favor of the plan.

They stressed that this system to be understood that this system would in no way affect the routing of the highway and traffic would continue as always through the town.

Under the arterial system the state will furnish one-third of the necessary funds for the erection of the road and the town would be required to pay the other two thirds of the amount for the construction of the road.

N. L. Tharp, local businessman, should the plan be accepted, will put in escrow $30,000 or the city's part of the necessary funds to construct the road, which would allow construction to begin immediately.

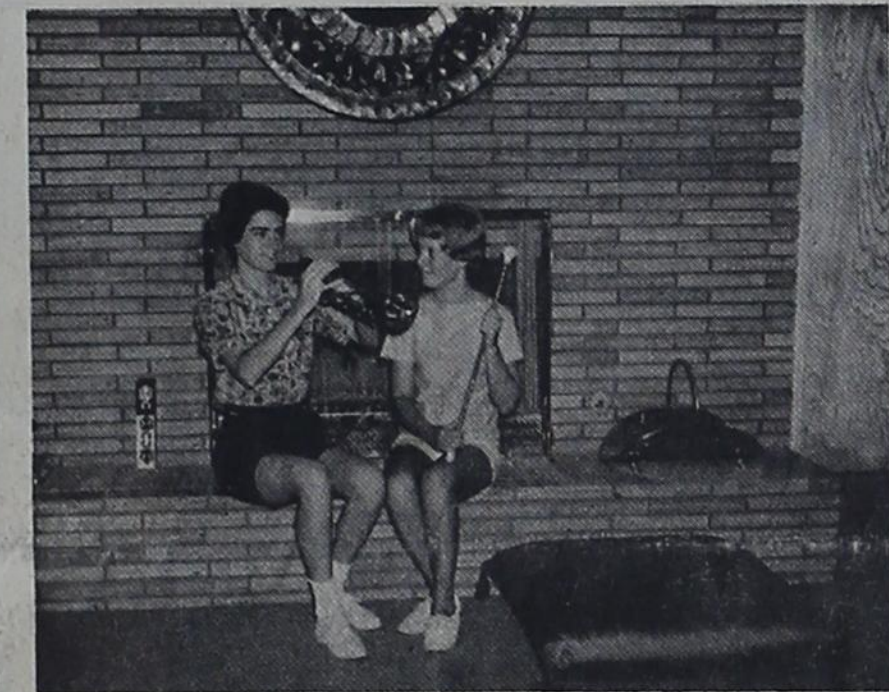

Ralph Douglas, engineer, was to be instructed by the mayor to draw up blueprints for the proposed arterial system and submit it to the state department immediately.

A contract was agreed upon between the city fathers and Red Prather, local service station operator, for servicing all city vehicles for a period of time, after which other local station operators will be given the privilege of bidding on the service.

Also up for discussion was the revision of the city ordinance pertaining to livestock. After some discussion city fathers decided to leave the ordinance as it now stands.

All other business transacted by the council was routine with all bills approved and ordered paid for the month.

BUCK DORAN AT ROTARY

Rotary Club Honors Buck Doran

Buck Doran, organizational president of the local Rotary Club, who is moving to Cobra to make his home, was honored Wednesday at the noon meeting of Rotarians. Doran, former superintendent of the Texico School, will teach high school English at Cobra this year and his wife, Ruby, will work with the elementary schools in that district.

Speaking for the club, Rev. Bob Tomlinson, long time friend of the Dorans, and first president of the local Rotary Club, commended the Dorans, saying that they have been leaders in each community where they have resided, leaders in the schools and in the church. "They will be hard to replace," says Rev. Tomlinson.

Dr. T. J. Glenn, local physician, and Travis Stovall, Clovis educator, spoke, praising Doran for his work with Rotary and in the community. Bill Boling, secretary-treasurer of the club, presented Doran with a desk set bearing the Rotary Emblem, in behalf of the club. Doran responded to the words of praise and bade farewell to the club, "This is not goodbye as we shall meet again somewhere some time," adding "maybe there will be a Rotary Club in Cobra where I can work with other Rotarians."

He said, "Ties which are made in club work are not easily broken and the world is a small place as Bob (referring to Rev. Tomlinson) and I can verify as through the years as we have moved about in our separate work we have time and time again been in the same community."

Under sponsorship of the Clovis Rotary Club and through the combined efforts of a group of local individuals, the local Rotary Club was organized May (Continued on page 2)

Picnic Tables Discussed By C Of C

At the regular noon meeting of Farwell Chamber of Commerce members Tuesday, the only business discussed was the possibility of securing four additional picnic tables for the park area.

At the present time the park facilities are limited because of a lack of picnic tables.

Texico School To Begin August 26

According to an announcement from the office of Supt. A. D. McDonald, only three weeks remain before the beginning of school in Texico. Opening date for the school is August 26, 9 a.m.

Students in all grades will register on the opening day and classes will begin on Tuesday. A pre-registration of all high school students was held prior to the closing day of school in May; however, all students must register officially on the opening day of school.

First faculty meeting of the year will be on Friday, August 23, at which time plans will be discussed by the teachers for the year's work.

The school is still in need of three teachers; however Superintendent McDonald explains that he expects these posts to be filled at the next meeting of the board which is scheduled this week.

Also needed is one cook to fill the place vacated by Mrs. Frank Doshier, who recently moved to California.

LEE THOMPSON

Tax Assessor Resigns Office

Lee Thompson, a Parmer County official for 15 years, and a public servant for a quarter of a century, will retire September 1 as County Tax Assessor-Collector.

Thompson, who suffered a heart attack a year and a half ago, has been in bad health ever since.

"I've been having to rest half of the time lately. I told my doctor (Dr. Paul Spring, Friona) when I visited him last that I planned to resign, and he said that under the circumstances, this would be a wise choice for me to make," Thompson said.

The tax assessor was in his seventh year in that capacity, being elected to his second term in 1960. His present term will have a year and four months remaining as of September 1.

Thompson served as county judge for eight years, from 1939 through 1947. He also served as a county commissioner from the Farwell precinct for six years, from 1930 through 1936. Prior to that, he served four years as deputy sheriff in Farwell. Between his tenure as county judge and tax assessor-collector, Thompson serves as manager for Bovina Wheat Growers Incorporated, from 1947 through 1955.

He was elected county tax assessor-collector for the first time in the general election of 1956.

"I'm very grateful to my many friends in Parmer County for their support through the years. I have never been defeated in a race for public office, a record I'm very proud of," Thompson said.

His plans, other than retirement, were not disclosed.

Excitedly making plans to attend the twirler and cheerleader school on the campus of SMU in Dallas, and looking over the list of classes offered, is this group of Farwell High school cheerleaders and twirlers. Left to right, Susan Blair, Carolyn Lindop, Sherri Austin, Mikala Austin, Joyce Kay Watts and Edith Ann Walling. Susan and Edith Ann are twirlers with the high school band, and the other girls are cheerleaders.

Peewee Football Planning Meeting Set August 6

Parents of all peewee football players are invited to attend a planning session at the AA Bowl Cafe, Tuesday August 6, 8 p.m., at which time plans will be made for the coming football season.

Policies to govern the peewee teams will also be discussed at this time, says Bill Prince, speaking for the association in the absence of the president, Pike Jordan.

DWI Fined In County Court

He was tried in county court by Judge Loyde Brewer and fined $100 and court costs.

Helton Oil Softball Team Wins Dist. Off To State Tournament

The Helton Oil softball team, which was undefeated in league play during the season, won the district tournament, going undefeated by any of the league teams in the district playoffs held at Clovis Jaycee Park, Friday of last week and Monday and Tuesday nights.

The team will be in Albuquerque August 8-10 to compete in the state tournament with teams from over New Mexico.

The team has made two previous trips to the state tournament but has been able to win only two games each time. They are hoping for a better record at the state meet this year.

First game for the Oilers was played Friday night against Swift and Co. This game proved to be a one-man show with pitcher Ray Carter, who faced 16 men at the plate, striking out 15 and hitting two home runs during the evening's play.

Only one man was able to get on base for the Swift Team and that on an error on the Helton first baseman. He was tagged out minutes later. Dolph Moten and Sonny Gentry shared catching duties. N. D. Kelso, third baseman for the Helton team, contributed three runs to the team's efforts and Eddie Smith accounted for two hits, one scoring Kelso and one accounting for another run.

The games scheduled for Saturday and Sunday nights were postponed due to the heavy rains over the weekend and were played instead on Monday and Tuesday.

The Monday night game saw

Helton again facing Swift with Si Koenig on the mound for the winners. Final score was 18-3. Glendon Sudderth relieved Koenig on the pitchers mound in the final stanza and Moten and Gentry again shared catching duties.

Contributing heavily to the scoring were N. D. Kelso, third baseman, and Jerry Henson, second baseman. Most of the other players did their share to finish the six inning game with a large score.

Tuesday night action was kicked off by the Swift team and the Clovis Independents playing the opener. Swift was defeated by the Independents and the Helton team met the Independents for the nightcap.

The game was almost a repeat performance of the other two games with Carter striking out nine of the twelve men facing him from the plate, before he was relieved by Sudderth in the last frame. Sudderth faced four men and struck out two to end the game by a score of 15-0.

Raymond Hadley had a home run for the evening and also a double with Eddie Smith con- (Continued on page 2)

W. H. Graham, Jr. State Line Tribune Farwell, Texas

I just wanted to drop a line or two and ask you to change the address of our Tribune. The mailman is collecting an extra 5¢ each time it is delivered, as it has been going to Farmington first and then forwarded to Los Alamos. Our new address is 3926-B Alabama, Los Alamos. We still enjoy getting the Tribune, even though it seems we know less and less of the names appearing in the news items.

Los Alamos, the Atomic City, is about 13,500 population and the natives here have said that there are about 1000 of this population which have Ph.D's. Guess we're going to have to crank up our rusty old brains in order to be just an average citizen! Even so, it's a beautiful city, hidden in the Jemez mountains and even in our back yard are growing big picturesque Ponderosa pines. It has been a good 10 degrees cooler here than in Farwell, too. We were there last weekend and about died in the heat after being so cool up here, so tell all the folks around town that if it gets a bit too hot for comfort to come on up and cool off. I must admit, however, that the freezer of homemade ice cream that mother made did help to bear the weather!

Val and A. C. will probably be making a trip out here in August and will probably drive on up to get in a little fishing. Tom went last week . . . they hiked into the "box" about 6 miles and had pretty good luck as two of them brought back about 20 trout over the weekend.

Sincerely,
 Gloria (Dial) Hightower

Mrs. Georgia Lee Rundell, secretary at the Farwell school, was in Austin July 15-19 where she attended a workshop for school secretaries. She went to the meeting with Mrs. Doris Lindsey, school secretary at Dimmitt, and the secretaries from the Canyon and Hereford schools.

Highlighting the meetings were panel discussions, lectures, group discussions, and social affairs. Monday, theme of the meeting was "A Vision of the Future." Tuesday, discussion centered around "Cooperation." On Wednesday "Communication" was the key word and on Thursday "Competence" was stressed with Friday's session highlighting "Character."

The conference is sponsored by the Texas University, Texas Association of School Administrators, Texas Education Agency and Texas State Teachers Association. A total of 224 secretaries were in attendance at the five-day meet.

Proving most enjoyable to Mrs. Rundell was a boat trip from downtown Austin to Green-shores where a picnic meal was served to the group. Another highlight for Mrs. Rundell was the noon luncheon on Wednesday when a program, depicting "Christmas in July" was held and Mrs. Leon May presented a program showing how to make Christmas decorations from items found in most homes.

CHRISTIANITY Is The Bulwark of Our Way of Life

LIFE'S GREAT CHOICES

"CHOICES!" Who among us is not making a Choice of one kind or another?

It seems a strange coincidence that the undersigned has been requested to write an article for the Farwell "Tribune" at the same time when we have made a tremendously important Choice, namely to partially retire and to leave this area for Illinois where, we pray, the Lord will still grant us some opportunities for Service among the sick, the Elderly Citizens, those confined to institutions, etc., a most compensating field of service to say the least.

We have been privileged to make many splendid and true friends in this area, and it will be difficult to leave, and especially the members of St. John's at Lariat. May the Lord richly Bless one and all!

And since this article is being written a few days prior to our departure, permit me to use as my Theme: "LIFE'S GREAT CHOICES," based upon the impressive words of the great apostle in Romans 16, 14-23.

Christianity, and Life to a large degree resolves itself into a matter of MAKING A CHOICE. Paul writes: "The wages of SIN is Death but the Gift of God is Eternal Life through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ." Very early already the question arises: What shall I DO? For what shall I prepare myself? What kind of a workman am I going to be? What branch of Service will I enter? etc. The greatest Choice however any one can make is when he makes the Choice of a Master. There are many masters whom people serve. Here is one who is a slave to his work, so entirely absorbed in his profession, or in some hobby that he has time and inclination for nothing else. And then there is always the matter of a Choice between God or Satan, and the tragic fact is that by nature we are all moved to make the wrong choice, for, "We are all as an unclean thing." "There is none that doeth good, no, NOT ONE. And if by the transforming power of the Holy Spirit we are not moved to choose Christ, we choose Satan, and thus become slaves and servants to whomsoever we choose.

But, thank God, by His Grace we can make Christ, our Lord and Master. If you have ever in true Faith merely touched the hem of His garment as He passed by, as did the woman with an issue of blood; if like the poor, dying thief on the Cross you have ever sincerely whispered into the Savior's ears: LORD, REMEMBER ME when Thou comest into Thy Kingdom; if you only haltingly have been able to say: Lord, I Believe, help Thou my unbelief; if you have in your heart a longing for the spiritual gifts and Treasures which Jesus holds before your eyes, then by God-Grace Christ has become your Master. And what a glorious change that is. And if God has become our Master and Savior and Friend, then the reward of Grace, the Gift of God, Eternal Life, becomes ours. LIFE: What a mystery, a Breath of God, the Crown of created life, crushed, bruised, broken, bleeding, but with the breath of Life still in it. And ETERNAL LIFE, Life redeemed, the Image of God restored, fit company for the angels, a Life lived in the Presence of God: THE GIFT OF GOD IN CHRIST!

O that we might recognize the tremendous seriousness of Life's great alternatives. How man, to their Eternal Loss, have made the wrong Choice! Still today there echoes down through the centuries the challenge of Moses: "Who is on the Lord's side. CHOOSE LIFE that thou and thy seed may live." Whom, then, do you choose to be your Master? There are only TWO, and it must be one or the other. And DON'T FORGET! As you choose your Master you choose your ETERNAL DESTINY for: "THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH BUT THE GIFT OF GOD IS ETERNAL LIFE THROUGH OUR LORD AND SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST." May you always remember this in whatever Choice you will make, particularly one which will effect your Spiritual and Eternal Life.

Our sincere wish and Prayer is that the Lord may richly bless one and all through the coming years and grant you the Gift of Eternal through Christ.
 We bid you a fond "FAREWELL," and--GOD BLESS YOU ONE AND ALL!

Adios USA, Buenos Dias Spain, Is Refrain Of Glenna Davis

Adios USA and Buenos Dias Spain, might well be the refrain of Glenna Ruth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Davis, as she packs for a stay of one and possibly two years in Spain where she will be teaching school at one of the six Aircraft and Warning sites of the free world.

Miss Davis confesses that she has always wanted to travel and see more of the world and that this seems like the ideal way to fulfill her desire.

She gave the Orient as her first choice when applying for a teaching position overseas, but was not disappointed when the word came that her appointment was in Spain. She says that she hopes to eventually get to the Orient, and visit Japan, Sumatra, India and Hong Kong.

She says that while on the teaching assignment, she hopes to visit parts of Europe and go to Africa where she can fulfill a lifelong desire to ride on a camel.

In addition, since the teaching assignment is high in the mountains she hopes to be able to do much skiing, and participate in other sports.

Miss Davis is making plans to take a trip to the Holy Land at Christmas and thinks she will make several excursions, possibly by bicycle, over much of the European countryside.

Teaching in the foreign country will be quite a different experience for Miss Davis, who says her school at Alcoy will be manned by a staff of three teachers or possibly four.

She has taught in Albuquerque at a 32-teacher modern school for the past three years, where she taught second grade. At Alcoy she will teach under the "Joplin Plan," an ungraded plan where a child is placed in the class where he is able to do the required work. She will be teaching multiple primary work.

Glenna Ruth and her friend, Nancy Archer, Spearman, who will be teaching on a Naval Base at Keyflavic, Iceland, will leave Amarillo by military plane August 14 for New York City. They will be joined in New York City by Glenda Green, Gruver, a teacher friend and former roommate of Miss Davis, who will also be teaching at Alcoy.

In New York City the girls plan to see the sights, take in some of the popular TV Shows and visit another friend, Doris Newhouse formerly of Abilene, who now teaches in Long Island.

The four girls plan to visit Philadelphia and see some of the more noted historic places, which says Glenna Ruth "will help us with our teaching."

Miss Archer will leave by plane for her new home in Iceland August 21 and Miss Davis and Miss Green will board a military plane for their home in Spain on August 22. They will arrive in Torrejon, Spain where they will be met by military personnel and taken to Madrid for a week of history lessons, orientation, processing and briefing on school policies before going on to their new home at Alcoy.

During her last days in the Twin Cities Glenna is busy sorting clothing and other necessities which will be packed for her by Cannon Air Force Base Personnel. She will be allowed to take with her 65 pounds of clothing and other necessary supplies with the balance of 400 lbs. to be shipped by the base personnel later.

What to take? Is the big question as one thinks that it could be weeks before the shipped articles arrive in Spain.

In the summer of 1962 Glenna Ruth and her friend Glenda Green made a two-week visit to Hawaii, and hope to return there some day and make a longer visit.

Glenna Ruth is a 1956 graduate of Farwell High school and received her BS degree from Abilene Christian College in 1960.

First Midge Signs Seen In County

Definite signs of sorghum midge in Farmer County have been reported by County Agent Deryl Coker.

"The midge season is now more of a threat to our county. Farmers should keep a close watch on their fields, and report any actual findings of the midge to me," said County Agent Deryl Coker.

He suggested that farmers construct a "midge detector" to satisfy themselves as to whether or not they have midge. "The small orange midge gnat is always present. By using a shoe box with a small glass vial in an opening, a farmer can soon tell if he has midge in his grain," Coker said.

He explained that the insect (Continued On Page B)

Recent results of the sorghum midge survey in the High Plains area have shown a steady population increase of the midge in certain "uncultivated" grasses. It is generally agreed among workers in this area that grain sorghum "heading out" after August 1 will be most susceptible to midge infestation.

Questions from persons interested in grain sorghum production indicate that further explanation concerning chemical control of the midge is needed.

Previous work has shown that the heaviest egg-laying by midge usually begins about the third day following sorghum head emergence from the boot. Chemical control depends upon the destruction of the adult female before egg-laying begins. Thus each sorghum head must be covered with insecticide within three days after emergence from the boot to prevent egg-laying within its spikelets.

Under ideal conditions of uniform heading, a single well-timed insecticide application should give good midge control.

However, it is realized that many fields will not head uniformly and two to three applications at three to four day intervals may be necessary for effective control.

Both Endrin and Toxaphene may be applied only once each season to grain sorghum. If either of these chemicals are used for the first spraying, Sevin should be used for additional applications.

It is now time to consider plans for fertilizing wheat land to be planted this fall. Farmer County soils do vary in their ability to supply plant nutrients and the most logical starting point for determining fertilizer needs is the soil test. Our office can supply information on how to collect and mail the samples. By sampling early the report will be received in plenty of time for making the final (Continued On Page B)

County Students To Attend Seminar

Parmer County Farm Bureau is one of 77 county Farm Bureaus over the state that will send local high school students to a Citizenship Seminar to be held August 20-23 on the campus of Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville, according to Harry Hamilton, president of the local Farm Bureau, and Mrs. Vernon Symcox, chairman of the Citizenship Committee.

Attending from this county will be Linda Rector, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Folster Rector of Friona, and Jane Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Bradshaw of Farwell.

This is the first seminar of its kind sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau. Last year, TFB and some local Farm Bureaus sent a delegation of students to a seminar in Oklahoma City. Instruction at the seminar will consist of lectures and films explaining the workings of American competitive enterprise system and contrasting it with Communism.

Speakers will include John Noble of Wheaton, Illinois, who was prisoner in Russian slave labor camps for nine and one half years; Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi of Bradley University at Peoria, Ill., a former Minister of Finance in the Hungarian government cabinet, who had direct dealings with the Soviet government; Dr. Harry Love of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, a well known teacher and lecturer on economics; and Drs. George S. Benson and Clifton Ganus, Jr., who are associated with the School of American Studies at Harding College in Searcy, Arkansas.

Students attending the seminar were selected on the basis of scholastic attainment.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

Farm Bureau President Harry Hamilton is going to Dallas for the Texas Farm Bureau Annual Leadership Institute, July 30 to August 2. We hope others are going, but don't know of them at this time. Prominent speakers on Americanism, capitalism, free enterprise and similar subjects will teach classes. Several hundred Farm Bureau people usually participate in these institutes.

Wheat farmers should, we believe, be writing their congressmen urging passage of the Wheat and Feed Grain Act of 1963, (HR 6617--S-1617 and similar bills). Passage of one of these bills would eliminate the probable "punishment tactics" threatened by power hungry USDA people because of the overwhelming defeat of the shackling May 21 wheat referendum. It is necessary that protection be provided the wheat producer until government "surpluses" are properly disposed of, and removed as a threat to markets for wheat and feed grains. Your congressman will, we believe, be glad to hear from you.

It is very evident that the family farm has been disappearing more rapidly as government regimentation on the farm has increased. The more corporate size operations are able to accumulate enough cash subsidies to capitalize and expand on, while the average farmer receives only enough to partially replace the necessary operating and living expenses resulting from production restrictions. Consequently, the marginal farmer either leaves the farm, or takes a job to supplement his meager income.

The following is a non-partisan statement of fact: The cotton marketing season now ending has seen exports dwindle from seven million bales prior to the New Frontier, to less than three million five hundred thousand bales. Domestic consumption has fallen to just over eight million bales and "surplus" has increased by three million bales in this same period. Farm Bureau believes a change is needed; more specifically, a change that would require the administration to return to the intended administration of the program actually now in effect.

There's still time to file for gas tax refund, both state and federal, even though some of your invoices may be too old for the state refund.

CONSIDER THIS: The hand of the diligent shall bear rule; but the slothful shall be under tribute. Proverbs 12:24.

The first Livestock and Meat Marketing Institute will be held at Texas A&M College, August 1-2. All sessions are scheduled for A&M's Memorial Student Center.

"Many women never realize what a poor loser they are until they go on a diet."

How true this is, we Americans are better nourished than ever before, and still we have an unnecessarily large number of nutritional problems. A wide and plentiful variety of food is available to most of us. The big question is what to choose from the many available foods.

Do you have a weight problem? And should you be concerned about your weight?

Both extreme underweight and extreme overweight are detriments of you and your health. Excess weight may shorten life because overweight people are poor surgical risks, show less resistance to infection, and are prone to have diabetes, high blood pressure, heart and blood vessel diseases, arthritis or strokes.

Do you know that in regard to blood vessels, every five pounds of extra fat calls for three additional miles of blood vessels?

The death rate for persons over 45 who are 10 to 90 pounds overweight, are eight to 116 per cent greater than persons of normal weight.

On the other hand extreme underweight is just as great a handicap as excessive overweight.

Underweight is apt to mean poor health, lower resistance to diseases and the vital organs.

Good health really means more than freedom from pain and disease. It means individual efficiency at its peak - a being radiant with energy and enthusiasm. This is how all of us would like to live.

The meals we eat, day by day, slowly but surely determines our state of nutritional health and perhaps the length of our lives.

There is so much "food quackery" going around that one wonders what to believe. Recently in a Medical Conference held in Dallas, Dr. Frederick J. Store, Professor of Nutrition of the Harvard University School of Public Health spoke on "Nutritional Nonsense" and his statements were: "There is more nutrition sense than nonsense though one may wonder if this is so with the nonsense one hears today. One must have an understanding of nutrition to recognize nutritional quackery statements. How do you tell a quack? He usually promises his product is good for many, many illnesses and that you will get quick and sure results."

Whether you are eating to lose weight or gain weight, you need three meals daily.

Crash diets or liquid diets do not answer the weight reduction problem. A reducing diet should be well balanced to include the necessary nutrients to meet the body's needs. The selection of calories is important; they should come mainly from lean meats as beef, pork, fish, poultry, and eggs, fruits, vegetables and milk.

Eat not only to add years to your life, but to add life to your years. This is a good rule to remember.

If you would like further information on food for weight control come by the Home Demonstration office or write for information. The booklet "Food for Fitness Guide" is a publication available without cost.

decision as to what kind and how much fertilizer to apply.

Nitrogen is the fertilizer element likely to be in shortest supply. Organic matter as measured by soil tests is one of the guides for determining how much nitrogen will be needed. However, factors such as amount and stage of decomposition of previous crop residue, physical condition of the soil, ability to irrigate adequately, and intended grazing practices will all influence the nitrogen need of the crop.

Research data of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations clearly indicates that where wheat is grown on Pullman soils for grain only, the time of nitrogen application is of little importance. When wheat is to be grazed it is important to apply all or part of the nitrogen preplant. Adequately fertilized wheat forage can contain 20 per cent protein or three per cent nitrogen on a dry basis.

would seek the light, so that by closing up several heads of maize in the shoe box, if there were midge present, the insects would crawl into the vial in search of light.

"Farmers should prepare three or four different boxes, and leave the heads in the boxes at least a week," Coker said.

He added that if a danger of midge-infestation in the county should develop, he would broadcast warnings during his radio programs over station KZOL in Farwell.

Some may wonder! When government operates 19,000 businesses, in direct competition with its taxpayers, they cannot be blamed for wondering. A case in point is the electric industry. Already over 15% of the nation's electricity is generated by the federal government. If you don't think all is well, write to your elected representative. He'll be interested in hearing your view.
