Local Students Prep For College

--by Iris Goldsmith

With the coming of September, one is reminded of the cool, crisp days, the coming of football season, Homecoming and mums, the blazing colors of autumn leaves, and of course, the excited preparations of students to attend the college of their choice.

It is that time again, and several students from Farwell find the days growing short in which they rush about looking for that grey wool skirt, or the tennis racket they just know they put in the top of their closet, or that favorite pair of tennis shoes.

Being in the midst of this rush myself, I was curious to know how many other graduates from Farwell High of the past two or three years would be attending for the first time, or returning to, college this fall.

I regret that many were not available for interviews, but several have disclosed their plans.

A quick survey of the many different colleges chosen by those interviewed, show that nine students are planning to attend West Texas State University; six will attend Texas Tech; ENMU, and South Plains Junior College at Levelland, four each; two will attend Hardin-Simmons University; and McMurry, Abilene Christian College, Wayland, Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and the Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing in St. Louis, Mo., one each.

Those attending college as freshmen are: Barbara Bieler will enter ENMU and major in English. Pat Landrum will also attend ENMU and plans to major in elementary education.

Mike Landrum will attend Texas Tech as an accounting major. Doris Donaldson plans to attend WT. She will major in business.

Margaret Haseloff will travel to St. Louis, Mo., where she will enter the Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing.

Patricia Kaltwasser will enter South Plains Junior College at Levelland and at the present she is undecided as to what she will choose as her major field.

Kaye Kube will also travel to Missouri, but she will go to Columbia, Mo., where she will attend Stephens College. Her major is undecided.

Shirlene Martin plans to attend South Plains Junior College, but does not know what she will major in.

Charles Roberts is among the nine who will attend WT, and he has decided to make mathematics his major field of study.

Paula Winegeart had decided to enter McMurry College in Abilene, where she will be either a chemistry or a pre-med major.

Pete Rolland will enter Texas Tech, but has not decided his major. Pete worked the past year in Lubbock.

Velda Paine will attend South Plains Junior College but is not certain what she will major in.

Jeannie Pettigrew plans to be a speech major at WT. Kenneth Smith will also attend WT, but has not chosen a major.

Among those returning to college as upperclassmen will be:

Christine Paine will return to South Plains Junior College as a sophomore medical technology major.

Dickie Gerles will be a sophomore at WT where he is tentatively majoring in agriculture.

Jolene Donaldson will return as a sophomore English major at Hardin-Simmons University.

Mike Getz will be a sophomore at WT, but has no definite major at this time.

Errol Johnson will also be a sophomore at WT, and is majoring in pre-pharmacy.

Bobby Tomlinson will return to Texas Tech as a sophomore physics major.

Iris Goldsmith will return to Abilene Christian College where she will be a sophomore physical education and biology major.

Peggy White will be a sophomore elementary education major at Hardin-Simmons University.

Jerry Lovelace has returned to Texas Tech as a sophomore physical education major. He left August 25 for football practice.

Mike Billington will return to WT as a sophomore, and has not chosen a major as yet.

Tommy Wurster will be a junior accounting major at Texas Tech this fall.

Loyd Allen Cain returns to ENMU as a junior psychology major.

Bill Owen will be a junior agriculture major at WT.

Benjy Dial has returned to ENMU for football practice, where he is a junior physical education and math major.

Jean Reed will attend Wayland College as a junior biology major.

Tommy Williams will return to Texas Tech as a junior chemical engineering major.

These students will leave Farwell for college in the next two and three weeks. Those attending Hardin-Simmons, A.C.C., McMurry, South Plains Jr., and ENMU, plan to leave around September 7. Those attending WT and Tech plan to leave about September 16. Kaye Kube and Margaret Haseloff plan to leave September 9.

Several Texico students are preparing for college, also. Those attending who graduated from Texico this past spring are:

Judy Tharp plans on entering Hardin-Simmons University but is still undecided on a major field. She will leave for college Sept. 7.

Lattia Harrison will also enter HSU as an elementary education major, and will also leave Sept. 7.

James Watts plans to attend Draughton's Business School in Lubbock, but time of his departure was not available.

Joe Teel will attend ENMU this fall, leaving Sept. 8, but he

With the storage, members feel that water pressure would be good at all times. Also, added storage would reduce fire rates. Studies indicate that a city needs 50,000 gallons of storage for every 1000 people. With added facilities the city would have enough storage for 3000 people on this basis.

A public meeting will be called after bids have been received for the water tank. Plans are to purchase a sphere-type tank resembling the one in Dimmitt, Texas. Maintenance is considered some cheaper and it was also noted that no outside ladders are built on this type tank, which should discourage youngsters from climbing the ladders and being injured.

Helton--

loss each and made the second game necessary to determine the tournament championship. Lubbock won it, 4-3, in 11 innings after the end of regulation seven-innings of play saw the score tied, 3-3.

Carter turned iron man for the Monday night finals, pitching both games, which totaled 18 innings.

The Ollers enjoyed a 3-1 lead as late as the sixth inning, but saw Lubbock turn on the pressure to tie it up and force the tilt into extra innings.

Reeger again delivered the winning blow, this time with a sharply hit single to centerfield with a runner on second base in top of the eleventh.

N. D. Kelso, Eddie Smith and Hadley, each scored a run for the Ollers' total of three.

In advancing to the finals,

Helton won over the KCLV Rangers, 4-1, Friday night. Carter again turned in a one-hitter in that game--a homerun. Scoring a run each for the Ollers were Kelso, Glendon Sudderth, Sonny Gentry and Dolph Moten.

In Sunday afternoon's first game for the Texico-Farwell team, they came from behind to whip White's Auto of Portales, 5-4. The winning effort featured homeruns by Carter and Hadley.

In Sunday's second tilt, Koeling limited the Lubbock team to three hits and won it, 2-1. Eddie Smith and Don Gillis each scored a Helton run to provide the winning margin.

In addition to receiving the second place trophy in the tournament, the Helton squad was also honored by Hadley being named the outstanding hitter and Carter receiving the best pitcher trophy.

The tournament ended season play for the Ollers, who represented the Clovis District in state tournament play in Albuquerque early in August.

Steers--

ed that Seagraves, whom the Steers face in their third game, are the third-ranked class A team in the state. "We could win nine or 10 games, or lose the same number, just as easily," he concluded.

Yep, it's the right decision if you land in the right hotel. In this column I constantly urge people to appreciate that they are individuals — each a unique person and personality — and no one is a carbon-copy of another. Each person has the God-given privilege to seek what best suits HIM. This is why the usual blanket-advice handed out to everybody is so ridiculous! Even from their brochures you've probably discovered that not all retirement hotels are alike, either. Not all are populated by the active and alert. I have seen some residents so apathetic that they budge only at meal-time. Facilities vary greatly, too. My advice: inquire carefully. Ask all questions pertinent to you. Get every detail. Visit, if you can. Check in for a try-out. Don't plank down any hefty sum in advance. One retiree calls her hotel "God's waiting room." (She's moving out.) Sympathetic managements will gladly cooperate with you!

LOOK — BEFORE YOU LEAVE!

My friends are two retired teachers. They want to leave their apartment and move to a warm climate. Any suggestions?
Pauline L. Sherman, New York City

A barrelful of suggestions, but I'll try to be brief . . . Their first step is to find the right community. The sun doesn't shine on everything alike. They should ask: "Does this community know I exist? What does it do for me?" Housing is not only shelter, but a way of life! Does the community provide resources and conveniences? These include not only a house for easy livability, but (lots more important) a shopping center, nursing service should they need it, a nearby hospital or medical clinic, sports and recreations, and, most especially for your retired teachers, activities familiar and beloved in music, literature, lectures, culture. Some sunshine paradises are satellite communities feeding on the fringe benefits of the nearest city. Without transportation your teachers might be marooned! Equally vital: is it a warm and friendly community in a warm climate? Otherwise they can get a frost-bite on top of their suntan! For these reasons alone (and there are others) your friends should personally inspect an area before uprooting themselves. The most reputable retiree communities urge this!

At the Golden Age Club I attend, some pushy new people have taken over. They now end all meetings with dancing and even bring their own stupid music. It's disgusting. Before they barged in, I used to sit at the east side of the room and all the women would come over to chat. Now they hop all over the dance floor. I try to catch their eye but they avoid me. I sit all alone and feel like a wallflower. What can I do to make them ashamed of themselves?
I am 73.
Wallflower, Albany, N.Y.

Who's the target, the pushy people or the dancing girls? Since you met defeat at the east side, try the west side. While you're busy stepping to make the switch, maybe you, too, will be caught up in the whirl!

Need help on a problem? Write to Helen Alpert in care of this newspaper! Available now on request: the free booklet, "20 Money-Making Hobbies," sent compliments of this column.

Harding Receives MA Degree

Lubbock--Texas Tech conferred 135 master's degrees during summer commencement, Aug. 29.
Lt. Gov. Preston Smith delivered the principal address during ceremonies in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium. A total of 552 graduate and undergraduate degrees were conferred during the exercises. Those receiving the master's degrees include: Nathan Robert Harding Jr.--government; Harding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Harding Sr., of Farwell. He is married to the former Mary Joyce Rolland, daughter of the D. O. Rollands also of Farwell.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capital

Texas' new Parks-Wildlife Commission has reclassified its personnel in keeping with the $3,500,000 budget set by the Legislature. Reclassification will result in an additional $10,000 in salary expenses.

Commissioners voted to keep all personnel from the old Parks Board and the Game and Fish Commission on the payroll.

Howard Dodgen, former executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, will be retained as a Consultant to the Board until January.

Commission also approved Executive Director Weldon Watson's recommendation that the state parks system be managed through the five regional offices used by game officials. Regional headquarters are located in La Porte, Rockport, San Angelo, Tyler and Waco.

NEW TREND?--There seems to be a new trend toward refusing federal aid. The Irving School Board spurned an offer of an $11,000 grant because "of the growing danger of federal control of the school curriculum."

But most school systems still accept educational assistance from the U. S. government. Texas Education Agency, looking at preliminary figures for the 1962-1963 school year, found $33,700,000 was paid to Texas schools by federal programs.

In some cases, however, acceptance is selective. Both Houston and Dallas, which have local programs geared to prevent student drop-outs, refused cash grants for a similar federal program.

Houston and Dallas also are among the Texas towns which reject federal funds for school lunch programs. Others include Odessa, Goose Creek, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Henderson, Longview, Borger and Alvin.

U. S. AID--Abilene turned down a $446,730 offer of aid for a $3,000,000 sewer treatment plant from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Federal grants for $3,000,000 worth of sewer treatment improvements in Texas are recommended and administered by State Health Department officials.

Funds refused by Abilene were distributed among the following towns: Fritch, Gonzales, Graford, Hidalgo, Markum, Mineral Wells, Richland Hills, Smiley, West Columbia and Windom.

TEXAS' TAX TAKE -- Although the Lone Star State accepted less federal money than many other states during the fiscal year that ended on June 30, it received slightly more than it paid out, according to a survey by Congressional Quarterly.

Texans paid about 4.26 per cent of all taxes received by the federal government. It reaped 4.81 per cent of the $10,000,000-plus federal grant total, or $500,295,000.

National average of federal aid received was $56 per capita. In Texas, the assistance averaged $49 per citizen. Alaskans were high with a per capita average of $266. Low was New Jersey with $34 per capita.

Schools and sewage systems were just a few targets of federal aid. In fiscal 1962, this state received $128,734,600 for highway construction; $31,120,182 for unemployment insurance; $62,832,854 for agricultural conservation; $139,252,153 for welfare assistance, and $13,350,583 for the national guard, as well as aid in other fields.

VENISON POPULAR FOOD--State Parks and Wildlife Department has a booklet available for free distribution, which should be of interest to ranchers, hunters and just about everyone.

Its title is "Texas Deer Herd Management -- Problems and Principles." Booklet was written by James G. Teer, wildlife biologist formerly employed by the state. In his book, Teer points out that deer herds of Texas produce more than 6,000 tons of meat for family consumption last year. Another bulletin, newly-revised, also can be secured without cost. It's called "Poisonous Snakes of Texas and the First Aid Treatment of Their Bites."

SALES TAX RECEIPTS

SOAR--State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert announced that sales tax revenues for the fiscal year which ended on August 31 will exceed his expectations. Earlier, Calvert, predicted sales tax income for the state would total $177,975,013. Now he says it will be $2,141,429 more, or a total of $180,116,442.

CONSTRUCTION INCREASE -- Residential construction accounted for $81,600,000 of the $142,000,000 worth of construction authorized in the state in July. It was the highest July and the third highest monthly level in 17 years.

So reports the UT Bureau of Business Research.

GAS BILLS VARY -- A study of records, which the Texas Railroad Commission keeps on municipal gas rate structures, reveals a wide variance in gas rates across the state.

Lowest average year's bill paid by individual consumers in 1962, among the 22 cities on the commission list was $41.50. It was paid by citizens of a Corpus Christi suburb.

Highest average annual gas bill was paid by residents of Dallas. One of the lowest average bills was that paid by Amarillo residents. Their average bill for the year was $53.43.

LAWMAKERS' RETIREMENT PAY--Members of the House of Representatives who have served four two-year terms and state senators who have served two four-year terms, now are eligible for retirement pay under a new law, effective September 1.

When a legislator has completed eight years of service, he receives a $100 a month retirement check. It increases $10 a year as long as he remains in the Legislature.

SHRIMP NAMED COMMISSIONER -- Gov. John Connally has appointed Virgil Versaggi of Brownsville to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission. He succeeds Weldon Cabaniss of Rockport.

Versaggi has been in the Shrimp business in Brownsville since 1949. He also operates shrimping fleets out of Tampa, Fla., and British Guiana, in partnership with his four brothers.

He was first president of the Texas Shrimp Association. Also first president of the Shrimp Association of the Americas.

LAND OFFICE RETURNS MONEY -- Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has turned back to the State's General Revenue Fund $221,275 left over by the General Land Office from its fiscal 1962 appropriation.

"Reasonable economy of operation," Sadler said, "made this refund possible."

AGRICULTURALISTS IN EUROPE -- Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Dr. Tyrus Timm of Texas A&M and Dr. Wayland Bennett of Texas Tech are in Brussels, Belgium, to attend a conference on agriculture.

Sen. Krueger is vice-chairman of the State Senate's agriculture committee.

EDUCATION GROUP TO MEET -- Leaders in the field of development of higher education in Texas will meet in Austin on September 9.

Calling the group together is the Committee of the Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities. Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales is executive secretary of the privately financed Committee.

Rose Drug maintains a complete pharmacy department, and is headquarters for all types of gifts -- from infants to the bride-to-be. Coffee time finds local residents enjoying coffee or a drink from the fountain. A new face behind the pharmacy counter on weekends and special days is Claude Rose Jr., or "Pudge" who certainly knows his way around Rose Drug. He is studying pharmacy and is completing 1000 hours of practice pharmacy under the direction of his father right here at home.

Several people were on hand when 120 pheasants arrived in Farwell, last Thursday. In all, 500 were set free in Parmer County. Five hundred more are scheduled to arrive in the county this week.

Shown holding two of the 500 pheasants set free in Parmer County this past week, are John Armstrong and Gilbert Watkins, two of the farmers who bought the birds. The birds arrived here last Thursday from the Gunn Brothers Bird Farm in Amarillo. Five hundred more pheasants are scheduled to arrive in Parmer County sometime this week.

Artery Ills

Show in Babies

NEW YORK (UPI) — The hardening of arteries, a disease usually associated with old age, actually may begin in infancy.

A study of the coronary arteries of 25 dead infants and children by a team of researchers, headed by Dr. A. S. Daoud, from Albany Medical College and Veteran's Administration hospital, Albany, N.Y., showed the existence of fatty patches and wall thickening.

The children varied in age from stillborn to 15 years. These conditions were found to be more pronounced with age, and the researchers say "may represent the early stages of arteriosclerotic heart disease."

Their report was in a recent publication of the Journal of The American Medical Association.

Texico PTA Members Hear McDonald In First Meeting

The first Texico PTA meeting of the year was held Sept. 2, with the president, J. M. White, presiding.

There was an introduction of the new teachers, and Wayne Hudnall, 1962-63 Boys' State delegate, gave a report of his stay at Boys' State last June.

A. D. McDonald, superintendent, gave a speech entitled "Who Makes Any School a Good School?" McDonald pointed out that "everybody believes in education, but that just believing in it is not enough". He stated further that, "It all depends how deeply the people want good schools and their willingness to pay the cost of better education."

McDonald went on to say that the PTA was one of the best ways for the needed communication between teachers and parents that tells the true facts of education. "Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is a painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, by praise, and above all--by example," McDonald closed.

Little League Season Opens

The Farwell Little League football team opens its season against West Team, Friday, Sept. 7, 7:00 p.m. on the Farwell field.

All Farwell games are slated for each Saturday at 7:00 p.m. throughout the season. The league tournament is planned for October 19, with the All-Star game November 16.

Bobby Hart is coaching the Pee Wees, boys aged 9 and 10, and Tommy Lovelace is coach for the 11 and 12 year old group. Six teams are in the Plains Football League, including Clovis and Cannon AFB.

Longhorns Set For Opening Game Friday

Coach Charley Walton announced the following starting lineup for the Lazbuddie Longhorns in their season opener at home against Wilson Friday:

In the backfield, Kenneth McGeehe will start at quarterback. Mac Brown will be left half, Johnny Mabry will be at full, and right half will be manned Lloyd Bradshaw. On defense, Richard Gordon will play defensive right end, and Darrell Mason will play defensive right tackle.

"We were well satisfied with our scrimmage against Nazareth last Saturday. We scored three times and allowed none," said Coach.

Brown showed up well on offense. The defense was the bright spot of the scrimmage, Walton said.

"The spirit is holding strong, but after three weeks of workouts, the boys are needing a game," he concluded.

Lazbuddie School Enrollment

Some 390 students had enrolled at Lazbuddie schools as the second week of school began this week, and the school expected to reach the 400 mark this week, according to Superintendent of Schools Albert Fuller.

The number attending school the first week of school was an increase of 30 over last year's opening enrollment of 360, and represented a new enrollment record for Lazbuddie for the first of the year. This year's figure was an increase of 8.3 per cent over last year's opening enrollment.

The largest class is the first grade, where 54 students are enrolled. There were 294 students in grade school, and 93 in high school as the week started.

"You normally expect the enrollment to increase during the first week of September, so we shouldn't have any trouble hitting the 400 mark," Fuller said.

He added that he expected the enrollment figure to remain fairly constant during the year, since there were few transient pupils in the school.

Mrs. E. G. Blair is visiting in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, the V. M. Wellmans of Roselle, Illinois, for a few days.

County Gins Lauded For CPI Work

ELLIS TATUM, right, is presented a certificate from Cotton Producers Institute by Lowell Richardson. Tatum received the award as president of the Board of Friona Farmers Co-op Gin.

Three Farmer County Gins have been recognized as leading the county in cooperation with the Cotton Producers Institute. The gins cooperated by collecting $1 per bale from customers interested in supporting the CPI. The three leading gins were Chester and Fleming Gin of Friona, with 91 per cent cooperation among its customers; Friona Farmers Co-op Gin, 89 per cent; and Oklahoma Lane Gin, 81 per cent. "We certainly appreciate the cooperation we received from all the Farmer County gins," said Lowell Richardson, staff members of the National Cotton Council, who presented the gin owners certificates on behalf of the Cotton Producers Institute. Aimed at increasing cotton markets and profits through stepped-up research and promotion, the Institute is being supported by growers across the Cotton Belt. Under Institute research grants, leading researchers are seeking answers to help cut cotton production costs and improve quality and to produce new and better cotton products.

Its aggressive promotion campaign is aimed at selling consumers on the advantage of buying and using products made from cotton. Wording on the certificates points out that they were issued "In recognition of meritorious service to cotton growers for outstanding cooperation with the Cotton Producers Institute by collection on a voluntary basis $1 per bale from all customers interested in doing their share on a self-help basis to help assure a prosperous future for the American cotton farmer."

Exhibitors Given Tips On Care Of Show Animals

With fairs and other livestock shows just around the corner, exhibitors should begin getting their animals ready for the big events, say A. M. Meekma and J. W. Davis, dairy specialists, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Of first importance is training the animals to lead and respond to the halter, state the specialists. Nothing distracts in the show ring as much as an animal that does not handle properly, they emphasize. The hair coat should receive early attention because it may take several weeks to remove the dead hair. This can be done by frequent brushing and vigorous rubbing with the palms will help to establish a lustrous hair coat.

Any clipping of the animal that is needed should be done well ahead of fair time but final trimming may be done a few days before the show, explain the specialists. Hooves should be trimmed to a normal length with the inside toe a fraction of an inch shorter than the outside. Since condition of the animal is very important, pasture alone should not be relied on to fit the dairy heifer. Good quality roughage should be fed along with enough grain to keep the animal in good condition but not overfat, say Meekma and Davis.

CHARLES MYERS, JR. of Friona is shown about to release one of the 120 pheasants which were bought by Friona farmers for release in the area last week. A total of 500 pheasants were released in the county and eventually 1800 are planned for release.

Cotton Moisture Is Good Quality Meter

At present the only reliable method of checking the quality of cotton on the farm or at the ginning point is grade and staple length. But according to Beverly G. Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist, Texas A&M University, the cotton moisture meter can be used as a good indicator of quality on seed cotton. This device makes it possible to determine the proper time for harvesting and the way to conduct the ginning operation to preserve cotton quality, the specialist adds. The moisture content of the cotton fiber when harvested, while in storage prior to ginning, and during ginning is definitely correlated with spinning quality. The fiber strength, the length uniformity of the fibers, and the amount of tangled fibers or neps in the cotton affect its spinning quality, and the fiber moisture level in turn affects these. Research has shown that cotton harvested at moisture levels above 8 percent is difficult to dry for proper ginning and that cotton with excess moisture tends to deteriorate in storage prior to ginning, says Reeves. Cotton moisture level is also affected by the amount of trash in the harvested fiber. When trashy cotton is stored for long periods, moisture moves from the trash into the cotton, explains the specialist. Therefore, dry, careful harvesting is

Weatherly Appointed To FHA Committee

Clyde W. Weatherly of Friona, has been appointed a member of the three-man Farmer County Farmers Home Administration Committee, the agency's County Supervisor, Billy R. Boling, has announced. The appointment is for three years and began on July 1. Weatherly succeeds W. D. Buske, whose three-year term expired this year. The other two members serving with Weatherly are Harold Carpenter of Oklahoma Lane and Teddy Treider of Lazbuddie. The local Farmers Home Administration county committee reviews applications by farmers and other rural families for six different types of agricultural, housing, and water loans made in Farmer County. In addition, the committee advises with the county supervisor regarding the adapting of national loan policies of local conditions. During the past fiscal year ending June 30, a total of $628,760 in Farmers Home Administration loans were made through the agency's local office. Each loan is accompanied to the extent necessary by technical farm and financial management assistance. Weatherly moved to Farmer County from East Texas about 12 years ago. He is operating 1200 acres of irrigated land, growing wheat, grain sorghum, and cotton. In addition, he runs 100 Angus cattle. County Supervisor Boling says that Weatherly's practical farming experience will enable him to make a real contribution to the county committee's actions when they review applications.

Grain Seeding Time Is Near

It is almost time for farmers and ranchmen to seed small grains, says H. A. Turney, area entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The entomologist reminds that fields which have been planted in small grain for the past three to four years should not be replanted to this crop, because of the possibility of winter grain mite damage. The rotation will help to control the destructive pest, he said. The winter grain mite builds up to damaging populations in late winter and early spring, Turney explains. The necessity of chemical control can be eliminated or decreased to a great extent by the use of rotation, he adds. For additional information about winter grain mite control, contact your local county agent.

Agricultural Team Leaves For Europe

A four-man team of state agriculturalists will leave for the European Economic Commission headquarters at Brussels this week for conferences on embargos against Texas and U. S. export commodities, Governor John Connally announced. Dr. Tyrus Timm, chairman of the Department of Agricultural Economics at Texas A&M, will head the study committee composed of Dr. Wayland Bennett, associate dean of agriculture at Texas Tech, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White and Senator Culp Krueger of El Campo. Governor Connally has asked that special attention be given the problem of high tariffs recently imposed against poultry by the common market countries. The $15 million annual broiler production in Texas is currently in a depressed state because of the tariff. Texas also exports several millions of dollars worth of cotton, rice, beef and grains to the six member nations. The group will leave Washington August 30 and return about September 12. Conferences have been arranged by the State Department and U. S. Department of Agriculture with the highest officials in the Common Market. As a member of the Resolutions Committee of the Southern Governors Conference, Connally endorsed and supported a resolution by Governor Sanders of Georgia deploring the action of Common Market countries in imposing a high tariff on importation of poultry.
