

Labor Housing Unit Proposed

On Tuesday evening, April 1, at 8 p.m. a meeting will be held in the Farwell School cafeteria for all farmers, ranchers, businessmen and their wives. Purpose of the meeting is to give facts on the proposed Labor Housing project for Farwell. J. T. Ford, president of the local Labor Housing group, assisted by JOE Jones, vice-president of the group, will preside at the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Recently a similar unit has been completed in Dimmitt and another is being built in Muleshoe. It is hoped that persons who were instrumental in getting the units built in the neighboring towns will be present to assist in answering questions and giving pertinent information to those who have questions on the proposed project. Bill Boling, of the local FHA office will be present to assist with answering questions.

If the housing project is approved for Farwell by farmers, ranchers and businessmen, it is proposed to be built across the road east of Cooper Gln, in northeast Farwell. The FHA, who would be co-sponsor of the project, has already approved the project; however, local memberships are needed before the "go ahead" on the project can be given.

Memberships in the Labor

Housing Unit group are $200 each. There would be no additional cost to members in the future after the initial membership is paid. Fifty per cent of the necessary funds are available from the FHA for the project. Rent on the units will pay the additional cost of building over the period of a few years, according to officers of the organization. Local plans call for 48 family type permanent units, with 1200 square feet in each unit. All of the units will be furnished with a stove and a refrigerator and will have indoor toilets with hot and cold running water. Modern heating units will also be installed.

The fire proof buildings will be built entirely of cinder block, as they have been at Dimmitt. The buildings will all be of one-story design instead of the two-story type which was erected at Dimmitt. All grounds will be landscaped and planted with grass, trees, and shrubbery. Officers of the Housing Unit believe that with this type housing available, a much higher type laborer will be interested in coming to Farwell on a permanent basis than has been true in the past, when housing was at a minimum.

Ford states that the housing units will be made as maintenance free as possible so that they can be quickly cleaned and painted. The migrants will pay approximately $15 per week rent for the apartments. No apartments will be made available to single workers.

While the project deals in human welfare, it was motivated primarily by the profit motive in farming. It will offer to the migrant workers, who annually come northward to work for a few months, comfortable housing, thus creating an incentive for them to stay the year round and make this their permanent home.

In the future it is hoped by officers of the concern that the workers will find clean, well cared-for homes in which to live instead of the chicken coops, barns, shacks and huts, to which they have become accustomed in the past. With the help of all local farmers, ranchers, businessmen and other interested persons, this dream can be made to come true for Farwell as it has in neighboring towns. If you are interested or think you might be interested in this endeavor be on hand to learn the details of the project Tuesday, April

Tile floors and light colored walls add much to the attractiveness of these apartments in the Labor Housing Units.

PROPOSED FOR FARWELL are Labor Housing Units, one story, similar to this one which is a part of the Dimmitt units. Note trash receptacles, which are made available for the units. The receptacles are picked up and emptied often, thus making for a cleaner and neater appearance at the Housing project, plus making it a much safer and sanitary place for children to play.

PERSONAL

By John

Elsewhere in this issue of the Tribune appears a story and picture concerning the labor housing project as it is in Dimmitt. We went to that community last Saturday morning, accompanied by J. T. Ford and inspected the project first hand. We can only say we were very much impressed by what we saw and heard while there. We strongly urge ALL citizens to attend the meeting next Tuesday night and to participate in the project. We cannot help but feel it would be a good thing for our towns. We will not go into all our thinking on this subject in this short column, but will be happy to discuss this with anyone who wishes to drop in for a chat. Also, we would be glad to open the Tribune to letters to the editor for those who may have opposing views. Open discussion is always a healthy thing and we feel that a thorough understanding of the pros and cons will go a long way in assuring the eventual success of this ambitious project.

As a person who serves words up for public consumption we frequently have to eat some of our utterances. However, this may not be such an unpleasant job in the future if we can convert them into juicy steaks.

Supt. Dale Furr of Texas Tech's Livestock Research Station puts it this way: "Cattle and sheep at the station have been eating waste paper and doing well on it in trials conducted by animal nutritionists."

The success of the experiments, Dr. Furr believes, may help to solve some far reaching problems, including what to do with millions of tons of waste paper from old newspapers and magazines to outdated correspondence and documents. If this proves successful the Tribune may go into the cattle feeding business. We could probably feed a couple of old heifers on the releases and offerings from Washington alone.

During the recently concluded Naval hearing on the Pueblo incident a frequent question was, "Why didn't Commander Bucher destroy more of the top secret codes and electronic devices?" The following is from an editorial in the Eugene (Oregon) Register-Guard. We think it answers the above query very well.

Let's pretend. Let's pretend that we are Commander Lloyd Bucher, skipper of the Pueblo, conducting intelligence operations in waters that are likely to be hostile.

Let's pretend that some North Korean ships start harassing us. Let's pretend that we get nervous and begin to destroy valuable, secret documents and codes and that we order hundreds of thousands of dollars of sophisticated equipment destroyed. Let's pretend that we head for deeper waters and have a lot of irreplaceable stuff into the drink.

And let's pretend that, after a few hours of harassment, the North Koreans, having had their fun, turn around and set sail for Wonsan without firing a shot or attempting to board our ship. How would we explain that to a court of inquiry?

PANCAKE BREAKFAST -- Texico-Farwell Lions will be serving their annual "pancake breakfast" at Farwell School Cafeteria Sunday morning, March 30, from 7-9 a.m. Pancakes with the trimmings will be served to adults for $1.00 and to children under 12 years of age for 75¢. Lions Fred Curtis and James Craig get in a little extra practice in cooking duties earlier in the week.

Signs Read From Ceremonial Fire --

Only Fair Crop Year

"Fair to average crop year," stated "Indian" John Crim as he read the smoke signals rising from the ceremonial fire on Saturday, March 22, at sunrise. Some 31 family members, news media representatives, and friends were on hand for the ceremonial fire and weather forecast which has been given by Crim each year for most of his life. He has been making the public forecast since 1952, but has been making a private forecast of weather conditions since 1923.

Wind on Saturday morning was from the southwest and blowing to the northeast, indicating that the rain this year will be over a larger area than that of last year and hail will be light, although we can expect some damaging hail before the year is over, Crim says. Area farmers should keep their irrigation well motors well oiled and in running condition this year, according to Crim, who says they will be much in demand before the summer is over.

The reading this year is in contrast to that of last year when Crim predicted the best crop year since 1941 and similar to those of 1913, 1931, 1941 and 1947. Irrigation wells got more rest last year than they had in many a moon, according to Crim. Such will not be the case this year, so be prepared for some "dry weather."

"Indian John" was taught the art of reading smoke signals by his father, who had been taught by the Indians themselves. Legend has it that a tepee-shaped fire burning at sunrise on March 22, will give of signals of "good" or "bad" crop year in wind direction and the direction the smoke carries. If the wind is from the north or northeast and carries the smoke south or southwest, the crop will be average; however, if the wind is from the west, southwest, or south, a "poor or at least only fair" crop is in store, and that is what was indicated by the reading on Saturday morning.

Although one of the largest snows of the year had been in evidence only a few days before, Saturday morning was warm with a scattering of light clouds in the sky, when Crim took his annual reading. Wood for the ceremonial fire had been gathered by Crim and several of his grandchildren on Friday afternoon, therefore everything was in readiness when the sun peeked over the horizon at 6:56 Saturday morning.

Prior to the annual weather forecast, family members, friends and others in attendance were served doughnuts and coffee by Mrs. Crim, assisted by the Crim daughters and daughters-in-law.

Come rain, snow, hail, sleet or sunshine, Crim will be on hand next March 22 (barring some unforeseen incident) to make his annual weather prediction.

"INDIAN JOHN" Crim takes a last look at the wood shaped in the form of a tepee to see that everything is in order before lighting the fire which gave off the signals for the annual weather forecast Saturday morning.

Women of the United Pentecostal Church of Texico will serve Mexican dinners at the old Woman's Club building, Tuesday, April 1. The noon meal will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. and the evening meal will be served from 6-8 p.m.

Price of the meal, which includes two enchiladas, one taco and a beverage, is $1.25. Pie is 25¢ per serving.

Brother Of Local Man Dies

Funeral services were held from Sherwood Mortuary Wednesday morning for James T. Halle, 74, brother of D. C. Halle of Farwell. Dr. Carl Scott officiated and burial was in Mission Gardens, Clovis.

Mr. Halle, an employee of Houston Lumber Company, had been a resident of Clovis since 1921. He passed away at Clovis Memorial Hospital Monday.

"LOOK CHILDREN, see how the wind is blowing the smoke to the northeast indicating that only a fair year is in store for farmers," said Indian John Crim as he read the smoke signals from the ceremonial fire Saturday morning. Waiting anxiously for the forecast were Cindy Crim, Vickie Crim, Kim Bray, Lesley Curtis, and Greg Crim, all grandchildren, and Mrs. J. W. Crim and Jace Ensor and a friend, who had gone to the Crim farm for the annual forecast for the first time.

God's Purposes

If you were having a picnic at the lake at approximately this spot, you might say, "Well, why did the engineers leave those trees in the water when they made this lake? They create such an eyesore. I can see no purpose in it." Yet, fishermen tell us that the fish love those old tree stumps and roots and that you can almost always find fish swimming in the dark recesses around and between these trees.
So many times we question God's wisdom in allowing some things to be and other things to come to pass. But God is good and his purposes are wise. The very thing that seems useless to us, might make us marvel if we could see with Heaven's eyes.
As Isaiah reminds us, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."
But he also wants us to know that his thoughts are many toward us and that everything works toward our good and our salvation. If we had no conflicts, and no questions, we would never have the opportunity to step out on faith.
Come to church Sunday and learn of God, his purposes, and the unsearchable riches of his love.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Story Begins In Korea Continues In Texico

By Ruby Goforth

A story that began ten years ago in Seoul, Korea, had another chapter, written last week when Little Tammy Lewis celebrated her tenth birthday. Tammy was adopted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Lewis, when she was six weeks old. However she did not get to the States until she was almost six months old.

Upon receiving word that Tammy was arriving in the States, Mrs. Lewis went to Portland, Ore., where she waited for three weeks, until the big day when Tammy finally arrived. Mrs. Lewis said "There was one hundred babies going to adoptive parents that day; mine was next to the last and I was scared to death they were going to run out of babies before I got mine."

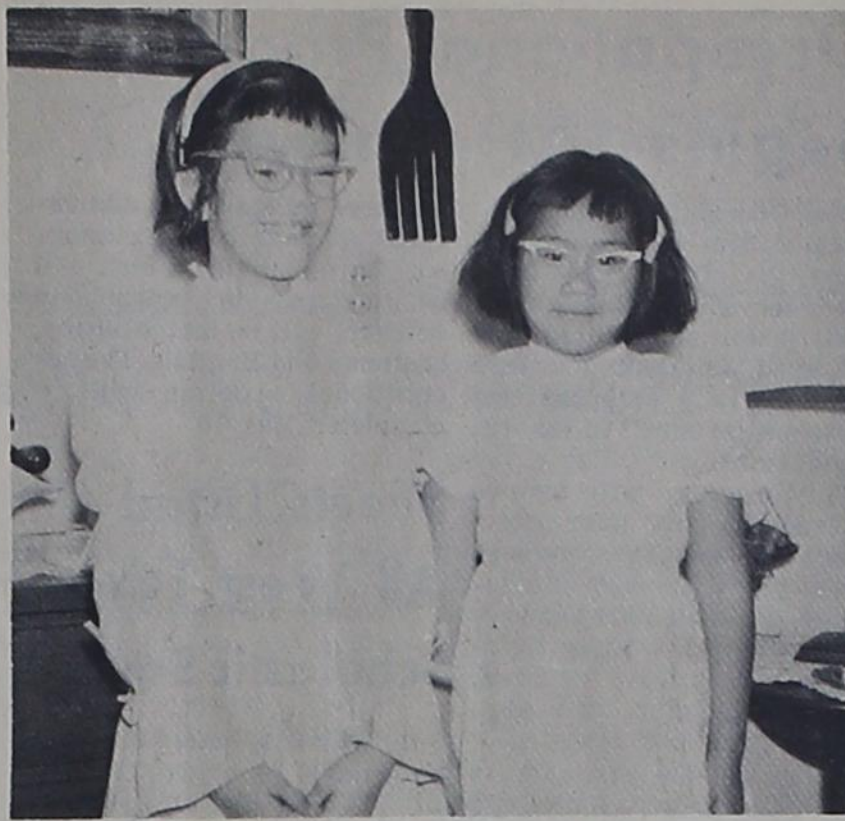

Being able to adopt Tammy by proxy made the procedure relatively simple. Through a lawyer, all arrangements were made and Tammy was legally theirs before she arrived here.

Such was not the case two years later, when the Lewises decided to adopt a baby sister for Tammy. The laws had been changed and they were not allowed to legally adopt Brenda until they had kept her for two years. These two years did not count as the time one must live in the United States before obtaining citizenship. Therefore another two years as a resident in the States were required before their second daughter became a citizen.

Both girls were born in Seoul, Korea, but are sisters by adoption only. Although they are as "American as apple pie," they are being raised to be proud of their Korean heritage.

They are already seasoned world travelers, having lived in Korea, Guam, Florida and New Mexico. The only place they haven't gone with their father is DeNang, South Vietnam, where he is now serving.

Tammy, age ten, is a fourth grade student at Texico, and Brenda is eight years old and in the second grade. They are enjoying living in the same town with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis.

THOROUGHLY AMERICAN are Tammy and Brenda Lewis, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Lewis, even though they were born in Seoul, Korea.

BIRTHDAY PARTY -- Helping to celebrate the tenth birthday of Tammy Lewis are Donna Bradley, Carol Anderson, Rosie Stewart, Debbie Hendrix, Odessa Anderson, Terry Cooper, Tammy and Brenda Lewis.

Inspection Deadline Approaches

"With the April 15 deadline for obtaining inspection stickers drawing near, only 31 per cent of the registered vehicles in Parmer County have been inspected," stated Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

A total of 8420 vehicles are registered in Parmer County but only 2610 had been inspected by March 1.

"Unless there is a rapid increase of inspections, long waiting lines will be forming at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches. The authorized inspection stations are ready and capable of handling the inspection of Texas registered vehicles if owners will not wait until a few days before the deadline," Johnson added.

"Any driver operating a vehicle on public roads after April 15 that is required to be inspected will be operating in violation of the law," Johnson said. Captain Johnson called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program in 1951, vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 13 per cent to three per cent.

Johnson said, "The purpose of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Program is to discover any maladjustment which might become a link in a cycle of events leading to an accident and, by removing the link, prevent the accident."

Occupational Program Begins At Farwell

The Occupational-Information program for the Farwell School got off to a good start last week when James Chadwick, junior and amateur artist, used his talents to create a display emphasizing "science careers" in the high school library.

The program will involve dissemination of information in two one-hour sessions each week with the use of filmstrips, tapes, lectures and research projects under guidance of Charles Turner, school counselor, and Mrs. Lenora Tatum, librarian.

Object of the program is to acquaint sophomores and juniors with the world of work, help them understand occupational grouping associated with regular academic program of the school, and provide motivation to explore careers in order to make a realistic decision in relation to their occupational choice.

During the coming weeks different fields of work will be explored by the group and various displays will be arranged. Career fields which will be explored in addition to science, will be mathematics, business and English. The occupational program will be completed May 16.

Sheets Listed All West Texas Scholastic Squad

Kyle Sheets, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheets and a senior at Farwell High School, has been named to the All West Texas Academic Basketball team for Class A schools. Nominations for the teams were made from the more than 400 high schools in the 132-county area covered by West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

In order to be eligible for nomination to the teams a student had to be classified as a senior, maintain much better than average grades and must have been selected to represent his school on an all-district team.

WTCC President King stated, "We feel that exceptional academic achievement in addition to athletic ability should be recognized and encouraged in West Texas high schools. Too often there is too much honor bestowed for athletic achievement without regard to scholastic attainment."

Occupational-Information program for Farwell High School students got off with a "bang" this week as James Chadwick, amateur artist and a junior in the school, created this display in the high school library, emphasizing the "Science Career field."

Kyle, who has been an honor student throughout his high school years, maintains a 93.3 average, on the highest averages for boys making the All West Texas Scholastic squad from Class A schools.

NURSERY NEWS

By Alvin Woodburn
Garden Center Nursery
Clovis, N.M.

Can you afford to burn the dead grass on your lawn and yard? Well, it doesn't take too long; matches are not too expensive. But don't be too shook if you happen to burn some good plants, trees, shrubs and, some "burners" have even been known to take his house, fence, and/or other buildings along with the accumulated dead grass.

The abundant grass now under attack didn't just happen. This situation is one of our own making and to solve it, we should look back to last summer to see why we wanted so much growth in the first place. True, we wanted the yard to look fresh and green. This is an area in which lawn fertilizer people have done considerable work on, and to be honest, have only scratched the surface of what needs to be done.

Grass that has all the ingredients that it needs will look fresh and green. How it thrives and produces depends upon its diet. Bermuda grass, for instance, will give real good results without too much top growth if we will condition our soil, water properly, and use the plant food it needs to produce the effect we want. The same grass, planted as a forage crop for livestock, will need a plant food high in nitrogen and balanced with some of the other elements. To cut down on the hay produced, we should cut down on the nitrogen and pay more attention to the other elements, such as iron, sulfur, manganese and some that maybe we don't even know of yet.

Then, there is blue grass which needs—but then, we want a good blue grass yard anyway. This grass brings about a somewhat artificial situation, in that we know full well that we do not have everything here that blue grass needs. We have learned to control the soil elements and moisture content and we might control the humidity just above the blades of grass, but there again, the end would cost more than we would like to spend. The second best way is to hit upon a condition that we can live with and one which the grass will tolerate.

Navyman Commended On Achievement

Wayne Watts, husband of Mrs. Wanda Raye (Burriss) Watts was recently graduated from the Advanced Safety Equipment Course at the Naval Base in Memphis, Tenn., with highest scholastic honors, according to information received from his commanding officer.

In his letter to Mrs. Watts the commander said "Your husband's accomplishment should be a source of great pride to you. The course which he has completed includes many phases of instruction, including aircraft maintenance and material management, corrosion control, aircraft pressurization, air conditioning, engine bleed systems, gaseous and liquid oxygen systems, ejection and canopy systems, inspections, and line operations." The Commander added "all of these phases of aircraft maintenance play an important part in the safe and efficient operation of naval aircraft and it is men like your husband who will keep our Navy the greatest force for peace in the world."

The Watts family were recently here for a short visit with Mrs. Allie Burriss. They were enroute to California for a new assignment. Navyman Watts is a son of Mmes. C. C. Christian, Charles Turner and Joe Helton were in Santa Fe attending a meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Methodist Churches last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watts of Albuquerque, formerly of Texico. He is a graduate of Texico High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Actkinson from Morton were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Martin over the weekend. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Actkinson of Muleshoe.
