

Texico and Vicinity "Over the Top" Again.

Again the people of Texico and vicinity have "rallied around the flag," and raised their quota and more for the United War Work.

The "Victory Girls" with Miss Lillian Williams, Adult leader, Grace Haber and Madge Kays as team captains.

The "Victory Boys" with Prof. Kays adult leader, and LeRoy Faville and Paul Kays team captains, did a splendid work.

School opened Monday and that spirit of emulation was aroused between the teams to such an extent that pledges and cash came in quite often during each day until the drive was finished.

There is no doubt about the loyalty and courage of the boys and girls of Texico school, and with our excellent corps of teachers to keep these two aims ever before them, we may well look forward with pride and pleasure to these coming men and women of America. "Victory Boys and Girls."

The entire vicinity was completely canvassed and not more than two or three individuals were not seen by the Adult committee, of which S. C. Hunter was Chairman. Only seven men canvassed, failed to respond with a donation.

Thanks to the Loyal Americans.

More Americans Killed By "Flu" Than By Bullets.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The "flu" killed more Americans than did German bullets.

Inducna deaths in the United States have been estimated at slightly over 82,000, while deaths listed in American casualties to date run about 28,000.

1,580,000 German Soldiers Killed

Copenhagen, Nov. 20.—Up to Oct. 31, 1,580,000 German soldiers were killed and the fate of 260,000 was not known, the Vorwaerts of Berlin says it learns of reliable authority.

Four million soldiers had been wounded, some several times. The newspaper adds that there were 490,000 German prisoners in hostile countries.

TEXICO, NEW MEXICO

By the Governor of the State of New Mexico

A PROCLAMATION

During the period of the American Revolutionary war, eight special thanksgiving days were observed, in recognition of signal victories by the colonial patriot army or in giving open expression of gratitude to Divine Providence for its wondrous deliverance from destructive defeat.

Our martyred and yet immortal President Lincoln first appointed the last Thursday in November as THANKSGIVING DAY.

In this good year, 1918, the people of the State of New Mexico rejoice in greater cause for thanksgiving to the God of our Fathers than ever yet has blessed His and their children.

A sudden and victorious peace has been conquered out of the world-war, begun by tyrants, to extend their system over all nations and all peoples.

From such dire calamity, the Great God, our King, has delivered us by His righteous might, so that free government, under law, has been justified finally and now is triumphant in the world.

Because of this inestimable blessing, we are filled with gratitude.

NOW THEREFORE, I, W. E. LINDSEY, Governor of the State of New Mexico, in accordance with a gracious and honored custom, do proclaim

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28th, 1918 THANKSGIVING DAY in the State of New Mexico.

Especially, on that day, may we all joyously praise and thank Almighty God for the armistice of November eleventh instant; and for this last and greatest witness that government, under law, deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed, is destined soon to become the rule of action for all mankind in all the earth.

May we, on that day, especially exult, proclaiming our gratitude to the Supreme Judge of the world for this last signal triumph of the power of justice, mercy and humility over the power of oppression, force and arrogance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of New Mexico to be affixed. Done at the City of Santa Fe, this 12th day of November, A. D. 1918.

W. E. LINDSEY.

Attested:
ANTONIO LUCERO, Secretary of State.

U. S. A. SPELLS HOME. (By Edmund Vance Cook.)

Home isn't just where I used to live,
It isn't the place where I lathered my face
And swallowed my meat and drink.
Since I have wandered across the sea,
Home isn't spelled as it used to be:
Home, home,
Over the far-off foam!
H-O-M-E once was the way,
But now the spelling is U-S-A;
U-S-A spells home!

Nor it isn't the place you used to live,
Before this old row begun,
Or the spot you may choose to unloose your shoes.
When the fracas and fuss are done,
For home is to you as it is to me,
-And it isn't spelled as it used to be:
Home, home,
Over the far-off foam!
H-O-M-E once was the way,
But now the spelling is U-S-A;
U-S-A spells home!

For home, from now, is the place we live,
And the place where the home folks wait.
It's the home we share and it's everywhere
From the Hook to the Golden Gate.
It's spelling was once h-o-m-e,
But it isn't spelled as it used to be,
Home, home,
Over the far-off foam!
H-O-M-E once was the way,
But now it is spelled juse U-S-A;
U-S-A spells home!

To The Patriotic Shopping Public.

You are expected by the Council of National Defense, Washington, to co-operate with the retail merchants as follows:

To spread Christmas shopping over November and December, do not wait—begin now.

To do your shopping during the early hours of the day.

To buy useful gifts (Toys may

To send before December 5 all Christmas packages which must go by mail or express.

To avoid giving bulky articles, if they must be sent by mail, freight or express.

To carry all packages you possibly can, and not to request special deliveries.

The above must be carried out so that man-power will be conserved and transportation not congested.

be bought as usual.)

President Wilson Will Go To France.

Announcement has been made at Washington that President Wilson will leave early in December, to attend the Peace Conference in France.

There has been a general belief that there was some provision of the Federal constitution to prevent the President from leaving the United States during his term of office, but such is not the case. Both Presidents Roosevelt and Taft visited the Panama canal zone during their terms of office and President Taft visited Canada.

This will be the first time, however, that a President of the United States has gone across the ocean during his term of office.

It is understood that President Wilson was loath to go to Europe but yielded to the insistent demands of high officials of the Allies.

Town Prince Willie,

On der run.

My Prave Boy Willie:

I received dot ledder vat you sent sometime ago—der vun you wrote on der run, and vas glad to know you vas still safe and healthly und able to run so good. I would haf answered sooner yet but Me and Gott haf been so busy mit dot President Wilson dot der time I didn't haf.

I note you are in need of breast plates for you and your soldiers to wear on your packs to keep dose cowardly Americans from shooting you in der pack in. I am having a dozen sent you right avay quick, which vill protect you and some of your gallant officers, but dot dozen iss all I got yet. Dere iss no more church bells to make some more mit. Of course you, my prave son, need protection, und it don't madder much apout der regular soldiers nohow, for dey can run so long as der legs are not shot off.

My poor, prave poy: I am sorry dot dose pig Americans are treating you so rough. Der fools don't know who dey are fighting, or dey vould not dare be so disregardfulness of der German kultur. But no vunder dey don't know noddings, chust look at dot President Vilson. My poy, you iss having a hard time maybe, but it don't compare mit der hard time Me und Gott iss having mit dis note writing buzness. I can't get dot President to listen to reason at all. I don't pelieve he even knows how to spell kultur, he iss so set down in his ways. Why, Willie, he iss very insulting in his ledders, only I don't let on like I notice it. Und chust to think, he iss dot same man dot I used to tink wouldn't fight for noddings. Der vay he insulted me, Willie, vas like dis: I wrote him a ledder, out of der gootness of my pig heart, and told him dot ve vould pe villing to quit fighting und not hurt der Allies armies any more while ve talked about peace. You know our great army needs a little breathing spell—and he chust der same already as said: "Introduce me to someone who knows what peace is and I will talk with him." Now vat you tink of dot for a vay to talk mit me, der emperor of der Faderland. Willie, dot man makes me nervous. I somedimes tink I vill give him his vay, chust to see vot he dots mit it. If it vas not dot Me und you und Gott might lose our chobs I might turn der var over to him, den maybe I could get a liddle sleep, vich I don't haf lately.

Vell, my poy, I must close. If your shoes wear out, you can run faster barefooted anyhow, und der iss no more leather to make shoes, und all der cows iss killed, except chust a few nice fat ones for my table. Mit love und pelieving I vill see you soon, und hoping it vill be outside der chail in, I am,

Your papa,

TO GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING

Commander Of The Yanks.

As commander of the forces of the United States in the conflict across the seas he has proved himself worthy of the trust placed in him and an honor to the flag and the Nation which he represents. As a great General his name will forever shine in history with those of Washington, Jackson, Grant and Lee. We are proud of him, as we are proud of the boys of the U. S. A., who we so cheerfully sent into his keeping. We send to him our earnest gratitude and fullest love for the honor he has done this Nation and the service rendered humanity.

We gave into his hand the flag

That knows but to advance,

And now in victory it waves

Upon the fields of France.

We sent our boys across the seas,

Secure in his command,

And soon he'll send them back to us,

An honor to our land.

News force has been on the sick list this week—especially the intertype operator—so this explains the paper being late, etc.

A soldier writing back home tells a good one on his chum. The chum went to a French town to buy some eggs and found the clerk to be a pretty girl. He wanted and then remembering that she was French, he tried to tell her in French, and then illustrated his words with pantomime motions and gestures that would make a vaudeville artist jealous of his ability. When he was out of breath and completely lost from his violent efforts at illustrating with his hands what eggs looked like, the girl very sweetly asked him in perfect English if eggs were what he wanted to buy. Just mention eggs to him now if you want a scrap.

Looks Like A Good

Proposition for Editors.

A number of our exchanges have been speculating on what would happen if the government took over the newspapers. Well, the first thing the subscription price would be raised about 50 per cent and the sheriff would be kept busy chasing delinquents. The next step would be to raise the wages 25 per cent and the editors who hadn't had a cent in six months they could call their

The merchants who failed to get their ad copy in until press day would be hauled up before the council of defense and our linotype man who hired out for two weeks and quit his job in a week would be sent to Leavenworth for about ten years as a deserter. An Accurate Statement.

Atlanta—Although defeated for county commissioner, John Wilson should be quite happy—he met a lot of people and got a lot of exercise. But read what he says in his campaign expense statement:

Lost 1,349 hours of sleep thinking about the election.

Lost two front teeth and a whole lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent.

Gave away two pairs of suspenders, four calico dresses, $5 in cash and 13 baby rattlers.

Kindled fourteen kitchen fires. Walked 4,076 miles.

Shook hands with 9,508 persons.

Told 10,101 lies and talked enough to make in print 1,000 columns. Attended 16 revival meetings and was baptized four different times by immersion and twice some other way. Contributed $50 to foreign missions and made love to nine grass widows.

Hugged 49 old maids. Got dog bit 19 times and was defeated!

Please, Consult the Directory

CALLING for telephone numbers from memory is not safe from a conservation-of-time standpoint.

A mistake in the number doubles the time of the operator and of the use of the equipment employed.

One's memory is so apt to play tricks with telephone numbers. It is so apt to prompt you, for instance, to say, 9-7-8 when the number really is 7-9-8.

A wrong number wastes the time of the person called, of the operator and of the person called in error, and involves use of needed equipment.

In the end it is necessary to consult the Directory. Why not consult the Directory at the first, if only to confirm the dictates of your memory?

The point is that anything that unnecessarily takes the time of the operators and of equipment may be needlessly delaying calls occasioned by fire, lawlessness, accident, death, serious illness, calls necessitated by the public interest and welfare, calls on Government business or war work or commercial calls of vital importance.

Please do your full share in the task of furnishing telephone service to this community by patriotic consideration of the time of our operating forces.

CONSULT THE DIRECTORY before calling, to insure giving the correct number. Then,

SPEAK DISTINCTLY, LISTEN ATTENTIVELY and MAKE YOUR CONVERSATION BRIEF.

That will help the service. It will help those who are earnestly striving to serve you well.

The Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co.

That Cold.

Willie! Come right into my room. Don't you know you've got a bad cold? Bring the child here where it's warm. Oh, Mrs. Jones, so glad to see you! The house looks dreadful, but I'll be glad when Monday comes and he can go back to school! Willie, shake hands with Mrs. Jones.

Willie, did you lose your handkerchief again? Go let Auntie wipe your nose with hers.

Willie, there's the door bell again. It's Mrs. Smith and her baby. You let them in and talk to them until I get dressed. Kiss the baby nicely.

Now, Willie, be a good boy, my dear. Let Bob have a bite of your apple if he wants it.

All right, stop teasing, Willie, I'll let you go to the movies this afternoon if you won't make any fuss about getting clean for Sunday school tomorrow. But bundle up warm before you start. Remember you have a bad cold.

Hello! Hello! Yes, I can hear, Daddy. You want to bring Mr. Black home to dinner. Yes, indeed. Come early so he can have a romp with Willie. I can manage. But don't forget that medicine for Willie's cold. His nose is running awfully tonight.

Don't play in that cold water, Willie, when you have such a cold. Now, go wipe your hands on the kitchen towel.

Willie, let Howard Greene blow that whistle just once if he wants to. You've played with it all afternoon.

Willie, don't put those cards in your mouth. You'll get them dirty. Those are for Auntie's card club tonight. You mustn't spoil them.

Yes, Mrs. Green, Willie's gone back to school again. His ears are still aching some, but the doctor thinks that the drums won't burst. Pretty bad, though. All of us have been sick, but Willie was the worst. How's Harold's cold? Did you hear about poor Mrs. Smith? Her children all have dreadful colds, and the baby almost died of pneumonia. She was here the first day Willie was sick, with the baby, and not a thing on its head! My house was nice and warm, and I told her when she went out to cover up that baby's head, but you can't teach some people. Willie just loves the baby. It was cute the way he hugged and kissed her that day.

All of Willie's friends have been having colds. Bobby Black is awfully sick, Willie says. They're going to take out his tonsils as soon as he's better. Such a damp place they live in! Willie says all the children at school are sneezing. It's a drafty old building. Daddy says it's just as bad at his office. He had the first one, and since then all the other men have been sick. Daddy says it's cut down the efficiency of the force by half. Funny, too, in such a nice steam-heated building.

Did you hear what that woman who's just moved in next door said? I've been so mad ever since I can scarcely look at her house. She had the impudence to say that the reason her precious boy had a cold was that he came over and caught it from Willie. I'll see that they don't play together again, I can tell you. I know well enough where he got his cold. Didn't I hear her say that she made him take a bath every day? In this cold weather, too! Next she'll be saying that Mrs. Smith's baby caught her pneumonia from Willie.—California Bulletin.

Methodist Church.

The usual services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday, with the exception of the evening preaching, which will be adjourned in favor of special services at the Christian church. That means we will have Sunday school at ten o'clock, preaching at eleven o'clock, and League at three o'clock.

We are glad to resume services after so long a time of suspension. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services.

L. L. THURSTON.

 Stand up and back up the President until we win the war.

Baptist Church.

We had fine services Sunday at both hours. Seventy-one in Sunday School and large attendance for preaching-services.

Come Sunday. We are expecting a fine day. Services at both morning and evening hours. You are always welcome and treated right.

Announcement concerning the Thanksgiving services will be made from the pulpit Sunday.
 —W. S. S.—

Ray Hungate and wife, members of the Baptist Church of Texico-Farwell, now at El Paso, do not forget their church and pastor, as evidenced by their recent contribution to salary and expenses.

Ray is a soldier. If he and his wife, deprived of home associations and church privileges as they are, give of their earnings to the support of the church what should church members at home do?

Church members, think on this.

Lawrence Overstreet is home after an illness of several weeks with pneumonia at Canyon normal. He will enjoy being with home folks until after Thanksgiving, as he was granted a furlough for that length of time.

Third Victim of Influenza Dies.

Little ten year old R. T. Stipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stipes of Texico, died Wednesday morning about four o'clock from the effects of influenza.

He was improving nicely, in fact, thought to be about over the disease, and had been down town the afternoon before he died. But was suddenly taken worse Tuesday night and died before morning.

Mr. Stipes, the father, is an employe of the Santa Fe.

Rev. J. F. Nix conducted the funeral services Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in the Farwell cemetery.

News joins in offering sympathy to the bereaved parents.

THANKSGIVING AT BOVINA

Thanksgiving will be observed at Bovina with appropriate services as follows:

Morning service at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Terry, pastor of the Methodist church at Hereford, will deliver a Thanksgiving sermon.

Rev. Terry is a strong preacher, and will deliver a discourse well worth our while, and this together with appropriate music, should attract a large audience at this hour.

Evening exercises will consist of the following program: Introductory, Rev. B. Y. Dickinson.

Vocal solo, Miss Alleen Jersig. Recitation, John Aldridge. Service Flag Oration, H. H. Smith.

Piano solo, "The Star Spangled Banner," arranged by Josie Hoffman, Mrs. B. Y. Dickinson.

This program will be followed by a "pie supper," which is given for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage.

All are invited to attend all these services.

W. S. S. Stamps In 1919 Plan. Sugar Allotment May Be Raised.

Congress has been asked by the secretary of the treasury to authorize an issue of War Savings Stamps to be known as the series of 1919, according to Louis Lipsitz, state director of War Savings, who has returned from a conference in Washington with governors of the Federal Reserve banks and members of the war loan staff of the Treasury Department.
 —W. S. S.—

While no formal action has been taken by the food administration, officials indicate it is probable the sugar allotment for the entire country would be increased from three pounds a person monthly to four pounds on December 1.

Lifting of all restrictions on the consumption of sugar after January, is said by officials as likely.
