ALL BAD MEN MUST GET OUT OF RANGER

CROPS PROMISE GOOD RETURNS THIS SEASON

Eastland County Farmers Look For Good Returns At Harvest Time.

Crop conditions in Eastland county, with the exception of being late, are the most promising in the past four years, according to County Agent R. H. Bush. Cotton, with a 25 per cent acreage increase over last year, promises a yield of 20,000 bales, whereas the county produced only about 13,000 bales last year. Though late cotton is developing rapidly and is now blooming and setting bolls. So far there has been little or no damage from boll weevils.

Feed crops, including maize, fetaria and other sorghum crops, are generally good and very promising although they are late. The peanut crop is also fine but the acreage is considerably less than last year. Garden truck and melons are pretty plentiful, especially melons, and they are of fine quality. Considerable trouble was experienced during the growing period of truck crops on account of green aphid or honey dew, which did more or less damage. The farmers, however, have learned how to overcome this insect and prevent the damage it causes by spraying their crops with tobacco extracts.

Farmers over the county are pretty well up with their work and most of them have their crops clean and in good condition.

Generally speaking Eastland county farmers are in good financial condition. Their homes and other farm buildings are in a good state of repair and but few of them have gone in debt to make their year's crop. Most of them have been able to sell enough produce from the farm, including eggs and poultry, to provide the necessary funds with which to support themselves and pay the operating expenses of the farm. In many cases, where considerable flocks of chickens were kept, the farm owners have been able to bank money.

STANDARD OIL WAGE SCALE IS CHANGED TODAY

Workers in Oil Fields to Get More Each Hour, But Less For Shorter Day.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Under the new wage scale announced by the Standard Oil company, to become effective today in the mid-continent oil fields, drillers are to receive $1.25 an hour for an eight-hour day, or $10 a day, instead of $1 an hour for a 12-hour day. They will make $2 less a day, but work four less hours. Tool handlers will receive $1 an hour or $8 for an eight-hour day, instead of 83 cents an hour for 12-hour work day, a total of $10. They also will make $2 less a day, but have four hours less to work. Day and night shifts are the rule in the oil fields and three daily shifts will be required by the new scale. The Standard Oil has been employing about 1,400 in the mid-continent oil field and will take on about 500 more workers.

According to A. F. Corwin of the industrial relations department of the company, the 12-hour day will stay in effect in outlying districts where the workers live in tents. He said the men in camps would rather work long hours than idle about camp with nothing to do.

Wind and Rain Come Together to Call and Find Hearty Welcome

Rain fell for nearly an hour in Ranger, Tuesday night, while the wind blew in gusts. It cooled the air delightfully and, as the wind continued in the form of a mild breeze throughout the night, the morning dawned with the mercury in the lower sixties. The rainfall amounted to nearly one-half inch. The rain always is welcome and the wind made friends because it chased the mercury down.

LEONARD WOOD RUNS COUNTER TO FILIPINOS

Governor General Meets Opposition to Prosecution of Bank Officials.

MANILA, P. I., July 15.—A serious break between the Filipino legislature and Governor General Leonard Wood was threatened today as a result of Wood's order for prosecution of officials of the Philippine National Bank.

The bank's head is charged with allowing overdrafts of about one million dollars without any authority. Wood is authoritatively understood to be considering abolishing the consulting governing body, which includes the speaker of the house and president of the senate in the Filipino legislature, and himself assuming the direction of the bank. Such a move would be a severe setback to Filipino independent action, according to the Filipino viewpoint.

W. D. SHEPHERD HIT ON POINT OF THE CHIN

Former Chauffeur Calls Him "Dirty Dog" and Accuses Him of Killing His Ward

CHICAGO, July 15.—William D. Shepherd today fought what he hoped would be his last court battle for the estate of his foster son, Billie McClintock. Witnesses were summoned to uphold Shepherd's contention that Billie, of his own free will, had signed the will leaving his entire estate to Shepherd with the exception of an annuity of $8,000 which he left to his fiancée, Isabelle Pope.

Louise Kleff, a former chauffeur for Shepherd, was under $500 bond here today for an attack on Shepherd. Kleff struck Shepherd on the point of the chin just at the entrance to the courthouse. "You killed Billie, you dirty dog," Kleff shouted as he sprang at Shepherd. Bailiffs grappled with Kleff and pulled him off Shepherd.

Kleff was one of the most important witnesses against Shepherd in the coroner's inquest, but was not called to testify at the trial.

KANSAS CITY, July 15.—Three men were under arrest here today for questioning relative to the brutal slaying of Bert Lovejoy and George Peters, patrolmen, whose bodies were found July 22 in a booze cage in the river bottom near here. The three men arrested are alleged members of a bootlegger gang. Frank Lachiano, one of the three, said the last he had seen of the two men was in an old barn, where they were delivering a quantity of bootleg liquor. Several Italians were waiting in the barn, he told police, they claim, and these Italians told Lachiano to leave after Lovejoy and Peters had driven their car into the barn. This was the last he saw of them, the police say he told them.

COURT WRITES LONG OPINION UPHOLDING LAW

Dismisses Motion to Quash Indictment Against John Scopes, Telling Why.

DAYTON, Tenn., July 15.—To all intents and purposes the trial of John T. Scopes for teaching evolution is over, so far as the Rhea county court is concerned.

Judge Raulston, who has the final word, has declared that the law teaching evolution is constitutional. The defense admitted that Scopes violated this law and it remains for the jury to be instructed to bring in a verdict of guilty. The fight will be made on an appeal to the higher court.

It is probable, however, that many arguments will be made before the trial comes to an actual end.

DAYTON, Tenn., July 15.—The Scopes evolution trial moved forward today when Presiding Judge J. T. Raulston overruled the motion of the defense to quash the indictment against John T. Scopes.

"The court, having passed on each ground chronologically and given the reason therefor, is now pleased to overrule the whole motion and require the defendant to plead further," said the judge.

The judge's opinion was 5,000 words long and dealt exhaustively with every one of the defense's attacks on the evolution law's constitutionality.

"I fail to see how this act in any wise interferes or at least restrains any person from worshipping God in any manner," said the judge.

"It gives no preference to any particular religion or mode of worship. Our public schools are not maintained for places of worship but, on the contrary, were designed, instituted and maintained for the purpose of mental and moral development and discipline. I cannot conceive how the teacher's right under this provision of the constitution would be violating the act."

Raulston cited a Tennessee supreme court decision in upholding his ruling that the anti-evolution law was not legislation aimed at a class hence not invalid.

While Raulston read his decision in the steaming courtroom, a policeman stood over him fanning his head. Raulston himself moved his face steadily.

SANDERFORDS GO ON AUTO TRIP TO SOUTHWEST

J. A. Sanderford, with Mrs. Sanderford and their little daughter, returned yesterday from a delightful automobile trip into Southwest Texas as more than ever impressed with the desirability of Ranger and Eastland county for business and farming.

Leaving Ranger July 5, they drove to Abilene, Ballinger and San Angelo, camping on the Concho river at San Angelo. Then they visited the Christoval Baptist encampment, also on the Concho, and then drove on to Sonora and then to Juno on the Devils river, where they camped and fished.

Driving next to Comstock, they went from there to the high bridge across the Pecos river, a bridge 321 feet high and nearly one mile long. Mr. Sanderford said the Pecos was a clear water, swift flowing stream, but it was possible to get to the water at only a few places as it flows between perpendicular banks about 300 feet high. They camped, however, at a ranchhouse where the owner had constructed a passageway up and down the banks, and they went into the river bottom and entered the caves the water had cut out of the rock banks, caves running way back and being cool and delightful, with beautiful ferns of all kinds growing in them.

The Sanderfords next went to Del Rio, crossed the river for a short stay in Villa Acuna, Mexico, and then returned home by way of Rock Springs and Junction, stopping near the latter place for a four-day camp on the banks of the Llano, where Sanderford declares the most beautiful stream he ever saw, with clear, cool water, lined with giant pecan trees and abounding in bass. He saw wild turkey and deer and was invited to return in the season and hunt them.

In comparison with most of the country, where the lack of rain was very evident, Eastland county looks like an Eden, according to Mr. Sanderford, who said that in none of the towns or cities visited had he seen anything like the business activity in Ranger.

SENTENCE SERMON.
Thoughts are things, thought is energy—thought is creative power. That is why it is important to direct the minds of human beings to good, kind, helpful thoughts.

DIEHL AGREES TO BE RANGER CITY ATTORNEY

Milton T. Lyman to Be City Judge; Both Promise Snappy Law Enforcement.

Two important changes in the legal department of the city of Ranger went into effect today with the resignation of A. A. Diehl as city judge to accept the position of city attorney and the appointment of Milton T. Lyman of Ranger to take the place of city judge.

A steady campaign is to be inaugurated to enforce the law in Ranger as one result of the changes in the legal department, it is said. Violations of the law that have hitherto gone unpunished will be brought to the attention of the court through the efforts of the new city attorney, who promises a strict and impartial investigation into all complaints coming to him.

A. A. Diehl, who moved to Ranger from Dallas the latter part of 1924, was appointed city judge in January, 1925, and has served in that capacity faithfully, dealing out punishment to the guilty hauled before him and dealing justly with all accused. He will take over the duties of the city attorney late today.

Milton T. Lyman has been a practicing attorney in Ranger for several years and is well known to the people. He has had a successful career as a practicing attorney in Ranger and is conversant with the conditions in Ranger today that will probably influence many of his sentences.

Youth Says He Killed Young Girl Because She Asks Him To

WATERTOWN, S. D., July 15.—Imprisonment at hard labor for the remainder of his natural life was the sentence meted out to Winford Meek, 21, of Garden City, S. D., in circuit court here today, after he pleaded guilty to the charge of murdering Byrle Healy, 17-year-old Garden City girl, Sunday night. The youth was taken to the state prison at Sioux Falls immediately. Robert Deople of Crocker, S. D., who was arrested in connection with the crime, was released when Meek admitted that he alone killed the girl.

WATERTOWN, So. Dak., July 15.—A girl in trouble, fearing the wrath of her father, pleaded with one of her lovers to slay her and he did so, according to County Attorney Hanson's solution of the murder of Byrle Healy, 17-year-old girl of Garden City, So. Dakota, whose body was found late Monday in a burned haystack near that place.

Winford Meeks, 21, admitted he had killed Byrle, the attorney said. Meeks at first implicated another but a second confession absolved the latter, who was released. Meek said that he had met the girl Sunday at her request, and they had driven into the country, that she had begged him to end her life and he had done as she requested.

GARDEN CITY, S. D., July 15.—Fearing violence, police today secreted William Meeks, 21, who is alleged to have confessed to killing Byrle Healy, his "puppy love" sweetheart.

Part of a mob of 200 persons reached the county jail to find that Meeks had been spirited away to another jail.

"I killed her because she wanted me to," Meeks wrote in a signed confession, according to Prosecuting Attorney Hanson. Hours of grilling broke down the boy's fortitude and he sobbed out a story of love folly. Their love led them beyond the bounds of civilization and not long ago Byrle and William faced the tragedy of their lives. Resolved not to bring disgrace on her family she pleaded with William to end it all.

"Father will kill you if you don't kill me," she told William, according to the story he told the county attorney.

In the confession Meeks signed he said he finally struck her over the head with a tire iron and as she crumpled to the ground he wound her scarf around her head, placing the body in a straw stack, later setting it afire.

BIBLE THOUGHT.

The Fifth Commandment: Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.—Exodus 20:12.

Prayer: Our Heavenly Father, may we so recognize Thy goodness in giving us earthly parents, that it may be natural for us to honor them.

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

At the annual convention of the American Association of the Teachers of Journalism, held in Chicago, Prof. Grant M. Hyde, of the University of Wisconsin, advised that newspaper readings should be studied in every high school and college for the purpose of developing not only a better understanding but a better press.

For many years commercial travelers have boasted that they could correctly analyze a town, its enterprise, ideals and its class of people, by a careful study of its newspaper. And to a great extent this is true. One outstanding illustration is that of a newspaper boasting over 100,000 circulation which has been subjected to this scrutiny. Only about four columns of the reading space is given to editorial expression and constructive, informative facts; five full pages are given over to cartoons and syndicated "rot"; and five more pages of reading matter are devoted to murders, divorces, court trials, crime or sensational stories. Its advertising columns are well patronized, indicating that the commercial and social standards are in complete harmony—and the commercial traveler's judgment is vindicated in every particular.

The influence of the newspaper is of paramount importance in every community, and, whatever may appear to the contrary, the standards of journalism in this country is being raised because a discriminating reading public demands it.

The aim of every newspaper should be to cast aside the worthless, the suggestive and vicious, and put in their place that which is informative, reliable, unprejudiced and helpful. Of course there will always be the scavenger dealer and sewer cleaner, but the family newspaper should be something one is not ashamed of—either in home or office.

WHAT IS PROGRESS?

A noted English dean takes the position that there is "no such animal," and many historians support his contention. They point out that five great civilizations fell and no less than seven came and went in Egypt alone and ask: "What reason is there for believing our own civilization is exempt from the historical rhythm of life and death?"

A writer in the New York Times asserts that one reason is that there are no more barbarian races left to wipe out.

It may be true that the only great reservoir of backward peoples is in Africa and we can always keep them at bay by a superiority in fighting weapons such as the ancient empires never enjoyed.

China and Japan are already civilized and have developed the weaknesses of civilization.

The sole danger for white civilization is from within. The white peoples can cut each other to pieces as they came pretty near doing a few years ago and are preparing to do again.

If we refrain from flinging ourselves at one another's white throats the brown and black and yellow goblins will never bother us.

AFTERMATH OF THE SUMMER ROUND-UP.

In spite of numerous stories from the press in regard to the importance of the summer round-up of first grade school children, and of personal cards that were sent to parents of prospective school children, the number that showed up for examination yesterday morning was disappointingly few. Preparations had been made to examine several hundred during the day. However, in spite of the fact that came yesterday, the sponsors of this very vital movement are not so discouraged but what they will try again, so next Tuesday and possibly the Tuesday after, parents will be given the same opportunity to present their children for examination. If every parent could catch the vision of health 100 per cent there would have been a monster crowd present yesterday morning. The opportunity still waits for those who wish to take advantage of it. Give the child a chance. Miss Faye Nixon, the health nurse, is in charge of the work, and with a corps of able assistants, is glad to render whatever service she can.

RAIN PLAYS HAVOC WITH COUNTRY CLUB DANCE.

Rain played havoc with the Country club dance last evening, almost eliminating it. A number of couples got as far as the old Straw road turnout, but were afraid to go any farther. However, there were a few brave spirits who took a chance of skidding all the way from the turnout to the clubhouse, and arrived without harm. They felt well repaid for their efforts, for after all a small, intimate affair is always the most enjoyable, and as the punch was all that could be desired, the musicians specially fit, and the rain cooled air extremely refreshing, a "god time" was had by all from 10 until 12. Since this dance was not just what it was planned to be, invitations are today being posted for the annual mid-summer dance of the

HONORING MISS CONLEY

Miss Faye Nixon is entertaining this evening with a swimming party and picnic at Lake Cisco, in honor of the incoming new health nurse, Miss Joyce Conley, of San Marcos, Texas. This affair promises to be right in line with former events that she has planned and executed. A dip in the lake, followed by a picnic lunch, will be the order of the program for the evening's good times. Those who will attend are: Misses Geneva and Marie Armer, Mabel Knight, Callie Morris, Emma Stevens, Helen Brady, Joyce Conley, Mrs. Lena Hight, Miss Nixon; Messrs. T. G. McCorkle, McReynolds, Paul Wolfe, Jimmie Cox, Midge Adams, Cops, Dewey Jones, Bill Pettitt, Bob Wilson.

AUXILIARY MEETING

The auxiliary society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Geo. H. Bohning Monday afternoon, at which time Mrs. Bohning had also asked the members of the Westminster Guild to be present and enjoy a social hour or two. Needlework and conversation made the hour slip pleasantly by and a further enjoyable feature of the afternoon's pleasure was the easy access to a bowl of fruit punch, and serving of cake and ice cream. There was a splendid attendance of members from both the auxiliary and the guild present.

NEGRO DROWNS WHILE BATHING IN LAKE LEON

Arthur East Does Stunt Diving, But One Too Many Proves Fatal.

Lake Leon, near Eastland, in which a number of people have lost their life by drowning during the last few years, claimed another victim yesterday afternoon, when Arthur East, a negro, was drowned. East and a party of colored folks were on the lake fishing and East, who is about 30 years old, was amusing the crowd by giving diving stunts into the deep water in the upper part of the lake.

When East was seen to go down the third time and not come up, his companions became alarmed and started to Eastland for help. On their way in they overtook Floyd Bryant, Clarence Whitlock, "Blackie" Cothan and Fred Franks, all of Eastland, who were returning from the lake where they had been in bathing. When told of the negro's plight the boys returned to the scene and Bryant went into the water after East. He experienced considerable difficulty in getting the body as East is a large man and seemed to be stuck in the mud at the bottom of the lake. The body was rushed to a sanitarium where efforts were made to revive East, but he had been in the water some 40 minutes before he was taken out, and life was extinct.

East's parents and his widow live in Eastland. East has been employed as elevator boy at the Texas State bank building.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By E. R. Waite, Secretary Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

That cooperation and a determination to do greater things does much to make a bigger city.

That a city will progress or retrograde; make yours progress faster.

That it doesn't pay to lose time in argument.

That a city learns to live, when it learns to boost.

That your city should go full speed ahead.

That if you want to make a good living, if you want a better city in which to live, if you want better homes, better schools, churches, playgrounds and parks, boost your city on its way to greater achievement.

That if you want a city in which your children will have a chance to make good, boost your city.

Good business must be considered as one of the greatest helps in city building. Without good business there cannot be any very satisfactory realization.

Texas Girl Falls From High Window

CHECKING AUTOMOBILE THEFTS.

The joy-rider and the automobile thief have both come to grief through the enactment of laws for the certification of automobile titles. Twenty-two states, according to the insurance department of the United States, have enacted such statutes, seven of them this year, and more states are considering legislation of this character.

Estimates of automobile thefts vary, running from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 annually, in the aggregate. Certification laws have had the effect of checking them perceptibly by making it difficult for the thief to dispose of them not being able to give title. Insurance companies have agreed to reduce their rates against theft 10 per cent in the states where statutes are enacted.

The curb intended for thieves has also placed a check upon the joy-rider, as the latter often takes some one else's car when indulging in this diversion.

It is generally admitted that the maximum benefit will not be obtained from certification until it has been adopted in all the states. When this comes to pass the thief will not be able to dispose of the stolen cars without forging a certificate of title.

Seventeen per cent of the people killed and injured in street accidents occurring at night would not have been hurt if the streets had had adequate electric illumination. In 1923, 22,600 persons were killed, 678,000 injured and a $600,000,000 economic loss was incurred by traffic accidents.

'BROKEN OUT' FACES ARE NOT IN STYLE

The girls who can't wear clothes which are in style because they have eczema, rash, tetter, scrofula or a "breaking out" where it would show are more to be scolded than pitied, because there is no need for them to be unattractive in out-of-style dresses when they can get rid of these skin troubles so easily now.

Black and White Ointment, and Soap, are surprising thousands of girls who have had to deny themselves the attention which more attractive girls get, because they quickly remove all trace of these skin troubles.

They are economically priced, liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.

FIREMEN CALLED OUT BY FIRE AT GASOLINE PLANT

Ranger firemen started on a run at 9:10 this morning to the Southern Gasoline plant about eight miles northwest of Ranger, beyond Tiffin. The truck was met just before reaching Tiffin by a car carrying several employees of the plant, who reported the fire had been extinguished by local equipment maintained at the plant.

The fire started in unit No. 1 of the plant and none knows the origin of the blaze except that while the men were working nearby they suddenly saw the No. 1 unit burst into flames. The alarm was immediately turned in and the Ranger firemen responded instantly, taking the big 750-gallon pumper. A tank that supplies the plant with water is close by and on a former alarm the suction line of the pump was dropped into the tank and enough water obtained in this way to control the flames. Two firemen with the second truck were on guard at the fire station.

No estimate of the damage was made as the entire No. 1 unit will have to be overhauled before the extent of the damage can be learned, according to W. P. Dykema, superintendent of the Southern Gasoline company.

"We wish to express our appreciation of the efforts made by the Ranger fire department to aid us," said Mr. Dykema. "The blaze would have been decidedly serious if our local equipment had not availed."

DeLeon and Cisco Students Win Class Honors in University

AUSTIN, July 14.—Honor roll students of the college of engineering of the University of Texas for the last term have just been announced by T. U. Taylor, dean of the college. Eighty students received honorable mention for doing superior work during the term, gradings being made for the first eleven percentages of the students. As a whole the grades were higher for the spring term than in the same term of the year before, said Dean Taylor, and the size of the honor roll is steadily increasing.

Among the best one per cent four students tied for the highest honor. Those were O. J. Murphy of Austin, C. F. Reming of Uvalde, B. E. Short of D Leon, and H. F. Wilson of Silsbee. Two others also included in the best one per cent were J. R. Coltharp of Childress and R. E. Shelby of Austin.

Among the best two per cent were J. E. Hoff of Comanche, T. S. Gray of Austin, M. Artzt of Tyler, G. G. Decker of Mission, J. B. Lovejoy of Austin, L. Berclay of Chester, and E. M. Ruth of Dallas.

Mayfield of Kaners City, and A. C. Mierow of San Antonio.

Among the best five per cent were R. M. Baker of San Antonio, J. D. McFarland of Cleburne, C. R. Olson of Cisco, J. L. Franklin of Dallas, J. M. Kincaid of San Antonio, B. F. Bailey of Paris, A. F. Krieger of Giddings and P. M. Netzer of Laredo.

AMERICAN LEGION

Billy Evans Says

ONE OF GREATEST THE RECORD GAME

WHEN the veteran, Herb Pennock shut out the heavy-hitting Athletics over 15 innings the other day, he turned in one of the premier performances of his long and illustrious career.

Not only did the Yankee hurler blank the Macks, but over that lengthy stretch he permitted but four safe swats, one a triple by Jimmy Dykes that all but brought defeat.

Any gunner holding the Mackmen to but a quartet of safeties in 15 sessions is certainly dishing up a real brand of pitching, too. Feats like that aren't popping out very often these days. Not by a long margin.

In all those 15 frames, Pennock didn't issue a solitary pass, or make a wild pitch either. The Macks had just two men left on the sacks. Real hurling in every sense of the word.

Frankly, it was one of the best bits of pitching, everything considered, turned in on a major league diamond in quite some time.

SWIMMING ADDS TO HEALTH AND IS PROTECTION

It Gives Grace and Beauty of Form Also and in Winning Favor With Women.

Swimming for self protection, swimming for health and last, but not least, swimming for grace and beauty of form—this is the three-fold recommendation given the aquatic sport by Dr. J. Allen Patton and, in his opinion, explains why the majority of girls at the home office of the Prudential Insurance company, where he is medical director, voted it their favorite sport.

"There is no other sport and there is no athletic game that gives such symmetrical development to the human form as swimming," said Dr. Patton. "There is a certain rhythm about a swimming stroke. It seems to set up a sense of harmony in the mind that expresses itself in all a person's other movements. I consider swimming second only to dancing as an aid to grace.

"Swimming brings into play virtually every muscle in the body. In swimming there is less likelihood of over-development of any one set of muscles than in any other exercise. When a person has learned to swim properly the trunk of the body is relaxed. It is propelled by the arms and the legs. As it rolls easily in the water the internal organs which are in a position different from that in which they repose at any other time, get a gentle massage which aids their functioning.

"Swimming may be leisurely or strenuous, according to a person's physical force. It is an excellent exercise for expanding the chest and promoting deep breathing. It is good for the spine for through the rolling of the body there is an easy rotation which it gets in hardly any other way.

"It is the most effective exercise to take off the slacker flesh that women are likely to accumulate around the waist and hips. The movements of the arms and those of the legs in swimming bring into play both the abdominal and dorsal muscles of the trunk.

"Of course every person—man, woman or child—as soon as he can learn should know how to swim as a protective measure in case of accident," said Dr. Patton, reverting to the practical. "But too few persons take advantage of swimming as an exercise. Salt water has a tonic effect on most persons but whether the water be salt or fresh, swimming is an exhilarating exercise that more and more women every year, summer and winter, are indulging in as an aid in correcting physical defects and to keep their figures youthful."

He Can Hit

Introducing the "Babe Ruth of the Western League." In other words, meet "Doc" Payne, of the Wichita club, one of the hardest hitters in the history of that organization. Payne is clouting the pellet over 400, leading the circuit. He's quite a home run guy, too. Over one stretch of 11 games he crashed out seven four-piers. Big league scouts have their eyes on him.

OLDEN

OLDEN, July 15.—Miss Fayé Leclair and Mr. Hubert Russell were married Saturday evening in Cisco at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Mr. Leggett. Those accompanying them as witnesses were Miss Nina McMinn and Harvey Mitchell. Mrs. Russell is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leclair of the Magnolia Petroleum company here and counts her friends by the score, who wish her a long and happy life. Mr. Russell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Russell here. The young couple will be at home to their friends in Olden.

The baby son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ray is seriously ill with ptomaine poisoning.

L. V. Ford and L. G. Adams returned Saturday from Dallas where they had been several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean of Altus, Okla., are here visiting their son, R. E. Dean and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horner were week-end guests of Mrs. Horner's

—to have a good APPETITE!

"Yes! thank you."

A GOOD appetite means a cheerful disposition.

You may have a good appetite if the blood that goes constantly to your vital organs is pure. S.S.S. purifies the blood—a good appetite follows and you will have a clear complexion and will be strong, cheerful and healthy.

Don't go on feeling up one day and down the next—hardly sick but never well—losing "pep," punch and ambition. Hearty eaters are the red-blooded men and women. Enjoy your food! Get back your strength and energy! Reclaim yourself before it is too late! People in a physically run-down condition are an easy prey to disease.

S.S.S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. Your blood-cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. S.S.S. aids Nature in supplying new red-blood-cells—the spark that renews your system. Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S.S.S.—the great blood purifier which gives Nature a helping hand.

Get back the lost appetite, the missing vitality, the keen, sparkling eyes, that look of determination. S.S.S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

NEGRO COUPLE GET JOY FROM SHOOTING AND STABBING

By United Press.

DALLAS, July 15.—A negro who had his "old woman" locked up last week, told the court that she was so playful, and too good a marksman with a pistol.

"Ise tired of takin' all the blame for this shootin' and stabbin'," he told the judge. Just a week before he had been haled into court after being "shot at" by the woman, and she trailed him to the station and they believed her story.

This time she was sought for by officers and told the judge a still different story. "You see, I always am playin' wif him that way. I draws a knife and makes a stab at him and he's supposed to dodge, but he just didn't dodge this time. That's all."

She must have anticipated his dodging accurately this time though, if her story is straight, but her man was carrying a piece of lead in his shoulder and another in his foot.

She was disarmed and confined, and her hubby is still in the Emergency hospital, with a good chance to get a rest.

DEMAND FOR G. F. P. IS INCREASING BY LEAPS AND BOUNDS

Druggists Were at First Doubtful About the Unheard of Demand Which Immediately Followed its Introduction Here.

The test of time and real service show better than theory, what can be expected of a medicine. The continued growth in the rate of G. F. P. sales is a forceful indication of the dependence which women are learning, through experience, they can place in this marvelous medicine to relieve them of pain and suffering from so-called "female troubles" and restore them to health and happiness with an abundance of energy, vitality and youthful buoyancy.

"The enthusiastic words of praise which thousands of women are now showering on G. F. P. every day," says the representative of the discoverers of this remarkable medicine, "is a source of intense satisfaction to all of us."

Through the amazing discovery that catarrh of the generative organs is the dread malady which is responsible for 90 per cent of so-called "female disorders," such as headaches, backaches, pain in the sides, nausea, cramping, dizziness, nervousness and that awful feeling of despondency and melancholy, we were able to give G. F. P. powers not possessed by any other medicine. That is, ability to overcome and stamp out that dreaded malady—catarrh; and to quickly build up strength, energy and vitality through stimulating and encouraging the natural functioning of all the organs of the body.

Dietician Suggests the Proper Food To Nourish the Hungry Children

By BARBARA BROOKS

(Kellogg Co. Home Economics Dept., Battle Creek, Mich.)

Someone has said that a child is just one long exaggerated appetite. This statement will be heartily endorsed by many mothers, especially during the summer vacation. It needs only an appetizing odor from the kitchen to lure the children to the door begging for something to eat because they are "simply starved."

And they are hungry. If they go to bed at the right time, they are up early, and after breakfast, play so energetically that by mid-morning when the crisp, brown cookies are done they cannot wait another minute for a taste. Do you remember how good your own mother's cookies, hot from the oven, tasted to you? You have to close your eyes to recall their flavor!

Some children, too, are of a more nervous temperament than others and need food at more frequent intervals. This type should be fed often, but not in such amounts as to spoil their appetites for the next meal. With all children care must be taken to give them simple food, which is easily digested and not too sweet. For this reason the jar filled with wholesome cookies is a real help to mother. Another good between-meal food is ready-to-eat cereal. This can be eaten dry without danger of over-eating. Especially in hot weather is a bowl of cornflakes a welcome filler for the child whose legs seem to be hollow.

The following cookie recipes are nourishing. They are neither too rich nor too sweet and the fruit and coarse cereal give them extra health value.

Concordia Bran Cookies
1-3 cup sugar, 1-4 cup butter, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, rind of half an orange, grated; 1 cup flour, 1-4 teaspoon soda, 1-4 cup sour milk, 1 cup all-bran.

Combine sugar, shortening, salt, vanilla and orange rind, beating very well. Sift flour with soda and add alternately with milk. Add All-Bran. Chill until thoroughly cold, and roll thin. Cut in desired shape. Use as little additional flour as possible. Bake in moderate oven for 12 to 15 minutes. (380F).

Fig Newtons
1-3 cup shortening, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup All-Bran, 2 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-3 cup milk.

Cream the shortening and sugar together and add the egg. Beat well. Add All-Bran and sift the flour, salt and baking powder, alternating this with the milk in adding to the other mixture. Put in the ice box and thoroughly chill. When cold, roll in a thin strip, 4 inches wide. Fill one half lengthwise with fig filling. Fold other side over and pinch sides together. Cut this strip in pieces 2 inches long. Brush with milk and bake on buttered baking sheet. (350 to 375 degrees)

Neglective Lighting Effects In the Show Windows and Stores Cost Real Money

High rents are teaching dealers what a lot of preaching never did—that merchandising show windows will produce more rapid turnovers and net profit on each dollar's worth of goods they sell than several salesmen. Show windows rightly used are the best advertising medium any store can possess.

It also costs in any store too much not to have sales building window displays. Every day a dealer neglects his show windows he gives his wide awake competitors an advantage in selling.

If a dealer is interested in making money and if he is especially interested in getting returns on the money he has invested his show windows will be his hardest working and least expensive method of producing greater sales.

When in doubt how to plan your lighting effects at the store or in your home get in touch with our illuminating engineers by telephone or appointment for suggestions.

Lineman Killed While Working Among Wires

DALLAS, July 15.—A. J. Storey, 35, a lineman, was electrocuted here Tuesday when he became entangled among some high-tension wires while working at the top of a pole. He lost his hold on a cross-arm where he was standing and caught another cross-arm to save himself, making contact with two high voltage wires. The electricity went through his body and he was quickly enveloped in flames. A fellow workman climbed to him and cut away the wires. He was still alive, but unconscious and died on the way to the hospital.

American Girl Visits the Saventians, 'Lost Nation of Caucasus Mountains'

HAVERHILL, Mass.—An American girl's adventurous journey on horseback into the mountain home of the Saventians, the "lost nation of the Caucasus mountains," was described here by Miss Pauline Jordan, a Near East relief worker who has just returned from five years abroad.

"For 1,200 years the Saventians have been completely out of touch with the outside world," said Miss Jordan. "They are a wild, primitive race of mysterious origin inhabiting a long, narrow strip on the top of the highest peaks of the Caucasus. Still in the tribal stage of development, they have a curiously mixed religion which combines the worship of trees, the old Hebraic rite of animal sacrifice, and some elements of Christianity. The essence of their religion, they say, is observance of the Golden Rule. They are of the white race, with fair hair and blue eyes.

"The country is accessible through a labyrinth of mountain passes for only a few weeks each year. I was the first American woman who had ever visited them. From the foothills, I rode for five days, 12 hours a day, on horseback, and remained as their guest for three weeks, more than 9,000 feet above sea level.

"They live in scattered villages of wooden construction, wearing homespun and skins, and live mainly from hunting. In many places I found a whole tribe sleeping under a single roof. Generally their buildings are rambling shacks of two stories, with the animals inhabiting the lower floor and the humans living in the loft above.

"There is a head man in each village whose authority is absolute, although governed by the unwritten tribal law. Feuds are common, and killing in feuds is not punished, although ordinary murder subjects the offender to imprisonment or exile for a term of two years.

"I was told in Tiflis that I would not come out of the mountain alive, but my mission was important, being connected with the future of several orphan children of Caventian origin who are students in our orphanage. As a matter of fact, I had no trouble with the tribesmen, whom I found very peaceable.
