Border Town Days - -

Plans Progressing For Big Celebration

Plans for the 1980 Border Town Days celebration which is scheduled July 25 and 26 in the Twin Cities are beginning to take shape, due largely to the efforts of the Border Town Days Committee. The committee met for its second planning session Monday night at the Farwell Jaycee Community Center.

BTD Committee members are representatives of all clubs and civic organizations in both Texico and Farwell. Twenty-one persons attended Monday's meeting, with John Getz, president and chairman of the annual celebration, presiding.

Theme of this year's event is "We've Come A Long Way" and a wide variety of activities is planned. Filled events scheduled include everything from a parade, rodeo and barbecue to a BTD Queen contest, Old Fiddler's contest and a host of park activities to delight everyone - young and old alike.

A new event, a Beard Growing contest, is scheduled and entrants are already signing up. Entrants must be clean shaven at the time of sign-up and pay a $5.00 entry fee. Entry fees will be returned in the form of prizes for winners of the Best Looking, Most Unique, and Ugliest beards.

Red Lonsdale at the local barber shop is signing up the contestants and checking to see that all faces are smooth when entering. Mike Camp is in charge of the contest and he urges all "brush growers" to enter the contest. "It is not too late to enter," says Camp, "as the sign up began just last week." So, all you men who have been just "itching" for an excuse to grow a beard, now is your chance - and you might win some money for your effort.

The gazebo, the permanent structure built last year in the Farwell City Park just in time for last year's celebration, will be the site of all of the contests and music making.

The BTD Committee voted Monday night to go ahead with the purchase of a speaker system for the park which will enable all attendants throughout the park area to hear the speakers and performers. Last year, persons in the outer area of the park were unable to hear all the "goings-on" in the gazebo, so several functions were held last summer including a band concert to raise funds for this project. A total of $250.67 was contributed and earmarked for purchase of a speaker system and Lee Hutchins was appointed to look into this improvement. Hutchins reported that he felt that an adequate system could be purchased for about $328.00, and the committee members voted to go ahead with this project.

This year's BTD parade will begin at 11 a.m. CDT Saturday, July 26. Entrants will line up south of Highway 60-70-84 at the old Texaco service station in Texico, proceed through the "main streets" of both communities, turn south on Fifth Street in Farwell and disband one block south of the Convalescent Center. Several prizes will be presented to the best parade entries.

Farwell Chamber of Commerce will sponsor cash prizes for the three best floats including $50 for first place, $30 for second place and $20 for third place.

Texico Chamber of Commerce will provide first and second place trophies for the best old car entries.

The barbecue, co-sponsored by the Farwell Jaycees and the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, will begin at 12 noon CDT in the Farwell park and serving will continue until everyone is served.

One of the highlights of the park activities will include the Border Town Days Queen contest. Contestants eligible are all girls who will attend either Farwell or Texico high schools during the 1980-81 school year.

Each contestant must have a sponsor which may be either a club, business or individual. The entry fee is $10. Entrants will be judged on the basis of personality and talent. Out-of-town judges will be used, says Joann Getz, contest chairman. She will be assisted by Farwell Study Club members, Ellen Wurster and Hattie Coffey. Girls are urged to contact any of these women to enter the contest to be the new BTD Queen.

Following the queen contest will be the Old Fiddlers contest with Fred Chandler in charge, and the Beard contest.

A traditional part of any BTD celebration is the annual rodeo sponsored for the past several years by the Jaycees. Two performances of the High Plains Junior Rodeo will begin at 8 p.m. CDT Friday and Saturday, July 25 and 26.

Both the Texico and Farwell chambers of commerce have ordered banners and pennants to be used as decorations for the two-day celebration.

Alpha Rho Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority are in charge of coordinating the park activities. Anyone interested in establishing a booth at the park should contact either Cynthia Thigpen or Robin Gregory. Space may be rented at the park for $5.

Also a new event this year will be an Arts and Crafts Fair to take place on the front courthouse lawn. Local and area amateur artists are invited to display their arts and crafts by sponsors Janie Bowers and Sharon Menning. For more details, contact either of these women.

The BTD Committee is also trying to arrange for an added special attraction on Saturday, the 26th. A sky diving exhibition was suggested, and this and other attractions are being investigated.

Election of officers for the new year was conducted during the Monday night meeting, and last year's (Continued on Page 2) and Farwell. Theme of this year's celebration is "We've Come A Long Way" and many activities are planned including a parade, rodeo, barbecue, queen's contest, Old Fiddler's contest and Beard Growing contest as well as a wide variety of park events.

Farwell Water Well Construction Underway

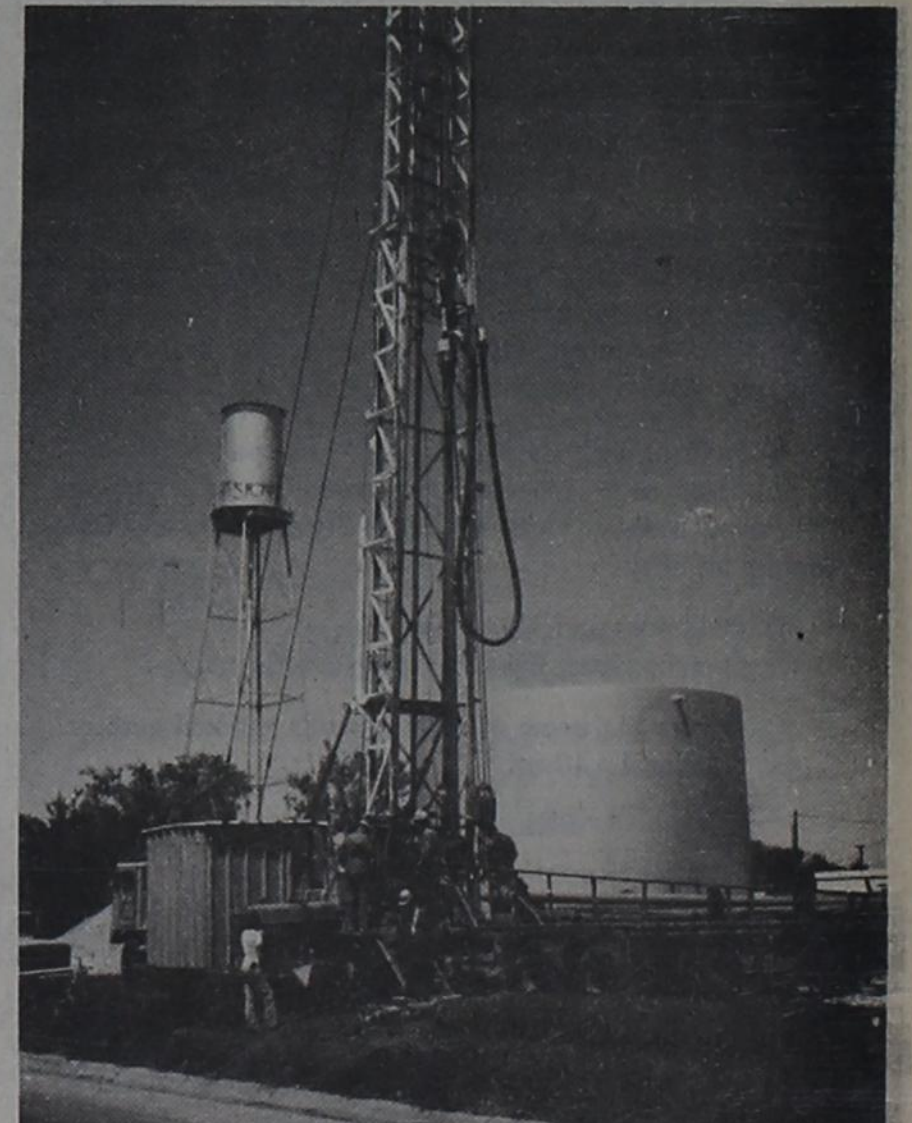

Construction for the new water well for the City of Farwell is presently underway. The drilling is being done by Howard and Sons of Clovis and the well will be installed by Twin City Pump and Machine of Farwell.

At last report this week, the drilling was finished, and the area had been cased and gravel-packed. According to Dee Hammit, Farwell Water Superintendent, the entire project will take approximately two to three more weeks to pour the concrete and install the pump.

The 392-foot well will be topped by a six-inch pump that pumps 500 gallons per minute.

The new well will replace one that was built in 1930.

New Water Well

Drilling is finished on the new water well under construction by the City of Farwell. The well and pump, which will replace one built in 1930, will pump 500 gallons of water per minute. The project is expected to be completed in two to three weeks.

Road Work Continues

Construction on Highway 70-84 through Farwell continues into June. The south side of the highway has been completed to the point of allowing travel and the construction crews began this week to work on the north side. When the north side is finished, a final coat will be applied to both sides before the crew comes in to do the striping. According to a spokesman for K. Barnett and Sons, construction firm from Clovis, the projected completion date is late July to mid-August, but this date depends on the weather and the labor force.

Tax Board Interviews Appraiser Applicants

Parmer County Tax Appraisal Board met in a regularly scheduled meeting Monday night to interview two applicants for the position of chief appraiser.

Out of a total of ten applicants, only five were considered. Three were interviewed previously and two in this meeting.

The next meeting will be a call meeting for the purpose of making a decision on the hiring of a chief appraiser.

In the course of the meeting, E.A. (Tony) Parham, board member from Lazbuddie, made a motion that the previous action of the Board concerning the new building to house the tax appraisal board be rescinded, and the building be put adjacent to the county courthouse in Farwell, "where it should be."

Parham was referring to the anonymous offer of a free building to house the newly-organized board. In a previous meeting, the board had voted to reject the offer of the free building, the only stipulation being that it be built in Farwell, the county seat, and move the board to Bovina where it would be necessary to pay rent on a building.

Following Parham's motion, the vote was Parham and Gilbert Kaltwasser, board member from Farwell, for, and Lawrence Jamerson of Bovina and D.C. Herring of Friona, against. Board chairman David Grimsley of Friona voted against to break the tie.

Then Jamerson made the motion that the board accept the building that the city of Bovina has offered on a year-to-year basis. The city of Bovina will build a 30 x 40 foot building of 1200 square feet and lease it to the board. The Bovina bank has offered to finance the building for the city of Bovina at 6 percent interest.

At the end of the 20-year lease period the building would belong to the tax board, according to Kaltwasser. However, the board cannot legally obligate itself for longer than its term of office (January 1982 for this board), says Kaltwasser.

The vote of Jamerson's motion was as follows: Jamerson and Herring, for, and Kaltwasser and Parham, against. Again, Grimsley broke the tie with a for vote.

According to Kaltwasser, unless there is other action, the board will be housed in Bovina in a building leased from the city. "Farwell has more to offer," said Kaltwasser. "If we had accepted that building we could have been going about other business that we are here to do and not spend all this time getting into a building."

Present other than board members were Jerry Don Glover and Alfred Hicks of Lazbuddie, Bill Ellis of Friona, Lawrence Krieger of Bovina and Hugh Moseley of Farwell.

The next meeting of the Tax Appraisal Board will be a call meeting Monday, June 16, for the purpose of hiring a chief appraiser.

Texas Voters To Decide Run-off Election Saturday

Texas voters will again go to the polls tomorrow, Saturday, June 7, for the runoff election resulting from the May 3 democratic primary. The polls will be open in Parmer County from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. (CDT)

Locally, there is only one contested race for the runoff primary. The voters of Farwell and Oklahoma Lane will decide between incumbent Archie L. Tarter and Max C. Crim for County Commissioner, precinct three.

Parmer County polling places for the democratic primary runoff are the same as the ones for the May 3 primary. They are as follows: precinct one, Black, old Tri County office; precinct two, Friona, Friona High School; precinct three, Bovina, American Legion Hall; precinct four, Farwell, County Courtroom; precinct five, Lazbuddie, High School; precinct six, Oklahoma Lane, Oklahoma Lane Community Center; precinct seven, Rhea, Parish Hall of Lutheran Church; and precinct eight, Lakeview, Otho Whitefield house.

Statewide the runoff elections are as follows: Associate Justice, Supreme Court, place one, John C. Phillips and James P. (Jim) Wallace; Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, place two, Mike McCormick and W.T. Phillips; and Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, place three, Edith Roberts and Tom Davis.

Texico School Board Has Special Meetings

In a special meeting Friday, May 30, the Texico School Board continued discussion and considered applications for the positions of assistant football coach and varsity basketball coach for next year.

Other business included approval of monies for Title I, and the hiring of Mrs. Kay Warmuth as the high school principal's secretary. Mrs. Mary Powell, who formerly held the position, is to be the Title I aide.

In an earlier special meeting on May 16, David Lynn was hired as high school football coach. Lynn, his wife and children will be moving to Texico from Lamesa, where he has been teaching and coaching.

Board members present for both meetings included Arlye Crooks, Herman Gerles, Ronnie Curry, Greg Martin, and Mike Spearman.

Area Units Respond To Lariat Shed Fire

Two trucks and a rescue unit each from Farwell and Texico and two trucks from Clovis all responded to a fire at the Gregory Produce shed in Lariat Monday, June 3, at 12:57 p.m.

According to Buck Neal, spokesman for the Gregory potato shed, the cause of the fire was a stack of poly bags (potato sacks) that had been piled aside after the last fire which destroyed a large portion of the shed last August. The construction workers, who are rebuilding the shed in preparation for potato harvest, in an attempt to destroy the bags, set fire to them, at which time they exploded. "We thought the whole building would go again," said Neal. Fortunately, the only damage was a slightly singed conveyor belt on the outside of the building.

Farwell Fire Chief Joel White said that two trucks and a rescue unit from each Farwell and Texico responded to the blaze. "We didn't know what to expect," said White.

Bobby Williams, assistant fire chief from Clovis, said, "We were called by Texico and took two trucks. They thought it was a lot worse than it was. By the time we got there the fire was out."

PURELY
by John

From time to time some quick-witted soul comes up with a parody on some government action. We came across this little gem on the current oil control program as administered by the Department of Energy.

It is suggested that controls be imposed on milk prices. To implement these controls, the government would, of course, have to set up a council. The council would establish the following price control rules:

1. Old Milk - Any milk produced from a cow born on or before December 31, 1972. The milk can be sold at the May 1973 price adjusted for inflation.

2. New Milk - Any milk produced from a cow born on or after January 1, 1973. This milk can sell for the September 1975 price adjusted for inflation.

3. Stripper Milk - Any milk produced from a cow that makes less than 10 pints a day or alternately any milk produced by a group of cows that graze at a density of less than 10 per acre. This milk can sell at the 1979 uncontrolled price.

4. "New" New Milk - Any milk produced by a cow born after May 31, 1979, that grazes 2 1/2 miles from another cow or in a ravine a thousand feet deeper than the nearest cow. This milk can sell at the June 1, 1979, uncontrolled price, adjusted for inflation.

Two years after the implementation of the above price control rules, a study of all milk producers shall be conducted (cost to government not to exceed 740 million) to determine if milk producers are showing profits in excess of 3%.

If 10% or more are exceeding the 3% maximum, a windfall profit tax shall be imposed immediately to grab 60% of the gross income or 30% if the herd is comprised of 49 head or less.

The proceeds of this tax shall be disbursed wherever it will buy the most votes for the incumbent politicians.

This illustrates some of the incomprehensible rules and regulations imposed on the oil industry by that mega buck monster of bureaucracy called DOE. This has come about under the guise of keeping the price of oil and energy LOW, so we are not ripped off by the greedy oil companies. Just So!!!

Later comes that latter day genius who would impose an additional tax of 10 cents per gallon to RAISE the price of fuel so we won't use so much. Here is where Jimmy's chicanery peeps out from under the covers, because if raising the price of gasoline was the true purpose of the so-called "windfall profits" tax then just dismantling part of DOE would have the effect of raising the price of gasoline. It surely must raise the price of gasoline, because if the oil companies did raise their prices this would be proof that DOE was protecting us from high prices. If they didn't then DOE would be exposed for a massive fraud.

A little reflection shows that the 10 cents a gallon "profits tax" was just a sham to siphon additional billions of dollars out of the American public's pocket to toss into more and expanded vote buying social welfare schemes.

If there is any moral to this column it must be to go out and vote in November or be prepared to offer up even greater amounts of your wages to ever increasing socialistic programs.

Diplomacy is the ability to take something and act as if you were giving it away.

ENMR - - Telephone Building Under Construction

According to Robert Harris, general manager for Eastern New Mexico Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc., construction is well underway on the new Farwell facility.

Work on the $70,000 building is being temporarily held up because the construction crew is waiting on an order of steel bracing needed for the roof. The steel is expected in the next few days at which time work will continue.

Harris says that all the legal work is complete and the contract for ENMR to purchase the Farwell area from Mountain Bell has been approved. They are still waiting for the Public Utility Commission to set a date for the hearing, but Harris sees this as no obstacle.

Within the next few weeks, construction crews will begin burying cables and putting down new lines to many people who do not have service at this time, Harris said.

According to Harris, projected completion on the entire project is late September.

Q. Some sort of mineral deposit has made the South Seas island nation of Nauro the richest country in the world per capita. What is that deposit?

A. Bird droppings. Otherwise known as guano. Nauro's interior plateau in some places is under 80 feet of it.

Q. Is there really such a thing as "Kickapoo Joy Juice"?

Local Boys State Delegate To Arrive In Austin

The fortieth annual American Legion Boys State, sponsored by the State of Texas American Legion and held on the campus of University of Texas, will get underway tomorrow, June 7, as 957 high school boys from all parts of Texas begin registration, according to State Commander Mike D. Mireles of San Antonio.

Among those registering will be Clay Edwin Williams of Farwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams. Clay, a senior this fall at Farwell High School, will be under the sponsorship of the Friona American Legion Post. The trip is financed through the donations of individuals and organizations in Farwell.

Following the registration, each citizen will be assigned to one of two political parties - the Nationalist or Federalist. Each citizen then functions as a member of his party. He attends its precinct, county and state conventions and votes in its primary.

Boys State helps to develop civic leadership and pride in American citizenship. This program arouses a keen interest in the detailed study of our government. These civic workshops stress the importance of maintaining our form of government and brings about a better understanding of our national traditions and beliefs to the more than 28,000 young men throughout the nation who are participating this year.

In Boys State, The American Legion provides the type of program where the young citizen has an opportunity to learn for himself that his government is just what he makes it. The boy "learns to do by doing."

The program takes on added significance since the vote has been extended to 18-year-olds, as most Boys Staters are in the 16 to 17 age category.

Highlight of Boys State will be a trip to the Capitol next Friday morning where each elected Boys State Official will be given an opportunity to serve in his respective office for a day.

Texas Boys State enrollment this year brings the total to 23,783 high school juniors who have attended since 1940, when Boys State was first inaugurated in this state.

Health hints help players enjoy tennis

COLLEGE STATION — Tennis buffs preparing to return to the court as the weather becomes warmer should follow a few simple rules of good health, warns Dr. Allen Ashby, a Texas A&M University physical education expert.

Ashby recommends stretching exercises to loosen muscles before walking onto the court. He also suggests a brief warm-up period with both players standing in the smaller service courts. Other rules include stretching again after playing, drinking water after each game and scheduling games before 10 or 11 a.m. and after 6 p.m.

Dog bites cost millions

COLLEGE STATION — Dog bites cost Americans $50 million to $75 million a year in medical costs, lost income and torn clothing, experts reported at the Sixth Annual Animal Control Personnel Development Program held at Texas A&M University.

Eighty percent of all dog bites involve owned dogs, not strays. Less than half of these dogs were known to have been vaccinated against rabies.

Honey Isn't A Miracle Health Food

Most people agree that honey has more flavor than sugar, but everyone does not agree if it contains added benefits, says Mae Martha Johnson, Extension food and nutrition specialist at New Mexico State University.

Honey contains only very small amounts of vitamins and minerals, but nothing that isn't readily available from other foods. In fact, no sweetener contains any nutrients that you can't get from other, more beneficial foods.

At one time, diabetics were advised to use honey because of its high fructose content. Fructose is a form of sugar that can be absorbed directly into the cell without insulin.

But, researchers have found that, later in digestion, the fructose changed to glucose. That's the form of sugar diabetics can not tolerate. Therefore, honey is no longer considered a sugar substitute for diabetics.

Honey is simply a sweetener. It's good tasting -- but not a miracle worker. If, because of its flavor, you prefer it to table sugar, fine. But don't expect any great nutritional benefits, Mrs. Johnson says.

"Do not wish to be anything but what you are, and try to be that perfectly." St. Francis De Sales Gadgets like browning devices heap on energy consumption. For instance, in cooking beef patties energy increases ranged from 31 to 71 percent over cooking by microwave alone.

Time Extended For FmHA Borrowers To File Housing Compensation Claims

Some borrowers who received loans from the Farmers Home Administration to buy new homes during parts of 1976-77 have been given additional time to apply for compensation for structural defects which may have occurred in their homes.

A provision of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1979 authorizes those who received housing loans between April 12, 1976 and October 12, 1977 to make claims for construction defects until October 12, 1980, said W.H. Pieratt, State Director.

Since October 12, 1977, Farmers Home, the rural development service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, has offered a program of compensation for construction defects to its borrowers who purchase new homes. Borrowers can file claims for 18 months after they purchase homes.

If defects are noted in an FmHA-financed home, the borrower first should contact the builder or contractor who issued the builder's warranty to try to resolve the problem.

If problems cannot be resolved with builders and the defect "directly and significantly reduces the useful life or habitability of the dwelling," borrowers should contact the nearest FmHA County Office.

"Compensation can be made for defects which affect the basic components of a dwelling, such as its foundation, basement, walls, floors, framing or roof, or the heating system, water supply, or sewage disposal system," Pieratt said.

Farmers Home has advised its field offices to notify by letter all borrowers who may be eligible to file compensation claims during the extended period. The letters will inform borrowers how and when they may apply and explain the types of defects covered.

"Up to $5 million is available nationwide for compensation for structural defects during fiscal year 1980," Pieratt said. "However, the number of complaints is small. As of March 12, only $220,064 had been expended for 121 claims." He added that in fiscal year 1979, $1 million was allocated for the national program, but $383,188 was paid for 229 claims.

The home ownership program of Farmers Home is conducted through 148 county offices serving every rural county in Texas. The Agency's housing program - including home ownership, rental housing, farm labor housing, and site development - is budgeted at $152,375,000 for Texas during fiscal year 1980.

The Symposium will present latest information on feedstocks, preprocessing requirements, use as fuel in engines, by-product utilization, and legal, economic, and financial aspects of ethanol production.

Among speakers will be Dr. Neville P. Clarke, Director, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Dr. Wayne A. LePort, Agricultural Engineer, and Dr.

Spring - summer 1980 will be a fashion season of colorful casual simplicity. Everything is keyed to today's dual lifestyle: the dressed-up lifestyle and the fun-action lifestyle which is becoming more and more important to our good health and well-being.

In both lifestyles, a wonderful spectrum of color is the common denominator. Newest are the fresh pastels, soft, pretty and feminine. These "soda fountain" or "candy store" colors are perfect for blouses and dresses.

Super brights - the high voltage colors - are a second group. They are often mixed in bicolor and tricolor combinations for active sportswear.

Finally, there are the classic spectator neutrals. Chiefly black or navy plus white. These go anywhere, anytime to form the backbone of a super summer wardrobe.

The basic suit is back, better than ever. The newest suit look is the mismatched jacket and skirt. Jackets are more shapely, while skirts are slim, slit or pleated.

The ever-popular dilemma over skirt lengths is still around. While skirt lengths are noticeably shorter than last year, they are still very definitely knee covering.

In the fun-and-action line, sweatshirt fever has become epidemic! The lowly sweatshirt has come out of the gym and is now an international fashion look with long pants or shorts. Dresses are even taking on the sweatshirt look.

To sum it all up, the first spring-summer fashion season of the 1980's is one of wearable, understandable clothes, with just enough change and color to make it something new and different for you!

Professor gives energy-saving tips for summer weather

COLLEGE STATION - Homeowners and apartment residents can take two relatively inexpensive steps to reduce summer utility bills and save energy and dollars, says an architect and engineer.

Professor William H. Kellett advises checking doors, door thresholds, windows, wall outlets and soleplates for air leaks. Caulk, weather stripping and foam gaskets for electrical wall-plates provide the cure.

Air conditioner filters should be cleaned or replaced at least once a month, Kellett recommends. Major savings can also be obtained by cleaning the outside unit.

Energy Efficient Homes are different because each has extra insulation added throughout the walls, floor, and attic. They are built as structurally tight as possible to minimize air infiltration and leakage while maximizing energy savings.

Consider installing the energy saving heat pump for heating and cooling the home. The heat pump operates efficiently by delivering more heat in winter than energy used to produce it.

Musical Drama 'Texas' Opens Season June 18

The fifteenth cast and company assembled May 25 and took the first steps toward this year and season of the musical drama "TEXAS" which will play this summer in the Palo Duro Canyon from June 18 through August 23. As before, the schedule will be Monday through Saturday each week, and one Sunday performance on July 6.

Members of the company met for the first time. The third who were in the cast last year were greeting old friends and introducing themselves to the newcomers.

They discussed the responsibilities and contracts with the executive vice-president, Raymond Raillard, and the Director in charge, Royal Brantley.

They had photographs taken for the Souvenir Program and for group shots to send to their home towns. They turned in their short biographies for the Souvenir Program. And they gathered in a company meeting for introductions and orientation and discussions of plans for the rehearsal weeks.

They learned what musical director Doug McCause will expect. They met choreographer Neil Hess who explained that the daily warm ups start for everyone on Monday so that on opening night a singer can run 1/4 of a mile to his place on the stage and not be winded. And they met the office staff, the light and sound producers, and the technical crew.

Thirty cast members came from out of state: New Mexico, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Kansas, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey and Wisconsin.

Last year they studied in every kind of school from the academic St. John's College in Santa Fe, to the schools run by professional dance companies in New York. Some sent in pages of credits in theatrical productions. Others are just starting their careers.

There are descendants of early Texas ranchers, and people who have never been west before. There are people who have been singing professionally in opera, and the student director of Koinonia Klowns for Christ.

The grandson of one of the discoverers of Carlsbad Caverns is here, and the great grandson of Bailey Bingham who drove cattle on the Goodnight trail.

All these people have come together to tell the story of this area in the musical romance of the Texas Panhandle, "TEXAS." They will open on Wednesday, June 18, after three and a half weeks of intensive rehearsal.

Tickets for "TEXAS" cost from $3 to $6 for adults, half for children in most sections of the theatre. They cost slightly less on week days. It is well to make reservations in advance by writing "TEXAS," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or by calling 806-655-2181.

A barbecue dinner is served at the theatre each evening from 6:30 to 8:00 before each show by Sutphen's of Amarillo and Borger.

Comedian M. Kaplan In Lubbock Production

Comedian Marvin Kaplan, who plays the patient telephone repairman Henry on the CBS TV series "Alice," will be onstage at Country Squire Dinner Theatre in Lubbock June 10 through July 12 starring in the Sumner Arthur Long comedy "Never Too Late."

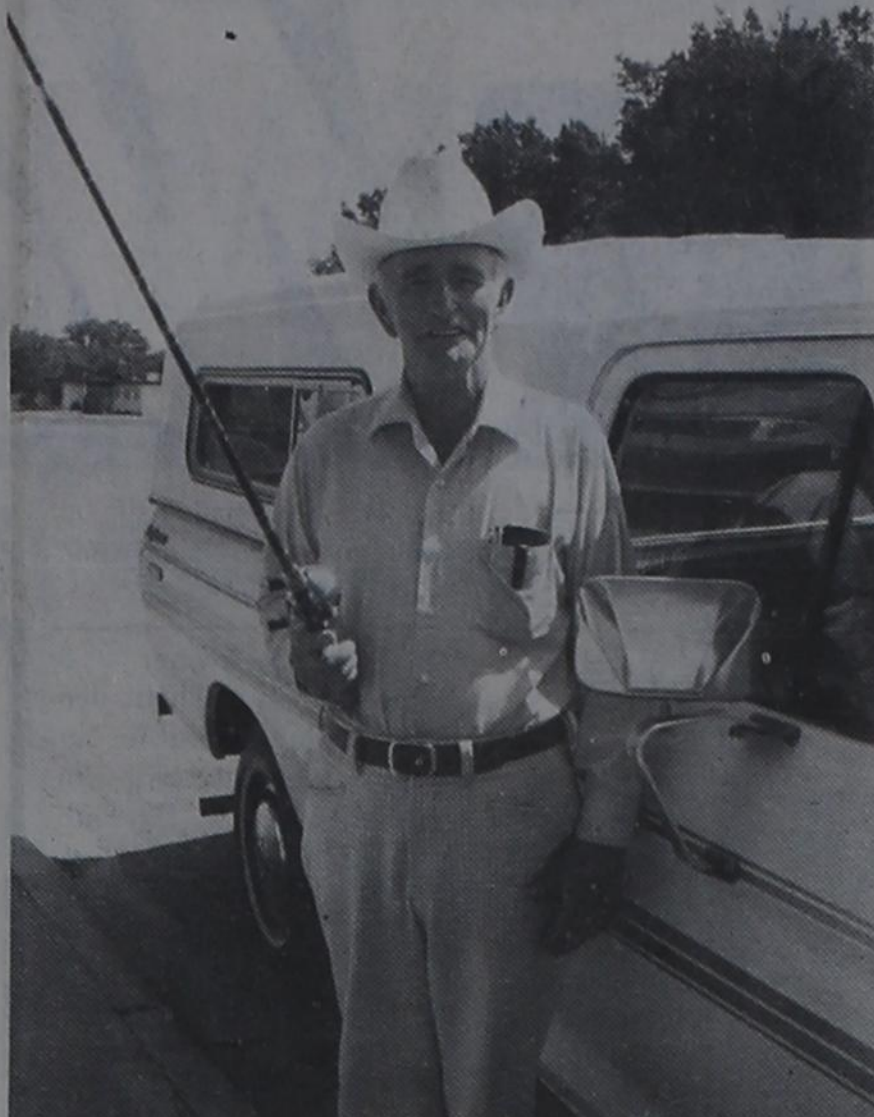

Discovered by Katharine Hepburn in 1949, Marvin Kaplan has enjoyed a unique career specializing in portraying lovable losers. His gallery of "failures" includes leading roles in "Last of the Red Hot Lovers," "Sunshine Boys," "Luv," and "Next."

Considered "comedy insurance" by producers and writers, Marvin appeared in such outstanding films as "Adam's Rib," "Francis," "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," and "Freaky Friday." He is probably best remembered by older TV audiences as poet Alfred E. Prinzmetal on the CBS live series, "Meet Millie." Typed in comedy, Marvin surprised audiences and critics with his dramatic portrayals in a prize-winning "Mod Squad" segment about Jewish slumlords and a "CHIPS" episode as a suicidal trucker.

On commercials, he has read Clio-winning 'Love Cosmetic' poems, socked people in the stomach as an Alka Seltzer villain, and beamed as 'Mr. Sun' on all Sun Giant raisins.

Tuesday through Saturday, buffet dinner service at Country Squire begins at 6:30 p.m. Sunday matinees have a buffet-line time of 12:30 p.m. Country Squire is located on Carlisle Road, just off the Brownfield Highway in Lubbock.

Going Fishing!

Asa Smith, recently retired after 31 years of service as manager of the Sherley Anderson Grain elevator at Lariat, plans to do a lot of the things he has always wanted to do now that he has the time. On the agenda for Smith's new leisure time are fishing, gardening, visiting his son's ranch in New Mexico, carpentry and repair work.

Asa Smith Retires From Lariat Elevator

Asa Smith of Lariat, who has been manager of the Sherley-Anderson Grain elevator at Lariat for the last 31 years, has retired as of June 1, 1980. He was manager of Henderson Grain and Seed from 1949 through 1951 and has been manager for Sherley-Anderson Grain at Lariat from 1952 through May 1980.

Smith and his wife Lois were managers of the Lariat post office until it closed. They have four children; Shirley Ware of Bovina, Joy Stancell who lives near Muleshoe, Larry Smith of Truth or Consequences and Sylvia Hand of Great Falls, Montana. They have 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Now that he has time, Smith plans to do a lot of fishing. Favorite places are Elephant Butte near Truth or Consequences, N.M., Lake Palestine in east Texas and Ute Lake in New Mexico. Other hobbies include gardening, enjoying his son's ranch in New Mexico and carpentry and repair work.

The new manager of the Lariat elevator is Lonnie McFarland. McFarland has been with Sherley-Anderson Grain for about six years and served as bookkeeper prior to assuming the position as manager.

Computers analyze oil spill effects

COLLEGE STATION — Computers at Texas A&M University will analyze information gathered by biologists studying effects of oil spills on the fragile tundra near the trans-Alaskan pipeline.

Findings compiled by scientists at three other universities and analyzed here this summer will be forwarded to the Department of Energy as part of a report on effects of oil on tundra.

Computers here will reveal any major differences in the effects of oil spills on soil, fungi, nitrogen and phosphorus compared to areas where no petroleum is present.

'Viva! El Paso!' Production Set

Out in the West Texas town of El Paso a major event occurs every summer informing and reminding all who attend of the rich heritage of the Southwest. This event is "VIVA! EL PASO!" a two-act outdoor spectacular that blends Indian, Spanish, Mexican and Western influences to display the unique environment of The International City, El Paso, Texas.

Now scheduled for its third season, "VIVA! EL PASO!" will run at the McKelligon Canyon Amphitheater, at 8:30 p.m., Wednesdays through Saturdays from July 9-August 30.

This historical pageant was first presented in the summer of 1978 in cooperation with the City and County of El Paso replacing a production entitled, "El Paso del Norte Outdoor Drama." CETA funding was crucial that year and continues to be in order to hire the large cast and crew needed to fill the playbill. A full time year around staff administers the activities that lead to the eight weeks of performance.

A cast of 80 undergoes rigorous training along with rehearsals and continues with workshop sessions to insure their development as performers. Instructors in voice, drama, and dance work with six supervisors to oversee the training, discipline and growth of each participant throughout the summer.

"VIVA! EL PASO!" is presented in four segments implementing the dances and music of four cultures to depict their influences on the border city. The ceremonial rituals of the Indians, the pomp and circumstance of the Spaniards, the colorful festivities of the Mexicans, and the hardy ruggedness of the pioneering cowboys are brought to life through the use of music, high kicks, youth and vigor.

The McKelligon Canyon itself is a historic site, home-steaded in the 1800's by pioneer Maurice J. McKelligon. It has been said that it may have been used by cattle rustlers operating in New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma to hold the stolen merchandise in the canyon until a clear crossing could be assured. In the 1930's the County of El Paso purchased the land from a conglomerate of real estate holding companies and has since continued to develop it as a recreational site with paths for hikers and joggers and enclosed picnic areas for the less active.

In 1975 the City and County of El Paso joined forces to put CETA funds to use in developing a 1500 seat amphitheater that was christened in 1976 and is now the home of "VIVA! EL PASO!" Tourists who visit the rock-hewn structure are impressed by the 1600 foot mountain peak that serves as the backdrop of the two-hour long production in the only amphitheatre in the nation located in the heart of the city. The drive into the performing area is just three miles from the mouth of the main road and a ramp leads to the box office and front entrances for easy access.

Attendance at VIVA! EL PASO! has been over 40,000 in two seasons and many more people have attended other performances in the canyon given by the El Paso Symphony Orchestra, Ballet El Paso and other performing groups.

"VIVA! EL PASO!" is one of four outdoor dramas in Texas along with TEXAS in Palo Duro Canyon, BEYOND THE SUNDOWN in Livingston, Texas and THE LONE STAR in Galveston.

Reservations are available now with special rates for groups. Information may be obtained by contacting the VIVA! EL PASO! offices in El Paso, Texas at 533-1671. Or write VIVA! EL PASO!, 1301 Texas, El Paso, Texas 79901.

HOUSTON OILER'S EARL CAMPBELL

The first human cannonball act was performed in London back in 1877 by Zazel, billed as "the beautiful lady fired from a monstrous cannon." She did her act every day for two years without mishap and earned about $600 a week.

Earl Campbell To Be Honored With 'Texan Of Year' Award

Texas newspapers will present Houston Oiler famed running back, Earl Campbell, with its highest honor during the Centennial Convention of the Texas Press Association June 21 in Houston.

Campbell, who has broken all NFL records in yards gained in rushing during his two years on the Oiler team will be the eleventh Texan to be named "Texan of the Year" by the century-old association, composed of 575 Texas weeklies and dailies.

Presenting the award will be TPA President Bill Dozier, publisher of the Kerrville Daily Times.

The Texan of the Year Award is not an annual award, said Dozier. It is given when the Association wants to honor a native-born son or daughter who has brought fame to the state while bringing prominence to themselves in their respective fields of endeavor.

In the past, Texan of the Year has been given to only 10 persons, among them the late Dan Blocker, Dale Evans, C.B. (Tex) Thornton, Al Ludden, Ray Berry, Alan Bean, Phyllis George.

Campbell is considered to be the "most awarded" Texas football player and applauded as the greatest running back in football history. He began his career as a member of the Longhorn team at the University of Texas, Austin, receiving the famed Heisman Trophy.

When he went into pro football, Campbell was named Rookie of the Year in the NFL League and the two years he has played pro ball has been named NFL Most Valuable Player.

The celebrated pro will attend TPA's concluding luncheon to receive his award. Invited to attend are his mother, Ann Campbell, of Tyler, and his wife (he is to be married in early June). Guest speaker for the luncheon will be Governor Bill Clements.

Dozier said Campbell well met qualifications the press association has set up for recipients of the high award: good humor, talent, warm heart, friendly personality, greatness of character and highly regarded in his chosen profession.

Texas Press Association's Centennial Convention is set for June 19-21 at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel in Houston, which was the city of the organization's founding in 1880.

In addition to Governor Clements, featured speakers at the convention include Norman Isaacs, head of the National News Council, New York; Jack Landau, director of the Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Senator John Tower.

Dear Still:
Since melons are beginning to show up now too, try serving a 1 or 2 inch cross-wise slice of cantaloupe or honeydew melon with sugared strawberries in the middle.

Dear Shopping:
Usually it is better to pick a convenient and reasonable priced store and stay with it. The larger supermarkets, whether they are independent or chain stores, are able to offer lower prices than small stores because of volume. Larger stores are also able to offer greater variety.

With the high price of gasoline, location of the store becomes more important than ever before. It may be more economical to pay a little more for an item at a store close to home than to drive across town for a bargain.

However, this does not mean that you shouldn't check the newspaper for specials at other stores. Errands or other shopping may take you near enough to make it worth your while.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEAUM BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

"THE SECRET OF SPIRITUAL VICTORY"

Believers in Christ have been made "free from sin" by grace (Rom. 5:14, 18) in the sense that they need not, indeed, should not, yield to sin when temptation arises (Rom. 6:12,13). Believers have also been made "free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2) for Christ, in grace, bore the death penalty for them.

But no believer is free from what Paul calls "the law of sin which is my members," that is, the old Adamic nature, with its inherent tendency to do wrong. Nor is he free from the conflict with the new nature which this involves. If the Christian would be truly spiritual and deal in a Scriptural way with the sin that indwells him, he must clearly recognize its presence; he must face the fact that while, thank God he is no longer "in sin," sin is still in him.

But this conflict should not discourage us, for it is one of the true signs of salvation. It is unknown to the unbeliever, for only the additional presence of the new nature, along with the old, causes this conflict. For the Bible says about these two natures: "these are contrary the one to the other."

But not only is this conflict within the believer a sure sign of salvation; it also creates within him a deep and necessary sense of our inward imperfection and of the infinite grace of a holy God in saving us and ministering to us daily in helping us to overcome sin. And this in turn gives us a more understanding approach as we proclaim to the lost "the gospel of the grace of God."

Paul's epistles show clearly that there is nothing that will so help us to overcome sin and live pleasing to God as an understanding and an appreciation of what He has done for us in Christ. As we are occupied with these "things of the Spirit" we find ourselves "walking in the Spirit," and Gal. 5:16 says: "Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh." How much better to have our lives transformed by occupation with Christ (II Cor. 3:18) and our position and blessings in the heavens with Him (Col. 3:1-3) than to assume the hopeless task of trying to improve the "old nature"; always engaged in introspection; always occupied with the flesh!

Hooking Rugs Hobby For Howard Mayfield

by Sam Miller

Blackburn of Albuquerque, and Dorothy Lovelace and Peggy Snider, both of Farwell. He also has five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

In spite of his advanced years, Mr. Mayfield lives alone. He does most of his own housekeeping except for what's done by a lady who comes in once a week, and all of his own cooking. "I don't really like to cook, but I do enough to get by," he says with a twinkle in his eye.

About living alone, Mr. Mayfield says, "Those nursing homes are just too expensive. I don't know how anyone can afford to go there. Besides, I don't want to," he laughs.

Mr. Mayfield also enjoys puttering around his yard and fishing. "I can't go fishing by myself anymore," he says, "but I have some friends who take me whenever they go."

This man should be an example to a lot of people. He has found a productive hobby to take up a lot of spare time instead of complaining of having nothing to do. Undoubtedly, his friends and other recipients of these creations are more than delighted with his hobby.

"It keeps me busy," he smiles.

Unusual Hobby

Howard Mayfield of Friona keeps himself busy by hooking rugs. His creations are certainly appreciated by friends and family alike. This 85-year-old active citizen has been hooking rugs for the past eight years and in that time has turned out 18 rugs similar to the one shown. He is the father of Peggy Snider and Dorothy Lovelace, both of Farwell.

Shade trees allow natural cooling system

COLLEGE STATION — One of the best ways to cut air conditioning costs is with nature's own cooling system — shade trees — say Texas A&M University researchers.

It will take more than one tree to produce the canopy effect needed, but some trees can reach 15 feet in less than three years.

Air conditioning accounts for 20 percent of all home energy use in Texas, compared to the national average of under 5 percent.
