As Crime Deterrent - -

Neighborhood Watch Group Formed In City

Farwell Development Corporation is sponsoring the organization of a Neighborhood Watch program in the city of Farwell in an effort to deter the incidences of burglary and other crimes which keep growing in number every year across the entire nation.

The community has been divided by blocks, with each block having a captain. In addition, there are two district chairpersons, Frances Kube is chairperson for 5th Street West, and Jerry Monk is chairperson for 5th Street East.

Block captains have been busy the past few days distributing Neighborhood Watch stickers for residents to display on their doors or windows to let potential burglars know that someone has an eye on that house.

According to research reports from the nationwide Neighborhood Watch program, when a watch is organized effectively and stays active, it has a definite impact on crime in its target area. In some neighborhoods, burglaries have dropped more than 50 percent while in others it has been virtually eliminated.

The Neighborhood Watch programs have been organized because police or sheriff department staffing is not growing as fast as the crime rate.

Tax dollars are not available to provide sufficient manpower in many areas, thus the program was instigated to let the citizens assist the police or other law enforcement officials.

The program is designed to let neighbors help each other by acting as "eyes and ears" for the law officers, helping them catch thieves or better yet, preventing burglaries from happening in the first place.

Neighbors will be keeping their eyes on one another's property and report suspicious strangers to the police. Residents are encouraged to find a neighbor with a good vantage point of their home. Senior citizens or someone else who is at home during the day are excellent "watchers" as it is during the day when most people are gone that houses are most vulnerable to burglary.

The development corporation is asking all citizens to participate in this community endeavor.

Watch for unfamiliar persons at your neighbor's home and report any suspicious activity to your sheriff's office.

With neighbors helping neighbors, the program here should be as effective as those anywhere, a corporation spokesperson said.

Plans Taking Shape For BTB

Members of the Border Town Days Committee met Monday night at Luce's restaurant and plans are beginning to fall in place for the Twin Cities annual celebration July 28, 29, and 30.

Theme of this year's event is "God Bless America" and committee members urge clubs, businesses, and individuals to enter a float in the BTB parade using this theme. Many fun-filled events scheduled include everything from the parade, barbecue, and rodeo, to the queen contest, beard contest, fiddlers contest, and many park activities for young and old alike.

The community celebration is planned in conjunction with the High Plains Junior Rodeo to be sponsored this year by the JCCA organization. Performances are set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. at the Farwell Arena east of town.

The big day is Saturday, July 30. The annual BTB parade will begin at 11 a.m. CDT in Texico at Griffith Street and proceed through Texico and Farwell main streets to Fifth Street in Farwell, ending at Farwell City Park where the remainder of the day's activities are scheduled.

Texico-Farwell Lions Club is in charge of the parade, and parade entrants are urged to sign up as soon as possible. Call the State Line Tribune, 481-3681 days, or John Getz at 481-9123 in the evening, to assure a place in the line-up. To be eligible for a prize, an entry must be signed up.

Three prizes will be awarded for the best float entries; $75 for first place, $50 for second, and $30 for third place. Farwell Chamber of Commerce and the BTB Committee will furnish the monetary prizes. The Farwell Chamber is also furnishing the riding club trophies.

The Texico Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the old car trophies, and Tedson Trailers of Texico is presenting the monetary prizes for the best decorated bicycles.

The annual barbecue, sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, will begin at 12 noon CDT in Farwell City Park, and serving will continue until everyone is served. Tickets will cost $3 for adults and $1.50 for children, drink included.

A popular feature during the park activities Saturday afternoon will be the Merchants Promotion where many prizes will be given away. This promotion was initiated for the first time last year under the direction of Benny Haney, assisted by Neil Stewart, and is being planned again this year.

Another highlight of the park activities will be the BTB Queen contest. Contestants eligible are all girls who will attend either Farwell or Texico high schools during the 1983-84 school year.

Each contestant must have a sponsor which may be either a club, business, or individual. Entry fee is $10. Entrants will be judged on the basis of personality and talent. Joann Getz, contest chairman, says there are many sponsors available and she urges the girls to sign up now. Contact her at the State Line Tribune office.

The beard contest is underway, but it is not too late to enter. All one needs to do is to check with Ridley Lonsdale at the barber shop in Farwell so that he may verify that the face is clean shaven and then begin the whisker growing. More entrants in the beard contest are needed, says Mike Camp, and he urges those men who are tired of shaving to get in the contest.

For those men who do not wish to grow a beard, shave permits should be obtained from Ridley at the barber shop, or from Ralph Gates, BTB marshal. The plastic enclosed shave permits are selling for $1.

Alpha Rho Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and Theta Rho chapter of ESA sorority are in charge of coordinating the park booths. Anyone interested in having a booth for the sale of wares or concessions should contact Cynthia Thigpen at 481-3619 days, or see her at the county extension office at the courthouse. Spaces may be rented at the park for $5.

No commercial booths or individuals will be allowed in the park area with resale items. The booth spaces are available only to area civic or non-profit groups.

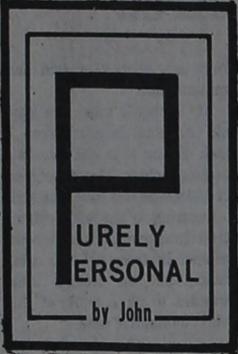

The Arts and Crafts show will be set up on the front lawn of the courthouse, and the spaces are available at $10 a booth. Spaces may be reserved by calling Janie Bowery at 481-3620 days (Continued on Page 2)

Texico VFD Slates Monthly Siren Test

Texico Volunteer Fire Department will be running a Civil Defense test of its siren system at 4 p.m. MDT the first Monday of each month, with the exception of July, announces Vane Doshier, fire chief.

In July, the sirens will be sounded on Tuesday, July 5, due to the July 4 holiday. Each time the sirens are tested, they will sound the 60-second blast only. However, if any bad weather is present in the area, the sirens will not be sounded as scheduled. In the event of bad weather conditions, the sirens will sound only if necessary.

On Monday of this week, the thermometer managed to rise only to the mid-fifty degree range. On the same day last year, we set a record for that date of 102 degrees. If you don't like our temperature this year, wait until next year.

Last weekend we spent several days in Las Cruces, New Mexico. The days were in the mid-nineties and the evenings a very comfortable mid-seventy. There was only a whisper of a breeze blowing, but with the very dry relative humidity reading, it kept the old body feeling about right all the time. If you like hot and dry, the Cruces area is your place.

It had been several years since we had occasion to visit there, but the signs of growth were all around. We do not know of any big or major manufacturing concern there, only New Mexico State University, but the area is bustling.

There has to be more than just pecans and cotton to fuel this continued expansion. We just do not know what it is.

The Texas legislature expired last week. That's about as charitable a way to express it as we know. At this writing, Governor White is waffling about calling a special session. Let it go, Gov. The politicians have done enough damage to last for the next two years. Without our State Senator Bill Sarpalius staging a last, and we mean last, minute filibuster, our farmers would have been saddled with workers compensation for farm and ranch hands.

Off times we get to feeling like we are the only old grump, and that people get tired of our carping about some of our famous entertainment personalities. Troy Martin, the acerbic publisher of the Canyon News also has a few words about two of our unfavorable folks, which follows:

Two of the star performers on last weekend's Democratic fund-raising marathon were Ed Asner and Jane Fonda.

I couldn't stand to watch it long because that pair makes me sick to my stomach.

Asner's latest caper is to try to raise funds for the people in El Salvador who took credit last week for killing an American serviceman.

Fonda beat the drums for the North Vietnamese in the 1960s.

The Republicans couldn't wish for a better pair on national television for the Democrats. The people responsible for putting Fonda and Asner on the tube are not too savvy.

I don't think the American people will buy the Asners and Fondas anymore than they will buy the Harold Washingtons.

Harold Washington, convicted on income tax charges, drew the endorsement of all major candidates seeking the Democratic nomination for president when he ran for mayor of Chicago.

Washington also had his law licenses twice suspended, and during the election was under fire for not paying city taxes.

After a month in office he still hasn't gotten a handle on Chicago city government.

I think the Washington endorsements and the appearance on television of Fonda and Asner were two major political blunders and if they are followed by similar blunders during the next year, an insurmountable roadblock could be built between the Democratic nominee and the White House.

I can't imagine why all of those spacemen want to be taken to our leaders. That's the last place to go if they want to learn something.

Post Warning Sign

Ralph Gates and his daughter Krista of Farwell are putting one of the Neighborhood Watch signs on the door of one of the businesses. The sign lets would be burglars know that someone is watching this building. The local Neighborhood Watch program is being sponsored by the Farwell Development Corporation in an effort to help fight against growing burglary rates. Block captains throughout the city have been busy distributing the signs to residents during the past week.

Meeting Topic Concerns Main Street Improvements

Members of Farwell Development Corporation Main Street Improvement Committee met May 31 at Luce's restaurant. Approximately 40 persons attended the meeting with guest speaker Paula Peters, director of Community Relations for Texas Main Street Project, a part of the Texas Historical Commission.

The State of Texas, through the Historical Commission, sponsors economic and architectural revitalization of the central business district of smaller communities. Approximately 15 towns have been the focus of the project for the last three years, including nearby Plainview.

The speaker's presentation centered on the work done in these communities. She showed slides to help explain the part that the state can play in helping communities with their growth and economic problems.

She stressed that improving the appearance of existing businesses should be the starting point. New businesses should be added only after considering whether or not there is a market for that business. This can be determined through surveys of potential customers, she said.

She also emphasized that in order to bring back business to main street, "needed" businesses must be utilized. It is not enough to just renovate and beautify a business, she said, adding that the worst mistake towns can make is to think that "attractiveness can make a business succeed."

She also stressed that it is up to the people who have control of businesses to improve their appearance. It is only through the efforts of individuals that a project can succeed.

After her presentation, coffee and donuts were served, and everyone visited and shared their thoughts on the speaker's ideas.

The Main Street committee will meet sometime in the near future to discuss Mrs. Peters' ideas, and decide which ones could work for this community, before any plans will be put into action, committee chairman Joe Jones said.

Thefts, DWI Arrests Lead County Crime Activity

Parmer County Sheriff Bill Morgan reports that four theft cases are being investigated this week, three of them in the Farwell area.

On June 1, Ruthie Singer of Farwell reported that a bicycle was stolen from her home. The bike was a 20" Free Spirit dirt bike with an estimated value at $120.

Byron Mayfield of Farwell reported a house burglary, also on June 1. An estimated $625 worth of merchandise was taken in the theft.

The City of Farwell reported that some gas was taken from their gas pumps on Monday, June 6.

Tuesday, June 7, Pedro Gomez of Friona reported a windshield had been taken from his 1978 Ford pickup. The windshield was valued at $150.

Several arrests were also reported by the sheriff this week, including:

Olivia Huffsticker, 23, of Friona was arrested by Parmer County Sheriff's officers on a charge of misdemeanor theft. She was fined $150 plus court costs and ordered to make restitution, and serve three days in jail.

Texas Highway Patrol officers made four arrests Saturday, June 4, including:

Harold Henderson, 40, of Amarillo was arrested for DWI. He is currently in jail in lieu of $300 bond, pending County Court action.

Jose Quiroga, 21, of Bovina, also arrested for DWI, has been released on $300 bond pending County Court action.

Sonny Reyna, 17, of Bovina was arrested for DWI and was fined $200 plus court costs.

Ruben Salazar, 23, of Bovina was arrested for public intoxication and was fined $31 in Judge Albert Smith's JP Court.

Sheriff's officers arrested Dale Hart, 50, of Friona Monday, June 7, for harassment by telephone. He was fined $50 plus court costs and given 10 day to serve, probated 180 days.

Fechner New Administrator For Convalescent Center

Farwell Convalescent Center, under the management of the Ev. Lutheran Good Samaritan Society since April, now has a new administrator, Ron Fechner.

Fechner took over the administrative duties Monday, June 6, and will be taking the Texas state examination necessary for all nursing home administrators, this week.

He is currently living at the Center, but will soon be taking up residence in the Farwell area with his wife, Barb, and their three-year-old daughter, Christina.

Fechner is originally from Syracuse, Neb., graduating from the Wentworth Military Academy in Lexington, Mo. He received a BA degree in psychology at Metropolitan State College in Denver and his masters degree in gerontology from Northern Colorado University in Greeley.

Prior to his college education, he spent two years in the Army as a medical corpsman.

The 33-year-old administrator began work for the Ev. Lutheran Good Samaritan Society in 1976. The Society now manages the Farwell Convalescent Center along with 200 other similar installations in 26 states. Fechner trained as an administrator for one year at Loveland Good Samaritan Village at Loveland, Colo. He then served as administrator at the Fort Collins Good Samaritan Village for six years prior to his accepting the position here.

Though no immediate changes are scheduled for the Center, Fechner says, "I plan to get to know the residents here, the staff, members of the Farwell Hospital Board, and area residents first." He feels getting to know the townspeople and the approximately 60 residents at the Center is foremost in his priorities.

"This is a nice community and I'm really happy to be here. My family will be joining me here soon and we'll be settling in the Farwell area," he said.

Reese Greaves had served as interim administrator of the facility for the Good Samaritan Society until Fechner accepted the position.

Study Club Donation

Farwell Fire Chief Joel White accepts a $500 check from Frances Kube, president of Farwell Study Club, as the study club treasurer, Ellen Wurster, looks on. The donation from the club will be used by the fire department for the community hospital equipment fund which is used to purchase items such as hospital beds, wheel chairs, crutches, oxygen regulators, and humidifiers. This equipment is then loaned to community residents when needed. Following presentation of the check, Study Club members took a tour of the fire department facilities.

Tuesday Storm Leaves Hail Damage In Area

A series of thunderstorms have rolled through the Twin Cities area the past several days, the latest leaving hail ranging from pea size to golf ball size in its wake.

According to Kent Gast of the Farwell ASCS office, the worst damage was in the area north of Bovina where they received crop damaging hail in Tuesday night's storm along with .6 inch of rain. Damage estimates are still being compiled by the ASCS office staff, Gast said.

According to an area news report, two tornadoes touched down near Bovina, turning over a truck and destroying an elevator shed.

An area southeast of Farwell received .2 inch of rain Tuesday's storm and hail ranging from pea to golf ball size with some crop damage.

Sherley-Anderson Elevator at Lariat reported .4 inch of rain and only pea size hail fell there.

In Farwell, Worley Mills

reported .30 inch of rain and minimal hail.

At Oklahoma Lane, the Harold Carpenter farm received .7 inch of rain with pea size hail and high winds. Possible minor crop damage was also reported.

According to the ASCS office, crop damage reports have been phoned in from several area farms, but the Bovina area appears to have suffered the worst damage to date.

Robert Ditterline New United Methodist Pastor

Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church of Texico-Farwell welcomed a new pastor last week when Robert Ditterline arrived to take over pastoral duties at the local church.

Rev. Ditterline and his wife Dorothy (Dottie) arrived on what was termed the official "moving day" for Methodist pastors in the New Mexico Conference last Thursday. They came here from Sanderson, Tex., where he has served as the United Methodist pastor for the past five years.

The Ditterlines have two children, Gary Wayne, 22, and Sheri Lynn, 19. Both attend McMurry College in Abilene. His major is accounting, and hers is in music education. Gary will be staying with his parents here for several months this summer while recovering from back surgery.

Rev. Ditterline was born in Arkansas, attended grade school in New Mexico, and graduated from high school at Wink, Tex. He received a BA degree from McMurry College with a Christian education major. He then attended Cliff School of Theology in Colorado, graduating with a Masters of Theology from that school.

During his work in Cliff, he served in his first church as pastor while attending school. He was ordained as a deacon in 1954, and as an elder in 1956.

In 1956, he married Dottie, whom he had met through his sister sometime earlier in Nebraska. The two were married in House, N.M., in a service "which included no less than eight ministers serving in or attending the ceremony," he said.

And now the couple is returning to the general area after a 27-year absence, including serving 16 years in Nebraska. Rev. Ditterline has also served in Truth or Consequences, N.M., where he was appointed in 1974, and later served one year in El Paso. Following the time in El Paso, he was pastor of the Methodist Church in Sanderson for five years.

The new pastor comes from a family of ministers, his grandfather and father having both been ministers, and he also has a brother who is a Methodist pastor. He is now serving in Tucumcari at the church where their father was pastor 1960-64.

Rev. Ditterline is called "the singing preacher" by some of his past following, since he has recorded an album of religious music called "Face to Face." He has also served as a soloist, evangelist, and song leader at revivals in Nebraska, Texas, New Mexico, and Washington. He is also listed in Who's Who of the Methodist Church.

Rev. and Mrs. Ditterline are members of the Eastern Star, and he is a member of the Masons.

Dottie enjoys such hobbies as cooking, hiking, sunning, and working with the children's and women's groups in the church.

Robert also enjoys hiking and sunning along with fishing, bowling, and swimming.

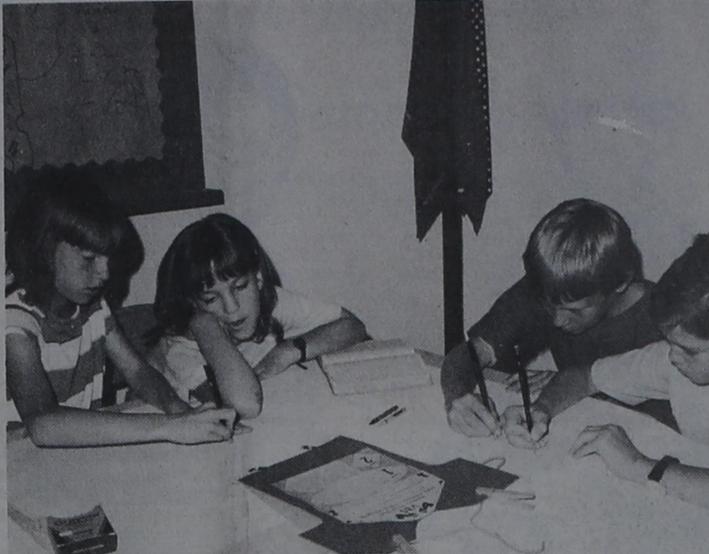

Rev. Ditterline's mother lives just outside of Dallas, and will be 82 years old in November. He also has a brother and sister who both live in the surrounding Dallas area.

Because of his area upbringing, he says, "It feels like we're coming home." Since their arrival in the Twin Cities, Rev. Ditterline has met several people he knew earlier in his life.

"We are looking forward to being a part of the continuing great heritage of the Texico-Farwell area, and to continue to bring the love of God to those unto whom we administer. I am also looking forward to our time of being pastor of the Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church," says Rev. Ditterline.

While Robert will be back in town following his son's surgery, Mrs. Ditterline will be staying in Abilene until Gary is able to return to Farwell with her.

Former pastor of Hamlin Memorial, Don Holladay, and his family have moved to Los Alamos, N.M., where he will be or the United Methodist Church of White Rock.

VBS Fun

Students in the first and second graders class at the Farwell Church of Christ Vacation Bible School, under the direction of Joey Fly, work on several projects each day including drawing a picture of what their Bible verses or lessons mean to them or have taught them. From left, Brandy Martin, Susanna Joiner, Greg Atkinson, and Warren Martin concentrate on what Wednesday's Bible verses have taught them. They use a "shirt" calendar of events which shows the day's Bible verse and attendance record.

Tentative Budget Okayed By Farwell School Board

At its Monday night meeting, Farwell School Board gave approval to a tentative budget of $1,463,859.00 for the 1983-84 school term. The budget had been amended to include $15,000 for an additional teacher, and $15,000 for a van or bus for the school.

Board members also voted to amend the 1982-83 budget by increasing item 41-6111 in the amount of $2520.00, moving the superintendent's salary from pay grade 14 to pay grade 15.

In other business a group of parents concerned with the kindergarten curriculum discussed this problem with the board.

Reports were given by principals Don Malone, Jerry Owen, and James Craig on their respective schools, and school counselor Howard Carlyle summarized the TABS test results for the board.

Superintendent W.M. Roberts presented the superintendent's annual report to the board, financial reports were approved, and bills were paid.

Board members present were Joe Hughes, Wilbert Kalbas, Floyd Coates, Richard Haseloff, Maxine Williams, Steve Pierson, and Edward Corn.

Also attending were W. M. Roberts, James Craig, Don Malone, Jerry Owen, Bruce Dollar, Richard Montgomery, Howard Carlyle, Lynn Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kirkland, Gwen Corn, Karen Austin, Mark Williams, Terri Nichols, and Maria Arce.

JCCA's Discuss Rodeo, Plans For Blood Drive

Texico-Farwell JCCAs met in regular session Tuesday, June 7, and discussed the upcoming blood drive being sponsored by the organization. The work schedule was filled out for the JCCA members, and phone numbers were listed for those persons wishing to donate blood at a particular time of day. The phone numbers include Sam Drager at 482-9101 and Billy Roberts at 481-9411.

Also discussed was the rodeo being sponsored by the JCCAs during Border Town Days. JCCA members will have a special meeting Monday, June 20, at the Farwell Arena beginning at 7 p.m. CDT. This meeting will give the members a chance to clean up the arena, make repairs, and check any equipment that might need repair or replacement, according to Sam Drager, club president.

Anyone wishing to help with the project is invited to attend the meeting. "All help will be welcome," says Drager.

The JCCAs are still asking for members. Membership fee is $25 per year.

Blood Drive Slated Here Next Tuesday

Area residents are reminded of the JCCA Blood Drive scheduled for Tuesday, June 14, from 4-9 p.m. CDT in the JCCA building at Avenue A and Ninth Street in Farwell.

The United Blood Services of Lubbock will conduct the drive under the sponsorship of the Texico-Farwell JCCAs.

Eligible persons between the ages of 17 and 65, and weighing over 110 pounds, are urged to participate.

All blood donations will be transferred to the Lubbock Blood Services which provides blood for anyone who may need it for just the cost of processing. There is no charge for the blood itself, thus greatly lessening the cost of blood transfusions for surgery and emergency needs.

Those wishing to donate at a particular time of day may arrange an appointment by contacting any member of the JCCA organization, or its president, Sam Drager of Texico.

Anyone donating blood is advised that it is best to eat a substantial meal before donating, to help lessen the slight weakness sometimes felt after donating, say Blood Services personnel.

Nurses from the Blood Services will be on hand to answer questions. Persons donating blood will be asked a few general medical questions to determine eligibility, and a social security number will be required for identification purposes.

Tax Rep. Here Wed.

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has announced that Kay Doggett from his Lubbock field office will be at Parmer County Courthouse Wednesday, June 15, from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

A comptroller's representative is available to assist local residents at the courthouse the third Wednesday of each month. Anyone with problems or questions concerning state taxes should contact the representative at the courthouse in person, or call the Lubbock field office at 806/795-0691.

A toll free number is also available to Texas taxpayers, 1-800-252-5555.

Farwellites Recognized In 'Older Texan Month'

Two of Farwell's Senior Citizens, Dora Verner and Nora Miller, received special recognition during the month of May which was designated by Governor Mark White as "Older Texan Month."

Certificates from the governor honoring the two local women were presented at a recent meeting of the Senior Citizens.

A certificate for volunteer services was awarded to Mrs.

Miller, while Mrs. Verner received a certificate for being an Outstanding Older Texan. Both women are active in the local Senior Citizens activities and other civic and church organizations.

Governor White encourages all older citizens to remain physically active, provide leadership, and continue to offer their many years of experience in making Texas a better place in which to live.

Recognized By Governor

Dora Verner, left, and Nora Miller, both of Farwell, admire the certificate presented to them by Texas Governor Mark White during the Older Texan

Month. Mrs. Verner was cited for being an Outstanding Older Texan, and Mrs. Miller was recognized for her volunteer services. The certificates were presented to the women during the last meeting of the Texico-Farwell Senior Citizens.

Chary Jesko Attends N.M. Girls State

Chary Jesko, Texico High School Girls State representative, was very impressed with what she learned during the recent session of New Mexico Girls State held May 28 - June 3 at New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology in Socorro.

Girls State gives young women a chance to actively participate in a mock government on local, county, and state levels. Chary says, "It is better that the classroom because you can participate and see for yourself how it's done."

Chary had the chance to help develop city ordinances, appoint policeman, and attend rallies to nominate representatives for state offices. Two political parties, the Nationalist and Federalist, nominate candidates for office.

Chary was appointed as Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources by the governor.

She also got a glimpse of how the Supreme Court works. Mock trials concerning everything from wedding conflicts to actions by drunk people were conducted, Chary said, adding that they followed the court system, eventually having the cases heard by the Supreme Court.

Each Girls Stater is assigned to a city, and Chary was a citizen of Pine. In turn, each city has a motto, song, seal, and cheer. The city of Pine's motto was "Through success and failure, Pine will always shine."

Other activities included going on whistle stop campaigns, hearing speakers including Pete Domenici, New Mexico State Senator, and participating in a vesper session each night when the girls would sing.

Chary says she "especially enjoyed meeting new people. At every meal, I would sit by someone different, but would find it easy to make friends and have something in common to talk about."

Chary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jesko, and will be a senior at Texico High School in the fall.

New Mexico Girls Stater

Chary Jesko of Texico recently returned from attending the 1983 session of New Mexico Girls State held at Socorro. While attending the mock government program, Chary served as Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources. Chary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jesko, will be a senior at Texico High this fall.

Home Canner Testing Service Offered

Before starting that summer canning project, be sure your equipment is in good order, says CEA for home economics, Laura Jacobs.

A Pressure Canner Testing

Clinic has been scheduled for area homemakers, Monday, June 20, beginning at 2 p.m. at the high school home economics building in Farwell.

As with all programs offered by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, this one is available to everyone without regard to sex, age, race, religion, handicap, or socio-economic level.

Miss Jacobs says to be sure to bring all parts of the canner to be tested, rack, lid, gauge, etc. Canners should be tested about every two years to be sure they reach the correct amount of pressure.

Food preservation booklets will also be available at no charge.

Be sure to take advantage of this free clinic as it is the only time it will be offered this summer.

Texico 4-H Club met in regular session Tuesday, June 7, to discuss such items as the Border Town Days celebration and the Curry County Fair. Members were also treated to a hot dog supper.

During the meeting it was decided that each member must attend four meetings before the Curry County Fair to be eligible to show their animals at the fair. This includes meetings beginning in March of this year.

Members also voted to enter a booth in the fair competition. Also, the 4-H club will sell watermelon slices at the BTD celebration on Saturday, July 30, in the Farwell City Park. Discussion about entering a float in the BTD parade was tabled until next meeting.

Around The House with Laura Jacobs
Farmer County Extension Agent
for Home Economics

Ceiling fans might make you think of steamy island hideaways or "Casablanca." But they can also help you have a more comfortable summer right in your own home. From ornate brass to pastel plastic models, ceiling fans are back in style.

You don't have to have 12-foot ceilings to use a fan either. But for safety's sake, a fan should be suspended from ceilings that are at least eight feet high, since the blades are at least one foot from the ceiling. For cathedral ceilings, an extension pole can be used to place the fan at the desired height.

Choose a ceiling fan based on the size and shape of the room. Most fans range from 36 to 52 inches in diameter. The 36-inch fan is useful in narrow spaces like kitchens, porches, and sunrooms. The 52-inch fan is generally used in larger areas requiring a wider, more uniform distribution of air movement.

As you shop for a fan, notice that some have metal housing and hand-rubbed wooden blades.

Metal blades are potentially more dangerous than wood or plastic. Any sharp-edged or thin blade can injure your hand if it accidentally touches the moving fan. So as a safety precaution, select units with blades no less than 3/16 inch thick at the tip.

If you want a fan with variable speeds, be prepared for a little noise. Some ceiling fans with speed control make a noise that sounds similar to the hum from a faulty fluorescent light.

Ceiling fan lights range from small fluorescent tubes to ornate globes. Carefully choose a place for a fan with a light. For example, a fan with a light fixture suspended from an eight-foot ceiling will probably be too low.

A fan hanging low over tables or furniture may not present much of a problem. But in traffic areas, the light could become an obstacle. Some manufacturers offer a low-profile model light for such areas.

Ceiling fans range in price from $50 to $1,000. Higher priced models are often primarily decorative accessories cast of solid brass or finished with highly ornate trim, stenciling and hand-crafted detail. But the majority of the models are in the $100 to $400 price range.

Installing a ceiling fan requires either an electrician or a competent do-it-yourselfer. The easiest form of installation is to use existing wiring from an overhead light fixture.

Don't install a fan near curtains that might become entangled in the blades. Also, keep it away from areas where people change clothes. A low fan can harm a person raising his arms to dress.

Although a ceiling fan should produce years of reliable service, check the manufacturer's warranty. Most makers guarantee the motor for five years, but be sure to ask about servicing. Some manufacturers supply a toll-free number to answer consumer's questions. Others have a network of service centers, and some neglect to mention service. So before you buy, ask the dealer what type of service is available.

With the wide variety of styles, features, and prices available, you should be able to find a ceiling fan to suit your needs both for style and comfort.

CEILING FANS SAVE MONEY
A ceiling fan uses about the same amount of electricity as a 100-watt bulb. You can run one for 10 hours for approximately seven cents. But that's not the most important energy-saving feature of ceiling fans.

You will save money with a fan only if you raise the thermostat on your air conditioning unit to a higher setting.

A three-ton air conditioning unit, for example, uses approximately $496 of power each year if set on 72 degrees. If the thermostat can be raised to 78 degrees and you are still comfortable due to a ceiling fan, the cost of operating the air conditioner will drop to $368 a year. That is a difference of $128 a year for a six-degree drop in the thermostat setting. Settings higher than 78 degrees would decrease your costs even more.

A ceiling fan does not actually affect the temperature of the air. It merely circulates air. The reason a fan makes you feel cooler at the same temperature is the wind-chill factor. As air moves across the body, a wind-chill factor makes you feel from four to six degrees cooler.

So don't be like the man who bought a ceiling fan, never touched the thermostat and then wondered why his electricity bills remained so high. You can save money with a ceiling fan, but only if you raise your thermostat.

GOTCHA!

You've just proven that people read small ads.

Deana Williams Feted With Bridal Shower

Deana Williams, bride-elect of Martin Welling, was guest of honor at a bridal shower Friday afternoon in Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Farwell.

The colors of apricot, navy, and rust were featured in the decor with a floral arrangement in those colors centering the refreshment table. Apricot napkins and mints added to the color theme.

Refreshments of apricot frozen punch, coffee, and finger cakes were served.

Special guests were the honoree's mother, Maxine Williams, her grandmothers, Bonnie Williams and Jenoyce Ford, all of Farwell, and Sarah Sears, mother of the prospective bridegroom, of Dalhart. Another special out-of-town guest was Deana's cousin, Shannon Hargrove of Ft. Worth.

Carol Snider of Farwell presided at the registration table.

Hostesses were Margaret Aycock, Tommie Snodgrass, Lillie Christian, Bernice Norton, Elizabeth Phillips, Nell Walling, Norma Booth, Joyce Williams, Dorothy Lovelace, Dardanella Helton, Annette Black, and Donna Jordan. Their gift to the honoree was an electric blanket.

Towns Family Reunion Hosted By M. Inmans

Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Inman of Farwell hosted the annual Towns' family reunion last weekend, June 3-5, at their home.

Present at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Verney Towns of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jamison of Marble Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Raney, Wendy, and Troy of Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Brent Inman of Abilene, James Towns of Nacogdoches, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Christopherson of Farwell.

Also attending the affair was Stephen Jensen, grandson of Mrs. Verney Towns, from Graham.

During the weekend, the family members just spent most of the time visiting and enjoying spending time together. As a special treat, the group took the younger family members to the Pioneer Days Balloon Fest and parade in Clovis on Saturday.

For quick white sauces, blend one cup soft butter and one cup flour. Spread in ice cube tray, chill well and cut into 16 cubes. Store in plastic bag in freezer. To make sauce, add one cube to a cup of milk and heat slowly, stirring.

Funds Reinvested By Commissioners Court

Only a small amount of business was attended to at the May 23 meeting of Parmer County Commissioners Court.

First on the short agenda was the voting to reinvest two $100,000 Farm to Market CD's maturing 6-19-83 in two more CD's to mature 7-12-83, and to reinvest two General Fund CD's maturing 6-10-83 in two more CD's to mature 7-12-83.

A bill for work on clearing proposed FM 3333 was tabled until further discussion could be had with the company involved.

Commissioners voted to pay a bill in the amount of $150.20 for storage of cheese that was given away in the county during 1982.

The Court also approved substitution of securities at Friona State Bank. The Court granted the bank's request that $115,000 of Ennis ISD bonds maturing 6-15-83 be replaced by $140,000 of Texas A&M University Housing Revenue Bonds.

The following soil conservation work was approved and ratified and will be performed when the machines are in that area and are not demanded for use on the roads:

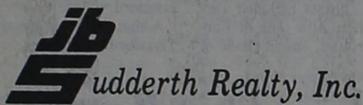

Precinct #2, Donald Dale, Leslie McCain; precinct #3, O'Neal & Vincent, Maude Primrose, Nick Bamert; and precinct #4, Gene McGuire, Royce Barnes.

QUESTION: Do you need a license to drive a moped in Texas? —J. G., Ft. Worth.

ANSWER: Yes. Texas Law requires drivers to be at least 15, to have a moped license (which doesn't require a driving test), and to register their moped. Insurance is not required.

Ancient History Department: The world's first car license plates were introduced by the Paris police in 1893. (That's Paris, France, not Texas) First American plates were in New York State in 1901.

BELIEVERS JUSTIFIED

Our Lord's appearance to Saul of Tarsus, "also" called Paul, on the road to Damascus, changed this pitiless persecutor in a moment into the docile, yes, the devoted follower of the Christ he had so bitterly hated.

This transformation took place not only because he had now seen the risen, ascended Christ; it was caused also by what he had learned from Christ. From heaven the Lord had revealed to Paul the glory of His finished work of redemption and had sent him forth to proclaim "the gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).

This is seen in the closing words of the Apostle's first recorded sermon, delivered at the synagogue at Antioch in Pisidia. After mentioning the death and resurrection of Christ, the Apostle said:

"Be it known therefore unto you, men and brethren, THAT THROUGH

THIS MAN IS PREACHED UNTO YOU THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS:

"AND BY HIM ALL THEY WHO BELIEVE ARE JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS; FROM WHICH YE COULD NOT BE JUSTIFIED BY THE LAW OF MOSES" (Acts 13:38,39).

Paul never changed this message, but kept emphasizing it wherever he went as well as in all his writings. He saw in this revelation of truth the answer to man's condemnation for breaking God's holy law. Thus he wrote to the Romans:

"...By the law is the knowledge of sin.

"But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested.

"We declare ... Christ's righteousness; that God might be just and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus" (Rom. 3:20,21,26).

Area Trio Competing In Tri-State Rodeo Finals

The Tri-State Rodeo finals will be held this weekend, June 9, 10, and 11 in Amarillo, with three local area high school students representing the TNM Rodeo Club that serves this area.

They are Chet Burrows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burrows, a junior from Farwell; Karen Snodgrass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snodgrass, a sophomore from Texico; and John Threet, a senior from Clovis.

The Tri-State Club serves Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma, and only the top 15 performers qualify for the finals. Qualification is based on a point system. Points are awarded for 1st through 6th place for each rodeo during the year.

Karen has qualified in three events, the barrels, goat tying, and breakaway roping. Chet qualified in bull riding where he currently is in 3rd place. John is in 9th place in the steer wrestling event.

Contestants will compete during every performance. Points will be awarded after each rodeo, and these will be added to the contestant's points that were earned before the finals.

A saddle and belt buckle will be awarded to the champion in each event. Buckles will also be awarded to the reserve champion and the average winner.

The All-Around boy and girl will also receive a saddle and buckle. In addition, a trophy will be awarded to the high point average team.

Other activities will include the naming of Miss Tri-State, the election of officers and directors for the coming year, and an awards banquet on Sunday morning.

Wednesday Fire Scene

Several members of Farwell Fire Department watch as fellow firefighters work on a catwalk at Worley Mills in Farwell Wednesday morning. The grain elevator personnel reported a fire at one of the top scaffolds, and while only a few firemen could get to the site of the fire, others stood by ready to give assistance. The fire was apparently started by gas from the grain, but only minor damage was reported, and no injuries were sustained. Shown from left are Farwell firemen Joel White, Robert White, Bruce Billingsley, and Curtis Smith.
