Tribune Under New Ownership

The State Line Tribune, an institution in Texico-Farwell for the past 57 years, is now being published under new ownership. The newspaper which was formerly owned and published by W. H. Graham, Jr., who took the reins of the paper at the death of his father, W. H. "Hop" Graham, in 1952, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Getz, who have been publishing the paper under a lease agreement since September 1965.

The Tribune, which is produced under the most up-to-date publishing methods, has won numerous awards, including awards in general excellence, editorial writing, feature writing, and column writing. Getz stated that the Tribune staff will be dedicated to uphold this same fine tradition.

Mr. and Mrs. Getz moved to Farwell in 1948 and became associated with the local newspaper in 1952. They have one son, Mike, who did editorial writing for the Tribune while a student at West Texas State University. He is married to the former Judy Tharp and they are the parents of one son. Mike is presently working on his PhD at the University of Texas Graduate School of Bio-Medical Sciences at Houston. Mrs. Crystal (Chris) Moss, who has been employed at the Tribune for the past several years, and worked for the former publisher, will continue in her capacity as news editor. Other employees are Mrs. June Magness and Mrs. Ruby Goforth.

In acquiring the Tribune, Getz said, "We have confidence in the growth and future of the Twin Cities and we think that our community will continue to grow and reflect the advancement of agriculture, the expansion of the livestock industry and allied lines in this productive area. We pledge to continue the publication of a prize winning newspaper reflecting the news and activities of the crossroads of the great southwest."

Mr. and Mrs. John Getz, new owners of the State Line Tribune, display the first publication to come off the press since they acquired ownership. They seem well pleased with the edition and pledge themselves to continue publication of the paper in the same fine tradition as in the past. They have been publishing the Tribune under a lease agreement since 1965.

After Lengthy Meeting --

Board Of 21 Members Heads Water Group

Parmer County Water Association is a reality.

The organization, designed to assist in the importation of water to the High Plains of Texas, was formed at a lengthy Saturday afternoon session in Bovina Schools auditorium.

More than 100 people, farmers and business people, were in attendance and voted unanimously to establish the county organization which is to have "no other obligation than to do the best job in the least amount of time to import water to this area," according to Bruce Parr of Black, who was chairman of the initial meeting.

A 21-member board of directors was named during the meeting to handle the association's business. Dues were set at $10 per year per member. Dues were collected following the meeting. They may also be paid to any member of the board or to Security State Bank in Farwell, which was named depository for the association.

Taking up much of the time of the meeting, which lasted almost four hours, was discussion of a proposed resolution which would request Water, Inc., a regional organization with the same purpose, to begin action to create political subdivisions for the import area and allow the areas to tax themselves a maximum of five cents per $100 valuation. Purpose of the subdivisions and the tax would be to "sell the High Plains water importation project to the entire nation in order to acquire public appropriations for its construction."

As it turned out, the proposed resolution was never brought to a vote and the group agreed to leave the matter in the hands of the directors. Those opposed to the resolution pointed out that it is "unlawful" to use tax money for "lobbying" purposes. Those in favor of it explained that only through taxing could the area be assured of sufficient money to do the job.

Named to the board of directors were four men from each commissioner's precinct in the county ---- two from town and two from rural areas ---- and five at large members.

At large members are W. L. Edelman, Sloan Osborn and A. L. Black of Friona, Bill Sherry of Lazbuddie and Don Williams of Farwell.

Other directors include: Precinct 1 -- Parr and Ellis Tatum with Bill Carthel as alternate; Friona -- Andy Hurst and Wesley Barnett with Doyle Elliott as alternate; Precinct 2 -- Cordy Potts and Leon Grissom with Bob Wilson as alternate; Bovina -- E. B. Caldwell and Vernon Estes with J. D. Kirkpatrick as alternate; Precinct 3 -- Wendol Christian and A. L. Hartzog with Gilbert Kaltwasser as alternate.

Farwell -- Elmer Hargrove and Joe Jones with Hurshel Harding as alternate; Precinct 4 -- J. W. Gammon and Ben Foster, Jr. with Jim Roy Daniels as alternate; Lazbuddie -- John Agee and Freeman Davis.

The alternates will automatically become members of the board if the delegates can not serve for any reason.

The directors were named by a nominating committee and were approved unanimously by those attending the meeting.

In a board meeting which followed the regular session, Edelman was named chairman of the group. Parr was elected vice chairman and Jones was named secretary-treasurer.

Appoint Conservationist For Parmer County Office

Gary A. Batte arrived in Parmer County to assume duties as District Conservationist at Parmer County Soil Conservation office. He is replacing Jerry Isbell who left the SCS approximately one month ago to work for a private concern.

Batte has been with the SCS for the past seven years, beginning work in Stanton in 1962. He then served in the U. S. Army for two years and later was stationed at Floydada and Stamford before coming to Parmer County.

He is married and father of two children, Lorri, age five, and John, three. The family are members of the Baptist church.

The family arrived in Parmer County on Thursday just in time to be initiated by the high winds of Friday. However, Batte says, "I believe we will like the area and I am looking forward to working with the people in this area." He and the other employees at the SCS office invite anyone who has a soil or water conservation problem with which they need help to visit them at the office or call the SCS office in Friona.

Glenn Phillips, soil conservationist at Parmer County SCS office for the past two years, has been in charge of the office during the past month.

GARY A. BATTE

Next Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 7:30 in the evening, the Farwell Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will have its annual banquet. For the past number of years, the Chamber has provided the community with opportunities to hear outstanding after-dinner speakers. This year will be no exception.

Dr. Charles Jarvis who spoke here two years ago is regarded as one of the top men in the nation in this field. Upon his recommendation, we have obtained Newt Hiescher to inform and amuse us this time. As has been the custom in Farwell, we are eliminating many of the tiring and time-consuming activities usually found at such meetings. The major portion of the evening will be devoted to enjoying the main speaker and the always delicious meal served by the luncheon ladies.

The cost for this delightful evening will be nominal and tickets can be obtained from any Chamber member or by calling the State Line Tribune.

Let's all turn out this year for our Chamber affair and not be one of those persons who will have to say, "I missed hearing Newt Hiescher." Many folks had to say that about Dr. Jarvis and we are sure they have regretted it ever since.

A time-honored practice in American politics is the craft of paper shuffling and budget balancing to make the answers appear as an incumbent administration wishes them to appear. By acts of fiscal legerdemain, past administrations have produced black ink figures that eventually appeared as a sea of red ink, but always after an election. Therefore, a paper transaction should be nothing new to the wizards of foggy bottom.

The recent 40% plus pay raise our honored representatives in Washington recently tucked under their fiscal belts gives rise to an idea that possibly, just possibly, our zealous guardians of the public weal haven't thought big enough. We do not have the latest figures on the number of employees on the Federal payroll but feel sure it is well in excess of 2,000,000 souls.

Why not give all Federal employees a pay raise of at least $100,000.00 per year? This would put even the least of the civil service minions in a 90% or better tax bracket. Now 2,000,000 times $100,000.00 is a payroll of $200,000,000,000.00. By withholding 90% or more, we would immediately collect a tax of at least $180,000,000,000.00. At this rate, we could soon retire the entire public debt and then relieve the non-government workers of paying taxes in the future.

After all, why not adequately compensate all of our noble public servants rather than just a few of the anointed. The government developed the tax withholding concept so they could use it to good advantage on themselves. And, inasmuch as we have reverted to a fiat money concept sometime ago, another exercise in government paper shuffling should go virtually unnoticed by all but the Swiss bankers. This may not really be practical, but since when has this been a deterrent in Federal planning?

Survivors include the widow, Elsie; one daughter, Mrs. Gerry Haggard, Lubbock; one son, Bill, Beaumont; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hadley, Texico; a brother, John R., Texico; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin Rohovec, Alamogordo, and Mrs. Stan Uterback, Hagerman; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Rev. Hadley Services Held

Funeral services were conducted from the United First Methodist Church in Munday Wednesday for Rev. Walter Hadley, former Texico-Farwell resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hadley. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery in Canyon Thursday morning at 11.

The Rev. Hadley was born in Pontiac, Ill., Jan. 21, 1919, and passed away Monday, Feb. 3. He moved with his parents to Texico and attended and graduated from Texico High School. He received a degree from Texas Tech and later served his country in World War II. He was married to Elsie Gholson in 1941.

Survivors include the widow, Elsie; one daughter, Mrs. Gerry Haggard, Lubbock; one son, Bill, Beaumont; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hadley, Texico; a brother, John R., Texico; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin Rohovec, Alamogordo, and Mrs. Stan Uterback, Hagerman; and numerous nieces and nephews.

SHYNESS overcame Fred Curtis when he was told to get ready for a picture at Lions Club Ladies Night early this week... so he immediately ducked behind his napkin, but all in vain as the photographer went right ahead and snapped the picture. Mrs. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hutchins were among those in attendance at the annual affair.

For Area --

Foundation Studies '69 Pork Production

Heftier pocket books for farmers is the object of an economic study in pork production during 1969 at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway.

The study began this week at the research foundation with the arrival of a portable pig pen with raised slatted floors which features two-thirds of the pen being enclosed with a roof and three sides, and according to Dr. Tom Longnecker, Research director, "should provide maintenance for a disease-free operation."

The Jimmy Dean Meat Company has created a local market of pork raised in this area and has caused increased excitement in pork industry on the High Plains.

Due to this increased interest, the foundation will begin an economics study of limited pork production.

According to Dr. Tom Longnecker, object of the study is to find a livestock enterprise small farmers can use as a means to increase profits in today's farming operations.

"Potential for pork production is here now due to the meat packing plant. We believe farmers can get as much as $1 per hundred weight more for their grain sorghum marketed through pork and we hope this study will show this," Longnecker said.

The portable pen was supplied for use in this study by Central Supply Co., Amarillo and Berger. The eight-foot by 24-foot pen is constructed of steel with slatted wooden floors.

"The slatted floors eliminates manure disposal problems and the unit can be moved from area to area to increase sanitation protection," Dr. Longnecker said.

The pen will house 25 feeder pigs at a time and with finishing periods every three and a half months, the pen should contain approximately 75 feeders annually.

Dr. Longnecker stresses that the portable pen could be a profit solution only on a small-time operation.

"There is no question that farmers planning to produce 4,000 to 5,000 pigs per year should build adequate permanent housing. The investment required in the portable pen is something a small farmer can do and provides another avenue for farmers wanting to get into pork production," he said.

Pigs for this economics opportunity study will be provided by the Jimmy Dean Pig Parlor, an SPF pork production operation owned by Troy Pritchard, Don Dean and Jimmy Dean.

"As an indication of the interest in pork production in this area, we have been approached by two area companies to conduct studies on new feeding rations," Dr. Longnecker added.

Board Of 21 --

The board was expected to act on the debated resolution at a meeting this (Wednesday) morning in Friona.

In opening remarks, Parr encouraged the group to have unity. "If we get water imported here, it will be because we are completely united with a common cause. We will not obtain our goals by bickering among ourselves and slandering personalities," he said.

The chairman pointed out the success of such water importation project in California. That program required more than 20 years and it was some 25 per cent of the size of the proposed Texas project.

"We're not going to take any water from any source that will leave anyone short of water," he explained, in pointing out that the water to be brought here from the Mississippi River or elsewhere will be surplus and of no value to the people in the area from which it comes.

The project calls for 20 million acre-feet of water to be imported to the area annually.

"Any water we get will be declared surplus. The project has already had bad publicity in the Mississippi River area and in East Texas. We have to convince these people that we're not affecting their economy in any way," Parr said.

Mrs. Howard (Lennie Mae) Crook, who was born in Elsmore, Kan., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Donoho, has spent the past 17 years as a resident of Texico-Farwell and states that "the people here are the greatest in the world."

Mrs. Crook moved with her parents to Xenia, Kan., at an early age and made her home in that vicinity, attending school at Xenia, until her marriage to Howard Crook at Ft. Scott, Kan., June 14, 1934. The Crooks are parents of six children including Mrs. Eurith Marie Jones, Grand Prairie; Mrs. Merlene Smith, Cannon Air Force Base, Clovis; Mrs. Pat Worley, Point Pleasant, W. Va.; Darrell Crook, Amarillo; Randy and Jaquetta Crook, students at Farwell school.

The family moved to Bovina in 1937 and made their home in that community until moving to Farwell. Immediately upon arrival in Farwell, they became active in community and church affairs, placing their membership in Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church. Mrs. Crook serves as custodian of her church and is also always ready to lend assistance to any neighbor or friend who might need a helping hand.

Hobbies for this industrious lady include traveling, reading, sewing, handwork of several kinds, collecting antiques and looking for and collecting rocks, as well as cooking. Mrs. Crook states that in her collection of antiques are articles which have come down through the family to her and which she prizes highly. In her rock collection are two old Indian hammers and rocks from Spain and Gibraltar.

Since taking up knitting last year, she has completed several pairs of house shoes and a sweater. In addition to this hobby, she has recently learned the art of making ribbon flowers, and shortly before the holidays she completed velvet poinsettias for a centerpiece for her table.

In former years she made many of the clothes for family members, but now most of her sewing is for the grandchildren (seven in number) although she does occasionally make a garment for daughter Jaquetta. The family has done extensive traveling in the past few years, visiting some 36 states, the District of Columbia, Mexico and Canada. However with all of these activities Mrs. Crook still finds time for her favorite hobby of cooking. Through the years, many recipes have become favorites of the family, but the recipes Mrs. Crook is sharing with our readers are tried and true recipes from her early days as a housewife and ones which her family ask her to make again and again.

Speed Measuring Device Initiated

VASCAR, a new scientific speed measuring device to serve as a deterrent to speeders, is being put into operation over the State of Texas, announced Major Luther Moore, regional commander of Texas Department of Public Safety.

VASCAR, known as the Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder, enables the highway patrolman to determine the speed of vehicles both in front and behind him, traffic approaching from the opposite direction, crossing his path. In other words, this device can measure or determine the

Chamber Holds Membership Drive

Texico Chamber of Commerce is conducting a membership drive and all members and prospective members are asked to pay their annual dues as soon as possible.

The chamber is also making plans for a fund raising event. Stadium cushions will be sold by chamber members to help defray cost of chamber projects, including the town park, Christmas lighting and the annual July 4 fireworks display.

At one of the meetings in the near future a speaker from FHA is expected to be on hand to speak on low cost rental housing for the city.

S.U.G. Asks Rate Changes

Southern Union Gas Company today petitioned the New Mexico Public Service Commission to authorize an adjustment in natural gas rates in the state to help meet increased costs of doing business.

The request was the first the Company has made for higher general service rates in New Mexico since 1959. The only general change since that time occurred in 1964 when the Company lowered its rates following a reduction in the Federal income tax.

The exhibits filed in support of Southern Union's petition reflect a need for an adjustment in general service rates of some 15 per cent, which would amount to about $4 million in additional gross revenues annually.

Of this total, over half would be paid by the Company to Federal, state, county and municipal governments in the form of additional taxes. The remainder would go principally to meet such increased costs of doing business as record high interest charges and material, labor and purchased gas costs.

Southern Union's petition asks the Commission to set a date for public hearing. At the hearing the Company will introduce testimony to support its position and after the Commission determines the amount of annual gross revenues it should be allowed to earn, it then will submit new rate schedules for the Commission's approval.

Larkspur's Lovely

The newer larkspurs branch from the ground, thus form more compact, better looking plants.

Larkspur's a lovely flower—early-blooming, graceful with its long spires and feathery foliage, colorful in sufficient variety to suit any gardener. For earliest flowers, sow seeds in fall. Blooms from this sowing will appear in May and early June.

Spring sowing will result in later blossoms and the flowering season can thus be prolonged until September.

Warm weather at the time seeds are sown often results in erratic germination. Wait until it is cool, then sow seeds in well prepared garden soil where the plants are to bloom. Larkspur seedlings respond poorly when transplanted.

Allow 3 to 4 weeks for seeds to sprout although, if planted late enough, fall-sown seeds will not come up until spring. When seedlings are 3 to 4 inches high thin them to leave the sturdiest standing a foot apart. Then they'll have room to develop fully to their ultimate 4 to 5 foot height.

Water copiously each time there has been no soaking rain for a week. Larkspurs love moisture.

Some kinds, instead of having side branches from the upper part of the stem, branch at the ground, thus producing more compact, better looking plants.

Names of strains with this ground-branching habit include Supreme, Regal, Giant Steeplechase and Giant Imperial—all very popular.

Commit your way to the Lord.—(Psalms 37:5).

We know the many things that require our time and attention. We know what we would like to see adjusted and harmonized. We know what seems to be out of order. With His Spirit working in and through us to bless all that concerns us, we will bring forth the right answers in order to establish a good and orderly life for all those whose lives touch our own.

Some Farmers Still Undecided --

1969 Farm Program Signup Underway

Signup under the 1969 cotton, feed grain and wheat programs started last Monday morning and approximately 15 per cent of the farmers in Parmer County had signed up by the close of business last Friday, February 7. It appears that a number of farmers are undecided as to whether to participate and, if so, to what extent, according to Prentice Mills, Parmer County ASCS manager.

There is no question about how to participate in the cotton program. There is only one choice under the cotton program. That is, farmers sign up or do not sign up, Mills says.

There are many options under the feed grain and wheat programs. Some of these are: 1.

Sign up and participate in the wheat program and stay out of the feed grain program. 2. Sign up in the feed grain program and stay out of the wheat program. 3. Sign up in the wheat and/or feed grain program and make a voluntary diversion of as much as 50 per cent of the wheat allotment and feed grain base for the farm. (Note: Some small farms have the option of diverting all their wheat allotment and feed grain base.) 4. Sign up in the feed grain and wheat programs and have the option of substituting wheat for feed grain and vice-versa.

The signup period ends on March 21. Therefore, all farmers are urged to give careful consideration to the options available to them, decide what they think is best for their farm, and then come in and sign up at their earliest convenience. With more than 1100 farms left to sign up, there is bound to be a "last minute rush." The ASCS office will be able to give quicker service to those who come in soon.

ASCS office employees will be happy to help with any question concerning the various programs, Mills indicated.

Trustee Candidates Chosen

The names of Harry Sheets, incumbent, and Donald Watkins have been chosen by the committee in charge to appear on the ballot in the forthcoming Farwell School trustee election. Smokey Gast, other incumbent, chose to not seek re-election.

Other persons who might wish to seek one of the school trustee positions should pick up a blank for filing purposes at the superintendent's office or from Mrs. Dorothy Eason in the school tax office. The applications must be filed before the March 4 deadline.

Trustee election is set for April 4.

However, before the fire department left town, a call was received that the fire had been extinguished. Texico fire department has received no calls during the past week.

The queen was presented with a bouquet of red roses and her attendants were presented with one long-stemmed red rose each and the king and his attendants were presented with boutonnieres.

Advances in electric appliances, equipment and electric service - all to make living and working better for all of us - are acknowledged during National Electrical Week.

But other services for the betterment of our city which Reddy happily performs may not come to mind.

For example, Reddy has co-workers trained in helping you to attract new business and industry, to aid you with ideas in ways to keep your city looking smart as well as beautiful, to help you with printed materials necessary to tell new industrial prospects why your city is a good one.

And, right now, Reddy has a new film ready for showing to your clubs and organizations. It's called "Money Grows Here" and shows in beautiful color the advantages that new industry can have by locating in our area.

Your Public Service manager will gladly arrange a showing for your group.

Some of the printed materials that Reddy's Area Development Department has created are displayed by one of Reddy's co-workers.

NURSERY NEWS

By Alvin Woodburn Garden Center Nursery Clovis, N.M. When is it time to prune? If you think you have the answer to that one, we will question the wisdom of that alone.

Personally, we hold with the theory that says the best way to make a rose bush grow is to really prune it. In other words, to start cutting on a rose bush is to start it growing; and we think this should be done about the first to the middle of March.

Painting Fills Many Hours

by Ruby Goforth
Painting has been a hobby with Mrs. Frank (Mary) Jones, a resident of Texico for 37 years, for as long as she can remember. However, only recently has she taken it seriously enough to take art lessons, studying under Dean Merritt of Clovis for the past 18 months. Spending many happy hours with her hobby, she says it is relaxing as well as entertaining. Mary's favorite is landscape painting with still life running a close second. She has a landscape on display at Pacific Finance in Clovis, and until recently had one at Citizen's Bank of Texico. More of her work can be seen Feb. 9, at the First National Bank of Clovis, when the Clovis Junior Women's Club will sponsor an art show.

On College Judging Team

The South Plains College Livestock Judging Team left last Thursday to compete in the Intercollegiate Judging contest at Ft. Worth. The team is composed of James Lee Calaway, a sophomore who is a graduate of Farwell High School; Larry Glasscock, Earth; and Carl Jones, Ft. Sumner. Larry Christenson from Melrose is first alternate. Jim Jenkins, agriculture teacher is coach for the group. Boys comprising the judging team are selected on their proficiency and skill in judging and evaluating the four major species of livestock: cattle, sheep, swine and horses. Each boy must also be willing to devote much time and effort to evaluation of different classes of livestock to qualify for the team.

GOOD CITIZEN --- Timothy Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Morris, Sr., was named "good citizen" at Farwell Junior High School for the week Feb. 10-14. Tim says he heartily agrees with the words on the bulletin board, "What the world needs now is LOVE."

In Texico School -- Migrant Tutoring Program Initiated

by Ruby Goforth
Texico Public Schools have recently begun a new teaching program to help migrant children. The program is government sponsored and taught by Mrs. Jane McAllister, with the help of Mrs. Wilma Whitener, teacher's aide. According to Mrs. McAllister, main purpose of the program is to help those students who, because of changing schools, have fallen behind in their grades and need special help to catch up. However, students who live here permanently but need some special tutoring also are being included. The program is young, having been started only the second week of January, but both teachers are enthusiastic regarding its results. In elementary school, they work with approximately 20 students who are sent to them by their home room teachers. But, in high school and junior high, Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Whitener pick out the students they feel need help.

Their greatest challenge to date has been a 14-year-old girl, who has been in this country from old Mexico for two years and has never been to school. She speaks practically no English.

Scheduled to last for 60 school days, the program will end sometime in April.

Whirlwinds Lose To House

House girls were victorious over the Texico Whirlwinds Tuesday night when the teams met in a game at House. Final score in the game was 22-19.

Loyce Brown and Cynthia Armstrong each had five points for the Texico lasses while Runyon had nine points for the victors to take scoring honors.

Coach C. B. Stockton stated that the Whirlwinds played a fair game and were ahead late in the fourth quarter when guard Vonnie Yell fouled out. From that point on, the Texico lasses were at a loss since forward Loyce Brown had to be moved to guard leaving a large crack in the defensive effort.

In the first game of the evening, Texico eighth grade girls dropped a game to the House B team, comprised of sophomores. Final score in that game was 22-15. Kim Pearce took scoring honors for the eighth grade with five points. Fowler had 10 points for House.

District tournament is set for next weekend in Melrose. Other teams in the district in addition to Texico are Melrose, House, Tatum, Grady, Floyd, Dora, Ft. Sumner, and San Jon. Brackets for the tournament will be drawn up Sunday afternoon.

Coach Stockton indicated that the tournament can be anybody's since all of the teams in the district have similar records, losing and winning most games by narrow margins.

30 Attend Waste Water Meeting In Texico

Speaker at the Southeastern New Mexico Water and Waste Water Pollution Control Association meeting in Texico last week was Samuel P. Davalos, head engineer with New Mexico Solid Waste Disposal Unit which is a part of the Health and Social Services Department. Davalos was introduced by L. C. Lancaster, district health officer, who was master of ceremonies for the dinner meeting. Lancaster also spoke briefly and conducted a business

Following the talk by Davalos, a film on disposing of solid waste was shown and a question and answer session held. Towns represented at the meeting were Portales, Lovington, Hobbs, Clovis, Roswell, Santa Fe and Texico. Some 30 persons were in attendance.

WELCOME to Texico was extended to Samuel P. Davalos, right, head of the Solid Waste Disposal Unit of New Mexico Health and Social Services Department, by Morgan Billington, Texico water superintendent. Davalos spoke at the meeting of the Southeastern Section of New Mexico Water and Waste Water Pollution Control Association in Texico last week.

vity will be attendance at the Mulligan Stew at Oasis State Park.

Club Sponsors Cleanup Week

Farwell Study Club will sponsor a Cleanup Week in Farwell Feb. 24-March 1. The week will officially be proclaimed as Cleanup Week by Mayor Elmer Hargrove, and all civic organizations in Farwell are invited to participate in the activities.

Mrs. Carrie Christian, Study Club president, says, "If every householder will clean his own premises during the week, then we will all be ready and willing to work together to help the people who are not able, physically, to get their homes and grounds in 'apple pie order'."

She invites each civic organization in town to appoint a chairman to meet with the Study Club on Feb. 17 at 7 p.m. at the courthouse in Farwell, for a short time, to assist in finalizing plans for the cleanup week. "In this way, we will be better able to work together," she says.

On March 1, final day of the cleanup week, the club has planned to work with the Volunteer Fire Department to burn off all vacant lots. Saturday activities will get underway at 8 a.m. on Saturday with Mayor Elmer Hargrove cutting the button; the fire sirens blowing to denote that activities are underway, and finally will conclude with refreshments for all at the courthouse at 10 a.m. Persons who might need assistance in cleaning up their premises are asked to contact Mrs. Christian at phone 481-3238.

Building A New Home On Mabry Drive-East of Clovis

Why do people who can afford any central heating system almost always pick the least expensive?

95 percent of the centrally heated homes in this area that cost over $50,000 are heated by natural gas. Obviously, their owners could have bought any system they wanted. Why natural gas? Because people with money demand the best, even if it happens to cost less. How is natural gas best? Five ways: (1) Fresh. Gas systems bring fresh air in from outside, heat it, and distribute it through your home. (2) Even. Gas systems circulate fresh air evenly to every corner of the house: no hot spots, no cold spots, no stale air, no odors. (3) Clean. Gas systems filter the air sky-blue clean. (4) Dependable. Gas is famous for its dependability: gas gets through regardless of the weather. Gas lines are down underground where high winds and heavy icing can't get at them. (5) Economical. Gas systems heat for 1/4 the cost of electric systems, and even people with money do not object to saving money. And of course, you don't need expensive additional insulation when you heat with gas. Result of all this excellence: 95 percent of the over-$50,000 centrally heated homes in this area are heated by natural gas. Happy P.S.: 95 percent of the centrally heated under-$50,000 homes in this area also do it with gas!
