Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor, A couple of months ago, I stopped by the Tribune office to purchase a subscription to the paper. Since I retired from the Farwell High School Library in May, I wanted to keep up with all the news concerning my friends in Farwell and the surrounding area. Several days after that my husband took the afternoon off and announced that the FHS cheerleaders had come up with a special cheer to honor me and it would be introduced at the first pep rally of the year. I thought all this was a little shaky, but I went along with him as I was eager to see the students and my friends, the faculty and staff of Farwell High School. As the students filed in and the band began to play, I realized that this was the assembly where the yearbook dedication would be announced. Waiting for "the cheer" to begin, I listened carefully as Dorris White and

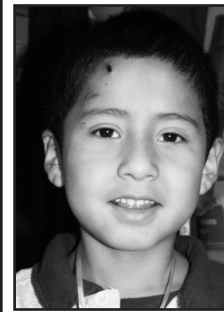

Kathy Curtis began to talk about the 2010 Roundup. The staff of the yearbook was lined up on the gym floor, the football team was in place on the gym floor and the assembly began. Suddenly I realized that Mrs. White and Mrs. Curtis and Matt Martin were talking about ME!!!! The 2010 Roundup, Shades of Blue, was dedicated to me, Nedra Isbell, the Queen of the Farwell High School Library. I have several friends on the faculty, staff and administration of the Farwell Schools and I had always aspired to work in Farwell. Imagine my delight to be able to end my professional career with five years spent in the FHS Library. Then, imagine that I was rendered speechless, and thrilled, when Matt Martin bowed down to the Queen and handed me my copy of the 2010 yearbook. I have received many awards in my career, but nothing comes close to this wonderful honor! I shed a few tears, found my voice, and thanked the staff and the sponsors of the yearbook and thanked my friends on the faculty and administration. I am humbled by this great honor. Of course, I don't feel worthy, but I am proud - of the book and all the hard work that the staff put in to produce such a fantastic memory for us all to have. Thank you, thank you, thank you! The Queen of the Farwell High School Library Nedra Isbell

Texico to repair more roads

The Texico City Council on Oct. 26 heard that the street repairs came in under budget, and the city still has $6,000 left for repairs before winter set in. The money will be used for repairs on Hereford, Craig, and State streets.

In other news, the council:

- Received a report from Fire Chief Lewis Cooper on the Ute Water Project. Construction on the water intake that will be in Ute Lake is scheduled to begin in July.

- Discussed the Esparza property. No action was taken.

- Received a report from Police Chief Doug Bowman. He said several items lost in a burglary were found and returned to their owner.

- Discussed a possible problem with the Brown Well. It is pumping too hard at the moment, and the motor will be sent in for repairs.

- Heard from Cooper that New Mexico's base allotment to the Fire Department is currently $185,000. Even with the new truck on order, the Fire Department has less than half going to payments.

Wolverines overcome Clayton

by Mike King

The Texico Wolverines overcame a series of early miscues and turned in a dominating performance last Friday night to beat the Clayton Yellowjackets, 38-6, securing a 5th seed in the state playoffs.

All the state playoff teams have this weekend off. The Wolverines play in the quarter-finals on Nov. 12 at 7 p.m. mt at Estancia.

Rushers Jose Posada, Shay Harrison, Donovan Johnson, and Jesus Rivera ran at will.

Texico's first drive stalled on a lost fumble. On Clayton's first play, Texico forced a turnover which Johnson scooped up and roared into the end zone -- called back due a penalty. Then Texico moved the ball downfield but an interception killed the drive at the 2.

Clayton had a good drive but was stopped on 4th and 5 as D.J. Griego, Brandon King, and Johnson stopped the runner at the Texico 29.

Harrison, Jose Posada, and Johnson hammered away. Harrison scored from 4 yards out. The Sergio Posada kick made it 7-0.

On defense, Jose Posada intercepted and returned it 31 yards. He then hit a 18-yard TD pass to Lucas Walthers for a 14-0 lead.

The defense again stepped up on the next drive as Walthers had a big tackle, forcing a Clayton punt. Johnson came around the right end untouched and blocked the punt, recovered by Griego.

Johnson scored from 15 yards out and a 21-0 Wolverine ege at half-time.

The second half began

Wolverines of the Week

Coach Autrey named as Wolverines of the Week: offense -- the "o" line of Daniel Gomez, Uriel Munoz, Elliot Pelfrey, Zach Madrid, Ali Valles and D.J. Griego; defense -- Kolten Miller; and special teams - Donovan Johnson, with a blocked punt.

with Walthers, on a reverse, raced 53 yards for a TD and a 28-0 lead as Sergio Posada continued his steady PAT kicks.

The offensive line dominated -- Zach Madrid, Elliot Pelfrey, Uriel Munoz, Ali Valles, and D.J. Griego outmuscled the larger Yellowjackets.

On the next drive, Jose Posada threw the ball almost 50 yards in the air to Kolten Miller, setting up the Wolverines deep in Clayton territory. Posada then hit Miller with a TD pass.

Sergio Posada put on Texico's last score on a 34-yard field goal.

Coach Autrey liberally substituted his younger players at that.

J.J Tuls moved from his starting cornerback spot to running back and he was joined by Mitchell Pinnell and Brandon King in the backfield where each had nice rushes.

On defense, Alan Valles made big tackles as did Justin Lopez.

Clayton scored on a 65-yard run late in the game.

Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

The Commission will only grant a contested case hearing on disputed issues of fact that are relevant and material to the Commission's decision on the application. Further, the Commission will only grant a hearing on issues that were raised in timely filed comments that were not subsequently withdrawn.

'Magnificent 7' honored

The Mustang Band performed its final home marching performance for 2010 at the Sudan-Bovina game and honored its "Magnificent 7" seniors.

At the conclusion of the halftime show, the Bovina Band Boosters presented 7 senior band students with commemorative t-shirts and gifts to mark their last performance on their home football field.

The seniors are Blanca Vidana on Flute; Mariana Guevara, Carmen Gutierrez and Karen Rodriguez on Clarinet; Yesenia Rodriguez on Saxophone, Juan Chavez on Trumpet, and Chris Rodriguez on Baritone.

These are the first students that Head Band Director Brad Walker and Assistant Band Director Jason Anaya have taught since their freshman year all the way through their senior year in high school.

Walker remarked, "They are truly a very special class for me personally and but more importantly for the Mustang Band's rise to regional prominence in the past four years and their great success this year."

The t-shirts bore the name of the last four years' marching band themes, a photo of the Las Cruces Tournament of Bands, and the words that read, "I'm a Survivor...I was in band four years with Brad Walker".

Mustangs of the Week

Coach Guevara named as Mustangs of the Week: offense - Dorian Vela; defense -- linemen Aaron Castaneda, Rosendo Lara, Jesus Castanera and Matt Knoll; special teams - Sergio Hernandez; and Big Hit -- Andrew Marrufo.

Mustangs close in on playoff berth

It's been a season of ups and downs for the Bovina Mustangs.

They opened the season with three victories, followed by five losses.

Then last Friday, they won again, a 35-18 blasting of the Sudan Hornets, and are favored to win again this Friday over Nazareth.

A win over Nazareth allows the Mustangs to finish 3rd in District and gain a berth in the state playoffs.

Coach Hector Guevara was proud of his team for keeping a good attitude and showing good character by returning to the win column against Sudan.

The game was not as close as the final score as the Hornet tallied 2 TDs in the final quarter as Mustang backup players were in the game.

In the first quarter, the Mustangs took the lead when Desmond Fox dashed 15 yards to pay dirt. It was followed by the first of five successful PAT kicks by Sergio Hernandez.

After Sudan scored to open the 2nd quarter, the Mustangs poured it on. Rolando Perez ran for a 22-yard TD, followed by a Dorian Vela QB sneaks from 2 and 1 yards out.

In the 3rd quarter, Bovina took a 35-6 lead when Fox plunged over from the 1.

Dorian Vela and Gael Vela teamed up for some good passing offense. Dorian Vela passed for 112 yards while 86 of it was caught by Gael Vela.

Team stats:

First downs, Sudan 14, Bovina 14; rushing yards, Sudan 200, Bovina 210; passing yards, Sudan 87, Bovina 112, and penalties, Sudan 13 for 87 yards, Bovina 9 for 68 yards.

Bovina, Sudan split

From Coach Thackston:
Last week, the 8th grade Colts lost to Sudan, 16-14.

Our kids played well and never gave in.

Joe Casas intercepted a pass and had a 1-yard TD run. Bernabe DeLaCruz had a 8-yard TD run.

The Colt defense held the Hornets scoreless in the second half.

From Coach Gonzales:
Bovina JV raced past Sudan, 36-12, last week.

Gabriel DeLaRosa and Oscar Jasso has two rushing TDs each. One of DeLaRosa's was from 47 yards out.

Jasso also returned a kickoff 85 yards for a TD. Adding 2-point conversions were DeLaRosa (two) and Ramiro Carmona.

Our offense turned in an outstanding job.

And on defense, DeLaRosa had an interception. Edwin Carillo and David Velo recovered fumbles.
