Our local weather has certainly been unusually nice for this time of the year. I almost hate to see spring arrive and mess up our good winter weather. However, we are coming to February and March and these months usually hold our biggest snows of the season. While these storms can deposit a very large amount of snow on the ground it seldom lasts over a few days. By now, our days are naturally becoming longer and more of the sun's energy reaches us than thirty days ago and this melts our spring snows rapidly.

It is with this thought in mind, that our hours of daylight are becoming longer, that we are amazed at the actions of Congress in suggesting repeal of daylight savings time. No, no, no, we were not in favor of the time change that occurred on the sixth of January but now that we have become relatively adjusted to the new schedule we view with distaste the prospect of going back thru another time transition and then, in a month or so, do it all over again. Remember, we will still go back to daylight savings on the last Sunday in April even if we do reverse the present state of affairs.

To suggest that the nation be put thru the trauma of time change three times in four months is almost more than we can stand to contemplate.

Elsewhere in this week's Tribune is the story concerning the decision to form the Farwell Development Company. We are heartily in support of this move because we think that in the months and years to come it will be a very useful vehicle in obtaining businesses and industries for the Farwell locality.

We do wish to emphasize that membership in the Company entails no personal liability to the individual and that future requirements for funds will not be met by a membership assessment. The formation of the Farwell Development Company is basically a paper maneuver to facilitate various governmental agencies in funding local enterprises. These enterprises can be cooperate, corporate on private entrepreneurships so they will represent a wide range of opportunities for local economic growth. Do not delay, but act soon, to give this community a vehicle for future growth and prosperity.

means to entice additional business to the Farwell area, we must not forget that all industry considers the tax angle before a final decision is made as to where a concern

While we are discussing

Therefore, in spite of all the blandishments and help that the Farwell Chamber of Commerce might make in conducting a search for new business. we feel that at present, the tax policies of the Farwell Independent School District could easily negate all our community efforts. We took a short course in school tax policies several weeks ago and were amazed at what we found out. At a future date, and after some more research, we will go into local taxation. An interesting subject!

We are happy to print several letters to the editor this week taking us to task for both our grammar and our thinking. It is a healthy attitude in a community when the people in it are interested enough to write their feelings to their local newspaper. We feel sure that not everything we say is agreed with and that not everything that we report as news is agreeable to everyone. To stimulate community thinking and growth, we encourage you to write this newspaper your thoughts. All letters must be signed and with a known address. We will, however, withhold printing the name of the writer if so requested. We will not break confidence, just write us--we appreciate it.

SENIOR PLAYERS AT LAST HOME GAME -- In the last home game of the regular season of basketball play Tuesday night, the five Senior Steers started for the Steers. They are from left, standing, Kevin Hargrove, Kent Armstrong and Kevin Hardage; and kneeling, Carl Kirkland and Greg Taylor. The Steers blasted the Kress team in Farwell 70-32 to stretch their district record to 10-0 and 19-8 for the season, and riding high on a 13-game winning streak. Tonight (Friday) the Steers meet Sudan at Sudan and wind up the season next Tuesday night at Vega, before going into championship play.

County Commission Approves Budget

Following a study of the proposed $810,079 operating budget for Parmer County for 1974, the four commissioners unanimously approved adop tion of the pending budget They studied the $18,112,000 total tax valuation and a report of approximately 97 percent tax collections. Judge Archie Tarter reported a tax loss each year of something around approximately $240,000 taxes as per statements mailed county residents.

Also studied was the "Open Meeting Law" which went into effect on Jan. 1 with Judge Tarter commenting, "Personally, I plan to comply by the law 100 percent." Observations were made by other commis-sioners that all meetings were open and public at any time, and Judge Tarter explained several facets required in order to officially comply with the new law.

In other action, commissioners approved the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission water and sewer plan; approved an application of a Friona area resident to place a gas line under a county

Tatum Coyotes Down Ailing Wolverines

by Domingo Rojas

Wednesday night, Jan. 23, the Texico Wolverines met a tough Tatum Coyote team in the E.P.A.C. tournament at Portales. The Wolverines played the Coyotes to a 60-60 tie, but were downed by Tatum in an overtime 67-61.

"We took nine players to the tournament and five of them were down with the flu," stated Coach Darryl Haley. "We played good ball to have this many players sick, but we just pooped out in the last three minutes of the overtime," added the coach. The first quarter of action saw an 18-18 tie, but the Coyotes jumped out to a four point lead in the half to lead Texico, 37-33. However, the Wolverines came back to take the lead at the end of the third guarter 51-47. "In the fourth quarter we threw the ball away twice in a row and walked with the ball twice to give Tatum an opportunity to catch up and tie the score before the end of the game,' said Coach Haley. around 11 a.m. Thursday, as Mrs. Bill '(Ann) Southard brought her Phase II students from Texico Elementary School to the newspaper to see how a newspaper works; how it is started and how it is completed.

Mrs. Southard and two mothers, Mrs. O. B. Coffey and Mrs. Thelma Venable, escorted the 20 students to the newspaper for an hour tour, and the boys and girls seemed to enjoy watching the machinery, especially in the composing room.

Escorted on the tour by Mrs. John Getz, the youths first heard an explanation of newsgathering, writing and photography by Cleta Williams, Tribune News Editor, then went to the composing room where Compositor Patti Parker, explained how the newsprint is composed and prepared for past-up, along with demonstrations by Domingo Rojas on the headliner and ad Mrs. Getz answered innum-

Don't let clothing- or tablecloth stains spoil holiday memories. Informed homemekers can get rid of such spots and

The most important step is immediate treatment with cool water and a sponge--thus preventing lasting stains. Even so, some products present special problems.

Some fruit juices, for example, may dry and disappear. As a result, they're often forgotten or overlooked. However, unless juice is removed, a stain may appear later due to aging or application of heat to the fabric.

Farwell Chamber Plans Banquet

With Farwell Chamber of Commerce secretary, I. W. "Dutch" Quickel, presiding in absence of president, Charles Aycock, several specific items were discussed during the regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday at noon.

He reported that the banquet committee had chosen Ed Robb, after dinner speaker and evangelist, to be special guest speaker at the annual Chamber banquet on March 7.

There was no report from the nominating committee; a short city report; a short school report from Superintendent W. M. Roberts and a report from Pudge Rose and Don Williams on potential development through the Farwell Development Co., a new corporation in the formation stage at this time.

Proposed constitutional changes via the new possible Texas constitution were also discussed before the meeting was dismissed

WHERE DOES ALL THE ENERGY GO? Did you ever wonder where our energy supply goes? According to information received from the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers, residential usage accounts for 19.2% of all energy consumption, the rest being utilized by the transportation, commercial and industrial sectors.

The demand for energy in the home can be broken down in the following way: 57.5% is used for space heating while 15.1% heats water. Refrigerators and cooking appliances each account for 5.7% of the energy consumption pie. Air conditioning cools off another 3.6% and dryers spin off 1.6% The energy that is left lights our homes and runs any other appliances--large and small.

Sheriff's Report

Light activity was reported by Sheriff Charles Lovelace during the past week.

Daniel Garza was returned from Lubbock this week to face charges of violation of probation. Also jailed in Farwell, and charged with violation of probation is Jessie Garcia of Friona. The two men were originally convicted of shooting a Friona man.

Sheriff Lovelace said the men had failed to report as required by law, nor had they paid court charges as levied during their initial trial.

Returned this week to face charges of malicious destruction of private property was Roy Drennan, a former Friona resident. The sheriff said Drennen had jumped bond and was picked up in Florence, Drennan was expected to go to trial Thursday morning in district court in Farwell.

School Nurse Feted On 'Special' Day

by Cleta Williams

Last Thursday, Jan. 24, was the day of surprises for Mrs. J. T. Lockhart, Farwell School nurse for the past 22 years. Mrs. Lockhart also served as school nurse in Bovina.

Mrs. Lockhart began her day in a routine manner, expecting upset stomachs, a possible earache, and minor bumps and bangs from among her more than 600 charges at the Farwell Schools

As Mrs. Lockhart entered the elementary school building at 2 p.m. Thursday, she was greeted by the entire student body and faculty. Elementary School Principal Vernon Scott 'told her, "We wanted to thank you in a special way for everything you have done for us." Scott then called on each grade represented. Youngsters representing their respective classes presented the school nurse with packets of "appreciation letters" and drawings. but that was not the only surprise for the popular nurse.

Before dismissing the students to return to classroom work, the principal stepped into a classroom and brought out a specially contrived "money tree" for presentation to Mrs. Lockhart. The tree was more than six feet tall and was liberally taped with coins and paper money. The school principal told the nurse the money tree idea was that of all the students and most participated, along with elementary bers. On the tree was more Education major.

Articles entered are expected to include oil paintings, decoupage, knitting, clothing, leather work, baked goods, poems, and dough art among other arts.

this is not to be confused with the annual Arts and Crafts Show that will be in April this year, the exact date to be announced later.

Lockhart had been honored in a special assembly presented by Farwell High School, then was presented a dozen red roses as a tribute. She was then honored by Farwell Junior High School and given a silver fruit bowl.

Thursday, Jan. 24, had been designated as "Texas School Nurse Day" by Texas Governor Dolph Briscoe, and as Principal Scott explained, "What better time is there to show our school nurse how much we appreciate her.'

During her 22 years as school nurse in Farwell, "Mrs. Lockhart nursed all our kids back to health," according to one member of the school staff, who added that all her children had Mrs. Lockhart as a school nurse.

Mrs. Lockhart sees every child in Farwell, and in Bovina Schools, as a matter of routine and each child has a vision check, a hearing test, is

In the home of Mrs. Billy Mayfield, the bride's chosen colors of blue and white were highlighted in the decor. A white frosted centerpiece was flanked by blue candles, and centered the ivory lace cloth over blue.

A white cake with "Sandra and Mark" in blue was the focal point of the serving table. Corsages of small kitchen utensils were presented the honoree, and to Mrs. Billy Ensor and Mrs. Lena Kelso. Approximately 35 guests attended the shower. Hostesses included Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Jim Yates, Mrs. Leman Stancell, Mrs. David White, Mrs. Clarence Mason and Mrs. Gerald Curtis.

WEDDING PLANNED - Kathleen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Smith of Texico and Ed Reese, son of Mrs. G. T. Reese, Amarillo, and the late G. T. Reese, will exchange wedding vows at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 16, in the Temple Baptist Church in Amarillo. A reception will follow the wedding ceremony. No invitations will be mailed, but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend the wedding and reception.

CHRIST THE SON OF GOD

St. Paul opens his Epistle to the Romans by stating that the Lord Jesus Christ was "declared to be the Son of God with power," or "powerfully declared to be the Son of God...by the resurrection from the dead" (1:4).

BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

In Psa. 2:6, we have Christ, in prophecy, saying, "I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art My Son; this day have I begotten Thee." Our Lord was, of course, eternally one with the Father, but the word "begotten" here comes from Israel's laws, referring to the time when the child was officially declared to be the father's full-grown son.

But what day was He referring to? On what day did the Father officially declare, "This day have I begotten Thee"? The answer is found in Acts 13:33, where the apostle states that God "raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second Psalm: Thou art My Son,

THIS DAY have I begotten Thee."

So our Lord was officially deto be the Son of God at His resurrection from the dead. But what did Paul mean in II clared - and powerfully declared -

Tim. 2:7,8, where he said: "Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel." The answer is that the twelve had proclaimed Christ as the Son of David, to sit on David's throne.

Theirs was "the gospel of the kingdom." But when the King and His kingdom were rejected, God raised up another apostle, Paul, to proclaim "The gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).

Christ was, indeed, raised from the dead to sit on David's throne, and this will yet come to pass, but Paul has a message for us, here and now: that Christ was raised from the dead to certify our justification and to become the Head of "the Church which is His Body."

Enthusiasm Still 'High' For 2nd Year Woodworking

by Cleta Williams A high level of enthusiasm is maintained by some 30 boys who work diligently on various woodworking projects at Farwell High School. In their second year of the project, the woodworking students stay busy in a location at the old gymnasium at the school, working with cabinets, ecology boxes and tables, along with a number of other projects currently underway by the wood-dusted students.

Three classes of students meet daily in the rooms just off the gym and happily saw, nail, hammer and sand their partially formed, yet undeni-rably happy project. The classes are taught by James Craig and Jerry Dee Owen, who initially started teaching the new class for the first time during the 1972-73 school year. They started out with just over 40 boys, but only a few elected not to continue with the new class.

One unique cabinet arrangement is underway this year by Gene Christian, a first year woodworking student. He is making a stereo set and tape cabinet. Presently, Gene, who drew up and designed the plan for his cabinet, is cutting slides for tape drawers to fit the complex.

Gene's cabinet is six feet long, and includes record storage as well as the tape and stereo shelf and tape drawers.

Craig also expressed his pleasure with the quality of work turned out by the students.

From ecology boxes (or memory boxes) almost completed by Jerry Dee Owen's eighth grade students in the class, the woodworking students will begin making jewelry boxes in a few days.

For eighth graders, said Owen, the fundamentals of elementary woodworking and use of tools is emphasized.

During the annual school science fair, ecology boxes made by the eighth grade woodworking students will be offered to the general public on TEXICO STUDENTS STUDY FIRE TRUCK -- Bob Spears and J. D. Carson of the Texico Volunteer Fire Department took a fire truck to the Texico Elementary School last Friday. Students from the first grade and Mrs. Imogene Sweeney's special education class studied the fire truck prior to taking a grand tour, atop the massive white truck. The enthusiastic young students listened closely as Spears and Carson explained how the pumps, valves and varied machinery on the truck is operated.

Phase 2, Texico School

(Mrs. Southard's Class)

The 16 staves in this barrel represent 16 essential elements scientists know are necessary for plant growth. A deficiency of any one plant food will limit yields long before the deficiency is severe enough to be observed in your field. Could a deficiency of any one of the 16 plant foods be limiting your yields?

Give your crops all the plant food they need for abundant growth. Use PELLEFORM with TREL. Clean, green pellets of uniform size have maximum water solubility. TREL. Smith-Douglass' exclusive formula of trace elements. is added.
