

CC Banquet Comes Monday Night

The largest social event ever attempted by the Farwell Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for Monday night, February 20, at the Farwell school, when the businessmen's organization will sponsor a banquet celebration of its fifth anniversary.

Featured guest speaker on the program will be J. Everts Haley, of Canyon, a widely-noted historian and writer of the Plains country. Aside from offering an opportunity to hear an excellent speaker, the program will be well-rounded with a variety of entertainment provided by Mrs. Erma Jobs and the Farwell school band.

The banquet is to be held in the school auditorium, and will begin at 8 o'clock, according to Robert Anderson, secretary for the Chamber. Advance ticket sales are being pushed, but door admissions will be sold. Anderson pointed out. The Band Mothers Club will have charge of preparing and serving the meal.

Anderson emphasized that the dinner is a non-profit affair so far as the CC is concerned with all proceeds going to the band to help pay for new uniforms.

Out-of-town invitations have been extended to Amarillo, Lubbock, Bovina, Canyon, Friona, Portales, Clovis, Muleshoe, Dimmitt and Hereford CC organizations, and indications are that a number of visitors from outside the Twin Cities will be present.

C. O. Greene, of Clovis, has accepted the job of serving as toastmaster, officials reported. After the call to order by Greene, and an invocation, the band will play "The Star Spangled Banner."

President C. M. Henderson is slated to offer a short welcome address, and will also outline progress made by the Chamber since its origin in 1946.

Mrs. Jobs, director of the band, will play a piano solo, and members of the band are to entertain with a floor show.

Toastmaster Greene will introduce guests and new officers of the Chamber, and will also present Haley, the principal speaker.

Winding up the affair, the band will offer the school's Alma Mater, and Toastmaster Greene will close the program.

Commissioners Court Has Regular Session

In a regular meeting of the Parmer County Commissioners' Court on Monday, members approved the county depository pledge contract with Friona State Bank, pledging $90,000 in U. S. Treasury notes to secure Parmer County funds and $20,000 for school funds.

The group voted to reimburse the Lazbuddy Independent School District for the money paid out on the right-of-way in front of the school building, the amount of $317.50 to be paid from Precinct 4 funds.

Deputies salaries were also fixed at the meeting.

Brother Bovina Man Is Killed In Crash

George Munoz, 30, brother of Leo Munoz of Bovina, was killed instantly in a car wreck near Montoya, N. M., Friday night, it has been reported.

Munoz, who lived in Tucumcari, was riding in a car with Cristobal Chavez, 31, when it crashed into a concrete bridge to make way for an oncoming truck. Both men were killed outright.

Other survivors of the deceased Munoz are a brother, Eddie, of Clovis; and a sister, Mrs. Virginia M. Martinez, of Tucumcari. Funeral arrangements were incomplete the first of the week.

Garbage Fees Are Slow In Texico

Mayor Orval Francis of Texico reminded citizens this week that the Jones brothers are continuing their garbage pickup service and asked that local people pay their fees as soon as possible.

The garbage fees have been moving slowly, Francis pointed out, adding that payments were due at the first of the year. Charges are $50 per month for residences and $1 per month for businesses.

Citizens may pay the fee at the clerk's office.

POLL TAXES PAID

Employees of the tax collector's office reported this week that 1498 poll tax receipts were issued for 1951 with 24 exemptions. Deadline for poll tax payments came Feb. 1st.

"UNCLE JAY" WILL SPEAK AT COUNTY FARM BUREAU REPORT PARTY, 20TH

Johnny Lynn, better known as "Uncle Jay" of KGNC in Amarillo will be principal speaker at the report party, which will officially end the membership drive of Parmer County Farm Bureau, February 20.

The organization, which now has 375 members, is currently engaged in a drive to sign up 400 additional farmers as members of the group.

On Monday of this week, 203 members had been signed up, with another week to go on the drive. Forty-five farmers in Lazbuddy community became new members of the Bureau; with 46 from Farwell; 19 at Bovina; 53 from Friona; and 40 from Rhea. Black's report had not been received.

Workers are divided into teams, with prizes to be presented to the group gaining the most members. First place winners will receive stoneware hats; second place, billfolds; and third place, three gallon allotments of anti-freeze.

Prizes will be presented at the report party, when winners will be announced and figures tabulated.

The local Farm Bureau was organized in November of 1948, Bruce Parr, president says. Past presidents are Charlie Thompson and Roy Miller, and past vice presidents are Fred Bolton and Harold Carpenter.

Farm Bureau members began a canvass of Parmer County Friday morning, with teams appointed for a concerted one-day coverage of the entire county. The organization is endorsing the rural telephone bill and members are also signing up applications for the RTA.

Each worker carries a packet with a list of those who have already subscribed to the system, in hopes of stepping up response to the telephone installation in this area.

Kick-Off Banquet Staged

The Farm Bureau workers held their kick-off banquet for the membership drive Thursday night at the American Legion hall in Friona with approximately 90 members attending.

Marvin Carter, state organization director, gave the principal address of the evening. He stated "Farm Bureau is an organization of farmers, paid for by farmers, and to do what farmers want done." He briefly outlined the history of the organization and discussed the benefits gained by Farm Bureau members.

Melvin Sachs, chairman to organize the membership drive, stressed the Farm Bureau issues, including an increase in sorghum grain prices, the fight against a bill which would eliminate the tax rebate to farmers on tractor gas, and support of the Rural Telephone association in this area.

A discussion was held on the subject of rural telephones with a question and answer period.

Bruce Parr introduced the officers and directors of the group, and emphasized the purpose of the meeting, to acquaint members with facts and figures of the organization.

The Parmer County kick-off meeting was the first in a series held by 14 counties in the South Plains, with similar membership drives underway.

The Friona Legion Auxiliary served the meal which included a menu of ham, beans, tossed salad, sweet potatoes, pickles, hot rolls, cherry cobbler, and coffee.

Mother Of Local Lady Breaks Arm In Fall

Mrs. F. E. Garner, mother of Mrs. Mutt Magness of this city, who resides in Snyder, Texas, received a broken arm in a fall from an automobile, the first of last week.

Mrs. Garner, age 60, started to step from the car when her foot slipped and she fell, her right elbow taking the brunt of the blow. A compound fracture of the elbow was revealed.

Mr. and Mrs. Magness and sons spent Sunday visiting with the accident victim and reported early this week that she was recuperating nicely, although she suffered considerable pain from the fracture.

IN CAMP CHAFFEE

Max Ford and Junior Robertson who entered the armed forces at the same time, are stationed in the same army camp. They are at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Travis Brown, who has been confined to the Portales hospital for the past two weeks, came home Friday. His condition is unchanged.

Vernon Lewis Meets Gov. Ed Mechem In Santa Fe Saturday

"He's a pretty good fellow," was Vernon Lewis' reaction to Edwin Mechem, governor of New Mexico, whom the Texico boy met in Santa Fe last weekend.

Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, was Boy Scout representative from the Plains area to report to the governor on Scout work in this area. The report was scheduled in conjunction with Boy Scout week.

The Texico boy met four other Scouts in Clovis, Friday, leaving for the state capitol that morning. Included in the group was David Williams of Hobbs; Duane Scott, Tucumcari; Johnny Isabel, Portales; Lewis, and Joul Harris, Scout executive from Hobbs, who accompanied the boys. All five boys were senior patrol leaders, holding Star rank.

Arriving in Santa Fe about 4 o'clock, the boys went to the United States Indian school, where they stayed during their visit in Santa Fe. They attended a school basketball game that evening.

On Saturday morning, the Scouts met at the court house, and the group from the entire state marched the seven or eight blocks to the capitol building. Around 60 Scouts were present, Lewis said.

The Texico boy was the first Scout to have an audience with the governor. He discussed the number of Scout troops in the state, and talked about the cub and explorer groups. Other boys then gave their reports. Discussing the event, Lewis said, "I was a little nervous, but not as excited as some of the boys... two of them fainted."

Gov. Mechem commended the boys on the leadership and work over the past year, the Texico Scout said, and each boy shook hands with the executive. They were with Gov. Mechem for approximately an hour and a half. Refreshments of doughnuts and punch were served to the group.

While in Santa Fe, the Scouts visited several celebrated places, Lewis said, including St. Francis cathedral, the old governor's mansion, and the art museum. They returned to Clovis Saturday afternoon.

Discussing the trip, Lewis added, "I'll always remember it."

Waterworks Company Puts In Tank Valves

Workmen of the local Waterworks Company were busy for better than eight hours, Sunday afternoon and evening, when they rushed through the installation of valves that will tie in the Santa Fe tanks to the Twin City water system.

"We had a lot of trouble getting the valves in," complained V. C. Venable, water superintendent. "We had three men from Stockton Construction Company helping us, and finally had to call in another man from Clovis before we could finish."

After installation of the valves, there remains the job of piping the water from the Santa Fe storage tanks, recently leased by the waterworks, to the Texico water mains. However, Venable did not anticipate as much difficulty with this job.

Mrs. Bert Williams Dies In Oklahoma

Mrs. Bert S. Williams of Hollis, Okla. passed away at 6 o'clock Friday morning. She was the mother of Jack, Johnny, and Willie Williams, Mrs. M. A. Snider, and Roy Sheriff, all of Farwell.

Mrs. Williams had been ill for the past year and one-half.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Hollis. Local people attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Williams, Bert Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Snider, Jack Williams, M. A. Snider Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheriff and Dwight.

OPEN FIVE YEARS

Jim's Cafe celebrated its fifth year as a Texico business house Tuesday. The establishment was opened February 13, 1946, by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore, and is still operated by the Moores.

Warns Water Users To Draw Up Supply

V. C. Venable, water superintendent of the local Waterworks, announced this week that it would be advisable for local customers to draw some extra water every morning and store it for their needs during the day.

The measure should be taken, Venable pointed out, to insure against a sudden interruption in service while the new sewer system is being installed.

"We're not planning any interruptions," he said, "but lately we have come very near to having trouble, and it may be that service will be interrupted."

The waterless Sunday afternoon just passed is not attributed to the sewer system, however. Workmen were busy installing a valve at the Santa Fe tanks in Texico.

Little But Loud Thats February

Not to be outdone by months that are allotted more days on the calendar, the shortest month of the year has outdone itself already in the wide range of weather offered the country.

With the month only half gone, Parmer Countians have threatened to start spring gardens and then, within a matter of hours, have hauled their long-handled and heavy coats out of storage to protect against bone-chilling weather.

Locally, Santa Fe thermometer readings have gone up and down so fast the readers are dizzy. On Sunday of this week, for instance, the mercury climbed to what is thought to be an all-time high of 80 degrees—at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon the temperature stood at 72 and just six hours later, at 11 p. m., had plunged to a scant 26 above zero.

Tuesday morning's reading stood at a crisp 15, with a howling north wind emphasizing the cold.

Just a little over a week ago, the area experienced more than three days of below-zero weather, with readings ranging from 2 to 22 below zero from various points in this immediate vicinity.

Slight snow flurries accompanied the mercury drop the first of this week, but no moisture was realized. Weathermen predicted that temperatures would begin to warm up late Wednesday or Thursday.

Pre-Easter Revival Slated, March 11-25

The Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church has scheduled its annual spring revival to begin on Sunday morning, March 11th, and conclude on Easter Sunday morning, March 25th.

Bro. J. E. Cochran of Shawnee, Oklahoma, who is widely known for his spiritualevangelistic preaching, will be the visiting speaker during the two-week revival.

Special music and singing will be directed by local talent. Rev. A. D. Moore, pastor of the church extended a cordial invitation to the general public to plan to attend the services, which will be held nightly at 7 o'clock.

Henderson Returns From Garden City

C. M. Henderson of Farwell returned Wednesday of last week from Garden City, Kans., where he attended the formal opening of the Garden Grain and Seed Company.

Henderson's Garden City holdings have been moved into new quarters, and are housed in a building formerly occupied by Swift and Company. The grain dealer said he had been in the process of moving for some time, and will include in the new offices both retail and wholesale divisions of business.

Henderson remarked that "although the weather was plenty cold, we had a very gratifying turnout for the formal opening of our place."

Rev. Hurst Returns From Dallas Meet

Rev. Lance Hurst returned last weekend from Dallas, where he attended the 60th session of Minister's Week and the dedication of Perkins School of Theology on the Southern Methodist University campus.

The program for the conference began Monday and continued until Thursday, with several noted speakers appearing on the lecture program.

FROM THE HOPPER

By LITTLE HOP

The oldest couple-in-residence of the Twin Cities, and probably for miles around, passed their Golden Wedding anniversary last week. They are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kyker, who now live in south Farwell.

If there ever was a familiar face in Texico-Farwell, it would be Bob's, because he stood at his barber post for about 45 years, cutting hair and shaving citizens from their youth to their graves.

Some of Bob's own story is contained elsewhere in the paper, but there are a number of his acquaintances here in town that can tell a few on the pioneer barber, too.

A rumor that Bob has never been able to run away from, is that back in 1905 when he first rode into Texico, he hitched his mount to the post, and ambled inside the nearest building in search of a job. It happened to be a barber shop.

"How about a job?" he asked the barber in charge.

"Ever done any barbering before?" came the answer as the barber straightened from his work, cleaning the straightedge.

"Oh—I dunno—sheared a few sheep, I guess," replied Bob.

"Well," said the barber, scratching his head, "we need another man. Wash up and get to work."

And Bob sheared people for the next 45 years.

Editor Graham was asked last week if he didn't wish he was up and around enough to go to the sheriff's sale where he might pick up a lot or two at a pretty good price.

"Me go to that sale?" he snorted in disgust. "Why you're crazy. I looked over the whole blame works, and there wasn't a single cemetery lot for sale!"

Irrigation Program Planned Tomorrow At Farwell

Program for the long-planned Parmer County irrigation day will get underway at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning (Thursday) and will run until approximately 4 o'clock, County Agent Joe Jones reminds. All interested county residents are urged to attend the meeting, Jones adds.

Farming authorities will discuss the latest developments in fertilization, general irrigation practices, and planting of legumes.

The program, which will be held in the district court room in Farwell, is sponsored by the Extension Service and the Parmer County SCS.

Farwell's Chamber of Commerce will serve as hosts at noon to all attendants, the feed to be given in the school cafeteria, and served by band members.

Duke Thornton, agricultural chemist with the Extension Service at College Station, will speak on soil fertility; and Miles Kelly, Hereford engineer with the SCS, will discuss level irrigation and explain the part soil conservation pays in farming practices.

A member of the Soil Conservation board of supervisors in Parmer is to take up the operation of the SCS district; Joe Camp, secretary of the PMA, will explain 1951 practices; and Bob Thurman, extension irrigationist of Lubbock, will speak on water application.

Chamber Commerce Re-elects All Posts

Voters must have been satisfied with the way their officers ran the Farwell Chamber of Commerce last year, because on Thursday night they re-elected all four chief officeholders for another term.

Returning as president is C. M. Henderson, and other officers include O. C. Sikes, vice president; Robert Anderson, secretary; and G. D. Anderson, treasurer. All except G. D. Anderson also hold positions on the board of directors.

Named to the board of directors at the meeting were Hamlin Overstreet, C. G. Davis, Joe Crum, Otis Huggins, Joe Helton and Ray Mears.

Three Boys Will Be Inducted, 14 Take Draft Physicals

Three Parmer County boys will go for their induction tomorrow (Thursday), according to a release from the Hereford draft board. They will leave Hereford by regular bus at 9:07 a. m. and be sent to Amarillo for their induction into the service and sent to camp from there.

Included in this group are Clarence E. Veazey, Friona; Stacy Queen, Bovina and Edwin R. Hart, Farwell.

Fourteen Parmer boys were scheduled for physical examinations yesterday (Tuesday). Seventy men, the largest group ever to leave from the Hereford district, were called for physicals from the entire draft area.

Those from Parmer county were: G. A. Collier, Jr., Loyd George Messinger, James Loyd Pope, Lawrence Jesko, and Haskell Allen Durfur, all of Friona.

Melvin Dwight Venable, Marion Glenis Hughes, William Halbert Graham Jr., William Ray Magness, and Geo. Paxton Young, all of Farwell; Troy Lee McKillip of Texico. John Daryl Freeman and Billy John Thorn, both of Lazbuddy; and Bobby Kelly of Bovina.

What, Another One? Which Way Now, Jack?

People are accustomed to reading about what a tough time college football coaches have been having recently, but the high school coach, most readers unknowingly assume, is having an easy time of it.

Not so for Jack Williams, superintendent of Farwell Schools, who also doubles as the coach of a very successful girls' basketball team. Last week he found out that another member of his team would be unable to return to play any longer.

She is Dot Kent, who doctors advise not to play any more basketball, and she is the third of the sextette to be sidelined since the first of the season.

The other two are Irene Hardage, who broke her leg in an accident, and Janean Lunsford, who left school to be married.

Asked how he felt about losing half of his first-string team in so short a time, Jack wistfully replied, "Well, I don't know... we'll have to wait until after our next games to see."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Magness spent the past week in Edinburg, Texas, with his brother, Si, and family.

County Agent Jones Urges Farmers to Buy Cottonseed at Present

County Agent Joe Jones urges farmers in the area to make arrangements for their cottonseed now.

In addition to the available registered and certified seed, good gin run seed of the adopted varieties should be saved, Jones adds.

Discussing the cottonseed situation, Jones states that farmers should check their own seed and not allow seed to heat. Small lots should be stirred with a seed fork. Those stored in warehouses should be checked and if necessary stored in a building where air can be pulled through them.

When seeds are cut with a knife, the inside should be light grey in color. Also, 100 samples should be planted, or germination tests be run to determine if a thicker rate of planting is necessary.

Seed treating recommendations should be followed, the county agent says.

Also Jones recommends that farmers not only lay away cottonseed, but fertilizer as well. Although the domestic fertilizer supply is expected to exceed last year's, the increased supply does not mean that every crop producing area will have an adequate amount when it needs it.

Therefore, farmers should purchase their supplies now and store them for future use during the peak season. Well-cured fertilizer does not cake, Jones explains.

There are not enough railroad cars and transportation facilities are not adequate to move the fertilizers to farmers in a short time, so early purchasers will help relieve the situation and will assure every user a good supply.

On storing the fertilizer, Jones adds that a dry, well-ventilated barn should be selected so there will not be decomposition. Where necessary, it is advisable to cover the fertilizer with dry hay and place it on a false bottom to allow ventilation underneath.

Cotton Insecticides

Also on the "don't wait" list are cotton insecticides. The supply ran short in 1950 and the same problem may be encountered this year, Jones says. Most manufacturers increased their production to the limit last year and the supply of basic raw materials such as chlorine and benzene are in tight supply, and probably will remain so for a considerable period, Jones believes.

Dusts and sprays can be safely stored without loss of strength and quality. Dusts should be stored in a dry place and spraying equipment should be handled carefully to avoid denting or bending metal containers.

Containers are lined with a protective coating to prevent corrosion. However, if this is damaged, some loss due to corrosion may result. With a supply shortage in view, prices will be as cheap now as next spring, Jones believes.

As a last reminder, the county agent recommends that farmers make repairs early on farm machinery and place orders for new parts, attachments, and other equipment.

Assembly Features Safety Education Heads

The safety education class at Texico is sponsoring a special program, Tuesday, February 20, featuring state safety education heads, it is announced by John Adams, class instructor.

J. T. Holmes, head of the safety education department of the state of New Mexico, and Lindsey Root, assistant administrator of the state highway department, will be featured on the program.

A movie will be shown on safety education, and traffic regulations will be emphasized, Adams states.

Texico Students Will Observe FFA Week

National FFA week will be observed by members of the Texico chapter of the organization, Feb. 17-24, Carl Schmitt, agriculture instructor, says.

This week was chosen by the organization because Washington's birthday falls in the period, and he was particularly interested in farming. Purpose of the observance is to emphasize the activities of the group.

The Texico chapter plans to initiate greenhands at school assembly on February 15, and to erect an exhibition in downtown Texico, Schmitt adds.

IRENE HARDAGE IMPROVES

Irene Hardage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hardage, was returned to a hospital last week for further treatment of a broken leg, suffered some time ago in a car accident.

Irene's friends at Farwell school reported that she had gone to have one of the two splicing pegs in the broken limb removed, and she is expected back in school soon.

For several weeks, it has been necessary for the popular high school girl to use crutches. She is now resting at her home in Farwell.

SAILS FROM ITALY

Mrs. Ethel Morrison of Texico has recently received a letter to the effect that her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Billy Morrison, whose home is in Italy, would sail for the States on February 22.

OH, FOR THE LIFE OF AN EDITOR . . . this kind of life, that is, Hop Graham, still retaining his title of editor of The Tribune, despite the fact that he hasn't been near the shop for some six weeks, looks quizzically at staff members who invaded his bedroom to snap his picture. The editor was returned to his home in Farwell last week after a month-long stay at a Clovis hospital for treatment of a heart condition, and here proves the fact that he is "up", if not "at 'em".

Parmer County PMA Releases 1950 Data

Government loans on farm-stored and warehouse-stored wheat were approximately 16 times greater in 1949 than in 1950, and loans on both classes of grain sorghums in 1949 were more than double those in 1950.

These figures for 1950 were released by the Parmer County branch of Production and Marketing Administration last week.

Farm-stored wheat — 13 applications, 11 disbursements on 21,964 bushels for $42,805.97. Warehouse-stored wheat — 63 applications, 63 disbursements on 52,805.04 bushels for $103,015.04.

Farm-stored grain sorghum — 63 applications, 52 disbursements on 12,022,800 pounds for $214,732.44. Warehouse-stored grain sorghum — 1190 applications, 1172 disbursements on 140,313,106 pounds for $2,619,060.30.

Joe Camp, secretary of the PMA, reported that total sorghum loans for 1949 were approximately 3000, wheat loans, 1300, and approximately $9,000,000 on both the above in 1949.

Student Council Releases Menus

The Student Council of Farwell schools has released menus for the cafeteria for the remainder of this week. Today (Wednesday), the meal includes roast beef and gravy, candied yams, green beans, cranberry sauce, fruit jello, peanut butter cookies, and milk.

Thursday, children will sit down to a meal of salmon loaf, sauerkraut, breaded tomatoes, carrot strips, plain cake, apple sauce, and milk.

At noon Friday they will be served meat loaf with tomato sauce, mashed potatoes, English peas, lettuce salad, blackberry cobbler and milk.

"SON of Man, whenever I doubt of life I think of Thee." So wrote George Matheson in his blindness. Whenever you and I doubt either God or man, we should do well to think of Jesus. His Cross is a symbol both of what God is and what we may become. The proud Roman at the foot of the cross was compelled to say, "This man was a Son of God."

JESUS was supremely a man of faith . . . knowing what was in both man and God he had great faith in both. We have faith in God largely because we must have Him; we are not sufficient unto ourselves. Faith can overcome the most miserable circumstances . . . overcome despair.

LIFE becomes a radiant thing for people of faith, since they see deeper into the secrets of life. The universe opens its heart to eyes of faith; closed doors swing ajar when faithful steps approach; loving spirits smile their welcome to trustworthy souls; latent powers blossom in the presence of fidelity; young children and wise old age give themselves with abandon to those who offer them confidence; God waits to shower His blessings on men who can be trusted. Of the Pilgrims of yesterday, guided by the Divine, it was said, "They were MEN OF FAITH AND VERY SURE OF GOD."

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for Good.

SPECIAL LENT SERVICES ARE BEING HELD AT LOCAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Special services noting the Lenten season preceding the celebration of Easter Sunday, on March 25th, began at the Friona Congregational Church on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. George E. Meyer announces.

Title for the sermon series is "The Ladder of Lights", based on the beatitudes of the Bible. On Sunday, Rev. Meyer spoke on "Theirs is The Kingdom"; the subject for February 18 will be "They Shall Be Comforted"; on February 25 the pastor will talk on "They Shall Inherit The Earth". March 4 will bring a sermon on "They Shall Be Filled"; "They Shall Obtain Mercy" is slated for March 11. The Palm Sunday subject, on March 18, is "They Shall See God"; and on Easter Sunday the minister will speak on "They Shall Be Called the Children of God".

Each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock a special service will be held, with a study and discussion of "The Basic Facts and Ideas of Christianity", and Rev. Meyer stressed the fact that this topic will not be presented from "a denominational angle".

During Holy Week, March 19 through the 23, services will be held each evening at 8 o'clock. Thursday night services will feature a candle-light and candle lighting worship by the pastor and laymen of the church. Two programs will be held on Good Friday. From 2 to 3 in the afternoon a transcribed cantata of solo choruses and organ music will be presented on the theme "The Seven Last Words." At 8 that night, the young people of the church will present a dramatic service "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"

Residents of the community are invited to take note of these special arrangements, and are invited to participate in all or all of the services.

Week's Work Is Reviewed By SCS Supervisor

Bill Kennedy, head of the Parmer County Soil Conservation Service office, located in Friona, this week began a series of reviews of current work being conducted by the SCS. During the past week, Elmer Euler one mile southeast of Friona, brought his place under a five-year conservation plan. H. L. May is farming with Euler this year, and Kennedy reports that the men plan to put in considerable cotton and to protect the land from blowing by using legume cover crops.

Hadley Reeve, one-half mile west of Friona, has a plan which will put good land to its best use. Reeve is looking into the possibilities of fluming under the road in order to water about seven acres, lying just west of Banton's butane tanks, which will be put into alfalfa.

SCS engineers drew up a topographic map for Roy Clements last week. This, Kennedy says, "should help a lot in determining row directions, length of runs, main ditches, field laterals and improved water application in general". Clements lives three miles west of Friona.

A big dirt-moving job is underway on the Jess Osborn place, 11 miles northeast of Muleshoe. Osborn is bench leveling 20 acres for irrigated pasture. Anyone interested in preparing land for conservation irrigation is invited to watch the operations. John P. Robinson, working with Wallace & Byrd, is the maintainer operator. Frozen ground until last Wednesday impeded progress of the operations.

Dee Chitwood, 10 miles northwest of Muleshoe, is thrashing sudan and blowing the straw in a gullied area. This, Kennedy says, may not stop the wash, but it should help some Chitwood plans to put in a diversion terrace above the washes and take excess rain water to a grassed-over area at the discharge end of the terrace. Such an area is called a waterway. It provides a way for getting water down a slope without erosion. The grass turf holds the soil in place. Many terraces are constructed to discharge in barrow ditches. This, Kennedy points out, is a poor practice, and cannot be called conservation because it seriously erodes county roads.

Silver Tea To Note PTA Founders Day

Commemorating Founders Day and the birthday celebration of the National Congress of Parent Teachers Association, now 54 years old, the Friona organization will hold a silver tea and program at the Methodist Church annex on Thursday evening of this week, February 15th, beginning at 7:30.

Mrs. Claude Osborn is serving as program chairman for the affair and announced that Stanley Lockhart, local Church of Christ minister, has been invited to appear as the guest speaker, with Mrs. James Tidwell presenting special music.

Mrs. Elmer Patterson, a former district PTA officer, of Hereford, will be introduced to the group by Mrs. Ray Landrum, and will present a brief history of the Parent Teacher Association.

A huge birthday cake is being prepared as the focal point of interest in decorations, and all founders and past presidents of the local chapter will be introduced. The Friona organization is now 23 years old, and Mrs. Roy Miller is current president.

Members of the social committee include Mesdames Weldon Dickson, Mack Bainum, Bruce Parr, Steve Struve and Fern Barnett, and all PTA members are urged to attend the meeting. Monies received at the tea will go toward buying a life membership it was announced.

Joint Meeting Held By Clubs, Tuesday

Members of the Modern and Senior Women's Study Clubs of Friona entertained at the Club House on Tuesday afternoon of this week, with special guests being members of the Muleshoe Club and the Progressive Club, of Friona.

Mrs. J. W. Walker, of Plainview, a past president of the state organization and current editor of the book "Texas Club Woman", appeared as the guest speaker, reviewing club work. Don Edwin Lewis gave a vocal number, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Roy Miller.

The Valentine motif was predominant in decorations, with red and white sweet peas being used as a colorful centerpiece on the beautifully laid tea table. Mrs. Walker was presented a shoulder corsage by the entertaining clubs, and the ladies serving as hostesses wore carnation corsages.

Receiving guests and doing the serving were Mrs. Wesley Hardesty, president of the Senior club; Mrs. J. T. Gee, president of the Modern Club; and Mesdames J. D. Sanders, Roy Slagle, Floyd Reeve, Charles Russell, Wesley Foster, Eugene Boggess, Roy Miller and Mack Bainum.

Zone Meeting Slated For Thursday At YL

Members of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Friona Methodist Church are reminded of the regular zone meeting of the WSCS, which occurs on Thursday of this week, February 15.

The YL church ladies will be hostesses to representatives from the various WSCS groups over the zone, with the meeting slated to begin at 10 o'clock in the morning.

It is expected that a number of local ladies will attend the meeting.

Husbands Feted By Ladies On Tuesday

A covered dish supper and social was held at the Woman's Club House on Tuesday night of this week when members of the Modern Study Club entertained their husbands.

Mrs. Doris Boggess served as chairman of the entertaining committee, assisted by Mrs. Wesley Foster, Mrs. Roy Miller, Mrs. Paul Fortenberry and Mrs. Sarah Ann Miller. Following the supper, the group enjoyed various table games.

Window, Door Shortage May Delay Building

Current absence of windows and doors at Friona lumber yards may cause some delay in the construction program now underway at the Parmer County Community Hospital, Manager Ralph Roden said the first of this week.

A small addition is being made to the west wing of the hospital unit, providing space for one more patient's room and bathroom facilities, as well as giving an outside entrance at the west end of the building.

Roden said that it would likely be some weeks before the addition is ready for occupancy, due to the fact that plumbing work does not move at great speed, and the additional factor that windows and doors will have to be ordered before the project can be completed.

Local Men Return From Fishing Trip

Dr. Paul L. Spring, head of the Parmer County Community Hospital, Frank Spring and Granville McFarland returned home the first of the week from a fishing expedition of several days' duration at Port Aransas. The fishermen reported a good haul of sea denizens on their outing.

Physicians from Hereford attended patients at the local hospital while the Friona medico was taking a breather.

Aged Lady Confined Following Fall

Mrs. Nancy Thornton, who celebrated her 100th birthday some few months ago, is currently confined to the Deaf Smith Community Hospital at Hereford, for medical treatment and observation.

Mrs. Thornton received arm and hip injuries when she fell last Saturday morning at the home of her grandson, Morrie Bissell, north of this city.

Reports on Monday were to the effect that she was recovering "as well as could be expected", although she will likely be bedfast for some time.

City Hall Plans To Undergo Alternation

Slight alteration of plans for Friona's proposed new city hall have delayed advertisement for bids on the construction, city officials announced on Monday.

The city fathers recently decided to sell the fire department property located near the water tower, and an addition to the blueprints for the new city hall will be made to include housing for fire trucks and a workroom, it was reported.

Bids for the project are expected to be asked in the near future, following final approval of the architect's plans.

Wednesday Club Meets In Anthony Home

Mrs. J. K. Anthony was hostess the past week to the Wednesday afternoon club, with members gathering in her home near Friona.

Needlework and visiting was enjoyed, at the conclusion of which a salad plate was served with coffee to Mesdames Ernest Anthony, Ross Terry, Clyde Sherrieb and Vance Crume, and one guest, Miss Erma Roberts, of Clovis, sister of Mrs. Terry.

Fellowship Breakfast Held This Morning

The regular monthly men's Fellowship Breakfast was held in the annex of the Methodist Church this (Wednesday) morning at 6:45, with a large number of local men on hand for the affair.

Rev. Hershel Thurston served as guest speaker, being introduced by the local pastor, Rev. James Tidwell.

Book Review Given At Lions Club Meeting

Friona Lions gathered at the Woman's Club House for their regular session the past Thursday night, with a good attendance on hand.

Feature of the evening was a book review, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay", by Cornelia Otis Skinner, presented by Mrs. Steve Struve.

SUPERINTENDENT ILL

Superintendent Dalton Caffey succumbed to an attack of influenza the past Friday, and spent the weekend confined to his bed. Hoarse but operating, he was back on the job at the local school on Monday.

AT DENVER MEETING

Vance Crume, of the Friona Motor Company, returned Tuesday night from Denver, where he had attended a meeting of Ford tractor dealers, held on Monday. Accompanying him on the trip were Dudley Green and Archie Scott, of Hereford.

In Amarillo

Mrs. Ernest Anthony, Mrs. Ross Terry, Mrs. J. K. Anthony and Miss Erma Roberts were in Amarillo the past Thursday, where they attended business matters and visited with relatives.

SCOUTS DELIVER COOKIES

Girl Scout cookies were distributed over Friona during the latter part of last week by members of the various troops, officials report. The proceeds from the sale of cookies this year go into individual troop treasuries, to be disbursed as needed, Mrs. Frank Spring said.

Now - How about traffic on the Santa Fe?

With the cooperation of our officers, and of the employes who remained at work, Santa Fe managed to keep thousands of freight cars and all its passenger trains moving during the "outlaw strike" which began January 30th and which so severely crippled our country's rail transportation. Santa Fe could not, of course, operate at its top efficiency.

Now vital supplies, which have been piling up in freight terminals during the past several days, are starting to move.

A complex situation

There is one point, however, we know the public will understand. So complex a thing as America's transportation system cannot be turned off and on like a water faucet.

Thousands of "car days" were lost due to freight cars standing still. Even though cars are now moving it is bound to take a while before congestion is relieved and delayed cars are unloaded at their destination.

Santa Fe was able to deliver more cars to other railroads than other railroads delivered to Santa Fe. Consequently, Santa Fe now has substantially less cars on its rails than when the "outlaw strike" began. Naturally, this will result in a shortage of cars until this complex situation has been cleared.

A word to our shippers

We are doing everything possible to speed up the return to normal. We ask, however, that shippers who now need cars bear with us during this period.

Santa Fe expresses its thanks to its shippers and passengers for their patience and understanding during the trying times we have all just passed through - and also to all our people who cooperated in this emergency, many of them responding beyond their normal call of duty.

Mrs. Vance Crume and Judy spent Sunday afternoon visiting in Hereford with Mrs. Bess Henneman, former Friona resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Day were in Amarillo over the weekend, visiting their daughter, Miss Tila Rue, in training at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Mary Tom and Frank Spring Jr., spent the weekend in Canyon, visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Collins.

Officials Are Elected, Plans Drawn Up For District Spring Meet

A number of representatives from Farwell Schools were elected to positions on the district spring meet organization last week, when a gathering of school officials was held in Friona.

Jack Williams, superintendent, was named director-general; W. M. Roberts, principal, is secretary; Tommy Hestand and Kenneth Livingston are athletic directors; Miss Jett Byerly, director of debate and extemporaneous speaking; and Mrs. Lenton Pool, in charge of story telling.

These officers will help draw up plans for the annual district inter-scholastic league activities to be held at the Farwell, Friona, and Bovina schools.

The Farwell school will be host to literary event contenders on April 6; with tracksters assembling here April 7. One-act play contests come off at Farwell March 22-23, and the volleyball tourney will also be played here on April 6.

Tennis and softball matches will be played at Friona on April 14, with the county spelling bee slated to be held at Bovina on April 24.

Cotton Planting Is Expected To Rise Here This Year

Cotton planting over Parmer County is expected to be on the increase this year, with the recent lifting of quota restrictions on the crop.

Joe Camp, at the local PMA office, said Tuesday that a number of farmers from over the county had been in the office discussing seeding cotton this year when they had not handled the crop for a number of years, and Friona farmers are also understood to be talking up cotton.

Questioned as to how much of an increase might be expected within the county, Camp replied, "There's no telling", going on to add that if weather conditions are favorable and moisture sufficient, it might be that a good deal of cotton would be planted. "On the other hand," he pointed out, "it may be mostly talk and no planting".

With the outbreak of the Korean war, cotton soon became one of the major necessities, and cotton quotas were lifted over the nation some weeks ago. Just what effect this will have on Parmer county farm production is yet to be seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Schleuter were in Lubbock, Saturday, on business.

LAND SPECTATORS GATHER—Pictured above is part of the crowd that gathered in front of the Parmer County Courthouse last Tuesday afternoon to buy up over $5800 worth of lots in Farwell and Friona. Every lot that was offered from the two cities at the sheriff's sale was sold and county officials expressed pleasure with such a gratifying response.

THREE FARWEL STUDENTS ENROLLED AT A. C. C.

Three students from Farwell have enrolled in Abilene Christian College for the 1951 spring semester. They are Troy Lee McKillip, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McKillip; Hettye Nann Randol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Sam Randol; and Warlick Thomas, son of Mrs. Ethal Thomas, formerly of Farwell and now of Abilene.

The More He BREAKS

Texas motorists, Texas highways and Texas taxpayers should be protected against the ONE PER CENTERS.

ONE PER CENTERS are truck combinations weighing, loaded, 20,000 pounds or more. Only one of every 100 vehicles registered in Texas pays a license fee for 20,000 pounds or more. FEWER than three out of every 1,000 are registered for more than 40,000 pounds.*

Our highways should be SAFE for ALL the people—individuals, commercial users and the military alike.

Texas highway tax dollars should be conserved and used wisely. This can be done

- (1) by limiting the weight (gross load and axle load) that may be transported legally by the ONE PER CENTERS and
- (2) by enforcing the law against those who persist in overloading.

Texas highways are paid for by and belong to ALL THE PEOPLE. Highways adequate for 99% of Texas users—individual and commercial—can be constructed and maintained for about ONE-THIRD of the cost made necessary by the weight of the ONE PER CENTERS.*

Parmer Congressional District May Be Bigger

WASHINGTON. — The Panhandle's 18th Congressional district—largest in the state in number of counties — may get two counties more, according to a preliminary examination of the county-by-county population figures. The greater part of the district's 1940 population of 288,136 was centered in five adjoining counties—Potter, Hutchinson, Gray, Randall and Moore.

As a whole, it gained 20.2 per cent in population between 1940 and 1950. But despite its territorial range (now 28 counties), it might be given two additional counties, Floyd and Bailey, now a part of the 19th Congressional District.

Observers point out the total population of the district would then be 306,288 — which approximates a formula on which tentative redistricting surveys are being made.

The Texas legislature soon will have to wrestle with the problem of congressional redistricting. This will be the third time since the law body has had the option to redistrict—or delay and allow a new congressional representative to be elected from the state at large.

In only one other state—Ohio—is the population difference between congressional districts as great as in Texas, but inequalities exist in other states also and President Truman called this to the attention of Congress in a special message some weeks ago.

With the population of Texas now 7,677,832, the 22 seats it will have after the next election, would, if divided equally, find one representative in Congress for each 350,508 people. The big populations of Harris, Dallas, and Bexar counties make this form impractical. However, if any district in Texas falls below 300,000 in the forthcoming reapportionment it will be very bad districting. A study of the Texas population, county by county, makes it clear that all districts can be kept above 300,000 and still meet the test of "districts composed of contiguous and compact territory."

Moreover, the location of the new, or 22nd Texas congressional district, is very clearly indicated. It, oddly for a state which has had urban gain and rural loss, is a rural district lies east, south and southwest of San Antonio, extending to the Mexican border on the west and is made up of territory now the Ninth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth districts, all of which must shed excess population.

Most people understand the reapportionment process. Briefly it is this: By statute the membership of the national House of Representatives is 435. After a census these seats are re-apportioned. The states that have gained population rapidly in the preceding ten years are likely to gain congressmen, those which lose population lose congressmen. Sometimes even those which gain population substantially fail to gain congressmen, but those which lose population or gain only moderately are rather certain to lose congressional strength.

After the national reapportionment is made the scene then moves to the state legislatures. The difference is that national reapportionment is scientifically worked out and the state legislatures necessarily have leeway.

Congressional re-districting committees in state legislatures usually begin at the borders of the state and work around. In Texas the recalculation begins in the old "corner" district, the First, bounded on the east by Arkansas and Louisiana and on the North by the Red River and Oklahoma. With its geography and its population such as it is, Texas usually has ten or eleven congressional districts adjoining other states, the Republic of Mexico or on the waters of the Gulf. Such districts are the present First, Second, Fourth, Ninth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-first.

Guild Meets Tonight

Members of the Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church will meet in the home of Mrs. LeRoy Faville tonight (Wednesday) at 8:30 o'clock, Mary Lou Cason, president, announces.

Today, Valentine's Day Marks Wooden Anniversary of C-C

On the night of Feb. 14, 1946, a large group of Farwell businessmen who recognized the growing need of a business organization to back this city, met in the offices of Henderson Grain Company.

Out of that meeting grew the present Farwell Chamber of Commerce. C. M. Henderson was elected president, C. G. Davis vice-president; and G. D. Anderson, treasurer.

The businessmen set up a governing board of directors, eight in number, and placed the new chamber into the hands of H. Y. Overstreet, Sam Aldridge, Claude Rose, Joe Magness, O. C. Sikes, Henderson, Davis, and Anderson.

In the intervening five years since its birth, the Farwell Chamber of Commerce has been heard countless times speaking out for the progress and welfare of the city. Last week, members of the C of C mulled over accomplishments of the five years of growth, and came up with a list of advancements which the Chamber was either directly or indirectly responsible for:

Lower insurance rates for Farwell, the sewer system now being installed, curb and guttering, street lights, Farwell band uniforms, paving of Third Street, annual weed control measures, Farwell football stadium, and the Legion Hall.

These and possibly a few other things will be mentioned Monday night at the Chamber's annual banquet, when C. M. Henderson will take the floor to enumerate accomplishments of the organization.

'CANNED' BURGERS QUICK SNACK FOLLOWING GAME

Who isn't hungry after a basketball game? It's a grand occasion to ask your friends to drop by your home, and here are a couple of suggestions designed for pleasing the hungry crowd that may be produced straight from your canned meat shelf.

Chilburgers are one and luncheon burgers are another. Both are simple enough for your young crowd to prepare themselves, says Reba Staggs, home economist. In making the luncheon burgers slice a canned luncheon loaf into 1/2 inch slices and slowly brown them in a frying-pan, when browned, place between split buns and serve with tomato and pickle relish.

The second version, chilburgers, are prepared in your broiler. Top bun halves with canned chili, then with a slice of cheese, then a strip of bacon. Place the buns in the broiler until the bacon is crisp and the cheese bubbling. Serve both with a wide assortment of crisp relishes.

INDUSTRY INVESTS $2 BILLION FOR EXPANSION

The petroleum industry's 1950 capital expenditures for expansion, improvement and modernization of domestic facilities exceeded $2 billion bringing investments over the post-war period, 1946-50, to more than $10 billion. The investment last year of $2,172,000,000 was equal to approximately $14.50 for every man, woman and child in the United States. In addition, about $228 million was spent by American oil companies on facilities abroad, many of which help meet domestic oil needs.

Bovina Fashion Show Goes On-stage Tuesday Night, February, 20th

Committees for Half-Century club of Bovina report that preparations are complete for the annual style show to be presented Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Bovina American Legion hall.

Mrs. D. C. Looney and Mrs. Art Mast are co-chairman of the decorations and refreshments. They say that Flowerland of Clovis has designed a most unique display to compliment the models and their showings. The spring motif will be emphasized making the stage a veritable flower land.

Style and clothing committees have received numerous acceptances from ladies invited to model and more are expected today and Thursday.

Those accepting to date are: from Muleshoe, Mrs. Marion Harris, and Misses Marion Clark Harris, Janette Green, Delia Ann King, and Helen Stovall;

From Farwell: Mesdames Woody McDermitt, Walter Hardage, Claude Rose, Harold Carpenter, Misses Betty Foster, Jo Beth Ingram, and Maxine Ford;

From Bovina: Mesdames Robert Reed, Jimmy Charles, Penny Anderson, A. L. Kirby, J. P. Macon, Bill Kyle, Aubrey Ellison, Earl Ware, J. T. Hammonds and Misses Clara Derrick, Marjie Leake, Dorothy Moorman and June Gay Looney.

Children who have accepted are Lynn Looney, Linda Estes, David Anderson, Billy Liles, Pat Lloyd, and Brenda Estus.

The club will hold a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Aubrey Tucker with Mrs. Truman Ford as co-hostess. Last minute arrangements will be made at the meeting.

The organization has extended a special invitation to the men to attend the showing.

As in the past, no admission charge is made though a silver tray will be at the door for contributions to help cover the expenses of the event.

Vohs Co. of Clovis is prepared to show a complete line of spring styles and Dillon's will show children's wear.

Past Presidents Are Honored At Meet

Mrs. C. C. Christian presided over the regular meeting of the Farwell Parent Teacher Association, in the absence of Mrs. Jack McManigal, Tuesday night.

A business meeting was held, with communications being read by Mrs. Lenton Pool. One important item dealt with a district meeting, to be held in Bovina, February 24, with the district president in charge. The meeting begins at 9:30 and lasts to 3:30 p. m., with lunch served by the host chapter. A good attendance was urged.

Another PTA conference will be held in Childress, April 17 and 18.

After various committee reports the nominating committee was elected. The three parents and two teachers composing it are Mrs. W. C. Hardage, Mrs. W. M. Roberts, Mrs. Murray Dial, Mrs. Lenton Pool and W. M. Roberts.

The eighth grade won the February room count.

Highlight of the evening were reports from three past presidents of the group. Mrs. John Porter, president in 1938-39, stated that the big project at that time was the school lunch room. The PTA that year started the school carnival in order to raise funds for equipment in the cafeteria, and during the summer, the ladies canned food to be used later. They also sponsored the first school "round-up" and bought some playground equipment.

Mrs. Lewis Cox, now of Clovis, reported that the main objective during her presidency was finishing payment on the stage curtains. The Bovina chapter officers were also installed by the local group.

During Mrs. Murray Dials' term of office the club raised money to buy band uniforms. The summer round-up was also continued.

A short talk on "Who Is A Good Citizen?" was given by Judge A. D. Smith, after which Caryetta Grissom and Bobbie Christian recounted some of their experiences at Girls State last summer.

The group then adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments of cake, coffee and punch.

Mrs. Ansel Doolittle Is Honoree At Shower

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Ansel Doolittle of Texico, N. M. was held at the Texico-Farwell Baptist church Thursday night, February 8, 1951. The lace-covered table displaying the many lovely gifts was flanked by a huge stork.

Spiced tea and cup cakes, along with favors of miniature blue diapers filled with pink dinner mints were served to the following:

Mesdames Jimmy McGuire, T. T. Doolittle, Dortha Richardson, C. M. Fields, Leroy Faville, T. E. Roth, Calvin Blain and Gary; Donald Watkins, Olan Schlueter, the honoree, Mrs. Ansel Doolittle and the hostesses, Mrs. Bud Pearce, Mrs. Joe Camp, Mrs. Jerry Paul and Miss Peggy Schlueter.

Those sending regrets were: Mesdames Clyde Magnes, B. A. Kelley, D. J. Brown, Ruby Stone, Jim Young, Willie Joe Carpenter, Kenneth Jaques, Les Means, Russell Johnson, Ed Blain, Hugh Tutcher, John Gant, Dick Doshier, B. O. Faville, L. A. Pearce, Levi Reid and Miss Jeanne Dudley.

Has 87th Birthday

G. F. Nicewarner celebrated his 87th birthday at his home in Texico, Sunday, February 11th. His daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schloss of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Olan Schlueter of Farwell, joined him for dinner.

Local Woman's Club To Re-organize, 20th

Former members of the Texico-Farwell Women's Club, which was disbanded in 1945, held a meeting in the home economics building of the Farwell school, Monday afternoon, February 12th, to decide on disbursement of money left in the Club treasury.

With ten of the former club members on hand, the ladies voted to use the funds for the purpose of re-organizing the club, and a meeting to receive applications for new members was slated for Tuesday night, February 20th.

The Tuesday night meeting will convene in the Farwell home economics building at 7:30, and every lady in Texico-Farwell interested in the revival of the club, regardless of whether they had previously been members, is urged to be on hand.

Mrs. Lura Rundell, who was president of the Club at the time it was disbanded, will be in charge of the meeting and especially urges a good attendance, as new officers will be elected and a miscellaneous program worked out. Applications will be taken for membership and those filing such applications will be charter members of the new organization.

If interested individuals are unable to attend the meeting, they may obtain application blanks by contacting either Mrs. Fred Kepley or Mrs. D. W. Bagley. Membership in the club will not be limited.

Officers to be filled at the meeting include those of president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, parliamentarian, reporter; membership, program, social and finance committees.

Those present at the meeting Monday were Mesdames Lillian Aldridge, Mae Porter, Nina Glasscock, D. W. Bagley, Dickie Magness, Johnnie Williams, E. G. Williams, Fred Kepley, Myrtle Rose and Lura Rundell. These ladies will act as hostesses for the Tuesday night meeting.

Lazbuddy PTA Meets In Regular Session

Lazbuddy P.T.A. held a regular meeting Monday night of last week in the school auditorium. The meeting opened with group singing, led by Mrs. Moody. After a short business session Elbert Nowell, president of board of trustees, commented on School Visitation Week.

March 5 to March 10 had been set aside in the state of Texas as Visitation Week. He urged that all patrons of Lazbuddy school make an effort to visit the school some time during this week. They invite the patrons to eat in the lunch room at the regular price of 25c a meal. All who can show an interest in the school and visit them during this visitation week.

Mr. Neeley, editor of Friona Star, was introduced by Mrs. Roy Daniels as the speaker of the night. His topic was "The Good Citizen." He brought out that citizenship should be practiced the year round. A good citizen of 1951 is decidedly different than one of 1940, he said. Most citizens think in the terms of what democracy can do for me when what they should be thinking would be what I can do for democracy.

Some of the points discussed were—assuming specific duties; duties of awareness; duties pertaining to education; self-reliance; and the bill of responsibility. Whatever is done to make a good citizen, the individual must do it, Neeley concluded.

The fourth grade sang four songs directed by Travis Montgomery and Mrs. Moody.—Reporter.

Texico Junior-Senior Banquet Enjoyed On ENMU Campus

An old-fashioned garden theme was featured at the Texico junior-senior spring banquet, held last night at the Student Union building on the Eastern New Mexico campus in Portales.

B. A. Rogers, former superintendent of the school, offered the invocation; with Margie Reid presenting "The Blossoms", a toast to seniors, and Stephen Stone responded with a toast to "The Buds", the juniors. Classmates then joined in singing "Tip-Toe Through The Tulips".

Bobbie Williams discussed "The Garden", a tribute to Texico schools. A humorous reading, "The Rights of Women", by Jo Beth Engram, was followed by a commendation of the faculty, "The Gardeners", by Wayne Tucker. "An Old Fashioned Garden" was sung by members of both classes.

Principal speaker of the evening was Dr. Martin L. Cole, dean of Eastern New Mexico University.

Menu for the affair featured baked chicken, and decorations over the lovely banquet hall carried out the spring garden motif.

Carl Schmitt agriculture instructor is the junior sponsor and Fern Stout is the senior sponsor.

The current seniors are Bobbie Dawn Allred, Wayne Breeze, Dee J. Brown, Violet Curry, Jo Beth Engram, Jerial Doolittle, Frank Hapke, La Veda Harriman, Jimmy Horton, Jerry Jester, Ronald King, T. W. Parson, W. O. Reid, Carmen Roth, Buddy Sparks, Stephen Stone, Betty June Winegeart, Wayne Tucker, and Jeanette Woods.

World Day of Prayer Observed On Friday

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church extended an invitation to the entire community to join in observing the "World Day of Prayer", last Friday, February 9, at the church.

The theme of the program was taken from I John 4:18, "Perfect love casts out fear". Those present offered prayers for peace and for the Christian workers throughout the world.

Attending the program were Mesdames Kate Lindop, Alvin Bandy, Melvin Sudderth, Jack Roach, E. H. Young, R. E. Blankenship, Harold Carpenter, Truman Kent, Sam Billingsley, A. D. Moore, C. C. Christian, W. C. Barber, W. M. Roberts, E. G. Snodgrass, W. P. Shelley;

Mesdames Mayo Carpenter, Clyde Perkins, Doyne Merriman, Lee Jones, Wendol Christian, L. M. Grissom, L. M. Hardage, Arthur Milstead, J. B. Wheat, W. E. Verner, George Lindop, Will Foster, E. C. Brown, Kenneth Grissom, Nelson Foster, Claude Primrose, A. J. Doshier, John West; Rev. A. D. Moore, pastor of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rea and Misses June Christian and Wilma Dell Doshier.

WCS members expressed their appreciation to those who attended and also extended thanks to Misses Christian and Doshier for their work in the nursery.

Local Students Take Part In Concert

PORTALES.—(Special. — When the Eastern New Mexico concert band performed Sunday afternoon in the University theatre, it played an original composition by a member of the School of Music faculty, C. M. Stookey, conductor, announced.

The composition, "Folk Overture", was written by James E. Whitsitt, instructor in music theory. Not only did the band play Whitsitt's composition, but also featured him as trombone soloist.

The concert, which was free to the public, was sponsored jointly by the Roosevelt County Fine Arts society and the university.

Numbers by the band included "Orlando Palendrinio," Haydn; First Suite in E Flat," Holst; "Arioso from Cantata No. 156," Bach; "Bravada," Curzon; "Waggery for Woodwinds," Walters; and "Cowboy Rhapsody," Gould.

Whitsitt, a graduate of the University of Southern California with a master of music degree (magna cum laude), will have his composition played by the University of Southern California concert band on its spring concert.

Members of the concert band at E.N.M.U. include two local people, Charles Felts, Lariat, Texas and Peggy Hill, Texico.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Randol were dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robertson, Sunday, in Clovis.

Surprise Party Honors Eastern Star Officers

A surprise party honoring the officers of the Order of Eastern Star was held in the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ellison in Bovina, last Thursday night, February 8th.

The home was decorated with large bouquets of multi-colored sweetpeas placed about the room.

Mrs. Lura Rundell, worthy matron, and Woody McDermitt, worthy patron, were the honored guests of the evening, with a lovely gift being presented to each by Mr. and Mrs. John Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bainum, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, and other officers of the Order.

After presentation of the gifts, games of Canasta and 42 were enjoyed by the attendants.

At the close of the evening, refreshments of apple pie a la mode and coffee was served.

Pauline Sheets Elected To Phi Theta Kappa

Pauline Sheets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sheets, and graduate of the class of 1950 of Farwell high school, has been accorded the honor of election to membership in Phi Theta Kappa, national scholarship society of accredited American junior colleges.

Miss Sheets is now in Nurse's training at Shannon Hospital at San Angelo, Texas. The Shannon program consists of one year's academic work at San Angelo College prior to technical training in the hospital.

Membership in Phi Theta Kappa is open only to students with a B average or above and is limited to the upper 10 per cent of the college enrollment, freshman and sophomore.

Miss Sheets is one of the 17 freshman students earning the distinction in San Angelo college on the basis of grades for the fall semester. Also, she is the only freshman student nurse so honored, P. C. Windsor, head of the English department, says.

The Parmer County team was composed of Leon Ware with 302 points; Glendon Sudderth with 292 points and Danny Pounds with 299 points. Eddie Steelman was alternate.

Following the judging contest, the boys attended a banquet in the Palm Room of Pampa City Hall, where awards were presented the winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Means, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, Gloria and Don spent Sunday afternoon in San Jon, N. M.

Agent Jones Says Dairy Cows Need Plenty Of Water

It takes a lot of water to produce a lot of milk, and dairy cattle do not always drink enough water during the winter months, County Agent Joe Jones says. Quite often, this is because an adequate supply of good water is not available.

Jones quotes R. E. Bursleson, associate extension dairy husbandman of Texas A. & M. College, who says: "Good water is clean and cool, but not colder than 50 degrees F. There should also be an adequate supply of water and the cows should not be forced to walk long distances for their drink. They prefer to stay in the barn or under a shed on cold days, and the water supply should be nearby".

The dairy cow is primarily a converter of roughages, reminds Jones, and since roughages are usually dry feeds and comparatively high in crude fiber, the dairy cow needs a large amount of water for the digestion and absorption of feed nutrients and for the removal of waste from her body.

Jones reminds also that milk is approximately 87 percent water. The lack of water will cause a more rapid drop in milk production than will the lack of most feeds.

The average dairy cow will consume from 100 to 120 pounds of water daily, Bursleson says that a cow producing 60 pounds of milk daily may drink as much as 180 pounds of water. On the average, dairy cows need from two to three pounds of water per pound of milk produced.

IN BAGLEY HOME

MARRIED FOR FIFTY YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kyker of Farwell, who are the oldest couple in point of residence in the Twin Cities, pose for a picture celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Bob is a familiar sight to those who visited barber shops here for a period of some forty years.

PIONEER COUPLE RECALL DEVELOPMENT OF TWIN CITIES OVER 45-YEAR PERIOD

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kyker, who have lived in Texico and Farwell longer than any other couple to date, have seen the saga of a pioneer community advancing through 45 years of progress.

They have raised seven children, sent them all through Farwell Schools, watched them advance into marriage and move away, and the local couple now has — grandchildren.

In short, Mr. and Mrs. Kyker have been the overseers of the Twin Cities. They moved here from Indian territory in 1905, before Farwell was even founded.

Bob and Mollie found Texico a rip-roaring border town, full of saloons and lawless elements when it wasn't safe to be on the streets at night, but they stayed on, and the following year, when Farwell was founded, Bob was elected the first treasurer of Parmer County.

"That was a foolish thing to do at my age," says Bob. "I was looking for an easy job when I should have been getting a good job and working hard." After his term expired, Bob returned to his trade of barbering, and has tried little else since.

Sees Mollie When Debating

Way back about 1900 when Bob lived in the Indian territory now included in the State of Oklahoma, he used to be on a debating team—and admits that he was on it because this was about the only organized amusement to be had at the time.

During one of his debating adventures, at Erin Springs, young Bob noticed a pretty girl sitting in the audience. He remembered her face, and later at a singing in Erin Springs, had a chance to meet her.

"He courted me for about eight or ten months," remembers Mollie, "and we were married at Purdy on February 6, 1901."

Purdy is now 60 miles south of Oklahoma City, and there the couple was married by a Methodist circuit rider preacher. Mollie's family had moved to Indian territory from Central Texas, where her father was a combination doctor-preacher.

Brought up on his father's ranch, Bob naturally turned to that way of earning a living. The couple moved to Lindsey and lived there four years, when doctors advised that they change climate because of her health.

To Texico in 1905

So, in 1905, the young Kykers bought themselves a one-way ticket to Texico, and they rolled into the little border town on December 14.

In the next 45 years, Bob barbered back and forth from Farwell to Texico fairly regularly, being interrupted only by his brief political adventure and occasional land speculations.

Bob was still a cowpuncher at heart when he first hit town, and soon found out that 'punchers did not raise their own beef to eat. "Respectable cowpunchers had to steal a calf for fresh meat," he recalls.

Bob barbered in Texico for ten years, and then moved across the tracks to Farwell, setting up his business in the old Farwell Inn. He was plying his trade there a cold, wintry day when the roof shingles caught fire from a faulty flue, and in a few minutes the entire building was in flames.

"You could have put out that fire with a bucket of water when we first found it," Bob remembers, "but there wasn't any water to be had soon enough." The inn burned to the ground, but the pioneer barber managed to haul his chair from the smoking building just in time.

Seven Children

In 1902, Violet, their first child, was born. She, as were the other six children, enrolled in Farwell schools and all graduated from that same institution.

Today she is Mrs. Violet Thomas, and makes her residence in Los Angeles, Calif. Other children, in order of their ages, are: Robert, Carlsbad, N. M.; Guy, who was fatally injured in a car wreck between Texico and Clovis several years ago; Clifford, of Abilene; Katherine Danner of Portland, Oregon; Evelyn Bradshaw of Shreveport, La.; and Rex, who is a speech instructor at Abilene Christian College.

The family attended the Farwell Church of Christ regularly, and all children became members of that denomination. "The children lived up to their mother's teachings," says Bob.

Weather Used To Be Cold

Cold weather has been prominent in the minds of Texico-Farwell citizens the past few weeks, and the couple was asked if they could remember when the temperature had been as severe.

Both replied, "It's not nearly as cold out here as it used to be." Bob recalls 1918 as the worst winter he ever endured on the High Plains.

As an example, he told of hundreds of head of cattle that were lost to the cold, driving winds. "Not so many froze to death as were trampled to death," he reported. "They would turn their tails to the wind and retreat from the storms and would finally pile up in a bunch in a fence corner and trample one another to death trying to get away from the cold."

The worst loss suffered was by a man named Galloway who lived north of Farwell. Galloway lost 2300 sheep in one storm, Kyker recalls.

Terrible Droughts, Too

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Kyker can recall some of the devastating dry cycles this part of the country has survived. They remember a period of about three years—believed to be about 1909 through 1911—when it stayed so dry that even the tumbleweeds never grew above three inches high.

"People would have moved out of this country if they could have," said Bob. "They couldn't leave because they were so poor. None had enough money to buy a railroad ticket, and all the horses were so nearly starved they couldn't pull wagons, so the people just stayed."

Asked if he could remember when the first car came to town, Bob said he could—very definitely. In fact, he added, he owned the second car in town, himself.

town, himself.

"A man named Jim Oden had the first car," Bob says, and I had the second one. It was a Model T Ford, one of those with a high top. That was about 1912. We sure had a lot of runaways from those cars, too," he laughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyker don't own a car anymore, however. Mollie has been in ill health a number of years and Bob does all the running around that has to be done on foot.

Last Wednesday was the couple's golden wedding anniversary, but they were not able to have their children home for a celebration.

"It was just another day in our lives," explains Bob.

And many days have similarly transpired in the lives of the couple that has lived in Texico and Farwell longer than any other man and wife.

Two Mumps Casse Are Reported In Texico

One high school student and one grade pupil have been reported suffering cases of mumps, Agrie Jones, superintendent of Texico schools, said Monday.

Two other students were absent in the lower grades the first of the week, Jones added, but cause of their absence had not been determined.

-SPORTS-

ADRIAN WINS DISTRICT IN FORM; STEERS WIN ONLY OVER LAZBUDDY CAGESTERS

The Adrian Matadors, figured by most sports fans to win the district tournament at Vega last week, finished in fine form, passing through all opposition without a defeat.

The Bovina Mustangs did very well for themselves, too. They lost only to Adrian, and wound up the season in second place. One Mustang, Glenn Hromas, earned himself a position on the all-tournament team.

The Farwell Steers, who finished out of the cellar only by one step ahead of Lazbuddy, also placed a man on the all-tournament team. He is John Christian, who managed to score 68 points during the six games his team played in the tourney.

Other members of the all-tournament team included Jim Brown and Don Pinnell, Adrian; "Fuzz" Harwell of Vega and W. L. Cleveland of Friona.

Last week's results mean that Adrian will represent District 11-B in the regional playoffs at Lubbock next week. Until the district tournament, however, the race was wide open, with a three-way tie for first place in regular season round-robin competition.

When the tournament began, Adrian, Vega and Bovina were tied. Normally, conference standings in round-robin games represent 50 per cent credit toward a district championship, and the tournament title carries the other 50 per cent.

But when the three-way tie for the lead cropped up two weeks ago, the trio put their heads together and decided to let the winner of the Vega tournament have the spoils—provided the champion was one of the three leading contenders.

Tournament play began Thursday night, and continued through Friday and Saturday on round-robin brackets. There was no elimination bracket drawn up; the winner of the most games was simply acclaimed champ at the conclusion of play.

Recap of Farwell Game.
The Steers opened tournament activity Thursday night, playing one of their most ragged games of the season against the Friona Chiefs, losing 39-43.

Illustrating the unevenness of the game, the only scorer for the Steers in the first quarter was Squirmy Doshier, who sank one free shot.

In contrast, John Christian, Farwell's all-district center, looped in six fielders in the second quarter, making him and Doshier the only Steers to score in the first half. At the half, Friona led, 25-13.

Bovina Squeezes Past
Friday afternoon, Farwell's ill-fated quintet met their second defeat in as many starts when they lost to the Bovina Mustangs by one discouraging point, 34-35.

The game was close-fought in all four quarters, with one member of each team—Pool of Farwell and Ware of Bovina—fouling off. The Mustangs jumped to an early 12-5 lead at the end of the first quarter and held a similar margin of four or five points until the expiring minutes of the game.

Bovina was out ahead 19-15 at the half and pushed on to 31-25 at the end of the third, but the Steers came within a gasp of closing the gap in the last go-round. Bovina managed but five points in the final period as the Steers almost doubled that with 9.

Scoring was fairly evenly distributed for both teams throughout the game. Christian was high man with 11, hotly trailed by Hromas of Bovina with 10.

Steers Take First Win
It was not until Friday night when the Steers played Lazbuddy that the home-town team was able to mark up a win. Meeting only slight opposition from Lazbuddy, they won 40-32.

Lazbuddy was hurt by the loss of two of their first-stringers through personal fouls. McDonald and Jesko left the court after committing the limit of five, but no Steer fouled off. Surprisingly, Farwell trailed at the half, 20-17, but rallied rapidly in the remaining two quarters for a win. This was Christian's big game of the tourney, so far as scoring went as he banged in a total of 18.

McDonald, although fouling off in the second half, made 12 points to lead the Lazbuddy scoring.

Longhorns Outclass Locals
Farwell returned to the dreary road of defeat Saturday afternoon, losing to the Vega Longhorns by a decisive margin of 30-49. This was by far the roughest contest of the tournament for the Steers and Longhorns, if not for all meet games.

Forty-six fouls were recorded by Referees Fisher and Thompson for the fracas, resulting in the dismissal of three Farwell players and two Vega men. Crume, Christian and Doshier were Steer losses; Montgomery and Davidson for Vega.

Spectators felt that for the first time the Steers were up to form in the initial half of the match, holding the Longhorns to an 18-18 deadlock. But the difference came out in the remainder of the game, when Vega smothered Farwell with a barrage of 31 points as the Steers could only get 12.

Adrian Last Opponent
The weary tournament came to an end Saturday night for the Steers when they were the final victims of championship-bound Adrian Matadors. Even though Adrian won 47-35, local fans had no complaint to make over the Steer showing.

Farwell never actually threatened the rangy district champs, but they never lost sight of the score, either. The Matadors led 23-15 at the half. Pinnell, all-district man, proved his worth by dropping in 15 of the Adrian points, as Jerry Pool led Farwell with 10.

Juniors Win Three, Drop One To Friona

The Farwell junior cagers met the Friona teams in four games recently, taking three of the matches.

In the seventh grade tilt, the boys hit 17-10 over their opponents and eighth graders maintained the longest lead of the evening, 34-7.

The B boys lost their game by two points, while the eighth grade girls made 12 to Friona's 34.

BEGIN VOLLEYBALL

Girls at Texico schools are scheduled to begin volleyball practice in the next few weeks, Fern Stout, coach, reports. Basketball activities ended with the Curry county tournament, held last weekend.

Not Champs, But Bring Home Four Meet Trophies

Four teams from Texico were entered in the Curry County cage tourney last weekend, and each brought home a trophy although none of the squads were champions.

Both boys' and girls' senior and junior teams were engaged in tournament play, school authorities said. The Wolverines drew rough assignments, first meeting Ranchvale on Thursday night, and emerging on top, 36-13.

Both teams were slow in the first period, with a low 10-7 count at half and the last half turned into a basket-hitting spree for Texico.

Pitted against Rosedale, final winners of the meet, on Friday night, the Wolverines lost their rabbit's foot, although it was anybody's game in the first two cantos, with the tally knotted 17-17 at the half. Rosedale picked up steam in the last half and pushed past the locals, 41-35.

In their third game of the weekend opposite Grady, Texico was in a long slump and by the time they started a rally in the last half, Grady was far in the lead, going on to win, 46-34.

Special recognition was awarded Coach C. B. Stockton's team when the final awards were passed out Saturday night, however, as the Wolverines were recipients of the sportsmanship trophy. The team was selected by representatives of the press and radio, and the referees.

Senior Girls Second
The senior girls drew a bye in the first round of play, moving in to meet Rosedale in the second round. Despite a good fight, the Whirlwinds came out on the low end of a 32-28 score, after the lead had been tossed around during the match.

Next on schedule for the locals was a tilt with the losers of the other semi-final game, Ranchvale, and Texico came out on top with a narrow three-point margin, 29-26. The win gave them third place in the tournament.

Junior Teams Are Second
Both boys and girls playing in the junior brackets came home with the second-place trophies.

The Texico girls swamped their first two opponents, with a 26-4 win over Field, and a 24-7 count over Center. In the last round, Grady topped the locals for first place by a slight three points.

The junior boys also got to the finals before meeting their match.

Opening play, Texico dumped the Ranchvale quint, 42-19 and took a long win over Center. Meeting Clovis in the championship round, the locals were submerged, 21-16.

Grade School Pupils Have Full Sports Schedule For Season

The junior basketball squads of Farwell schools will end their season Tuesday, February 20 on their home court when they encounter the Bovina Juniors, Coach S. S. Jobes says. Both seventh and eighth grade boys teams will play, and a combined group of seventh and eighth grade girls.

In games Friday night with Lazbuddy, the local eighth graders won their tilt, 25-7, and the girls topped the visitors 12-8.

Junior Track
Track practice will begin for juniors in a few days. Boys in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades will be working out for junior track and softball, Jobes states.

Around 40 boys will be on hand. The junior events include 50-yard-dash, 100-yard-dash, 440-yard-relay, high jump, broad jump and chinning bar work. The district track meet will be held at Farwell Saturday, April 7.

Girls' and boys' softball teams will be selected for the district play-off at Friona April 14.

Junior Spring Football
Junior football practice will begin in early April and continue until the last week in May. In spring practice, 6th, 7th and 8th graders will participate and next fall, they will compete as a 7th, 8th and 9th grade unit.

Around 35 or forty boys will be on hand for spring football. Suits will be issued to as many boys as possible, Jobes says.

Included in the athletic group are twenty eighth grade boys, fourteen seventh graders and twelve sixth graders.

BOYS PLAY SANTA ROSA

The Texico Wolverines will be guests on the Santa Rosa cage court, Saturday night, Coach C. B. Stockton announces. The game with the New Mexico team will wind up the regular schedule for the locals.

Previously this season, Santa Rosa edged by Texico by three points.

Texico And Farwell Split Cage Matches

The Texico and Farwell cage teams divided games on Monday night of this week, with honors going to the New Mexico boys and Texas girls.

First on the court were the girls' teams, with the Farwell aggregation taking a good 33-20 victory.

The Texico Whirlwinds led 2-1 at the end of the first quarter, but the Farwell lassies held the Texico forwards to 3 points while gaining 8 themselves to grab a 9-5 edge by half-time. In the third quarter the Farwell girls scored 14 points, a the Texico-ites got only 8.

Betty Foster led the Farwell scoring brigade with 30 of the 33 total, while Marsha Peterson led Texico with 10.

The Wolverines retaliated by tripping the Steers 36-22 in a tight decision.

With the score knotted 5-5 at the first quarter, the Steers edged ahead to lead 18-17 at the half, and at the close of the third period still were ahead 25-26.

Sparked by skillful Wayne Tucker, who totaled 12 points for his squad, the Texico crew surged out to pass the Steers by four points in the final go-round.

John Christian was the Farwell spark-plug, scoring 13 points in a futile attempt to outpoint the Wolverines.

Girls Teams Gather Here For Tourney

Four girls' teams will vie for two top rankings in the annual Parmer County girls' basketball tournament, slated to be held in the Farwell gym this weekend, Jack Williams says.

The local school will be host to Bovina, Friona and Lazbuddy—as well as their own squad—with the champions and runners-up to attend the district competition playoff at Happy next weekend, February 22-24.

County champions are selected on conference games during the season in conjunction with the county tourney. Farwell is already eligible for district play, Williams states, since the locals are undefeated in conference play. One of the other county teams will come through this weekend as the second representative to the district meet.

Play will begin at 7:45 Thursday night at the Farwell gymnasium, Williams states, with Bovina pitted against Lazbuddy; and Farwell will meet Friona at 9 o'clock. Both Bovina and Farwell have previously won over their opponents in conference play.

On Friday night, losers of the first round will play at 7:45, with the opening round champs taking the floor next for the county title.

Farwell Girls Top Bovina Outsiders

The Farwell high school girl's basketball team, topped the Bovina outsiders by 10 points in an afternoon game Friday.

The Farwell sextette led all the way, widening the margin from the first whistle. At the end of the first period, the high school team led three points but by halftime, the score stood 21-14.

With a sudden surge, the visitors hit 24 points to Farwell's 30 by the end of the third quarter, but they didn't have the drive to put them over the top. The high schoolers won 40-30.

Betty Foster racked up 23 counters for Farwell; and Venable made 16 for Bovina. Also hitting for Farwell was Carye-ta Grissom with 13.

Players for Farwell were Grissom, B. Foster, M. Foster, B. Christian, Magness, Felts, Bateman, Billingsley, Hines, Kitrell, L. Christian, Hardage, Cochran and Spurlin.

From Bovina were B. Rhodes, Venable, Turner, Doshier, Looney, D. Moorman, Roundtree and Kirby.

Texico Boys Enter District Tourney

The Texico Wolverines, senior boys' cage team, will go to Portales next weekend, February 22-24, for the district play-offs, to determine contenders for the regional crown.

Clovis is seeded first in the district, with Portales second, Texico third and Rogers fourth. Other teams in competition are Ranchvale, Dora, Elida and Causey.

Tournament play will begin at 1:30 Thursday afternoon when Clovis meets Ranchvale. Rogers is scheduled against Dora at 2:30. Thursday night, Portales is pitted opposite Elida at 7:30 and Texico meets Causey at 8:30.

On Friday, winners of the Thursday afternoon battles play at 7:30 in the evening, and the other first-round winners come up at 8:30.

Consolation game between the losers of Friday sessions will be at 7:30 Saturday night, followed by the
