

Case Labor Bill Backers Press Truman Version

Agree To Postpone Measure's Revival Until Next Session

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Backers of the vetoed Case labor disputes bill reported today they have called off their fight to revive the controversial measure until probably next year.

They said they will work instead for passage of a modified version of President Truman's emergency strike control legislation, which would give him power to take over essential strike-bound industries.

Added to the presidential proposal, they said, will be only such sections of the Case plan as the chief executive indicates he will accept. At present they have no assurance he will agree to any such addition.

Opponents of the far-reaching Case measure held the decision of its sponsors to withhold their fight for a while as "a smashing victory" in congress for Mr. Truman in his fight over the hotly debated bill.

This interpretation of the move, which came from Rep. Biemiller (D-Wis) and others who fought the Case legislation, was promptly disputed by its backers.

"We are not surrendering to the president in any sense," Rep. Case (R-SD) author of the measure, told reporters.

"But there is no sense in the president and congress making faces at one another."

Rep. Cox, (D-Ga) asserted that "this does not mean we are giving up, only that we will not press the matter for the time being."

Cox added that his colleagues will go along with creation of a joint senate-house committee as requested by Mr. Truman, to draft permanent labor regulation legislation.

Cox said that it thus probably will be next year before a broad new strike control bill will be adopted, unless some new major industrial dispute develops.

Georgetown Prepares For Nimitz' Visit

GEORGETOWN, June 15. (AP)—The town was polished and gleaming today for the reception of Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, who will arrive here tomorrow afternoon to attend the 108th annual commencement of Southwestern University.

Admiral Nimitz will receive the honorary doctor of laws degree from the school and will review the university's Navy unit Monday morning.

From Georgetown, Nimitz will go to Corpus Christi to visit the naval air station.

Reviewing The Big Spring - Week -

Joe Pickle

Back again, after wartime interruption, are conventions. Big Spring is happy to play host this week to a large group of Lions, representing both the state organization and District 2-T. It will be one of the largest groups of visitors we've had in a half-dozen years, and we hope they find Big Spring friendly and hospitable.

We can afford to go to work again, toward bringing conventions to our city. We're admirably situated for regional gatherings.

Big Spring made a name for herself this week in the amazing success of the foothandlers' short course, which set three state records — total registration, average daily attendance, and certificates awarded. There were over 660 of the latter, and this ought to pay off in better health. Orchids to all those connected with the affair.

The Texas & Pacific railroad has announced an admirable new feature, in the through service of its Sunshine Special trains between Texas and the East. You can board a Sunshine now, and not get off it until you reach Washington or New York. The switching and car-changing in St. Louis are abandoned. Travelers will welcome this.

Our publicized 50-block paving project has hit another snag. The method of financing, through certificates, was a source of concern to some contractors who are not able to carry a big finance burden. City dads will try again at their next meeting, and there is reason to believe they can work something out. If the city itself doesn't take on more work, there's another method of contract-letting that can be followed.

It would be a fine thing if Big Spring could land a National Guard unit, and the city commission has laid the groundwork in making

Released Merger Bill Favors Army

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—President Truman asked congress today to merge the armed forces under a single cabinet officer and give the air forces more responsibility than the navy wanted that branch to have.

The president, deciding a disagreement between the secretaries of war and navy over unification details, ruled generally in favor of the army position on three points they told him they could not resolve. He went most of the way with the navy on the fourth major point in dispute.

Along with the letter to military and naval committee chairmen of the house and senate setting forth the president's plan for the merger, the White House mailed a letter to Secretaries Paterson and Forrestal, advising them that the disagreements are "herewith decided."

Mr. Truman told the congressional leaders that the two secretaries, together with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, army chief of staff, and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, had "assured me that they will support such a plan" as the one he offered.

Also made public was the report of the cabinet members, made May 31, which set out their agreement on eight of the 12 points in Mr. Truman's proposal to congress, and their varying positions on the other four.

The president's ruling for a single department under one cabinet head was strictly an army victory.

The navy said it recognized the need for greater integration but that it favored unification "in a less drastic and extreme form."

The president came closer to army's desires than to the navy's ideas in his decision favoring three coordinate branches in that department—one of them for air—and each having a non-calnet secretary.

Only on the question of the status of the marine corps, did the president take the navy's advice in preference to the army's.

Officer Fined $250 For Unauthorized Prisoner Punishment

BAD NAUHEIM, Germany, June 15.—(AP)—A military court today convicted Lt. Granville Cubage of permitting "unauthorized punishment," including beatings with clubs, on American soldier prisoners at Lichfield, Eng., fined him $250 and administered a reprimand.

The tall blond 27-year-old lieutenant from Oklahoma City, Okla., the first officer to be convicted in the Lichfield trials, flushed as the verdict was announced by Col. Martin G. White, Tyler, Tex., court president.

The court modified radically the original charge, eliminating all reference to cruel or unusual punishment, and clearing him personally of aiding in any improper punishment.

EYES ON PARIS MEET; ATOMIC COUNCIL—

Next Three Weeks Critical Period For Creation Of Permanent Peace

Washington diplomats are keeping one eye on the progress of the atom plan in New York, and the other on Paris. They say that if the great powers can work together to harness the atom and draft the peace treaties, they can solve eventually all their problems.

Nation's Shipping Boggled Down As Maritimers Await Final Vote

Bridges Already Plans For New Strike Trouble

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP) — The CIO-supported committee for maritime unity, with one dock strike just averted, announced tonight plans for a $2,000,000 "strike fund" and for world-wide meetings in preparation for new contract negotiations Sept. 30.

The CMU, headed by Harry Bridges and Joseph Curran co-chairmen, disclosed plans for "joint conferences with the maritime unions of other nations" during the summer preparatory to a new maritime crisis next fall.

This indication of future labor front difficulties came as peace was just returning to the nation's waterfronts. The labor department was viewing the strike outlook with last night's maritime dispute settlement as background, as the best in months.

Louis Goldblatt, CMU secretary, announced that the CMU executive committee had voted—to build a $1,000,000 strike fund.

Before the CMU made its ominous announcement of future plans the capital had looked at the labor situation with fresh optimism.

"It looks better now than it has for some time — very much better," said Howard T. Colvin, associate director of the U. S. conciliation service. "There are not over a dozen strikes in the entire country of sufficient national importance to cause any excitement at all."

Union leaders have warned of a new race for higher wages if price controls are abandoned or if OPA's powers are clipped to the extent that living costs take a sudden upward jump.

Colonel And Wife See Nothing Criminal About Their Action

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—An Army Colonel and his WAC wife, held in the Kronberg Castle Jewels case, asserted today that they had admitted nothing "which they considered criminal" and demanded that the War Department release them or state its charges, "if any."

Held at an undisclosed Army post not far from Washington, the couple, Col. Jack W. Durant and Capt. Kathleen B. Nash Durant, issued a statement through counsel assigned them by the military.

They were taken into custody a week ago while on their honeymoon after the War Department had begun an investigation into the disappearance of approximately $1,500,000 in jewels and other relics from a German castle at which the Army said both had been stationed.

Airmen's Testimony Refused By Court

BELGRADE, June 15. (AP)—A defense request that American aviators be permitted to testify for Gen. Draja Mihailovic was refused by the military court today after the bearded Chetnik leader himself declared he did not agree "in principle" with such a move.

Mihailovic also repudiated his testimony yesterday admitting collaboration. He said he was exhausted when he answered "yes" to questions put to him by the prosecutor the day before.

In an oral decision denying the request to summon the American witnesses, the court president asserted that men who were in Yugoslavia only a short time would not be as valuable witnesses as those who knew the situation thoroughly.

ANDERSON SEES NO NEED TO RETURN TO RATIONING

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson declared tonight he does not believe a return to consumer rationing will be necessary to have peoples in other lands from starvation in the year ahead.

He said the United States no longer has the machinery for enforcing rationing and he doubts "congress will wish to set it up again, at this point."

The government is developing, the secretary said, "a simpler form of rationing nearer the source—rationing of wheat and other short supplies to processors and distributors."

As an example, he cited an agriculture department order requiring millers to cut their distribution of flour for domestic consumption 25 per cent from last year's level.

Anderson gave this view in a report prepared for a national broadcasting company program entitled "Can Famine Be Prevented?" Sir John Boyd Orr, director-general of the United Nations food and agriculture organization, also took part.

The secretary said American crop prospects are good, but he forecast short supplies of bread grain, meats and fats for 1947.

Many Return To Ships When Locals Ratify

By The Associated Press

The nation's maritime union workers on dock and ship began a back-to-work movement yesterday at some ports, but thousands remained idle as union memberships voted on ratification of the last minute settlement reached in Washington in the wage dispute that had stalled vital shipping.

Settlement of the dispute was announced just before the midnight deadline Friday night—but not in time to avert the scheduled walkout of the seven-union committee for maritime unity.

Five union groups in New York City, comprising all elements involved in the walkout there, voted yesterday to end the stoppage and accept the settlement.

About 500 seamen of the National Maritime union in Philadelphia voted to ratify the agreement and the port returned to normal.

At Baltimore merchant seamen voted overwhelmingly to accept the terms and prepared to return to work immediately.

Anthony Lucio, NMU port agent at Charleston, S. C., called off picket lines pending the outcome of the voting. Shipping remained stalled.

Port activities were normal at Mobile.

The walkout lasted two hours in Boston, involving 750 men. They soon drifted back to their vessels following NMU ratification there.

On the Pacific coast, where 22,000 men were affected, the coast negotiating committee advised longshoremen to expedite their voting on ratification of the Washington agreement so that if accepted, they could return to work Monday.

Longshoremen in Seattle and Los Angeles approved the agreement and decided to return to work Monday. At Seattle the 7,000 workers said they would handle a few emergency ships immediately.

Price Of Sugar To Be Increased

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—OPA is planning to slap a higher price on another market basket item—sugar.

And the cost of coffee may be increased three to five cents a pound soon.

With price hikes authorized or already in effect for milk, bread, butter, cheese and some cereals, an OPA official disclosed that housewives will have to pay more for sugar shortly.

This official told a reporter privately that the increase at retail will be about a fifth of a cent a pound—a penny on a five pound package. The price will be raised, he said, to offset wage increases granted to sugar refinery workers.

Officials said withdrawal of the coffee subsidy would push prices up three cents a pound, and that it may be necessary to add another two cents to keep the supply flowing from Latin America.

OPA also announced that a second home canning ration stamp, good for five pounds of sugar, will become valid July 1. The coupon spare stamp 10 in family ration books, will be good through October 31.

Spare stamp 9, now valid for five pounds, also is good through October 31.

Molotov Agrees To Add Austria As "Problem"; Suggests Watching Italy

PARIS, June 15 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov agreed today to add Austria to the foreign ministers conference agenda, but insisted that the Italian political situation be watched to prevent a regrowth of fascism into full scale civil war, American and British informants said.

In a sudden and surprising concession, Molotov reversed Soviet policy as expressed throughout sessions last month and consented to study Austria as "a problem."

Molotov objected to confining the Austrian question to the American-sponsored draft treaty which Washington had circulated among the other powers — France, Russia and Britain.

He maintained that recent events in Italy reflected an attempt by monarchists and fascists to overthrow the republic, and cited the declaration of Moscow in 1943 to justify Allied intervention in Italian affairs to prevent a rebirth of fascism, American informants said.

The Soviet foreign minister asked the council to add the Italian situation to the agenda as a preliminary to intervention if events justified such a course.

US Secretary of State James F. Byrnes replied that the United States had no objection if events really justified such action. But added that official information available to the United States showed that the Italian government now had the situation in hand and was successfully upholding the republic, American sources said.

The suggestion to place Austria on the agenda as a "simple problem" was made by the French, and Molotov concurred.

The ministers met for two and a half hours in their initial session, then adjourned until Monday.

Rail Bankruptcy Provisions Passed

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The senate passed and sent to the house today legislation writing new restrictions into the bankruptcy laws governing railroad organizations.

Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) of the senate interstate commerce committee said the bill would enable railroads to adjust financial affairs "quickly, economically and on a business basis," while protecting companies and investors.

Wheeler, floor manager for the bill, said that if congress did not act to limit the application of section 77 of the bankruptcy act, approximately $500,000,000 in par value of junior bonds of railroads, and some $2,000,000,000 stated value of preferred and common railroad stocks would become worthless.

Stanton Church To Dedicate Building

STANTON, June 15.—The Stanton Church of Christ will dedicate a new brick building in worship services here Sunday.

First services in the new structure, which has seating capacity of 300 people, will be conducted at 10:30 a. m. by Elmore Johnson, local minister. Dinner will be served at the city park following the service, and at 2 p. m. a singing will be held at the new building.

Regular evening worship services will begin at 8 p. m. Work started on the new building almost eight months ago, and plans originally called for completion in four months. However, difficulties in securing materials hampered the working schedule.

Mercury Touches Top Of 98 Degrees Here

Saturday, as if you didn't know, was a sizzler. The mercury at the airport touched 98 degrees.

But Quanah, in North Texas, reported a top of 102 degrees. Denison registered 100 and Clarendon 99.

There was a trace of rainfall at Houston, but only sunshine in West Texas.

Hope For Settlement Of Loggers' Strike

VICTORIA, B. C., June 15 (AP)—Prospects for settlement of the 32-day-old strike of 35,000 loggers and millworkers in British Columbia appeared brighter today following a meeting of union officials with Premier John Hart and his cabinet.

Labor Minister Pearson said "we are going to do all we possibly can to bring both parties together and keep them together until the matter is settled."

WITNESS — Capt. Granville Conway (above) was shipping chief—Lt. Kelly house labor sub-committee, that a settlement will probably be reached in threatened maritime strike. (APWirephoto.)

US, Russians May Begin Negotiations For Loan Shortly

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The United States has drafted a third note to Moscow, inviting the Russians to begin negotiations for a requested billion dollar loan in mid-July.

Government officials disclosed today the message had been drawn up and approved by Secretary of State Byrnes before he left for Paris Thursday. If the note has not already been sent, it will go out in a few days, they said.

These officials, who are closely connected with the negotiations, said that despite Moscow's previously expressed reluctance to do so, the American government is insisting on discussing economic conditions in eastern Europe before and during any such talks.

Other topics which American government officials are known to feel should be discussed with the Russians are:

1. Settlement of the Soviet lend-lease account which totals about $11,000,000,000.

2. A Russian pledge to join the international bank and monetary fund along with a promise to attend the American-sponsored 15-nation trade conference aimed at lowering commercial barriers.

Red Attitude Factor In Atomic Control

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—Members of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission generally agreed today that approval of an atomic control plan would be a long process and that Russia's attitude would be the key factor.

There also was agreement on another point: That the plan offered yesterday by US Representative Bernard M. Baruch probably would be the only comprehensive plan submitted and that the other nations would merely offer amendments.

Members of the commission indicated there was not likely to be any official comment before Wednesday, when the 12-nation body will meet to resume discussions.

Crowd Expected At Fort - Edwards Roping Match

Indications are that a large crowd of roping fans will be assembled at the rodeo arena in Big Spring Friday night, to see top-notch lariat twirlers match their skill and speed.

The Big Spring Cowboy Roping association has drawn up a feature event which will be headlined by a contest between Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M., and Sonny Edwards of Big Spring. These two, consistent money winners in roping events, will tie 12 calves each.

Harry Howard of Rankin and E. P. Driver, of Big Spring are matched for six calves each, and a free-for-all jackpot event will follow the matched contests.

As added features, there will be a girls' contest in calf roping and a girls' flag race.

Because of this attraction, the weekly amateur hour at the amphitheatre will not be held this Friday night, the chamber of commerce has announced. The roping program is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock.

Animals Killed As Train Is Derailed

MARSHALL, June 15 (AP)—A number of animals were killed when the Texas & Pacific freight train No. 56, bound from Fort Worth to St. Louis with a cargo of cattle and vegetables, derailed two miles west of Marshall early today.

Nineteen cars overturned and two derailed. H. B. Burden of Mineola, the conductor, was treated for a slight head cut.

Four cars of cattle and three of sheep were wrecked. The cargo also contained lettuce, lemons, oranges, cantaloupes and cauliflower.

Texas Buys A Fifth Of New Bond Quota

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Texas already has bought one-fifth of its $33,000,000 quota in series E bonds in the US treasury's savings bond drive.

With the campaign only nine days old, sales through June 14 were reported at $6,429,123.75, with a total of $9,206,226 in all US savings bonds, according to the treasury's figures.

Vineyard Resigns To Work For CAA

J. O. Vineyard Jr., who has been employed at the chamber of commerce for the past month, has resigned his position there and will leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to begin work as an inspector for the CAA.

Vineyard formerly served as a pilot for Trans-World Airlines, flying runs between Kansas City and California, and for a time he was with the Air Transport Command at Love Field in Dallas.

After a 30-day indoctrination at Washington, he will be assigned to a CAA region for inspection work. His wife and young son, Tim, will remain here until he completes the indoctrination and receives his assignment.

Pfc. Comrado O. Acosta, 10-year-old paratrooper, whose wife lives in Big Spring, has been assigned to the 11th Airborne Division, the Eighth Army in Japan has announced.

Vincent Woman Improves Range

Mrs. Ida Mae Oldham of Vincent, is developing a plan of soil and water conservation and range improvement on her ranch. Technical assistance in planning conservation is being furnished by employees of the Big Spring SCS office.

"Providing adequate water facilities and dividing large pastures into smaller units by fencing materially aids range management and maintenance of desirable grasses," Mrs. Oldham said.

Water diversions have been laid out for J. Y. Robb, H. L. Moates, and G. G. Caldwell. Diversions are useful aids to help concentrate run-off into tanks or to divert water from low areas by holding it on flat areas for use in growing more grass. In many places roadside diversions have stopped gullying, enabling vegetation to stabilize the eroded areas, reported Welland A. Watson of the SCS.

Abruzzi rye is being grown successfully on the Roy Warren farm west of Colorado City. Mr. Warren made a trial planting on 22 acres last fall in cooperation with the Mitchell SC District, and has found the Abruzzi rye to be very good in controlling wind erosion on blow sand in addition to furnishing an abundance of grazing during winter months.

Warren ran 50 head of cows on the 22 acres of rye and is well pleased with the results obtained. It is apparent that Abruzzi rye merits consideration as a winter cover crop and temporary pasture for the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, stated C. R. Donaldson of the SCS.

Draft Compromise Expected Shortly

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—A conference committee of senate and house ironing out kinks in a bill to extend the draft law plans to meet again Monday amid indications a compromise is near.

The biggest headache is over whether to draft teen agers, but Senator Gurney (R-SD) told a reporter that probably would be cured by recommending drafting boys of 18 only as a last resort, with the proviso they not be sent overseas before they are 19.

Chairman Thomas (D-Utah) of the senate military committee said it was agreed to restore the draft age limit of 45 years in place of the present 29. However, the army has said it does not want men over 30.

The present draft law expires June 30.

War Crimes Attorneys In Tokyo Resigning

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP) — NBC reported in a Tokyo broadcast today that six members of the Japanese war crimes tribunal defense counsel had resigned, charging they had not been given sufficient time to prepare their case and asserting that continuation of the trial under present conditions would be "a reflection on American justice."

The six attorneys conferred with Gen. MacArthur last week in an effort to persuade him to intervene, but MacArthur refused to act on the grounds that a postponement is a matter for decision by the tribunal itself, the broadcast said.

The six have expressed an intention to urge a congressional investigation of the trial.

Building Permits Down, Livestock Sales Increase

Building permits in Big Spring would have set a new low for the year during the past week, except for one remodeling project. Only nine permits were issued, and all but three were for estimated costs of less than $1,000 each. Accounting for almost three fourths of the week's total was a permit issued to the A. Williams estate, for remodeling a brick business building at 219 main. The current total for the year is $768,566.

Warranty deeds continued at about average, with transactions involving $66,788 filed in the county clerk's office. Total for the year is now $2,063,647.

Livestock sales were heavy again during the week, with no relief from the dry weather. Approximately 3,500 head of cattle and a few hogs were sold, most of them at regular sales conducted by the West Texas Livestock Auction company and the Big Spring Livestock Auction company. The market registered steady to strong, with ceiling prices paid for some choice butcher yearlings.

Unions Select Executive Board

An Executive Committee which will do missionary work both in Big Spring and surrounding communities was selected at the second meeting of the Associated Labor Legislative board Friday night in the court house.

Chairman of the group is Charley Vines, a member of the B of L. E. Named to work with him are W. D. Berry, Southwestern Telephone Union; C. S. Kyle, International Association of Machinists; T. E. Baker, BRT; Mrs. Andrew Cain, Ladies Auxiliary of BRT; Mrs. Russell Manion, Ladies Auxiliary of the BLF; Roy Eddings, Carpenters; H. G. Carmack, ORC; Joe Corcoran, ORT; Mrs. Mims, GIA; L. R. Mundt, Painters; Roy Lassiter, Boilermakers; Claude Wright, Electricians; Nick Brenner, Plumbers; Ben Miller, Bricklayers; and B. W. Martin, BRC.

The committee will solicit for the interest of other unions in the newly-formed board, which is taking an active interest in politics as a body for the first time.

Among the speakers were George Dabney, Big Spring mayor.

Next session of the board is set for Friday night, June 21.

Oak Ridge Laboratories Reconverted To Peace

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter
OAK RIDGE, Tenn., June 15—(AP)—The great, shielded ovens that can make atom bomb ingredients, are pioneering today in a new job—producing materials earmarked to serve science, medicine and industry in peacetime.

The army's Manhattan engineer district, creators of the world's deadliest weapon, disclosed the production envisions "nationwide distribution" of radioactive substances made in the same furnaces that produced the fear of the A-bomb.

And the great ovens, now producing limited quantities of these humanitarian by-products of atomic energy, are being geared for the army's objective of "large scale" availability of products which they declared "may well have far-reaching importance in peace-time research in physics, chemistry, metallurgy and the medical sciences."

Meanwhile, the army announced that hospitals, universities, and similar institutions or groups could make immediate application for the small quantities of materials available.

A "reasonable charge" will be made to "cover the out-of-pocket" costs to the United States, the announcement said.

The announcement said that while present production would be increased as rapidly as possible "it will probably be impossible to meet all the demands of the country until additional facilities are built specifically for (radioactive substance) production. This is not contemplated in the immediate future."

Declaring that approximately 100 different radioactive substances—materials that give off invisible rays—would be obtainable "in varying quantities," from the atom bomb project, the war department's statement asserted:

"They will be used in two important ways:

"First as tracer atoms or 'tracers' for following the course of atoms in chemical, biological and technical processes.

"And possibly second, after considerable research, as therapeutic (treatment) agents for treatment of certain special diseases."

Mexican Quarantine To Be Up For Study

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Well informed diplomatic officials said yesterday the U. S. Department of Agriculture had proposed that the subject of a quarantine against Mexican cattle shipments be explored in detail next month by the joint U. S.-Mexican agricultural commission.

The commission is scheduled to convene in Los Angeles July 22. It was learned yesterday that the United States has informed Mexico that the quarantine against Mexican cattle will be continued indefinitely until further discussions have been conducted between the two countries.

Animals Sprayed In Insecticide Tests Friday

Using 95 head of cattle divided into four groups, a livestock spraying demonstration was held Friday at the E. W. Lomax ranch under sponsorship of County Agent Durward Lewter.

Four Women Home From Salon School

Mrs. Patsie Mellon, Dorothy Adams, Mrs. Alfred Collins and Mrs. L. Marchbanks returned Friday night from Fort Worth where they attended the Helena Rubinstein salon school of instruction.

They attended advanced classes in salon treatment with emphasis on contour treatment and care for flannel skins.

Mrs. Mellon has been in cosmetics work for the past 20 years and before coming to the Collins store was representative of a leading cosmetics firm out of New York. She has had radio experience and now has a program on the Big Spring station.

Final Counts Uphold Record In Food Course

Final tabulations at the food handlers short course, which concluded Friday afternoon at the municipal auditorium, showed a total of 904 enrolled, 718 average daily attendance and 681 permanent certificates granted, Lawrence J. Wells, sanitarian, announced.

New state records were set in each of the three tabulations. The former high mark for the state, recorded in a class in Laredo last November, was 808 enrolled, 585 average daily attendance and 638 certificates.

Those earning certificates here become eligible for permanent food handlers permits, as required by city ordinance for all workers in eating and drinking establishments within the corporate limits of Big Spring.

C. B. Breedlove, instructor from the state health department commended the city and county on the interest shown in sanitation. As evidenced by the enrollment figures, the class here completely overshadowed any other similar course the state health department has offered, he said.

In addition to regular employees of cafes, soda fountains, etc., the enrollment was composed of grocery store workers, housewives and slaughter house workers. Several communities in the county were represented.

Farm Conservation Plans Approved

Conservation plans were approved on thirty-two ranches and farms in the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors in Stanton Thursday, reported L. H. Thomas, Chairman of the board.

Each plan is based on what the operator intends to do to conserve his natural resources and how he plans to use the technical assistance of the SCS which is made available by the District. The supervisors reviewed each plan to see that it is adequate in conforming with the program that was prepared by the landowners of the district, reported E. J. Hughes of the SCS who met with the supervisors.

The following farmers and ranchers received assistance through the Big Spring work unit: H. Noble Read and Ray E. Shaw of Coahoma; John L. Whitmire, J. R. Terry and C. E. Talbot of Big Spring; J. A. Burris of Vincent and T. E. Stovall of Luther.

Flag Ceremonies Highlight Show At Amphitheatre

Flag Day ceremonies were presented before a small crowd Friday night at the city park amphitheatre, as a highlight of the regular weekly amateur program sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

Color guards of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars appeared at the flag raising and flag lowering, and Martelle McDonald brought the Flag Day address. Dan Conley was master of ceremonies.

The Melody Mads, a girls quartet composed of Janis Yates, Mable Smith, Leeta Frances Walker and Leslie Cathey, won first prize in the amateur series. Mrs. Ann Houser was their accompanist. Roy Smith took second prize with his presentation of magician's tricks, and Roy Rogan, saxophonist, was third.

The amateur program will not be held next Friday night, the chamber of commerce has announced, due to a conflict with the matched roping contest at the video grounds.

Big Ranch Purchased By Anderson-Clayton

HOUSTON, June 15.—(AP)—Anderson, Clayton & Company, Houston cotton brokers, have purchased the 58,000-acre ranch holdings of Russell Griffin in Fresno county in California for $7,000,000. W. Leland Anderson, vice-president-secretary of the firm, said here today. The purchase price includes all crops of the ranch.

Anderson said the ranch is now in full production of wheat, cotton, barley, flax and melons. About 25,000 acres of the holdings are owned and the balance is under lease, he added.

County's Cash Balance Shows A Decrease

Howard county cash balance for the period ending May 31 totaled $115,526.94, according to figures released by Chester O'Brien, auditor.

The aggregate represents a decrease of $46,857.63 from that of the preceding month.

Expenditures for May amounted to $79,721.53, of which $36,642.67 went into the Road and Bridge fund.

Judging from reports of D. M. McKinney of the Texas Electric Service company, there is a raven surplus in West Texas this year. A total of 169 raven nests were found on light poles between the Chalk oil field and Crane during patrol work last week, and 58 more between Big Spring and Odessa. The birds build their nests atop the poles, McKinney said, often weaving barbed wire and other durable materials into the structure, which makes them difficult for the electric company workers to dislodge.

Smith Opens Campaign With Blast At CIO

NACOGDOCHES, June 15—(AP)—John Lee Smith opened his campaign for governor in this history-touched city with a speech prepared for delivery tonight which declared political war on the CIO.

He termed Nacogdoches the birthplace of Texas freedom, and said from early Texas history he drew "the inspiration to wage a new fight and clean and just and honest government."

His 15-point platform covered a wide range of subjects from old age pensions to rural road improvements, but particular emphasis was placed throughout on his opposition to closed shops and his advocacy of what he termed "free enterprise." He also urged a law to curb strikes.

"I shall urge the legislature to pass a law giving our returned service men priority on all jobs, both public and private," he said. His platform also included:

1. Full payment of old age pensions. He said this could be done without an increase in taxes, from the $35,000,000 balance he said would be in the general fund by September.
2. Aid for the needy blind and dependent children.
3. Better pay for school teachers.
4. A state veterans commission, to aid and assist veterans in getting jobs, etc.
5. Supervision of instruction in schools to ban what he termed the "infiltration . . . of foreign 'isms'."
6. A revamped pardon and parole law. The present statutes, he said, have "worked injury to the public." "We need legislation that will safeguard a trial-jury's verdict against the whim of the pardon board of political pressure."
7. Timber conservation.
8. Better farm-to-market roads.
9. A return of the U. S. employment service to state control.
10. Legislative redistricting, which, he said, should be made "one of the first orders of business in the next legislature."

Increase Voted In Pension Contribution

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The senate has voted a $5-a-month boost in the federal contribution toward state old age and blind assistance programs and a $3 increase in the allotment for needy dependent children.

Italy Calm After Political Crisis

ROME, June 15 (AP)—As fast as it blew up, Italy's political crisis apparently had blown over today.

No new instances of disorder were reported, and the flight into exile of King Umberto II had ceased even to be a subject of frequent debate on Rome streets.

Apparently in deference to the wishes of Interior Minister Giuseppe Romita, there were no celebrations of the king's departure or of the defacto advent of the republic.

Sales Training Course Planned

A combined training course for prospective workers 16 years and older and refresher course for those already employed, will be offered here beginning Monday morning by the University of Texas Extension service and the state board of vocational education.

The 10-hour course is designed especially for those who wish to prepare themselves for part-time or full-time work this summer and for the Christmas holidays, Thelma Boone, instructor said.

Classes will be held at the YMCA, upstairs at 214 Main, from 10 a. m. to noon each day, Monday through Friday.

Young men and women, housewives and teachers who complete the course will be afforded better consideration when applying for work, Miss Boone said. The course is designed to give inexperienced people first hand information and practice in salesmanship, sales check writing, store arithmetic and the art of package wrapping.

Regardless of the type of store a person may choose for employment, techniques can be developed in a way beneficial to both the employee and the employer, Miss Boone said.

Certificates will be awarded to those completing 80 percent of the class work. The enrollment fee is 50 cents, which covers the cost of printed and mimeographed materials to be used in the instruction. There is no home work involved.

This is the 10th in a series of courses currently being sponsored by the chamber of commerce and taught by Miss Boone.

available the necessary space facilities. It's another type of asset a growing city can use.

If you want to know where a lot of people are on these hot summer nights, drive out to the softball diamond at the city park. We don't know if a check is being kept on attendance, but the summer total will be huge. Seems as though the mushball game has soared to greater popularity than ever.

Don't fret about boring masters of ceremonies, long-winded after dinner speeches, and the like, after a few months. We've got a Toastmasters' organization started now, in which the remarks of any one man will be subjected to close criticism of his fellows. For every moment of a banquet program that these gentlemen can brighten up a little, they deserve rich thanks.

The optimists are pointing out that it didn't rain in these parts until July last year, and the country lived through 1945. So-o-o, if you've given up on June moisture you can take your choice for any day in July. Hurry, rain.

Sadler Pledges Aid To Build Or Buy Homes

WACO, June 15 (AP)—Jerry Sadler, candidate for governor, opened his campaign here tonight with a pledge to fight for legislation making it possible for all Texans to buy homes or farms without a down payment.

This plan he characterized as "the mudsill, the bedrock foundation of what I will offer to Texas." Sadler said this formed the basis of his plan "to make Texas progressive" but he refused to divulge how he as governor would finance his program.

"I am not going to expose my secret plans for raising revenue to make Texas progressive," he said, "because in this case the enemy is the honey-money boys. I am not tipping my hand to them."

Sadler outlined what he proposed to advocate as governor, emphasizing old age pension problems, his attitude toward labor and management, and his plan for home and farm ownership guaranteed by the state.

He came out for a 100 per cent increase in teacher's salaries, better educational advantages for negroes, guaranteed education for the children of men and women killed in the war, a federal bonus for World War II veterans, an additional one cent per gallon tax on gasoline for four years to raise $48,000,000 for farm-to-market roads, immediate redistricting of the state for legislative representation, soil conservation, a return to the constitution, improved state health standards.

He also promised to correct the fraud he said was perpetrated in the present old age pension law.

Legion Girls Take Sweetwater, 8-3

Continuing down the unbeaten trail, T. J. Dunlap's American Legion softball girls turned back the Bankhead Cafe aggregation from Sweetwater 8-3 Saturday night on the Mundy park diamond.

It was the first loss in eight starts for the Nolan county nine. Catherine Redding paced the Legionnaire attack, collecting three singles in four trips to the dish, while Lefty Todd was holding the Sweetwater girls to four hits, retiring nine on strikeouts.

Extra-base blows were scarce during the entire contest. Jones drove out a three-bagger for the losers in the third which developed into their first run, and "Home Run" Trotter rapped a triple and Neepser of Sweetwater a double in the sixth.

Line score:
Sweetwater . . . 010 012 0-3 4 2
Legionnaires . . . 321 101 x-8 8 1
Turner, Whitworth and Jones; Todd and Trotter.

Farm And Ranch News

By WACIL McNAIR

For people lucky enough to have garden vegetables growing now, County Agent Durward Lewter has pointed some methods of protection against blister beetles, which are becoming prevalent. For cucumber, cantaloupes and other vine vegetables he recommends a moderate spraying with two tablespoons of nicotine sulphate mixed with a gallon of water. For other garden plants, four tablespoons of rotenone and sulphur mixed with one quart of water sprayed heavily is effective. Beetles often can be herded into straw or brush and then burned, Lewter advises.

The spraying demonstration at the E. W. Lomax place Friday consumed more time than formerly planned, but good interest was indicated by the large crowd attending. Mrs. Lomax served a noon-day meal to a sizeable number who stayed to the finish.

Four Howard county 4-H club boys, Raymond Phillips, Jesse Overton, Perry Walker and Wayne White, will accompany County Agent Durward Lewter on a trip to the Sonora Wool and Mohair show Wednesday and Thursday, where they have entered fleeces in the club boys division. Billy Bob and Harold Simpson also have entries placed.

Texas now has 403 frozen food locker plants in operation in comparison with 288 11 months ago, an increase of 33 per cent in less than a year. A recent survey by the BAE's Texas division of agricultural statistics showed that 46 of this number are cooperatives, including 26 REA co-ops. Five of the number are branch plants serviced by central systems.

Roy Snyder, extension meat specialist who also supervises a frozen food locker for the A&M college, observes several other trends in the locker business besides a rapid expansion in numbers. For one thing, a large number of the locker systems have been installing their own small killing plants or abattoirs. For the last few years frozen food plants have been in their hey-day, and rationing increased the popularity of the family locker, Snyder believes. He predicts that as fresh foods become more plentiful, city people are likely to drop out as customers, buying custom frozen foods in stores rather than processing their own.

As far as technique is concerned, a great many changes are in store in the processing of frozen food. Enzymes, which affect the ripening of fruits and vegetables have been inactivated in the past by steam or boiling water. In the future, they might be inactivated electronically, and thawing may be done the same way. Flash sterilization also may be a new development, Snyder believes.

Teams Rematched

Junior softball teams of the First Baptist church and Salvation Army will meet in a YMCA league ball game at 6 o'clock Monday evening on the West Fifth and San Antonio streets playground. The game was originally booked for Friday but postponed due to the Vacation Bible school in operation at the Baptist church.

Dewey Byers will draw the pitching assignment for the Army contingent.

County Boys To Attend 4-H Camp

Twenty-three Howard county boys will leave from the county agent's office at noon June 17 for San Angelo, where they will attend the annual 4-H club encampment for district six.

Several competitive events will be conducted at the camp, and plans were mapped Saturday by the Howard boys for entering the grass judging event. The Howard county team won first place in 1945.

Those who will make the trip include Hollis Yates, Wayne White, Harold Simpson, Melvin Griffith, Billy Bob Simpson, Jerry Rogers, Darrell Jackson, Gerald Cockrell, Delbert Harland, O. D. O'Daniel, Ray Walker, Lowie Rice, Bobby Cathey, Jack Cathey, Vance Scott, Raymond Phillips, Jimmy White, Roger Dale Brown, Gene Lockhart, Tom Lockhart, Don Lockhart, R. J. Echols, Ray McMurray.

Attendance from each county in the district has been limited to 25.

Joe Louis May Collect $1,000,000 As Share For Fight With Bill Conn

New York Crowded For Wednesday Scrap; Challenger Weighs 180 Lbs.

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP) — Carried along on the greatest gold rush in sports history, a couple of ex-GPs will keep a date Wednesday night that they made five years ago to fight it out for the heavyweight championship of the world.

At 8 p. m. (CST), in a ring set just over second base in Yankee stadium, ex-Sergeant Joseph Louis Barrow of Detroit—Joe Louis of the ear-scrambling set—collides with ex-Corporal William David Conn—Billy the Pittsburgh Kid—over the customary "15 rounds or less" route, as sports' post-war champagne and caviar era reaches its crest.

It is just one day more than five years since they tangled the first time. Realizing he needed a knockout to keep his championship that night, Joe put the lights out for Billy in the 13th round.

They have waited five years for this shot at the biggest bundle of cash ever. Promoter Mike Jacobs set the ringside charge at an all-time high for a fight—$100 per copy. Yet nearly a million dollars worth of tickets were on order before they'd even been printed or the admission price announced.

The scale slides from $100 down to $10 for the outer rims of the park. Jacobs predicted today that the gate stands a very good chance of hitting the $3,000,000 mark.

If it does, Louis would get close to $1,000,000 as his slice of the net proceeds, plus a "cut of the radio and motion picture take." Conn's end would be about $500,000, since they receive 40 per cent and 20 per cent shares of the net, respectively.

Already jammed to capacity by the post-war rush to the city, New York is just one huge sardine can as the fight faithful pour in from all over the world.

This will be the 22nd time Joe has put the beak-busting industry's richest bauble on the line since he hammered cinderella man Jim Braddock into unconsciousness nine years ago next Saturday.

Conn appears faster than he was five years ago. He's what Louis, himself, calls a "full-grown" heavy weight now, at over 180 pounds compared with the 174 he carried the last time. This added avoirdupois, most of it in his shoulders and neck, makes him a better puncher, although he has no intentions of trying for a knockout over Louis. Joe will weigh a solid 210.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

We may be shouting into the wind, but this corner favors Billy Conn in his scrap with Joe Louis for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world. . . . Not that Conn has the better physical equipment nor more desire to win than the Brown Bomber. . . . Nothing like that. . . . Conn is little more than an overgrown, light-heavyweight, has been beaten at his own game several times—that of tap, tap, tapping. . . . It is our contention that the throne room, just to keep the clientele satisfied, needs its interior decoration scheme brought up to date and the Irishman can supply the needed transfiguration. . . . Promoter Mike Jacobs and his menagerie play too cute a hand to suit a lot of the fight mob. . . . There'll be no more worlds to conquer for Louis should he win. . . . Too, a lot of smart money is providing Conn with a conspicuous background. . . . It should be interesting. . . . Close. . . . but Conn by decision.

Pilots To Discuss All-Star Team—

Managers of the Mundy softball league teams go into session at 7:45 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Settles hotel to lay plans for the second half schedule and discuss the possibility of an all-star game. . . . If such a game does materialize, the pilots will choose the spangled nine at the parley and set the game for either Thursday night, June 27, or the following Sunday. . . . At least one player from each of the teams would be chosen and enough men placed on the roster so that no one is overworked.

Judge C. C. Collings brings back the report from Odessa that Gabriel Sporting Goods softball pitcher struck out seven men in a single inning in a game there the past week, yet had four runs scored against him! . . . His catcher, according to the story, had more trouble in seeing the pitches

Joe McCarthy In Mexico?

Lefty Gomez, Organized Baseball's ambassador of good will to South America, lets it be known that he has a short stop playing for the Cervencia (Venezuela) team that can hold his own in the major leagues. . . . He is Al Carasquel, the former National league outfielder, is managing Dayton in the Ohio State league. . . . Joe McCarthy, the former New York pilot, is reported in Mexico talking shop with the Pasquel brothers.

White Hot White Sox Cool Off Bossox, 7-6

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP) — Dave (Boo) Ferris suffered his first pitching defeat in 11 starts today as the Chicago White Sox edged Boston's Red Sox 7-6, for the Red Sox' third straight setback and their longest losing streak of the season.

The White Sox, blasting Ferris from the mound with four runs in the third inning, benefited from some able relief work by Bill Dietrich in the ninth to "grab their fifth straight win."

The Red Sox drove started Joe Haynes from the mound during a 13-hit attack which included Bobby Doerr's eighth homer, and chased Ralph Hammer to the showers in the ninth to pick up their sixth marker.

Dietrich, however, came in with one out and proceeded to smother the Bostonians without further damage to save the triumph for Haynes.

Ted Williams paced Boston's ineffective attack with three-for-four, including two singles and a double.

Midland Clouts Spartans, 5-1

A run by Billy Parker deprived Bob Henderson of all rights to a perfect game as the Midland Reporter softball team decided Big Spring Hardware 5-1, in an exhibition played here Friday night.

Jim Taylor, the visitor's catcher, helped the cause along with a sixth inning home run that landed in the tennis courts. Henderson scored three of Midland's tallies.

Parker had gained a life in the seventh round when the enemy first sacker fumbled his ground ball. He stole second and third and dashed home on Billy Mim's long fly.

Johnny Daylong, on the rubber for the Big Springers, yielded nine safeties.

Score by Innings:
Midland 000 013 1—5 9
Big Spring 000 000 1—1 0
Henderson and Taylor; Daylong and Parker.

Swim School Gets Underway

Youngsters who do not have the YMCA certification necessary for enrollment in that function's swimming classes, nor the money to defray expenses, can obtain a card by contacting Bill Dawes, general secretary, at Y headquarters.

Membership fee for the youths is $6 annually, which may be paid in a lump sum or quarterly.

Persons who intend to attend classes regularly can save by buying annual passes or ducats by blocks of ten. The latter may be obtained for $1.

Approximately 50 boys and girls reported for the initial class Saturday morning, which was conducted at the municipal pool. A competent group of instructors, including Arad Phillips, Bobo Hardy, Roy Rodman, Eddie Houser and Jean Pearce, was on hand to lend instructions.

The school will henceforth be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. The pool will be reserved exclusively for the classes during their periods of operations.

Penalty Stroke Costs Lord Byron—

Nelson, Ghezzi, Mangrum In Tie For Nat'l Open Lead

CLEVELAND, June 15 (AP)—A penalty shot charged against him when his caddy accidentally kicked the ball on the 13th fairway during the third round cost Byron Nelson the United States open golf championship today and sent him into a three-way playoff with Vic Ghezzi and Lloyd Mangrum for the first postwar title.

The three tournament veterans wound up the 72-hole medal play test with totals of 284—four under par for the Canterbury golf club's exacting 6,926-yard layout. They will play off at 18 holes tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. (Eastern Daylight Time). Nelson won the championship on the playoff at Philadelphia in 1939 when three deadlocked at 284.

After Nelson, Ghezzi and Mangrum had posted their final scores, Ben Hogan and Herman Barron needed only to par the last three holes to take over the lead by a stroke. Instead, Hogan lost a stroke to par at the 16th and 18th, and Barron was two over par for the last two holes. Hogan's finish gave him a par 72 and Barron's subpar 69 for a fourth place tie at 285.

Ed (Porky) Oliver and Jimmy Demaret of Houston wound up in a tie for sixth place with 286. Oliver had final rounds of 74 and 70, and Demaret 73 and 68. Demaret shot the last nine holes of his final round in 33, three under par.

Dick Metz of Arkansas City, Kas., and Melvin (Chick) Harbert of Detroit finished in a tie for eighth place with aggregates of 287. Harbert's last two rounds of 67 and 70 earned him low scoring honors for the day. Metz shot a one round of 69.

Scores of other Texans included: Harry Todd, Dallas, 148-70-78-294.

Raymond Gafford, Fort Worth, 148-75-74-297.

Harry B. Ransom, Houston, 144-73-77-284.

Barons Hit Road For Game Today

Victors over Colorado City by a 17-6 count last Sunday, Frank Miller's Big Spring Black Barons hit the road this afternoon, going to Odessa for a 3 o'clock contest.

Manager Miller has indicated he will use Wallace Ringo on the hill again. He ordinarily had designs on sending the highly talented Harry Dooley to the rubber but Dooley is not in shape. Charley Merrick will take care of the receiving duties.

New York Giants Win Over Red Birds, 11-5

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP) — Scoring all their runs in the first four frames, the New York Giants trampled the St. Louis Cardinals 11-5 today for their fourth straight victory over the Redbirds.

Marty Marion and Erv Dusak hit home runs for the Red Birds but Monte Kennedy and Ken Trinkle combined to keep the St. Louis bats well in control.

The loss came at the expense of Red Barrett, who was seeking his second victory and instead absorbed his second loss.

Marv Wright Fires Double Eagle Two On Mundy's No. 16

Marvin Wright, 17-year-old boy who won the Big Spring high school tournament in May, scored a double-eagle on the 505-yard No. 16 at the Mundy golf course Saturday afternoon, the first time the feat was ever accomplished at the city-owned layout.

Playing with Clarence Shaffer and Ernest Potter, the youngster's tee shot carried more than 300 yards down the dog-leg fairway. He then unbeatened a No. Four iron and sent the ball 180 yards squarely to the pin.

Pro Foy Fanning was standing by the green and saw the ball drop into the cup.

Wright, who has another year of eligibility remaining in high school, had a two-under-par 35 for the back side.

Coahomans Tangle With ABC; Refiners Oppose Manhattan

Coahoma's Stanolind Ollers and the Cosden Ollers, running one-two in the Mundy softball league race, return to action Monday evening against tough opposition.

Morey Morrison's Coahoma contingent comes to grips with the ABC club at 9 o'clock, taking the field immediately after the argument between Cosden's Ollers and Manhattan Club.

The two leading aggregations will meet at 9 o'clock Wednesday, June 26, in a game that will probably decide the first half championship.

This week's schedule:
MONDAY—Cosden vs. Manhattan; ABC vs. Coahoma.
WEDNESDAY—HS Implement vs. Redcaps; BS Hardware vs. VFW.
THURSDAY—BS Motor vs. UBW; Dub's Garage vs. Manhattan.

Local Softballers Play For Vincent

Three members of the Big Spring Motor company's softball club go to Vincent this afternoon to play for a team representing that community in a game with Riverside.

Glenn Bredemeyer, star tosser, will make the trip along with Charley Teague, short stop, and Jimmy Felts, second sacker. Bredemeyer pitched the Vincent team to a victory over the Riverside troupe last Sunday.

Paradox Or Ruiz To Take Mound For Locals

Their diamond fortunes riding at a record high, the Big Spring baseball Tigers cross bats with a strong Anson club on the North Ward diamond at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Bengals defeated Abilene's Eagles, 9-8, in a thrilling 16-inning contest last Sunday. Manager Elias Gamboa has indicated he will use either Pete Paradox or Tony Ruiz on the mound against the Anson club. Paradox was ill last week but has pronounced himself shipshape for today's game.

Cookie Lavagetto Hits Sink Bruins

BROOKLYN, June 15 (AP)—Cookie Lavagetto drove in two runs with a third inning double and counted on an infield out and a long fly by Dixie Walker to provide Brooklyn's winning margin in the Dodger's 6-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs today before a paid attendance of 27,071. The Cubs started Bob Chipman, a Dodger castoff who beat Brooklyn a week ago, but the league leaders patted him in less than three innings.

Winning hurler was Hugh Casey, who relieved Joe Hatten in the second and gave way to Art Herring in the seventh. Chicago, .011 000 100-3 8 1 Brooklyn .013 010 01x-6 11 1 Chipman, Erickson, Borowy and McCullough; Hatten, Casey, Herring and Anderson.

Newhouser Cops 11th Decision From Sens

DETROIT, June 15 (AP)—With their 1945 world championship flag floating for the first time in center field at Briggs stadium, the Detroit Tigers tightened their hold on third place today by noosing out the Washington Senators 3 to 1 for their fifth straight victory. Hal Newhouser, scoring his seventh victory, bested Emil (Dutch) Leonard in a tight pitching battle. Jimmy Bloodworth accounted for two of the Detroit runs with a fifth inning homer while Geo. Kell singled in Newhouser for the other in the eighth.

Bats of the power hitters were unusually quiet. Dick Wakefield and Hank Greenberg of the Tigers went hitless. Mickey Vernon, Washington first sacker, hit a double in four tries. Washington .000 001 000-1 6 2 Detroit .000 020 01x-3 8 4 Leonard and Guerra; Newhouser and Tebbets.

Americans Complete Clean Sweep Of Wightman Cup Tennis Matches

WIMBLEDON, England, June 15 (AP)—Four good-looking American girls, completed a clean sweep of the Wightman cup matches with Britain today as the series was resumed after a six-year war-time recess.

It was the first time since the inaugural year, 1923, that either side had been able to win all seven matches, five singles and two doubles. This 1946 combination won every match in straight sets, and allowed the Britons to carry only one of the 14 sets to defeat.

With powerful serves and smashing volleys Pauline Bets of Los Angeles, Margaret Osborne of San Francisco, Louise Brough of Beverly Hills and Doris Hart of Miami completely overwhelmed the British girls.

ST. LOUIS, June 15 (AP)—The

Redcaps, Stanolind Oilers Play Practice Game At Forsan Friday

Two of the most powerful teams in the Mundy softball league come to grips Friday evening on the Forsan diamond when Doc Wilkinson's Redcaps meet the Coahoma Stanolind Oilers in a practice game.

The Oilers recently edged the hard-hitting Redcaps in a league go but the victory did not enhance their reputation as league leaders, according to reports.

Morey Morrison, Coahoma skipper, will probably lead with his mound ace, Roy Weeks.

Doc Wilkinson, Redcap skipper, suffered a blow recently when he lost the services of his star third sacker, Lt. Russ Wilde, for the remainder of the season. Wilde, who was stationed at Midland A.F., was transferred to San Antonio.

Wilde, with a mace mark of .808 was the Redcaps' leading hitter and was one of the top two or three batsmen in the league.

In 23 attempts, he collected 14 bases, including a flock of doubles and a home run.

In eight games, the one-time professional baseballer—he performed for Tiffin, Ohio, a half dozen years ago—made but one error at the hot corner.

Wilde will probably be replaced by Steve Baker at third base.

Poloists Tangle With Lubbock

Cosden's poloists, who resumed their activity last week after an abbreviated lull, take on an all-star Lubbock aggregation this afternoon on the Lamesa field. First chukker will be unreeled around 3 o'clock.

Dr. M. H. Bennett, Big Spring, will probably be in the starting lineup along with Gus White, Jr., and the Barron boys, Spencer and E. E.

White hasn't been stopped since he returned to the lineup after a tour of duty in the US Navy.

Assault Bags Dwyer Stakes Gold To Set New Pay Mark

Texas Thoroughbred Races Home Five Lengths To Good

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—Barney Baruch came out to Aqueduct today and got acquainted with racing's version of the atomic bomb, Assault, who galloped home by five lengths to win the Dwyer stakes and become the turf's greatest money winner in a single year.

America's elder statesman watched Assault pound home five lengths in front of E. P. Taylor's Canadian Campaigner, Winfields, with Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Lord Boswell third.

The triple-crown boss of the Derby, Freakness and Belmont picked up $40,700 for the mile and a quarter meander. This not only skyrocketed him into fifth place on racing's money winning list, with a two-season bankroll of $361,470, but also made him the greatest breadwinner for one season that the turf has ever seen.

The sizzling son of Bold Venture now has a bank account of $344,220 for his 1946 season. This wiped from the books the $308,275 one-year high Gallant Fox piled up in 1930.

And with some half dozen more sugary spots still in front of him this season owner Robert J. Kleberg, Jr.'s lanky filer appears on the way to zipping right along up the money winning list until he's stepping on Whirlaway's tail at the head of the parade.

There wasn't a thing around today to get him excited. The crowd of 39,036 backed him down to $2.80 for $2 in the mutuels—and he should have been 1 to 10, the way he won it.

Carrying 126 pounds, he just ambled along nearly ten lengths back of the leaders through the first nine-sixteenths of a mile under Jockey Warren Mehrtens' nicely judged ride. Then the Brooklyn booter gave him the word.

After Lord Boswell, it was Cable, War Watch and Be Courageous in that order.

As usual, Assault's time didn't break any stopwatches as he clicked off the distance in 2:06 4-5.

Lamesans Return Next Saturday

LAMESA, June 15—Lamesa's baseball Loboes, now in the midst of a ten-day road trip—their longest of the season—return home Saturday, June 22, for the first of a three game series with Pampa.

Clovis and Albuquerque follow the Oilers into town, each for a three-game series. George Sturdivant, Lamesa pilot, said he was expecting more pitching strength from the west coast.

Lou Jenkins Beaten

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Lou Flyer, 145, of Hollywood, Calif., came back after being floored for an eight count to defeat Lou Jenkins 140, of Sweetwater and Camp Hood, Tex., by the knockout route in two minutes of the sixth round in the headline bout of a boxing show here Friday night.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., June 15 (AP)—Tony Elizondo, 158, Corpus Christi, put Clay Rowan, 168, Los Angeles, on the canvas twice last night and went on to win a decision in a 10-round bout here. Elizondo won seven rounds, lost two and one was even.

Airlines To Open Training Center At Ardmore Base

Official inauguration of the huge American Airlines training center at Ardmore, Okla., will be held today, according to information released here by Woodrow Campbell, AA station manager.

The dedication ceremonies will be headed by Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma governor. Kerr will welcome the airlines' system-wide training activities to its new location on the site of the former Army Air base, 17 miles north of Ardmore.

The 2200-acre site will be open to public inspection with a full day's program highlighted by the official welcome. AA officials will be on hand to accept the welcome and to serve as hosts to the visitors.

Gov. Kerr will officiate at a unique christening ceremony during the afternoon by riveting on to the four-engine air trainer—Ardmore—a metal nameplate bearing the plane's new name, the governor's name and date of the christening.

Manager of the AATC is W. T. "Bill" Arthur.

Lt. and Mrs. Herman Haygood of Grand Saline have arrived to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Choate.

PROPOSED ADDITION to the First Methodist church, money for which will be raised in a campaign launched by the Board of Stewards. The project is expected to cost between $75,000 and $100,000.

Methodists To Campaign For Annex To Church Building

Board of Stewards of the First Methodist church has voted unanimously to launch a campaign to raise between $75,000 and $100,000 for construction of an educational annex and for minor improvements to the present building.

Plans drawn up by the architectural firm of Puckett and French call for a 75' x 40' brick addition, which will house a chapel and class rooms.

Interior of the present building which was built in 1925, will also be re-done and the parsonage improved or re-built. The proposed structure will house 350 persons comfortably, bringing the total capacity for the entire building to 900 people.

Ground floor of the addition would be used for a chapel, where weddings, funerals and some meetings could be conducted. The upper floor would be partitioned off for class rooms.

M. E. Coley, chairman of the Board of Stewards, will lead the fund campaign. Construction is expected to get underway later in the year, or as soon as materials become available.

LOCKED HIS WIFE IN CHASTITY BELT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—A 32-year-old wood worker, who police captain Edward Webb said locked his wife in a home-made medieval style chastity belt, was charged with assault and battery here last night.

Capt. Webb identified the husband as William Traux and quoted his wife Rose L. Traux, 33, as saying Traux padlocked the galvanized chain belt about her before he left for work yesterday morning.

Webb said Traux told him he made the belt in his home workshop in his spare time and said he put it on his wife to "keep her from running around." After a locksmith at a police headquarters removed the tightly-binding belt by cutting a one-inch steel chain link, Mrs. Traux declared, "I wouldn't be untrue," and added: "I hate men—all men."

Wheat For Mexico

WASHINGTON, June 15—(AP)—Since the first of the year the United States has been supplying Mexico with about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat monthly to help make up that country's deficit in its own production, the agriculture department said.

The department said yesterday that no commitment had been made beyond June 30, but officials added that it may be necessary to allocate some 1946 wheat to Mexico if that country's production turns out to be insufficient to meet its food needs.

Parents Urged To Attend Day Camp For Cub Scouts

Parents are especially urged to attend the Cub scout day camp next week as much as possible during the afternoons. D. M. McKinney, cubbing commissioner, said in announcing final plans for the affair. The camp will be conducted from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day, Tuesday through Thursday.

There will be no camp fees required for the boys, but only cubs who are registered for 1946 will be permitted to attend. McKinney cautioned the cubs not to bring hunting knives, axes and slingshots to the camp.

A transportation schedule has been arranged, with a truck to leave North Ward school at 8:30 each morning. The vehicle will continue to the south side and follow Scurry street to the park road. Cubs will be picked up at any point on the route.

C. V. Warren will serve as director of the camp, with Tommy Farquhar assistant. All parents of cubs participating in the camp have been invited to eat with the group Thursday evening. Cubs whose fathers can remain with them will spend Thursday night in the park.

Each parent should bring eating utensils Thursday evening and bedding for the boys and their fathers, McKinney said. Cubs should bring eating utensils, swimming equipment and a flour or onion sack each day.

Some cubs from Forsan, Coahoma and Westbrook are expected here for the camp.

The daily program follows: 9 a. m.—Camp opens; registration; flag raising; assignment of tents.

9:30-11 a. m.—Softball and other games.

11 a. m. to 12 noon—Swimming.

12-1 p. m.—Lunch. 1-2 p. m.—Study period; handicraft. 2-4:45 p. m.—Games which can be played in the shade. 4:45-5 p. m.—Camp check. 5 p. m.—Break camp.

First Baptist Bible School Closes Friday

Bible school at the First Baptist church was completed Friday evening with commencement exercises at the church.

The program was opened with the regular order of service used each morning of the school including the processional, call to worship, reading of the scripture and salutes to the American and Christian flags and to the Bible. The superintendents of each department were introduced, and each department gave a demonstration of work done at the school. There were memory verses, Bible drills and songs. Certificates were presented.

At the close of the program parents and visitors went to the basement where exhibits were seen.

Methodist Bible School To Begin

First Methodist daily vacation Bible school will have its opening session Monday morning in the church, with classes for beginners, primary students and juniors.

In addition to the regular roster of teachers and workers have been added Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales, Mrs. R. L. Pritchett and Charlene Tucker.

The school will include recreation, Bible study, handicraft and projects. The school will continue for two weeks.

Wilkerson-Stroud Vows Exchanged Saturday Night

Rev. Winter Reads Double Ring Rites At Assembly Of God

Given in marriage by her father, Doris Stroud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Stroud, was married to Ed Wilkerson in the Assembly of God church Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The double ring vows were read by Rev. E. R. Winters before an altar decorated with white and Picardy gladioli arranged in baskets in an assortment of palms and fern.

For her wedding the bride chose an aqua crepe frock designed with a high neckline ornamented with two crystal buttons and three-quarter length sleeves. The pointed waistline accented the draped skirt which was gathered in a bustle effect. She wore a half hat of white straw, and other accessories were white. Her flowers were white gardenias, carnations and gladioli, fashioned in a long arm arrangement. For something borrowed and old the bride wore an Irish engagement pin which had belonged to Mrs. Bob Weaver's grandmother. Something blue was a ribbon.

The maid of honor, Josephine Huett, wore a frock of grey crepe with a shoulder corsage of flame colored gladioli. Fred Wilkerson, twin brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Mrs. W. H. Winter played the bridal marches and accompanied

MRS. ED WILKERSON

Juanita Wilkerson as she sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Stroud, mother of the bride, wore black crepe with a corsage of gardenias, as did Mrs. C. M. Wilkerson, mother of the bridegroom.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the CA chapel of the church. Guests were received by Dorothy Wilkerson, and punch and wedding cake were served by Orpha Shipman and Agnes Hape. The table was laid with a lace cloth, and a centerpiece was formed of pink dahlias. Punch was served from a crystal punchbowl.

The bride was graduated from Forsan high school this spring. Wilkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilkerson attended Big Spring high school, and served in the infantry in Europe for six months. He received the Combat Infantryman's Badge and at the time of his discharge was a sergeant.

The couple will be at home in Big Spring.

Pardue, Watson Marriage Ceremony Solemnized In First Baptist Church Of Rotan In Formal Rites Thursday

Bride Wears Gown Of Brocaded Satin For Wedding Rites

On the eve of her parents' wedding anniversary, Mildred Watson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Watson, was married to Gerald Pardue in the First Baptist church of Rotan Thursday evening.

The double ring marriage service was read by the bride's father, Rev. Watson, retired Baptist minister. Wedding vows were exchanged before an improvised altar arrangement of potted palms, fashioned in circular design of Boston ferns. A fan-shaped arrangement of the ferns centered the high backed altar accented with a cluster of white gladioli and Esther Read daisies, tied with a large bow of white satin ribbon, with cascading streamers falling to the floor. At either side of the altar was an ensemble of wrought iron candelabra and floor baskets.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, W. T. Coker Sr., of Dimmitt, wore a traditional white brocade satin wedding gown. The basque featured a sweetheart neckline, complemented with a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

The skirt extended into a full train, and the long sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. Completing the bridal ensemble was a white net veil, fastened to a pearl studded tiara, and falling from a double ruffle to full train length, overlaid with a double fold reaching to the fingertips. Atop a white bible she carried a white orchid, showered with white carnations and white satin, all arranged on a ruff of white net.

Attendants to the bride were her sister, Nita Belle, who was attired in an exact replica of her sister's gown, another sister, Wanda, maid of honor, and an aunt, Mrs. Doyle Coker, was matron of honor. Tommie Waldrop of Lamesa was the bridesmaid. All attendants were gowned identically in pink silk net over pink crepe, fashioned with drop-shoulders, ruffled berthas, basque waists and full, tiered skirts, accented with a large bow of white satin with floor-length streamers.

They wore matching crownless, net picture hats, with ribbon bows repeating the style of those in the gowns. Bouquets were nosegays of white flowers, set in clusters of ruffled pink net and white lace, showered with satin. Gold compact cases were the bride's gifts to her attendants.

L. E. Hutchins, Big Spring was best man, and ushers were W. T. Coker, Jr., and Doyle Coker, uncles of the bride. The miniature groom who stood with the small bride, was the bride's brother, Archie Watson. Ring bearer was Michael Coker, cousin of the bride, who carried the rings on a white satin cushion.

Mrs. Ed Harris, pianist, played "Clair de Lune," and other nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Shirley Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional. During the ceremony Liszt's Liebestraum was played. versity, sang "Always," and "I Love Thee."

The couple was honored at a reception in the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. The couple, with her parents and attendants received the guests. Mrs. L. E. Hutchins of Big Spring was at the bridal registry, and Polly Shelton and Betty Kiker presided at the refreshment table. The table was covered with a damask cloth centered with an arrangement of white flowers and lighted with white tapers set in crystal holders. The three tiered wedding cake was topped with a small bride and bridegroom.

Following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip to Mineral Wells, after which they will be at home at 300 Sixth street in Big Spring. For traveling Mrs. Pardue wore an ice blue summer weight wool suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Pardue finished high school in Rotan in 1945, after her family had moved there from Big Spring. A music major in Hardin-Simmons, she will resume her studies there in the fall. A member of the Hardin-Simmons Life Service band, she was recently elected pianist of that organization for the coming year. She is a member of Beta Mu Kappa and the Players' Club.

Pardue has been employed in Big Spring for several months. Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were Jennine Johnston of Hamlin, Fern Shipley of Vernon, Rue Copeland of Midland, Betty Dozier of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. En-

Daily Bible School At Presbyterian Church Completed

Daily Vacation Bible school at the First Presbyterian church ended Friday evening with a program presented by the young people in the church sanctuary, directed by Elizabeth Akers, superintendent of the school.

The program was opened with the singing of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," followed by the invocation by A. A. Porter.

The Beginners group presented a song, directed by Mrs. Marvin Miller, after which Mrs. J. M. Woodall led the Primary group, in singing a group of songs, with Anna Belle Lane telling the story of Jesus forgiving Peter.

The Juniors, under the direction of Sally Norton, gave "Synagogue Service," led by Luan Horton and Gilbert Mull. Intermediates, led by Agnes Curry and Mary Louise Davis, gave a story from the Gospel of Mark with marionettes.

Certificates were presented for perfect and near-perfect attendance, and to close the program a movie, "Journey Into Faith," was presented. Exhibits were viewed and refreshments were served. Final enrollment reached 84.

Mrs. Joye M. Fisher Appointed To Council Of Nation Hospital

Mrs. Joye M. Fisher has been appointed the National Advisory Council of the National Jewish Hospital at Denver. Announcement of the appointment was made by Milton Anfenger, Denver, president of the hospital.

Mrs. Fisher has been active in philanthropic, civic and other affairs in Big Spring for several years. In her new position she will assist in formulating policies for the first, free, non-sectarian, nation-wide institution for the care of the tuberculous in the United States, founded in 1899 by B'nai B'rith with the motto "None May Enter Who Can Pay—None Can Pay Who Enter." Mrs. Fisher, past president of the City Federation clubs, past secretary of the Council of Church Women, secretary of the Temple Sisterhood, and active in FTA affairs, will aid with Dee Waldrop of Lamesa, Martha Hobbs of Big Spring and Wistie Reid of Lubbock.

In Hollywood— Even War Wives Return To Set After 3 Years

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, June 15. (AP)—War veterans aren't the only ones returning to the movie sets. At least one war wife is coming back too — Priscilla Lane.

Three and a half years ago, Priscilla, youngest and most successful of the five talented Mulligan sisters from Indianola, Iowa, disappeared from the Hollywood scene after making "Arsenic and Old Lace." This week it was announced she would return in Andrew Stone's "Strange Bedfellows" with Eddie Bracken. I hunted her up for an explanation.

"After the war started I found out other things were more important than making pictures," said Priscilla, who was 29 yesterday and is looking as pert and beautiful as ever. The "important" things were her husband, Maj. Joseph Howard, and her life with him.

So during the war years the actress followed the Army flier through almost every state in the Union. Finally he went overseas, returning just two days before the birth of their son five months ago. Since her husband is now stationed at March Field, she decided to try the films again.

"I'm going to free-lance," she said, "because in that way I can pick my own pictures and work when I want to. Your time is making your own when working for a studio and I want to have time for my family. That's the important thing in my life."

P. O. NOMINATION
WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—President Truman has sent to the senate the nomination of Lucille W. Martin as postmaster at Hearne, Tex.

German silver contains no silver—it's a silver-white alloy of copper, nickel and zinc.

Bach Vs. Boogie On Ritz Screen

GREAT PICTURE OF A GREAT NOVEL—Gregory Peck and Greer Garson portray the thwarted lovers in MGM's picturization of the best-seller "Valley of Decision," by Marcia Davenport. The show is playing today and tomorrow at the State Theatre.

"Do You Love Me?" has been called one of the best film musicals in months. Big Spring moviegoers will have a chance to decide today and tomorrow at the Ritz Theatre when the Technicolor picture, starring Dick Haymes and Maureen O'Hara, plays a two-day run.

To handle the tunes producer George Jessel has made liberal use of the talents of Harry James and his band, and crooner Haymes and an ensemble that will have every bobby-soxer in the audience howling with delight as the boys swing through the measures of such hits as "I Didn't Mean a Word I Said," "As If I Didn't Have Enough on My Mind," and the title song, "Do You Love Me?"

This colorful selection of tunes, along with a couple of special Jamesian arrangements of the classics and some unadulterated long-hair music, has been given an equally Technicolorful production and a red-haired heroine in the person of Miss O'Hara.

The whole combination is of the best.

As for plot, the writers dipped into Hollywood's own five-foot shelf and came up with that well-thumbed classic about the beautiful princess who cloaked her beauty in horn-rimmed spectacles and fettered her soul with a hair net. This princess was very happy with her job as head of a strictly classical music school until she went to New York. There she met a man who took off her glasses and fluffed out her hair and made her pretty and then she met a crooner who sang love songs to her that were more meaningful than Bach. And then, all of a sud-

Ritz Attraction Shows Workings Of USES Office

As familiar to many of the people of Big Spring as the corner drugstore are the workings of the United States Employment Service office, setting of the focal point of the RKO picture, "From This Day Forward," co-starring Joan Fontaine and Mark Stevens which opens Friday for a two-day run at the Ritz theatre.

Most theatergoers should feel right at home as they watch the story of a returned serviceman in his efforts to get adjusted to civilian life and locate a good job unfold through a series of flashbacks in the midst of USES operations.

Not a documentary or educational film but a full length feature with skilled film players taking the role of USES personnel, Henry A. Clark, office manager of the local USES office said the details of employment interviews and procedure shown give a realistic picture of actual employment service operations.

What happens in the picture happens day at the USES," Clark said. "When a veteran walks into the USES office seeking either a job or information, he sets in motion a smoothly functioning organization that has long planned for his appearance and is ready to help him find a job in line with his interests and capabilities."

Backbone of the USES's successful placement may be credited to the job development program designed to acquaint employers in Big Spring with the occupational characteristics of available workers and local labor market conditions in general so that workers best qualified to suit the employer's individual needs may be referred to him, Clark said.

Impressed with the message this picture depicts, management of the local office of the USES has, through the cooperation of the theater management, invited some of the local employers to see this picture. It has also been arranged for key personnel of the USES responsible for all phases of service to veterans to see this picture.

Louis-Conn Scrap Aired Over KBST

With interest in the world's heavyweight championship bout at fever pitch, ears will be glued to the dial when the clash is aired Wednesday, June 19, at 8:00 p. m. over KBST-ABC and shortwaved throughout the world. The eagerly awaited match with Joe Louis, who is defending his title against Billy Conn, will take place at the Yankee Stadium in New York.

This bout will be the second meeting for the contestants. Their first clash was five years ago in June 1941. During the intervening years both men have served with the Army.

At the ringside ABC microphone will be two personalities, familiar to Friday night fight fans. They are Dan Dunphy and Bill Corum, both dyed-in-the-wool sports experts. Dunphy, who has always been a sports enthusiast and has been broadcasting sports since 1933, will bring listeners the blow-by-blow description. Corum, who covers all sports events for the Journal-American, will give the between-rounds color in his own personalized off-the-cuff pictorial style.

Amazing Discovery In A Hearing Aid

A big improvement has been made in a hearing aid now come by thousands. This new one-unit aid is so light in weight you'll hardly know you're wearing it. Requires no separate battery pack, battery case or garment. Made so you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing. The tone is clear and powerful. Remarkable new "X-Cell" retains full power up to 50 hours continuous use. Eliminates alternating batteries, two or three times a day. Includes many other improvements for your comfort and better hearing. The makers of Beltona, Dept. 7894, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this wonderful hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. Garson And Peck Have Distinguished Roles In "Valley Of Decision"

AT THE LYRIC—Most famed of all the western classics, and one that has been made many times into film versions, is "The Virginian" today and Monday. The Owen Wister story has been made in Technicolor, and Joel McCrea and Barbara Britton (above) are featured in the cast.

Greer Garson, Gregory Peck and company — and a most distinguished company it is, too — give full meaning and purpose to the two full hours of enjoyment allocated to "Valley of Decision," playing today and tomorrow at the State Theatre.

The story is a picturization of Marcia Davenport's novel about a family of Pittsburgh steel-mill owners (1870 and thereafter) and their employees and connections. It is a long story, possessed also of breadth and depth, and it affords opportunities for the expert cast to achieve moments of emotional intensity to capture and hold the observer.

As produced on the grand scale by Edwin H. Knopf, and directed with perception and judgment by Tay Garnett, the film appears certain to fulfill the highest expectations inherent in the presence of Miss Garson.

Miss Garson's role, that of an Irish girl who becomes house maid of the mill-owning family and falls in love with the eldest son, displays to complete advantage her personality and talent. But it is not Miss Garson's performance alone that makes the show a great picture. For those of Lionel Barrymore, Gregory Peck, Donald Crisp, Gladys Cooper, Reginald Owen, and Marsha Hunt are lengths from the same bolt.

Mr. Crisp portrays the head of the mill-owning family, a rugged individualist with a heart of gold, and Mr. Barrymore, in a gratifying switch from the sweetness and light in which he's specialized in recent years, enacts an embittered employee who, as a strike is on the point of being settled, kills his employer and is killed, in turn, by the mill guards.

Scenarists John Meehan and Sonya Levin have handled this labor-capital sector of the story in such a manner as to give both laborites and capitalists dialogue lines to remember with satisfaction.

'The Virginian' Due At Lyric

Paramount's Technicolor production, "The Virginian," starring three of Hollywood's most popular leading men — Joel McCrea, Brian Donlevy and Sonny Tufts — makes camp today at the Lyric Theatre. Since each star alone has sufficient drawing power to insure the success of any picture, their combined talents in what sounds like made-to-order roles should have fans looking forward with great anticipation to the arrival of "The Virginian."

Joel McCrea has the title role in this picturization of the famous Owen Wister story about the lawlessness of the early West, and the men and women who braved death to conquer it. He would seem the ideal choice for the part of the Virginian, stalwart defender of the West's stern code of justice, even though it costs the life of his best friend, portrayed by Sonny Tufts. Tufts, in his first Western role, plays Steve, who can't take anything seriously, including cattle-rustling, until it is too late.

JennEtta Dodge Weds In California On June 2

Mr. and Mrs. John Plummer Dodge are announcing the marriage of their daughter, JennEtta, to Lt. (JG) W. Houston Schweitzer, USN, on June 2 at high noon in the Roosevelt base naval chapel on Terminal Island near Long Beach, Calif.

The double ring ceremony was read by C. B. Northrup, naval chaplain, before an altar decorated with banked greens and spring flowers. Wedding music was played by a Wave organist.
 The bride, given in marriage by Ens. Roger Derkes, wore a navy blue two piece crepe dress-suit and a white ribbon trimmed hat of navy felt, with matching accessories. She carried a white Bible on which was arranged an orchid corsage. Something old was a strand of pearls belonging to her grandmother, and blue was a ribbon.
 Mrs. Schweitzer's only attendant was a former college classmate, Mrs. Frank Scauzillo, who wore a three piece aqua gabardine ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Lt. Scauzillo was the best man.

 The bride was graduated from Big Spring high school and received her degree of bachelor of business administration from Texas Tech where she was a member of Las Vivarachas social club and the College club. She had been in Houston for three years prior to her marriage where she was a member of the Delta Theta Chi and the AWVS Motor Corps of Houston.
 Lt. Schweitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Schweitzer of Matador, is a graduate of Matador high school. He received his BS degree from Texas Tech where he majored in civil engineering. While there, he was a member of the College club, Tau Bet Phi, Alpha Chi, and "Who's Who," and was president of the Engineering society. Prior to his entering the service three years ago he was an engineer with an oil firm in Houston. When he receives his discharge later in the summer he plans to return to his work there.
 Following the ceremony the couple left aboard the Avalon for a week at Catalina Island, and spent the subsequent two weeks in Long Beach. Mrs. Schweitzer will arrive in Big Spring today to spend the week with her parents before returning to Houston where the couple will be at home.

Mrs. J. L. Hayes has returned from Phillips where she visited with Mrs. and Mrs. R. P. Hartgroves.

Melva Chapman To Be Wed June 21

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Chapman announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Melva Ray, to Grady L. Hodnett.

The marriage ceremony will be read by Rev. H. Clyde Smith on Friday, June 21. Place of the wedding has not been decided.
 Miss Chapman was graduated from Lomax high school and is now associated with the Settles Beauty salon. Hodnett received his discharge in December after serving for two years in England. They will be at home near Knott.

Boykin - DePasqual Rites To Be June 30

Friends here have learned of the engagement and approaching marriage of Rosemary Elizabeth DePasqual of Dickinson and Valvin Clay Boykin Jr.
 The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Demenic V. DePasqual in Dickinson on June 30. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Boykin of Big Spring.

Miss Hill, Bert Matthies Wed In Church Ceremony

In a bower of Picardy and white gladioli and urns of plumosus fern Mardeena Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parrish, was married to Sgt. Bert Matthies Thursday evening.

The single ring vows were read by Rev. Chester O'Brien, Jr., in the chapel of the Northside Baptist church.

Nuptial music was played by Lillie Jean O'Neal, cousin of the bride, who accompanied Mable Smith as the sang, "Because." Miss O'Neal played the wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn, and a Chopin prelude which preceded the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length frock of white lace, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a tight-fitting bodice which extended from the low waist-line into a full gathered skirt. The three-quarter length sleeves ended in a ruffle of lace. Her hair was encircled with a coronet of blue delphinium.

The bridal bouquet was a cluster of light blue delphinium placed on a base of white maline and showered with white satin. The whole arrangement was arranged on a white prayer book. For something old the bride wore a cameo ring of her grandmother's now belonging to her aunt, Miss Bill O'Neal. Something borrowed was the prayer book, which belonged to Martha Leysath, and "something blue," was the flower in her hair.

Mrs. Truman Dennis, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as matron of honor and wore a simple frock of dusty pink crepe with brown accessories, and a corsage of white carnations and feverfew. Truman Dennis was best man.

Mrs. Parrish, the bride's mother, was attired in a dress of pink crepe with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Matthies, the bridegroom's mother, wore black crepe with a corsage of gardenias.
 Following the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride's parents where the couple was honored at a reception.

The table was laid with a cloth of ecru lace, centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations, gladioli and baby's breath. One end of the table was occupied by the three-tiered white wedding cake which held a miniature bridal couple under a wedding arch. After the cake had been cut by the bride and bridegroom it was served by Janis Yates and Erma

Barbara Laswell Marries Thomas Gage In Candlelight Ceremony Friday In Chapel Of First Methodist Church

Rev. H. C. Smith Reads Double Ring Vows At Floral Altar

By the soft glow of dozens of candles, Barbara Laswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Laswell, was married Friday evening to Thomas Newton Gage in the chapel of the First Methodist church.

Before an altar banked with palms and fern, decorated with baskets filled with white gladioli, Rev. H. Clyde Smith read the double ring ceremony. Vows were marked with clusters of Mahoney daisies tied with white satin ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of white summer weight flannel with a simple design with a draped effect in the neckline, and loose drapery extending to the waist in the back. She wore a cascade of shattered pink carnations and stephanotis forming a solid arrangement on a backing of maline. Atop a white Bible the bride carried a deep toned orchid showered with stephanotis and satin.

For something old she wore a strand of crystal beads belonging to her grandmother, something borrowed was a bible belonging to Betty Bob Diltz, and something blue was a ribbon.

The bride's only attendant was her twin sister, Marjorie, who wore a tailored ensemble of white summer flannel with a narrow black stripe. She wore a crownless picture hat of black straw, and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink and blue agapanthus set in a ruffle of maline.

Candles were lighted by Mrs. James Underwood and Delores Gage, both of whom were dressed in summer floral prints and carried wrist corsages of gold-throated flame gladioli. Ushers were Clayton Bittle and Odell Womack.

Helen Duley, organist, played the nuptial music, including the Mendelssohn and Wagner wedding marches, and "Claire De Lune." Mrs. Paul Graham, accompanied by Miss Duley, sang "Because," and "I Love You." Miss Duley wore a pink and white floral print with a corsage of pink rosebuds, and Mrs. Graham was attired in a pink frock with white carnations in her hair.

The bride's mother wore a black and white printed sheer, and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Gage, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua frock with a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlor of the church with guests received by Mrs. Laswell, the bridal couple.

Miss Laswell and Mrs. Gage. Mrs. Harold Hall was at the guest register.

The table was laid with a lace cloth, and the centerpiece was of pink roses and feverfew in a crystal container on a reflector. White tapers were placed in graduated crystal holders. Mrs. W. D. McDonald served the three-tiered wedding cake after it had been cut by the bridal couple, and Mrs. Bernard Lamun was at the crystal punch service. Mrs. A. C. Bass was in the house party.

Mrs. Gage was graduated from Big Spring high school in 1943 where she was a member of the High Heel Slipper club, and prior to her marriage was employed at the First National Bank. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Big Spring schools, served for 28 months with the Navy, and was stationed in Pearl Harbor for 20 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Gage left for a two weeks wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., after which they will make their home in Big Spring.

Virginia Beck is on vacation from Malone - Hogan hospital. She will visit in Brownwood.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend massaging preparation helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an equitably prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild, anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.

500 Expected In City This Week For Two Lions Club Gatherings

Registration Today Opens Activities

First of hundreds of Lions clubs members from this region and the state will arrive here today for the Victory Convention of district 2-T and Texas.

Prospects are that minimum registration for the first postwar convention, which combines the district and state parleys, will be 500. There is a good possibility that it may exceed this figure by a wide margin.

Reservations have exhausted the supplies of rooms, which hotels provided in large numbers to handle the convention. Jake Douglass, housing chairman, said that members had been polled to get additional rooms in private homes to care for visitors.

Although only one candidate has been announced for district governor, convention politics are due to warm from the start. Brownfield Lions are advancing the candidacy of Frank Jordan for the governorship, but there have been hints of surprise candidates.

While no club has yet asked for the 1947 convention, Lions officials predict that a brisk battle over the honor will ensue once delegates arrive. Work on campaigning will be at a fast tempo since balloting on the governor and convention site will be held Monday afternoon.

First official part of the program is a service at the East Fourth Baptist church at 8 p. m. Sunday with Rev. Fred Rogers, Alpine Lion, speaking. Monday will be devoted to district business, with addresses by Roy Keaton, Chicago, Ill., assistant secretary general and Herb C. Petry, Car-

Breakfast sessions will be held Monday at 7:30 a. m. for presidents and secretaries, talkwriters and key members. Monday noon Midland and Odessa clubs will present model luncheons and Tuesday noon the state luncheon will be held at the Settles while wives of visiting Lions will be honored with a luncheon at the Crawford.

Cards welcoming Lions have been placed downtown and banners and other streamers will proclaim the convention. The Settles hotel will be decorated with signs boosting bidders for the governorship and next convention.

Local Clubmen Kept Busy On Arrangements

Big Spring Lions have been working on entertainment, housing and other items for more than three months in preparation for the district 2-T and state Lions convention.

Heading up the preparation has been Otis Grafa, general chairman.

Other convention chairmen are: Registration, William R. Dawes; finance, Ted O. Groeb; publicity, Wiley L. Curry; housing, Jake Douglas; transportation, Joe Williamson; decoration, Jim M. Greene; properties, Truett Thomas; entertainment, D. W. Conley; women's activities, Mrs. Jack Y. Smith and ticket sales, Robert Satterwhite.

Plainview Man Heads Up Lions' District Unit

Heading up sessions of the district 2-T Lions convention here Monday will be Charles H. Dean, Plainview, a man who has come up through the ranks of Lionism.

He served as president of his club and was charter president of the Dimmitt Lions club in 1930. In addition, Dean served as district deputy governor and zone chairman in this district and has been active since 1925 when he joined the Clareson, Texas club.

A native of Waco, he was educated at Southern Methodist University, the University of Texas, where he received his law degree. He is a member of the American Legion.

Dean is married and he and Mrs. Dean have a daughter. In public affairs, he has served as a county and district attorney and was in 1934 a member of the US Conciliation commission.

Dean has been active with officers of the Big Spring club in planning the district convention, which is being held jointly this year, with the state convention.

Negro Gets It Twice From Liquor Agents

Anderson Davis, Jr., Snyder negro, is having his troubles with investigators of the Texas Liquor Control board.

Davis was intercepted just inside the Borden county line last Monday night by local TLCC authorities with a quantity of beer. Charged with transporting alcoholic beverages without a license in county court at Gall, he was fined $200 and costs.

Friday, the officials swooped down on Davis again, this time in Sterling county, and slapped a charge of transporting liquor in a dry area on him. Saturday, he entered a plea of guilty to the accusation in Sterling county court, was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to serve 14 days in jail.

Capt. Sheppard Tells AB Club Of Playground

Set-up of the Salvation Army playground was explained by Capt. Olvy Sheppard to the American Business Club luncheon Friday. The play area, consisting of 180,000 square feet, is expected to accommodate the 246 children the Army found to be living in that neighborhood plus many more in the west side.

Supervised games and equipment for pre-school children and organized play including tennis courts, baseball diamonds and a football field for older children have been planned, Sheppard said.

He expressed the hope that the two projects, the new playground and the one maintained by the AB Club in that part of town, could work together to provide recreating so sorely needed for those children, stating that 12 or 15 such playgrounds would not be too many for the city.

Bill Dawes, visiting Lion, called for the cooperation of the club in the Lions convention here this weekend and Don Newton, guest, made a short speech. Accompanying Dawes was a youngster, Kenneth Weeks, whom the club has voted to send to YMCA camp during July.

Ted Phillips, president, presided at the meeting during which four new directors for the club were elected. They were Charlie Staggs, Thomas Joe Williamson, John Walker and Charles Girdner. Guests present included Arch Marchant, Jake Ridgeway, Vernon Andres, Neil Ryan and Marshall Daniels. L. F. Smith and Harrell Jones were introduced as new members.

$5 FOR SON IS JUST AN INSULT

JOILET, Ill., June 15—(AP)—Attorney Robert Higgins said he "got just plain mad" when his landlord sought to boost his hotel apartment rent $5 a month because of an "additional tenant."

Higgins, in a letter the OPA promised to consider carefully, said the new tenant wouldn't use any extra elevator service, electricity, or gas and would be "bathed in oil instead of water."

"Of course," Higgins added, "once in a while he takes a drink of water."

Higgins explained the new tenant was his seven weeks old son, Edward, a "million dollar baby anyway—$5 is just an insult."

The OPA said it wasn't its policy "to penalize anyone for having children," and said it would hand down a ruling next week.

Butcher Fined For Food Law Violation

Justice court served notice of a $34 fine on a local butcher who entered a plea of guilty on a charge of violating state food laws. The case was filed by state inspectors, who said some of the shop's meat did not meet specifications.

The fine was suspended when the accused confessed ignorance as to regulations. A similar charge against him was dismissed.

International Link Discussed At Denver Highway Conference

DENVER, June 15—(AP)—Members of U. S. 87 Highway Association, meeting here in the first convention in two years, proposed yesterday that the highway become a link in the Alaska-Guatemala highways and studied a plan to change the organization's name to International 87 Highway Association.

A. B. Davis of Lubbock, Tex., association manager, asserted the group should be alert to see that the highway obtains federal and state funds "which its traffic justifies."

Cleve Hill of Alberta, said Canadian towns along the route are interested in making the link international.

Houston Contractors Reject Labor Wants

HOUSTON, June 15—(AP)—Houston contractors had rejected demands of AFL building trades craftsmen today, a spokesman for the Houston chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America announced.

AFL pickets have been put up to force contractors to recognize the international union of hod carriers and common building laborers and the teamsters union, local 968.

Ter projects, costing $23,000,000 were being picketed. "They'll just have to strike," a spokesman for the contractors said.

Lions Annual Convention

To Be Held In Big Spring On June 16, 17, 18

In 1937, the last time that the Big Spring Lions club was convention host, the membership of the club was only 30. During the past year the Lions club has increased its membership from 85 to 146. And every member is working to see that this convention is a real success.

The Lions International dates back to 1914. Today there are 5,150 Lions clubs in the United States, British Honduras, Canada, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. Membership totals 245,000.

Lions Stand for Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nations Safety

The Big Spring Lions club takes pride in being host to the officers and delegates to the annual convention of the State and of District 2-T. This is the first time since 1937 that Big Spring has entertained the Lions convention. The entire membership of the Big Spring club hopes that your visit to this convention will be among your most pleasurable experiences.

Keep Working For County Roads

County roads which are not part of the state highway system, commonly called farm-to-market roads (and rightly so, because they provide the farmer with a road to bring his products to the buyer), are among the important things for which Howard county people should keep striving.

Good schools are necessary, law enforcement is necessary, health programs are necessary, but these need not be so large as to prevent the county's providing, with the aid given by the state, the roads that open the way for the farmer and the ranchman to get his commodities to market regularly and profitably.

No county can be called the best place to live so long as it lacks a complete network of all-weather roads that will get the rural resident to where he needs to go, whether there be sunshine and wind, or rain and mud.

It is almost axiomatic that a town's growth and a county's prosperity are keyed directly to the development of good traffic routes, to provide an inlet for the producer, and an outlet for the processor and the seller.

Howard county has made some commendable progress in its road system, but it needs to do a lot more. The future needs constitute one of the things that the people of this county should discuss with their county officials, and with those who hope to be county officials. The men who head our county government ought to be willing—and there is every reason to believe that they are willing—to show how a program of continuous county road development can be maintained.

There are several views on the best means of road development. The Herald holds to the principle that a completely integrated, countywide program is the practical one. A program which is planned over a period of several years, based on potential income, and following a definite system of building first those surfaced routes which are needed most and serve the most people, and following with other routes in succession.

The program should properly come under the direction of a county road engineer, who can develop it as a whole, to the lasting good of the whole county.

We think such a program is better than the precinct system, which is a haphazard thing and not always subject to long-range planning. There may be room for argument on this score, but there ought to be agreement among all of us that continuous building of permanent farm-to-market roads is a program to keep working on at all times.

Head Of The Family--His Day

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

This being Father's Day, for some reason or other, a few remarks about this member of the family may be in order.

It is contended that some fathers are not worth killing, but there is also a weight of evidence to prove that other. Wives are ineligible to vote on this moot question, on the ground of prejudicial fore-knowledge of the facts in the case.

Having eliminated from consideration the comparatively few who either are, or are not, worth killing, and rejecting the biological aspects of the case, and simply considering fathers as a race of people, we may proceed with a study of fathers in a general and their place in human society.

Fathers distinctly have their place, usually behind a newspaper at the breakfast table, or in an easy chair near the radio with book in hand; and in either case it is impolitic, if not impolite, to disturb them by such distractions as lawn-mowing, leaky-faucet fixing, or move-your-feet-while-I-sweep household boondoggling.

Dagwood Bumstead may well serve as the model father among men who still work at the trade. There are times when Dagwood confuses his children with the family dogs, and mistakes his wife for one of the "Your World Tomorrow" household gadgets. Fathers have been making these little mistakes ever since the invention of the holy art of wedlock, and Blondie's husband bravely carries on an ancient and honorable tradition.

Mr. B., the model husband and father, is an unconscious humorist, wherefore everybody loves him. His son and heir exercises a noble and forgiving attitude of tolerance and apology for the Pater, and is smart enough not to let the Old Man catch on. His loyal and long-suffering spouse believes with every wife that but for her lone and unaided efforts and sacrifice, her lesser half couldn't find his way to a sheepshead in a sleet storm, or drive a wheelbarrow through a wide-open barn door.

Cookie, the budding tyrant on the distaff side of the family, thinks her father is a funny man, impulsively generous; but girl-children are born wise, so she knows who really keeps the family together, and that the proper day to honor is the second Sunday in May.

But for the millions of Dagwood Bumsteads who inhabit this vast and slightly confused land, one day looks pretty much like every other day. Calling the third Sunday in June Father's Day isn't pulling any wool over the Old Man's eyes. If he feels any upsurge of feeling about the matter, it will be nothing more deep-seated than a sense of relief that here, at long last, is one special day he won't have to remember, one anniversary that calls for no personal shopping on his part. The Family, God bless them, won't forget him; they will see to it that he is loaded down with presents. The bill collectors won't forget him, either. Not if they expect to hold their jobs.

Darwin's law of the survival of the fittest obviously is not operative in their case, for whereas selective breeding and the discovery of vitamins have improved the Missouri mule (just in time to be put out of business by the tractor), fathers continue to be chips off the old Adamitic block.

But the old boy has his moments, and wouldn't change places with the man in the moon. He started off by ribbing Eve, and he has been ribbing mankind in general ever since. He has learned to laugh off his disappointments, but experience has taught him not to laugh 'em off around the house. This shows both intelligence and discretion.

CAPITOL AND LABOR

The Nation Today—James Marlow

OPA Is Vital To YOU

WASHINGTON, (AP) — What happens to OPA in the next two weeks will affect you, your pocketbook and your cost of living.

Here's the story. The House and Senate have voted to continue OPA.

In doing so both Houses would strip OPA of many price controls, leaving it only a ghost of itself.

If the action of Congress becomes law — this is not certain yet — prices are going to start climbing, some almost immediately.

No one seriously denies that throwing off OPA controls will bring higher prices. Higher prices mean inflation.

Congress's thinking — or hope — in paving the way for higher prices was this:

Higher prices will mean better profits for business. With better profits, business will produce the goods the country needs.

Then, when plenty of goods reach the market, prices will start coming down.

The main point is: How high will the prices (inflation) go, how long will they stay up, when will they start coming down, how far down will they come?

And there's this: If prices get out of hand, the government no longer can attempt to hold wages down. Labor will start demanding higher pay if prices go screwy.

And there's this: If wages go up, the cost of production will have to go up. Then, will wages and prices ever come down to where they are now?

But even with OPA still in control, as it is now, living costs have gone up.

With the kind of OPA Congress has decided upon, prices will go up, but faster.

But, the congressional action is not final and it's possible OPA will squeeze through with a whole skin after all.

The House and Senate bills for continuing OPA are similar, but not identical. In some respects they are quite different.

A joint committee of both houses will get together to try to work out a final bill upon which both houses can agree.

That agreed-upon bill will go to President Truman for him to sign into law or to veto.

If it's like the present House and Senate bills, he'll probably veto it and send it back to Congress.

All this will have to happen in the next two weeks, unless a law is passed to extend it. OPA automatically dies June 30.

No one wants to kill off OPA altogether but by the time a veto reached Congress, the date would be pretty close to June 30.

So with June 30 staring it in the face the legislators might pass a simple resolution continuing OPA.

Such a resolution would say OPA was to be continued, pretty much as it is now, for perhaps another six months.

With that kind of lease on life, OPA would continue to lift price controls as it saw fit.

Under the House and Senate bills OPA would have to throw off numerous controls, whether it wanted to or not, starting July 1.

Mexico Pineapple Being Processed

MALLEN, June 15 — (AP)—A plant at MalLEN is canning frozen crushed pineapple imported from Mexico at the rate of 40,000 pounds daily. The plant plans to continue operations until August 1.

Two other Rio Grande Valley plants, one at San Carlos and another at Brownsville, also are processing pineapple. The fruit is moved in refrigerated railway cars.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Argentine Military Meeting Secret

WASHINGTON — Obscured by news of strikes, hotel fires and Supreme Court bickering, the most important conversation of the Western Hemisphere quietly took place in Washington. It was between the Argentine chief of staff, Lieut. Gen. Carlos Von Der Becke, and US officials, especially General Eisenhower.

The conversation was important for the following reasons:

1. This is the first time in recent history that the US Army has taken foreign policy away from the State Department and has virtually attempted to dictate its own policy for Latin America.

2. The US Army is now forcing close military cooperation with the chief dictatorship in Latin America which, up until a short time ago, we were officially denouncing as pro-Nazi.

Here is the inside story of what happened.

For some weeks, General Eisenhower, worried about Russian penetration of Latin America, has been pushing the idea of standardizing weapons and ammunition among the Americas, so their armies can cooperate with the United States.

The State Department, while sympathetic to this general idea, has argued that we should not put the cart before the horse. In other words, the arming of Latin American armies by the USA must not start until we have signed an international defense pact and arranged for the control of arms.

Otherwise, the State Department argues, the arms we send Latin America will be used by military juntas to promote revolution, build up dictators and foment wars.

Impatient Eisenhower, however, General Eisenhower, without waiting for the State Department, jumped the gun and began asking Congress to okay standardized arms for Latin America.

Meanwhile, Dictator Peron, sitting isolated in Argentina, worried over the Brazilian Army's modern lend-lease equipment, rose to US Army bait, and decided to go over the State Department's head.

This he did, first by a personal letter to Eisenhower, later by having his chief of staff, General Von Der Becke, resign and go to Washington as a private citizen.

The Argentine general, who is pure German and once openly stated that the German army could not lose the late war, called on Eisenhower last week. When he walked into his office, he did not know that only two hours before, the US chief of staff had received a phone call from Assistant Secretary Spruille Braden seeking to put a damper on Ike's cordiality.

Braden informed him that reports on Peron's inauguration were disquieting and the American Ambassador had been roundly booted.

Eisenhower said thanks, he'd keep it in mind.

Ambassador Messersmith in Buenos Aires also had cabled Washington that the impression prevalent in Argentine government circles was that Braden was all washed up as Assistant Secretary of State in charge of Latin American affairs, and that was why Argentine was now trying to deal direct with "realists" in the US Army.

Braden pointed this cable out to his chief, Secretary Byrnes, and protested that Eisenhower's actions were undermining the State Department. As a result, Eisenhower promised to make it clear to Von Der Becke that final Army decisions must come from the State Department.

Tribute To US Military Might

All this had taken place before the Von Der Becke interview. When the interview finally occurred, only five men were present. Eisenhower was flanked by Lieut. Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, new chief of combined US intelligence and nephew of Senator Vandenberg, General Von Der Becke was accompanied by Col. Arturo Bertolito, Argentine military attaché, and the fifth man was Lieut. Col. Gregorio Marquez, a Puerto Rican officer who acted as interpreter.

Von Der Becke began by telling Eisenhower that both he and Peron now regard US military genius as the world's greatest. (Eisenhower was courteous enough not to remind him that two days before D-Day he had also predicted that "Europe never could be invaded.")

The Argentine general then went on to explain that Peron's policies were not aggressive. Their sole purpose, he said, was to revitalize political and social consciousness, long dormant under a series of corrupt governments. Nationalism and armed strength, argued the general, who is of pure German descent, were being stressed only as part of the program and not with any thought of attacking neighbor countries or of spearheading an anti-US bloc in Latin America.

"On the contrary," Von Der Becke continued, "Argentina wholeheartedly supports President Truman's plan for inter-American military cooperation through standardization of equipment and training methods."

What troubled Peron, he said, were certain phrases in President Truman's message asking Congress to pass the Standardization of Equipment bill, which indicated that Argentine participation in the project might be tied to fulfillment of "impossible demands" from the State Department.

Stumbling - Block Braden

At this point, Von Der Becke really turned on the man-to-man stuff and spoke bluntly. Assistant Secretary of State Braden, he confided, was the only stumbling block to the establishment of the best relations ever enjoyed between the United States and Argentina.

Thereupon, he handed Eisenhower an English translation of a secret memorandum prepared by Peron and his advisers — including ing of course, Von Der Becke himself. The paper contained complete specifications for the equipment and training facilities which Argentina hopes to secure through the inter-American military cooperation plan.

Present Argentine material is entirely obsolete, Von Der Becke went on to explain, and must be replaced from one source or another. Brazil now has a modern, streamlined army; and Argentina, as the most "advanced" nation in South America, cannot afford to be outdone. It is the earnest desire of Peron and his army chiefs to obtain their new arms in the United States, he said; but they must be obtained promptly, at all costs. (Von Der Becke did not mention Russia by name, but the implication was strong that the only other source of extensive armament supplies was Soviet Russia.)

Braden Hits Ceiling

Eisenhower, however, played ball with the State Department by telling the Argentine chief of staff that this matter would have to be referred to the Secretary of State. He said the War Department had no power to act.

Next day, Spruille Braden in the State Department wrote a scorching memo pointing to the unusual length of time given Von Der Becke — one hour and twenty minutes. This is unprecedented in the mere exchange of formalities between army chiefs, who are not supposed to discuss policy, especially when one of them is officially on his way to Johns Hopkins for a health check-up.

Eisenhower's lengthy conference, Braden complained, had compromised the State Department's entire position.

NOTE — This columnist, having long covered Latin American affairs, for years has watched military juntas built up and wars brewed through the race of armaments. Latin American Generals can and will secure arms wherever they can get them — Bofors, Vickers, US second-hand peddlers, or from the government of the United States. Either way, arms always create trouble. Only way trouble can be avoided is by an inter-American and control defense agreement. That is why the State Department doesn't want to put the cart before the horse; also why Eisenhower's geniality and US Army meddling can have undermining consequences.

Diamond City Rebuilds

By ROBERT EUNSON
(For HAL BOYLE)

ANTWERP, (AP) — Half of the world's diamond industry has returned to this historic European trading center since the end of hostilities in Europe.

Control of the world diamond market has been centered in the dim-lighted little offices and shops along Antwerp's ancient Rue Du Pelican for 500 years, but the war scattered the industry to the four corners of the earth. Merchants in Palestine, Brazil, Canada and the United States grasped feverishly for the market during the war years, but it came home to Antwerp again — and quickly.

"It is the cutting and polishing that counts," says Albert Rudelsheim, general manager of the Belgian diamond industry syndicate. "The diamond cutters in Palestine or South America may have two or three years experience, but in Belgium it is a closed industry, passed down from father to son.

Most Citizens Favor Large Increase In Old-Age Pensions For Really Needy

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, June 15—Practically every candidate for governor in the primaries this summer is promising the old folks some form of increased state assistance. They have not gone as far as they could. Most citizens of Texas, a statewide survey indicates, are willing to pay old-age pensions larger than any major candidate has yet publicly dared to advocate.

Some of the candidates say they will seek a liberal interpretation of the term "needy" in deciding who should receive old-age assistance. Texas public opinion does not sanction such an idea. A clear cut majority wants pensions to go only to people in actual need.

Almost one-fifth of the electorate admitted to interviewers of The Texas Poll that they had personally heard of someone receiving an old-age pension who did not really need it.

Texas today sends checks each month to more people 65 or older than any other state. We have 175,000 on the rolls. Texas is said to have the easiest requirements in the United States for qualifying for old-age assistance. The law is interpreted to mean a person may receive assistance even if his children could support him or if he has transferred property for the sole reason of qualifying as a recipient.

The current political campaign has called attention once more to the state's growing pension problem. Many of the office-seekers declare they will press for larger expenditures on social welfare, which includes old-age pensions. To determine accurately and without bias just where the public stands on this issue, The Texas Poll has interviewed a complete cross section of voters. Here are the questions asked and the results obtained:

"How much do you think should be the most paid each month to a person who gets an old-age pension?"

Less than $20 1%
$20 to $29 6
$30 to $39 22
$40 to $49 18
$50 to $59 23
$60 to $69 9
$70 or more 8
Undecided 13

Thus the majority, 58 per cent, would pay $40 or more. Forty per cent of the people would make payments of $50 or more; only one or two states in the union come close to paying an average pension of $50. The average in Texas is less than $35.

"Do you believe all people 65 or older should be paid government pensions, or only those 65 or older who are in actual need?"

Pay to all 37%
Pay only to those in need 61
Undecided 2

Texas negroes do not agree with the above state majority. Sixty per cent of the colored interviewees gathered in this survey, favored pensions for all regardless of need. The idea of universal pensions has apparently gained acceptance since 1940, when this organization first sampled opinion on the subject. At that time 74 per cent of the white people would have restricted assistance to the needy aged as compared with 63 per cent of the whites now.

Have you heard of any person now receiving old-age pension who does not actually need it?"

Yes, have heard 19%
Have not heard 76
No answer 5

The 19 per cent above is probably a conservative figure. Many persons among the 5 per cent labeled "no answer" declared they would not care to comment on the matter, perhaps believing any information they may divulge would endanger a friend's or relative's pension.

Fire Destroys Wheat
HEREFORD, June 15—(AP)—Between 15 and 20 carloads of wheat were destroyed by fire here last night. Fire fighting equipment from an 85-mile area was rushed here to fight flames that started of an unknown origin at the Fraser Milling company.

Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District News

MIDLAND, June 15. — Hull clover, a new soil building and crop cover for this area, has been tried out this year by Frank Elkin, cooperating with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District. Elkin planted the clover in his garden and found it grew "shoulder high," thus furnishing an excellent cover crop and making a good growth to be returned to the land for soil building. Elkin plans to try this crop on a field basis this fall and expects to get good results with a favorable season. For best results fall planting of Hubam is recommended either in rows or drilled in with small grain and the seed should be inoculated, Elkin said.

Hubam is a valuable crop not only as a cover crop to prevent blowing of the land and for soil building, but for a cash crop when harvested for seed, for grazing, and as a hay crop. Yield of from 200 to 400 pounds of seed have been made, which at market quotation of $24.00 per hundred last fall makes Hubam a good cash crop.

Elkin has also grown Austrian Winter peas on his farm as a winter cover and a soil building crop. The yield of corn following the Austrian peas was nearly doubled last year, Elkin said.

Soil building and crop covers are a part of the complete program of soil and water conservation on the Elkin farm. J. G. Arnett, Bessie Locklar, and L. L. Newsom have completed a soil and water conservation plan on their farms, assisted by the SCS. Included in the plans were contour cultivation, crop rotation, stubble management, and soil building crops.

Jno. Hemmingway has made application to the District Supervisors for SC assistance on his farm in the Cotton Flat SC group. An engineering survey was completed on the L. L. Newsom farm last week.

City Livestock Owners Required To Register

Registration of owners who keep livestock and fowls within the corporate limits of Big Spring will begin Monday at 1 p. m., Lawrence J. Wells, city sanitarian, announced today.

The registration is being conducted in compliance with a new city ordinance, which also sets forth regulations for maintaining stock and poultry pens. The ordinance requires that all livestock and poultry owners within the city register with the health department, who in turn will grant permits for keeping animals or fowls when maintenance provisions of the ordinance have been complied with.

Owners are urged to register as soon as possible, Wells said, as a 10-day limit has been set. The ordinance provides penalties for those who do not register before deadline.

The health department will expect compliance with as many of the ordinance's provisions as possible immediately, Wells said, but endorsement measures will be carried out with full consideration given to material shortages which might preclude some phases at present. However, current information indicates that all provisions except those requiring quantities of lumber can be put into practice now, he said.

Complete plans for approved types of concrete vats to be used for manure disposal, will be furnished at the health unit office.

TRY THIS AMAZING HOME RECIPE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Right in Your Own Home, You Can Lose Pounds of Excess Weight Without Starvation Diet or Strenuous Exercise

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconrate (formerly called Barcon Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if redoubtable pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Perhaps you are overweight due to over indulgence in food or the wrong kind of food. With the Barconrate home recipe method, you do not have to starve yourself or go hungry. Just follow the simple instructions given on the label and you should get satisfactory results quickly. The very first pint you make up should show results. Why not slim down your figure without a lot of fuss and bother? Try the Barconrate way. Wear your streamlined frocks and slacks gracefully. Remember, if the very first bottle of Barconrate doesn't show you the sensible way to lose weight, your money will be refunded.

Increase Forecast In July Crude Demands

AUSTIN, June 15—(AP)—Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culberson today announced that the United States Bureau of Mines has forecast a July demand for 2,110,000 barrels of Texas crude oil daily.

not just another day...
Father's Day deserves
observing a very special way!

From the first pay envelope Dad earned as a "family man," his sense of responsibility — and his responsibilities — have grown with the years! Though he's always ready to share a laugh or a holiday with his kids, his graying, thinning hair testifies to the hours he's worried over illnesses and expenses, business and politics as they affect his family's and community's welfare. One way or another, he fought and helped win the war. On firing line or assembly line; behind a gun, a store counter or an office desk, in his particular and necessary role Dad won the rank of veteran. In that spirit we honor him and give thanks this Father's Day — by bestowing upon him our faith and understanding and by trying a little harder to be the kind of sons and daughters he dreamed we'd be, when he first held us in his arms, newborn.
