Parmer County To Observe Soil Stewardship Week

Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts has signed a special proclamation designating May 24-31 as Soil Stewardship Week in Parmer County, asking Parmer County citizens to join the rest of the nation "in offering humble thanks to God for the priceless gifts of soil, water, air and sunshine which make all living things possible."

This year's theme is "Society's Pressure Points," according to John C. Copeland, Parmer County District Conservationist, who said that the week will be celebrated throughout the United States and its territories in cooperation with the nation's 3,000 Conservation Districts.

The week had its origin more than 1500 years ago and has been celebrated in the United States since 1955.

"Soil Stewardship Week provides an opportunity to focus more clearly on the implications of society's pressure points on our natural resources, especially land and water," said Osgood Magnuson, member of the Advisory Committee to the National Association of Conservation Districts.

"Concern for stewardship of these resources challenges leaders to initiate effective processes in responding to society's pressure points," he said.

In an article released by the National Association of Conservation Districts, it is said that the decision to set aside a week each year to acknowledge

Jaycees Honor Members At Annual Awards Banquet

Farwell Jaycees named their top members of the year at an annual awards-officer installation banquet last Friday night, conducted at the Jaycee Community Center in Farwell.

Of the organization's projects, their annual Twin Cities Rodeo was named Project of the Year, chaired by Mike Haseloff. Named as project chairman of the year was Sam Drager.

Named as Honorary Jaycee of the Year was Walter Hughes of Tide Chemical. Merchant of the Year was Roy Snodgrass of Rip's Western Wear.

Delton Wilhite, internal vice-president; Joe Haseloff, external vice-president; Eddie Winegeart, secretary; David Kube, treasurer; Richard Haseloff, director; John Curtis, state director; and Jimmy Curtis, director.

A meal of grilled steaks, with potato and salad was served to the members, their wives, and guests Roy Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vinton and Doug and Mary Sobin.

Jaycee Award Winners

chairman of the year. Of the club's many projects, their annual Twin Cities rodeo was recognized as the top project for the past year.

The "Great Escape" begins its summer run in the Twin Cities. School will be out and hordes of tads will be roaming the highways, biways and city streets. Most of them will not be paying a bit of attention and it will be up to the motorist to prevent a tragic accident.

While the weather is not exactly of the summer variety we can report that the summer baseball program is already underway. Now here is an opportunity to spend an enjoyable evening without spending a cent. Go and take part in this very worthwhile community program. You will be glad you did.

Some folks are slow learners. This isn't so bad, except when they are in positions of great authority. An example that comes readily to mind is one "Tip" O'Neill, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives.

O'Neill is now quoted as saying that members of Congress would be "stonehearted" if they voted for the Reagan administration's proposal to put Social Security on a firmer financial basis. In his opinion it has been "stoneheaded" politicians such as Tip O'Neill who are responsible for the impending bankruptcy of the Social Security system.

Paul Harvey says this - "Elected leaders doling out other people's money to make themselves appear generous." Yes indeed, over the years the ilk of O'Neill have doled out other people's money. They have doled out the money paid in to Social Security without regard to the actuarial soundness of their largess.

You bet, brother O'Neill, we sure appreciate your generosity in the past years that has put Social Security in the sad financial shape it is in today. You bet, brother O'Neill, we appreciate it now that we are within spitting distance of drawing some Social Security that is fading farther and farther away.

No, brother O'Neill, we do not lay it on the Reagan Administration that we must now somehow make up for past unsound spending of the Social Security Trust Fund. We are looking directly at you and Humphrey and Cranston and Kennedy and a host of liberal bleeding heart elected officials that in the past wanted to make themselves appear generous with other people's money.

Our advice to you and your kind is simply - get out - there are plenty of financially conservative Democrats that could fill your post and save the country in the process. Give it a try, the middle class taxpayer can't afford you.

Just a reminder that we are sneaking up on the "Clean Shave" deadline for Border Town Days. See Ridley Lonsdale at the barber shop for your check up and entry in the contest.

We were window shopping the other day and noticed a sign that said "Art Objects." After looking them over we can see why he did.

If you want to know why girls cry at weddings, take a second look at the groom.

Coffey, Mitchell Named Outstanding Athletes

Texico school athletes know better than anyone that "The Sky's The Limit," what with their two state titles this year, numerous district and regional titles, and players named to all-district, regional and state teams in most sports, so what better theme could have been used for their annual All-Sports banquet, conducted May 14 in the school gymnasium?

Clovisite Brooks Jennings was featured speaker at the affair where athletes from each sport were recognized for their year's contributions to the Wolverine athletic program, and seniors Lisa Coffey and Gary Mitchell were honored as the school's outstanding athletes.

Lisa was captain of the girls volleyball team, girls basketball team and ran on the girls track team. Mitchell was an all-stater in football, and was a member of the boys basketball and track teams.

Both athletes accumulated several awards throughout the year for their various sports.

Receiving the outstanding sportsmanship award were Kent Harding and Becky McDonald.

Both were active in all three sports offered to them, McDonald in volleyball, basketball and track, and Harding in football, basketball and track.

Other individual awards presented at the affair, sponsored by the Texico Booster Club, included the newly-created "Fighting Heart Award," given to a member of the football, boys basketball and boys track teams whom the coaches felt had fought the hardest for those hard-earned victories.

Receiving the awards were James Kelley, track; Jeff Dunsforth, basketball; and Jimmy Love, football.

The athletic teams' unsung heroes, the managers, also received recognition from all the coaches. They included Carletta Fitz, volleyball and girls track manager; Anita Dimas, girls basketball and girls track manager; Robert Meier and Ricky Lebow, football managers; and Jeff Johnson, boys basketball manager.

Members of the state title girls basketball and volleyball teams were honored with special picture plaques, each showing a color picture of the volleyball or basketball team and the player's name engraved. The plaques were donated by the Booster Club and are to be awarded each year to any Texico team who wins a state title.

The two teams also received Certificates of Congratulations from the New Mexico House of Representatives and New Mexico State Legislature, signed by the Speaker of the House.

The coaches explained that no individual awards were presented this year as all the teams had decided early in their seasons to play as a team, and not as individuals. Consequently, the usual Best Spiker, Most Valuable Player and Top Scorer awards were not presented, and instead, all team members were honored equally for their contributions. Letters were awarded to the following: Danny Reid, Earl Bibbs, Jesse Orozco, Neil Snipes, Dale Johnson, Billy Aske, Alan Hadley, Lloyd Williams, Doyle Duncan, Paul Saguro and Lynn Tubbs;

Also, Gary Mitchell, Herbert Bibbs, Jimmy Love, Gary Reid, Rodney Wilson and Ty Rains;

And, Ruth Scott, Corrina Hungerford, Sharlet Taylor, Pam Hoyl, Jackie Tatum, Laura Horne, Carletta Fitz, Schree Rucker, Becky McDonald and Lisa Coffey.

Presenting medals and certificates to all team members were Mike Littlejohn, volleyball; David Lynn, football and boys track; Roy King, girls basketball and track; Scott Parker, junior varsity boys basketball; and Kenneth Shaw, boys varsity basketball.

Cheerleader awards were presented to the varsity cheerleaders by Paula Leighton. Each cheerleader, including Rhonda Tharp, Kerri Gaddis, Cara Reid, Lisa Reid, and Terri Tatum, was presented with a medal.

The boy and girl athletes presented special award plaques in appreciation to all of their coaches.

"The Sky's The Limit" was the theme carried out in all the decorations, which were created by Johnnie and Sandra Rucker, Sue Dobbs, Sue Scott, Cindy Littlejohn and Kay Coffey.

Balloon trees accented the room and stars hung over the trophies to be presented, which were displayed on the stage

Farwell Students Attend Friona Computer Preview

Ten Farwell High School students traveled to Friona recently to attend a computer preview, sponsored by Friona State Bank.

Computer sizes classed as micro, mini, and standard, representing three manufacturers were demonstrated for the students by Keith Black, a Friona businessman.

"Black created a simple program to the computers to greet the students and then illustrated how the program could be easily expanded to give more elaborate output," said Ed Wees, Farwell faculty member who was with the group.

Students attending were Duane Robinson, Sheran Smallwood, Jane Ward, Geretta Hutchins, Tammy Little, Suzahn Inman, Lezlie Castleberry, Noreen Jones, Elaine Vaughn and Stacy Turner. Principal Don Malone, JoLinda Robbs and Wees were the faculty members accompanying the students.

SAVING ENERGY IS MORE THAN JUST TURNING DOWN THE THERMOSTAT

With hospital costs soaring, administrators are constantly looking for new ways to make their hospitals more efficient and less costly to operate.

One of the newer tools hospitals are using to cut unnecessary costs is a system for measuring x-ray equipment performance called a pre-exposure computer. Developed by Machlett Laboratories of Stamford, Conn., the computer measures the precise amount of x-ray exposure necessary for a given procedure and powers the x-ray tube for only that very brief amount of time.

With x-rays, speed is important since the tube is often operated at extremely high power. The resulting heat can burn out the tube in a very short time costing the hospital thousands of dollars for each replacement.

Safe Driving Urged For Vacation

The Memorial Day weekend marks the end of school and the beginning of the long summer vacation driving season. Summer vacations increase the number of vehicles on our highways.

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said, "Countless lives are lost each year because of drivers' disregard for their own safety or the safety of others. Carelessness, speed and the drinking driver account for a high percent of all traffic deaths."

The 55 MPH speed limit originally was instigated to conserve fuel, which it has done; but an ever greater asset has been the saving of lives and the reduction of serious injuries in traffic accidents. "Increasing your speed from 45 MPH to 60 MPH doubles your probability of being killed if you are involved in an accident; going from 60 MPH to 70 MPH doubles it again." Bill remarked, "That little extra speed could cost you your life."

Major Bell stated, "The best way to keep your vacation safe and accident-free is to keep your speed down, wear your seat belt, obey traffic laws and above all, do not drink and drive. Your safety and the safety of all your passengers is in your hands."

Convalescent Center Chit Chat

by Cora Baker

This has indeed been a big week for the residents of the Center, and we want to thank each and everyone who had a part in our Open House and other activities.

The residents had a meeting some time ago. It was decided we would try to show our appreciation to our workers by having a party for them. We were asked to select the favorite worker of the month to honor at the party, and Marie Neppert was elected by popular vote. It is indeed hard to pick out only one ... we are blessed with such a good staff of workers.

But another will be chosen at our next meeting. We love them all.

Linda Winegeart took a vacation this week. Wonder if she wasn't wise picking a time when we could have used her help? But an old standby, Becky Ott, helped out ... Thank you, Becky.

Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Richie of Amarillo visited her mother, Mrs. Inez Sullivan.

Visiting Mrs. Anna Miller were her son, Tom Miller of Miami, Fla., and niece Katy Pachero of Clovis.

Mrs. Clara Smalts is enjoying having her three daughters with her as Mrs. Lorene Brown of New Hall, Calif., is here as well as Doris Johnson and Jewell Thomas.

Mrs. Kay Singletery and son visited their grandmother, Mrs. Eva Hodges.

Curt Seaman of Clara City, Minn., visited his grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Alford also visited Mrs. Robertson.

Mrs. Elisabeth Wilhite, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, Mrs. Lena Delbeck and Mrs. Mary Grace Templar visited their mother, Mrs. Callie Taylor.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Herbert Roberts on the loss of their loved one.

Visiting Cora Baker were her granddaughter, Deanna Bales, and grandson Wesley Earl Bales of Portales.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Miller of Roswell visited her father, Ray Beck.

Visiting with Mrs. Milsap was an old neighbor, Mrs. Janet Fleming of Raton, N.M. They came to see W.C. Milsap.

Visiting Lacy Hardage were his wife Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason and Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Dale.

Visiting Mrs. Willie Shields were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ross of Portales, and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Rogers and Tiffany of Carlsbad.

Visiting Mrs. Lois Massey were Mrs. Hattie Harrison, Mrs. Minnie Hagler and Roy, and Allen Spence.

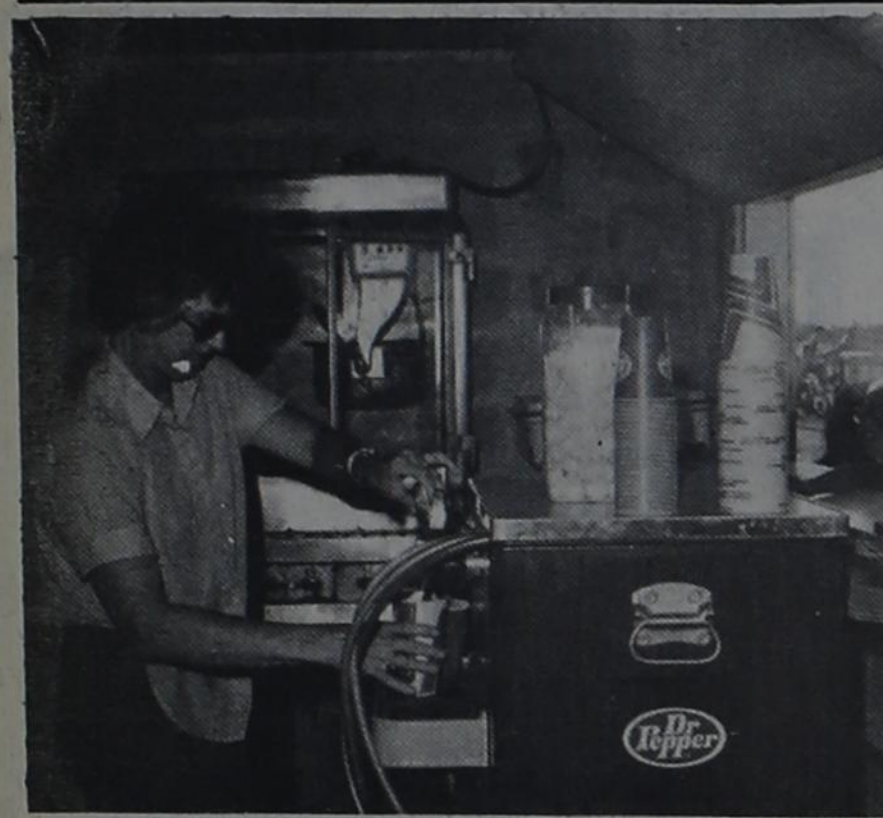

Mrs. Brenda Stockton visited her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Dunn.

Kindergarten Field Trip

Texico kindergarten students were treated to a big day recently when they visited the Texico Fire Station, seeing the big fire trucks close up; the Farwell post office, learning about where the mail goes, and how; the Safeway Milk plant and the Clovis Zoo. The children, students of Janice Jankins and Vickie Lynn, were to take part in special graduation ceremonies Thursday, May 21, at the school.

Ball Park Refreshments

Betty Jean Castleberry of Farwell was opening night concession worker at Monday's Little League-Pee Wee League opening games. The concession stand is always a favorite of all the fans, and this year will feature burritos, corn dogs, popcorn, sno cones and colas.

In charge of the concession stand this season is Cynthia Thigpen. Mrs. Thigpen and Mrs. Castleberry were greeted with a mass of hungry and thirsty fans at Monday's games as the Twin Cities came out in full force for the season openers.

Patsy Nance Designated Certified Tex. Assessor

Patsy Nance, chief appraiser of the Parmer County Appraisal District, has been designated as a certified Texas assessor by the board of directors of the Institute of Certified Texas Assessors, the professional organization of the Texas Association of Assessing Officers.

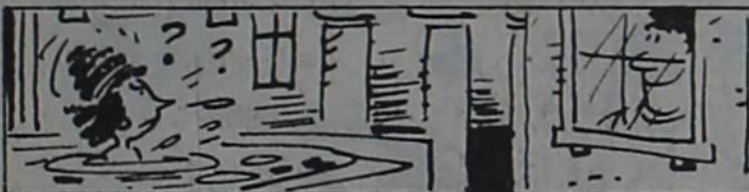

Achievement of this CTA designation represents years of work and study. There are only 436 active certified Texas assessors in the state and this designation is recognized by the legislature of the State of Texas, the State Property Tax Board and the Board of Tax Assessor Examiners.

The objectives of the institute are to develop the profession of assessing, establish and maintain standards of performance and provide education for its members.

Consumers and food processors should microwave pork to a temperature of 170 degrees Fahrenheit (77 degrees Celsius) throughout to destroy any micro-organisms that might be present, a U.S. Department of Agriculture official said.

"Preliminary unpublished studies indicate that under certain circumstances trichinae and food poisoning bacteria may not be destroyed by microwave cooking," said Donald L. Houston, administrator of USDA's Food Safety and Quality Service. The studies showed that live trichinae could be present in some cases in fresh pork cuts which were cooked in several ways, he said.

"USDA is repeating the studies to verify the results," Houston said.

Cooking instruction in some cookbooks may not guarantee sufficiently high temperatures to kill all microorganisms, Houston said.

USDA has notified the microwave oven industry of potential problems if cooking instructions do not ensure that the pork product reaches 170 degrees F. uniformly.

However, Houston said, there have been no reported cases of any illness resulting from pork cooked in a microwave. "We are taking these precautions to alert the public to potential hazards," he said. "Consumers who follow prudent cooking procedures face no health hazard."

Trichinosis is a minor problem today, Houston said, with only about 100 to 120 clinical cases reported each year. In addition, there is a low incidence of trichinosis in animals—only 125 percent of the some 80 million hogs slaughtered each year are infected, he said.

Consumers and the food service industry can avoid any problems if they make sure that every part of pork roast or chop reaches at least 170 degrees F., Houston said.

He advised those who prepare pork in microwave ovens—at home or in food institutions—to first check the manufacturer's directions for appropriate cooking times. Also, he said, microwave cooks should rotate dishes during cooking, and let the pork sit for several minutes after cooking, as recommended by manufacturers, to assure more uniform temperature distribution. Cooks can increase the effectiveness of this "equalization" or "dwell" time by wrapping the pork in aluminum foil after cooking.

After the pork sits, check various places with a meat thermometer. If any part of the pork chop or roast has not reached at least 170 degrees, F., cook the meat more thoroughly.

The potential problem is unique to microwave cooking, Houston said, because of the uneven heat radiation that can result if extra care isn't taken.

Microwave ovens cook by exciting the water molecules in the food. The variations in the distribution of water in the pork, the uneven energy distribution in microwave ovens and the potential energy blockage by bone may result in uneven cooking. If the entire piece of meat doesn't reach a temperature of at least 170 degrees F., trichinae may not be killed, Houston said.

Local Couples Attend N.M. Lions Convention

Members of Texico-Farwell Lions Club and their wives attending the New Mexico Lions Convention last weekend in Albuquerque at the Hilton Inn were Lee and Gloria Hutchins, Mike and Jeannie Norris, Joe and Dardanella Helton, John and Joann Getz and James Craig.

Accompanying Craig to the convention to assist with transporting the Texico-Farwell Lions Club vehicle was Buster Gast. The club pickup was entered in the Convention parade on Saturday morning.

In addition to the Convention business sessions, Lions and guests enjoyed a past Governor's banquet Thursday evening, a Luau Friday night, the Saturday morning parade and the Governor's Banquet Saturday night.

The ladies were treated to a luncheon and entertainment Saturday noon, and the convention finale was a breakfast Sunday morning followed by a Necrology ceremony for all deceased Lions during the year.

Scholarships Available For WT Graduate Course

A six-hour graduate level program, designed mainly for social studies teachers, is to be offered during the 1981 second summer term at West Texas State University, according to Dr. Roy E. Thoman, director of the summer scholarship program.

"It gives me great pleasure to announce that the Political Science Department at West Texas has received a grant from the Texas Bureau for Economic Understanding to conduct a special summer program which will deal with the free enterprise system," Dr. Thoman said.

"We believe the two courses making up this program will be stimulating and beneficial," he continued. "We have approximately 30 scholarships to award and those receiving scholarships will be able to enroll for six graduate credit hours, with the scholarship providing free tuition, fees, books and in some cases, free university housing." Political Systems and Capitalism and American Government and the Free Enterprise System are to be offered in the afternoon, with the latter beginning at 1 p.m. CDT.

"For the convenience of participating teachers, the courses will be offered on an accelerated basis, and the entire program will last only about three and a half weeks," he said.

Those interested are encouraged to apply for one of the 30 scholarships available by contacting Dr. Thoman, c/o Political Science Department, Old Main Building, West Texas State University, Canyon, Tex., 79016.

'Stairway To Heaven' Is Theme For Banquet

"Stairway to Heaven" was the theme when the Farwell High junior class honored the seniors of 1981 with the traditional junior-senior banquet Saturday night, May 9, at the school cafeteria.

The mundane lunchroom was once again magically transformed into "something else" as the juniors used the stairway to heaven theme and hues of blue, silver and white throughout the room.

The ceiling was draped with blue streamers dotted with white stars; and silver stars, a silver crescent moon and clouds of angel hair floated from the blue skies.

Dim multi-colored lighting formed a muted background for a stone fountain, greenery and flowers in one corner of the room while a silver staircase stood in front of a white backdrop bearing the words "Stairway to Heaven" in blue. Prior to the banquet, attendants posed for photographs in front of this setting. Another focal point featured a large sign proclaiming Junior-Senior Prom 1981 in blue and white letters and flanked by silver streamers.

Tables were covered with white and centered with angel hair, blue honey comb spheres and white candles. Places were marked with blue programs bearing the theme words and a drawing of a stairway and stars. Souvenir keepsakes were blue satin garters with the words Farwell Jr.-Sr. Prom for each attendant.

Jack Smallwood gave the invocation prior to the meal of barbecue, pinto beans, potato salad, hot rolls, butter, cherry cobbler and iced tea, which was catered by a Clovis restaurant.

Following the meal, Karen Magness welcomed the guests and the response was given by Lari Curtis. Clay Williams then read an original poem about leaving high school, and along with Lawrence Gobble, also read the senior class prophecy.

Judith Schilling and Janie Cantu read the senior class will and Boyd White gave the benediction.

After the banquet, music for dancing was played by the Hot Hand Band composed of Kevin and Geneva Hardage, Gerald Hardage and J.B. Caldwell who provided a variety of musical entertainment.

As the final notes faded away and memories were being stored in the minds of those present, they may have thought that perhaps school days, high school proms and other such things are indeed found along the rungs of the Stairway to Heaven.

Clovis Woman Speaks At Farwell Study Club Meet

Farwell Study Club met for a salad supper and the final spring meeting Monday night at Luce's Restaurant.

Guest speaker for the evening was Bessie Youngblood of Clovis who spoke on American History and displayed a historical quilt that she has made. The quilt blocks featured many different ships dating from the time of Columbus; a picture of the Old North Church; the Liberty Bell and other historical sites. She said that research and work on the red, white and blue quilt had taken over two years.

Mrs. Youngblood reminded the group of the great price our forefathers had paid for our freedoms but that sometimes are taken for granted. She said, "May we re-dedicate our lives anew and pray for our leaders in government." Mrs. Youngblood was introduced by Hattie Coffey, program chairman.

Julia Symcox, club president, presided at a brief business meeting and the pledge of allegiance was repeated by those attending. It was reported that the club will sell ice cream at its booth during the park activities at Border Town Days. It was also noted that Girls Town residents had requested Bibles and panty hose. Door prizes were awarded and Gladys Hardage was honored for having a birthday.

J. Ranges Host

Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. John Range, who live south of Farwell, hosted a double birthday and Mother's Day celebration all in one last week when Range and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elma Hart, also of Farwell, celebrated their birthdays. Mrs. Hart, who was 82 years of age, and Range were born on May 10.

The occasion included a get-together of Mrs. Hart's family who all stayed at the Range home. Guests included Mrs. Hart's daughters and sons-in-law, JoAnn and Briley Jennings from Denver, Colo., and Peggy and Charles Cooley of Grand Junction, Colo.; and her Sister, Mrs. Inez Taack of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Range reported that this was the first "planned" family reunion the group had had and said that they had a good time "eating, playing games and visiting."

Mrs. Sheets Home From Family Visit

Mrs. Virginia Sheets of Farwell recently visited her grandsons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Sheets and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sheets and their families in Abilene, Tex., on her way to Ranger, Tex., to visit her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin.

She visited with them a few days and then they all traveled to Los Angeles, Calif., to attend the wedding of Russell Erwin and Kristy Kall.

Russell is the son of Fred and Wanda Erwin and a grandson of Mrs. Sheets.

The group returned to Ranger on Tuesday, and Kyle and Bernita arrived there on Saturday. Mrs. Sheets returned to Abilene, visiting with Kyle, Gene and families over the weekend and then Kyle flew his grandmother home Sunday afternoon.

Christian had attended the recent state convention of women's clubs in Abilene and Mrs. Christian reported that the theme of the meeting was "Be thou a rainbow to the storms of life, a human being that smiles away the clouds and tends to monitor the prophetic rays."

"We think of hope because God promised to never destroy the world with water; so we think of that," she said.

Mrs. Christian also said that the rainbow colors were used throughout the convention and that everywhere one looked, there was a rainbow. At one meeting, attendants were asked to be a rainbow to her community and to stress teamwork.

In other convention activities they heard talks on child abuse, crime prevention and rehabilitation of the handicapped.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Bessie Youngblood, Tom Paul McCuan, Belinda Rhodes, Susan Franse, Ethelyn Forbis, Julia Symcox, Eunice Crume, Carrie Christian, Gertrude Foster, Edith Crawford, Gladys Hardage, Frances Kube, Ellen Wurster, Hattie Coffey, Linnie Mae Crook, Bernice Pennington, and Alma Sledge.

Women's Club Scrapbook Wins 2nd At State Meet

Texico Women's Club won second place in state competition for their club scrapbook, members were told at their May 17 meeting. Judging for the scrapbook took place at the Women's Club State convention conducted May 1-2 in Carlsbad.

Cris Billingsley presided over the meeting and Caren Spearman reported to members on the activities which took place at the state convention.

Vickie Chumley told of upcoming Border Town Days activities and the club voted to sponsor a girl in the BTD Queen contest.

Members Vickie Chumley and Vickie Lynn will work on ideas to encourage more girls to become contestants.

Members then voted to sell tickets for $1 for a $100 gift certificate to Rip's Western Wear as a money making project. The certificate is to be given away during Border Town Days.

Hostesses for the meeting were Margie Crooks and Sherry Barfield. The serving table was decorated in red and white with red glass wear, red and white flowers and red candles.

Cake, coffee and iced tea were served to those attending, including, Aileen Teel, Kay Coffey, Margie Crooks, Mary Powell, Audrey Kittrell, Caren Spearman, Janice Turner, Maxine Shaw, Sherry Barfield, Evie Thornton, Cris Billingsley, Vickie Chumley and Vickie Lynn.

Historical Quilt

Bessie Youngblood of Clovis, left, shows a particular design on her historical quilt to Hattie Coffey of Farwell Study Club at the Monday night meeting of the group. The quilt, which has taken over two years to complete, features pictures of ships of the United States dating from the time of Columbus. In her talk on American History, Mrs. Youngblood points out the part each ship played in the history of our country. Interwoven throughout the red, white and blue quilt are armed forces insignias, a portion of the constitution, flags which have flown over the United States and other historical data.

Betty Turner Speaks On Reading Partners

In its last meeting of the year, Farwell Parent's Advisory Council (PAC) heard Betty Turner, Farwell fifth and sixth grade reading teacher, speak on "Parents as Partners in Reading."

The meeting was conducted in the junior high library with Mrs. Edith Martin, chairperson, presiding.

Mrs. Turner said, "Parents and teachers are being linked together more and more as partners in reading. The most basic of learning skills studies show that while many factors enter into a child's reading ability, the home is by far the strongest influence in a child's development and success in reading."

The educator explained further by commenting, "We tell the parents the home is the child's first school. Children spend more waking hours with their parents than they do with their peers or their teachers. The home is the strongest influence," she said, adding, "positive or negative."

"As teachers," Mrs. Turner said, "We can make this influence more positive by insurance that our approach to parental involvement is positive."

Mrs. Turner stressed, "In the past, parent involvement has often been interpreted as parents working for the teacher. Instead, emphasis should be placed on parents working for the child in the home. The difference is crucial."

The educator said that teachers are skilled professionals, "trained and experienced in presenting and evaluating a carefully designed, structured reading program to give the children the skills they need to read fluently and with understanding."

She said that parents should be given assistance, ideas, and concrete suggestions for helping their child at home. "These ideas and suggestions should be relevant and helpful to all students, not just those having difficulty," she said.

In closing the meeting, Mrs.

Martin emphasized that the parent involvement program helps open the door through which "there is working relationship and link between parents and teachers."

The Title I Parent Advisory Council seeks to build an educational program that will best help the children of the Farwell School System.

Teachers working in the federally funded Title I programs at Farwell Schools are Pat Owen, junior high remedial reading; Frances Boling, elementary and junior high remedial math; Edith Martin, elementary remedial reading; Becky Norton, Title I Migrant teacher; and aides Flo Davis, Wanda Gobble and Dianne Hernandez.

The recent meeting was the last of the three scheduled to take place this school year.

Mrs. Turner was congratulated as she is to receive her master's degree in Education from ENMU this month.

Baptist Women Meet

The Baptist Women of the First Baptist Church of Texico met at the church May 13 for their regular Bible study with chairman Velma Kelley presiding.

The meeting was opened with Shirley Miller playing "I Love To Tell The Story" on the piano. A lesson, "Gifts of the Spirit" was then given by Mrs. Kelley with the sub-topic being "The Letter To The Church At Rome," teaching from the entire chapter of Romans 12.

Mrs. Kelley dismissed the study with prayer after which a short business meeting was conducted, with president Helen Bowers presiding.

Those attending the gathering were Mesdames Margaret Horne, Mora Schlueter, Bobbie Gilliam, Mary Dell Brown, Shirley Miller, Velma Kelley, Helen Bowers and Gracie Dane.

Auxiliary Team Learns Fire Fighting Skills

Members of the Firemen's Auxiliary Service Team (FAST) of Texico met with the Texico Volunteer Firemen at their regular meeting last Thursday night.

Purpose of the joint meetings is to acquaint and familiarize the FAST members with the emergency and fire fighting equipment.

The firemen are instructing the FAST group in how to drive the fire truck and water tanker. The women are also being taught how to turn on the pump and read gauges, how to hold and operate hoses under water pressure, how to connect the filler hose from fire plug to fire truck to refill the water tank, and how to dry the wet hoses and replace the hoses on the truck.

The two groups plan to continue meeting and learning together, and all members are looking forward to Monday, June 8 when both groups will begin Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) training.

Mrs. Huggins Hosts Faith Class Meeting

Faith Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church of Farwell met May 11 in the home of Mrs. Carol Dean Huggins, who presided over the meeting in the absence of class president, Elizabeth Range.

Mrs. Linnie Mae Crook brought the devotional entitled, "Sunday School And What It Means To Me," stressing that Sunday School helps us to grow in grace; strengthens our faith; helps us study the Bible. God is honored when we go to Sunday School; our influence in the community will be better and we learn to love the Lord and our fellowman," she said.

Mrs. Crook also challenged the group to do one good deed each day.

Prayer was offered for the sick of the community before refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee were served to Mesdames Naomi Austin, Jo Schell, Mary Jean Patrick, Linnie Mae Crook and Carol Dean Huggins.

Scholarship Recipients

Texico Women's Club representative Marcia Leavell, right, presents Texico students Carletta Fitz, left, and Lisa Coffey with a $100 scholarship from the club. The two were the only candidates for the yearly scholarship given by the women's organization. Mrs. Leavell explained that since the girl's contributions to their school and their grade point averages were so close, the club decided to split the scholarship between them. The two were presented the scholarship at the awards assembly. Carletta is co-salutatorian this year and Lisa is co-valectorian for Texico's class of 1981.

behind the head table. Team player numbers were on the walls and on the tables, which were draped in white cloth and trimmed with green accents. The tables were also decorated with "white clouds" which also had numbers, basketballs, footballs floating in them.

The meal of heavenly fillet, golden clouds, green glow, crescents, ray of sunshine and zodiacal lights (beef, potato, green beans, roll, and peach cobbler) was catered by LaVilla Restaurant of Clovis.

The speaker, a graduate of Clovis High School and Eastern New Mexico University, spoke to the young athletes on the acceptance of failure. "We're all going to fail from time to time," he said. "It's how you react to your failure that matters. How you react plays a big part in your life."

Jennings pointed out that the most important thing to remember about failure is to avoid future identical failures, "It is those people that will be winners," he said.

The former coach and sports official told the group to "learn to evaluate your failures."

Jennings related stories about star athlete Jerry West and told of another super star in the world of life, Harlan Sanders, of Kentucky Fried Chicken. "He failed his entire life, but kept right on going and at age 65, when most men retire, he took his first social security check and turned it into millions of dollars, making more than 10 other men millionaires also."

Emcee for the evening was O.B. Coffey, who introduced special guests, the media and the speaker for the evening.

Invocation was delivered by James Pierce, superintendent of schools, and the benediction was given by Eddie Dunsworth, incoming president of the Booster Club.

Banquet chairman was Janie Day, and others who helped with the banquet's success were James Harding, Kay Warmuth, Lisa Coffey, Audrey Kittrell, tickets; Lisa Coffey, James Pierce and Kay Warmuth, invitations; Kay Coffey, food committee; James Pierce and Kay Warmuth, program committee; and Rita Dunsworth, Teresa Morris, Sharon and Karen Anders, Patti Wilson, Kim Longo and Jacki Burk, beverage committee.

Food servers were Dennis Snipes, Bob Johnson, Eddie Dunsworth, Keith Scott, Arlye Crooks, Roger Jesko, Roy Thornton, Jr. Foreman, Raymond Hadley and Truman Kittrell; table covering committee, Cindy Littlejohn, Mozelle Kirby, and Alta Geries.

The entire evening was made possible due to the Texico Booster Club, whose officers for the past year have been president, O.B. Coffey; vice-president, J. Foreman; secretary, Rita Dunsworth; and treasurer, Janie Day.

Fighting Hearts

Receiving the newly created award, the Fighting Heart Award, for their participation in the Wolverine athletic program were, from left, Jimmy Love, football; Jeff Dunsworth, basketball; and James Kelley, track. Also recognized at Texico's annual all-sports athletic awards banquet were the varsity cheerleaders, team managers and coaches.

Did You Know?

...that the Baltimore Orioles swept the Los Angeles Dodgers in four straight games in the 1966 World Series, despite a mediocre .200 team batting average, lowest ever for the winner of a four-game series?

Good Sports

Wolverine athletes Becky McDonald and Kent Harding received Texico's Outstanding Sportsmanship awards at last week's all sports athletic awards banquet. "The Sky's The Limit" was the theme of this year's banquet sponsored by the Wolverine Booster Club, where all Texico athletes were recognized for their participation and contributions to the Wolverine athletic program. Guest speaker for the evening was Brooks Jennings and emcee was O.B. Coffey.

What A Year!

their players and team members at the recent annual all sports athletic awards banquet sponsored by the Wolverine Booster Club. Each coach was also presented a gift from his team in recognition of the work he had done for the players this year. Not pictured is coach Kenneth Shaw, boys basketball.

SeedTec sunflowers make the most of a little water.

Here in the High Plains of Texas, a little water has to go a long way. But now, you can make the most of a little water by planting SeedTec sunflowers, the drought-tolerant crop that thrives in hot, dry weather.

Cut your irrigation costs and conserve water.

By planting SeedTec sunflowers now, you can cut irrigation costs and conserve one of your most valuable resources—water. With only one or two waterings, your SeedTec sunflowers can have the moisture they need for excellent performance. Compare that to the expense of irrigating corn or sorghum, and you'll see why SeedTec sunflowers are the logical alternative to high pumping costs and dwindling water supplies.

Cut your total production costs.

On irrigated land, sunflowers cost less to produce than corn, cotton or sorghum. And while sunflower production costs are low, the world demand for sunflower oil is high. So sunflowers offer excellent profit potential.

Cut nutritious silage from SeedTec sunflowers.

SeedTec sunflowers make great silage, any way you cut it. In fact, sunflower silage contains more protein and fat than corn or sorghum silage. Yet sunflower silage costs less to produce.

To make the most of a little water this year, call your SeedTec dealer today.

MEMORIAL DAY

IN MEMORIAM

"They Gave Their Lives To Preserve Your Freedom"

We are inclined to take for granted the many forms of freedom which we enjoy in this country, perhaps because we have never been forced to live without them; and yet we must remind ourselves of the sacrifices that have been made in order to preserve them for us, by those who were called upon to give their lives in battle. Not only on Memorial Day but throughout the year we should honor those brave heroes, and give our thanks to God for this wonderful free nation we have because of them. And since the list of our freedoms includes the right to worship God as we choose, the Church of your choice is the best place to express your gratitude.

Ranchers Roundup To Feature International Flair, Speakers

Many of the critical problems facing ranch owners, ranch managers and working cowboys in the more arid regions of North America will be discussed and analyzed during the International Rancher's Roundup (IRR) at the Del Rio Convention Center August 10-14 in this border city.

The IRR is being organized by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and designed to give participants ideas which can make individual ranching decisions much easier and more profitable. It will also provide an opportunity for idea exchange among ranchers of similar areas beset with common problems.

This week-long meeting and festive occasion will be headlined by some of the ranching industry's best noted speakers from arid lands of the southwestern U.S., Mexico and several foreign countries who will present the most practical and timely information available.

International agricultural trade, Mexican-American agricultural interdependence, market development and plans for market expansion will all be studied.

Plans are being finalized through U.S. Congressman Tom Loeffler's office to have a Chinese delegation participate in the conference, a move to strengthen U.S.-Chinese agricultural trade relations. The Chinese ranching industry will be a major topic of discussion along with a demonstration of veterinary acupuncture.

A large contingency of influential Mexican ranchers is also expected to attend.

The program will include concurrent sessions for producers of working quarter horses, beef cattle, sheep and goats, range and wildlife. Ranch business management will also be stressed.

A sub-surface mineral management and mineral lease agreement session will be conducted by experts in these fields. The increasing incentives and need for domestic energy production and its value to landowners makes this session especially important.

A general theme "Nutrition: The Key of Production to Profit" has been incorporated into the livestock, range and wildlife sessions. Land managers will learn key factors involved in integrating the production of quality range lands, their harvest of quality animals and progressive product marketing.

Proceedings of the conference will be provided each participant for future reference and use. Workshops will be held to assist ranchers with actual application of the information obtained in concurrent sessions.

Two day-long ranch tours are planned -- one each in Texas and Mexico -- allowing participants to observe progressive ranch management in both countries.

Entertainment activities featuring popular American and Mexican country-western music groups are also taking shape.

Pre-registration packets can be obtained by writing IRR, P.O. Drawer 1849, Uvalde, Texas 78801. Ranchers are encouraged to return completed forms promptly as space will be limited. To help defray conference expenses, participants will be assessed a tax deductible registration fee.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—One of the most controversial bills to come before the Legislature this session is House Bill 360 which provides for restricted electronic surveillance in felony narcotic cases.

The pros and cons of wiretapping have been heard in public testimony received by the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee during the last few months. Recently, as the result of much study and consideration, the full House of Representatives passed the wiretap bill.

This bill provides that authority to conduct wiretaps can only be given by nine district judges of Texas, one in each of nine administrative judicial districts. The Texas Department of Public Safety is the designated agency which can own wiretapping equipment and install and monitor wiretaps.

The bill pays careful attention to safeguards on restricting the use of wiretaps. It limits surveillance to 30 days unless additional 30-day extensions are obtained from the judge. Illegal wiretapping is made a felony offense, and information obtained from illegal wiretaps is not admissible in court. Individuals whose conversations are recorded must be notified within 90 days after the wiretap is completed. Moreover, targets of wiretaps which are not approved by the judge must also be notified.

I am confident that if the Senate concurs with the opinions of the House on this important piece of legislation, our new weapon will be used carefully and efficiently for the sole purpose of ridding our state of illegal drug traffic profiteers.

Ancient coins at UT

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Thought to be the largest collection of ancient Greek, Roman and Byzantine coins in the southern U.S. is the Swenson Coin Collection at The University of Texas.

The almost 3,500 gold, silver and bronze coins span 19 centuries of monetary history, from the beginning of coinage in the Sixth Century B.C. down to Late Byzantine issues of the 13th Century A.D. The strength of the UT collection lies in its 2,000 coins of ancient Rome (each Roman emperor — of which there were about 100 — being represented by from one to 150 portrait-embazoned coins).

Study of such coins is useful for understanding ancient art, history and economic life.

WHAT SHALL WE DO?

When John the Baptist appeared as Christ's forerunner, God's chosen people had lived under the Law of Moses for 1500 years but had not kept it. Hence John's call to repentance and baptism for the remission of sins (Mark 1:4).

John was in earnest, too, for when the thoughtless multitude came to him to be baptized, he sent them back, saying: "Bring forth fruits worthy of repentance" (Luke 3:7-8). Their lives were to be changed and they were to show it.

When the people asked: "What shall we do, then?" he told them to live for others rather than for self (Luke 3:10-11). When the tax collectors asked "What shall we do?" he demanded that they stop cheating the taxpayers and live honestly (vers. 12-13). When the soldiers asked: "What shall we do?" he told them to forbear violence, false accusation and bribery (ver. 14). Clearly, righteousness was demanded under John's message. His hearers were to repent, be baptized and bring forth the fruits of true repentance.

When our Lord appeared, He proclaimed the same message as John (Matt. 3:1, 2; 4:17). A lawyer asked: "What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" and He replied: "What is written in the Law?" When the lawyer recited the basic commands of the law, our Lord answered: "This do and thou shalt live" (Luke 10:25-28). God was still demanding righteousness. They were all under the law. (See Gal. 4:4; Matt. 23:1, 2, etc.)

Some suppose that this was all changed after Calvary by the "Great Commission." This is not so. When, at Pentecost, Peter's hearers were convicted of their sins and asked "What shall we do?" Peter commanded them to "repent and be baptized... for the remission of sins" just as John had done (Acts 2:38). He did not tell them that Christ had died for their sins.

It was not until later that St. Paul was sent to proclaim the death of Christ as the payment for sin. He was the first to say: "But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested... We declare His righteousness for the remission of sins" (Rom. 3:21-26). When the Gentile jailor fell on his knees and asked: "What must I do to be saved?" Paul replied: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:30, 31). This is God's message for sinners today, "for we have redemption through Christ's blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7). "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and THOU shalt be saved."

Letters To The Editor by Farwell School Children

Dear Mr. Getz,
My belief about the Columbia is very strong. I myself, feel very proud about our accomplishment. However, I was watching a movie the other night, which, although it was just a movie, it made me think. The movie showed some astronauts going to the moon, but it turned out to be a fraud. It looked so real, but they were actually in a desert. It really made me think: Would the government do that to the U.S. or, better yet, to the world?

Sincerely,
Suzanne Hardage

Dear Mr. Getz,
I believe that we need our trash picked up once every month instead of once every three months. If you can help to get them to come every month, it would be a great help to everyone in town.

Sincerely yours,
Camille Buchenau

Dear Mr. Getz,
It is my belief that there is not enough parking space outside our school. When our parents come to pick us up, they do not know where to park. Our teachers have a certain place to park, but other people do not. Our principal, Mr. Gobble, told our parents not to park on either side of our school, so where are we going to park from now on?

Sincerely,
Jimmy Lovato

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think that the pollution around Farwell Schools is getting very bad. I think people in Farwell should try to keep it a little cleaner, and try to use the trash cans more often.

Sincerely,
Maxine Jones

Dear Mr. Getz,
I do not like the way some people are lying to get food stamps. For example, I heard about a man who was so embarrassed about receiving these that he exchanged his food stamps for money. That is how he bought a hotel. If people are going to be embarrassed to have food stamps, why don't they try to get a better job?

Sincerely,
Daniel Hutchins

Dear Mr. Getz,
I want to express my disapproval of the government inspection of the school lunch program. We are told to be on our best behavior, and everything is usually cleaner. I believe the government should start having surprise inspection so that we won't know about their arrival till the last second and won't be able to put on an act.

Sincerely
Teresa Rose

Dear Mr. Getz,
I want to say that next year school is going to start at 8:25. That's just too early for me. I will have to start getting up 30 minutes earlier than I usually do.

What about the little kids? They have to go to bed at 8:00 o'clock already; now they will have to go to bed about 7:00 o'clock and miss all the good T.V. shows.

I sure hope lunch hour will stay the same or I will die. I sure hope we don't get out any later in school next year.

Sincerely yours,
Todd Davis

Dear Sir:

I am writing a complaint to the School Board. I think we need at least one more bus. There are now only five buses running after school, and there used to be seven.

I know that with the price of gas, this causes quite a problem. But the bus I ride on goes approximately fifty-six miles round trip, and some other buses go even further. This wastes plenty of gas too. If you're ever one of the last ones on the route, you can get home pretty late.

All that I am asking is that you consider using one more bus.

Sincerely,
Steve Stancell

Dear Mr. Getz,
I would like to express my opinion about the MX missile and what it would do to the land and the people in New Mexico and Texas: I think the MX would ruin too much land just for a few missile sites. Also, a lot of people would have to move away from their homes and their farms.

Sincerely,
Jerry Cole

Dear Mr. Getz,
My friend told me that President Reagan might start a war in the future. I don't think we should start a war because there's no good reason to do this.

Yours truly,
Becky Hastings

Dear Mr. Getz,
I believe that Mr. Reagan should reduce the amount of people getting food stamps. The middle class people pay a lot of taxes so the poor people can go on food stamps at least they say they are poor. For old people that can't work, food stamps are O.K., but many Mexicans are smuggled across the border and get food stamps.

Sincerely,
Nancey K. Robinson

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think President Reagan is going to be a good president. I do think that he should cut taxes down. He is going to be a better president than Carter was.

Yours truly,
Sharon Myers

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think that propane is the gas of the future. It is only about sixty-six cents a gallon. The cost of the system is about one thousand dollars. The best place to get a system is Arrow Gas Company in Clovis, New Mexico.

Sincerely yours,
Kenneth Adams

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think that the gas at the new gas station in Farwell should be cheaper because most people cannot afford a full tank of gas. If the prices were lower, they would get more business.

Sincerely,
Keith Smith

Dear Mr. Getz,
I would like to express my opinion as to the high price of gas. I think they should lower the price of gas to a dollar so that young teenagers can buy some gas for people who own motorcycles or minibikes.

Sincerely,
Daniel Rubio

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think gas costs too much money. The gas here is about $1.35, or more, a gallon. The price is going up to fast and getting higher and higher. This is one reason why people are not buying big cars. I think gas should be around $1.00 a gallon.

Sincerely yours,
Abel Salana

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think the Columbia space ship is a good idea because we need to know more about space and about the stars, too.

When I get older, I'd like to be an astronaut and travel in a space ship.

Yours truly,
Erik Burton

Dear Mr. Getz,
I would like to express my opinion about the MX missile. I don't think locating it here is a good idea because it may take up too much farmland in our area. Also, it will draw people to the border of Texas and New Mexico. That means we'll have more buildings and less space. The more houses and stores we have to build, the more farmland and other vacant lots we'll be giving up. Since most people here are farmers, it's not very pleasing to hear about these possibilities.

Sincerely,
Dana White

Dear Mr. Getz,
I would like to express my opinion regarding the MX missile system. I am against this because it may take up some farmland and a lot of living space. We need the farmland for crops so that the farmers can have a better chance for more money. We also need living space because the world is a very crowded place.

Sincerely,
Sherri Curtis

Dear Mr. Getz,
I would like to express my opinion concerning the MX missile. If and when, the missile comes around here, there will probably be more people moving to Parmer County. There will not be enough room. The chemicals and elements will make the soil go bad, it will also pollute the air for everyone and everything.

Sincerely,
Shonda Foster

Dear Mr. Getz,
I think the MX missile base should not be put in Clovis because it may be harmful to crops near the base and disturb livestock that are near the base may also poison lakes, where livestock drink, and kill the fish that are in the lakes.

Yours truly,
Martin Arguelles

Special Mama

When members of the Henry Haseloff family found a nest of five baby raccoons with no mama raccoon in sight, they took the orphaned critters home to their own pet dog, Panda, who had four two-week old nursing puppies of her own. Motherly love took over, and the five infant coons are now nursing on Panda's milk and growing at a normal rate. The five puppies have also taken a liking to their half-brothers and sisters, and the coons and pups are now one big happy family. Panda is of the Alaskan Malamute breed and is owned by Joe Haseloff, who is also pictured.

It was due to Galileo that we have thermometers to measure heat. He invented the first one 300 years ago. His was not very accurate, however. It only measured 10 different degrees of heat to span temperatures from the hottest to the coldest.

SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK

Consider Conservation

*It's the will and the skill of responsible man
To protect and use wisely the treasures of the land
The waters and wildlife, the forests and fields,
Plus the bounty of beauty God's countryside yields.*

*It's the fight against ignorance, waste, and greed
To save the resources that all men need.
It's the foe of erosion, forest fire, and flood
Three agents of ruin, pollution, and mud.*

*It's the vision and work to add something good
To the home, to the farm, to the whole neighborhood.
It's new lawns and new gardens; a lake built to please;
It's roadsides with grass and hilltops with trees.*

*There's a lot to be done for the state of our living
But each requires YOUR share of self-giving.*
