PARIS EDITOR WILL MAKE RACE AGAINST NEFF

Neglect of Schools By Present Administration His Main Plank.

PARIS, Texas, June 5.—Editor T. Warner, editor of the Paris Morning News, will today file his application with the secretary of the state Democratic committee as a candidate for governor.

Mr. Warner was for many years managing editor of the Houston Post prior to removing to Paris, where he took charge of the Paris Morning News. He is one of the best known newspaper men of Texas.

In a preliminary statement, Mr. Warner says in part:

"I have been hopeful that Judge Napier or some other strong candidate with time to do so would make an active canvass against Governor Neff for a second term and am most regretful that Judge Napier has been compelled to withdraw. I shall be able to make only a very partial canvass, of course. Considering the plight of the schools of Texas—city and rural—I shall devote myself principally to that matter. But I am also of decided opinion that Governor Neff has fallen far short in many other matters and that he is lacking in the moral courage which should be possessed by the executive of Texas.

Plight of the Schools.

"The plight of the schools of the state, is most pitiful and yet the governor, with petitions, letters, telegrams and memorials piled high upon his desk (unless he has thrown them into the waste basket), delays in calling a special session of the legislature, the only thing which may be legally done, to find a remedy for the situation."

VALENTINO IS LIBERATED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—Rudolph Valentino, screen actor, whose principal roles has been that of hero in love affairs and who was charged with bigamy, was liberated of the felony charge today following a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Handley, on the grounds that the evidence against him was insufficient to warrant holding him.

The dismissal of the case followed three days of testimony on Valentino's marriage to Miss Winifred Hudnut in Mexicali and the honeymoon of the couple at Palm Springs, a desert oasis.

COMPLAINT IS FILED AGAINST STEEL MERGER

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The federal trade commission has issued a formal complaint against the Bethlehem Steel corporation and the Lackawanna Steel company, charging that they have been and are about to violate the laws against the use of unfair competition. This complaint grows out of the merger recently effected by the two companies. The commission made this announcement today in reply to the senate in response to a recently adopted resolution by Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, directing inquiry into the merger by the commerce and justice departments.

The commission stated it had the recent steel combine under observation prior to the senate action on the LaFollette resolution and had closely followed the efforts along that line. It has reason to believe that the Bethlehem-Lackawanna merger when consummated will constitute unfair competition and hindering commerce, and in this respect is against the public interest.

COX TRIAL TAKES DAY OFF.

By United Press.

HOUSTON, June 5.—The federal court trying S. E. J. Cox on a charge of using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of stock in his three companies recessed today while Judge J. C. Hutchinson is attending court in Galveston.

The defense counsel spent the day in making systematic arrangement of its testimony to be presented when the prosecution closes its case at noon tomorrow.

THE WEATHER.

West Texas—Tonight cloudy, showers except in southwest portion. Tuesday generally fair.

CHAMPION PAPA HAS 33RD AT 84

By United Press.

HARLAN, Ky., June 5.—Robert Baker, 84, today claimed to be the world's champion papa.

Rattling along his milk route in a two-lunged bus, Baker announced to customers that his thirty-third child would not interfere with the daily milk deliveries.

"Mrs. Baker is getting along nicely," he said. "Little Bobby's face is just as red as those of his thirty-two brothers and sisters and he yells louder."

Bobby is the eighth child born to the couple within the last twelve years. The other twenty-five were borne Baker by his six other wives. Mrs. Baker is 35. "And I am really no older than she except in years," Baker said. "If I didn't feel like a 35-year-old we wouldn't be so happy together." The other twenty-five children are all "farmed out" except those who have families of their own.

LAW PROVIDES 'CURRENT WAGES' FOR ROAD WORK, LABORERS TOLD

Laborers on the county roads must be paid "current wages" for eight hours work under the law, according to the statement made before the open meeting of the Laboringmen's union yesterday afternoon by one of the candidates for county offices, who backed up his assertion by citing and reading the statute. It was the opinion of many present that "current wages" in this section could be only arrived at by the wages paid for common labor by the oil companies, as the oil industry is the main one in this territory.

Eleven of the candidates for county attorney, sheriff, county judge, constable and justice of the peace, were present at the meeting as invited guests and made ten-minute talks. They included W. J. Barnes, L. H. Floweren and Green Hazel. Candidates for county attorney: Wiley Harford, Ed Pritchard, candidate for sheriff: P. P. Palmer and W. H. Blankenship, candidates for constable, and Justice of the Peace Fenlaw, candidate for re-election.

All of the candidates expressed their appreciation for the privilege of attending the meeting and promised their moral and other support to the cause of the organization seeking fair wages for Eastland county laborers. Following the announcement that many laborers wished to join the organization but were not able to pay the $2 fee, one candidate for constable donated $10 to pay the dues of five men without funds. All but one of the candidates informed the meeting that they were born on farms, the remaining one contended he had the usual political qualification, having worked as a cowpuncher.

Farming, one declared, was a cinch compared with working on the Eastland county roads, and recounted his short experience along that line, for which he was paid in scrip for which he obtained about half value.

At the close of the open meeting a regular session of the local was held. Numerous applications were received and will be acted upon at the regular meeting next Sunday afternoon.

Officials of the organization state that other locals will be organized over the county during the next thirty days under the present plans and that every effort will be made to secure work for Eastland county citizens at equitable wages.

GOLD COAST GIRL TO WED SON OF POLISH SMITH

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Helen Walker, society girl, artist and daughter of Dr. Samuel T. Walker, prominent Chicago physician, is to marry Stanislaw Szukalski, son of an impoverished Polish blacksmith, who has gained recognition as a sculptor.

Szukalski was expected to reach Chicago from New York today. The marriage will occur within the next few days, it was said, and will be followed by a honeymoon in Canada.

Miss Walker, whose career as an artist began when she was 12 years old, was to have been a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Mary Landon Baker and Allister McCormick, when McCormick waited vainly at the church for Miss Baker.

Szukalski has been a struggling genius since early boyhood in Poland. He is said to have increased his knowledge of anatomy by dissecting the body of his father, who was killed by a street car after the family migrated to America. Although he has lived a life of poverty, Szukalski will be married on Chicago's "gold coast," it was said.

U. S. ARMY BOARD STARTS PROBE OF BECK KILLING

By Associated Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 5.—The case of Lieutenant-Colonel Paul Ward Beck, ranking officer at Post field, Oklahoma flying station, who was shot and killed by Jean P. Day, wealthy oil man and attorney, at the latter's home on April 4, was reopened here today when a board of high army officers went into executive session in the federal building to investigate the affair.

Although no announcement of their plans was made by members of the board, it is understood that all pleadings in the case have been turned over to them and that a number of witnesses will be summoned. The board will report its findings to Secretary of War Weeks.

AUSTIN, June 5.—Governor Neff on a week-end trip to the penitentiary at Huntsville found the officials preparing to replant the 24,000 acres of cotton and corn which was destroyed by the flood.

The prison system will not be able to pay the interest on the recent $750,000 loan.

MINERS' UNION NOT LIABLE FOR STRIKE RIOTS

Unions Are Liable Under Anti-Trust Act, Supreme Court Holds.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Striking coal miners won a tremendous victory today when the supreme court held that the United Mine Workers need not pay damages amounting to more than $600,000 to Arkansas coal operators as a result of strike riots in the Arkansas field in 1914.

Labor organizations are not exempt from prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust act the supreme court held in its decision, one of the most important pieces of labor litigation that has ever come before the court.

The court held that labor organizations can be held liable for damages to property by members, in the decision handed down by Chief Justice Taft. The case was brought against the United Mine Workers of America by the Coronado and other coal companies, as the result of the Arkansas strike in 1914.

Chief Justice Taft held that it had not been shown that the international organization of the United Mine Workers had ordered the strike and that it should not have been named in the suit.

RANKS STAND FIRM.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Ranks of the striking miners are holding firm as the mine tieup enters its tenth week, the United States geological survey of the department of the interior reported today. No great change in the number of men on strike has yet occurred, the statement said.

WOMAN'S BULLET BRINGS DEATH TO WOMAN CHARMER

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, June 5.—Although her condition was considerably improved today, the state authorities here say that no charges will be filed at the present time against Miss Peggy Marie Beal, who early Saturday shot and killed Frank W. Anderson, department store welfare worker, in a hotel room, and then turned the pistol on herself and sent a bullet into her left lung.

County Prosecutor Orr stated today that the legal aspects of the case would not be taken up until it was determined whether or not Miss Beal would recover.

Miss Beal, who is a nurse, today reiterated her statement that she did not wish to get well. In reply to reports that she was married and had a 4-year-old son living in Ohio, she declared, "I have told you that I have no one. I do not want to get well. My act was one of charity, to save other girls from such heartaches."

According to Miss Beal, she came here with the expectation of marrying Anderson and shot him in the room where they had registered as man and wife after he boasted of his love affairs with other women and said that he did not love any one woman.

CLOUDBURST SWEEPS OVER HANCOCK, N. Y.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., June 5.—Damage estimated at $2,000,000 was caused by a cloudburst at Hancock, in the Delaware river valley, Saturday and Sunday, and by swollen streams that followed a heavy downpour of rain in the Lackawanna river valley near Carbondale, Pa.

J., June 5.—A jury in West Orange police court acquitted Taisan Tsuji of a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Amelia Cart-houser, Tsuji, a Japanese newspaperman, testified that he had been tricked into making a confession of the attack on the pretense that he would be protecting the good name of a woman, and had been promised a speedy release if he signed the confession. West Orange police issued a statement denying Tsuji's allegations.

BRITISH DRIVE INSURGENTS OUT OF IRISH TOWN

Thirty Republicans Killed When They Greet British With Machine Guns.

By United Press.

BELFAST, June 5.—Irish republican insurgent troops are retiring from Ulster today. Thirty republicans are reported killed in a battle for Peddigo, on the Donegal-Sermanagh border, taken by British troops late yesterday. A British staff officer who entered the town furnished the latest details of the affair. He said he had given the insurgents fifteen minutes to evacuate the town and some retired but others remained. When the time limit expired, the British entered the town in the face of machine gun fire, whereupon the artillery in the hills was called into action. A British battery fired eighteen-pounder shells over the town, which caught the insurgents, killing several. Only four additional shells were fired, causing panic in the ranks of the republicans, it was reported. Casualty lists are incomplete.

British troops today are consolidating their position and preparing for further action against the investing Sinn Feiners. The whole Peddigo-Belleck sector, previously occupied by the extremists, is now in the hands of the British troops.

ACCEPTANCE OF FORD'S OFFER UP TO CONGRESS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—A bill authorizing Secretary Weeks to negotiate the sale and lease of the Muscle Shoals property to Henry Ford along the terms of Ford's offer with the recommendation of the house military committee that the Gorgas steam plant be eliminated from the deal, will be introduced soon, probably today, in the house by Chairman McKeanie of the committee.

Another bill authorizing the sale of the entire plant, including the Gorgas steam plant, also will be introduced in the house at the same time by Representative Wright, Democrat, of Georgia, member of the committee minority.

CROSSING CRASH KILLS THREE MEN AT BEAUMONT

BEAUMONT, June 5.—Three men were killed instantly and a third slightly injured Sunday when an automobile in which they were riding stalled on the track of the Kansas City Southern railroad immediately in front of a fast passenger train, at Port Neches, near here. The car was wrecked.

The dead are: S. Betera, his brother, I. Betera, and L. Corrona, all Italians. The men had been fishing in the Neches river, and were on their way to their homes here when the accident occurred. S. Betera, who was driving, evidently did not observe the approaching train and started across the tracks. When the automobile was directly on the tracks the engine stopped and before the occupants could reach places of safety the machine had been shattered. The bodies of the men killed were thrown 100 feet. All were dead when picked up.

AUSTIN JUDGE FAILS TO ASK PROBE OF KLAN

Mentions Order Only Once in Charge to Newest Grand Jury.

By United Press.

AUSTIN, June 5.—District Judge James R. Hamilton in charging the grand jury which was organized today at the opening of the June term of the criminal district court of Travis county, did not make direct reference to the Ku Klux Klan, as he has in charges to former grand juries. He charged, however, that further inquiry into and a thorough examination should be made into all facts and circumstances relative to the killing of Peeler Clayton in the city of Austin on Dec. 15, 1921, "in an alley near what is known as the hall of the Ku Klux Klan."

That was the only time in his charge that Judge Hamilton used the words "Ku Klux Klan."

Probe Not Finished.

The grand jury last time made an extensive investigation of the killing of Clayton and also the acts of the Ku Klux Klan in this county but did not return any indictment. The recommendation was made that the next grand jury take up the work and complete it. Whether the new body will carry out the recommendation is not yet known.

A large part of Judge Hamilton's charge was devoted to gambling and bootlegging cases, asking rigid investigation of infractions of those laws.

LIQUOR CHARGE FILED AGAINST FRANK C. AMES

Charged with selling liquor, F. C. Ames was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff John Barnes following the investigation of a "liquor leak" from which a number of thirsts are said to have been quenched. Ames waived a preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace Roger Fenlaw and was held to the grand jury under bond of $1,000.

Another man against whom no charges have yet been filed was arrested in connection with the leak Sheriff McDowell, and taken to East by Deputy Barnes and Police Chief Land this morning.

FALL OF JAPANESE MINISTRY IS FORECAST

By United Press.

TOKIO, June 5.—Japan today faced another political crisis, with the fall of the ministry in prospect. The tangled state of Japanese politics, growing out of numerous attacks on the ministry of Premier Takahashi—hastily formed after the assassination of former Premier Hara—is responsible for the present situation.

Takahashi today was holding conferences with numerous leaders while the press was unanimous in predicting a change in the government.

MUST HAVE TAX.
Certain things, although unpleasant, must be done, because they are less unpleasant than the alternative course.

For instance, paying taxes—especially more taxes—is as disagreeable as a castor oil is to Willie. But a parent must sometimes pay them just the same, because they are better for his family even as Willie is better off with the castor oil.

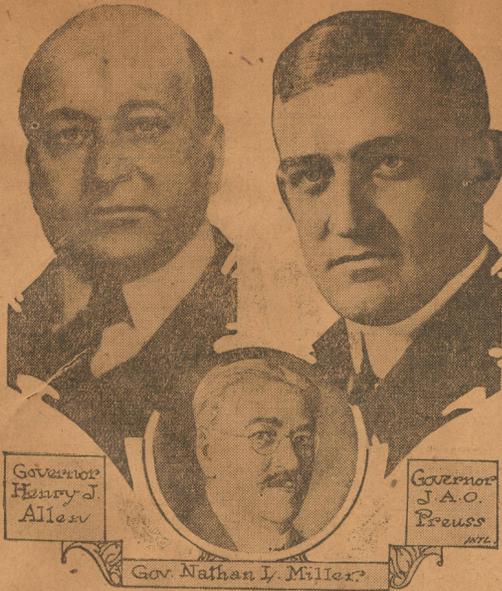

One of those dilemmas must be settled Saturday, when Ranger citizens vote to increase the school tax rate from 50 cents to $1. The school board says we can increase the tax or have a four-months' school next year.

Under those circumstances, of course, Ranger will vote to increase the tax. We can't have a four-months' school. It just isn't done.

Some folks will wail: "They said there wouldn't be any increase in the tax rate because of the new schools." Very true, that was promised, but none of us are prophets, and the school board being human, could not foresee the change in conditions that has occurred. It could not foresee that assessed values would slump so materially, for one thing, nor that the state scholastic apportionment would drop so materially, for another. And not foreseeing those things, it made a promise that it could not keep.

Vote for the tax, in order that Ranger schools may be excelled by none. Most of the larger towns already are paying $1 per $100 toward support of their schools.

THREE GOVERNORS ARRESTED BY ONE COP

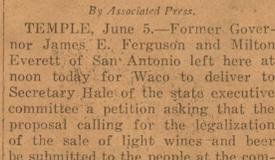

Motorcycle Policeman Brautigam of Wilmette, a suburb of Chicago, has the absolutely unique distinction of having arrested three governors in one day. The distinguished prisoners were Governor Nathan J. Miller of New York, Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, and Governor J. A. O. Preuss of Minnesota, whose car was speeding thirty-six miles an hour, while returning to Chicago from the Exmoor Golf club. "Everybody is a governor or a millionaire when he's arrested," remarked Brautigam, calmly. "You'll have to tell it to the judge."

BRUTAL BOSSES
DRIVE CHILDREN IN ONION FIELDS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 5.—Stories of child labor conditions in the Hardin county onion fields have aroused the wrath of Percy Tetlow, director of industrial relations. He has submitted a detailed report of conditions which he says are "almost unbelievable," and asked Attorney General John G. Price whether or not there is any legal method to reach the evil.
Mr. Tetlow told how "brutal bosses" stood over children, cursing them if they fail to work rapidly enough and sometimes "stepping on their fingers."
The victims of the alleged methods are 4,000 Kentucky mountaineers, herded into the district for the working season. The children are from 6 to 16 years old.
The investigation was made by Ernest U. Whitacre, head of the workshops division, and Dr. E. P. Staar, of the Ohio health department. Sanitary conditions were denounced as deplorable and education was said to be neglected.
The legal obstacle that may prevent remedial action is a section of the law exempting agricultural labor from the child labor law.

WANT LIGHT WINE AND BEER QUESTION VOTED ON
By Associated Press.
TEMPLE, June 5.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson and Milton Everett of San Antonio left here at noon today for Waco to deliver to Secretary Hale of the state executive committee a petition asking that the proposal calling for the legalization of the sale of light wines and beer be submitted to the people at the coming primary to determine their stand on the question.

G. O. P. CHAIRMAN IS SOUGHT FOR WARTIME FRAUD

WASHINGTON, June 5.—J. L. Phillips, head of the lumber firm of Phillips & Stevens, and Republican state chairman of Georgia, is being sought on a warrant sworn out before United States Commissioner R. Hitt, by the department of justice, under section 37 of the penal code.
The section covers conspiracy to defraud the government. It carries penalties up to $10,000 fine and imprisonment.
This move to take Phillips into custody is the direct outgrowth of the grand jury investigation in war fraud cases begun last week. It has been understood for several days that the Phillips case was one of the first taken up. The warrant that has been issued was obtained without the formality of presenting an indictment to the court, if one has actually been found.
Phillips' firm, according to the contract audit section of the war department, more than six months ago was found to be indebted to the government in the sum of $1,854,076.04. This indebtedness was on a sale of surplus lumber by the government to the firm.

'AIR HOLE BILL'
LOSES SUIT ON INCOME TAXES
PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—William "Air Hole Bill" Carnill lost his suit in the United States district court to recover $757,761.78 in additional taxes which the government compelled him to pay on his alleged enormous profits from the sale of oil lands in Oklahoma.
Carnill, now retired, won his sobriquet of "Air Hole Bill" in the decade before 1912 when he went about Oklahoma drilling holes for others, and then for himself when he accumulated sufficient money for his labors to do so. The best his holes ever yielded up to 1912 was a low grade of unsalable air. But one day he struck it rich, and almost overnight was transformed from a well driller into a millionaire.
RUSS 'AMBASSADOR' TO BE OUSTED AT END OF JUNE
WASHINGTON, June 5.—Boris Bakhmeteff, whose status as Russian ambassador here has been a subject of controversy since the Krenskey government, which appointed him, collapsed five years ago, has been notified by the state department that his credentials no longer will be recognized by the United States after June 30.
The department acted after Mr. Bakhmeteff himself, taking notice of senate criticism of his continued presence here had offered to retire should the Washington government desire it. The work of liquidating property claims growing out of the war, the ambassador said, had been the chief function in recent months and now was about completed.
In making public the correspondence the department announces also that termination of Mr. Bakhmeteff's duties as ambassador "has no bearing whatsoever on the question of the recognition of the soviet regime in Russia, which is an entirely separate matter."

TIENTSIN, June 5.—All foreigners have been warned to leave Shantung, on the Manchurian border along the Gulf of Liaotung, because of serious fighting expected between the advance guard of General Wu's invading army and the retreating troops of Chang Tso Lin, the Manchurian warlord. The warning was issued from Changji by the commander of Chinli column.

OKLAHOMA LIFE TERMER
SENTENCED TO GALLOWES

TUCSON, Ariz., June 5.—Paul V. Hadley, escaped life term from the Oklahoma state penitentiary, convicted here last week of the murder of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, wife of a Denver contractor, was sentenced Saturday in the superior court to be executed on the gallows of the state penitentiary at Florence, Aug. 18.

COUPLE JOINED IN GOTHAM EVERY
13 MINUTES, FUNERAL EVERY 14

NEW YORK, June 5.—Once every 13 minutes there is a wedding in this city.
Every fourteenth minute, day and night, a funeral is conducted here.
And ten times every hour a child is born.
This is the beginning of one of the most astonishing sets of statistics ever compiled in this city.
Dr. F. M. Gordon, church co-operation secretary, of the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities, was director of the greater cities survey for the Interchurch World Movement a few years ago, when he became interested in the figures brought to his desk.
From a study of New York statistics essential to his work he developed his interest to a hobby. He passes a part of his time changing his records as events change and adding new figures to his lists.
Today he pictures this American metropolis as a monster sprawling upon the Eastern coast, demanding sustenance from the world.
These are the figures he gave on the city's food, drink, transportation: "A ship clears the harbor every 42 minutes. A train enters the city every 42 seconds. Freight cars leaving here would fill eight tracks reaching from New York to San Francisco.
How Much Manhattan Eats.
"Two hundred and sixty-six train loads of food, or a number sufficient to reach from the city across the state of New Jersey to Philadelphia, are required to feed Manhattan a week.
"We use 500,000,000 gallons of water daily. This amount should supply a quart of water to every human being in the world.
"Once every 24 hours 1,062,000 persons cross East river.
"Twice as many persons ride every day on the three systems of transit, the elevated, surface lines and subway, as the number riding on all the steam railroads of the United States combined.
"Fares paid on these three roads last year numbered 2,500,000,000.
"During the same year more than a third of the population of the United States, or 37,144,000 passengers on the railroad trains entered Grand Central station.
"More than 5,000,000 visitors dine annually in hotels and restaurants in the Forty-second street district."
Concerning New York's population and acreage he had this to say.
"There are 36,388 more persons in the city than there are in the following thirteen states combined: Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Nevada.
More Than 770,000 Arrive.
"In 1920 778,749 persons arrived in this country. Of this number 415,772 remained in New York.
"If the streets were placed end to end they would reach to San Francisco and half way back again. Parks, playgrounds and parkways cover 8,703 acres.
"There are enough Italians in New York to make a city the size of Los Angeles. One the size of Milwaukee could be populated by Manhattan Austro-Hungarians. The Irish might collect themselves in two cities the size of Baltimore and Albany.
"There is a real estate transfer every 22 minutes; a building erected every 50 minutes; a fire every 30 minutes."
Daily instruction in the public schools, he said, costs the city $225,000, while 17,000,000 books are taken from the library every year.
The city spends $9,000 daily to guard the public's health.
And those who never have considered Brooklyn to be much of a town may be interested in this:
"Brooklyn is the third largest municipality in the United States and the sixth largest in the world. Since 1910 the population has grown at the rate of 3,200 a month. There are more persons there than in Wyoming, Vermont, Arizona, New Mexico, Delaware, Idaho and Nevada combined.
World's Coffee Pot.
"Seven hundred vessels of more than forty different steamship lines enter and leave. There is more cargo on Newton creek, a stream entering Brooklyn at Green Point, than is carried on 1,000 miles of the Mississippi. It is the first coffee center of the world.
"Last year in the public schools Brooklyn educated as many pupils as those that were taught in Baltimore, Toledo, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh and San Francisco combined."

PONY STUNG TO DEATH
BY BEES; OWNER SAVED

STREATOR, Ill., June 5.—Infuriated when their hives were tipped over by a pony, three swarms of bees attacked and soon killed the pony at the farm home of Albert Brandes near Manville. Mrs. Brandes, rushing to the animal's aid, was so severely stung and poisoned by the bees that she was sinking to the floor when neighbors were attracted by her cries.

FORT WORTH MAN INJURED IN WATERWORKS BOILER BLAST

FORT WORTH, June 5.—J. T. Mitchell, fireman, was injured and the main furnace of the North Fort Worth Water works was partially wrecked in an explosion at the plant Sunday morning at 12 o'clock.
W. H. Borders, chief engineer of the plant, said Sunday that Mitchell was entering the room when the explosion occurred, and that he was injured by the flying brick.
His left shoulder was badly hurt, and he received a number of bruises.
The explosion was caused by gas, which had accumulated in the flues of the furnace. Some red hot bricks were in the furnace and the gas exploded, causing the brick furnace to crumble to the floor and bricks flew in every direction. The boiler was not injured by the crash.

"At the time I started taking Tanlac," said Miss Stella Simon, 1431 Missouri ave., St. Louis, Mo., "I honestly believe I was on the verge of nervous prostration. At times I was so tired and nervous I was hysterical. My appetite was very poor and I could not eat and digest enough to keep up my strength. I could not get any restful sleep and got up mornings as tired as when I retired. Finally I became alarmed over my condition and was worried and discouraged all the time.

What's the Difference?

Some business men ask the question—"What's the difference in printing as long as the price is the cheapest?" Just as much difference as in a $10 suit of clothes and one costing $50. Printing can be thrown together in a "shoddy" way the same as houses can be built. But, note the difference in appearance after the job is delivered.

Our work is turned out in the best possible way. We have the best of workmen, and a fine lot of equipment for them to work with. It is possible for us to do printing in one half the time it now takes and at one-half the cost, but the result is not the "Quality Kind." Our employes are instructed to take their time in order to do the best of work, and our prices are based on such work.

With an entirely new assortment of type faces and other material, we solicit your business on a quality basis.

Your stationery is your silent salesman. Let it reflect your business policy. If you are contented with cheap, shabby stationery, you may also be contented with vending your wares in such a fashion. Dress up your business by using Quality Printing.

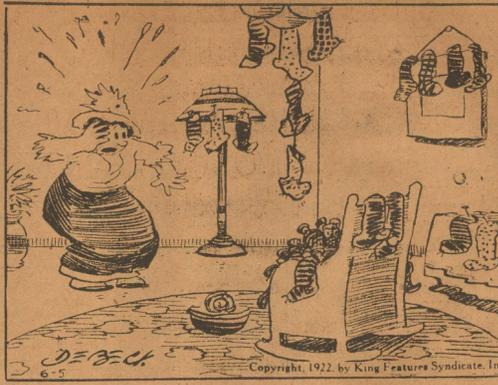

We act as agents for embossing, engraving, lithographing, photo-engraving, special ruled ledger and journal forms, rubber stamps, etc. Call us when in need of supplies.

If we haven't what you want we can get it for you at Fort Worth and Dallas prices.

MANHOLE HIDES SLAIN WIFE FOR OVER SIX WEEKS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 5.—The body of Mrs. Millie Costanzo, 27 years old, of Germantown, who disappeared Feb. 14, was found here in a telephone manhole in front of her home by a telephone company employee. Police are searching for her husband, Charles Costanzo, 34, who disappeared, it is alleged, several hours after his wife disappeared. While the woman's body still was in the manhole, several neighbors identified it. It had on the same clothes Mrs. Costanzo wore the day she last was seen. A few hours before neighbors told police they had heard her quarreling with her husband and her cries: "Don't kill me now, Charlie! Don't kill me tonight!" On the afternoon of the night Mrs. Costanzo is believed to have met death she returned to her home, police say, to ask her husband to take her back. She had been away three months. The body was found in an almost vertical position, with the feet in the air and the head jammed into the cable lines. The position, said detectives, indicated that she was thrown into the manhole after she was slain with a hatchet, her skull having been crushed.

FRENCH SMOKERS ARE USING LESS CIGARETTES

PARIS, June 5.—More than 5,000,000 less cigarettes and 800,000 ounces of pipe tobacco were smoked in France in 1921 than in 1920. Experts variously attribute the decrease to the increased cost of living, necessitating a general cutting down of expenses and the fact that smokers among women has gone out of fashion in France. Statistics show that the average Frenchman smokes five cigarettes less a day than the average American.

Coeds Declare War on "Spineless" Cake Eaters Who Dodge Athletics

EVANSTON, Ill., June 5.—What to do about the "cake eaters"—that is an absorbing problem at Northwestern university. Almost all the young men at the college, it seems, have developed a positive horror for athletics. They enjoy dancing immensely. They drape the soda fountains about town, indulge in tete-a-tetes with the co-eds in the cozy tea rooms, and many of them are adepts with the banjo and ukulele. Fifty per cent of them, according to Mary Ross Potter, dean of women, have cars. They just love to spin. Strive to Avert Ruin of University. "Spineless weaklings," Dr. George C. Stewart, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal church and president of the Alumni association, calls them. He has started a movement which the co-eds will take up at a meeting Wednesday, to prevent the "ruin" of the university, which he "fears is inevitable." President Walter Dill Scott is not dismayed. When asked concerning the situation, he smiled and said: "I believe cold weather sometimes is a good thing." As "prexy" spoke, a dozen youths were posing in the warm sun without. The front steps were crowded. Birds chirped. Oh, yes, the charmers were there. "Co-education," President Scott explained, "presents a serious problem. It has its dangers and difficulties. But the student who puts in three years at a co-educational institution is better fitted to cope with life's work than one who has attended a strictly man's college. Dr. Scott admitted that the social appeal—dances, dates, parties and that sort of thing—has caused a poor athletic showing, but, he pointed out, the students have done just fine in other things, such as sports, winning three out of four intercollegiate debates this year. "Inspiration" All That is Needed. "Northwestern," he said, "is not set on winning big athletic events. After all, the students come to study. The most important thing about athletics is the possibility that a large number may take up physical training. I would dispense with the grandstand if I could get our 6,000 men students interested in athletics." All the fellows need now, he added, is "inspiration" that will motivate them in athletics. The inspiration, it was predicted on the campus, will be provided by the co-eds, members of the Women's league. Although Dr. Stewart is in favor of the girls ostracizing the known "cake eaters," the co-eds at their meeting Wednesday are not expected to do anything quite so drastic. It was rumored, however, that

NITROS TAKE SEESAW GAME FROM BRONCS

Both Teams Hit Hard and Wobble in Pinches; Recruit Hits Homer.

"Spec" Dockery, City league star from Waco, set the Nitros on their way to a hardfought victory over the Broncs yesterday, when he rammed a homer to the left field fence on his first trip to the plate. That knock, a fast flying liner that Dean misjudged, followed by one of Parson Pyle's regular contributions, inspired the Nitros. Downs followed with a Texas leaguer to left and after Craig's infield out had moved both runners up a notch, Guber came through with a clean cut smack between McBride and Scoggins, scoring him.

Those three runs didn't win the game all by themselves, but they showed the Nitros that Coker could be reached, and so they went out and reached him for enough tallies to salt down a 7 to 6 victory.

All Kinds of Ball. It was quite a melee, all the way through; a hard hitting affair to which both teams contributed stellar performance as well as costly misplays. San Angelo took the lead, only to be topped by the Nitros and to again scramble to the top when York was pounded from the box in the fifth. Then Red Roberts was hurled into the breach and stopped the onslaught by very narrow margins.

Baseball bugs, non-eyed with astonishment, saw York hammered for the first time this season. He had heretofore performed with such smoothness and efficiency that folks hereabouts had forgotten that the best of them get bumped sometimes. And this was Rupert of Ranger's time to get his.

Bronco Scoring. The Broncs had a hint of what was to come in the third round, when they broke through the Nitro defense for two runs. Scoggins led off with a hit and took third when Jimmy Flag let McBride's roller ease through him. Luke Robinson followed with a sizzling drive to center which Craig managed to get with a last desperate swipe, after a lengthy run. It was so far toward the flagpole that no attempt was made to stop Scoggins. Greer forced McBride, then stole second and rode home on Alexander's double.

In the fifth, Scoggins again singled, McBride tripled down the third base line and Robinson cracked the ball over the fence, netting three runs before a man was out and overcoming a two-run lead the Nitros had taken in the third. Roberts celebrated his advent by walking Alexander and yielded a hit to Dean, on which Downs made a brilliant stop back of second and a difficult throw, failing to nip the runner by a narrow margin. A double steal then put the last Bronco run across.

Red Pulls Out. Roberts was wild but stingy with hits, and he started two double plays that stopped the Broncs. He particularly scuppered trouble in the seventh, when he made a one-handed stab of Alexander's line fly that no one else could reach and doubled Greer off first. The play came after Robinson had walked and gained second when Downs dropped Roberts' slightly wild throw to force him on Greer's bunt.

In the ninth, Red escaped disaster by a narrow margin, Robinson's attempt to steal home with the bases full ending the innings. The venerable Luke led off with his third walk of the game. Greer slapped a single past third. Alexander sacrificed, putting the runners on second and third. Robertson rolled to White, who threw him out at first after bluffing Luke back to third. Dean, who had hit three times, was purposely walked to get at Coker, and then Red served three wide ones, the situation began to look serious. He put the next two over, however, and on the second one, Robinson made a dash for the plate, being tagged out by about two feet.

McBride's wild throw which put Guber on third, followed by Clayton's single through short, gave the Nitros' first run. The fourth-inning rally added three more. Pyle hammered the ball over the fence in the sixth, and a bit of luck plus good playing put the tying and winning runs over in the seventh, after two were out. Guber opened the inning with a Texas leaguer that Scoggins touched, but could not hold. He was sacrificed to second and went to third on an infield out. With White up, a fast serve brushed by the batter and climbed over Robinson's glove, allowing Guber to trot across. White also gummed the deal by thinking he had been hit, but was persuaded that he wasn't. Then he met one right and it sailed to the club house for three bases. Dockery was walked, and on the double steal, Scoggins' offside return to the plate allowed White to score.

Jimmy Benches Self. Dockery's advent in the game came in the fourth round, when Jimmy Flag benched himself after allowing a ground skinner to go between his legs and later messed up an easy chance. Dockery missed his first chance but handled his second nicely. His smash in his first time won him a place to hang his hat, however.

NITRO NOTES

Today is the last day of the home stand. Lefty Lybrand, who arrived Saturday night from San Antonio, is scheduled to hurl for the Nitros, and Lefty Henry, whom the Broncs have just obtained from Beaumont, is due to serve for the Broncs.

The team leaves on the Sunshine tonight for Lubbock, where a four-day series will open tomorrow. They play at Clovis and Amarillo before returning home on Friday, June 16, for four games with Stamford.

That "protested game" yesterday was over the umpire's refusal to permit Flag on the coaching line after he had taken himself out of the game. Jimmy's protest very probably wouldn't have stuck and Jimmy probably knew it, but it served its purpose in making the Angelo boys a little nervous, it's natural to think: "What's the use of winning if we don't get it." Since Ranger won, the protest does not count.

It's a funny thing about this error business. If the home team makes them, and they are costly, they "throw the game away." But when the visitors make them, and let in the winning runs, little attention is paid to it. If anything, the home team is given credit for better playing.

Umpire Jones got even yesterday. When the dozen or so "riders" in the stands got on him, he just quit calling the balls and strikes. It served them right, but made it hard on the rest of the fans. This razzing of the umpire and the home team by a few men is riling the main body of fans who want to see a ball game and are willing to take the umpire's word for it. Numerically, they are not 5 per cent of the crowd in the stand, but they give the whole town a black eye. Why can't the home players for errors they cannot help? Why roast the umpire for decisions that the roaster is not in a position to judge accurately.

WHY NOT ORGANIZE A "RAZZ THE RAZZERS" CLUB AND HOWL 'EM DOWN? A Cincinnati scout was in the stand Saturday. He didn't think much of the sportsmanship here—on account of the small but noisy number of razzers.

PUGILISTS ARE HIRED TO PROTECT VESSELS FROM BOOTLEGGERS NEW YORK, June 5.—Bootleggers are so thick along the water front that the Atlantic Fruit company has had to hire a squad of pugilists to guard its pier from the swarms who meet every ship in the hope of re-stocking.

This became known today when "Gunboat" Smith led his squad into action against several motor boat loads who sped up to the dock just as the Princess May, inbound from Jamaica, made fast.

Smith said that the bootleggers, displaying bank rolls, called on members of the crew to produce liquor. Smith's party floored four of the men who had climbed onto the pier, put to flight the rest of the landing party, and then, jumping into a skiff, drove off the motor boats. Two shots from the bootleggers were fired.
