Wolverines Complete Basketball Season

The Texico High School Wolverines playing in the district tourney in Portales over the previous weekend wound up their schedule for the season. During the season they won 14 games and lost 9. Texico was fourth place winner in the tourney.

Playing Tatum on Thursday night in their first game of the tourney Wolverines, playing without the services of Joe Patterson who was ill stomped the Buffalos 46-34. The Wolverines jumped into an early game lead with first quarter ending 13-7; at halftime the Wolves had lengthened the lead to nine points ending the quarter 25-16. The rest of the game continued much the same with Texico lengthening its lead to 12 points by end of play.

High point man for Texico was Tom Rickstrew with 15 followed by Bill Campbell with 14.

On Friday night Texico collided with its arch foe Elida in the second game of the evening and lost the tilt 61-50. Gary Skaggs, guard, was injured early in the game adding to Texico's woes, since Joe Patterson the other regular guard was already out of play due to illness. Late in the game the only other boy who has played regularly in the guard position, Wayne Hudnall, fouled out of the game.

"The boys were unable to find the basket," said Coach Paul Frederick. "Bill Campbell accounted for 36 of the total points made by the team. He hit 16 free throws out of 18 tries during the evening, but was way off on his field basket tries."

Saturday night the Wolverines were defeated by Floyd, who had been seeded behind Texico previous to the tourney. Final score in that game was 49-45.

The game which started out as a low scoring event continued in the same vein for the first three quarters. Score at end of the first period of play was 9-9. Halftime score was 24-17 and third quarter ended 37-28.

The team played without the services of Skaggs on Saturday night with Patterson playing briefly on two or three occasions.

Mike Spearman and Bill Campbell, each hit for 15 points to lead scoring.

Formby Will Be Bovina C-C Banquet Speaker

J. Clint Formby, owner-manager of Radio station KPAN, in Hereford will be speaker for the fourth annual Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Banquet scheduled for March 19. The banquet will be held in the Bovina school cafeteria and will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m.

Tickets are presently on sale by the board of directors of the chamber. They are selling for $2.50 per person.

Clint Formby, has held many honors and is one of the most sought after dinner speakers in the area. In his under graduate days at Tech he was student body president, has served as president of Tech ex-students association, Past President of Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce, Past Lt. Gov. of Kiwanis, Chairman of the Texas AM Broadcasters, Past President of the Hereford JC's, Keynote Speaker for the last two years at the West Texas Chamber of Leadership Conference (and was asked again this year but, this speaking date kept him from accepting), and was recently appointed to serve on a 12 man board which administers the Code of Ethics and Broadcasting Standards for the National Broadcasting Assn. Jack McCracken, chamber manager-secretary says "We feel fortunate in having with us again this year "The Easterners" a male quintet from ENMU." They appeared in Bovina last year and made a great hit with the crowd. "As a matter of fact, we might say this will be a command performance for the "Easterners".

Miss-Mr. FBLA School Winners Named

Representing Texico High School at the annual state FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) contests to be held in Portales on the campus of ENMU, March 20-21 as "Miss FBLA and Mr. FBLA", respectively will be Callalya Roberts and Gary Farmer. Both are seniors.

Chosen as alternates were Marquitta Wall, junior, and Terry Niece, senior.

Other contestants for the honor were Miss FBLA candidates: Kay Bush, Millie Autrey, Mary Creek, and Linda Hudson. Mr. FBLA candidates included: Emmitt Autrey, Clarence Ethridge and Lloyd Harrison. Judges for the contest were Jimmy Horton, manager of All State Insurance Co. in Clovis. He has a masters degree in psychology. Mrs. Donald Watkins, Farwell, who is associated with Williams & Merrman CPA (Certified Public Accountants) with offices in Muleshoe and Howard Ellison, a Bovina farmer, who is also a Layman Missionary for the Church of Christ. He spends much time and money in his church work. All of the judges are former students of Mrs. N. W. Peyton, Texico FBLA sponsor.

The contestants were judged on four points and were each given personal interviews by the judges. Points on which they were judged were: correct or suitable clothing for business work, poise, grammar and responses. Each of the local state entrants will submit a business letter to the state judges prior to the March contests. Miss Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Roberts and Farmer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Farmer. He, Farmer, was chosen as recipient of a scholarship in the science and math field in tests taken at ENMU the past Saturday.

NOTICE

Senior MYF of Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church is sponsoring a breakfast at the church this Saturday, March 7. Serving will be between the hours of 6 a.m. and 9 a.m. Tickets for the breakfast are available from any member of the MYF or they may be purchased at the door. Price of the meal is $1 for adults and children under 12, 75¢.

The menu will include pancakes or toast, scrambled eggs, bacon or sausage, syrup, jelly, butter, milk and coffee.

I've tried to figure this out by myself, but can't. I don't believe self-defense has much to do with it. In a prison reformatory, that might be a factor, but surely not in our local school. Also, I think a fork would be about as mean as a table knife if you were thinking in terms of weapons. Besides, I can see the teachers aren't scared of the kids. What parent would sit all alone in a room with 25 to 30 of this bouncing generation and not shake in his boots?

Grand Jury Indicts 19

A total of 19 indictments were returned by the Parmer County Grand Jury, Monday. Sixteen of the persons are in custody and names of the other three against whom indictments were returned are being withheld pending their arrest. Two of the suspects, Serapio Uvalde and Bruce Jordan Voyles entered pleas of guilty on Tuesday. Uvalde was given a three year probated sentence on a forgery and passing charge and Voyles, facing a charge of theft was given a four year probated sentence. Other pleas of guilty are expected to be entered on Thursday. Four divorces were also granted during the court sessions. The jury has been called to report on Friday morning. Scheduled for that time is the case State of Texas VS David Chapman, for statutory rape. Indictments were returned against: Billie Joe Booth - indecent exposure; Mario Costello, Pablo Perez, Natividad Ramos - malicious destruction of personal property; Guadalupe Garcia - forgery and passing; Tommy Graham, David Graham - one count forgery and passing; Sandra Kay Witherspoon-forgery and passing two counts; Betty Jean Malone - forgery and passing; Arnulfo San Miguel Jr., forgery by alteration; Garfield Leon Nish, Homer Nish and Betty Jean Stevens, burglary - two counts; Harold James Precure - forgery and passing; Warren S. Wilkerson - forgery and passing and Ronny Dale Wines - burglary.

Burglars Hit Gladys's Third Time

For the third time in the past two years burglars hit Gladys's Ready to Wear, Friday night. The shop is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hromas and is operated by Mrs. Hromas.

Loot taken by the burglars was estimated by Mrs. Hromas at approximately $500; although she had not completed an inventory of merchandise taken. Taken in the burglary were suits, robes, dresses and some gift items. Entrance to the building was gained by breaking in the front door and apparently no tools were used; however two windows in the building were broken in an effort to gain admittance.

Several arm loads of clothing were dropped on the hard packed snow by the burglars when they were apparently frightened away by passing motorists. Time of the burglary is thought to be around 2 a.m. Friday morning. The business was first burglarized Sept. 4, 1961 with the burglars later apprehended and sentenced to jail and most of the loot recovered; however in the Sept. 19, 1963 break-in all leads fizzled and no arrests were made nor was any of the loot, in the amount of $1752., ever recovered. Sheriff's officers are still working on the Sept. burglary.

Former Coach Has Team In Regional Playoffs

Local basketball fans will be interested to know that the girls' basketball team of Hamlin, coached by Dan Trulove, a former Farwell coach, will be playing in the regional playoffs in Lubbock scheduled for Friday. Time of the contest is not known. Hamlin is winner of a bi - district game played earlier this week between Hamlin and Iowa Park. Friona Squaws will be playing Spearman at 11 a.m. Friday in the regional games.

Fought Home Damaged In Sunday Afternoon Fire

The unfinished home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fought in Texico was extensively damaged by fire Sunday afternoon when a barrel of tar Fought was using to seal the roof exploded throwing flames onto the sides of the house and setting fire to the building. Extent of damages was listed as approximately $5,000 by Mrs. Fought. One bedroom and all of the furnishings were a total loss along with the living room furniture and all of the clothing of several family members. Carpeting throughout the house was demolished and kitchen appliances and furniture were extensively damaged from the smoke and water, as were all the walls in the home. No insurance was carried on the home; however Mrs. Fought says they will try to salvage what they can from the home, and rebuild as funds become available.

Mrs. Fought was high in praise of the Texico and Farwell Volunteer fire departments, who answered the call. "They arrived on the scene minutes after being called, but for their assistance our home would have been a complete loss," she said.

Many townspeople have donated clothing for children in the family whose ages range from 8-12; however at this time they are in need of storage for the clothing. Many persons have also given food and money to assist the family. Mrs. Fought expresses the thanks of the family for all assistance.

Texico Town Marshal Resigns

The resignation of Jim Light, Texico town marshal, was accepted by commission members at their Friday meeting. The resignation became effective immediately, since Light has moved out of the city. Light will be replaced in the marshals' job by E. C. (Slim) Clifton, who served as town marshal for a period of several months. He has recently been

Last Rites Held For Darby Infant

Graveside rites were conducted by Rev. J. L. Bass, pastor of Farwell First Baptist Church, Saturday, for Britt Kersten, infant twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Darby, who was stillborn in a Clovis Hospital Thursday. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Terrace under direction of Our Chapel of Memories. Survivors include the parents, the twin brother, Eric Kersten, five other brothers, Steven, Ricky, Mark, Barry Dean and Scott, all of the home, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kersten, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Darby, Farwell and also several local aunts and uncles.

The other infant son, Eric Kersten, and his mother were dismissed from the hospital early this week.

Texico B basketball team has racked up a good season record this year winning 14 and losing 6. They will end play for the season this weekend. Shown are: Coach-Johnny Green, Harvie Winkles, Ronnie Spence, Clarence Ethridge, Emmitt Autrey, Mickey Lofton, Joe Holland; front row left to right: Mike Hitson, Leon Smith, Wesley Raulie, Floyd Morris, Neil Lambert, David Duncan, Jim Hill, Ronnie Richardson and Gary Meier.

Practice Begins For Texico, Farwell Track Teams

With basketball season over for this year, practice on the track field began in real earnest this week in both of the local schools.

In the Texico school a number of track meets are scheduled beginning March 20 and ending with the state meet in Albuquerque in May, says Coach C. B. Stockton.

In order for all boys to turn in their best performances they should plan to attend and compete in all meets if at all possible. This is the only way in which the school can hope to complete a successful season.

Scheduled meets for Texico are as follows: March 20 - Elida at Texico - 2:30 p. m. - Juniors and seniors, March 26 - Floyd at Texico - 2:30 p. m. - junior and seniors, March 31 - Farwell at Texico - 3 p. m. (CST) seniors only, April 4 - Fox Relays - all day - junior and seniors, April 7 - Melrose at Texico - afternoon - juniors and seniors, April 11 - Manual Invitational - all day - seniors.

April 18 - Texico Invitational - all day - seniors, April 25 - Tatum Relays - all day - junior and seniors, May 2 - EPAC meet in Clovis - all day - junior and senior, May 9 - district meet in Ft. Sumner - all day - senior, May 15-16 -

State meet in Albuquerque - senior.

Much hard work and practice must go into the efforts of each boy who is competing for any of the track events at the Farwell school as a rigid schedule has been set up with first of the events scheduled for March 14 at Floydada.

Other scheduled meets for Farwell are: March 21 - Hale Center Relays, March 28 - Springlake Relays, April 4 - Kress Relays, April 11 - district meet - at Kress, April 18 - regional qualifying meet at Springlake, April 24-25 - regional meet in Lubbock, May 1-2 - Red Raider Relays in Lubbock, May 8-9 state meet. A complete list of the boys entering in the track events will be carried in next weeks paper.

Entered as second class matter at Farwell, Texas, under the act of March 3rd, 1879. Published every Thursday.

More Grain, More Profit, Less Work

Plant grain sorghum drilled or two rows per bed, use 8 to 10 pounds seed per acre, and take advantage of chemicals to keep the weeds out. This is the production combination that can yield more grain, more profit, with less work.

Tests at the Southwestern Great Plains Field Station at Bushland, Texas, and at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, have shown narrow-row grain sorghum a yield-booster when properly managed. Billy Gunter, Area Extension Agronomist, emphasizes fertility level of the soil is a determining factor in getting high yields from narrow-row sorghum. Water must also be available when needed to maintain high grain yields, Gunter stresses. According to the agronomist, the fertility and irrigation levels should have a potential of at least 6500 pounds grain per acre or more before narrow-row planting could be expected to out yield regular 40" rows.

At the Bushland Station, experiments were conducted with different row spacings and planting rates over a three-year period. The 12 and 20-inch spacings consistently produced grain yields of 1000 pounds per acre higher and also produced more grain per inch of water used than the 30 or 40-inch row spacings. This is the report from Dr. Kenneth Porter, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station agronomist headquartered at Bushland.

Dr. Porter says rate of seed planted per acre had little influence on grain yields. Pounds of seed planted per acre were 4, 8, and 12 pounds at each row spacing. The higher planting rates produced the higher forage yields—but not more grain. According to Dr. Porter, about 8 to 10 pounds seed per acre should give sufficient plants for maximum grain yield under most conditions, regardless of row spacing used. If the crop is being produced for grain, seed planting rates higher than 10 pounds per acre would then serve no useful purpose—in fact, these tests showed the fertilizer may not be as efficient for grain production as at lower seed planting rates.

Comparable increases in yields are possible by planting two narrow rows on beds spaced about 40-inches apart. Many Plains farmers are going to this planting method—spacing rows on the bed 12-16 inches apart. But, as Gunter emphasizes, to obtain the most benefit from narrow-row spacing, adequate fertilizer and moisture levels must be maintained.

Narrow-row spacings also have the advantage over wide rows in weed control. Plants in narrow rows will shade out many of the weeds. With the addition of a new herbicide, propazine, to the grain sorghum chemicals list, weed control in narrow row sorghum is made even more efficient.

The herbicide is ideal for irrigated fields and is especially useful in narrow row plantings where mechanical cultivation would be difficult. Gunter says application recommendations call for spraying the chemical on immediately after planting at a rate of 1 to 2 pounds herbicide in 20-40 gallons water, per treated acre. For careless or pigweed control, use the one-pound rate. But for annual grass control, use the two pound rate on silty clay loam soils. On fine sandy loam or coarser soil, use the one pound rate as a maximum. Apply the chemical immediately after planting so the first rain can leach it into the root zone. If rainfall occurs before chemical application, weeds may germinate and grow through the propazine on the soil surface.

The chemical will control both grasses and broadleaf weeds. It is not toxic to cotton if drift occurs.

With propazine, weeds are

controlled for a month or more if the soil is not distributed. A point to consider is "mapping" of fields where propazine or chemicals for other crops are applied. Many chemicals have a long residual action which can seriously damage germination and plant growth of susceptible crops. Propazine, for example, should be used only where grain sorghum or corn can be grown the second crop season. Other crops could be subject to damage if planted too soon on soil that was propazine treated. According to Gunter, keeping an accurate map of what crops were grown and what chemicals were applied to all crops is well worth while.

4-H members and leaders are really busy these days according to reports being turned in to me. The boys and girls taking Food and Nutrition projects are getting ready for the big county wide event, the Favorite Food Show contest in April.

The weather conditions have not cooperated too well but groups are doubling up on meetings in Foods, so the 4-H girls and boys can be better equipped to enter the Food Show in April. In our newest 4-H club, Farwell Busy Bee's, we have 25 girls who are getting started in their project work. With some very capable adult leaders, I predict some good results in youth development. Last meeting of the club Parliamentary Procedure was practiced and you never saw a better or more orderly meeting.

The four Food Leaders are: Mrs. Glenn Phillips, Mrs. Beulah Hobbs, Mrs. Irvin Martin and Mrs. B. J. Roberts. Mrs. John Bolling is the club's Organization Leader. Parents are cooperating with the leaders and with this kind of interest the club work will surely show progress and increased interest in Project work.

Mrs. Johnnie Rundell and Mrs. Webb Gober, 4-H Leaders reported two meetings on Bedroom Improvement with 8 girls in the Oklahoma Lane Community. In one meeting the girls learned about color harmony and how to apply and use color effectively. The girls will meet Tuesday in the Oklahoma Lane Community Center to see demonstrations on various ideas for improving bedrooms for convenience, attractiveness, and usefulness. After this each girl will decide on Home Improvements they want to work on.

Recent studies at the Southwestern Great Plains Field Station indicate that a single tansy mustard plant per square foot in dryland wheat fields reduced yields by about 10 per cent.

Agronomist, A. F. Wiese and Assistant Economist, J. S. Wehrly of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station staff conducted the studies and developed a guide farmers can use to determine whether control of tansy mustard will be profitable. Tansy mustard is the most common weed over much of the Texas wheat producing area. It has been known for some time that the weed did not compete with wheat for moisture when controlled with 2,4-D ester. The recent studies thus pinpointed the damage caused by the weed in wheat.

The scientist suggest that farmers watch their wheat fields in February or March, count the weeds -- on a square foot basis -- and make an estimate of potential wheat yield. Then by taking the 10 per cent damage for a single weed per sq. foot and varying it up or down depending on weeds counted and using an assumed value of $1.75 per bushel for the potential yield and figuring the cost of applying a half-pound of chemical per acre at $1.50 (custom rate), farmers can determine whether control of the weed would be profitable, Wiese and Wehrly explain. The half-pound of 2,4-D ester should be applied after the wheat is fully tilled but before vigorous spring growth begins usually between February 15 and April 1, the scientists emphasize. With one weed per square foot and a potential yield of only 5 bushels of wheat an acre, control would not pay. But if the yield were 20 bushels, the profit would be $2, an acre. On fields with a potential yield of 20 bushels an acre and a weed population of four per square ft., control would increase profit by $12.50 an acre.

Richard Hapkes At Home In Lovington, After Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hapke are at home at 402 N. 11th St., Lovington, following a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. The bride, the former Carolyn Brake, daughter of Mrs. Floy Brake, Andrews and the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hapke, Texico, were united in marriage in a candle-light, double ring ceremony at 6:30 p.m. on Valentine Day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ward with Rev. J. Harold Cates, pastor of First Methodist Church Lovington officiating.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Jay Cummings, organist. The wedding party stood before a setting lighted by 14 pink candles in wrought iron candelabras entwined with greenery and pink carnations.

flowers with a pink net face veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink camellias and Better times roses with deep rose streamers. Keeping with bridal tradition, she wore for something old and borrowed a strand of pearls, new was her dress, and blue the traditional garter.

The maid of honor was attired in a dress of cranberry satin brocade, fashioned with a high neckline and three quarter length sleeves. She added matching shoes, white accessories and a corsage of deep red colored roses nestled in white satin.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore corsages of white carnations. Guests were registered by Mrs. Malcom Dean, in the guest book, at a table covered with a hand crocheted cloth. Centering the table was a crystal bud vase holding a pink rosebud and greenery.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with lace over pink and centered with a three tiered cake, the top tiers separated by columns and topped with white hearts in the center of a wedding bell. The cake trimmed in red rosebuds, was flanked by pink candles in crystal holders.

Pink champagne sherbet and ginger ale was served from a bowl used at the first governor's inaugural ball, with cake, nuts, and pink and white mints.

Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Elizabeth Ortega, Mrs. Mary Gunn and Mrs. Ray Stephens. Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Cliff Payne, Mrs. Ray Potter and Mrs. Malcom Dean. Members of the houseparty were identified by corsages of white carnations.

Fergusons Have New Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Ferguson of Stratford announce the birth of a daughter Feb. 24. Karla VIAnn weighed 7 lbs. 2 oz. The Fergusons have two sons, Gary, 6, and Donovan, 4.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McDaniel of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ferguson of Gentry, Ark. The families are all former residents of Texico.

Ferguson operates a job printing firm in Stratford.

Girls planning to attend are: Linda Campbell, Wanda Eshleman, Marlene and Darlene Bell, Ella Mae Brown, Mamie Autrey, Karen Land, Sherry Wall, Hazel DeWittie, Sarah Walker, Cynthia Spence, Gwinette Lovett, and Monnie Sanford.

This group of style conscious models showed the latest in 1964 fashions in a mock review, during intermission, at the "Fashions Galore for '64" Farwell Study Club style show Friday night. Models left to right: Mrs. Ann Smith, Mrs. Claude Coffer, Mrs. M. T. (Mose) Glasscock, Mrs. Amos Tatum and Mrs. Cricket Taylor, narrator.

Style Show Highlighted By Mock Fashion Review

The Farwell Study Club style show, was highlighted by a mock review of the latest in 1964 fashions shown by several members of the club, Friday night.

Mrs. Cricket Taylor, narrated the mock fashion show revealing that the garments had been made under her supervision and volunteering her services to those wishing to make similar garments.

The latest in "tissue" dresses were shown by Mrs. Ann Smith who wore a beautiful creation of pink and orchid, made entirely from toilet tissue. Her hat was a Kleenex box inverted and made into a frilly bonnet. This dress, explained Mrs. Taylor, is quite economical.

Mrs. M. T. (Nina) Glasscock chose to show a dinner dress made from a tablecloth, decorated with paper plates, and plastic knives, forks and spoons in colorful array. Her hat was made from an ice bucket painted gold. The hat could double as a container for champagne, making it quite the latest in head wear. Her attire was completed by gold boots.

Wearing the latest in "box jackets" was Mrs. Amos Tatum, who modeled a sleeveless jacket of pink with a square neckline, made from a large cardboard box. Her hat was made from a pan and her large dangling earrings were made from jar lids.

The latest in "evening gowns" was shown by Mrs. Claude Coffer, who chose a soft old fashioned gown of flannel. Adorning the top of the gown was a bicycle tire. Mrs. Coffer carried a candle and wore her hair on rollers.

As she turned to leave the stage a sign bearing the words "The End" was noted attached to the back of the garment.

Prior to the mock fashion review clothing from Williams Children's Shop and Queens' Teens were shown by local models. Following the review fashions from Holiday Fashions and The Fashion Shop were shown by Farwell and Clovis models.

Setting for the show was a spring garden, complete with white picket fence, with roses climbing thereon, and white wrought iron furniture.

Clytie Dial, Study Club president, was master of ceremonies for the show and she introduced each of the narrators.

Narrators were Mrs. Leora Williams - Williams Children's Shop, Waldean Henson - Queens' Teens, Ruth Beaver - Holiday Shop and Mrs. Eunice Rogers - The Fashion Shop.

Texico 4-H Club Elects Officers

Officers for the year were elected when members of Texico 4-H Club met in the home of their leader, Mrs. Perry Winkles, recently.

Elected and installed were: Sandy Tipton, president, Beverly Winkles, vice-president, Janet Wilson, secretary-treasurer, Annette and Jeannette Mullins, recreation leaders, Veda Wilson, council representative, Assisting Mrs. Winkles with the handwork and craft projects will be Mrs. Willie Wall and Mrs. Paul Skaggs.

Girls selected a wide variety of projects for the year. They set the meeting dates for the first and third Thursday in each month. Next meeting will be March 5 at which time the girls will begin training in judging of home economics.

One new member, Betsy Ann Autrey was welcomed to the club.

JOTTIN'S By Jeanne

One columnist reminds that it isn't the minutes you take at the table that make you fat, it's the seconds.

One of our editor friends wants to know why it is, that there is seldom time enough to do a job right, but always enough time to do it over?

I printed this particular recipe several years ago and find it is one of the best chocolate cakes that takes as little effort as any that I know. I got this recipe from Mrs. C. D. Day at Friona.

MIRACLE WHIP CAKE
1 1/4 cups sugar
2 cups flour
4 tablespoons cocoa
2 tablespoons soda
1 cup Miracle Whip
1 cup cold water
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
Combine dry ingredients, then add liquids and Miracle Whip. Stir until smooth, turn into rectangular pan. Bake until done. (I set the oven for 350).

The Tribune had a note from the newspaper over at Truth or Consequences, N. M. where they are planning a big fiesta the latter part of April. Many events are planned, but the purpose of the letter was to stir up interest in the Old Time Fiddler's Contest.

If any of you readers are interested in the fiddler's contest, let me know and I'll give you the information that was sent to me.

It's trip taking time for organizations in the next few months and several groups have conventions on the agenda. I note that the Rainbow Girls are already working on a money-making project to finance their trip to Grand Assembly in San Antonio this summer.

Mrs. E. R. Coffman returned from Waynoka, Okla., Sunday. She had been at the bedside of her granddaughter, Kimberly Wilson for the past several days. She reports the child as showing much improvement.

FFA Invitational Judging Meet In Texico Saturday

Texico FFA Chapter, under direction of advisor, Eddie West, will host the invitational judging meet for the third time this weekend with judging teams from 12 visiting schools, and the host school participating. Schools sending boys to the judging meet will be: Melrose, Hagerman, Causey, Roy, Grady, Springer, Clayton, Elida, Logan, - Floyd, Dora, and Des Moines.

Judging will be in the areas of livestock, poultry and farm mechanics. Judging in the livestock division will include, three sheep, three hogs and four livestock classes. Farm mechanics judges will be required to identify tools, do surveying, welding, and pass a test in tractor driving.

In the poultry class team members should be able to judge, live market birds, dressed birds, breeding stock and egg candling. All judging will be done by greenhand members of the chapter and chapter farmers will be in charge of the meet.

On the farm mechanics team are: Danny Hitson, Dean Campbell, Roy McDaniel, and Larry Burns. Members of the poultry team are: James Deaton, Johnny Burford, Ray Harper and Wal-

Texico Girls To Be In Play Day Event

Texico's junior and senior girls' basketball teams will be playing in Melrose Friday and Saturday in the annual play day event. Play is scheduled to begin at 9 a. m. (CST) Saturday and will continue through out the day. Friday games will begin at 4 p. m.

Teams from House, Melrose, Texico, Grady and Ft. Sumner will be competing for the sportsmanship trophy which will be presented on Saturday.

Junior girls played a pre-play day game with Melrose on Wednesday and senior girls met Grady in a pre-play day tilt on Thursday.

ter Mullens. Livestock team members include: Danny Hitson, Dean Campbell, Roy McDaniel and Ardell Autrey.

Plaques will be awarded for first and second place in each division.

Principals Rehired At Farwell

At the last regular meeting of the Farwell School board, principals, Amos Tatum, high school, James Craig, junior high, and Jack Williams, elementary, were hired to serve in the same capacities for another term. Supt. W. M. Roberts, was re-hired at an earlier meeting.

Time for the trustee election was set for April 4, with all persons who desire their names on the ballot to file in writing with board secretary, Jess Landrum by March 5.

Due to recent snow, Easter holidays for the school were cancelled as was the holiday for the district 9 Teachers' Meeting later this spring. Closing date of school has been reset for May 26, weather permitting.

Ronald Watts was hired as school custodian to replace W. T. Kiser, who resigned to accept a similar position at Walcott School, near Hereford.

An easement was granted to allow Sides and Associates to install a TV cable across part of the land owned by the school.

Driver Training will be taught at the Farwell School this summer as a tuition course, by Jack Williams, with students to be 14 before they are eligible to take the course. Tuition for the course is $25 for each student and only 30 students may enroll for the course.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Rolland accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Jerry Darby and granddaughter, Lisa Darby, were in Lubbock Monday to attend funeral services for George Harrell, brother-in-law of D. O. Rolland.

Mr. Harrell, a longtime resident of the Lubbock area, passed away Saturday following a long illness. He is survived by his wife, Lillie, three sons and 10 grandchildren.

Farwell Juniors Lose District Title To Springlake

Playing catch up ball all the way the Farwell junior high girls' basketball team was defeated by Springlake, in Muleshoe Friday night, for the district championship 36-29.

The Springlake quintet jumped out in front early in the game; however by half time the Farwell lasses had pulled with in one point with the second quarter ending 17-16. During the third frame Springlake began a gradual pulling away and the Farwell girls were never able to catch up.

"The girls turned in a creditable performance" said Coach James Craig, "however it seemed that it was just not their night as they missed many shots."

Farwell and Springlake had collided six times during the season with each winning three games. Farwell has an enviable season record having won 22 and lost four.

If your business is farming...

take a close look!

The sample below is a new discovery in modern soil fertilization. We simply call it . . . Prilled Sulphur.

Why is it round? Shape is the most important thing about this new product. Its size and shape is carefully controlled for proper application without dust.

Farmers throughout the country are realizing the amazing effect that applied elemental sulphur has on their soil.

The modern farmer knows that highly alkaline soils keep needed plant nutrients from his crops. Prilled Sulphur, containing 99.5% elemental sulphur, neutralizes alkaline soils and increases availability of those nutrients.

The prilled form will allow exact mixing with even and controlled distribution. Last but not least . . . its gradual breakdown has continuous and long lasting effects on your soil.

See your local dealer for complete information.
