FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR

Recently, the Penn Central railroad went into bankruptcy. This occasioned vast reams of conjecture about the future of railroads in general. There have been lengthy analyses of the factors underlying this collapse. There have been forecasts that the government may have to subsidize all railroads. Nowhere have we seen many references to the completely unrealistic employment-wage practices prevalent in the railroad industry.

An item given some publicity in the Penn Central disaster was the stated loss of $67 million on passenger service. We have heard that a book-keeping practice is to pro rate the amortization of fixed equipment as it is used by a passenger train. For example, every time a passenger train passes over a bridge, a portion of the bridge's cost and maintenance is charged to passenger service. Well, if the railroad never hauled another passenger the bridge would have to be there and its upkeep would be virtually the same. This applies to all sorts of things like tracks, roadbeds, signals, etc. If you are going to run trains, these things must be there and properly maintained. The depreciation or extra cost between running 17 trains a day or 19 over the bridge would be extremely minute.

What hasn't received much notice is that the train going over the bridge is probably carrying a much larger labor force, at unrealistic rates, than is necessary. In other words, featherbedding. This practice of padding payrolls with unneeded help and often at absurd wages is not confined to the railroad industry alone. Most major industries are plagued with this inflation feeding practice.

There isn't too much wrong with railroads that common sense would not cure. If the past is any clue to the future, common sense will receive scant notice. The end result could very well be some form of government ownership or subsidy of this vital national industry. But this does not really solve anything because it just saddles the poor old taxpayer with the deficits of greedy labor and avaricious management. You cannot cure a cancer by just grafting over the top of it. The root causes must be excised totally. This means a completely new concept in management-labor -- a return to moral conduct.

Only a massive return to the precepts of honesty, integrity and morality can save not only the railroads but the country. By these terms, we mean the idea of a day's work for a day's pay, pride in workmanship or craftsmanship, and honesty in granting fair wages with adequate safeguards for safety and general health. The ability to understand and relate to the other person's problems, or more simply and succinctly, we must return to the Golden Rule or perish in a fiery Armageddon.

As a sidelight of jobs, did you know that at all levels, government employs 12,800,000 people? That is nearly 20% of all non-agriculture workers. Nearly 5,400,000 of these are in the education field.

This is where the tax dollar goes; for national defense and education. This means that around 70% of every tax dollar, no matter where collected, goes to defend us or to educate us.

For this gigantic outlay we had better be the best defended and the best educated peoples on this earth -- we wonder if that is true.

BEATING THE HEAT --- Many Twin Cities youngsters have found the ideal way to beat the heat of summer by taking a dip in the Far-Tex Swimming Pool in Texico.

Baseball Program Ends On Successful Note

Play in the summer baseball program in Texico-Farwell ended last Monday night on a successful note. Joe Jones, president of the summer baseball program, states that this has been a most successful year with approximately 275 boys and girls participating. In addition, more adults than in the past have assisted in the program by acting as coaches and managers of teams and by donating their time as umpires and scorekeepers for the games.

Jones extends thanks to each of the business firms and organizations who have sponsored teams during the season. Business firms and organizations sponsoring teams include in the minor league (Pee Wee), Piggly Wiggly, Gifford-Hill, Sherry-Anderson-Pitman and Citizens Bank; in the major (Little League), Kelly Green Seed, Aldridge Insurance, Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, Tide Products, Worley Grain and Farwell Fire Department; in the senior division, Helton Oil, Security State Bank, in Texico-Farwell, Charles Oil and Sherry Grain in Bovina; and Bengier Air Park and HI-Plains Feed Yard in Friona.

Jim Pierce was in charge of the girls division of the summer baseball program. For the first time this year a total of eight teams participated in this division. Sponsors of the girls teams included Clara's Spur Restaurant, Monsanto, Bobbie's, Golden West, Rose Drug, State Line Grain, Holidays and Capitol Foods.

Pierce stated that he is well pleased with the number of girls participating in the program this summer and also with the number of adults who have assisted by acting as coaches, umpires and scorekeepers. Umpires in the girls division have been Ricky Ketcherside, Mrs. Patricia Wynne, Debbie Garner, J. D. Kelley, Kenneth Askew and Jerry Askew. Several other persons also assisted as umpires in at least one game. Jim Pierce extends his thanks to each of the individuals who contributed time in calling any of the games.

In the boys division of the program umpires included Jim Berry, Charles Aycock, Pete Rundle, Willie Dannheim, Elmer Hargrove, Greg Hargrove, Ted Magness, Martin Kube, Jace Ensor, William Brigham, Lewis Foster, Vernon Scott, Jim Wynne, Everardo Arce, Brett Hargrove and many others. Special thanks is extended to each of the umpires for the time and effort in helping to make the program a success.

In the senior division Sherry Grain of Bovina was winner with a 10-3 season record. The Bankers from Texico-Farwell sponsored by Security State Bank was in second place with an 8-5 record. Other team standings include Helton Oil, 5-6; Charles Oil, 4-4; Friona A, 3-8; and Friona B, 2-6.

Winner in the Major League (Little League) was Kelly Green Seed with a 13-2 record.

Aldridge Insurance and Oklahoma Lane ended in a tie for second place with identical records of 10-5. Other team standings were Tide, 6-8; Firegoys, 3-11; and Worley Grain, 1-14.

In the Minor Division (Pee Wee), Citizens Bank with a 7-1 record was on top. Sherry-Anderson-Pitman had a season record of 6 1/2-1 1/2; Piggly Wiggly, 2 1/2-5 1/2; Gifford Hill, 1-8.

In the older girls division Rose Drug was winner with a 9-2 record. State Line Grain finished in second place with an 8-3 record. Holiday's had a 3-8 and Capitol Foods, 2-9.

Winner in the younger girls division was Clara's Spur Restaurant with a 7-4 record. Bobbie's was second with a 6-3.

Monsanto had a 5-5 record and Golden West ended the season with a 1-0.

Summing up the summer baseball program, Joe Jones, association president said, "It has been a good season with more boys and girls participating than at any time. I wish to thank each person who has assisted in any way to make the program such a huge success; we will be looking for your continued support next summer."

The Lions Club has been in charge of the concession stand throughout the summer. They are also builders of the ball parks. The Youth Commission has also supported the program as have the Rotary Club and other civic organizations in the Twin Cities.

FARWELL FIRE -- A spectacular and expensive Monday night fire on Farwell's Main Street destroyed C. L. McDaniels Swap Shop, right, and there was considerable smoke and water damage to John Porter's State Line Food Mill. The blaze started in the swap shop of undetermined origin. Texico and Farwell fire departments were called to the fire about 11 p.m. Monday. Total losses were estimated at $30,000 or more to the two buildings and businesses.

Hires Coach --

School Completes Faculty

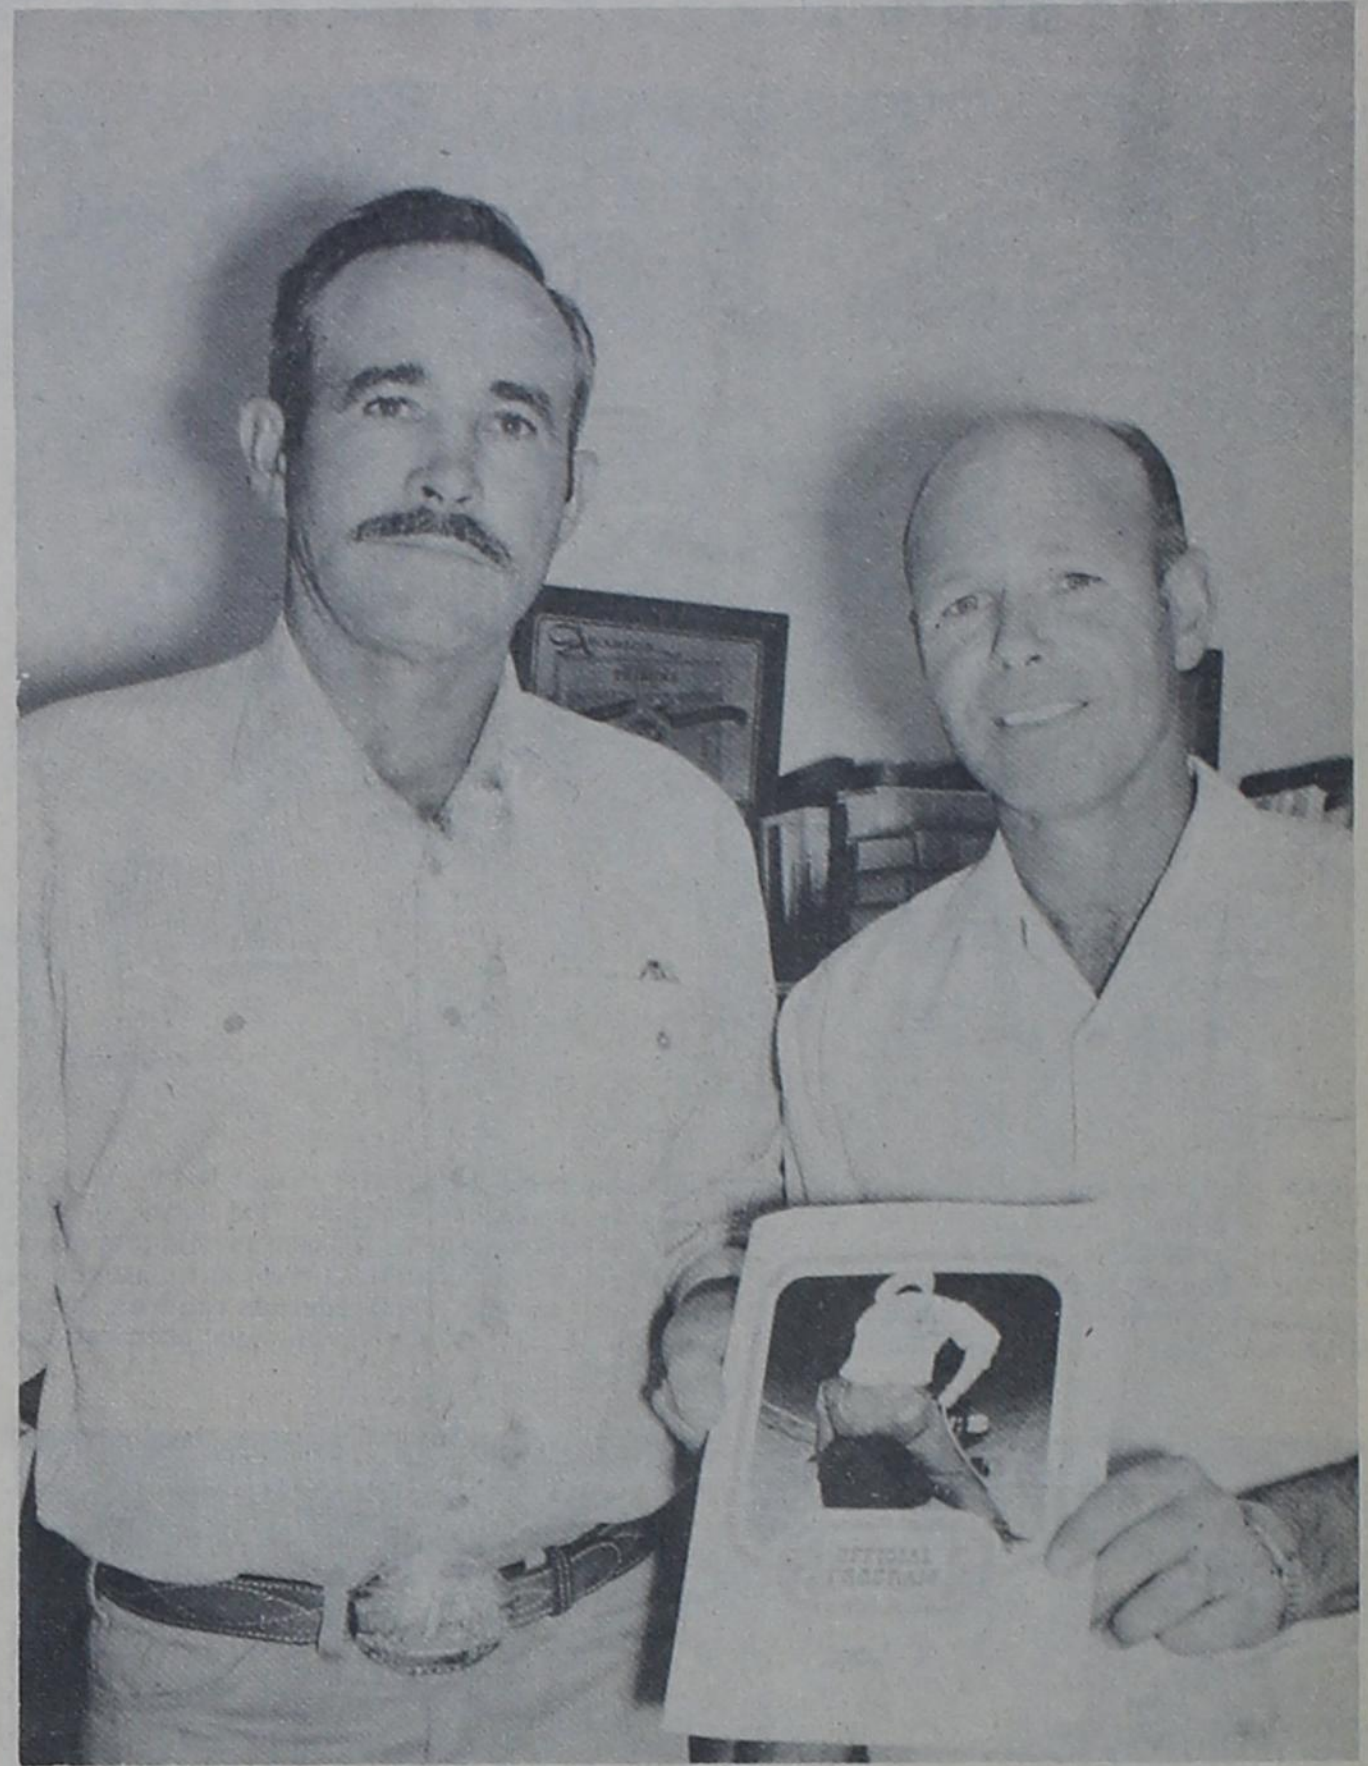

Texico School completed its faculty at a recent board meeting when an assistant football coach and basketball coach was hired. Filling the coaching slot will be W. B. Waiter, who has been coaching in the Keys, Okla., school for the past two years.

Waiters is no stranger to this area since he taught in the Melrose school at one time. He also was instrumental in getting the football program at Moriarty started while teaching there. He is working toward a master's degree at Eastern New Mexico University this summer.

He is married and has a 17-year-old son who will be a senior at Texico in the fall, and a 14-year-old daughter who will also attend Texico school.

A. Henry Burton from Littlefield was recently hired to teach mathematics in the Texico school next year.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM FOR BORDER TOWN DAYS --- Delbert Garner, president of the Farwell Rodeo Association, and Don Williams, president of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce exhibit one of the official programs which will be used at the rodeo performances each evening during the Border Town Days celebration. Final plans are well underway for the celebration which is slated for July 30, 31 and August 1.

Border Town Days --

Celebration Plans Well Underway

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce, the Roping Arena Association and other civic organizations and individuals in the Twin Cities are in the process of completing plans for the fourth annual Border Town Days Celebration, which they hope will be the best ever held in the Twin Cities.

The annual celebration is slated to be kicked-off with a gigantic parade on Thursday, July 30, at 4:30 p.m. Each evening during the celebration a junior rodeo will be conducted at the Roping Arena with rodeo queen candidates to be introduced and a grand entry slated. On the final evening of the performance the queen will be crowned and awards will be made to the "best all-around cowboy" and "best all-around cowgirl." Other awards will also be made to outstanding boys and girls in each of the events.

Fred Chandler will again serve as parade marshal for the celebration. Parade participants are asked to assemble at the area west of the Burger Barn Drive-in in Texico at 3 p.m. in order to be ready to move out at 4:30. Chandler says the parade will begin promptly at 4:30 p.m. and make its way east through Texico and Farwell and disband at the Roping Arena.

That evening at 8 p.m. the first rodeo performance will be held with the grand entry and introduction of queen candidates. Celia Trimble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Trimble of Texico, the 1969 Border Town Days queen, will preside over the festivities until the new queen is crowned at the final rodeo performance on Saturday.

Friday, the only activity planned is the rodeo performance at 8 p.m. This year, instead of a two go-around, the rodeo will feature a one go-around.

Saturday activities begin with a barbecue meal at the city park at 5 p.m. Henry and Adolph Haseloff, who prepared the barbecue for last year's Border Town Days meal, will again cook the beef for this year's meal. The meal will be served by members of the Chamber of Commerce. Also tentatively on the schedule is a member-guest golf tournament. Plans call for the tournament to be held at Farwell Country Club on August 1-2.

Grand entry for the final performance of the rodeo is slated for Saturday, August 1, at 8 p.m. Immediately following the entry announcement of the Border Town Days queen will be made.

All business firms in the Twin Cities are asked to decorate their places of business in the festival colors of red, white and blue during the celebration. The firms are also encouraged to enter floats in the parade. Area bands and riding clubs are encouraged to participate in the parade as are area residents.

Senior Division --

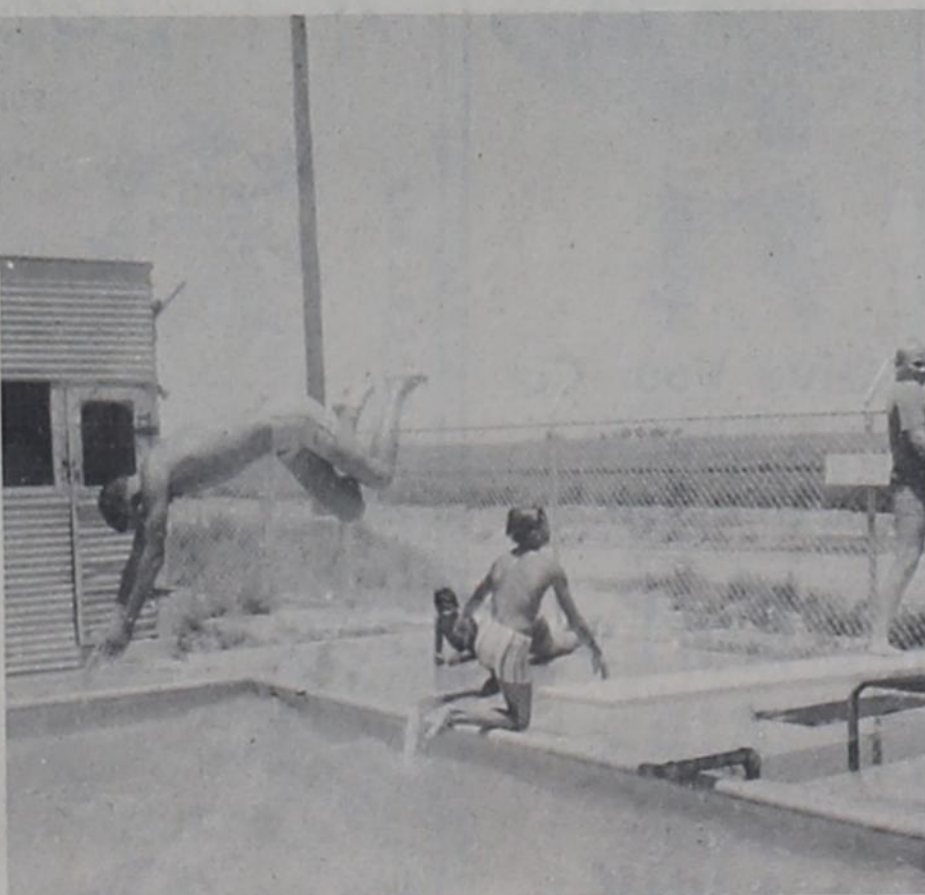

All-Stars Hold Practice Sessions

The senior division All-Star team has been holding practice sessions since July 7, getting in readiness for the All-Star tournament which is slated to begin in Raton Tuesday, July 21, at 7 p.m. Practice sessions have been conducted in Bovina. Managers named for Hargrove, Freddie Dale, Carl Kirkland, and Kent Armstrong, all from Texico-Farwell; Ronald Steele, Billy Shelby, Antonio Serna, Ronnie Stone and Kim Rundell, all from Bovina; and Ed Waggoner, Don Waggoner, Clay Bandy, James Sims and Kevin Wiseman, all from Friona.

Alternates on the team are Allan Haile and Curtis Lindley from Texico-Farwell; Mike Martin, Friona; and Jeff McCormick, Bovina.

Summer Activities

HEAD FIRST Into the Far-Tex Swimming Pool goes this youngster as a group at the pool plays follow the leader. The pool has provided Texico-Farwell youngsters many afternoons of relaxation.

FUN-FUN-FUN -- This group of youngsters, who were enjoying a dip at the Farwell Country Club swimming pool recently, have found that it's always more fun to swim in triplicate than alone.

Escape The Kitchen - Take To Outdoor Cooking

CHIEF COOK at the Roy H. Snodgrass home most summer evenings is "Father Roy" who finds great delight in trying his culinary art. One of the menus they find most to their liking is shish-kabobs, cabbage slaw, and pineapple cake for dessert. Of course with this menu, "Mother Tommie" always assists in the preparation ahead of time as meat and a part of the vegetables for shish-kabobs must marinate for several hours. The Snodgrass children, Susan, Mike and Vicci, along with their mother wait for "pop" to complete his meal preparations.

Summer weather means it's time to leave the kitchen and head for the great outdoors -- to the backyard patio, sandy beach, or shady park. Cooking out on the grill offers hours of fun and relaxation for the entire family.

No matter which form of outdoor cooking you do (broiling on the grill, do-it-yourself skewer cookery, or sauch barbecuing), several things will lead to culinary success -- a choice of tender cuts of meats, proper cooking and temperature control, tasteful seasonings, and of course, good healthy appetites.

Almost any piece of meat you might broil or roast in the oven would be great for the outdoor grill, in both the fresh and frozen forms. Your family and friends can enjoy charcoal cooked lamb chops, ham slices, chicken pieces, spareribs, or even roast pig Hawaiian style. Yet, hamburgers, beef cubes, and steaks are still overwhelming favorites. So let's concentrate on these three kinds of meat.

The most important thing to remember when grilling meat is to choose a tender cut. Select beef which is fresh and of high quality, bright red in color, and lean with ample marbling.

When you choose ground beef or hamburger meat, allow at least 1/2 pound per serving (that's per serving and not per person). Thick patties, which are pressed firmly together, are less likely to break up on the grill.

If you decide on steak cubes for skewers, choose sirloin or top round. Cut the meat into 2-inch cubes or have your friendly butcher do it. For your kebabs, select vegetables which will cook in the same length of time as the meat, or partially precook the vegetables. This is necessary for foods like potatoes, onions, or carrots. Another suggestion is to cook the vegetables on separate skewers and start them ahead of time.

On those occasions when you can afford steaks, tenderloin, sirloin, porterhouse, T-bone, rib, or cube steaks are the best choices. Allow 1 to 1 1/2 pounds per serving and have the steaks cut at least one inch thick. Preparing steaks for the grill is quite simple: first trim off some of the outside fat; then slash the remaining fat at 1-inch intervals to prevent curling.

Proper cooking and temperature control are very important in outdoor grilling. Once the coals are hot -- that is, glowing rather than flaming -- arrange your meat three to five inches above the heat. You may want to rub fat over the grill to keep the meat from sticking (the trimmed fat from the steaks is good for this). When you see little bubbles on top of the meat, it's ready to turn. Some of the best outdoor chefs say turn only once. Meat is more tender, juicy, flavorful, and uniformly cooked when allowed to cook slowly over low heat. To avoid excess loss of juices, handle your meat with tongs or spatula, rather than piercing with a fork. Test for preferred doneness with a knife blade by determining the center color.

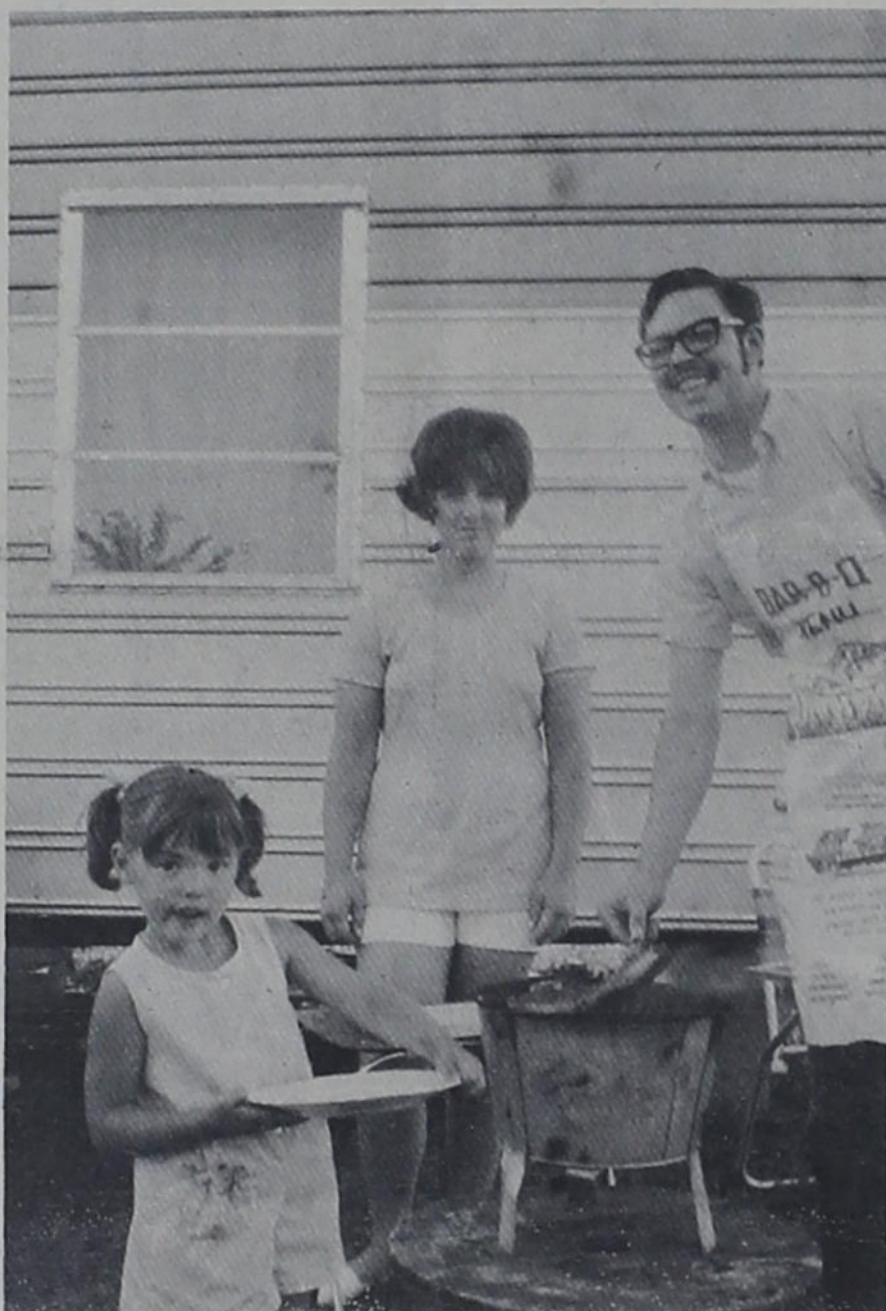

For your convenience frozen meats can be cooked without prior thawing. Of course they must be grilled for a longer period of time and at an even lower temperature. (Lower the temperature by raising the grill, removing or rearrang-

HURRY WITH THE FOOD --- With the delicious odors coming from the direction of the outdoor grill the younger members of the Meeks families and Todd's dog, Tinker Belle, are having a hard time waiting for the foods arrival. Pictured, left to right, are Jol and Gail Meeks, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Meeks, Carolyn Meeks, daughter of the Lee Meeks and Todd Meeks son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Meeks.

GRILLED STEAKS are good anytime but they are especially good when cooked by "Pappa Carl Glenn," according to daughter, Karla Sue Davis, who extends her plate for another helping of the delicious meat which is being taken from the habachi known as "Little Smokey" by the Davis family. Mamma Sue states that the family cooks most of its evening meals outside in the summer. Favorite menu is grilled steak, potato salad, and fresh buttered corn. Although son, Tyson Glenn, is too young to enjoy the outdoor cookery he does enjoy the cool evening breezes from his crib which is always near at hand.

FAMILY GATHERING -- The Meeks families find an outdoor cookout a fine way to get the entire clan together. Brothers, Billy, Lee and W. T. Meeks, share cooking duties as Todd, son of the W. T. Meeks, gives his bit of assistance. Fare at the July 4th picnic at the W. T. Meeks home was grilled hamburgers, cantaloupe, relishes, baked beans, topped off with home made ice cream and cake.

A misguided garden-club lady got a rather curt turnout when she tried to soft-soap W. C. Fields into addressing her society's annual banquet. "But surely you believe in clubs for women," said the matron.

"Certainly," said Fields, "but only if all other means of persuasion fail."

BASEBALL SEASON ENDS -- The first of this month marked the end of another successful Twin Cities baseball season. Approximately 265 boys and girls from Texico-Farwell participated in the summer league baseball program, plus two teams each from Bovina and Friona in the senior division. Games played four evenings each week provided an outlet for youthful vigor and vitality as well as providing entertainment for many fans. Sponsors of the minor and major leagues, the senior division, the young girls and the older girls all offer thanks and appreciation for the many coaches, umpires and other individuals who have given their time and patience to work with the large number of youngsters.

GOING UP...

A building is being erected. It is made of strong materials, steel and concrete. The foundation is firm and deep. The edifice is built to endure.

We need to build our homes to endure. They need a strong foundation. They need to be built on the rock of Christ. Psalm 127:1 reads, Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it. Attend church regularly that your house may be instructed in the ways of the Lord.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

A gas range cleans itself as it cooks.

Ovens you don't have to clean aren't new. But this oven you don't have to clean is new. Because this one cleans itself as you cook, not afterwards.

So it cleans at regular temperatures of 400-450 or so degrees. Instead of an extra, special cycle of intense 800 degree heat that can turn your kitchen into an oven.

This new way is what many of the new gas ranges have.

Gas not only cleans itself better, it cooks better. Accurate, instant-response burners that the electric people can only wish they had. Yet, incredibly, gas costs half as much to use. Hardly makes any sense to use anything else, does it?

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Chris Moss

Career woman, homemaker, wife and mother is the title which fits Mrs. Dutch (Dorothy) Quickel whom we are saluting as our homemaker this week.

Mrs. Quickel, the former Dorothy Thornton, one of five children of J. R. Thornton and the late Mrs. Thornton, was born at Texico. She has spent most of her life in the Texico-Farwell area and has been serving as district clerk of Parmer County for the past seven years.

Mrs. Quickel attended school at West Camp and Farwell, graduating from the latter institution in 1936. Following high school graduation she attended Texas Tech, receiving a BBA degree in business administration in 1940. For a short time, Mrs. Quickel worked in Washington, D.C., as a secretary in the Navy department. However, she returned to Texas and taught business subjects in the Iowa Park School for a one-year period and finally returned to Farwell to work in a hardware store for a short while prior to her marriage to Dutch Quickel in 1945.

The son, Bill, is married and lives in Brea, Calif. He attended Texas Western College and is presently employed at Beckman Instruments in Brea. Mrs. Quickel says, "We are proud of both of the children." One favorite dish of the Quickel family is Muskatrola, a recipe which Dorothy obtained from Mrs. Rosa Roberts, a former Texico-Farwell resident. Mrs. Quickel is generously sharing the Muskatrola recipe along with recipes for Cheese Cake, Cheese Squares (sandwiches) and Chocolate Chip Kisses with our readers this week.

 - 2 large cans mushrooms (stems, etc.)
 - 2 cans tomato soup
 - 1 can pimentos (cut into small pieces)
- Cook ground meat in skillet with one tablespoon fat; season with salt, black pepper and red pepper. Cover and cook until and place in plastic bag. Use as needed. Bake on oiled cookie sheet until brown at 350 degrees.

2/3 cup sugar (beat into egg whites)

Fold in 2/3 cup finely chopped pecans
One package (6 oz) chocolate chips

Turn oven off before putting cookies in. Leave in oven 2 1/2 hours or overnight. Recipe is enough for 3 dozen cookies (size of half dollar).
