The Canadian dollar, says the economic reporting service of the National Editorial Association, is now nearly five cents over the U. S. dollar, with billions of our money going into Canada as capital for their industries.

No tax reductions in the U. S. are in sight for 1957. However, England is reducing taxes by 10 percent. Ain't that sumpin'?

The Race of the Century is between G. M. and Ford's two "low-price" automobiles. Right now, it's Ford (for the first time since 1935) with 430,000 passenger units. Chevrolet has 404,000. These are figures for the 1957 production.

Plymouth has nosed out Buick again for its old third place with 190,000 cars. Buick has manufactured 140,000, and Oldsmobile 130,000.

We forgot to mention it, but Ches Fowler was in right after the senate election a couple of weeks ago and was knowing on us because, as you know, we were for Martin Dies and he got beat.

Every year, Ches threatens to cut off his subscription to this Shivercrat' newspaper. He's feeling better, though, about Ralph Y. winning this race, so maybe he'll still keep reading The Trib.

Changing times department: The oft-made remark that minor league baseball is on the rocks appears to be an accurate one. We marvel that the Clovis Redlegs have managed to hang on as long as they have.

Clovis fans, few as they are, have refused to admit that there aren't enough of them left to justify professional baseball. We thought that this year, for sure, they'd give up the ghost, but nope — the Redlegs will play again.

Sometimes, maybe, it's better to kill a suffering animal and get him out of his misery. We feel awfully sorry for the few really interested people in Clovis who have worked their fingers to the bone trying to keep baseball, but we wonder if their labor's really worth it.

Like King Canute, who stood at the seaside and commanded the tide to be rolled back, these boosters are finding their influence to be dwarfed by the task at hand.

Keeping minor league baseball just about as tough as getting folks out to a town meeting anymore. People care less and less for anything that requires more effort than lifting two fingers.

The "who cares?" attitude is getting to be the national pastime — not baseball, as it used to be.

Our work in the West Texas Press Association recently called for some correspondence with the astute editor of the Dallas Morning News, Felix McKnight.

McKnight, who has had widespread acclaim for his journalistic ability, seems to have some faults, which is some comfort to his contemporaries of lesser fame.

In a letter addressed to us, he identified us as editor of "The State Line Tribune." We have pointed out to Mr. McKnight that so far as we know, the state has never filed an attachment on our property, though they may some day do so, we'll admit.

This latest episode over our unusual name is but one in a long list of humorous miscues, some of which must have been intentional. Other writers have addressed us as:

The Straight Line Tribune
The State Lie Tribune
The State Line Tooter
The Texico Trumpet

And of course, the old one they used to throw at Hop every week, The State Line Headache.

Some of our cruder critics have referred to us as publishers of The Weekly Wiper, and some other titles that aren't worth mentioning in print.

Less humorous, but just as confusing, is the mixup in towns. We very frequently get mail addressed to Clovis, Texas; or to Farwell, New Mexico. It must be a mess to get a letter mailed correctly, when you have us in mind.

The Oliver Sikeses are traveling again. We have cards from them saying they have visited in Laredo. They called on the Dale Ruleses and Buddy Joneses.

We can't help but notice Oliver's economy mindedness. He sent two postcards, but instead of putting two cent stamps on each, he obtained an envelope, placed them inside, and sent both for three cents!

Rev. E. J. Keith In Clovis Revival

Rev. E. J. Keith, pastor of the Farwell Baptist Church, is this week conducting a revival at the Calvary Baptist Church in Clovis.

The revival began at the Clovis church last Sunday and will continue through this Sunday's services.

Circus Here Saturday

A free circus, being sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Lions Club, will be in Farwell Saturday. The circus is free to the public and the Palace of Wonders can also be seen, but an admission will be charged.

The circus and Palace of Wonders will be located east of Ralph Humble's business on Third Street. Three performances are planned during the day, one in the morning, afternoon, and night. Times have not been set for the performances, as they will start when a crowd arrives, according to a promoter of the event.

Quite likely, the first show will begin around 11 a. m., the second at 3:30 p. m. and the final show at 7:30 Saturday night.

To be featured at the circus will be Cookie, the Hollywood trained Chimpanzee; Starlette, pickout pony; acrobats and aerialists; and Henrietta, plank-walking elephant.

At the Palace of Wonders, a 27-foot python snake can be seen, as can Sam, the black-faced gorilla; a five-legged hog, and Bill, the penguin.

Youngsters will be allowed to sit on the elephant free, while live pony rides will be given for a small admission charge.

The Lions Club's share of the proceeds will go to financing the summer youth program.

County Wide Red Cross Drive Goes Over County Quota

According to an announcement made by Wesley Foster, Parmer County Red Cross chairman, the county wide drive which has just been concluded exceeded the quota set for the county. Foster is deeply appreciative of the generous response with which the drive was met.

Mrs. John Aldridge served as chairman of the drive at Farwell and with her helpers did a "remarkable job," according to Foster's statement.

The chairman of the drive, Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, was also commended very highly for the job she did.

The drive in Friona was conducted by Ella Lamb and Fern Awtry, who did a "very good job contacting local people and soliciting their support." Foster said he would like to express his gratitude to all who contributed to the drive and to all those who worked in the interest of it.

Mrs. Ellis Tatum reported for the Black Community and part of the Rhea Community's funds have been turned in. Up until noon Tuesday, the total amount contributed amounted to $1452.09. Reports from the Lakeview and Lazbuddie Communities should be received within the next few days.

The amounts contributed to date are: Farwell, $436.32; Black, $61.50; Rhea, $51.00; and Friona, $586.66.

Visitation Day Set At Farwell

All children who will be starting to school for the first time this fall are invited to visit the first grade rooms of Mrs. Loyd Cain and Mrs. A. D. Daniel at the Farwell School on Thursday, April 25, from 9 to 11 a. m., according to an announcement by Mrs. Alice Tucker, school supervisor.

Parents are requested to bring or send their children's birth certificates and health records to this meeting.

Sheriff Lovelace To Huntsville With Prisoners

Parmer County Sheriff Chas. Lovelace was in Huntsville the early part of this week, transporting four prisoners from the county jail to the state penitentiary. Lovelace left on Monday and returned to Farwell Wednesday.

The ones which were taken to Huntsville were those found guilty on various criminal offenses and sentenced to serve time by District Judge E. A. Bills.

The moving of the four and the dismissal of others tried recently in district court, has lessened the number of boarders at the county jail considerably, according to county officers.

Claude Primroses Join Angus Association

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Primrose of Farwell have been elected to membership in the American Angus Association at St. Joseph, Missouri, announces Frank Richards, secretary.

The Primroses were among 17 purebred Aberdeen-Angus breeders in Texas elected to membership during the past month.

Bobby Joe Crume Visiting Parents

Arriving here Saturday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crume was their son, Pvt. Bobby Joe Crume, who recently completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. Crume will report to Missouri on April 26 where he will study code and telegraphy.

Easter Holidays Here

Easter holidays for students of Texico began yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) and Farwell students will start their Easter vacations this afternoon (Thursday). Classes will resume at both schools on Tuesday, April 23, according to school officials.

Mrs. Jim Terrell New PTA Prexy

Mrs. Jim Terrell was installed as president of the Farwell Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday evening, April 11, at the school auditorium.

John Getz, who presided at the business meeting, installed the officers after they were accepted by the membership following a report by the nominating committee. Other officers installed to serve during the coming term were first vice-president, A. E. Tatum; second vice-president, Mrs. A. T. Watts; third vice-president, Mrs. E. J. Keith; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Christian; publications chairman, Mrs. Karl (Smokey) Gast; publicity chairman, Mrs. Joe Jones; and membership chairman, Mrs. Oris Hubbell.

The PTA presented the school with a check for $100 to be used however the school desires. Members of the first grades of the school presented a musical program and refreshments were served in the cafeteria following the meeting.

Last Day Busy One For Car Inspections

Not only was Monday, April 15, the deadline for filing income tax, but it was also the last day which Texas motorists had to have their automobiles inspected for safety stickers.

As usual, many people put off until the last day what could have been done any time during the preceding 3½ months. Walter Hardage of Hardage Motor Company, said that his place of business was swamped with automobiles all day Monday.

They were lined up all around the only inspection station in Farwell, and more than 100 cars were run through the inspection line on "deadline day," Hardage says.

Texas motorists are required to have their vehicles inspected once each year.

FIRST STEP — Irene Dyer, treasurer of ESA, presents Jess Landrum, a swimming pool promoter, with a $100 check to go into the swimming pool fund. This is the first step for the Texico-Farwell sorority in backing the project. Several fund-raising events are underway and in the planning stages by ESA to raise money for the fund.

Speech Group Rates High in Play Contest

Participating in the Eastern New Mexico University Speech Festival for the first time last weekend, a Texico speech group received a rating of excellent for its presentation of the play, "Antic Spring," a one-act comedy.

The presentation of plays from each school participating was the highlight of the two-day festival, and not only did the Texico play receive a top rating, but members of the cast did likewise.

Alex Brown was given a rating of superior for his performance and Betty Pendergrass, Susan

Steers Perform Good, But Not Good Enough

The eleven representatives of the Farwell track team, who participated in the regional track meet at Lubbock last weekend, turned in some top-notch performances, says Coach R. B. Tucker, "but not good enough."

Of the group which attended the meet, only Larry Pike, junior hurdler, managed to place. He came in fourth in the 180-yard low hurdles, to give Farwell one point in the meet, which was won by Stinnett with 20 points.

Class A and B teams from all over the Panhandle and South Plains all participated in the same division of the huge meet and competition was strong in every event, the Farwell coach says.

Several of the Steers won their heats in the preliminaries and semi-finals, but in the final events, the opposition was too much, and the local cindermen failed to place and qualify for the state. One bad factor of the meet was the exceptionally cold weather which caused the postponement of the meet on Friday and caused the athletes to run the same races three times on Saturday.

Steers who reached the finals in the various events were David Willard, 100-yard dash and broad jump; Roland Hillock, 220-yard dash; and Pike, low hurdles. Glyn Hardage finished second in his first heat in the 880-yard run.

In the mile and relay events, which Farwell participated in, participants ran only once and com-cantata.

Normal PO Service Expected

Postal service is expected to be back to normal at Texico-Farwell's two post offices by Saturday, following several days of shortened mail service. The curtailments in service during the past week were those ordered by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Few people were effected by the cutting of service locally as the only ones to go into effect before the appropriation of more funds for the postal department, were the closing of the offices last Saturday, the 8½ hour days starting Monday, and the cutting off of rural mail delivery Saturday.

Window service was shortened from 8-6 to 8:30-5 during the three days, and about the only ones affected were those who usually stop at the post office on their way to work at 8 o'clock, says Mrs. Lucy Brown, Texico postmaster.

Easter Cantata To Be Sunday

"Day of Resurrection" is the title of the Easter cantata to be presented by members of the choir of First Baptist Church, Farwell, on Sunday morning, April 21. Text of the cantata is by Elsie Duncan Yale and music is by J. W. Kenney.

Mrs. Erma Jobses is directing the choir for the presentation and choir members have been working diligently on the cantata for many weeks. The cantata is to be presented at the morning service at the Farwell church and will be presented in the evening at the Texico Baptist Church.

A number by the entire choir, "O Day of Resurrection," will begin the cantata and the second number is "There is a Lovely Garden" to be sung by the women's chorus.

Other numbers include "Be Hushed, O Heart," also solo by Mona Hardage; "Neath a Starless Sky," by men's chorus; "I Will Not Leave Thee Comfortless," soprano solo by Martha Blair; "Wide Swing the Gates," by the choir, and incidental bass solo by Clarence Johnson;

Also, "Morning on a Hillside," by women's chorus; "Angel at the Open Door," tenor solo by Jimmy Hardage and choir; "Forth From the Garden," choir; and the finale, "O Day Divine!" by the entire choir.

Choir personnel includes sopranos, Martha Blair, Rita Dollar, D'Ann Garrett, Elsie Hardage, Marilyn Jones, Marie Keith, Beulah McWilliams, Mary Jean Patrick and Canevah Turner; tenors, Claude Coffey, Jimmy Hardage, Walter Hardage, Willie Hardage, and Dean Jones;

Also, altos, Mona Hardage, Irene Henson, Dickie Magness, Jo Schell, Jo Ann Williams and LaMoin Williams; and bass, Horace Battenfield, Truitt Hardage, Clarence Johnson and Calvin Murray.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend both presentations of the cantata.

Barbecue Tuesday Night

The annual barbecue, sponsored by the Texico FFA Chapter, is set for Tuesday night, April 23. The feed gets under way at 8 p.m. and in connection with it the Chapter will give away two turkeys.

Musical entertainment will be furnished and plans are to have the Bowman Brothers from Lubbock here, says Dick Lockhart, FFA reporter.

Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any FFA member. Admission will be $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

However, with the appropriation of more funds for the postal department, these curtailments were never enacted and from here on out, service should be "about the same as in the past."

Building destroyed — Firemen work in a vain effort to save Martin's Garage in Texico. The blaze broke out at the business last Thursday and the entire south half of the building was gutted. Other than the building, which was insured, $4,000 worth of equipment and a car, truck, and pickup were burned. However, Martin was once again open for business this week, after obtaining new equipment and opening up shop in the north section of the building, which was not damaged.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Sales Limitation Act More Government Dictating

Presently pending in the Texas legislature is the Sales Limitation Act, a bill which would prohibit Texas merchants from selling any item below cost.

If enacted, the 1957 law, applying to all wholesale and retail merchants, would stipulate that a merchant cannot sell below his "cost basis," this being invoice price, plus freight, a small percent for cartage, and state and federal taxes.

The bill is being pushed strongly by the Texas Retail Grocers Association and is being opposed by the Texas Merchants Association. It is interesting to note the difference in logic of the two groups, both being comprised of Texas businessmen.

An argument given in favor of the legislation is that it would prevent merchants from luring shoppers into their stores by advertising "hot specials," and then selling them other items at far above normal prices.

It might help the small businessman who never in any way tries to work for the consumer's trade, but it appears that it would be protecting only the less progressive merchant. To be sure, it would put a damper on competition, and competition is one of the essentials of a democratic government.

But, that is the form of government which this nation is deviating from more and more. The federal government has taken over farming, placed controls on many phases of business, and it is presently working toward the domination of the public school systems.

If a progressive merchant wants to sell his merchandise below cost in an effort to stimulate more trade, that is his business, and he should have the right to run his business as he sees fit.

The bill specifies that an item can be sold at below cost if there is no limit and it is displayed "prominently in sufficient quantities." There is nothing to keep a competitor or peddler from buying out the complete stock — and this does happen if there is no limit.

As for the bill lowering prices, this is hard to believe. How can fixed prices lower what the consumer has to pay for a product on a competitive basis?

The merchants association has this to say about the new law lowering prices — "If you want to lower prices, you don't have to go to Austin and pass a law. You just stay at home, pick up your pencil and start lowering them."

As for these "hot specials" luring customers into the store where they pay high prices for other items, it might be so. But, a wise shopper may fall for such a scheme once or twice but not always.

The merchants group has a legitimate fight, but it will be an uphill struggle, since this same legislation has been passed before—and legislators, along with the bulk of the American people, are following the socialistic trend.

The majority of the people today seem to cater to the government placing restrictions on their individual rights. Probably, because it is one more excuse for not standing on their own two feet.

Texico Band Has Banquet Monday

Seniors graduating from the Texico School band were presented sterling silver pins in recognition of their contributions at a banquet here Tuesday night at the Texico Woman's Club Building.

"This is the finest group of musicians I've ever lost due to graduation," the director said. Five of the six members have been in the band six years and the other member had served one year.

Mikala Faville, band president, extended a welcome to the school administrators and students present, and thanked the Texico Woman's Club who prepared and served the banquet.

"The Four Mistakes" presented several numbers during the evening. Boys playing in this group are Bobby Patterson, Dickie Adams, Matt Pendergrass, and Dick Lockhart.

An Easter motif was used in the banquet decorations. Colorful balloons were suspended from the ceiling. Nut cups were in pastel spring colors with Easter rabbits on them.

Centerpieces for the head table were little trees in green pots with white blossoms and colored candy Easter eggs on the branches. These easter egg "trees" were made by Mrs. Ira Levins, who served as chairman of the banquet committee.

Pastel-colored salad, steak, mixed vegetables, baked potatoes, hot rolls, butter, iced tea, and strawberry shortcake were served by a committee from the Woman's Club. Others helping Mrs. Levins were Mrs. Ival Hesser, Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mrs. Milton Henson, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. B. A. Rogers, Mrs. Les Means, Mrs. Jim Moss, Mrs. C. B. Stockton, Mrs. Avis Patterson, Mrs. Fred Danforth and Mrs. Agrie Jones.

Assisting with the serving were three high school girls, Koleta Doshier, Pauline Servatius, and Gloria Johnson.

Danforth expressed his thanks to the Woman's Club for preparing and serving the food for the banquet.

Attendance for Sunday School on April 14 was 201. Ninety-six were present for training union.

Wilma Limer has no problem on what to do with the cast on her broken arm. Her little next door neighbor, Meredith Anderson, has already spoken for it.

Progress Driver For De-Emphasis on Laws

(Editor's note: Howard Griffin, a resident of Progress, has appealed to this newspaper to help present his views on overhauling regulations pertaining to private transportation.)

(As a matter of policy, we always print signed letters to the editors, whenever they are of local significance. The publication of any letter by The Tribune does not necessarily constitute endorsement of the writer's viewpoints.)

(A factor which helped motivate this letter was the arrest of Griffin by a highway patrolman recently. He was charged with failing to bring his car to a stop as he approached a highway. His case was tried in a Muleshoe justice of the peace court. Griffin says that his plea of not guilty was upheld.)

Route 2, Box 86
Muleshoe, Texas
April 11, 1957

Dear Sir:

I offer to you a letter to the editor, which is also of interest to all Texas people. If you will, please print this for me and the benefit of those who will take time to consider the contents which concern us and our State of Texas in part.

Do you own a driver's license? Do you know the meaning of a driver's license and the law required to operate a motor vehicle in this Free State of Texas, a union in this Free United States of America?

The law as follows, as explained in a Digest of Texas Motor Vehicle Laws, 1956, mailed to me, by request, April 4, 1957, by W. J. Elliott, Chief Texas Highway Patrol, Austin, Texas:

Article No. 16—DRIVER'S LICENSE LAW. Driving a motor vehicle upon a highway is a privilege and not an inherent right. The privilege is granted by the State to persons who comply with certain conditions and is evidenced by the issuance of a driver's license.

A person operating a motor vehicle upon a highway is required to have in his possession a valid driver's license.

First, do we own Texas, or does Texas own us? Most of these laws are wrong and are not in the interest of the public safety, but are being used in part for fraud and attempted defraud of us, the users of our own highways to enrich the state by our hired representatives.

It takes a set of 20 books to hold our legal laws concerning our highway violations and penalties. Do you know these crimes are called misdemeanors? Any one carries a fine of $1 and not to exceed $200, and regardless of the amount of the fine, the costs can not be less than $15.50, but more if desired. My experience would have cost me $20.50, if I had not proven my innocence of false charges.

Do you know if you fail to come to a full stop at any stop sign on our highways under any condition, you have committed a crime and are liable for prosecution and will have to pay not less than $20.50. Do you know if you are issued a ticket by any of our highway patrolmen it will cost you not less than $16.50?

Do you know we pay for our highways and pay men to make and enforce these crazy laws? Do you know approximately 50 percent of our vehicle butane motor fuel dollar is tax money? Do you know that approximately 30 percent of our gasoline dollar is tax money?

Do you know it costs us approximately one cent per mile tax money to drive our modern automobiles every mile they go? Do you know we pay $1 tax money per year for a useless sticker? Do you know we pay $1 per year for our driver's license? Do you know we pay six cents tax per gallon on all motor oils? Do you know we pay taxes on tires and most vehicle repairs?

Do you know I paid $17.18 to register my car for one year? Do you know we pay one percent sales tax when we buy a car? Do you know this will figure approximately $300 a year for taxes alone to operate each automobile we own? How many vehicles were licensed in your county in 1957?

We do not have an inherent right to operate a vehicle on our highways because the law plainly says we do not, but we do have an inherent right, from our forefathers, to fight for what our country was founded for and this was then and still should be, freedom.

Our boys fought and died like many before them. Can we give up now? Our government was founded of the people, for the people, and by the people, and if we do not take a stand now, what will our children face after us?

I know what God will have me do, what will you do now? I was not privileged to fight alongside my fellowmen in our past war, but God has now called me to my purpose of this life and since you are included in His plan for me, I am asking you to back me with your opinion of my proposals now, and with your financial help when that time comes.

I ask no pay except for expenses which I will ask for later if you think I am right in the following proposals:

We should ask for and get one cent off our federal tax, leaving this at two cents per gallon and two cents off the state tax, leaving this at three cents per gallon on our gasoline. The same would apply to vehicle butane motor fuel, and two cents off our motor oil, leaving this tax at four cents per gallon.

Discontinue the state sticker law, reduce our registration fees on all vehicles designed for a load of 1,500 pounds or less by one-third, issue our driver's licenses for 50 cents per year with the life of one license to be four years instead of the present two. This will cut down on expenses to this department.

Remove all rural stop signs on highways maintained by the state, with a visibility of one-fourth mile or more after entering roadside with caution, and replace the same with "yield" right-of-way signs.

Issue all driver's licenses to anyone 16 years of age and older. My argument here is that our young folks can not get a valid driver's license now without a lot of red tape. We have a very fine bunch of young folks who are not children, and resent very much being called children. Our youngsters have more knowledge in our modern world of today about the facts of life and the world's surroundings, than we did 15 years ago when we were at the age of 21 and older.

They do not know the Texas laws for use of the highways, but I venture to say their dads do not either, but they have the common sense at this age to handle an automobile if they have the right and the responsibility.

Last, I believe our speed limit should read as the first line, as explained in my Digest of Laws, which is this: "A motor vehicle is required to be driven at a speed that is reasonable and prudent under the conditions then existing." I believe this and only this should be our speed law.

I also believe our freedom we are forced to buy at a cost of $1.75 a year for a poll tax receipt to vote should be reduced to 50 cents per year. If you will please discuss this in groups such as your churches and special groups and write me in one letter with group signatures your opinions, I would like to have the letters.

I would like to have the young folks' opinions very much. Write any way you prefer, but please let me hear from you. A copy of this letter will appear in as many papers as I can reach. My count is 63 separate papers at present. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
HOWARD GRIFFIN

Woman's Club Hears Boy Scout Executive

John Bloomshield, district Boy Scout executive director of the Roswell Scout District, spoke to members of the Farwell Woman's Club at their regular meeting on Monday evening, April 15, at the home of Mrs. Willie Williams.

Bloomshield told of the Boy Scout movement and what it means to a community and the boys therein and urged the local club to sponsor such a movement here.

Following his talk, club members discussed the Scout program and decided that at the present time they will not try to undertake such a project. Although members were very interested in having such a movement here, they feel that at the closing of school, when a summer recreational program has already been planned for the youth, would be a poor time to start such a project.

They did agree to discuss the matter later, perhaps in the fall when the boys are not so busy with other activities.

Hostesses with Mrs. Williams for Monday night's meet were Mesdames E. G. Williams, Joe Crume, Claude Coffey and Dr. Mary Mc-Neff.

During the business session the group discussed the swimming pool project and reports were heard from members on ticket sales for a deep fryer which is to be awarded on May 4 in Farwell. In charge of the awarding are Mrs. Joe Crume, Mrs. James Patrick and Mrs. W. H. Graham Sr. It will be held in front of the Vanity Fair Beauty Shop.

Mrs. M. A. Snider Sr. spoke briefly to the group about the work of the Ground Observer Corps and stressed the fact that the local organization needs the interest and membership of many more adults. She encouraged Woman's Club members to be active in the local GOC whenever possible.

Following the meeting, refreshments of glazed Spudnuts, spiced tea and coffee were served to Mesdames James Patrick, Jack Williams, John Aldridge, Claude Coffey, Joe Crume, M. C. Roberts, Olie Burton, G. A. Garrett, L. R. Vincent, Austin Jones, M. A. Snider Sr., E. G. Williams, Willie Williams, and W. H. Graham, Sr.

Also, Mesdames M. C. Roberts, Claude Dyer, Leroy Faville, Alfred Napke, Edgar Blain, C. M. Henderson, James Patrick, R. E. Crooks, Jim Moss, Ysleta Kittrell, Helen Willis, F. S. Recent veterinary experiments indicate that the phosphorus requirement of dairy calves, 12 to 18 weeks old, is approximately 0.22 per cent of the air-dried ration. Livestock on rain-drenched pastures or fed forage cut soon after heavy rain, may need extra mineral supplement. Several minerals and amino acids can be washed out of plant leaves by rain.

peted against time. Wayne Jesko was the winner of his heat in the mile but his time was below other heats.

Both of Farwell's relay teams, the 440 and mile, came in first in their heats, but likewise, did not place. Making up the mile relay team were Derrell Garner, Jerry Henson, Doug Hillock, and Doug Tucker, and Pike.

In the 440-relay race, Pike suffered numerous bruises when he fell on the cinder track after handing off the baton. He was treated for injuries at Lubbock and has also been receiving treatment here this week, Tucker says.

"Even though they failed to cop many honors, I was well pleased with the performances of all the boys," the Steer coach says.

In describing the finals of the 100-yard dash, Tucker says that all boys in the race were bunched so closely together that "it was difficult to tell the winner from the last man."

Many records were broken at the meet and there would have been more had it not been such a cold day, Tucker says.

Most popular dog breeds in U. S. today are: beagle, boxer, cocker spaniel, dachshund, Chihuahua, German shepherd, collie, poodle, Pekingese and Boston terrier in that order.

Farwell, Lazbuddie Split Two Games

After building up a commanding lead in the early innings, the Lazbuddie Longhorns had to stave off a Farwell Steer rally in the late frames, to hold on for a 10-9 win in a game played at Farwell Tuesday afternoon.

The win gave the Longhorns a split of two games played between the two clubs during the past week. Last Thursday the Steers went to Lazbuddie and pounded out a 6-4 win.

In Tuesday's game, Lazbuddie pushed across four runs in the first inning and added one in both the second and third, to take a 6-0 lead before Farwell could muster a hit. The Steers broke the ice in the fourth with one run. They added two in both the fifth and sixth innings but still found themselves trailing 10-5 going into the last of the seventh.

Five errors on the part of the Longhorns in the final stanza, coupled with two timely hits gave Farwell four runs and had runners on second and third with only one out.

A strikeout and a put out at home retired the side and gave Lazbuddie the win.

Jimmy Ivy went all the way in recording the win, giving up nine hits. His teammates committed six errors. Arlin Smith went the route for the losers and he too yielded nine hits. The Steers also committed six errors.

Two roundtrippers were hit in the game, Jim Weaver of Lazbuddie blasting a two-run homer in the fifth and Derrell Garner of Farwell getting one in the bottom half of the inning with no one aboard.

In the Thursday game at Lazbuddie, Donnie Carpenter gave up only five hits in pitching the Steers to the 6-4 win over the Longhorns. The Steers picked up seven hits and played errorless ball.

Farwell scored its runs with three in the first, and one in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings. Lazbuddie pushed across two each in the fourth and fifth innings. Vanlandingham was the losing pitcher.

Whittington Speaks At Junior-Senior Fete

"Happiness is a feeling that one has contributed something for the welfare of others," said Marsh Whittington as he spoke before the juniors and seniors at their annual banquet, Friday.

The banquet, held in the Hotel Clovis ballroom, carried out a springtime theme.

Further elaborating upon the subject of happiness, Whittington said, "Success is getting what you want and happiness is wanting what you get." He stressed the importance of not expecting to be

Commenting with Carolyn

The juniors cleverly solved a schoolground problem by placing attractively painted green and white barrels on the campus. These barrels are lettered WASTE PAPER, and certainly the school's assorted collection of debris looks much better in them than floating across the yard. Moral of this story: seniors are not the only ones that can be clever.

It is almost time for the annual election for student body president. Remember that a petition requiring 15 signatures is necessary for the nomination of a candidate. So let's get those petitions submitted.

The juniors went "all out" to give the seniors and faculty one of the finest banquets possible last week. It was really wonderful, juniors.

Leslie Dyer, eighth grader, really made a fine showing at a track meet held in Tatum recently. Entering five races and winning five first places is quite an accomplishment. Congratulations to one of THS's future track stars.

Presenting a program for high school students last Thursday were four math and science majors from ENMU. The college students pointed out that math and science offer excellent opportunities for employment and advancement.

Sixth Grade Plans Parties

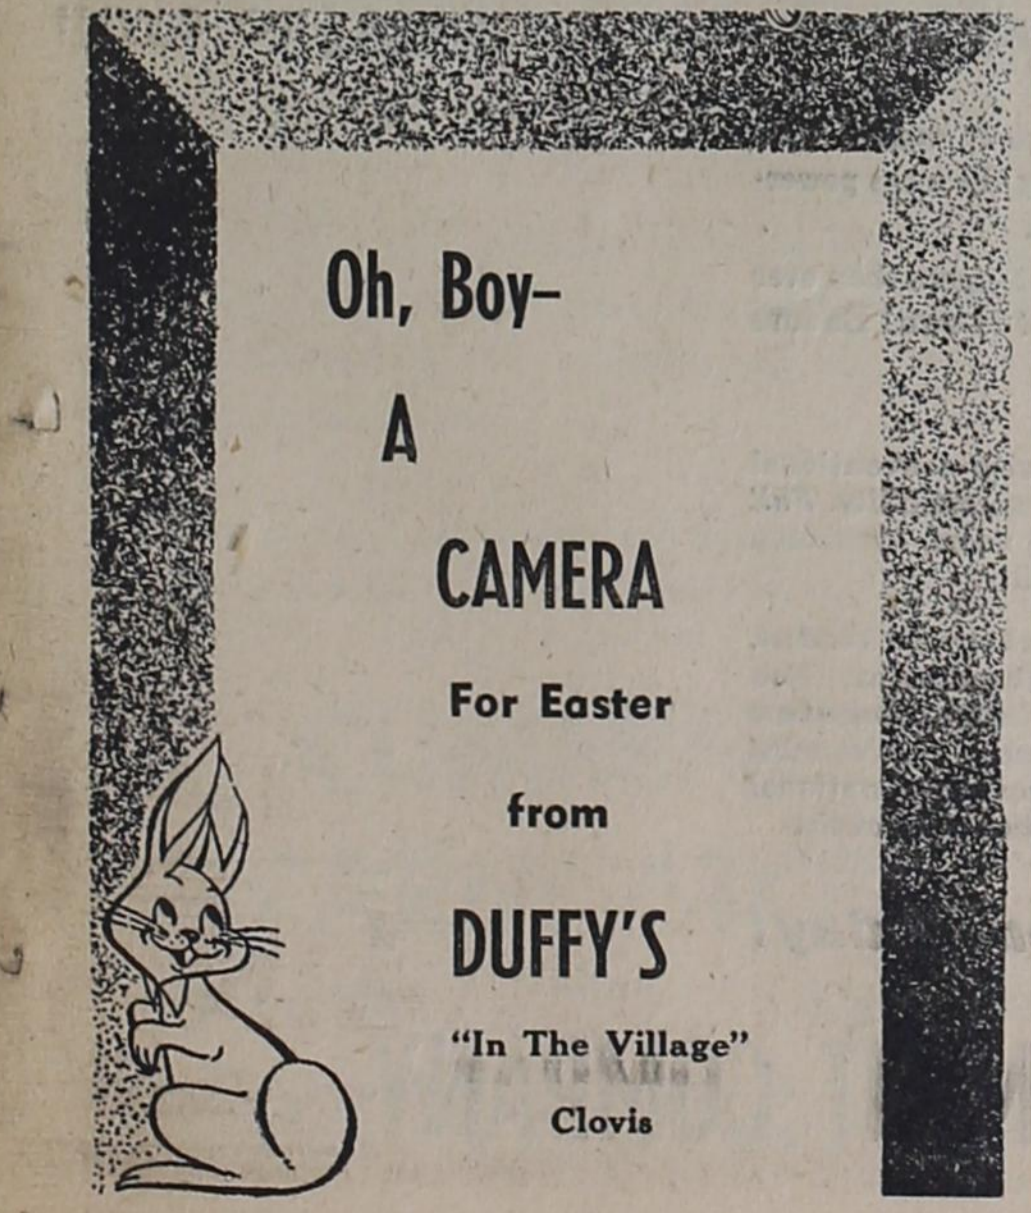

On April 8, the sixth graders had their final class meeting. During this time the class chose dates for parties to be on the 16 or 17 for Easter, and the end-of-school party which is to be May 10. Mrs. T. J. Tipton, Mrs. E. A. Hall, and Mrs. R. M. Walker were chosen as room mothers.

President Carol White assigned discussion subjects, "Behaving at 4-H" and "Walking in File."

New committees are room committee—David Seal, Kenneth Glaze, and Skippy Tipton; recreation committee—Jenness Weisler, Hal Ed Helton, Rosie Arnold and Wanda Davis; and art committee—Ernest Meir, Linda Palmateer, James Watts, and Weldon Walker.

Jenness Weisler reports Easter decorations were finished for their bulletin board.

Students Win Honors

Representing the Texico business education and journalism departments, nine students attended the annual Highlands Day activities at Las Vegas on April 11, 12, and 13.

These students competed with typing and shorthand students from all over the state. Individual ratings according to superiority, proficiency or merit were not determined in time for the awards banquet, but they will be mailed to students in the near future. The school won a proficiency banner in state-wide competition.

At the commercial banquet on Friday night, Bettye Matthews, Verlene Thigpen and Mikala Faville won "400" club honors. State medals were presented to Verlene Thigpen in shorthand, and to Barbara Sapp and Mikala Faville in typing.

Students who successfully passed tests taken at the convention and received certificates were Verlene Thigpen, Bettye Matthews, Mikala Faville, Carolyn Curd, Joyce Gil-

Mothers Feted With Buffet Luncheon

Texico Home Economics III girls honored their mothers with a buffet luncheon Thursday. The centerpiece, composed of an Easter bunny of styrofoam with different colored styrofoam eggs helped to carry out an Easter motif.

The menu consisted of baked ham, buttered asparagus, cheese and avocado dips with potato chips and Fritos, tossed vegetable salad, garlic rolls, butter, strawberry shortcake, iced tea, and nuts and mints.

Girls enrolled in the class and acting as hostesses were Gloria Johnson, Melba Doshier, Lynell Lovett, Glenda Richardson, Garlene Clear, Melva Doshier, Wilma Walton, Anita Watts, Dorothy Maedgen, and Mikala Faville. Sponsor is Mrs. Jimmie Allman.

Guests present included Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mrs. Troy Lovett, Mrs. M. D. Richardson, Mrs. D. Walton, Mrs. Jack Watts, and Mrs. Leroy Faville.

The girls enjoyed preparing the food and entertaining their mothers.

Let's Have A Successful Election

By Betty Pendergrass

As the school year nears a close, we come to one of the most important events of this term of school. It's the election of a student body president!

Those students who have made past elections such wonderful successes certainly deserve a few words of praise. Remember all of those clever posters and the never ending slogans which are always so eye-catching?

One of the most memorable campaigns was during the last election. Several enthusiastic students were rattling around the campus in paper bags. These bags were covered with a variety of brilliantly colored slogans telling what unusual qualifications their candidate had.

In any election there is always controversy as to which candidate has the best qualifications and who would be better suited to the job. One of the quickest ways to turn students against your candidate is to destroy your opponent's posters or by defacing property. Fair play is always a good characteristic for campaigners.

You can be enthusiastic as well as considerate. Consideration can help your candidate win the election. With a combination of sportsmanship, enthusiasm and cooperation this campaign will be a success.

Elementary Grade Students Busy

Fourth graders in Mrs. Gorman Byrd's room have been pretty busy this past week. They have been making flags of all the different nations and fastening them on our state flower, the "Yucca." It makes a beautiful decoration for the room.

First graders in Mrs. Edward Weisler's room welcomed a new student last week. His name is Ray Palmateer and he comes from California.

They would also like to thank Mrs. Louis Warren for an Easter bunny made out of cotton batten. The children are also having an Easter bunny race in numbers.

Fourth graders in Mrs. Avis Patterson's room welcomed Mike Spearman back. Mike has been living in California for the past year. They also report a very good attendance these past few weeks.

Easter decorations are also being put up by this group.

The third graders and Mrs. Frank Seal wish to thank Mrs. Glenn Singleterry for three story books, and a group of story leaflets. Each leaflet is filled with good stories, pictures, poems, and songs. The children have really enjoyed them.

Jimmy Goolsby made a trip to Oklahoma recently to visit his grandmother and other relatives. The third grade boys and girls chose a beautiful afternoon recently to practice some safety lean and Anita Watts. Three members of "The Wolverine's Tale" were among the winners for outstanding high school newspaper writing announced Friday night at the annual New Mexico High School Press Association banquet at the Castaneda Hotel in Las Vegas.

Weldon Bell rated an excellence award in sports writing. Betty Pendergrass received the same rating

Science Is Interest Of 7th and 8th Graders

The eighth grade class has had the privilege for the past week of using nine new library books before they were placed in the library. Books on science are found very interesting by the students.

Members of the class are very happy to welcome a new student, Dixie Davis, who hails from Clovis. Eighth graders are really proud of Leslie Dyer, who seems to be a promising track man. Leslie won five first places for his team at the track meet Saturday, April 6. Billy Hukill, also a member of the eighth grade, participated in the same meet.

Jeff Jenkins looks very humorous with a "shiner" he received while playing baseball.

Seventh graders have decorated their room with health posters, because they think health is one of the very most important subjects to be taking. Jean Hadley and Carmelita Doshier are working on some safety rules to study.

Seventh graders were glad to have Sandra Dyer visit them Wednesday. They are sorry to lose Mary Lee Doshier, who is moving to Oklahoma.

Lymphomatosis among chickens caused 14.5 per cent of all deaths in this poultry species and cost $73 millions in chicken losses.

for an interview story. This is the second year for her to win awards for outstanding writing. A feature story written by Carolyn Curd also rated excellence, making this the third consecutive year for her to receive state journalism honors.

Attending the convention were Mr. and Mrs. Agrie Jones, sponsors; Rebecca Richardson, Bettye Matthews and Judy Wakefield, juniors; Joyce Gillean, Mikala Faville, Carolyn Curd, Glenda Weisler, Verlene Thigpen, and Anita Watts, seniors.

Two Dozen Students Make Honor Roll

An even two dozen high school student's names made the honor roll for the fifth six-weeks period. Seniors are leading the list with ten, including Alex Brown, Carolyn Curd, Mikala Faville, Joyce Gillean, Susan Levins, Dick Lockhart, Betty Pendergrass, Verlene Thigpen, Glenda Weisler and Gorman Byrd.

Others on the roll are Joanne Brown, Mary Ann McDaniel, Jerry Wyman, and Valeria Meier, freshmen.

Tenth grade: Virginia Lawson, David Lockhart, Teddy Roth, Monte Singleterry and Bobby Stover.

Eleventh grade: D. E. Hammit, Jerry King, Bettye Mathews, Bobby Patterson, and Rebecca Richardson.

Senior Girls Win Texico Juniors Lose,

Texico junior high girls lost their first game of the volleyball season when they faced Rosedale juniors in a game in the Texico gym on April 9. Texico got off to a slow start, letting the Rosedale team gain a seven point lead over them at the first of the game and they were unable to gain back enough of the points to win. However, they did gain back enough of the points to have a close game, losing by a 24 to 20 score. Texico had faced Rosedale earlier in the season, with Texico capturing the win.

In the senior game, Texico won their third game of the season out of four season games. Texico was trying hard to beat the Rosedale girls, as Rosedale had defeated them earlier in the season. The game was close with only one and two points separating the teams the larger part of the game. Texico was able to pull ahead five points at the end to take a 22 to 17 win.

are hoping to be seeded in the tournament, as each team has a 3-1 record.

The next game will be in the county tournament.

Chocolate Milk Versus Candy

By Rebecca Richardson

Have you heard about Texico School's new "cow" that gives chocolate milk? And this cow doesn't even say "moo". She is a very well behaved cow.

Not long ago someone got the idea that it would be much more helpful for Texico students to spend their nickels on milk instead of candy and pop, so a milk machine was ordered. When it arrived it caused considerable excitement. It stood in the lobby of the gym for several days empty, but some of the small children couldn't wait. They put their nickels in anyway. Now it has been in use for several days and everyone seems to be enjoying it.

THERE'S AN ELECTRIC HEATING METHOD FOR EVERY HOME NEED!

Electric Heating is CLEAN, MODERN, AND SAFE!

Now, instantaneous, comfortable heating — of course, it's electric! Whether you are building your new home, remodeling or adding a room to your present home, you can use electric heating. The advantages you have with your electric work-saving appliances are also yours with electric heating. Electric heating is the cleanest form of heating known. Now is the time to solve your heating problems for next winter and years to come. For information, without obligation, see your Public Service Company manager.

- YOUR PRESENT HOME
- THAT ROOM YOU'RE ADDING ON
- YOUR NEW HOME

- ★ CEILING HEATING UNIT WITH CIRCULATING FAN
 Ceiling heating units are ideal for bathrooms, hallways or kitchens. They can be used as the main heat source or as auxiliary heating. A flip of the switch gives you heat where you want it and, if desired, a controlling thermostat can be added for automatic operation.
- ★ RADIANT-CONVECTION WALL HEATERS
 This type of electric heating you've seen many times either in portable heaters or in wall-mounted units. Such electric heating units are inexpensive, can be thermostatically controlled and are easily installed. One answer to the problem of heating a room added on.
- ★ RADIANT GLASS, METAL or CERAMIC PANELS
 Nearest thing to the warmth of the sun's natural heat rays is electric radiant heat. Heating coils are embedded in a heat conducting material which, through radiation, warms your family, floors, furniture. These units, mounted on wall, near floor, come in various sizes, up to 50 1/2 inches long.
- ★ HEAT LAMPS
 Heat lamps are used where quick spot heating is desired — over work benches, in garages, working on the family car, etc. A heat lamp can be inserted in place of a regular lighting bulb, or it can be installed permanently in bathroom ceilings, etc.
- ★ BASEBOARD HEATING UNITS
 Electric baseboard heating is completely inconspicuous since it can be painted to match or contrast with wall colors. In practically all homes the heating requirement is met by installation along outside walls only. Furniture can be placed anywhere without interfering with your heating.
- ★ EMBEDDED CEILING CABLES OR PANELS
 As in all electric heating your furnace is miles away (at the electric power plant). You turn on a switch and get completely clean electric heat. Continuous coils are run back and forth across entire ceiling area and then covered with plaster or texture paint material. Heating system is completely out of sight.
- ★ THE AMAZING NEW HEAT PUMP
 Here's the amazing "heat pump" which uses the principle employed in your electric refrigerator to "pump" heat to you in winter and cool air in the summer. It's a combination central unit which costs approximately the same as the central heating and cooling units in conventional use. No matter the outside weather, the "heat pump" adjusts immediately to give you the weather you want inside your home.

More than likely, the number of Parmer County farmers who will participate in vegetable production on a commercial scale this year will be few in number, but some of them appear to be headed for vegetables in a big way.

J. T. Ford and sons of near Arwell have planted around 70 acres of onions, and say they plan to stick with vegetables "for at least five years."

Meanwhile, in the northeastern part of the county, which for years has been influenced by the big Hereford potato, carrot, lettuce, onion, and sugar beet deals, things are developing.

Herman Neff, who first put a spud shed in Friona four years ago, sold his interest in the business in recent months to a group of local farmers. And these local men, in addition to planning to continue potato production, have plans for business expansion.

"We'll have a carrot deal here within two years for sure," says Kenneth Neill, general manager of the shed, now known as Friona Growers and Shippers. Neill, who lives two miles southwest of Sumnerfield just inside the Parmer County line, has been a vegetable producer for many years.

He and Ray Botkin, Earl Lance, Hardy May, John O'Haugherty, Elmer and J. R. Euler, and Kenneth Christi are owners of the shed now.

Neill figures that about 400 acres will be planted in potatoes in the Friona area this year, and that over three-fourths of this acreage already has been seeded to red potatoes including Lasodas, Bliss Triumphs, Pontiacs, and Dazocs. These are known as "summer" potatoes.

Plans are, however, to have another planting the latter part of May, this being devoted to Russets, a white potato that comes off in the fall.

Last year, vegetable growers were practically delirious over their extraordinary good fortune. Bumper yields, plus a situation on prices that probably won't be repeated for years, put them out in front in the money-making department. This situation was the one that saw potatoes, carrots, onions, and lettuce all bring top-prices—most unusual.

Things haven't always been so rosy, though. All vegetable markets are subject to wide market fluctuations, which can wreak havoc on the most carefully laid plans and the best of farming practices.

In fact, since potatoes got started good in the area four or five years ago, farmers have only had one good year and one fair one. The rest have been poor.

Even with its high risks, however, Plains vegetable production seems bound to increase. The lure of great profits that can come from the rich soil of the Plains and our abundant water is having its effect. More and more farmers are at least looking into vegetable growing as acreages of basic crops shrink and prices for non-basics decline.

Neill, asked about prospects for the year, said bluntly that he expects "average or lower—probably lower" prices for potatoes this year, primarily because of increased acreage following a good year in 1956. "The country as a whole is overplanted," he believes.

Neill, who does not give the appearance of being the hard-driving, fast-moving businessman that vegetable barons are supposed to be, but rather a soft-spoken, smiling farmer, says others who want to get into the vegetable business are going to have to adopt a different philosophy than they now have.

"A fellow hasn't got any business putting in a crop (of vegetables) if he can't afford to lose it," he says. That being true, it would seem to mean that Neill thinks small acreages—around 20 acres per farm—and more of them, are the natural way to grow into the vegetable business. It's the time-proven principle of spreading the risk.

Neill doesn't have any enormous acreages himself. Last year, his lettuce was a little too early to catch the big prices, but he still grossed about $5,000 from 25 acres.

His 35 acres of spuds brought about $30,000, and 68 acres of sugar beets took in $13,600.

Of the latter crop, Neill says, "Sugar beets are my mortgage lifter." He really believes in them. He is, in fact, the only sugar beet grower in Parmer County, and since sugar beets are an allotted crop, the chances of them spreading is small.

As for this year, Neill says that his vegetable acreage will be "about the same" as last year.

He's not sure about whether any carrots will be grown and run through the shed this year. Equipment in the way of a washer and grader will be necessary if carrots are brought into production this year.

And there's the problem of labor housing, which has been worrying the shed owners considerably. A carrot deal would mean from 300 to 400 workers for about four months of the year, he says.

THE PARMER FARMER

Heimie Henderson says the heart of the old dust bowl, in eastern Colorado and western Kansas, is soaking up wonderful spring-time snow and rain. He's been through recently, and says it looks "like old times."

Wet weather is moving in all around us, it looks like. Maybe it'll hit here this year.

Really, though, we can't complain about this year's weather. This has been one of the nicest springs on record. Last year by this time we would have had two or three real good sandstorms, and a half dozen pretty hard blows.

This spring, with the weather hanging around like it has, and the wind out of the north or moderate most of the time, there just haven't been any blows worth talking about.

This is okay with most farmers, we find. They don't mind the dry weather too much—they're used to that. Escaping the usual spring dirt storms is a real pleasure, however.

Then, too, we wonder just how much good a large snow would have done us with that last storm from the north. Farmers in the eastern edge of the county, who caught considerable snow, were griping about the way it came.

They'd just as soon not have any moisture, they told us, as to have it all piled up in the middle of the field in a drift, or stacked along the fence rows.

The thawing of these snowbanks produced uneven moisture distribution which was more trouble than it was worth. It interfered with getting the fields in shape for planting, and especially with early-season application of anhydrous ammonia.

Most of the field would be ready to go, but those wet spots ruined miles per hour and not even know you're in a hurry.

Our notion on running irrigation water in bar ditches is more than just a pet peeve. We are really serious when we say that wasting water is actually a crime—not only to ourselves and our neighbors—but to future generations as well.

There are many excuses for letting water go to waste, but there is no valid reason for it. The irrigation farmer claims he has enough troubles without worrying about keeping all his water on his field, but really, he's being penny wise and pound foolish when he ignores conservation of his water.

Our irrigation water, ladies and gentlemen, is the ONLY thing we have that the broad wheatlands to the north, the sifting sandhills to the south and west, or the baked hills to the south and east, don't have.

If you figure your farm is worth $300 an acre, you've got to admit that $250 of that value is represented in your water.

What does it take to make us wake up? When our wells begin to suck air and nothing is below but the bone-dry redbeds, it'll be too late to do anything.

Is the Parmer County Fair and Dairy Show a dead duck?

With the interest shown in the junior show at Friona, it seems a shame to scratch the fair off as a dead deal.

Somebody needs to come to the rescue of this dormant promotion, which once was the pride of the county. If something isn't done pretty quickly, however, the fair had just as well be buried for good.

Farm pickups are getting so fancy it's hard to tell them from the new passenger cars. The roomy and handsome cabs, which have windows that roll up and down, doors that open, and heaters that work, are a real switch from the bottom busters of just a few years ago.

The ride, though stiff by passenger car yardsticks, is 1000 percent improved. Most of this is due not so much to springing as it is to the deep and cushiony seats now being put into most cabs.

Out on the road, you're as likely to get arrested for speeding in your pickup as in your car, too. It's awful easy to knock off 70

Cut "Small-Item" Farming Costs

Modern farming is an expensive business requiring a high maintenance outlay as well as a large initial investment, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist at Texas A. & M. A careful "budget analysis" to uncover small leaks of the quarter and dollar size will pay sizable dividends over a year's time. Check your operations today, he advises, it may mean increased net income and better family living.

Since prices of many farm products are now depressed, Bates urges farmers to use every practical means to reduce costs. Raising products of higher market value at or near the same cost is a good start, says the specialist. Cutting costs of specific jobs and doing more at the same cost are also effective weapons against the "price-cost squeeze."

Bates encourages farmers to use individual thought in applying such general practices on their farms, but says that many applications are standard. For instance, a soil test tells a farmer the basic nutrients needed on his land, enabling him to spend his fertilizer dollar more efficiently.

The specialist lists several handy, money-saving hints which may be applied to most Texas farms. Lower fertilizer rates over many crops acres usually give greater total returns than higher rates on fewer acres, he adds.

Other "universal" tips include: combined field operations such as pulling harrows behind discs to reduce time and power costs, rubber flaps on press wheels to aid in quick seed germination, feed buying at bulk or volume prices, better tractor fuel utilization by using long row patterns to reduce end travel, taking advantage of price breaks by having machinery overhauls done during service-man's slack season, and practicing "tax-wise" farming by using all legal means to reduce taxes.

For a detailed list of such tips see your county agent or write the Agricultural Information Office at College Station and ask for MP-191.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Once in a while there is some good news for people who have to buy insurance. After May first, all Texas companies will cease making an extra charge for insureds who have girls under 25 years of age who drive their passenger cars. Boys under 25 will still cause you to pay more than you would otherwise. This is not intended as an insult to young men drivers, but results from the fact that girls usually drive only incidentally on errands, etc., while the boys have to furnish the car for dating as well as showing off between dates to show their ability to cope with various traffic conditions.

Anyway, the change will provide relief in some family instances. Farm Bureau requested that the age for additional charge for both sexes be changed from 25 to 21. The request was not granted.

A note to people who claim road tax refund on farm used gasoline: In the past we have kept a small supply of affidavits for making such claims. Then if you forget yours, or were making your first claim, we loaned or gave you one. Our last request for a supply of the forms was answered with a very nice letter from Mr. Calvert, in which he referred us to the regulations of his department. The regulation says that you are to request a form from the comptroller if you are making your first claim. In the request you are supposed to tell what you use the fuel in and for.

An affidavit will be forwarded to you. When you receive your refund check, an additional affidavit will be enclosed, with your name and address printed on it. That is the one you are to use when filing your next claim.

May we suggest that you bring the form in and let us file it in your file when you receive it and it will be here when you need it.

All of our directors, past and present, are grieved at the passing of another who served on the Farm Bureau Board for several years, Hadley Reeve. Many letters pertaining to farmer's interests bear Hadley's signature, affixed while he served as secretary in PCFB's earlier years.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

What's been happening, conservation wise, throughout Parmer County since April 1?

The prewatering is well under way, with many farms already completed. However, the SCS is still running ditch lines and row directions for improved water application. We have run ditch lines and row directions the last two weeks for:

Paul Johnson, Troy F. Ray, J. G. McFarland, J. W. Langston, H. L. Garner, E. C. Siefert, Henry Bass, and A. E. Redwine.

We also ran two elevated ditch lines for Leo Flippen and J. G. Eubanks. And of course we have been checking concrete irrigation pipelines. Some recently checked are:

Bruce Parr, E. C. Miel, J. G. McFarland, Glenn Stevick, T. E. Lovett, Floyd Rector, C. B. Watkins, and L. C. Mings.

We have in the SCS office 325 applications for pipe for the last two quarters, with 142 of those coming in the last sign up. A large amount of pipe has already been installed. So you can see, we will be measuring and checking pipeline for some time to come.

The last 20 degree weather (April 7) did not seem to have bothered the wheat; at least not so much as did the sand and snow storm a few weeks ago.

We have noticed several farmers who have received and are caring for their small trees, and several have expressed their desire to obtain more as soon as the present ones are ready to set out.

We also have several new co-operators with the district. They are:

Paul D. Johnson, H. L. Garner, E. C. Siefert, J. W. Langston, and D. H. Wilkerson.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Almost without exception the April issues of all good publications carry at least one article on making Easter egg hunting an enjoyable occasion for the children.

There are very good suggestions in each article and they make enjoyable reading, and we have thoroughly enjoyed every one of them.

However, we have our own theory about making Easter egg hunting enjoyable for children from three to twelve. It is, "Give them eggs to boil, food coloring to color them with, and keep out of their way as much as possible." Of course, they will require some supervision, but too much detracts from the enjoyment they receive.

Some of the color combinations they come up with will probably not be as pretty to you as they are to the children, but the experience they gain will far outweigh the strange looking eggs they turn out. If you are called upon to hide the eggs or even to hunt them, you should willingly take part, but by taking all of the work out of the entire process for the children, you also take out most of the pleasure.

We have a new book of instructions on "How to Crochet." It has some very good information in it and we would be more than happy to loan it to any of our readers who want to learn to do this fascinating hand work.

Several times down through the years we have heard homemakers make this remark, "I would like to learn to crochet, but I am left-handed." If this is your problem, these instructions have a special section for the left-handed.

There are so many interesting things a homemaker can learn to do that it is difficult to understand why anyone in this profession should ever have time hanging on her hands, yet we very often hear someone remark, "The days are so long. I just wish I had something to do." There are so many skills that can be acquired by study and practice that idleness could be practically eliminated from the life of every homemaker.

Wrapping attractive packages is one art that adds to the life of any homemaker. There is a new booklet advertised in several good magazines that is entitled, "Bow Tying and Gift Wrapping." If there is anything we do a shabby job on, it is wrapping packages, so an order for one of these booklets is in the mail.

Know it will be a surprise to our relatives and friends to receive an attractively wrapped package. Perhaps a card reading, "Wrapped by June" will be sent with each one.

There are so many things to be done in a home where there are small children that sometimes proper precautions are not taken in the storing of drugs, poisons, and other household chemicals which are harmful. All such items should be disposed of as soon as they are of no use and should never NEVER be stored in reach of small children.

Instead of storing prescription drugs, discard them as soon as the patient for whom they are prescribed recovers from the illness for which they are prescribed.

Nut breads are especially good for after school and between meal snacks. The variations are numerous and most of them very tasty. For something new try this:

Lawn Disease, Brown Patch, Can Be Controlled

Brown patch is a rather common lawn disease in Texas. Most lawn grasses are susceptible but San Augustine lawns are most often attacked, says Extension Plant Pathologist Harlan Smith.

He says the disease starts as small spots in the lawn, but the circular brown areas spread rapidly and the grass soon takes on a dead appearance. Infected areas often regain their green color following changes in the weather, says Smith. Brown patch is most prevalent during humid weather on lawns with a dense turf when night temperatures remain 70 degrees F. and above.

To prevent the disease, Smith says to avoid overwatering at all times. If serious outbreaks of the disease occur, avoid watering during the late evening or at night and apply fungicides. The specialist recommends the use of Tersan, Semesan, Special Semesan, Kromad, Calo-chlor, or Actidione. These chemicals, he adds, should be used in strict accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations, including precautions in handling them.

Brown patch disease is caused by the same fungus which causes serious diseases in cotton, Irish potatoes and many other crops. It lives in most soils regardless of the plants being grown and when conditions become favorable causes the disease outbreaks.

FALLS MOST HAZARDOUS

Falls are the home's greatest hazard, claiming a total of 14,000 lives annually in the nation, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. Burns are second, causing about 5,400 deaths annually while poisoning and carelessness with firearms each take about 1,000 lives yearly. Better keep the danger sign up around the house and see that accident hazards are removed, warns the Council.

Parmer County's annual junior livestock show conducted at Friona last Friday was termed the "best ever" in regard to the quality of the animals and the prices brought at the sale following the show.

Youngsters from all over the county exhibited their stock and competed in the various divisions. Divisions in which the boys (mostly 4-H and FFA representatives) participated were cattle, swine, sheep, rabbits, and poultry.

"It's the best sale we ever had," exclaimed Pete Buske of Friona, who was in charge of the auction held after the show. Fleming & Son Gin paid 44c cents for one calf.

That was the top price of the sale. However, the calf that was named tops in the show brought 41 1/2 cents, paid by Fleming & Son, also.

Black Grain Company paid 66 cents to top the hog auction when they bought Jimmy Greeson's animal.

The average price paid for calves was around 32 cents, and the average paid for hogs was about 33 cents. Average on lambs was 29 cents.

"Equipment Is Priced Too High"

That is a frequently-heard remark whenever farmers, whose profit margins are being squeezed by production costs, get together. Well, we agree, new equipment IS too high.

But, let's look a little further. Don't forget that EVERYTHING ELSE we must buy is high-priced, too. The farmer, the manufacturer, the dealer, are all in the same boat. Prices are universally high.

We don't like it, and don't know what can be done about it. However, we have this answer to make: Think of new equipment not in terms of its price, but in terms of its productivity.

What a piece of equipment costs is not nearly so important as what it will earn — what it is worth to own it. Investigate — and you'll find that M-M equipment STILL pays it own way... and then some!

rules. Bennie Lawson had his bicycle at school, so he demonstrated signals and riding on the right side of the street. The other children practiced crossing the street with the help of their patrol boy and girl, crossing without help and walking down the left side of the street where there is no traffic.

It has been fun using the material the teacher, children, and their parents worked to get. In arithmetic, the children used their play money to count change. They learned to count change from a quarter and a dollar.

Some books on free hand drawing have helped the children to realize they can draw. They don't have to trace. Several library books were purchased, also some activity books and program material.

On rainy or stormy days the children have enjoyed playing with the clay they bought. Many interesting animals and structures were made.

The children are looking forward to their Easter party and their Easter vacation.

They wish to thank Mrs. Louis Warren and Louis for a beautiful white lamb to place in the window. Louis also brought some beautiful lilacs to school.

A correction should be made on the last grade news. It was not the Levi Reid farm that was visited by the third grade, it was the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Reed in the children's geography books. The mistake may be blamed on the writer of the column.

Chocolate Milk—

Last Tuesday night a week ago several Clovis boys got ambitious and were going to move one of our machines. The Texico boys didn't mind their moving one of our candy machines out in the front yard but told them to leave our "cow" alone.

There it stands between the two candy machines so if anyone starts to buy candy it will remind them that milk is much more healthful.

Second Graders Have Many Activities

The second graders have been working like "little beavers" these past two weeks.

Twenty-six animals, the farmer, his wife, and their children, a house, a barn, wagon, windmill, car, trees, and a few added attractions to make the farm complete, were made out of plywood and painted by the children. Another attraction in the room is a small grocery store.

They have also made some purchases with the money from the Halloween Festival. Among some of these purchases are: a cash register with play money for their store, a stori-viewer and six stories, three puzzles, modeling clay, and some different colored pipe cleaners to make small things with.

The children are also looking forward to the coming Easter vacation.

Mrs. Curtis Miller, teacher, and second graders would like to thank Mrs. Jesse Richardson for some potted plants.

Visitation Day Set At Lazbuddie School

Research Foundation Planned by Firms

Formation of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation by Southwestern Public Service Company and ten other electric light and power companies operating in Texas, was announced last week by J. E. Cunningham, president of Southwestern Public Service Company. Incorporation papers have been filed with the Secretary of State.

The purpose of the non-profit foundation is to engage in research in the atomic energy field as applied to the generation of electric power. The program will not include an atomic energy power generating plant at this time. It will be directed toward the fundamental methods involved rather than toward the early use of atomic energy in steam-electric power plants of the participating companies.

"The eleven electric utilities which formed the foundation will jointly carry on their research and development work in the nuclear field in a program designed to assure for Texas the benefits which develop from this new source of energy," Cunningham said.

"The various companies, acting as a group, can be more effective in this research since many projects in nuclear research require expenditures which might be burdensome on a single company.

"The program of the foundation is long range, since the natural gas now used by utilities in the Southwest is a particularly good fuel and will be competitive with nuclear energy for many years. The appraisal of problems of this nature will have a high priority in the program of the foundation.

"The foundation does not plan to request any government funds to support its nuclear research program. It hopes, however, to work closely with the Atomic Energy Commission in any program it undertakes.

"Atomic energy power plants now differ from present day power plants only in the substitution of this new energy as a heat source for the boilers which make steam to spin the turbo-generators. Development of this source of fuel will require much research before it can be economically feasible in Texas where electric power generating plants now utilize natural gas as boiler fuel. In the meantime, the research program will provide the necessary experience in utilizing this source of heat in the power plants."

Cunningham is a member of the board of directors of the foundation. W. A. Parish, president of the Houston Lighting & Power Company, is president of the foundation. All of the companies supporting the foundation are represented on the board.

In addition to Southwestern Public Service Company, other companies supporting the foundation are: Central Power and Light Company, Community Public Service Company, Dallas Power & Light Company, El Paso Electric Company, Gulf States Utilities Company, Houston Lighting & Power Company, Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, Texas Electric Service Company, Texas Power & Light Company, and West Texas Utilities Company.

Elodia Garcia and Truman Menefee.

Commissioners To San Angelo Meet

County Judge and Mrs. A. D. Smith and County Commissioners, J. H. McDonald of Farwell and E. G. Phipps of Friona, were in San Angelo on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week to attend a meeting of West Texas Judges and Commissioners.

Also attending the meeting was Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Clyn Smith, of Clovis, who accompanied Judge and Mrs. Smith there.

The group reports that they enjoyed a good meeting and had a lovely time. They returned to their homes Saturday.

Watch your step, because falls are costly. Falls from different levels frequently result in death or serious injury. In industry, compensation payments for falls are substantially higher than those for other accidents.

the river that flows on wheels

More petroleum moves over Santa Fe than over any other railroad in the country

The 2,384,000,000 gallons of petroleum that Santa Fe moves every year is the river that flows on wheels.

It's so large that it makes Santa Fe the No. 1 petroleum railroad in the country.

This flood tide of oil gives heat and power to farms, factories, military installations and homes all over the nation.

The tremendous demand for petroleum, in all its forms, poses special problems for Santa Fe. For it requires speed and service to keep that river flowing full force. Here are a few of the ways we get the job done:

We move empty tankers just as fast as full ones, so no vehicle will stand idle.

As new oil fields are opened up, we stand ready to serve them. And when new developments take place within the industry, we adapt ourselves to take care of them.

As an example, take liquefied petroleum gas. The demand for it has skyrocketed in the last 10 years, because with this "bottled gas" rural families can cook and heat with gas just like city people. And the railroads have made it possible for them to get it.

Santa Fe runs special LPG trains when the demand for this product requires it. In a year, these trains carry enough LPG to heat over 500,000 homes from November through April.

This is just a part of the story of the dependable transportation service Santa Fe is providing to essential industries that contribute so much to the welfare of our country.
