"OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF PARMER COUNTY"

NUMBER 44

SIXTY-EIGHTH YEAR

25 CENTS

Well, it's been rather uncomfortable but we have set a new record for days in the year wherein the ole thermometer touched or bettered 100 degrees. As of July 4th, this year has produced 15 century mark scorches, and we have some pretty hot weather in July and August ahead of us.

With the old record at 12 days we are apt to shatter the past by a big margin this year. We are not looking forward to the summer that will surpass 1980 in century days. Just think, we can now sit back in later years and say, "Yeah, it's hot now but you young folks had ought to have been here in the summer back in 1980; why it was so hot then that they had to lay a new main street in Farwell because it melted the old one plumb off."

We're fast sneaking up on our annual Border Town Days celebration and our committees are all working hard. One committee that hasn't had much to do yet is the Lions Club that's in charge of the parade. So far, only one float has been reported. Come on now, let's have another one of our big downtown parades.

Farwell and Texico seem to be in good shape on their municipal water supply. At least we haven't been in imminent danger of running out of the precious fluid. We have not had to ration water or cut back on lawn sprinkling. This speaks well of our two city governments. Fellas, speaking for us, we are dern glad to have plenty of water. Thanks.

Lots of things we do not understand. A lot of them are in the political field. One more item that we do not understand is the current hullabaloo over the several Conservative groups planning to spend money to support Ronald Reagan. According to our liberal TV pundits this might be unlawful because it could violate federal campaigning regulations.

The line of reasoning goes that this extra political money and activity would put Mr. Carter at a disadvantage and it is not what Congress had in mind when it passed the latest political campaign funding law.

Well now, why haven't we heard a squawk out of the TV boys about the Big Unions' political action groups. At least the Conservative groups are completely voluntary in which people voluntarily work and give money. Their money is freely given.

Can you say the same about the unions' political action groups? The union big shots decide who to support and take the money and do as they please. We fail to see much freedom there.

We suspect that Reagan would be very happy to not accept the help of Conservative groups if Jimmy Carter would forego union help in the campaign.

We don't know what Congress had in mind when it passed the latest law. We strongly suspect Walter Doubledome on TV doesn't either.

The Iranian revolution may be in big trouble. We read where the women are beginning to protest the wearing of the traditional potato sack. We can understand the girls protesting, but we cannot understand the men wanting them to wear this unsightly garb.

We can reasonably see why an old geezer like Khomeni wouldn't care, but for the young lads to support such outlandish dress is over our girl-watching head.

Tornado Debris

The Melvin Winter home east of Farwell remains unscathed in the aftermath of a small tornado that destroyed a shed at their farm Friday night. Debris from the shed tore down a section of the yard fence and some pieces of the sheet iron roof were so thoroughly embedded in the yard that they could not be pried loose.

Melvin Winter Home - -

Outbuildings Damaged By Tornadic Winds

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Winter had expected fireworks on the Fourth of July, but not the kind they experienced.

Shortly after midnight, their home northeast of Farwell near Wiley Switch was the scene of tornadic activity. Although the house itself was unscathed, one outbuilding was completely destroyed and another damaged.

A shed attached to a boxcar approximately 50 to 75 yards south of the family home was lifted free by the tornado and, as it was carried in a northerly direction, cleared a tall wooden backyard fence. However, it snapped the electrical lines. Portions of the shed and the electrical lines landed in a tree inside the backyard.

Most of the building was deposited to the side of the house, where the yard fence was demolished, and in the front yard. Some pieces of tin were driven into the yard with such force that the Winter family has been unable to remove them.

A 2" by 4" board came through the fence located near the bedroom windows. Debris littered the entire front yard and some, unexplainably, was found in the fruit trees on the other side of the house.

The roof of the boxcar also received damage.

The storm came almost unannounced. It was preceded by a period of cool wind, which became stronger, then abruptly stopped. At that time, Mrs. Winter commented to her husband that she didn't like the sound of that at all. Then the tornado hit.

Since the electrical lines to the house had been severed, the house was without lights. The family gathered in the hallway for about 10 minutes. Then the children were placed in the bathroom with pillows for protection in the event of further activity. At that time, Winter went outside to investigate the damage.

For Farwell Exchange - -

$4,740,000 Loan To ENMRT Coop

Senator Lloyd Benson's Washington office has announced that the Rural Electrical Administration has awarded a loan of $4,740,000 at two percent interest to the ENMRT Telephone Cooperative in Clovis. The funds will be used to acquire the facilities of the Farwell exchange from the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company, to finance facilities to connect new subscribers, to build new lines, and to make system improvements.

When contacted for a statement, Robert M. Harris, general manager of Eastern New Mexico Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc., was quite pleased. He had not yet learned of the forthcoming loan, but said that it had been expected to go through early in July.

As soon as the building under construction in Farwell is complete, equipment of the latest design will be installed. At the present, a target date of October 24 has been set for the switch-over from Mountain Bell to ENMRT service.

Under the new system, the 588 current subscribers will assume an 806 area code, but will still be able to call the same areas as before with no charge. A Clovis call will not be long distance.

Regular monthly rates and long distance rates will remain the same, but standard installation rates will decrease. A flat $12.50 charge will be levied for the installation of the main phone in a residence.

The Farwell facility will offer local residents 1-plus, 0-plus and 0-minus dialing. One-plus, direct dialing, permits totally operator unassisted long distance calls and has the lowest long distance rate of any long distance call. 0-plus allows a partially operator-assisted long distance call, as for a credit card long distance call or a reverse charge call. The 0-minus call is a long distance call that is completely operator assisted. It carries the highest long distance rate.

Harris said that although the changeover to ENMRT should take place in October, service people will be working for quite some time thereafter. Lines will be underground, which will necessitate the careful checking of each backyard, for instance, to locate existing water, sewer, and gas pipes and to insure that none are accidentally ruptured in the process of laying the new telephone lines. The underground lines should, according to Harris, be helpful in cleaning up alleys and eliminating the long drops currently in use from telephone poles to homes.

Tax Appraisal Board Meets

At the regular meeting of the Parmer County Tax Appraisal Board Monday night a tentative budget was proposed.

The office of the Tax Appraisal Board has been located in the Bovina City Hall, pending construction of the building where it will be housed later. Advertisement of bids for construction of that building will be made in the very near future.

Members of the board accepted a contract for one year on the proposed building, contingent with the approval of the city of Bovina on some changes in wording in the contract.

The Board also okayed the lease of an automobile at $250 per month for the use of Mrs. Patsy Nance, chief appraiser.

"We've Come A Long Way" is the theme of this year's Border Town Days celebration, and the BTDC Committee has "come a long way" with the planning of the annual event in the Twin Cities set for July 25-26.

Twenty-one members of the BTDC Committee met Monday night to continue plans for the community celebration. The Committee is comprised of representatives of all clubs and civic organizations in both Texico and Farwell.

A wide variety of fun-filled activities is planned including a two-night rodeo, parade, barbecue, BTDC Queen contest, Fiddlers contest, Beard Growing contest, gymnastics performance and a host of other park activities and concessions.

Kicking off the celebration will be the High Plains Junior Rodeo Friday night sponsored by the Farwell Jaycees. The two performances will begin at 8 p.m. CDT Friday and Saturday, July 25 and 26.

Saturday's activities will begin with the BTDC parade at 11 a.m. CDT. Entrants are urged to sign up immediately by calling James Craig, parade marshal, or W.M. Roberts, assistant parade marshal, at 481-3371; or call the State Line Tribune at 481-3681. The sign-up is necessary so that a parade formation order sheet can be made up and passed out to parade entries as they line up.

Entrants will line up between 10:00 and 10:30 a.m. CDT south of Highway 60-70-84 at the old Texaco service station in Texico, proceed through the "main streets" of both communities, turn south on Fifth Street in Farwell and disband at the Farwell City Park. Prizes will be presented to the best parade entries.

Farwell Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring cash prizes for the three best floats including $50 for first place, $30 for second and $20 for third.

Texico Chamber of Commerce is providing first and second place trophies for the best old car entries.

T & A Welding of Texico is sponsoring the best decorated bicycles and giving a total of $51 cash in prizes. See details in an accompanying story.

The barbecue, co-sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club and the Farwell Jaycees, will begin at 12 noon CDT in the Farwell park and serving will continue until everyone is served.

Toe-tapping and hand clapping music will be presented by Ed and Juanita Hardage during the meal and throughout the afternoon.

The Fiddlers contest will start the afternoon activities in the park gazebo beginning at 1:30, followed by the BTDC Queen contest at 2:30. The Beard Growing contest will take place at approximately 3:30 and the performance by the Twin Cities Gymnastics group will be at 4:00. Farwell Chamber of Commerce will begin serving ice-cold watermelon at about 4:30.

To date five young ladies have entered the BTDC Queen

Contest which is to begin at 2:30 in the gazebo.

All girls who will be attending Farwell or Texico High School this fall are eligible to enter the contest and are urged to do so. Out-of-town judges will judge the girls on the basis of talent and personality. Each contestant must have a sponsor and pay an entry fee of $10. Sponsors may be clubs, businesses, individuals or civic organizations.

Girls wishing to enter the contest are urged to contact Joann Getz, contest chairman; Hattie Coffey or Ellen Wurster. Or they may bring their entry blanks along with a picture of themselves to the State Line Tribune.

A new feature this year will be an Arts and Crafts Show which will be set up in booths on the front courthouse lawn. According to reports, booths are still available for area artists to display their works. Anyone interested in obtaining a booth space may call Janie Bowery at 481-3620 or Sharon Men-ning at 481-9389.

Concessions and game booths will be set up in the park area and space is still available there. To obtain a park space, call Cynthia Thigpen at 481-3619.

To date, a list of concessions and games are as follows: Cokes and sno-cones, Alpha Rho Lambda sorority; tea and lemonade, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority; homemade ice cream, Texico Women's Club; baked goods, Senior Citizens; nachos, Oklahoma Lane Extension Homemakers; hot dogs and Fritos, Farwell Young Homemakers; Dr. Pepper and 7-Up, Farwell Study Club; candy kitchen, Texico FHA; flavor-ices, Farwell Jr. High cheerleaders; water and pamphlets, Baptist Women; horseshoe pitching, Joe Robertson sponsored by Texico Chamber of Commerce; dunking board and picture booth, Farwell Senior Class; and water polo, Texico Band Boosters and Drill Team.

T And A Welding Offers Prizes For Bike Riders

A new feature for this year's Border Town Days parade will be the judging of bicycles and their riders and presentation of $51 in prize money to the lucky winners.

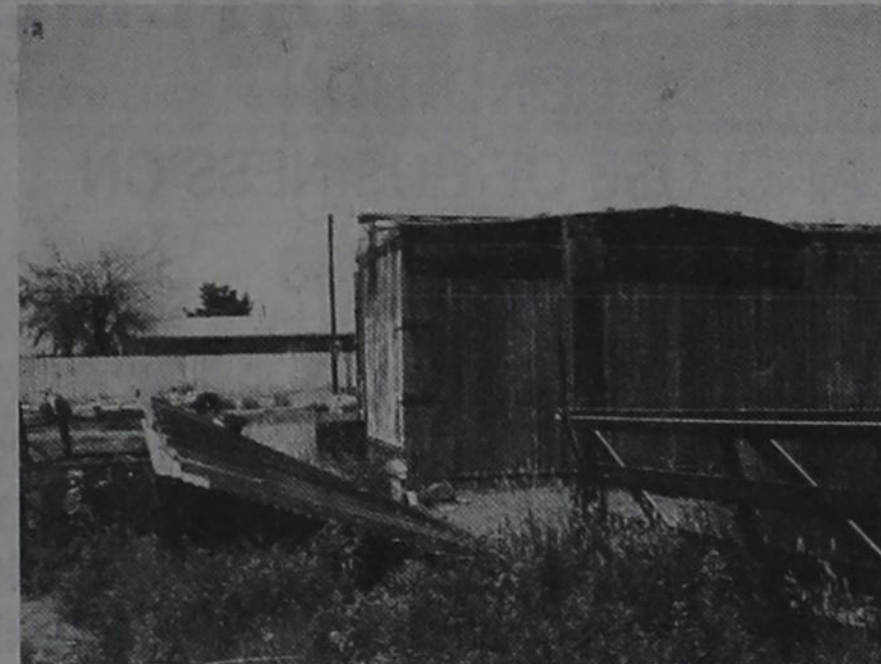

T and A Welding of Texico is sponsoring the prizes for bikes and bike riders in three categories. Three awards will be given in each category with first place getting $8.50, second place $5, and third place $3.50.

Categories include the bike with best costumed rider; best decorated bike in the six years and under age group; and best decorated bike in the seven through 12 year age group.

Rules include that each entrant must sign up and receive a number at the Texico City Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. MDT on July 23 and 24. To be eligible for the prizes each entrant must sign up on these two days.

Entrants then must line up at T and A Welding at 9 a.m. MDT July 26 for judging prior to the parade. Numbers must be displayed in plain sight on the bikes so that judges can see them easily.

So all youngsters in the Twin Cities are urged to get out their bikes and start decorating them and then sign up to enter the judging prior to the BTDC parade.

Landing Place

This tree was the landing place for much of the debris from a shed which was torn apart by a tornado at the Melvin Winter farm near Farwell Friday night. Parts of the shed and its roof wound up in the tree along with power lines which were severed by the flying debris. A yard fence was also torn down by the flying particles from the shed.

Shed Was Here

A shed which was destroyed in tornadic winds at the Melvin Winter farm Friday night had been attached to this boxcar before the winds hit. Pieces of the shed landed in the yard of the Winter home although the house itself was not damaged. The boxcar also had its roof pried loose in the fierce windstorm.

New Rotary Officers

New officers of the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club were installed at the regular meeting of the club Wednesday at Luce's Restaurant. Installing officer was Parker

A. Woodul, right, Past District Governor, who is shown presenting the gavel to the new president, Hugh Moseley. Others pictured are, from left, Joe Jones, treasurer; Jerry

Area Wheat Harvest Practically Finished

According to grain elevator operators in the area, this year's wheat harvest has just about drawn to a close.

Fred Chandler and Lonnie McFarland, Shirley-Anderson-Pitman elevator managers at Farwell and Lariat, both said that grain deliveries to those elevators by local farmers has completely ended, and Worthy Mills elevator managers, Bill Thigpen of Farwell and Ray Ford of Pleasant Hill, noted that they are still receiving some wheat, but that by the end of this week, that too, should stop.

All four men agreed that this year's wheat crop was average or a little below, and all named the hot, dry weather recently experienced as the root of the problem. On the average, wheat weighed about 58 or 59 pounds per bushel, a bit lighter than usual.

McFarland said that the Lariat elevator received more wheat this year than ever before due to the excess acreage planted, but that the extreme heat before the wheat was fully matured cut the weight. Thigpen commented that the crop was a little better than was anticipated, with some not so good, some good and some exceptional.

Parmer County Extension Agent Seth Ralston estimated that area dryland wheat that was harvested averaged 12-20 bushels per acre with irrigated wheat averaging 40-50 bushels per acre.

Ralston also said that the area vegetable harvest has begun, with potatoes and onions being first. He noted, too, that most corn in the area looks good and is tasseling and pollinating at the present time. However, if the hot, dry weather continues the corn may suffer.

Ralston said that corn farmers have experienced a problem with spider mites, but that Azodrin has recently been cleared for use on the insects.

Concerning cotton in the area, Ralston said that most is looking really good and so far the hot, dry weather has not been a factor. He commented that some cotton should be blooming this week.

In summation, Ralston expressed the thought that is on the mind of nearly everyone in the Farwell-Texico area, "We just need a rain."

Farwell School Board Fills Two Positions

At a regular meeting on July 7, the Farwell School Board voted to employ Edward L. Wees as high school math teacher.

Board members also voted to accept the resignation of Tom Knoy as high school principal. Don Malone, who is presently serving as elementary principal, was hired for the position of high school principal.

There will be a call meeting of the board on July 21 for the purpose of interviewing applicants for the elementary principal opening.

Members of the board voted to participate in the Parmer County Plan A Special Education Co-op in a building for preschool handicapped children. The building is to be paid for from federal funds.

In other business, board members tabled a proposal to allow the Parmer County Tax Appraisal District to use the tax appraisal records of the Farwell Independent School District.

The board also voted to use TASB/TASA Unemployment Compensation Group Account Program for the 1980-81 school year.

Board members present were Joe Hughes, Caroline Anderson, Bill Martin, Doyle Ford, Jim Walker and Wilbert Kalbas. Also present were W.M. Roberts, Don Malone, Jerry Owen, and Lynn Burton.

Swift student, this one. The teacher ordered him to stand up and state the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States for any given year. He looked around nervously, and said, "The year 1492—none."

Q. Any truth to the claim that freshly cut cucumbers rubbed on the face will improve the complexion?

A. No, nothing to it, unless you credit the thorough face washing necessary thereafter. Might mention, though, that young ladies all over this country believed the notion in the early '90s. Cucumbers were much in demand at the time.

Deadline Nears For Histories

Otho Whitefield of the Parmer County Historical Commission reminds all county residents that the deadline is approaching for having their family histories included in the second edition of the Parmer County Historical book.

It is hoped that the family histories will be turned in by July 20 for the book which is to include the time from 1900 until the present time, Whitefield says. Young families as well as those who have lived in the county for a long time are urged to have their family histories included in the book to leave a living legend for coming generations.

Family histories will be printed free of charge for the first 500 words with the cost to increase to 10 cents per word for those over 500. It is suggested that families include the names of their parents in their histories, and that for those deceased, think about including a memorial page for them. Memorial pages are $180 for a full page, $100 for one-half page, and $60 for a quarter-page. Tribute pages and business pages are the same price as the memorial pages.

Whitefield says that the leatherette-bound book with gold logo on its cover will consist of 625 pages. Cost to the publisher will be $27.50 with the books to sell for $35 including tax. Pre-sale of the books plus sale of memorial pages, tribute and business pages will pay for the publishing.

The book will consist of a general history and progress of the county along with individual histories, stories of schools, churches, businesses etc.

For persons needing help in writing their histories and stories, several workshops have been set around the county for assistance with this effort.

Please write your history and turn it in to a Historical Commission member by the July 20 deadline.

Linda Wilson, Leslie Redden Married In El Paso Ceremony

Linda Susan Wilson and Leslie L. Redden were united in marriage on June 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the Vista Hills Baptist Church, El Paso. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wilson, Texico. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arline Redden Tucumcari, and the late Harold Redden.

Officiating in the ceremony were the Rev. Mike Woods and the bride's brother, Rev. William M. Wilson.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of bridal satin feathering French pearlized overlay lace enhancing the bodice, the sheer long sleeves and appliques on the skirt with the skirt back forming a train. The scoop neckline was accented by lace cutwork. The headpiece was made with the wedding gown satin and lace and held the cathedral length veil of silk illusion with French pearlized overlay lace appliques and edged with scalloped lace. The bride's gown was designed by the bride. The bride's mother made the gown and veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of silk orchids encircled with lily of the valley, baby's breath and silk rose buds carrying out the Spring pastel theme.

Following tradition, for something new the bride wore the wedding attire and a heart shaped diamond necklace from the bridegroom; the borrowed cathedral train from her sister Janet; something blue, her garter; and for something old, the pennies worn in her shoes.

The couple gave their vows before an altar with candelabra bearing white tapers, arrangements of pastel gladioli and baskets of greenery. The family pews were marked with bows in pastel colors.

The matrons of honor for the bride were her sisters, Veda King of Stanley, N.M., and Janet Heidenreich of Arlington. The bridesmaids were Debby Frazier of Silver City, N.M. and Swanée Browning of Portales, college roommates of the bride, and Regina Kelley of Lubbock, school friend of the bride.

The bridal attendants were attired in Spring pastel colors of rose, yellow, baby blue, mint green and pink. Their floor length gowns featured flutter sleeves and Grecian layered design. The attendants carried three long stemmed silk roses and buds matching their gowns.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was Charlie Maciel of Tucumcari. Groomsmen were Harold Redden, Fort Sumner, and Laurence Redden, El Paso, brothers of the bridegroom; Dale English, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Donnie Neese of Tucumcari.

The bridegroom was attired in a chocolate brown cutaway tuxedo with a white silk rosebud boutonniere. The groomsmen tuxedos were toast brown. Their boutonnieres were silk rosebuds in pastel colors.

Trisha Redden, niece of the bridegroom, and David King II, nephew of the bride, were candlelighters. Leslie Redden, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Kevin King, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. The girls wore light pink organza gowns with flocked pastel flower designs. The boys wore toast brown tuxedos.

Soloist for the ceremony was Jack Greer of El Paso. He sang "My Cup Runneth Over," "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer." As the couple lit the unity candle, Jack sang "Our Spirits Are United," a selection he wrote for the wedding. He was accompanied by Tweedy Warren, pianist, who also played "Psalms 27" and "Trumpet Voluntair" as the processional and recessional.

The guests were escorted by David W. King, brother-in-law of the bride, of Stanley, Steve Benoit of Albuquerque, Chuck Browning of Portales, and Allen Hamilton of Santa Fe. The ushers wore toast brown tuxedos and ivory silk carnation boutonnières.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wilson selected a deep rose crepe floor length gown and accordion pleated skirt and sheer chiffon cape sleeves. Mrs. Redden wore a blue floor length gown with matching lace jacket. They wore orchid corsages complementing their gowns.

Mrs. Jill Chappel, El Paso, attended the guest book and presented the wedding programs.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the couple's new home. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered cake surrounded by fern and baby's breath and the top layer held an arrangement of yellow daisies and baby's breath. The yellow fruit-punch, pastel colored mints and mixed nuts were served on a yellow lace cloth.

The bridegroom's table featured a carrot cake with a revolving bride chasing the bridegroom centerpiece. An antique lace cloth over blue held a silver service for coffee, mints and mixed nuts. A silver champagne fountain centered on an ivory lace cloth also graced the dining room.

Hostesses were Jolene Benoit, Albuquerque, Ruth Wilson, Grand Prairie, Tex., Nori Maciel and Paula Neese, Tucumcari, and Debi Wilson, El Paso.

Guests were given satin roses filled with rice to show the couple as they left on their honeymoon. The new Mrs. Redden wore a voile street length floral dress and jacket ensemble with a white orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Sam King, Stanley; Mrs. Mike Fishburn and Michelle, Las Cruces; Dub Brashire, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. George McKinney, Las Cruces; Mrs. Bob Sloan, Santa Fe; and Les Valouche, Jr., San Antonio.

The couple was honored at several pre-nuptial parties. A shower was given by friends at church in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson, El Paso. Tweedy Warren made the large cake in the shape of bells, and wedding announcement decorations were used. Teachers at Eastwood High School honored the bride at an afternoon surprise shower at school. Employees at Benoit Equipment Company also gave the couple a surprise shower and a luncheon.

Attendants and close friends were feted with a noon luncheon and pool party at the couple's home hosted by the bride's parents. Following the rehearsal, the bridegroom hosted a dinner at The Cinder in El Paso for all attendants and close friends.

Following their honeymoon to Mazatlan, Mexico, the couple is at home in El Paso.

After the meal, the Getzes then drove to Ruidoso where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hopkins of Clovis for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis of Texico have returned from a 30-day stay in California. They visited the family of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Bullard, and children, Gean, Scott, and Sherry, in Chico, and an uncle of Mr. Lewis in Orland.

While in Orland, the couple attended the activities of the senior citizens group there, and Mr. Lewis and his uncle fished in the Sacramento River and Reservoir. Fishing was evidently good, for Mr. Lewis said that they caught lots of five and six pound channel cat.

Johnny Curtis Wins Trip To Ruidoso

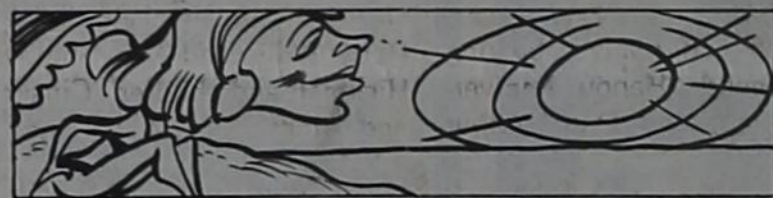

John and Pauletta Curtis of Farwell returned Sunday from Ruidoso where they had enjoyed an all-expense-paid four-day stay at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

June is National Dairy Month and at that time each year Borden Milk Plant in Amarillo sponsors a June Dairy Month contest. The distributor with the largest overall percentage increase of sales for the month is awarded a four-day, three-night vacation at the Inn of the Mountain Gods. Curtis had about a 35 percent increase in sales over last June to win the coveted trip.

While in Ruidoso, the couple golfed, boated on Lake Mescalero, and swam. Also in attendance during their stay were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Graves, general manager of Borden, Inc.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunn, district supervisor; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Owens, Borden Ice Cream Plant manager; all of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hanks, Allsup's Inc., of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Masters of Lovington, and Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Karyn Blain And D.A. Black Exchange Wedding Vows Karyn Gail Blain of Farwell and D.A. Black of Clovis were united in marriage on June 14 in the Farwell First Baptist Church. Rev. Dudley Bristow, minister, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Billie Blain of Farwell and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Juanita Black of Melrose.

The bride was given in marriage by her brothers, Gary Blain of Amarillo and Ken Blain of Hereford.

She was attired in a Juliet styled gown of ivory dulcette satin and chantilly lace. The all-lace bodice featured a V-shaped decollete, accented with two rows of seed pearls, and lace appliques over the sheer yoke. The high neckline and long tapered sleeves were of the same sheer lace with seed pearls scattered over the lace flowers. The satin skirt flowed from an empire waistline and was trimmed at the hemline with lace and seed pearls that followed around to border her chapel length train. The bride's fingertip length veil was attached to a half-circle crown covered with lace and seed pearls.

She carried a white satin-covered Bible with a cascade arrangement of peach carnations, stephanotis and white daisy pom mums, accented by white satin streamers and baby's breath.

For "something old" the bride wore a ruby ring belonging to her maternal grandmother. "Something new" was a diamond necklace given to her by the bridegroom. Her wedding dress was borrowed from Susan Johnson, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

Karen and D.A. exchanged vows before an altar centered with a large fan-shaped vase arrangement of yellow gladioli, fuji mums and peach carnations surrounded by an arch and spiral candleabra holding 35 yellow tapers. A double kneeling bench and unity candle completed the decorations.

Matron of honor was Vickie Davis of Lubbock, sister of the bride. Gina Eubank of Farwell was bridesmaid and Mrs. Jana Roberts, also of Farwell, was bridesmatron.

The bride's attendants all wore floor length dresses of yellow crepe with attached floral capelets. The matron of honor carried long stemmed peach and yellow carnations accented with yellow streamers and baby's breath. The other attendants carried yellow carnations with yellow streamers and baby's breath.

Candles were lighted by Gia Blain of Amarillo, who wore a yellow floor length dress fashioned after those of the bride's attendants. Ring bearer was Colynn Hickman of Melrose. Orangist was LeAndra Byrd; pianist was Susan Johnson; and soloists were Shana Blain, sister of the bride; and Doug Cigenhuis of Clovis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Blain chose a yellow floor length dress of qiana knit and wore a shoulder corsage of peach carnations with yellow ribbons and baby's breath.

The bridegroom's mother wore a peach colored floor length dress of qiana knit and a shoulder corsage of yellow carnations with peach ribbons and baby's breath.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall following the ceremony. The table featured a three-tiered wedding cake topped with an open Bible and two doves. It was enhanced with yellow and peach roses. Assistant Parmer County Extension Agent for Home Economics

We have had so many days of record high temperatures that many people are suffering hot weather related health problems.

the sweat so effectively that you don't get damp skin or soaked clothes. Drink plenty of water, don't be lulled by the false idea that you're not losing any.

How To Avoid Hot Weather Problems

If you become overexposed to the sun or overexert during extreme heat and humidity this summer, you may get heat cramps, heat exhaustion, or possibly even the rare but serious heatstroke.

Avoiding these hot-weather complications is more than simply a matter of staying in cool or air-conditioned areas and walking on the shady side of the street—as important as those precautions are. You'll also need to pay attention to medically sound preventive steps.

1. Wear loose-fitting, light-colored clothing that reflects the sun's rays and allows for better sweat evaporation, and wear a wide-brimmed hat for added protection.

2. Avoid sudden changes of temperature, such as dashing from an air-conditioned building to a hot sidewalk or car. Before getting into a car that's been parked in the sun, open it up for a few minutes.

3. Stick to cool drinks and food, and salt your food liberally. Salt tablets are seldom necessary if you have a well-balanced diet. If you feel the need for salt tablets, check first with your doctor. (see #12)

4. Don't overeat. Don't overindulge in alcoholic drinks. Your body system needs extra water in hot weather, whether or not your thirst sensation increases. Drink water often, even when you don't feel the urge.

5. Acclimate yourself by limiting exposure to the sun or strenuous outdoor activities to just 15 minutes on the first hot day, adding 15-30 minutes each day over a week or 10 days.

6. Avoid outdoor physical activity between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. whenever possible.

7. When you exercise in the heat, take a 5-10 minute break every half-hour. Don't exercise just before or after meals.

8. Drink plenty of water or salted lemonade when you're exercising. You may have heard that drinking water when you're hot and active will bring on stomach cramps, but it is not true; you need to keep up your water intake to replace what you're losing in sweat—so drink when you're thirsty.

9. Also take extra precautions whenever the humidity is high during a heat wave. When the relative humidity gets above 60 percent, the air won't absorb as much sweat as your body needs to get rid of, and by 75 percent relative humidity, it won't absorb any. This, coupled with high temperatures, is particularly dangerous.

10. If the weather is hot and dry you may not feel sweaty, but in high temperatures you indeed are sweating; the dry air is evaporating

Local Students Named WTSU Honor Scholars

President's Honor Scholars at West Texas State University have been named from 160 schools in a five-state region for the 1980-81 academic year.

The 350 students from Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and one student from Bloomington, Ind., have been chosen to receive $100 scholarships.

Farwell High School graduates receiving the scholarships include Dondra Geries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Geries; Paul Hukill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Hukill; and Ruth Ann Whitesides, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Whitesides.

Kerri Donahey of Texico High School also received a scholarship. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Donahey.

The program was begun with contributions to the President's Development Fund. Scholarships since have been awarded through interest on the fund, $200,000 from the Harrington Founation and $1,000 from Dr. Charles Townsend, WTSU professor of history.

The first group of President's Honor Scholars numbered 216 and 322 were awarded scholarships last year, said Keith Winter, director of development, whose office awards the scholarships.

Students must be members of National Honor Society chapters in high school or a similar honor organization or graduate with honors.

Winter's office receives a list of eligible students from NHS sponsors and high school principals in the Texas Panhandle and South Plains area, eastern New Mexico and other areas. The program also is discussed when admissions advisers visit schools to recruit students.

President's Honor Scholars will be honored at a reception at WTSU on September 9, and parents will be invited to a reception on September 27.

State 4-H Contests Set For Conference

"4-H contests teach young people the decision-making process," according to Ken Sabo, Extension 4-H program leader for New Mexico State University. State 4-H contests are planned as part of the State 4-H Conference, July 14-18, on the New Mexico State University campus in Las Cruces.

4-H youths, 14-19 years old, may enter contests for judging, identification, public speaking and demonstrations. There will be 18 contests from which a participant may choose. They range from modeling clothing in the clothing revue to selecting, washing, trimming, and training a lamb for the sheep showmanship contest.

"These senior events help youths demonstrate the skills they have worked so hard to perfect in county and district

4-H activities. These skills may range from performing confidently before a group, or making comparative decisions, to evaluating the quality of a product," Sabo says.

NMSU Extension specialists and county agents serve as chairmen and assistants for these state contests.

Special 4-H ribbons, medals and plaques are awarded to top teams and individuals as a reminder of their outstanding achievements.

For more information concerning the State 4-H Conference, contact your local county Extension office.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
Most Americans realize that we have been bankrupt in leadership for the last 3 1/2 years. We have proved that to the rest of the nations of the world by our amateurish foreign policies and decision bungling in general. But hopefully we are not bankrupt in brainpower.

Let all serious minded American voters use their best judgement and go to the polls this coming November and let the world of nations know that we also are sick and tired of the professional politician, Jimmy Carter, who must be retired to his peanut farm in Georgia.

Let us again show the spirit of teamwork that has made America the strongest and the greatest nation in the world, and by so doing we will say to the rest of the world that we are still proud of the good old U.S.A.

Do you as freedom-loving Americans remember when Jimmy Carter made the following statement:

"I would not tell a lie. I would not make a misleading statement. If I ever do any of those things, don't support me."

Four years ago Jimmy Carter advised the American public not to vote for him if he misled them.

If the electorate follows his advice, Carter should not receive a single vote in November.

It is difficult for me to understand why anyone is taking Jimmy Carter serious for a second term of office.

In just 3 1/2 years under Carter's weak leadership and much bungling, we have lost the respect of our allies. He has chided everyone from the Russians to Khomeini. In effect he has said to Russia of the Olympics: "If you don't do what I say and listen to my puny threats, our kids can't play with your kids." (Hogwash)

Is this the kind of leadership you desire for America? The difference between Moses and Jimmy Carter is the tablets Carter has handed down for us to live by are made of aspirin.

It seems to me that Reagan may very well be our next President. (I pray that he shall be.) Perhaps he will rise to the national level as he did to the state government of California. At least the good Lord is giving we Americans another opportunity, another chance to return honesty and integrity to the oval office.

If we ever needed a man to stand in the gap, it's now. I sincerely believe that as freedom-loving Americans, we can change the sad situation that we find ourselves in. Pray about it, think about it, vote the convictions of your heart, regardless of party affiliation. Vote for a man, but most important of all, let's vote to keep America free and strong, vote for a change before it's too late.

FOOD FOCUS

Mae Martha Johnson
Extension Food Specialist

Dear Food Focus:
Now that it is summer, we are thinking about backyard picnics, but we can't afford the steaks we used to cook on the grill. Can you make some suggestions for a substitute?

Barbecue steaks and chops until they are well browned. Spareribs are a favorite for the grill. If they are very fat, you may want to parboil them for about 30 minutes to remove some of the fat. Then, they should cook on the grill for another 30 minutes. If they are not parboiled, plan on cooking them for about 90 minutes over a low heat.

Backyard Chef

Dear Chef:
Try cooking two of this season's most plentiful meats, chicken and pork. They are both delicious when barbecued on the charcoal grill.

You can cook whole chickens on a spit if you have one. Or, use halves, quarters or individual pieces. Choose small birds for cooking whole or halved. If you are using quarters or individual pieces, larger chickens will do as well.

Baste the meat with melted fat or a basting sauce and grill over medium heat until done - about one hour. If you are using a sauce which contains tomato or some form of sugar, don't add the sauce until the chicken is almost done.

Pork roast, chops and ribs are all good for barbecuing. Roast pork will be best boned and butterflied or spread open. A meat thermometer can be inserted near the end of the cooking period to insure an internal temperature of 170 degrees Fahrenheit.

Dear Food Focus:
I left a tuna sandwich in my lunch box overnight. Is it safe to eat today?

Still Hungry
Please don't eat it and next time take better care of your lunch. A tuna sandwich should either be frozen when you put it in the lunch box or packed with some other frozen food to keep it cool until lunch time.

Generally the time food can remain at room temperature before being eaten is about two hours. After that there may be enough bacterial growth to make you sick.

If you don't have a place to refrigerate your lunch, make your sandwich the evening before and freeze it. This will keep the sandwich safe and it can also help keep other foods cool. If you like lettuce and tomato in your sandwiches, pack them separately and add them to the sandwich at lunch time.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

GRACE NOT EARNED

Have you ever noticed that God does not hold the great men of Scripture up to us because of their personal goodness? Almost invariably their records are spoiled by failure and sin... but God bids us look at their FAITH, to see what their FAITH did for them. Even those who lived consistently good lives are not held up to us for their personal worth, because God knows their imperfections. This is why Rom. 4:2,3 says:
"For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory - but not before God."
"For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."
And Verse 6 goes on to say about David:
"Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."
This is because man CANNOT live a life good enough to make him acceptable to God, for with God only perfection is good enough. One sin spoiled the earth; God will not allow one sin to spoil heaven too. This is why in grace He gave Christ to die for our sins and pay the just penalty for us. Because of the all-sufficient payment of Christ in our behalf, God can now be "just, AND the Justifier" of those who place their faith in Christ (Rom. 3:26).
The famous eleventh chapter of Paul's letter to the Hebrews bears out the fact that salvation, or acceptance with God, is obtained not by human effort but BY FAITH. This great chapter on the heroes in God's "Hall of Fame" begins with the words: "For by it [faith] the elders obtained a good report," and then goes on: "By faith Abel..." "By faith Enoch..." "By faith Noah..." "By faith Abraham..." etc., etc., and closes with the declaration:
"And these all... obtained a good report through faith..."
The lesson: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

Consider Farm Grain Storage Investments

Due to economic, marketing and agricultural policy development, grain producers might consider investing in additional on-farm storage, says Seth Ralston, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Domestic and worldwide production uncertainties, increasing volumes of stored grain with the resulting decrease in available commercial storage space, uncertain transportation during harvest, and grain embargos are just a few factors that make the flexibility of on-farm storage more important.

Besides being an alternative for adjusting to various uncertainties, on-farm grain storage may represent an essential building block for the producer who intends to assume an increasingly greater role in marketing his grain commodities.

In general, grain storage is profitable whenever the expected seasonal increase in price is greater than the cost of storing the commodity over the specified time period. In evaluating the pay-off of farm grain storage, Ralston outlines a number of principles and considerations provided by farm management specialists:

1. If in a planning situation

(before erecting the grain storage facility), the average seasonal increase in the grain price should be adequate to cover the per bushel or per hundredweight fixed cost and variable cost of storing grain.

2. In the planning stage, the producer should identify commercial grain facilities within his immediate area and determine the year-round availability and cost of that storage. In this stage, the producer may be ill-advised to erect on-farm storage if his projected total fixed and variable cost is greater than the cost of commercial storage, with all other factors equal.

3. If the grain bins are already installed and the producer considers storing grain, then the seasonal increase in the price of his grain must at least exceed the amount of his variable cost per hundredweight or per bushel. In this situation, since the fixed cost must be incurred whether the facilities are used or not, fixed costs are irrelevant in deciding whether to store grain.

4. A producer who already has on-farm grain storage would choose commercial storage over his own only if his variable costs of storage exceed the cost of using commercial storage.

5. Numerous factors which influence investment requirements and variable costs would be expected to differ from farm to farm and from year to year. Interest on the grain investment, for instance, is influenced by the value of the grain, interest rate and length of the storage period.

6. Due to the size of Texas and the resulting variation in harvest dates for a given commodity, published state monthly average prices may be inappropriate for establishing the seasonal price pattern at a specific location. Ideally, one should use price data specific to that location. Rather than assuming that the producer is always able to sell for the highest price during the storage period, assume that he will realize the average of prices established during that period.

7. If farm grain storage appears unprofitable, one should consider the size of the grain storage facility evaluated. Smaller systems appear to be relatively more expensive to buy and operate per hundredweight or bushel than larger systems.

8. Although investment in grain storage facilities may be projected to be profitable, the ability of the firm to meet the cash flow requirements of servicing the debt must be established. In addition, storing the grain after harvest rather than selling at harvest as usual will affect the firm's cash flow pattern as established in previous years.

9. Profitable grain storage depends upon management maintaining good quality control over stored grain. Otherwise deteriorating grain quality may eliminate any gains from seasonal price increases.

10. Other benefits and considerations are that on-farm storage may increase harvesting efficiency, selling grain through livestock or in smaller lots offers flexibility, and income tax advantages include investment credit and depreciation and the opportunity for timing sales.

Ralston emphasizes the need for including these principles and considerations in making correct investment decisions that will pay off in the future.

CONTROL CATTLE GRUBS

Each year between June and September, Texas livestock producers can effectively control costly cattle grubs by applying livestock insecticides, says Seth Ralston, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Grub control can be achieved with a variety of treatments which includes sprays, dips, pour-ons, spot-ons and feed mixes.

During late fall and winter, grubs appear on the backs of livestock. It's too late to begin control measures then since most of the damage has already been done.

In addition to controlling cattle grubs, an insecticide used now will also provide contact control of horn flies for two to three weeks. Ralston says this makes the overall cost of treatment favorable.

Insecticides suggested for grub control include coumaphos (CO-Ral), crufomate (Ruelene), phosmet (Prolate), trichlorfon (Neguvon), famphur (warbex), fenthion (Tiguvon), and ronnel. Read and follow directions on the insecticide label before treatment. Cattle that are sick or under stress should not be treated.

The cattle grub is the larval stage of the heel fly. The adult fly has no mouth parts, so it causes no pain to the cattle. However, it frightens cattle, making them difficult to manage. Animals often seek relief by standing in shade or shallow water.

The life cycle begins when the heel fly lays its eggs on an animal. The eggs, glued to hairs, hatch within a few days, and larvae (worms) enter the skin at hair follicles. The immature stages then migrate through the animal's body for six to eight months and reappear in the animal's back in the fall and winter, forming knot-like marbles or cysts.

Cattle grub losses are affected in a variety of ways. Besides damaging meat and hides by their feeding activity, they lower beef cattle gains and reduce milk production throughout the year. Profit losses are estimated to cost the Texas cattle producers $8 - $10 million each year.

Get A 'Taste' Of Hydroponic Gardening

Get a "taste" of hydroponic gardening - by growing your own bean sprouts at home.

It won't really be the same, but it will give you an idea of what hydroponic gardening means, says Dr. Rose Tindall Postel, a foods and nutrition specialist.

Hydroponic gardening means growing garden crops in water and feeding the plants with nutrients added to the water, she explains.

Dr. Postel, on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, suggests the following instructions, developed for kids ages nine to 12, from the "1979 Yearbook of Agriculture."

- 1) Get these supplies together: beans, a screw-top jar, water and a little time. Wash a half cup of the beans and soak them overnight in cold water.
- 2) Drain off the water.

In Cotton Policy - -

USDA Announces Changes

At the urging of three Texas congressmen, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced two major changes which will affect Texas farmers in a positive manner.

The changes, made at the request of U.S. Reps. Kent Hance, Jack Hightower and Charles Stenholm, were the lowering of cotton loan discounts and the lowering of home interest rates on Farmer's Home Administration programs.

"The lowering of cotton loan discounts should provide an additional $10 million to the income of West Texas farmers," Hance said. "We are very pleased to see the Agriculture Department making these policy changes. In addition to providing an additional $3 per bale in cotton production income, the lowering of FmHA program interest rates will provide additional boost to area farmers."

"It is certainly not the total change we need, but it definitely is a step in the right direction for a change and should prove to be a good break for Texas farmers."

The USDA on May 15 announced its policy for figuring cotton loan premiums, discounts for quality of cotton, and discounts for cotton micronaire. These discounts were considerably higher than those used for 1979 and were expected to cost farmers a large part of their revenues. However, after pressure from the three Texas congressmen, all who represent heavy cotton-producing districts, the USDA rescinded its earlier policy for micronaire discounts, but made no change for the grade and staple discounts. The decision affects mainly Texas cotton resulting in approximately $3 per bale additional revenue.

The second part of the USDA policy change dropped interest rates on farm loans under the FmHA programs. Interest rates on FmHA programs were at 14 percent but were reduced to: 13.5 percent on Emergency Money (EM); 12.5 percent on E.M. Real Estate loans; 11.5 percent on Economic Emergency (EE); 11 percent on EE Real Estate loans; 10.5 percent on Operating Loans; and 11 percent on Farm Ownership Loans. 1980 Crop Loans were set at 11.5 percent.

Punch holes in the lid of your screw-top jar.

Put the beans in it and screw on the lid.

3) Put the jar in a dark place.

Rinse the beans with water and drain them two or three times each day.

Each time, put the jar back in a dark place.

Sprouts grow very fast - they'll be ready to eat in five days.

They're really good in salads, or cooked with other vegetables.

Bean sprouts, of course, are only the beginnings of plants.

If they were to grow much bigger and develop green leaves and stems, they would need more than just the water you would give them to make sprouts. Also, they would need soil, light and air.

Texico Cheerleaders Prepare For Year

Members of the Texico Varsity Cheerleading squad have already begun to prepare for the 1980-81

Representing the high school will be Kerri Gaddis, 16-year-old junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaddis; Rhonda Tharp, 16-year-old senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan (Butch) Tharp, who will act as head cheerleader; Dana Burk, 16-year-old junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Burk, who will be Wally Wolverine during football season but will not travel with the group to other sports events; Terri Tatum, 15-year-old sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jackson; Cara Reid, 15-year-old junior, daughter of Jerry Reid and Mrs. Jeree Reid; and Lisa Reid, 16-year-old junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reid.

The girls and their sponsor, Mrs. Paula Leighton, met several times in June and early July to select their uniforms, plan fund raising activities, and begin work on posters which will be used throughout the year.

In order to raise money, the cheerleaders plan to sponsor bake sales, car washes, an afghan raffle, and a TV set raffle. Helton Oil has donated money for the purchase of mini-footballs which will be tossed into the crowd by the cheerleaders during home games.

The squad elected not to go to a cheerleading camp this summer, but are attending a clinic staged by the Clovis varsity cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. Eileen Pyle.

Beginning July 14, the young ladies will meet twice weekly for actual practice sessions.

Mrs. Leighton said that the members of the squad will be working hard to boost the spirit of Texico athletes and that the continued support on the part of the fans will be appreciated.
