Attorney Sayler, representing L. B. Reakirt, applied to Judge C. W. Heffman, in domestic relations court, and the divorce decree was modified so as to eliminate the $1,000,000 provision

A MESSAGE TO EVERY MAN WOMAN AND CHILD

Thursday without a doubt proved that the people of Ranger mean business. They were out there by the thousands—working and sweating from early morning until the sun went down. The look of determination on their faces reflected their interest.

That was just a starter of the work that we must do. Let's don't slow up. Keep up enthusiasm and confidence. Good roads through the oil fields mean business and prosperity for Ranger. THE BUYING POWER OF THE OIL FIELDS IS GREAT, RANGER MUST HAVE HER SHARE OF IT—GOOD ROADS WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE.

Remember this is a Ranger movement, supported by Ranger people. It must succeed. Rangerites have never started anything but what they have finished it. The people of other cities have their eyes on us, wondering if we are going to put it across. Are we? Sure we are!

Further improvement depends upon proceeding on business-like principles, backed by CASH. Are you with us there, as you were with your manual labor Thursday?
