Larry Gregory wins 10th contest

Only one of the hundreds of entrants in last week's football contest managed to get all 12 games picked correctly.

For that magnificent feat, he won the first place cash prize of $20.

Nobody picked 11 games right, but 9 entrants had 10 right.

By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker (Hart 27, Sudan 15), the winner of the 2nd place prize of $7 was Craig Walls, 10 off the tie breaker.

Others with 10 right and their totals off the tie breaker were:

D.J. Vogler, 21; Jacob Thompson, 15; Marisol Robles, 15; J.R. Ivins, 22; Gay Goettsch, 21; Gabriel Garcia, 14; Susie Dale, 18, and Johnathan Edwards, 38.

Results of last week's games were:

Tulia over Olton, Littlefield over Muleshoe, TCU over Colorado State, Penn State over Wisconsin, Miami over Virginia Tech, Minnesota over Indiana, SMU over Rice, Oregon over California, Colorado over Missouri, Kansas City over Oakland, Carolina over Tampa Bay, and Minnesota over Detroit.

There are only two weeks to go in the contest, with the overall winner getting $200 and the Dallas Cowboys tickets to the Kansas City game.

Here's a look at the Leader Board:

83 -- Debbie Weir.

82 -- Darren Haseloff, Kinzi Woods.

'Our greatest battle'

From Jack Patterson, of the Rhea Community:

It was in the early morning hours of Dec. 16, 1944, that Nazi soldiers who still had visions of conquering the world marched onto the field of battle in the Ardennes forest of Belgium with the goal of stopping the advancement of the Allied troops.

A split second after 5:30 a.m., American soldiers could see pinpoints of light piercing the darkness. Within a few seconds they had an explanation for what they saw. The lights were the muzzle flashes of over 2,000 German artillery pieces. The night's stillness was suddenly shattered with the sound of a massive artillery barrage landing on the Americans. The onslaught had begun.

The German code name for the operation was Autumn Mist, but the Americans called it the Battle of the Bulge. The battle lasted for 43 days from the 16th of December 1944, until the 28th of January 1945. More than a million men fought in this battle including 600,000 Americans, 55,000 British and 500,000 Germans. The American force consisted

Expressing gratitude

By Cortin Foreman

Veterans Day is a day we stand back and look at the men and women that have fought in war for their people. This is their day. They go out and fight for us. Do you see us complain? No, you do not. We should thank them for going out and fighting for us. Thanks Veterans!

By Mitchell Harrison

Veterans Day means a day of celebration for the brave men and women of our beautiful country, who fought, risked their lives, and even died to keep us and the people of our world free. It is a time to honor the brave souls who were wounded, killed, or pushed past their limits, for me and you. Some choose to fight, others were drafted, but the bravery of them all is incredible. My great-uncle Benjamin Hardisty, was wounded in battle, but lived to see 60 more years of life, in the love of his family. He died earlier this year.

Veterans Day is not just for those who survived the wars of our country, but for those who died for it as well. Some people want the soldiers to pull back from Iraq, but if our freedom is worth fighting and dying for, isn't theirs?

Veterans Day is for the ones who died, survived, and are fighting for our country right now. Not just the soldiers fighting, but the great minds leading us. Many say, "forget about Bin Laden." Have they forgotten about 9/11? We need to support President Bush and the soldiers, not looking for someone to blame, so maybe there will be more surviving veterans at the end of this war. Some say, "we don't need this war," but how many more would have died without it? About 3 soldiers die in Iraq every day. On 9/11 more than 5,000 died in one day. We do need this war.

So this Veterans Day, send a card to a soldier, a veteran, or a spouse of a deceased veteran, because they are willing to die for you. You can at least send a card.

By Marina Pei

Veterans Day is a day to celebrate the people who won World War I. We need to celebrate our freedom thanks to them. The people who won the World War deserve a celebration.

By Nora Maldonado

Veterans Day is when we remember those who have done a lot for us and who have been in the military or war. Because if it weren't for them we wouldn't have this much freedom. Those who have done everything for us, we thank them.

By Morgan Mayfield

This is a special day set aside to honor the men and women who served in the military. They are recognized for their dedication and bravery while fighting for our rights and freedom. Many served during times of war and many died. Veterans Day allows us to show our appreciation for them and for helping America become the home of the free.

By Tyler Kelley

Veterans Day means to me that on that day we are honoring all who served and died for our country. Veterans Day means a lot to me because I have many relatives who have served in every war from World War 1 to the Viet Nam War. A few have died while serving. Veterans need to be honored all the time, not just on Veterans Day. It means a lot to me on Memorial Day, when they put flags on the veterans graves.

By Randy Reeser

Veterans are people we should honor. We should honor them because they risked their lives for us. Honor is the least we can give. Without veterans we wouldn't be free. We couldn't say what we wanted to say. They put their lives on the line for us.

By Jose Posada

Veterans Day means to me a day of respectfulness, and to honor those who fight by night and day. People who risk their lives for the country and for other important things. Veterans are one thing we should be proud of because they die and their families miss them a lot. Veterans should be remembered for what they did and are still doing for the country.

by T.J. Serna

Veterans Day means a lot to me because my grandpa is a veteran. He passed away about 5 years ago. He was a POW in Germany. So Veterans Day means a lot more to me than it might for other people because a lot of my family was in the military. I think we should all say prayers for those who have served and for the families of those who have passed on.

by Erin Scanlon

Veterans Day is important because you are able to express your good feelings about veterans who have fought for freedom for our country. Although, we take many veterans for granted, we should instead thank them for their dedication, time and effort, and their courage to fight for our country.

by Stormy Horner

Veterans Day is a time of honor to the armies of America who fought for our country's freedom. For the soldiers who died, respect for risking and giving their lives. Just take a second and think. Without them, we would still be under slavery, under someone else's rule. The Americas would be even more chaotic than it is today.

by Fallon Scanlan

Veterans Day is important because we should honor our veterans because they risk their lives for our freedom and safety. They make our country safe by fighting terrorists and our country is very lucky to have such dedicated men and women.

by Delanie Crist

When someone in your family is a veteran, you are very grateful that they got to come home. Other people aren't as lucky. These people probably have the greatest appreciation for Veterans Day - a day they remember that person and what he did for us. I know it would be hard to leave home like the veterans did. I would like to tell the veterans thank you.

by Koltan Miller

I think it is important to thank the men and women who risked their lives but lived through all the battles and wars that have happened since the arrival of the Pilgrims. I think everyone should take the time to celebrate the independence of our country, remember those who died and thank those who still live today.

Lady Spikers win regional, head to state

The Texico Lady Spikers are heading to state this week at Albuquerque.

They won the regional championship at home by beating Dexter and Eunice to run their season record to 18-5.

In the Friday semi-final, they destroyed the Lady Demons, 26-24, 25-19, 20-25, 25-20.

Texico had 48 kills, 41 assists, 16 aces and 12 blocks. "It was a huge win. Dexter is a very good team that played very well. We were very nervous to start with but were able to overcome the jitters and played well. The girls stepped up and made the plays when we needed them," said Coach Michael Littlejohn.

In the Saturday final, the Lady Spikers demolished Eunice, 25-16, 25-14, 25-20.

"Texico had 32 kills, 29 assists, 19 aces and 10 blocks. "We came out relaxed and never looked back. We never trailed by more than a point and led by as many as 10," said Littlejohn.

Here is how the state tourney works:

On Nov. 9, Class AA Pool Play is held at Cibola High School in Rio Rancho. These games determine the seeding for the state tourney Nov. 10-12.

In the pool play, teams play two sets to 15. Texico plays Questa at 5 p.m.; Crownpoint at 7 p.m., and Tularosa at 7:40 p.m.

of 3 armies with 33 divisions. The German force consisted of two panzer armies with 29 divisions. This was to become the greatest battle ever fought by the U.S. Army.

When the onslaught began, the American GI's in their foxholes prayed to the Lord as the Germans rushed toward them like madmen, but soon the Germans discovered the determination and bravery of these American soldiers. The real story of the Battle of the Bulge is the story of the determination of these soldiers.

For the most part these men were citizen soldiers, draftees, young men hardly more than boys, but they were as tough as the times in which they were raised, the times of the Great Depression. These were the men who carried out the orders of the commanders and engaged the Germans in mortal combat. Some of these soldiers still had peach fuzz on their upper lips, too young to even shave, but they were competent and disciplined in their automatic reactions to war that were not learned in school.

Around their necks hung their dog tags and in their pockets, next to their hearts, a picture of their sweethearts back home. The battle was very personal for them. Their primary concern was the task of fighting and staying alive. These men did not think of the battle in terms of the big picture. They were concerned only with the chaos of the moment. They knew the advantage of holding the high ground and the protection of the trench and foxhole.

And they knew the fear of having artillery rounds falling like raindrops in the snow around them. They knew the overwhelming loneliness of the battlefield and the feeling of unbelievable exhaustion. The roar of battle continued around the clock for 43 days and if sleep came for these warriors, it was short lived and fitful. At times, these sleep deprived warriors thought they couldn't make their bodies continue, but they knew they must or die. It was a hell that had to be endured and they endured it even when their bodies were numb and chilled to the bone.

These were the soldiers who, when their officers lay dead, held the enemy at bay. For a brief moment in history these men held our nation's destiny in their hands. They did not fail. They achieved victory, but the cost of this victory was high. There on that cold, brutal field of battle 19,000 young Americans gave their lives. In addition over 23,000 American soldiers were captured during the battle.

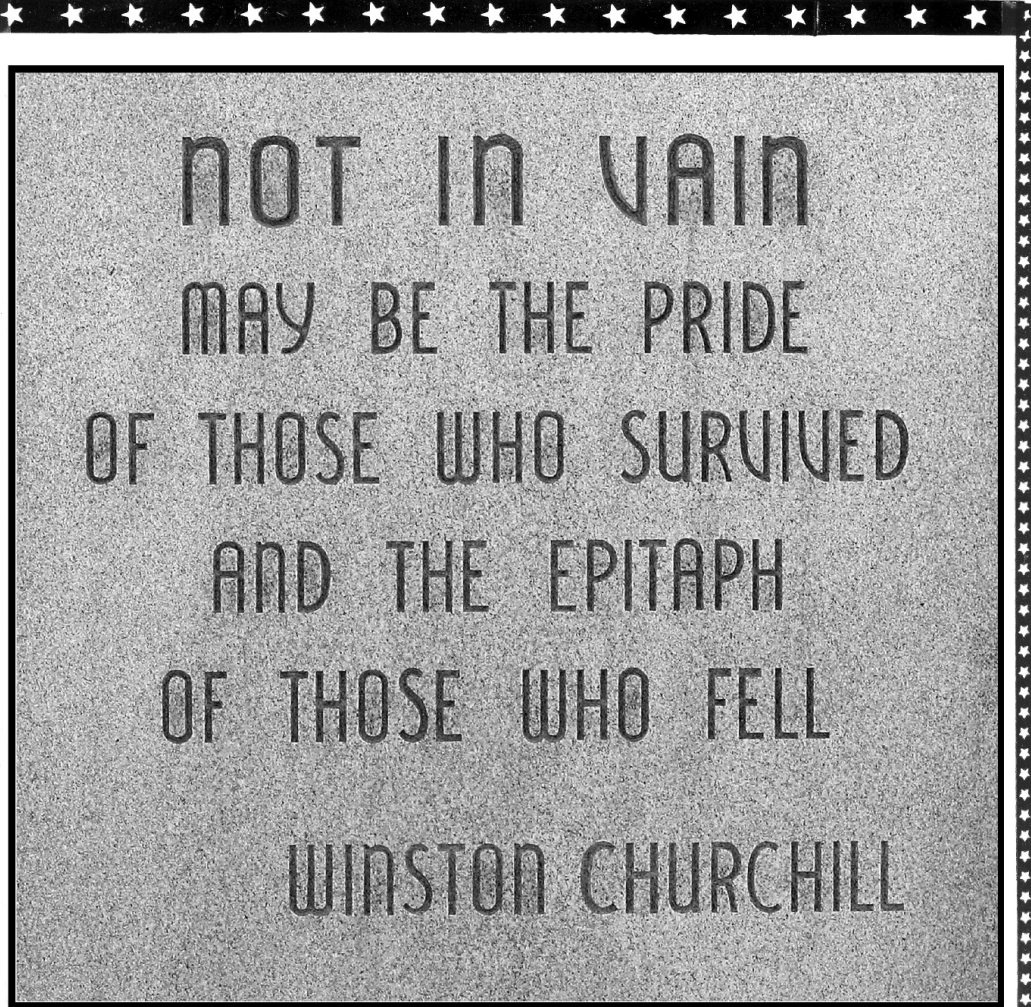

Purple Hearts were awarded by the thousands for the 81,000 young Americans whose blood stained the snow on that field of battle. To this very day, on the hills of the Ardennes, the dust of American soldiers who were listed as "missing and unaccounted for" still lies.

Today let us remember those brave young soldiers who paid the ultimate price in order to pass "Old Glory" on to the next generation and to ensure that America remained a great nation, "under God with liberty and justice for all." Because of them, the Nazi's visions of glory drifted away like the smoke the battlefield. When the smoke cleared away 120,000 enemy soldiers lay cold in the snow and over 800 enemy tanks were burning in the hills of Ardennes.

The bulge was no more! With the job done these men returned home to their sweethearts and their place in history was secured as the "greatest generation." The generation that helped save the things we hold dear. They did it for the love of their country and the meager pay of the soldier.

Over 60 years have passed since that great battle. The woods of the Ardennes are silent now and only memories remain. The warriors of the "greatest generation" who were young, strong, and determined are old men now and many have already left this stage of life. At the present time, the ones who remain are dying at a rate of approximately 1,500 per day. As these former soldiers make their final curtain call, may we remember that our country was truly blessed to have such men as these. May God bless them everyone and may God bless the USA!

Submitted by Jack Patterson, 94th Infantry Division, Third Army, World War II

That famous saying is highlighted on the Parmer County Veterans Memorial in the Farwell City Park, honoring those veterans who died during our nation's wars.

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce will conduct a special ceremony at 11 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 11, at the Farwell High School auditorium. We encourage all our folks to take a minute and attend this ceremony, to pay homage to those who died so that our nation would stay free, and to our living veterans who attend this ceremony.

Help honor those who served, and help keep alive our nation's glorious heritage.

of 3 armies with 33 divisions. The German force consisted of two panzer armies with 29 divisions. This was to become the greatest battle ever fought by the U.S. Army.

When the onslaught began, the American GI's in their foxholes prayed to the Lord as the Germans rushed toward them like madmen, but soon the Germans discovered the determination and bravery of these American soldiers. The real story of the Battle of the Bulge is the story of the determination of these soldiers.

For the most part these men were citizen soldiers, draftees, young men hardly more than boys, but they were as tough as the times in which they were raised, the times of the Great Depression. These were the men who carried out the orders of the commanders and engaged the Germans in mortal combat. Some of these soldiers still had peach fuzz on their upper lips, too young to even shave, but they were competent and disciplined in their automatic reactions to war that were not learned in school.

Around their necks hung their dog tags and in their pockets, next to their hearts, a picture of their sweethearts back home. The battle was very personal for them. Their primary concern was the task of fighting and staying alive. These men did not think of the battle in terms of the big picture. They were concerned only with the chaos of the moment. They knew the advantage of holding the high ground and the protection of the trench and foxhole.

And they knew the fear of having artillery rounds falling like raindrops in the snow around them. They knew the overwhelming loneliness of the battlefield and the feeling of unbelievable exhaustion. The roar of battle continued around the clock for 43 days and if sleep came for these warriors, it was short lived and fitful. At times, these sleep deprived warriors thought they couldn't make their bodies continue, but they knew they must or die. It was a hell that had to be endured and they endured it even when their bodies were numb and chilled to the bone.

These were the soldiers who, when their officers lay dead, held the enemy at bay. For a brief moment in history these men held our nation's destiny in their hands. They did not fail. They achieved victory, but the cost of this victory was high. There on that cold, brutal field of battle 19,000 young Americans gave their lives. In addition over 23,000 American soldiers were captured during the battle.

Purple Hearts were awarded by the thousands for the 81,000 young Americans whose blood stained the snow on that field of battle. To this very day, on the hills of the Ardennes, the dust of American soldiers who were listed as "missing and unaccounted for" still lies.

Today let us remember those brave young soldiers who paid the ultimate price in order to pass "Old Glory" on to the next generation and to ensure that America remained a great nation, "under God with liberty and justice for all." Because of them, the Nazi's visions of glory drifted away like the smoke the battlefield. When the smoke cleared away 120,000 enemy soldiers lay cold in the snow and over 800 enemy tanks were burning in the hills of Ardennes.

The bulge was no more! With the job done these men returned home to their sweethearts and their place in history was secured as the "greatest generation." The generation that helped save the things we hold dear. They did it for the love of their country and the meager pay of the soldier.

Over 60 years have passed since that great battle. The woods of the Ardennes are silent now and only memories remain. The warriors of the "greatest generation" who were young, strong, and determined are old men now and many have already left this stage of life. At the present time, the ones who remain are dying at a rate of approximately 1,500 per day. As these former soldiers make their final curtain call, may we remember that our country was truly blessed to have such men as these. May God bless them everyone and may God bless the USA!

Expressing gratitude

By Cortin Foreman

Veterans Day is a day we stand back and look at the men and women that have fought in war for their people. This is their day. They go out and fight for us. Do you see us complain? No, you do not. We should thank them for going out and fighting for us. Thanks Veterans!

By Mitchell Harrison

Veterans Day means a day of celebration for the brave men and women of our beautiful country, who fought, risked their lives, and even died to keep us and the people of our world free. It is a time to honor the brave souls who were wounded, killed, or pushed past their limits, for me and you. Some choose to fight, others were drafted, but the bravery of them all is incredible. My great-uncle Benjamin Hardisty, was wounded in battle, but lived to see 60 more years of life, in the love of his family. He died earlier this year.

Veterans Day is not just for those who survived the wars of our country, but for those who died for it as well. Some people want the soldiers to pull back from Iraq, but if our freedom is worth fighting and dying for, isn't theirs?

Veterans Day is for the ones who died, survived, and are fighting for our country right now. Not just the soldiers fighting, but the great minds leading us. Many say, "forget about Bin Laden." Have they forgotten about 9/11? We need to support President Bush and the soldiers, not looking for someone to blame, so maybe there will be more surviving veterans at the end of this war. Some say, "we don't need this war," but how many more would have died without it? About 3 soldiers die in Iraq every day. On 9/11 more than 5,000 died in one day. We do need this war.

So this Veterans Day, send a card to a soldier, a veteran, or a spouse of a deceased veteran, because they are willing to die for you. You can at least send a card.

By Marina Pei

Veterans Day is a day to celebrate the people who won World War I. We need to celebrate our freedom thanks to them. The people who won the World War deserve a celebration.

By Nora Maldonado

Veterans Day is when we remember those who have done a lot for us and who have been in the military or war. Because if it weren't for them we wouldn't have this much freedom. Those who have done everything for us, we thank them.

By Morgan Mayfield

This is a special day set aside to honor the men and women who served in the military. They are recognized for their dedication and bravery while fighting for our rights and freedom. Many served during times of war and many died. Veterans Day allows us to show our appreciation for them and for helping America become the home of the free.

By Tyler Kelley

Veterans Day means to me that on that day we are honoring all who served and died for our country. Veterans Day means a lot to me because I have many relatives who have served in every war from World War 1 to the Viet Nam War. A few have died while serving. Veterans need to be honored all the time, not just on Veterans Day. It means a lot to me on Memorial Day, when they put flags on the veterans graves.

By Randy Reeser

Veterans are people we should honor. We should honor them because they risked their lives for us. Honor is the least we can give. Without veterans we wouldn't be free. We couldn't say what we wanted to say. They put their lives on the line for us.

By Jose Posada

Veterans Day means to me a day of respectfulness, and to honor those who fight by night and day. People who risk their lives for the country and for other important things. Veterans are one thing we should be proud of because they die and their families miss them a lot. Veterans should be remembered for what they did and are still doing for the country.

by T.J. Serna

Veterans Day means a lot to me because my grandpa is a veteran. He passed away about 5 years ago. He was a POW in Germany. So Veterans Day means a lot more to me than it might for other people because a lot of my family was in the military. I think we should all say prayers for those who have served and for the families of those who have passed on.

by Erin Scanlon

Veterans Day is important because you are able to express your good feelings about veterans who have fought for freedom for our country. Although, we take many veterans for granted, we should instead thank them for their dedication, time and effort, and their courage to fight for our country.

by Stormy Horner

Veterans Day is a time of honor to the armies of America who fought for our country's freedom. For the soldiers who died, respect for risking and giving their lives. Just take a second and think. Without them, we would still be under slavery, under someone else's rule. The Americas would be even more chaotic than it is today.

by Fallon Scanlan

Veterans Day is important because we should honor our veterans because they risk their lives for our freedom and safety. They make our country safe by fighting terrorists and our country is very lucky to have such dedicated men and women.

by Delanie Crist

When someone in your family is a veteran, you are very grateful that they got to come home. Other people aren't as lucky. These people probably have the greatest appreciation for Veterans Day - a day they remember that person and what he did for us. I know it would be hard to leave home like the veterans did. I would like to tell the veterans thank you.

by Koltan Miller

I think it is important to thank the men and women who risked their lives but lived through all the battles and wars that have happened since the arrival of the Pilgrims. I think everyone should take the time to celebrate the independence of our country, remember those who died and thank those who still live today.

Lady Spikers win regional, head to state

The Texico Lady Spikers are heading to state this week at Albuquerque.

They won the regional championship at home by beating Dexter and Eunice to run their season record to 18-5.

In the Friday semi-final, they destroyed the Lady Demons, 26-24, 25-19, 20-25, 25-20.

Texico had 48 kills, 41 assists, 16 aces and 12 blocks.

"It was a huge win. Dexter is a very good team that played very well. We were very nervous to start with but were able to overcome the jitters and played well. The girls stepped up and made the plays when we needed them," said Coach Michael Littlejohn.

In the Saturday final, the Lady Spikers demolished Eunice, 25-16, 25-14, 25-20.

"Texico had 32 kills, 29 assists, 19 aces and 10 blocks.

"We came out relaxed and never looked back. We never trailed by more than a point and led by as many as 10," said Littlejohn.

Here is how the state tourney works:

On Nov. 9, Class AA Pool Play is held at Cibola High School in Rio Rancho. These games determine the seeding for the state tourney Nov. 10-12.

In the pool play, teams play two sets to 15. Texico plays Questa at 5 p.m.; Crownpoint at 7 p.m., and Tularosa at 7:40 p.m.

Expressing gratitude

By Erik Trevizo

I'm happy to have them because they protected us. They are suffering over at the war, trying to make us feel great. They are also away from their families and they have to be really sad.

They are very brave for doing all these things that I don't think I could ever do.

By D'nae Berry

A day of freedom. Why? Because without the veterans, the U.S. would not be free! And without freedom we would not have rights! To some of you, rights may mean the ability to have pets, to work where you want to, to live in the community of your choice.

Veterans Day symbolizes love because for men and women to have enough pride in their country and enough courage to go into war for the sake of their country knowing they may never come home, means they must have a love for their country.

We as Americans must take pride in our country, too. Taking pride doesn't mean everyone needs to go sign up for the army, but the ones who do we need to honor! Because if we think about it, life wouldn't be the way it is and we wouldn't feel as safe as we do without the help of veterans.

By Rustin Harris

Veterans are very special people to our country. Without veterans, we would not be a free country. On Veterans Day, we are thanking them for the treacherous times of war that they have been through. We don't just thank the ones who are still alive, we thank all of them, even the ones that have died in battle. We thank the ones that went to war but have never returned. We thank the ones that have no names. Because of veterans, our country is still free, and because of those serving right now, our country will remain free.

By Connor Doolittle

Veterans Day is a day to honor the men and women who fought for our freedom. These men and women miss out on so many things in our world because they're busy fighting for us. We sometimes take for granted our freedom when we need to think about the people fighting for it. Veterans Day is sometimes a reminder to remember those who are fighting to keep us safe and free. Freedom is a great thing, but remember who is fighting for it.

By Josh Trujillo

Veterans Day honors those people in the war who gave their life to keep this country free. They mean a lot for everybody in the country.

I respect and honor the veterans with all my heart. Veterans Day also means to celebrate for the people who made us free to go where ever and say what ever we want. They were good people and I wish that no one had to die, and that those people could be sitting home right now and having a normal life. I don't know why everybody couldn't just get along. Well that is what Veterans Day means to me and I hope that we won't have any more wars again.

By Chelsy Luce,

Veterans Day is very important to me because it is about the men and women that fought for our country. Without them we would be slaves and we would not have this land that we live in today. It is a time to thank all of the people that fought and thank the lord for those that we still have to love and cherish for the rest of our lives. Be so very thankful, and thank the Lord.

By Oscar Walls

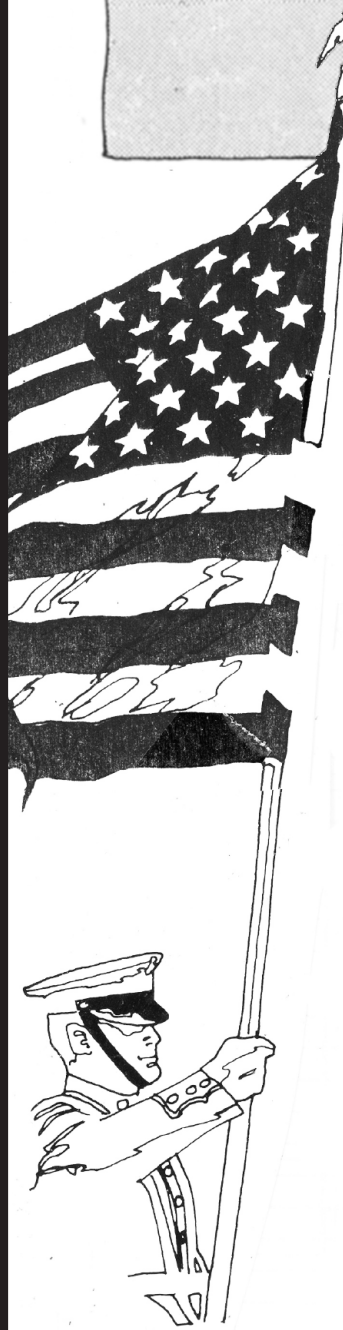

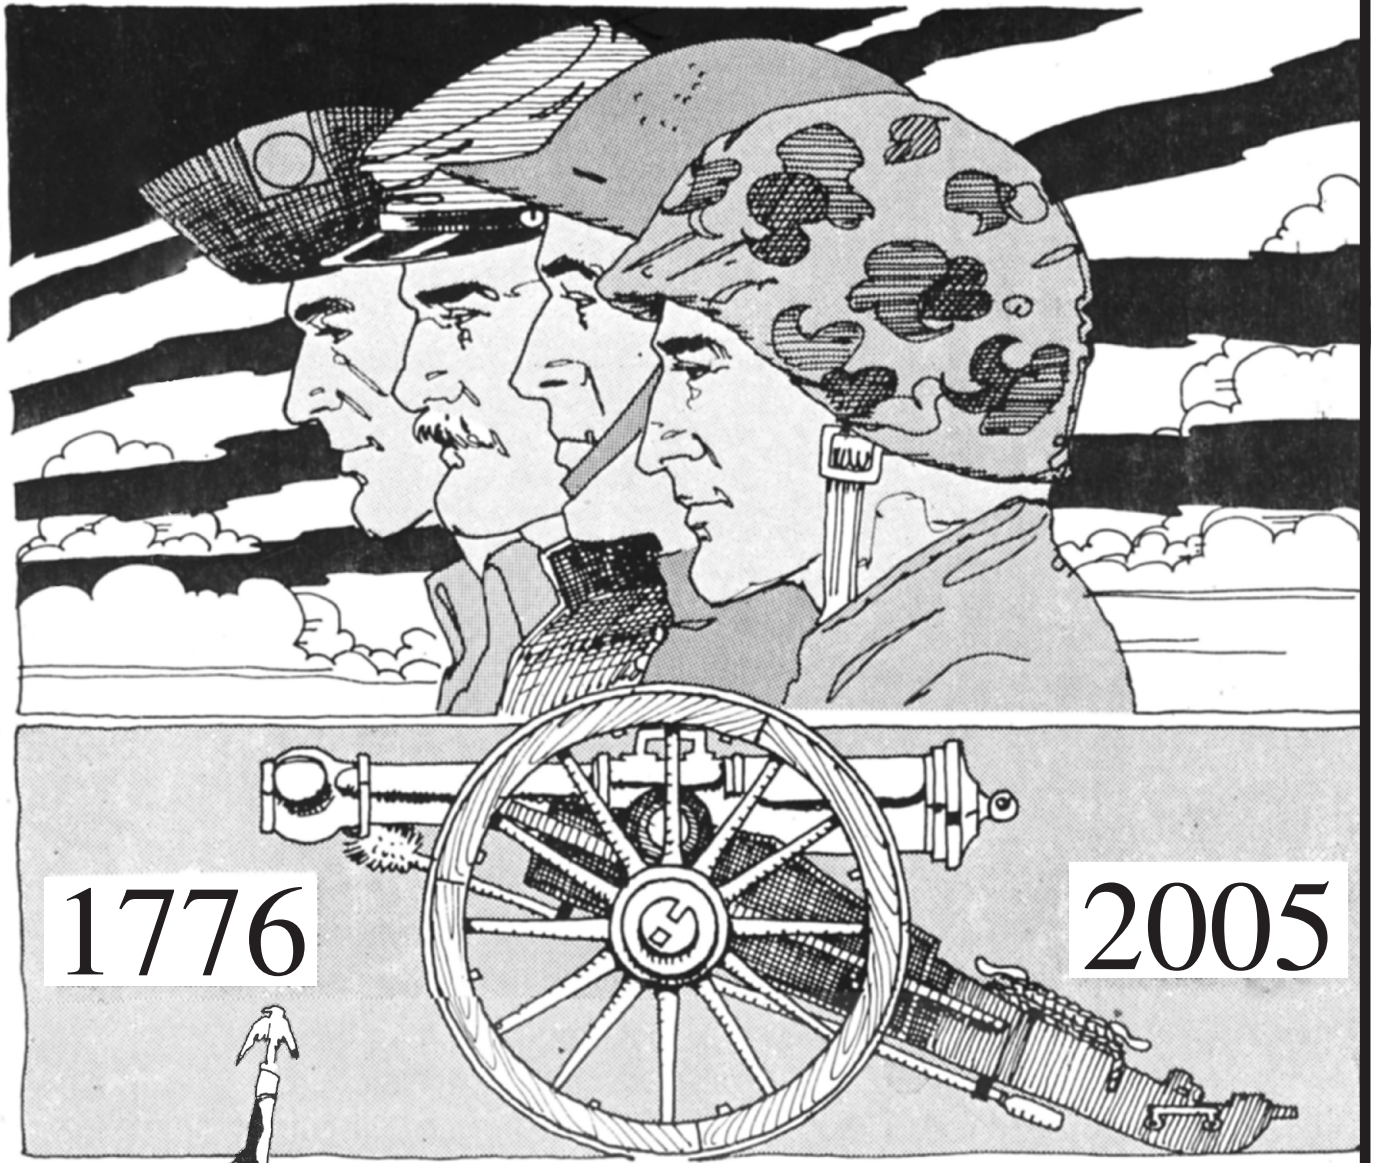

Veterans deserve to have a day all about them and that is how it should be. Many families and people suffer the deaths of their veteran relatives. I did have a grandfather who fought in World War II, fortunately, he did not perish in the battle, but was wounded and received an honorable discharge and was awarded a purple heart.

Some veterans live to tell tales of their battles and show off their battle scars to relatives and other veterans. Veterans Day fills people with happiness, and also sadness. To me, both. And other people? Both, too.

By Kris Moore

I think we celebrate and give thanks to veterans because if it wasn't for them we would not be free, we would be slaves, we would have no right to do anything, we would be captive of people who would rather kill one another than save one another, like the terrorists that destroyed the twin towers on 9/11. That is why I think we should have a Veterans Day and should give thanks to those veterans who have risked their lives to make ours better.

HONOR OUR VETERANS

Veterans Day...a time set aside to remember and reflect upon the courage and steadfastness of all the members of our armed forces throughout our nation's history who have so honorably served their country in time of need.

We ask all to join us in tribute to these gallant men and women. They live on in our hearts; we are eternally grateful. Let us reaffirm our devotion to the ideals for which they fought and died in ongoing tribute to them all.

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce will conduct a very special Veterans Day ceremony at the Farwell High School auditorium at 11 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 11.

We hope you attend.

Vaughan update

Braden Vaughan, who starred in sports at Texico High, now attends Hardin-Simmons University and is a freshman on the varsity football team. He plays tight end.

L.J. Jenkins the Texico bull rider who participated in the National Finals Rodeo the past two weeks in Las Vegas, got some support by Texico kids who visited. Below, from left, are Skyla Cockerham, Jenkins, Curtis Williams and Shelby Cockerham. Above is their Texico sign that made it onto TV; Jenni Williams is in this photo. Jenkins suffered a bad bruise after being thrown off a bull in a freak accident. The clown tripped and fell into him, with the bull running over both of them. At the nationals, L.J. placed in 3 rounds and made some money.

6th at state

Farwell debaters compete

On Oct. 29, the Farwell High speech and debate teams competed in Amarillo. In LD Debate, Alicia Porter won 1 debate and lost 2 rounds. Ashleigh Mesman, a 2nd year debater, went 2-1 in the preliminary rounds and broke to quarterfinals. She received 2 TFA qualifier points due to the tourney having so many participants. Ashleigh now has 5 total TFA points and needs 8 to qualify for the state tourney in March. The LD topic will change for November and December to judicial activism. In CX Debate, Lauren Beaubien and Blake O'Hare went 1-2 in the prelims. Cameron Kirkland and Kade Foster went 2-1 in the prelims. Our senior debate team of Jon Baubien and Jourdan Kirkland won 2 rounds and lost 1 in the prelims. Their high speaker points qualified them to the quarterfinals, where they lost. However, they received 2 TFA qualifier points.

The importance of Veterans Day

I hope you folks enjoy the Veterans Day stories and ads in today's Tribune. We asked for essays from our four schools -- Farwell, Texico, Bovina and Lazbuddie.

We like to make this issue special and focus on the importance of the holiday.

When you read some of the youths' essays, I hope you feel good about their views, knowing they will be the leaders of tomorrow.

But the importance of stressing what our veterans have done for our nation must continue. Because not everyone fully understands the holiday's significance.

For example, we received one student's essay that said this:

"To be honest, Veterans Day does not mean much to me. For one thing, it just seems like any other day. I appreciate what all of the veterans have done for our country and how they fought for our freedom, but the day does not mean anything to me."

I appreciate that youth's candor. And what it says to me is that we must do a better job of letting our youths understand the importance of Veterans Day.

Men and women have given their lives for our nation ... for us.

We must never forget those sacrifices and must always honor their memories.

From Rob Pomper. I was really impressed last week with Farwell Junior High's One Act Play version of "The Wizard of Oz."

The kids really knew their lines and the acting was superb. If they can keep that up at competition, I cannot imagine anything but a win.

The "Wizard of Oz" is a story that everyone knows. The Judy Garland version of the film is one of the greatest movies ever made, and will forever be a classic. It was one of the first movies to use color to help tell a story. If you haven't watched it in a while, put it on your list again.

They start out in rural Kansas, with all of the filming in black and white. When Dorothy is picked up by the tornado, the movie switches to color. Quite brilliant.

However, the L. Frank Baum book and the movie differ in many points.

Hollywood did a good job, but there are a lot of places that they had to cut or add to scenes to make a better movie.

This brings me back to Farwell's auditorium.

The FJH troupe did a version of the story that was much, much closer to the book. Due to time constraints (40 minutes maximum for competition) they had to make some cuts, but much of the original story came through.

Great job, guys, and good luck at competition.

By the way, one of my favorite parts of the book that didn't make the movie was when Dorothy and friends get to the Emerald City of Oz for the first time. The city really isn't green at all, but the Wizard forces everyone in town, including visitors, to lock green glasses onto their head so that the city appears to be emerald.

Fascinating.

Seeing how busy the new Parmer County Jail has been shows what a good decision it was by the Parmer County Commissioners to build it.

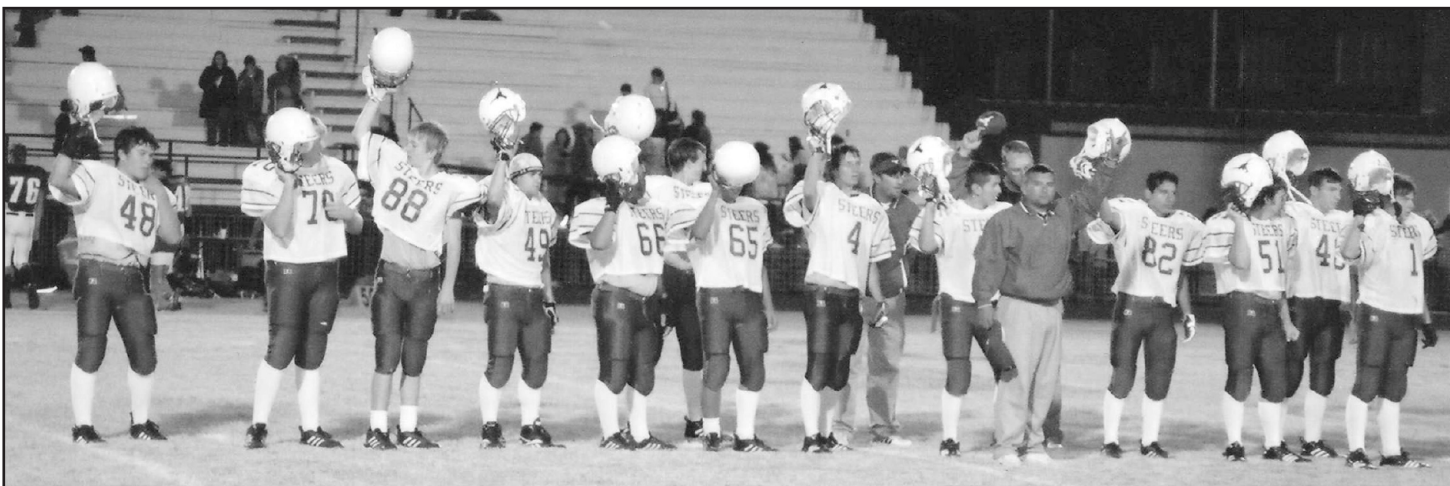

And a special "job well done" should go to County Sheriff Randy Geris for spearheading the project.

We got a nice letter last week from area historian Don McAlavy, who moved to St. Petersburg, Fla., a couple of years ago.

He will periodically send columns about our area -- watch for one later this month.

Don said he and his wife

Steers end season with victory

The Farwell Steers ended the campaign with a 21-6 victory over Springlake-Earth there Friday.

The Steers ended 3-2 in district, in 3rd place.

The first half was a defensive struggle. Good tackles were made by Matthew Edwards and Colby Norton. Roper Smith had a QB sack -- he participated in four of them.

Derrick Chandler completed some short passes to Brett Howard and Norton, and Edwards and Logan McFarland had a couple of strong runs.

Farwell did have a field goal attempt but it missed.

The second half was different as the Steers put three TDs up on the board to S-E's 1.

In the 3rd quarter, McFarland busted loose for about 15 yards. Edwards followed that up with runs of 15 and 20. Chandler then kept for a 4-yard TD. The McFarland kick made it 7-0.

S-E was held and punted. Edwards gathered it in and returned it for a TD, but it was called back due to penalty.

Chandler ran for 15. Then he hit a deep pass to Howard. Edwards scored on a long run to up Farwell's lead to 13-zip.

S-E returned the kick to near midfield. Mario Vidaurri had a QB sack.

In the 4th quarter, Edwards and McFarland had strong runs. Chandler hit a big pass to Norton. Norton then ran for a big gain on a reverse play. McFarland had another strong run but Farwell was held on 4th down deep in S-E territory.

Luis Olmos recovered a fumble. Then McFarland raced in from 15 yards out for the score. Edwards ran in the 2-point conversion and it was 21-0.

Steers of the Week

Coach Thompson named as Steers of the Week for their play against Springlake-Earth: Matthew Edwards, Roper Smith, Logan McFarland, Colton Sudderth and Luis Olmos.

Mario Vidaurri and Juan Carlos Vidaurri combined on a QB sack. But S-E hit a long pass, leading to a decided to move after her 94-year-old father died. They had no more family here.

So they sold their home on the Pleasant Hill highway and headed east, nearer their children and grandchildren.

Don noted that Texico-Farwell has had some of the best musicians in Parmer and Curry counties over the years.

I agree to that!

Watching Texico dismantle Questa on Saturday brought to mind changes I would like to see in both Texas and New Mexico football playoff formats.

Texico is in a class with about 15 other football teams. Instead of 8 teams making the state playoffs, I think it should just be 4 teams -- district champions.

These quarter-final slaughters really get to me.

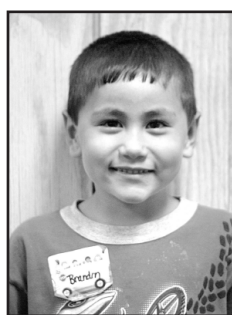

I remember several years ago when Questa was in the state playoffs -- with a 1-9 record. It was embarrassing to see them "play" Texico that year.

And starting next year in Texas, the top three teams in each Class 1A district will be in the state playoffs.

And why? More money for the state groups overseeing high school athletics.

That's awful.

Wolverines win quarter-final over Questa; next up is Capitan

The Texico Wolverines rolled to an easy 53-0 slaughter of Questa in the state playoff quarter-finals Saturday at home.

There was a negative, though. Halfback Eddy Segovia went out on the first offensive play with a severe ankle injury.

But the Wolverines didn't miss a tick because Justin Garrison, who had missed the past few games due to injury, moved into the H-back position and had an outstanding game.

The Wolverines advance to the state semi-finals with a game at Capitan at 7 p.m. mt on Friday.

Questa opened with 3 and out. The ball snap for the punt went over the punter's head, and he kicked it out of the end zone for a safety and a 2-0 Texico lead.

Brandon Bare returned the kick to the Questa 39, but Texico lost a fumble. Michael Johnson had a strong tackle and Zane Anderson intercepted near midfield, returning it to the Questa 15.

Garrison ran for 9 and 5, and Anderson plunged over from the 1 for an 8-0 lead at 5:17.

Questa started at its 35. Aaron Vaughan had a strong tackle. Questa punted and Weston Casey had a good return. Texico lost a fumble, Anderson and Kyle Teitz had good tackles. Garrison intercepted and returned it to the Questa 35.

Garrison ran for 8, Anderson for 10 and Dustin McDaniel for 5 as the 1st quarter ended.

An Anderson pass to Ricky Burns gained 12. Garrison ran for 9, but Texico lost its 3rd fumble. Vaughan and Ethan McDaniel had strong tackles. Casey returned the punt to the Questa 23.

Bare ran for 9, then for a 9-yard TD and a 14-0 lead at 7:53.

Questa was held and punted. The Wolverines moved the ball with ease on the ground, then Anderson hit a 27-yard pass to Burns, tackled at the 1. Anderson scored, and kicked the extra point and a 21-0 lead at 1:57.

Garrison intercepted and returned it to the Questa 8. Billy Scott scored from the 2 with a minute left in the half.

Casey Crist returned the kick to midfield. Garrison ran for 33, 8 and 4. Carlos Meza ran for 7. Anderson scored from the 1 for the 3rd time at 8:36 and a 33-0 lead.

Andrew Castillo had a good tackle of the kick returner at the Questa 40. Questa punted and Casey returned it to midfield. Bare ran for 14, Garrison for 8, Bare for 10, and Garrison for a 5-yard TD. The Anderson kick made it 40-0 at 6:14, and the lock was allowed to run, shortening the game.

Scott intercepted. Casey gained 10 and Meza 7. Garrison ran for a 43-yard TD. The Anderson kick made it 47-0 as the 3rd quarter ended.

On defense, Brett Anderson had a good tackle. Casey and Vaughan combined on a QB sack for a 10-yard loss.

Wolverines of the Week

Coach Prokop named as Wolverines of the Week for their play against Questa: Justin Garrison, Zane Anderson, Aaron Vaughan and Billy Scott.

Crist was now at Texico QB. Casey had a huge run. And Garrison scored from 6 yards out with 37 seconds left.

Crist intercepted late in the game.
Team stats: 1st downs, Texico 20, Questa 5; rushing yards, Texico 388, Questa 64; passing yards, Texico 39, Questa 32.

Thank you!

Expressing gratitude

By Kory Jennings:

Veteran's Day to me means that the United States should be extremely thankful that we have had courageous veterans that have sacrificed their very own lives to fight for their country and protect the people in it.

I know that I am glad that we have a day for the men and women that showed their patriotism and went to fight in a war.

We should all honor the people that showed their heroism and fought for this great nation to be free and an independent country.

I will always remember and thank the daring soldiers who fought in a war and most important, the soldiers who risked their lives to protect us and who died in battle. We should all thank the soldiers who sacrificed their lives to fight for their country. "Thank you."

by Keegan Langford
What is Veteran's Day?

Some say it is a day of peace others honor, and still others remembrance. On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, the world rejoiced!

This day still burns strong in American hearts. Multitudes of soldiers sacrificed their lives but many remain to tell their stories.

The origin of this wonderful holiday is crucial information. Where did it come from? What is it for? On Nov. 11, 1918, the war that ended all wars was over. An armistice was signed declaring the fighting through.

Then in 1938, Americans all over voted this joyous day a federal holiday. I think this was a great decision because these heroes deserve something in return.

During 1953, Armistice Day was changed to Veteran's Day. To this day, this great event is still known as Veteran's Day.

Why do we celebrate and what is the reason? The reason this day is such a big deal is because we need to honor those brave veterans. They deserve to be honored by people all over this huge nation.

Also, we give them not only respect but gratitude. I hope that all Americans respect these great figures. Probably the main reason we keep this day is to continue our quest for peace worldwide.

That's the reason why America has troops in Iraq right now. By trying to be peaceful, America is setting a good example for the rest of the world.

How do we celebrate this event? Now, that we know it actually is important. From the town of Farwell to big cities like New York, ceremonies are held. Many people who have served during war give speeches on this national holiday.

Children in school speak to their class, or veterans speak in front of monstrous crowds. Parades happen everywhere. If you flip on the television, you are bound to see one going on somewhere.

All in all, I believe Veteran's Day is a very important day. Many people value this day in their hearts.

Do you?

by Rane Carpenter
Do you know a veteran?

Veterans Day was first made a holiday at the end of World War I but then it was called Armistice Day. It became a legal holiday in 1938, then in 1953 its name was changed to Veterans Day.

Veterans Day is to honor veterans with respect and gratitude for fighting for our country. We still celebrate this day because the people of our country still believe in fighting for peace and freedom.

We celebrate Veterans Day by having ceremonies, speeches and parades. I believe that we should always fight for peace and freedom in our country. Without these soldiers that we honor on Veterans Day, and the soldiers who gave their lives, our country would not be the same.

By Damian McWhorter

I appreciate veterans because they are brave men and women who fought to keep our country safe; because they were our only hope for freedom for our country as well as others; because they left their families to serve their country; because they never gave up, even when times were hard and seemed hopeless, they pushed on; because they knew their country was depending on them.

Veterans are important because they were the ones who helped the wounded in the hospital, who stood by their friends' side all the way to the end, who protected their selves and their comrades life, who rescued men, women and children from enemy prisons, and who respected other cultures as well as their own and who gave their last piece of bread to the wounded or gave shelter to those who's homes were destroyed in the fighting and who comforted the families whose loved ones had died.

By Morgan Pinnell

Veterans Day is important because if we didn't have veterans then we wouldn't have freedom. So we want our freedom, right? Well then we need to honor them to thank them for fighting for our freedom. Veterans will always be in my life because I like freedom. Just think what it would be like if we didn't have veterans or even freedom. Do you want to be like Afghanistan and not have freedom? Veterans are people who will always mean something very important to me.

Mauro Vargas

It means a day of celebration and happiness for all the things that veterans did to have our country strong and have the freedom to do things that other countries cannot do. Veterans had to fight in war and go through a lot of pain in losing friends and family. So, when Veterans Day comes, you should stop and think what they did for us.

By Garrett Foote

It is a day to celebrate for our brave soldiers out there fighting for our country. Trying to give us better lives here in America. They are risking their lives to help our country. Having to miss holidays with their families. Without those brave soldiers we wouldn't have our independence. Don't forget who is out there fighting for us, so we can have better lives.

By Destiny Sena

To me, Veterans Day is a very appreciative day because without that day, how can we show our honor and appreciation. Without our veterans, we would have never got free. From me to all those veterans out there, thank you.

By Tyler Strickland

Veterans Day is a holiday where the politicians right down to the local level receive a day off of work with pay. A day to relax and have fun. I think a lot of veterans will have to go to work that day and many other holidays. I also think we should be proud for the people who fought for our country. Also, if it weren't for the veterans we wouldn't have any freedom! I love all the veterans alive and dead. It's a day to sit down and think what they did for all of us. And still are doing today.

By Lucas Walthers

Veterans should be proud of themselves for fighting a war and coming back. One guy in my church is a veteran and talks about Veterans Day pretty much every year. When I hear about Veterans Day I think of a war and old people that fought in the war.

By Christian Kinchelo

Veterans Day is very special to me because my dad is now a veteran. My dad joined the Air Force in November of 1985; he just retired Nov. 1, 2005.

Veterans Day is very special, it is the day that we set aside to celebrate those veterans who served in the wars, World War 1, 2, Viet Nam, and the Revolutionary War are some of the many wars that our veterans risked their lives to serve their country. All the veterans in the U.S. are the reason why we have freedom, individuality, the right to vote and elect presidents, vice presidents, members of congress, and governors for every one of the 50 states.

Freedom is one of the biggest things we forget about, that it is a privilege that was given to us from all the veterans who fought for that right. One of the other things I forgot to say was the right to choose our religion. You could be Catholic, Christian, atheist, or Muslim, but that right was won for us from all the veterans in the United States. I try to say thanks to all the veterans every Veterans Day.

I always pray for those who lost loved ones, sons, daughters, dads, moms, sisters, and brothers every night before I go to bed. I believe that everybody should remember those veterans who risked their lives, thinking of us. I don't know about you, but that makes me feel special, knowing that those men and women gave me freedom, the right to vote, choice of religion, individuality, and safety.

By Carlos Cobos

They have done a lot for the country and if they weren't veterans, the country wouldn't be like how it is today. The veterans are people that have been in the army and have been into wars. My grandpa was in the army for 15 years and he helped the country to fight in World War 1, where he was killed. The veterans are important because they have help to get our freedom and to help each other. They have done a lot to help us get the soldiers from Iraq back and not to be in war anymore.

Lazbuddie robotics team takes 2nd, heads to state

From Debbie Weir, Lazbuddie School robotics team sponsor:

Lazbuddie's robotics team won 2nd Place BEST Team in Lubbock.

The team has qualified for the regional and state competition of Texas BEST, (boosting engineering, science, and technology) at SMU in Dallas Dec. 2-3.

Twenty-five teams participated at Lubbock. Sixty teams will be present in Dallas from Texas and New Mexico.

Lazbuddie placed 7th in the robot race, and won 1st place in the spirit and sportsmanship category and 1st place in the table display and presentation.

The BEST competition consists of four categories:

1) A project summary notebook submitted in advance of Texas Best.

2) An oral presentation in front of judges which included a power point presentation, an explanation of the engineering process, community outreach, school involvement, school promotion, and school spirit involvement.

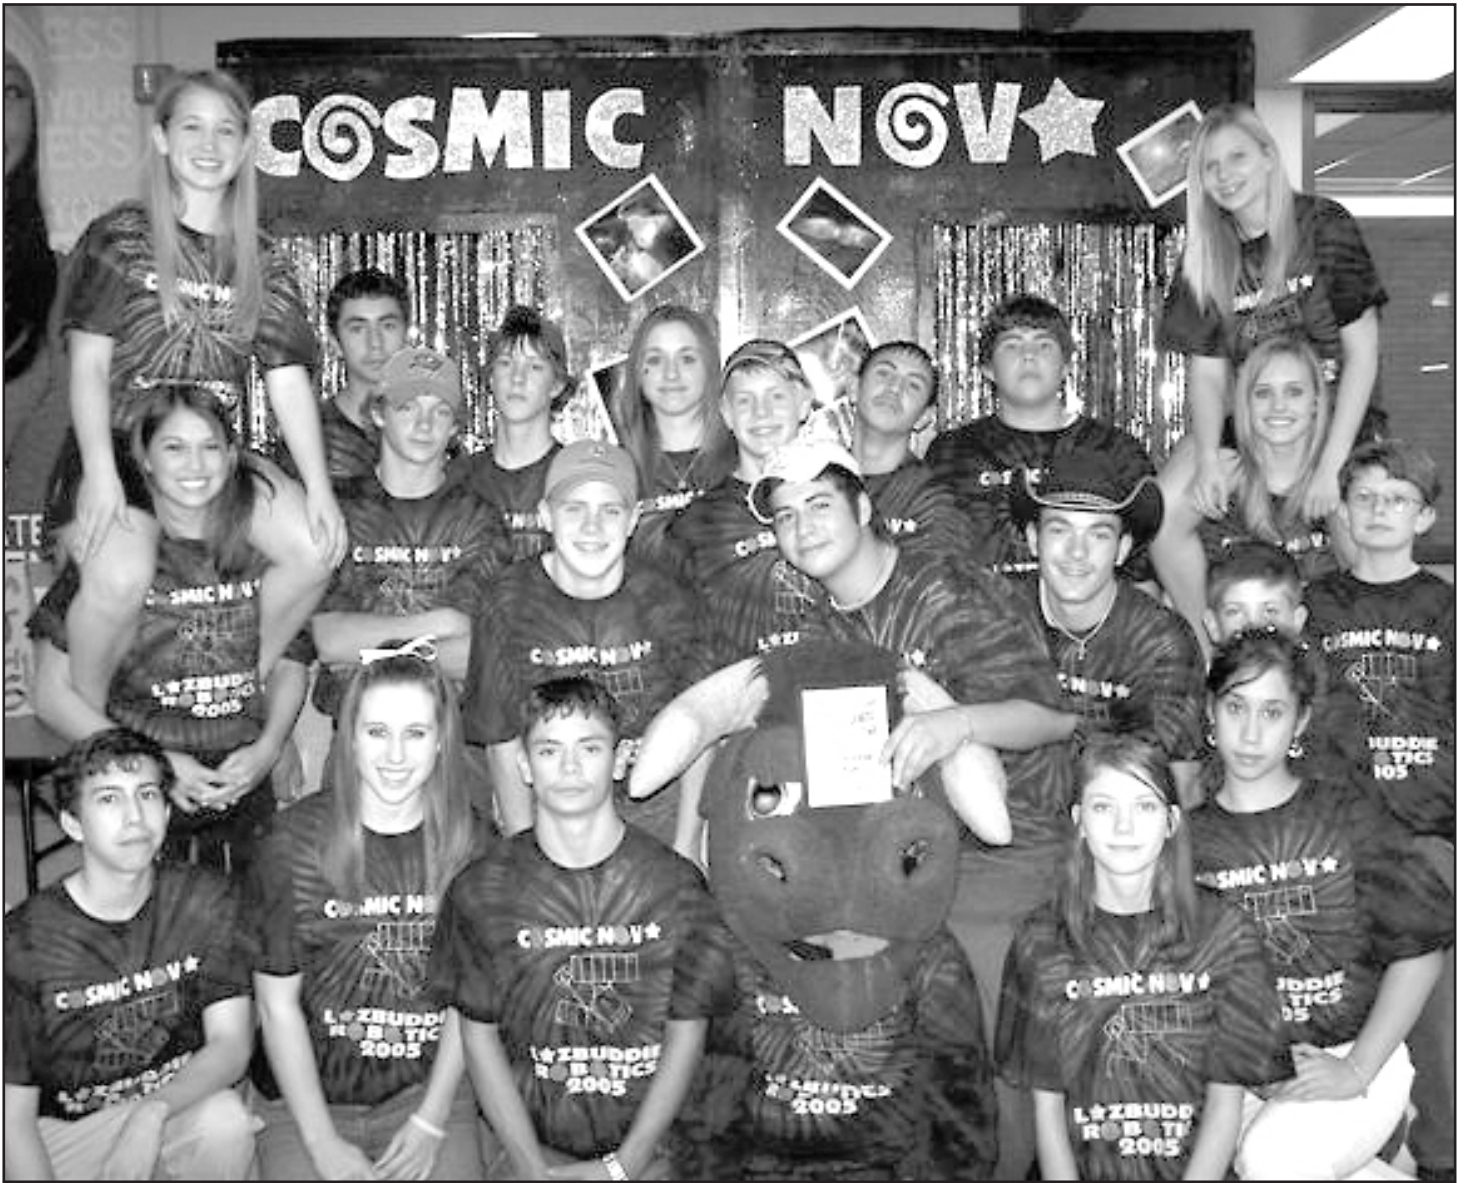

3) A table exhibit and interviews.

4) A spirit and sportsmanship review.

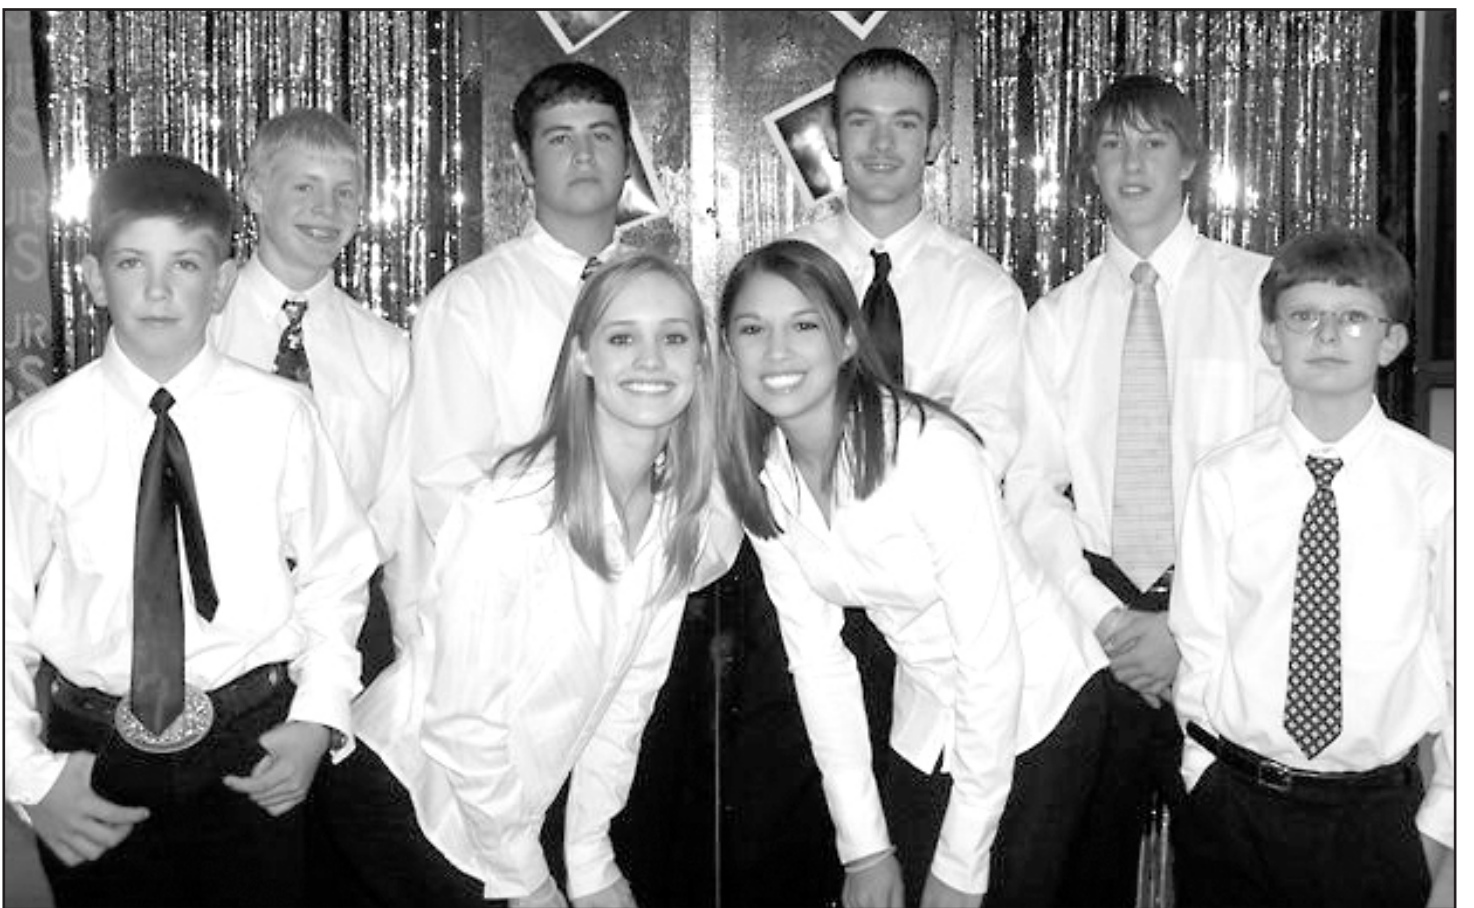

The Lazbuddie 4th and 5th graders work on designing and engineering a robot project every year in conjunction with our project. We had two speakers from the 5th grade (Colten Ingram and Cotton Fleming) help our oral presentation team show promotion in several grades. Our team had several grades represented, which was a criterion for several points.

Team members were Jacob Schacher, Ryan Mason, Chase Timms, Brittany Sexton, Haley Sexton, Leticia Mendoza, Arturo Lucio, Bart Guillen, Brianna Sanchez, Brittney Schacher, Chelsee Nichols, Rochelle Smith, Megan McGuire, Jason Davis, Esteban Pacheco, Joaquin Campos, Addie Treider, Bryce Haney, Jesse Gomez, David Campos, and Trevor Coker.

This is Lazbuddie's 8th year to advance to the state competition.

This is the 2005 Lazbuddie Robotics Team.

The Oral Presentation Team: Colten Ingram, Jacob Schacher, Jason Davis, Brittney Schacher, Brianna Sanchez, Ryan Mason, Bryce Haney & Cotton Fleming.

Some of the girls stunting for the Spirit/Sportsmanship Award.

Farwell's cross country team

On to state for Lady Blue

The Farwell High cross country team heads to state this weekend.

On Nov. 5 at Lubbock, the Lady Blue captured its 2nd straight trip to Austin by finishing 3rd in the Region 1 meet despite injuries.

Coach Corey Conkin said, "I knew from the start of the season that these girls had a great chance to make it back to Austin. In all but one of our meets this season, we finished 1st or 2nd. So I knew if we stay healthy and determined, we would be on our way to Austin. Our team is extremely excited to have a shot at earning a state medal."

The Lady Blue are now one of the top 12 teams in Texas. In Class 1A, 319 teams competed. "So just advancing to state is a victory in itself," said the coach. "My girls have decided they will not be satisfied with just competing in Austin. They want to come home wearing medals around their necks."

At the regional, Chanel Castillo finished 12th and Salida Edwards was 13th.

Other team members are Megan Langdon, Brenda Cano, Talethia Nolte, Shelby Christian, Melinda Castillo and alternates Bea Garcia and Lauren Beaubien.

Engagement told

Bobby and Sandra Krueger, of Hutto, Texas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Elaine Krueger, to Aaron Brent Dyer, son of Ronny and Candy Dyer, of Farwell. The couple will marry on Nov. 26 in Taylor, Texas.

'Call about shots first'

A special note from Farwell School nurse Lu Ann Fillpot:

Elsewhere in today's Tribune is the monthly ad announcing shots given next week at Farwell Schools.

There is a possibility, though, that flu vaccines won't be delivered this month due to the amount needed everywhere.

So she asks folks to call the elementary school, 481-9131, the day before the health department visit here to double check on the vaccines that will be available.

The Latest

Class parents for the Farwell Class of 2009 are taking orders for hardwood smoked pork loin through Nov. 30.

The prices are $30 for a whole loin, $15 for a half. They will be prepared and delivered on Dec. 9 and 10, just in time for your Christmas holiday parties, get-togethers and family dinners.

"We had such a great turn-out for our pork loin dinner earlier this fall and we had a lot of requests for purchasing the leftover pork loin," said class parent Teresa Mesman. "Because we didn't have any pork loin leftover to sell at that time, we'd thought we'd offer them again and help the Freshman Class out at the same time."

All funds raised go the Class of 2009 to help them with class activities, prom planning and senior graduation expenses.

"We're also hoping to have enough money left over to benefit the kids in their college endeavors as well," said class parent Michele Kirkland.

To order pork loin for the holidays, contact: Jack and Michele Kirkland -- 481-3321; Scott and Patty Johnson -- 225-6655 or 225-6657; Ken and Kanetha Foster -- 825-3111 or 946-3321; or Berny and Teresa Mesman -- 825-3830.

From Farwell School nurse Lu Ann Fillpot:

Jeni Vanadeau, of Nashville, will be giving confidence and self-esteem talks at Texico and Farwell schools on Friday.

On Saturday, she will host "Chick Chat" for 13- to 18-year-old girls from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Farwell Elementary School gym. Lunch will be provided. There is a fee.

Texico School Board adopts wellness policy

The Texico School Board on Tuesday adopted a wellness policy that is required by the federal government.

In a nutshell, it means there will be less candy and soda pop in the school vending machines. More nutritional snacks will be provided.

Parents also will be encouraged to send less candy to school with their children.

In other business, the board:

-- Received the resignations of Bobbi (Foster) Bates and Lupe Vidaurri.

Ryan Autrey will replace Mrs. Bates. He will be elementary physical education teacher, high school math teacher and JV girls basketball coach.

Indolina Meza will replace Mrs. Vidaurri, who has taken a fulltime job in Clovis. Mrs. Meza will be part-time aide and part-time bilingual teacher.

-- Heard Supt. R.L. Richards report that the kindergarten and science lab renovations should be completed next month.

-- Heard that wells have been drilled at the baseball field and football practice field. The wells are for watering grass, not for drinking.

-- Was told that a grant request from the state for trees at the baseball complex was denied.

-- Approved the High Plains Rotary Club, from Clovis, to put on a dodge ball tournament at Texico for Thanksgiving weekend.

This is a family activity with 8 people (including at least 3 females) per team. There will be three age divisions.

Board member Charlie Vannatta presented the information on the event.

Hilda Quintana, 12; Yaniree Martinez, 7; Audrey Terrones, 4; Irma Rocha, 6; Yesenia Guevara, 1; Laura Rocha, 6; Lucero Saucedo, 3; Dorothy Martinez, 5; and Jessica Bachicha, 9.

Quintana had a pair of 3-pointers. Also with 3-pointers were Irma Rocha, Bachicha, Dorothy Martinez and Saucedo.

Parmer County opposes gay marriages

In Texas' Constitutional Amendment election on Tuesday, there was only one proposition that attracted much attention.

Proposition 2 provided that marriage in Texas consisted only of the union of one man and one woman.

Statewide, Texans were approving the proposition by a huge margin, about 76 percent to 24 percent several hours into the ballot counting.

Final statistics for Parmer County showed 1,141 in favor and 59 against.

Thus, Texas are saying no to "gay" marriages.

Texico sells old City Hall property

The Texico City Council on Tuesday received three bids to buy the old City Hall property at 419 Wheeler Ave.

Bidders were Wayne Martin Jr., $2,150; Oran Jay Autrey, $7,501; and Jeff Actkinson, $7,500. Actkinson's bid was accepted.

In other business the council:

-- Approved seeking a loan of $220,000 from the state to buy a new tanker. Texico fire officials had sought a FEMA grant for this, but was denied.

-- Set the next city election for March 7. The day for candidates to file will be Jan. 10.

On the ballot will be four seats -- the mayor, two 4-year council posts and one 2-year council post.

Incumbents up for re-election are Mayor Jerry Cunningham and council persons Monnie Cunningham, Doug Scioli and Oran Jay Autrey.

-- Approved sending interim city clerk Carolyn Johnson to a budget workshop in Albuquerque in December.

-- Heard that the merry-go-round for KKR Park has arrived.

-- Held a discussion with the cemetery board to help define responsibilities.

The cemetery board is requesting a change in the city ordinance (which would reflect the wording in state statutes) to say:

"The municipality in disposing of a burial lot may execute a deed conveying title to a purchaser. The deed is to be executed by the mayor and attested to by the clerk and bear the seal of the municipality."

City Attorney Marion Ty Rutter suggested the word "may" be replaced with "shall."

The topic will be on the next council agenda.

A loss for the football team on Friday - but there are consolations: we were the first team to score a TD in the first quarter - apparently a first for Nazareth also; and we are still in the playoffs. We all are proud of our football team - you guys and gals are doing great.

Yolanda Castillo-Robledo's rear window on her car was shattered by a rock at Friday's football game. She is pursuing investigation with the authorities for the culprit.

The team caught a bye this week, so the first play-off game will be on Nov. 18. Come out and support our team. Show your community spirit.

Bovina is hosting a basketball tournament on Nov. 16-18. We will have 15 teams playing at various times in our gym. The concession stand will be open and there will be a hospitality room available for the coaches, helpers, and bus drivers.

If you want to help out with that or anything else for this tournament, contact Coach Shorter at school.

The Bovina Band is still collecting Box Tops 4 Education - there are several drop-off sites around town and school. Please continue to collect them.

Proud Home of the Mustangs & Fillies

Expressing gratitude

by Hannah Miller
Veterans Day is a time to honor and remember all the people who have served our country in war and peace. It means that we should respect and honor those people who have made so many sacrifices in their home lives and their education to give us our freedom. They have helped preserve the quality of life.

Veterans Day means children who went without a father or mother during time of war. It means a wife who lost a husband when he went off to war. It means an entire family that was constantly worried if their loved one would be called off to war. It means many brave men and women who wanted to help their country, be patriotic and preserve freedom.

It means heroes, all around the U.S., that were willing to go to war or even die for their country, their families and people they didn't even know. It means that everyone, across the U.S., needs to be respectful and honor these special people who were willing to do anything their country asked of them for us.

by Isaias Castillo
Veterans Day is a day when we remember all of the people who fought or were willing to fight. When I think about the veterans, I think of all the sacrifices they had to make. These people made sacrifices for their country instead of thinking of themselves. When I think of Veterans Day, I think of unselfishness and that someone was willing to give up everything for me.

by BrieAnna Hood
What Veterans Day means to me:
He left his family to protect mine.
He left his family to give mine freedom.
He left his family to give mine peace.
He left his family and lost his life
To give mine all of these things.

by Daisy Carrasco
Veterans Day is very important to me because if the veterans had not fought for us, this country would not be the same. I think it's amazing how someone that you have never even met would be willing to give his or her life for your freedoms and to defend this great country we call America.

by Edith Carrillo
Veterans Day is a day when everybody remembers those people who have served our country in war and peace. I am thankful to those who lost their lives or who suffered during wartime to give us all of the freedoms we have today.

by Chris Pena
Veterans Day is when someone has served his or her country in war or in battle and they do what they have to do for their country. They make the sacrifice and are resting in peace. United we will stand.

by Jason Sheena
Veterans Day is a day to honor the many people who were willing to fight and possibly die for their country. They were not afraid to stand up for what they were willing to fight for. It's a day for the many people who served and deserve a day off from what they have been through. It's a day when we honor those who went to war and thank the loved ones who were willing to go into the military.

by Anthony Loera
Veterans Day means honoring the men and women who fought for this country during war and peace. Most of the men who died in Vietnam are honored with their names on a wall, and the men from World War II are honored with their names on memorials across the nation. Still today, we honor our men and women who are fighting in Iraq just to keep our country safe.

by Esmeralda Saucedo
Veterans Day is a day we honor our soldiers who sacrificed a lot more than most people think in order to protect their country, their families and even strangers. I think they deserve a day of honor and even more.

by Danna Guerrero
Veterans Day is a day when I remember the people who have served this country so that we can have many freedoms. I am thankful to those men and women who have risked their lives in order for me and everyone else in this country to be free and to have everything we have. I am proud to say I live in a country where others leave their homes and families to protect mine. Veterans Day is important to me because it makes me feel safe that someone out there is willing to give up their life for me. I am proud of these men and women who have served for me and for everyone else in this country to keep our hopes and dreams. Peace and harmony remain in our country, even though many of these people no longer remain.

Día de los Muertos

The Spanish and Theater Arts classes at Bovina High School last week celebrated, "Día de los Muertos," a memorial to all deceased loved ones. Since the skeleton is the symbol of "Día de los Muertos," students made paper skeletons, painted skeletons on bandanas and on t-shirts. The celebration culminated with, of course, a "fiesta" with an abundance of yummy food.

Nazareth tops 'Stangs

The Bovina Mustangs may have given the Nazareth Swifts, ranked No. 6 in the state, its toughest game of the year last Friday at home.

The final score showed Bovina winning, 42-7. But the game was much closer than that. Entering the 4th quarter, Nazareth only led 20-7.

Also, Nazareth, which finished the season at 10-0, had not allowed a point to be scored upon them for the entire district season -- until they played the 'Stangs!

Bovina, finishing the regular season with a 7-3 mark and 4-1 in district, has a bye this week. The following weekend, they will play the winner of the Sunray-Quannah game that is being played Friday night at 7:30 in Bushland's new stadium.

Bovina got on the board in the first quarter when Frank Martinez punched over from the 1 yard line. James Lara added the extra point kick and it was 7-zip in Bovina's favor at the end of the first quarter.

City motto contest begun

The Bovina Chamber of Commerce is having a city motto contest -- and asks that you participate.

It's very easy to do that. The Chamber will be putting up signs at each end of the city that says: "Welcome to Bovina, the _____."

All you need to do is fill in the blank. When you send your suggestion in, add your name, address and phone number.

The entry deadline is Jan. 1. The winner will be announced at the Chamber banquet in March. And the winner will have his/her name on the signs, too.

Send in your suggestions to: Dr. Mindy Neal, P.O. Box 718, Bovina TX 79009, or just drop them off at The Bone Joint.

Come join in

The Bovina Chamber of Commerce has scheduled a Clean-Up and Paint-Up Day for Nov. 12.

The area along U.S. Highway 60 will be worked on. Volunteers are asked to meet at 9 a.m. next to Charles Oil. Lunch will be provided volunteers.

Among those who will be participating will be members of the Bovina Boy Scouts and Tri-City Red Raiders, the area youth football team that will be heading to a national tournament in Las Vegas.

Besides picking up trash, volunteers will be painting some buildings in dire need. Donations of painting supplies are being asked. If you can help with a donation, call Chamber President Mindy Neal at 251-1300.

Colts split 2 games: defeat Farwell, lose to Nazareth

From Coach Ontiveros:
Bovina JH Colts defeated Farwell, 24-14. Frankie Guevara scored the 1st TD from 5 yards out, followed by a 2-point conversion by Rodrigo Zapata.

Guevara then scored his 2nd TD, on a 13-yard scamper, followed by a 2-point conversion by Jonathan Roldan.

Roldan scored Bovina's 3rd TD on an 85-yard run, with a 2-point conversion added by Guevara.

Top players were: defense -- David Saucedo; and offense -- Guevara and Roldan.

"Our offensive line blocked well for all of our backs all evening," said the coach.

The Colts lost to Nazareth, 36-28.

Roldan led off the Bovina scoring with a 45-yard TD run.

Guevara brought home Bovina's 2nd TD from 46 yards out.

Then Guevara scored from 20 yards out, followed by a 2-point conversion run by Roldan.

And the final TD came when Roldan raced in to pay dirt from 30 yards out, then added the 2-point conversion himself.
