House Passes Anti-Strike Case Measure

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The house today passed 257 to 135 the hotly-disputed case bill to curb and seek settlements of labor strife.

Final action came on a roll call vote, sending the far-reaching strike control legislation to the senate. There, its foes predict it will meet tough sledding.

Just before the conclusive ballot, members shouted down a motion by Rep. Baldwin (R-NY) to send the bill back to the labor committee for further study.

The measure, by Rep. Case (R-SD), won tentative approval late yesterday, 197-115.

But the clinching vote was delayed until today when Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich) insisted that the lengthy, much-amended bill be read to the house in its entirety.

The case proposal, as it now stands, would:

- 1. Create a federal mediation board with authority to step into major labor disputes and forbid strikes or lockouts for 30 days.
2. Permit wide use of court injunctions in enforcing the cooling off period, preventing violence or insuring movement of perishable goods.
3. Provide for civil suits against either labor or management for breaking contracts.
4. Outlaw violence in picketing by either side.
5. Ban boycotts used to force disputants to come to terms.
6. Deny employe status to unions of supervisory workers.

Case's backers—a powerful coalition of republicans and southern democrats—were clearly in control of the voting on more than a score of suggested modifications and substitutes.

Opponents—mainly close friends of organized labor—fought the plan bitterly.

Steel Settlement Awaited By Auto Strike Mediators

DETROIT, Feb. 7 (AP)—White top United Auto Workers leaders met other CIO chiefs in Washington today, special federal mediator James F. Dewey, heading negotiations aimed at settlement of the 79-day General Motors strike, continued to expect news from the nation's capitol "to speed this thing up."

President's Steel Formula Ready For Release Soon, He Tells Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—President Truman said today he hoped to have a formula ready in a day or two to halt the steel and other big strikes.

Responding to questions at a news conference, the president said the formula, under consideration is not a completely new wage-price plan, but rather one for meeting the situation the nation is faced with now.

Japanese Issue In UNO Council

LONDON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council, its first crisis passed with the solution of the Russian-British dispute over Greece, moved on today to consideration of the Soviet-Ukraine charge that British troops in Indonesia were endangering the peace.

The 11-nation council was called into session at 5 p. m. (11 a. m. CST) and the first item on the agenda was the Ukrainian complaint.

In the background of the Indonesian controversy, however, was the Soviet Union's policy calling for the independence of colonial peoples.

Despite the difficulties of the Indonesian case, the council faced it with one distinct advantage, and that was the experience they had gained in settling the Greek dispute without splitting the unity of the big powers.

P-TA Council To Back Legislation For Lunchroom

Parent-Teacher association members were urged to contact their representatives and senators concerning the school lunch bill to be debated in the house in two weeks. Mrs. J. E. Brigham, president of the local council, urged such action at the meeting of the P-TA council Wednesday afternoon.

The bill concerns giving permanent legislation to the school lunchroom program, and members were warned that unless such a measure is effected, many of the lunchrooms might be discontinued.

The nominating committee was elected to include Mrs. W. E. Wright, Mrs. H. W. Smith and Mrs. Robert Hill.

Mrs. Robert Hill, district chairman, attended the district board meeting at San Angelo last week, and the spring conference was scheduled there for March 26-27.

Reports from the local units were made by Mrs. H. G. Keaton, Mrs. W. E. Wright, Mrs. E. O. Hicks, Mrs. H. H. Rutherford.

Mrs. Wilson Asks Donations For Book

Mrs. W. G. Wilson Jr., defense council chairman, has compiled during the war a scrapbook of pictures and clippings concerning the men and women in service from the First Presbyterian church.

On completion, Mrs. Wilson plans to present the book to the church as a record of its contribution to the armed services. She urged that all members of the Presbyterian church who have had friends or family in the service contribute all pictures and clippings which they have that could be used in the book.

Beware of PIN-WORMS

Medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and adults are victims of Pin-Worms.

Watch for the warning signs, especially the embarrassing, nagging rectal itch. After centuries of Pin-Worm distress a really effective way to deal with them has been established through JAYNE'S P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets give satisfaction or your money back. So why take chances on Pin-Worms! If you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for P-W and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Intermediate Girls Sunday School Class Has Valentine Social

Members of the Intermediate girls' class of the First Methodist church were entertained at a party Tuesday afternoon by their teacher, Betty Jo Glenn, in her home.

The Valentine theme was followed in games and contests.

The red and white color scheme was carried out in refreshments with white cakes decorated with red hearts and arrows. Plate favors were nosegays of red paper hearts tied with white ribbons.

Those attending were June Cook, Mona Moad, Wanda Taylor, Velma Bly, Barbara Foster, Madalyn Guess, Doris Ann Stephens and the hostess.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back slurring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

What It Means

THE CONTROL OF GERMAN INDUSTRY

By SIGRID ARNE
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7. (AP) — Shortly, the sort of Germany which may emerge for the future should become clear.

Sometime soon the Allied Control Council in Berlin is expected to issue the reparations account to be charged Germany, listing the industrial equipment to be taken from Germany and revealing the industry it may keep.

The Council already has agreed that Germany, which produced 22,000,000 tons of steel in 1938, may only turn out 5,800,000 tons a year, with capacity limited to 7,500,000 tons.

This cut will close down dozens of manufacturing plants that turned out machines for export. But it is believed, there will be enough steel to permit the Germans to turn out what machines they need for their peacetime use.

Things to Come
The initial directive sent to Gen. Eisenhower, then commander of the US zone of occupation in Germany, is considered by some economic observers as an indication of the industries Germany will lose, at least during occupation.

Prevent manufacture of arms, ammunition, war implements, aircraft and parts, merchant ships, synthetic oil and rubber, aluminum and magnesium.

Prohibit research — except that necessary to public health — and remove all laboratory equipment needed for war.

The directive also indicates the industries Germany may be permitted to keep, but with capacities only large enough to supply her own needs.

Iron and steel, chemicals, non-ferrous metals, machine tools, radio and electrical equipment, automotive vehicles, heavy machinery and parts.

The State Department has said that Germany may be permitted to turn out a limited amount of metals, machinery and chemicals for export, under Allied Control.

Beyond the Control Council's agreement on German steel, no other definite industrial figures have been announced.

ISLAND OF SARK. (AP) — The tranquility of Sark, one of the smaller English channel islands, which was rudely upset by motor vehicles during the war, will be restored by an act of Sark's parliament.

Modern St. Pat Chases Out Cars
The island's pre-war law forbidding the importation of automobiles and trucks will be renewed when British troops have departed, and motor cars will be banished forever, in the words of the Dame of Sark, Mrs. Sybil Hathaway.

State Department announcements indicate this American attitude:
1. Germany should be allowed to build up some peacetime industries well enough so that she may begin to export and thereby collect enough foreign exchange to buy what she won't be permitted to produce.

2 Her peacetime industries should be so controlled that Germans will live no better than average continental Europeans.

Secretary of State Byrnes has said Germany may reach this European average by 1948.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or nearby passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 16 million of kidney troubles flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

ROCKET SNAKES CLEARED PATH OF YANKS AT ANZIO

'LIVE' SNAKE—The Army's anti-mine snake, an exploding belt, skims (above) across a test field. Scientists show (right) how the projecting rocket is attached.

PINTO, West Va., Feb. 6 (AP)—Exploding "snakes," propelled along the ground by rockets, ran interference for American invaders in the assault on German positions at Anzio.

This was disclosed with the unveiling of details of an ingenious device developed by military and civilian scientists during the war for clearing wide paths through territory heavily infested with anti-personnel mines.

The device is known as the "anti-personnel mine clearing snake." It was developed by the Army Engineer Corps and by scientists of the National Defense Research Committee. The NDRC group did its share of the work at its ballistics laboratory here at Pinto in the Allegheny mountains.

The "snake" consists of a series of magnesium strips approx. 1/2 inch wide and 100 feet long. Between these strips are clamped two 100-foot strings of explosive cartridges—a total of 60 pounds of explosive.

At the front, the strips of magnesium are bolted to a steel ski—shaped like the front of a ski—which enables the "snake" to skim over rough terrain.

A rocket is attached to the base of the ski-shaped "head" of the snake, and the rocket furnishes the propelling power.

The rocket is ignited by remote control and the explosive-laden snake goes skimming along the ground toward the mine field. At the end of a predetermined length of travel, the explosive is detonated by means of a cable attached to the rear of the charge. The explosion clears a path 20 feet to 30 feet wide and 100 feet long through the mine field.

The Army engineer corps said the device was used with "good" effect at Anzio where the Germans had planted mines thickly on the beaches.

But the engineers say use of the "snake" was limited because "it explodes with a tremendous bang and would destroy the element of surprise in certain situations."

REPATRIATES JAM WARSAW AMONG RUINS

AP Newsfeatures

WARSAW, Poland—War-ravaged Warsaw's population has increased 300,000 in the last four months, and the steady tide of humanity continues to sweep into the capital.

The big influx of Polish repatriates from Soviet Russia and western European countries has given government officials a double-barreled headache. They explain they had trouble enough trying to find shelter for the 400,000 people already in Warsaw, but now with 800,000 more, their job of finding housing facilities borders upon the impossible.

Warsaw's pre-war population was 1,300,000. Officials believe that total again will be reached within six months if the present trend continues.

It is the government's plan to send most of the repatriates into Poland's new western territories and thus give Warsaw a better chance to rebuild while simultaneously developing the lands acquired from Germany. In the meantime, however, the government does have to try to find living space for the tens of thousands who have to stay in Warsaw for weeks or months before they move on.

Gratitude On Peleliu

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Democracy is appreciated on Peleliu island, the US Treasury learned when Gen. F. C. Rogers, Marine commander there, forwarded a gift of $100, the life savings of an island resident who wanted to "help."

Rogers wrote: "Enclosed herewith is a money order for one hundred ($100) dollars made in favor of the Treasurer of the United States.

"This sum was delivered to the Island Commander by a native who stated that he wished to contribute to the funds of the United States. The donor, LUBUAGE, was born on the island of Yap and is now employed by the Palau Islands Military Government Unit at a wage of forty (40) cents per day. During his spare time he makes and sells souvenir models of native canoes. The proceeds of these sales plus his daily wage have been combined to make up his donation. When questioned as to the reason for this donation, his reply, made through an interpreter, was: 'American government good. I wish to help.'

"It is believed that this gift which includes every cent owned by Lubeage, is unique even among the long list of voluntary contributions to the United States Government.

"It is requested that appropriate acknowledgement of this contribution be sent to Lubeage (No. 161) in care of the US Navy Military Government, Palau Islands."

An engraved citation has been derived from "moneta," an attribute of the Roman goddess Juno, because the ancient Roman mint was established in the temple of Juno Moneta.

LUBUAGE sent to Lubeage. It reads: "In recognition of the patriotic and generous donation made to the United States, this citation is awarded to Lubeage." (Signed) FRED M. VINSON, Secretary of the Treasury

Pensioner, War Vet, Five Children Among 33 Persons Evicted From Home

DALLAS, Feb. 7 (AP)—Thirty-three persons, including a 70-year-old woman living on an old-age pension, a Pacific war veteran and five children, were evicted from their possessions from a two-story frame rooming house late yesterday afternoon.

Few of them knew where they would spend the night, as they watched a moving crew directed by sheriff's deputies carry their last chairs and clothing from the house and stack it in a rick on the sidewalk.

Mrs. Ona Williamson, landlady, who was evicted along with her lodgers, said that she had been notified some four months ago before the house was purchased that it would have to be vacated.

Sheriff Bill Decker said further notice was served 20 days ago. "I didn't think they would do it, not with the housing problem what it is," Mrs. Williamson told a reporter.

Tenants interviewed said they had not been notified of the eviction until the sheriff's office sent notices Tuesday that the lodgers would be moved out yesterday.

Mrs. William Hall, the 70-year-old pensioner, who descended the steps on the arm of her son, George Bridger, said she will ill when she moved to the house to be near her son this winter.

She said she would spend the night at the home of a granddaughter, but her son and his wife, who also were evicted, said they had no place to go.

Patrol Leader's Action Saves Lives Of Fliers
UTICA, N. Y. — The crews of five Royal Canadian Airforce planes were safe as the result of prompt action on the part of 16-year-old Senior Patrol Leader Russell Price, Jr., of Troop 16 here, who flagged the pilots to an emergency landing in a snowstorm with his Boy Scout flashlight.

Scout Price sensed trouble when he heard the planes fly low over his home. He grabbed the three-cell flashlight and guided the planes to the ground.

The pilots explained they were with a formation of ten planes en route from Picton, Ontario, to Miami, Fla. The other five landed safely at Rome Army Air field, fifteen miles away.

Majors Hiking Gate Fee; Cost Of Drills High

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Feb. 7. (AP)—One reason why some major league baseball clubs are planning to increase admission prices is the cost of trying out the returning service men who had been tossed helter-skelter into the defense lists of the survivors when a lot of minor clubs folded up during the war.

Baseball law says they must be kept for 30 days of spring training or 15 days during the regular season unless the players themselves ask to be released.

Good Advice Dept. From the Center Ossipee, N. H. "Carroll County Independent" People are reminded that this is the snow train season and on week-ends and holidays you are liable to meet a snow train at any time on any crossing. A snow train will kill you just as dead as a regular train.

School Children Involved In Oil Ownership Suit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7. (AP)—Texas' Attorney General Grover Sellers today had dealt Texas school children into the controversy over ownership of tidelands. Testifying yesterday before the Senate Judiciary committee in Washington, he declared: "So far as Texas is concerned, the real parties at interest are 15 million and a half school children whose public free school system over the years has become so dependent upon the mineral development of Texas' lands."

The committee is studying legislation to surrender to the states any federal claim to ownership of the tidelands and submerged lands beneath bays, harbors and navigable rivers. The legislation has passed the House.

For over 100 years, the State of Texas through its legislature, has claimed the boundary of the state as being at least three leagues out in the Gulf of Mexico," Sellers declared.

The title to the submerged land within the three-league limit has been consistently asserted without any protest or objection from the United States and the minerals in the submerged lands have been dedicated to the permanent school fund."

Texas Sellers pointed out, fixed its boundaries by agreement with Mexico and reserved its public lands when it came into the union.

Federal officials have testified against the measure, basing their claim to the lands, frequently rich in oil, partly on the basis of retaining an oil reserve for the nation.

Sellers threatened a long court fight if the government succeeds in claiming the lands.

"If it be sound policy to confirm the states these property rights which have been allowed to remain unchallenged for a century and a half; if it be sound policy to say to the executive department of the government that there shall not be a multiplicity of expensive interminable litigation with each state, then the members of the Senate should join the House action and pass the bill," he declared.

Negro, White GI's In Fight At Dance

WICHITA FALLS, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Wichita Falls Record News reported that white and negro soldiers were involved in a brief disturbance last night during a dance at Sheppard Field.

The newspaper said the disorder followed attempts of negro soldiers to cut-in on white soldiers dancing with 100 white girls, from the Wichita Falls USO club.

Asked for comment, Lt. H. L. T. Frost, public relations officer at the army air force field, told the newspaper that there had been a disturbance and that the principals were being questioned by the Sheppard Field provost marshal.

AUSTIN, Feb. 7. (AP)—Training schools for food handlers are being conducted in many parts of Texas by the State Health Department as a part of a vigorous campaign to prevent spread of communicable diseases which might be transmitted by foods, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, has announced. The training schools consist of elementary courses in bacteriology, communicable diseases, medical zoology, foods, disinfection, sterilization, personal hygiene and sanitation. Dr. Cox said. The State Health Department will book the schools-upon request of the director of local health units.

Babies Provide 3-Corner Flag For Transport

AP Newsfeatures
PEARL HARBOR—"Homeward-bound" pennants vary in size. The old tradition is that each foot of bunting represents one of the ship's members. A blue star in a field of white, flown from the top of a mast, represents an officer aboard. In ships where the number of the crew is large, several pennants may be flown.

The USS Dickman recently went home. Sea-dogs of old may have winced had they seen her three-cornered "flags" fluttering in the breeze, but Capt. F. A. Leamy and his men took it all in stride.

The Dickman even took a heavy squall in stride—not the squall signifying a tropical storm but the squall made by 16 babies.

Carrying 4,328 military personnel and 600 civilian passengers, the Dickman found many of the women had babies in the diaperable age. The officers and men collected 1,000 diapers for free distribution to the mothers.

No one asked how so many had been collected. The Navy simply proved itself equal to a crisis unique in naval history. It was estimated that because of the lack of washing facilities for diapers 1,000 would be needed.

So, the Dickman headed for home proudly flying in the place of the usual colorful bunting, a pennant of 16 freshly laundered diapers.

Pennies From Heaven Make Nickel Puzzle

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—The theory of relativity must have something to do with the four-year take from Newark's parking meters. By actual count there were 4,904,770 nickels. The take in dollars and cents was $245,278.98. Public safety director John B. Keenan isn't very upset about the profit of $38.48. What bothers him is the odd change involved. It means that some good citizens tried—and succeeded—in putting pennies in the nickel machine.

The American tanker fleet now consists of 763 vessels of 11.4 million tons, an increase of 250 per cent in tonnage as compared with the prewar fleet.

Feather Bed Makers: Here's Your Man

FORT ATKINSON, Wis. (AP)—Ernie Hausen isn't even mildly concerned over the news that a wonderful new machine has been built to remove feathers from chickens five times faster than by hand.

Ernie is the world's champion chicken-picker. He can do the job with his hands in three and one-half seconds. He's 60 years old now and has been meeting all challenges for 20 years. He picks chickens by the hundreds just to keep in practice. He'll do it blindfolded or wearing handcuffs.

Hausen dips the chickens in 164-degree water, quickly runs his large, powerful fingers across the wings, from the tips inward; does the same with the legs, finally peels the feathers from the back and breast. Suddenly the bird is as bare as a billiard ball. It doesn't have to be singed. He tells of picking 1,472 birds in seven hours and 45 minutes in a contest.

The length of the Panama Canal from shore line to shore line is 40.27 miles and from deep water in the Atlantic to deep water in the Pacific it is 50.72 miles.

Sentimentality On Valentine Day Excuse For Frilly Party Decorations

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

A party for "the girls" on Valentine's Day is surely indicated, because there are few days when the decorations can be so unashamedly frilly and sentimental. Bring out your prettiest cloth. If you're lucky enough to have two Irish linen ones, by any chance, why not tint one a faint bluish pink? It will look lovely with your very best silver, china and crystal, and the prettiest "sentimental" flowers you can find—like sweetheart roses and daisies, set off by a bit of heather. If you haven't two cloths, though, perhaps you'd rather keep your one a gleaming white. It'll look beautiful that way, too.

The refreshments for this party can match the day.

Valentine Tea Cakes
1-2 cup butter or fortified margarine
1-4 cup sugar
3-4 cup honey or light molasses
2 eggs
2 cups enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
or
1-8 teaspoon powdered anise
3-4 cup milk (about)

Cream butter or margarine with sugar. Add honey gradually. Beat until fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating hard after each addition. Sift together the dry ingredients; add alternately with the liquid, about 1-3 of each at a time. If necessary, add 2 or 3 additional tablespoons of milk to make a drop batter. Grease little heart-shaped tea cake pans and fill.

Demobilization Rings Wedding Bells

LONDON, (AP) British girls got the husbands they waited for, reports the Ministry of Health. Since the troops started returning for demobilization, weddings have boomed. Tabulations show that in July, August and September 1945 there were 118,723 marriages—36,421 more than the same period of 1944.

Herring Boon

each 2-3 full. Bake in quick oven (375 degrees) about 20 minutes. Turn out on rack to cool. Frost with "Water Icing" or with "Jelly Frosting." Makes 2-3 dozen tea cakes.

Note: If you have no small heart-shaped tea cake pans, then bake the batter in an oblong cake pan (paper lined and greased), in 350 degree oven about 45 minutes. Turn out on rack to cool. Then cut into heart shapes with a cookie cutter and frost. Use the trimmings of this cake for a crumb pudding dessert next day: 1 cup cake scraps cut into neat pieces; pour over 1 cup milk mixed with 1-2 eggs. Bake in greased baking dish until set. Serve hot or cold.

Water Icing
1-2 cup confectioners' sugar
Water
Candy coloring
Add water slowly to sugar, mixing to smooth, thin icing. Color as desired, pink, green, yellow, etc. Spread over cakes.

Jelly Frosting
1-2 cup tart jelly (apple, currant, or any desired)
2 marshmallows
1 egg white
Dash salt
Turn jelly into medium sized mixing bowl; set over pan of boiling water. Cut marshmallows quite small (scissors are handy for this); add to jelly. When both jelly and marshmallows are softened, add egg white and salt. Beat with rotary beater until frosting fluffs high. Remove from over heat; continue beating until frosting stands in peaks. Spread over tea cakes and use as topping for soft custard.

Frosted Custard With Jelly Meringue
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon sugar
4 egg yolks
1 quart milk
2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine
3 tablespoons honey
1-8 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Jelly Meringue
Mix cornstarch with sugar; stir in several tablespoons cold milk to make a paste. Add egg yolks; mix well. Heat remainder of milk, butter or margarine and honey to scalding. Add to egg mixture. Return to saucepan. Stir over low heat or boiling water until rich and creamy and the cornstarch is well cooked (takes at least 5 minutes of cooking). Remove from heat. Add salt and vanilla. Chill. To serve, pour into serving dish and top with crests of Jelly Meringue. Decorate with Jelly Hearts cut from slices of firm jelly. For Jelly Meringue, follow the same recipe as for Jelly Frosting, omitting the marshmallows.

1 cup milk
3 tps. baking powder
1/2 tsp. almond extract
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. lemon extract
1/4 cup shortening

Sift flour, measure; sift again with baking powder and salt. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Add unbeaten egg whites one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add dry ingredients, a small amount at a time, alternately with milk beginning well after each addition; add flavorings. Bake in three well-greased 8-inch layer cake pans in moderate oven (350°F) 30 minutes or until done. Ice with boiled white frosting. Serves 12 to 16.

MONARCHY GAINS FEARED BY REPUBLICANS IN ITALY

AP Newsfeatures
 ROME, Feb. 7. (AP)—In the crazy-quilt complexity of postwar Italian politics one party stands alone and aloof with an iron-clad program. That is the Republican Party, one of the oldest political groups in Italy with traditions going back to its great 19th century apostle Giuseppe Mazzini.
 The Republicans — an estimated 250,000 of them — are led today by Rinaldo Pacciardi, a grey-haired, handsome man in his late 40's who gained world renown during the Spanish Civil War by commanding the Italian Garibaldi Brigade against Mussolini's Fascist troops.
 Under Pacciardi, who returned to Italy two years ago after 18 years exile in Switzerland, France and the United States, the Republicans have steadfastly refused to participate in any of the provisional regimes.

Italian people decide through elections.
 But the "truce" — as it operates — is not a truce at all, the Republicans declare. They point to the pact that Prince Umberto, lieutenant-general of the realm, exercises the functions of chief of state, designating premiers, signing decrees.

Action Squads Feared
 Moreover, they add, the monarchists have gained vital time to defend themselves through large-scale propaganda and by forming action squads to decide the issue by force, if necessary.

The Republicans want a Swiss-type Republic, nationalization of large industries, agrarian reform.

The party publishes four dailies in Rome, Milan, Genoa and Palermo and 40 weeklies. The Rome daily, La Voce Republican, edited by Pacciardi, has a circulation of 35,000. Pacciardi, who is noted for his terse, trenchant style, is one of the bitterest critics of Allied policy in Italy.

Challenge the Truce
 Cardinal objection of the Republicans to sharing power with the six anti-Fascist parties of the Committee of National Liberation is that these groups agreed to observe the Allied-imposed "truce on the monarchy."
 The "truce" pledges the provisional governments not to take any action which might prejudice the outcome of the bitter struggle for kingdom or republic until the

Enlistees, Draftees Now Entitled To Most Of Rights Of War Vets

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Do the men who enlist or are drafted now receive the same government benefits as war veterans?

education at government expense he must have served at least 90 days.

If Jones was drafted May 14, the war ended May 17, and he was discharged other than dishonorably Aug. 14—or 90 days after being drafted—he'd get one year's education.

If he was disabled between the time he was drafted and the official end of the war, he'd get the full wartime pension.

But—if he was drafted before the war ended and was disabled after the war ended, he'd get only the peacetime pension for disabled service men, which is only 75 per cent of the wartime pension.

Now take those who enlist. The law says anyone who enlists or re-enlists before Oct. 6, 1946 gets the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights, no matter when the war ends. Take an example:

Tom Smith enlists Oct. 5 and the war ends officially Oct. 7. His enlistment is—say—for three years.

Even though the war ended officially Oct. 7, two days after his enlistment, so far as Smith's GI benefits are concerned the war for him isn't officially ended till the end of his enlistment.

If he leaves the army at the end of this enlistment—which in Smith's case would be Oct. 5, 1949—he could then start claiming his benefits under the GI Bill of Rights.

So he'd get all the GI benefits which any veteran of the shooting war would get.

Take an example: Jones is drafted May 14, one day before the draft law ends. And the war happens to end officially May 17, three days after he was drafted. Can Jones claim the same kind of benefits as veterans of the war, when it was a shooting war? yes. To this extent: If he's in service only one day before the war officially ends, he gets the benefit of the GI Bill of Rights, provided he serves the required length of time before his discharge, is discharged under the right conditions, and so on.

For example: To get one year's

Area Surplus Labor Steadily Increases

A steady increase in the number of surplus workers available in the Big Spring area continued this week, the local United States Employment Service has announced.

Figures for the week ending Tuesday show 473 available, as compared to 449 for the previous week. Total job openings increased from 58 to 60 during the week.

Last week the office referred 90 to jobs and 80 were hired.

Principal demands for labor in this area at present are as follows: Two automobile mechanics; two architectural draftsmen; 10 salesmen; one general office clerk (male); two automobile top and body repairmen; five experienced linemen; one porter; 11 laborers; one cook (female); three chambermaids; five hospital workers three stenographers; two waitresses; nine maids; and one meat cutter (out of town).

US Lands Under Many Flags, First Enclave In America

There's going to be an enclave within the US. An enclave is a chunk of somebody else's territory within your own. Ours will be territory under flags other than the Stars and Stripes.

Here's the way the treaty we'll soon be signing describes this enclave—"the territory marked pink on the annexed map." Where is it? It has not been decided for sure, although the UNO has approved the recommendation of a selection committee which chose part of Greenwich and part of Westchester in Connecticut and New York.

The USA undertakes on the entry into force of this treaty to vest in the United Nations the full ownership of all land in the zone and of all buildings situated thereon at the moment of transfer."

So says the treaty prepared by the UNO Preparatory Commission for our signature. That's what will give the US its first enclave.

Feudal Europe had lots of enclaves. It was a rare King who could say "my territory extends from here to here" without crossing a few boundaries or challenging the owner of an enclave to a fight.

There are few left. Switzerland has several inside German soil right near the border. Spain has one at Lillia several miles beyond the Pyrenees frontier.

This enclave in the US will be unique in many ways. First of all it will be owned by no one nation, but by all the nations composing the corporate body of the United Nations.

In the old days, and even now, European enclaves are sometimes convenient sanctuaries for political refugees or even criminals in flight from the law of the land. A clause in the future UNO-US contract by which we cede the territory eliminates such a possibility.

UNO will also ask the US to police the boundaries of the enclave to keep people out who have no business there. There's a clause permitting the UNO permanent secretary to ask for US armed police to come into the zone when he feels it's necessary.

The League had a similar arrangement with Switzerland in Geneva.

The law of the US will apply in the UNO's enclave. "Particularly ordinary civil, and criminal law," says the treaty to be signed. That makes it tough for any promoters who might have been thinking of hanging out their sign in the enclave as a base of mail operations which would avoid our strict laws.

The US will be paid "a fair price," which is still to be fixed. Price depends on the normal property value of the property and may be OPA will have a word to say on that. Once the land is transferred the law spares UNO residents from planes zooming overhead, for the enclave's air space is described as "inviolable."

The US can't cut off either the heat, light or the telephone even should we get out of the UNO. That also is guaranteed by treaty.

Maybe, when the agreement is finally signed, there will be several enclaves. The UNO wants not only a home, but proper ground for an airport, a railroad station and an airfield on UNO territory. The contract-treaty says these need not be in the same enclave, but must be considered UNO property too.

The US can't be an Indian giver. Once the UNO enclave is sold we can't take it back again unless the UNO itself decides to go away. In that case we've got to give the UNO the "fair price" back again, plus the value of any buildings the UNO may have erected on the property.

UNO also gets the "right of passage" for its "citizens" across US territory to the enclave. If we should go to war with any of the now-united nations their nationals would be "enemies," but they'd have the right to cross our territory to get to UNO meetings.

Market Steady, But Receipts Are Lower At Livestock Sale

Market was steady Wednesday at the weekly sale of the Big Spring Livestock commission, but receipts dropped slightly from the previous week.

Approximately 650 cattle and a few scattered consignments of hogs were sold. Stock raisers from over a wide territory brought animals, some coming from as far as Alpine to the southwest and points up to 200 miles to the west.

Butcher cows sold from 9.00 to 11.00; fat bulls up to 12.00; fat cows up to 12.50; stockers up to 14.50; and butcher yearlings 14.50. All hogs sold brought ceiling prices.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—Representatives of the union and employers involved in the three-day old tugboat strike in New York harbor announced early today they had agreed to a proposal for settlement of the dispute which the union will submit to a referendum meeting tomorrow.

Details of the proposal were not disclosed.

The announcement came after an all-night conference with city officials.

Liquor Store Robber Given 35 Year Term

DALLAS, Feb. 7 (AP)—Lester Wayne Nelson, 21, charged with numerous cases of robbery in Texas, was sentenced here yesterday to 35 years in prison after pleading guilty to the robbery of two Dallas liquor stores.

His wife, Lurline Patsy Nelson, also charged with the robberies, was sentenced to five years.

The sentences imposed here will run concurrently with sentences already assessed against the pair at Texarkana, Longview and Mount Pleasant.

Editorial-- Clearing The Procedure

The supreme court recently closed the last door on hopes of Japanese General Yamashita to evade death on the gallows for any part he may have had in permitting atrocities. Although the decision involved two dissenting votes, it was a 6-2 margin and was clear-cut.

Aside from what it will do to Yamashita, the decision cleared the legal status of the Manila trials. It gave sound legal foundation to procedure which doubtless will be applied to many others just as it is being applied to General Homma now.

There are two extremes on a question of this sort. One group will hold that it is a waste of time to hold legal proceedings, that a summary execution is proper and advisable. The other group will contend that it is a far-fetched line of legalistic reasoning which will hold a top military leader responsible for the misdeeds of inferiors of whom he possibly never heard.

To take the short-cut of death without trial would be unwise. Through the medium of trials, we believe that those who so richly deserve extermination will be attended to in due time. This is far, even the Japanese have had to admit that the conduct of the trials has given the defendants fair treatment. They stand convicted on evidence rather than on the order or whim of one man or a small group of men.

Of course, the leaders can make out a pretty good case of lacking direct responsibility on the ground they had no knowledge of atrocities. On the scale that they were permitted, this is hardly plausible. Men intelligent enough to run a military machine must have been intelligent enough to know general trends. Moreover, they accepted responsibility when they accepted rank. If a military machine cannot be controlled from the top, then it is nothing.

Orders from Yamashita demanding the fair treatment of American and Filipino prisoners and of the Filipino population would have saved the lives of thousands of people. That he did not issue and demand enforcement of such a rule is alone enough to convict him.

Risky Predictions

A writer in Harper's magazine said that it was impractical for a plane to fly more than 550 miles an hour.

Before the magazine was printed someone had flown more than 600 miles an hour.

Alexander Desversky, in the Readers Digest, poo-pooed the enormous power of the atomic bomb, saying that it was pretty powerful, but not what had been cracked up to be (no pun intended).

Now, however, there's an atomic bomb 1,000 times more powerful than the one which blasted Hiroshima, says General MacArthur.

Prophets had better stick to comparatively stable things, like the weather. (Daily Oklahoman).

With The News

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP World Traveler

BRUSSELS, Feb. 7 — This is a very personal column, but I want you to meet my old friend Ernest Marechal, one of Belgium's heroes, who magnificently symbolizes the allied spirit of freedom.

I regard Marechal with deepest affection, for at the end of World War One he rescued me here in Brussels from what, to put it mildly, was a most trying predicament.

I hadn't seen him since that time—28 long years—but one of the first things Mrs. Mack and I did on arriving in the capital was to call on Marechal and his wife and daughter in their home.

Back in the last conflict Marechal many times dared death to cross the German lines into France from occupied Belgium in missions for his government, in which he was a cabinet minister.

In the present war Marechal has had a son serving as a major in the British Royal Air Force. Another lies in a Czechoslovakian grave where the Germans buried him after they had killed him by starvation and other inhuman treatment. Still, the Marechals aren't vindictive.

The first time I saw Marechal was when the armistice of World War One was just beginning to be carried out in detail. I had motored into Brussels with two British officers before the period for the evacuation of that city had arrived.

To reach the capital we had motored over miles along roads lined with cheering Belgians who heaped our car with flowers. We penetrated Brussels with much uneasiness, for many Germans were about, but it wasn't until we reached the square that we really encountered danger.

A huge crowd of Belgians closed in about our car so that we couldn't move. At that juncture a considerable number of Prussian officers came swaggering toward us, attracted by the throng and the car. We knew we were in for it unless some wholly unexpected help turned up. A little man popped up from the crowd and asked: "Can I be of service to you?"

We hastily explained our predicament and said our need was for some place to hide—and quick. With that, Marechal—for it was he—pulled a man out of the crowd and shoved him onto our running-board with a whispered order.

Well, we wound up in Marechal's own palatial home, where he hid us until the next day, when we made out getaway. That same night he acted as my guide on an expedition into the heart of Brussels, when again disaster nearly overcame us—but that's another story.

With The AEF: Chinese Resent Foreign Domination Of Tiny Macao

(Editor's Note: This is the second of three columns on the Portuguese colony of Macao.)

By IAL BOYLE

MACAO, Feb. 7 (AP)—This tiny Portuguese colony, the "Monte Carlo of the Far East" can hardly be called a thorn in the side of the Chinese government.

It is too small for that. But it is a thorn to the Chinese, who resent even having this little five-square-mile area of their country under foreign domination, just as they still resent British control of Hong Kong.

For China it would be a simple matter to throw out the Portuguese, who have dominated Macao since 1557. It is lightly garrisoned and the only Portuguese naval strength there consists of two sloops.

In the full pride of their rising nationalism, Chinese officers swagger about the streets carrying

Washington Merry-Go-Round— Army Seizes Steel Cartel Files

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Dozens of GI investigators have been working since the shooting war stopped to help win another war. This is a war against international big business, which recognized no national boundaries, which used countries only as market divisions for its products, and which at one time aided Hitler, Mussolini and Hirohito just as much as it did France and England.

What the GI investigators have uncovered in Germany is a tribute to Nazi thoroughness and to the gullibility of American big business. For what it amounts to is a world plan by which Germany expanded its industrial capacity for war while simultaneously curbing the industrial capacity of this country and other potential enemies.

And the names of the same men who have been dickered with Truman over steel—Ben Fairless, Eugene Grace, et al.—have turned up in European files as a part of the cartel which unwittingly played into the hands of the Nazis. It is a story which the leaders of the steel industry would like to forget. But the justice department hasn't forgotten it.

American participation in the steel cartel was decided upon as late as 1937—when there was no longer any doubt regarding Hitler's warlike intentions. By that time he had already invaded the Rhineland, showed his hand by sending arms to Franco, and boasted openly in speech after speech that Germany would dominate Europe.

The steel cartel files, seized by the Sherman antitrust act, reveal that S. M. Bash of Bethlehem Steel and A. G. Mundle of US Steel took the initiative in binding their companies to the cartel. Four months later an agreement to divide up world markets was reached.

Antitrust Act

The steel barons were careful about the Sherman antitrust act, however, and the minutes of the June, 1937, meeting reveal that no written agreement regarding US markets was concluded.

In February, 1938, a delegation of European steel came to the United States.

"Our representatives," the Luxembourg files showed, "obtained a very clear declaration of responsibility for the agreements from Messrs. Eugene Grace of Bethlehem Steel, Ben Fairless of US Steel, Rufus Wyr of Republic Steel, Frank Purnell of Youngstown Sheet and Tube, M. Hackett of Jones and Laughlin Steel, Charles Hook of Arco International, William Holloway of Wheeling Steel, Robert Wolcott of Lukens Steel, and Ernest Weir of the National Steel corporation (Weirton and Great Lakes Steel).

Also included in the American group were Inland Steel, Newport Rolling Mills, Pittsburgh Steel, Otis, and the Allan Wood company.

Race for War

What the steel barons agreed to was not only a division of markets but arrangements for price-maintenance. Quotas were set regarding the total production of each participating company, with fines levied against the firm if it exceeded its quota.

However, here is the payoff. The Germans always exceeded their quotas, after which they politely paid their fines and then kept on speeding their output of steel in the race for war. Meanwhile, American and British firms stayed within their quotas and kept down their war machine.

In contrast with the Germans, American firms, when they exceeded their quotas, were contrite and apologetic. For instance, here is an item from the steel cartel minutes of April 18, 1939, which reads:

"In regard to a recent shipment by the American group to Belgium, i. e., a home market, the American

Secretaries of the Navy

Many capital observers who think Harry Truman got away to a good start in picking a high-caliber cabinet are disappointed that he has not continued on that high level. The appointment of old political friends—California oil man Pauley, Mississippi comedian George Allen, and Missouri Naval Aide Vardaman—to high posts of official trust has struck a very sour note.

Some observers argue that Pauley is just as well qualified to be secretary of the navy as the man he is scheduled later to succeed—James Forrestal. Probably this is true. But any president other than Roosevelt would have a hard time getting Forrestal confirmed.

Most people have forgotten it, but the president of Bolivia complained bitterly to Roosevelt over the way Forrestal's banking firm of Dillon, Read & Company, had rammed a high-interest loan down Bolivia's throat. Thanks to a fat bribe to the Bolivian finance minister, that country was saddled with a loan which she can never repay, while unsuspecting American investors will never get back their cash. Forrestal's banking firm,

Washington— DISTRICT'S VOTING PROBLEM

By JACK SINNETT

WASHINGTON — Incidental prognostications... The President, in his annual message, urged "a greater measure of local self-government" and at least national ticket votes for the voteless citizens of the District of Columbia.

Don't expect anything more out of it than a renewed outburst of agitation by the poor, mistoverned residents of your national capital, who are the best civic example in the country today of hope springing eternal.

The President, the district's committee chairman (our "mayors" in Congress, committee members, all publicly declare for votes for district residents. Both

Broadway— 'SHOW BOAT' STILL GOOD SHOW

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK—Jan Clayton, who plays Magnolia in the new production of "Show Boat," just about the biggest hit right now on Broadway, finished her role of Julie in "Carousel" one night before she took over her new role. . . . She'd been rehearsing right along for "Show Boat," but the Theater Guild didn't have her successor ready for the "Carousel" part until then. . . . And she stepped right from one complete performance into another the first of four complete benefit performances before "Show Boat" officially opened at the Ziegfeld Theater.

"Show Boat," incidentally, is such a mammoth production that the management discovered it to be some) but the House fight may be a bitter one. Administrative pulse takers on Capitol Hill are privately reporting a noticeable slowdown in heart-beat for the British loan since congressmen came back from talking to the folks at home.

That same visit with the voters has reportedly increased considerably the congressional heartbeat in favor of holding prices down. It's considered possible now that when the question of extending price controls comes up, Administrator Chester Bowles' OPA will receive quite a few less brickbats than it would have a couple of months ago.

This doesn't mean smooth-sailing for OPA by any means. The resistance of business and merchants to government controls isn't any less. Their general argument is that the law of supply and demand will take care of prices without any interference from government. The housewives and salaried workers aren't so sure any more. What happened when the lid was taken off citrus fruit prices is being put forward as a strong argument for necessary extension of controls over the h. c. l.

While Howard Bay and Lucinda Ballard merit great praise for, respectively, their sets and costumes, the largest credit must go to Fassard Short for his superb job of lighting and general staging. . . . A perfectionist of the most patient sort, "Bobby" Short sent back the designs for one set of costumes six times before the color plates satisfied him and he had found the tint he wanted.

There are 128 persons in the cast of "Show Boat," appearing in 14 sets. . . . The total cost was just over $300,000. . . . the 1927 original, as produced by the late Flor Ziegfeld, cost $150,000, a comparative shoestring.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

By ANGUS LECESTER

High schools of both Midland and Odessa would probably send boxing teams to our village's Golden Gloves fistcuffing show this weekend but for the one-day Odessa invitational basketball tournament, which will be unraveled Saturday.

Athletes of both schools will be engrossed in the casaba meeting.

Bo Sexton, who refereed the GG scraps at Lubbock last week, may be brought in to help George Clutchee work the local fights.

Business commitments will keep Shirley Robbins, the local golf pro from attending the Texas Open golf tournament in San Antonio this weekend. Big Spring will probably be represented by Warren Cantrell, who belongs to the PGA.

Shirley was in the gallery at the Odessa country club Tuesday watching Dick Metz and Denny Shute fire sub-par to win an exhibition match from Jimmy Walkup, Midland professional, and Lloyd Watkins, Odessa assistant, 4-2.

Metz was four strokes under regulation (72) while Shute went around in 70.

There's talk of getting Odessa on the PGA tournament schedule with a $10,000 open next year.

Big Spring Country club might try for the same thing but for the fact that it has but nine holes.

The country club, incidentally, had a big turnout Sunday. If the trade can be used as a barometer, the summer business can be expected to shatter some attendance records. Included in the patronage over the weekend was a large delegation from Lamesa.

The ringer tournament at the C-C course, which is to continue throughout February, has about 12 qualifiers thus far. Some of the entries have played but didn't turn in their scores.

Jack Bentley's Abilene high school basketball Eagles are riding high in District 3AA competition but trouble is looming for the War Birds in the regional tournament later this month.

Shanton's Buffaloes, lined up to play in the District Nine tournament at Coahoma Feb. 15-16, appear to be as rugged as any club in West Texas.

The Husons have captured 26 victories in a row, have knocked over Lamesa's Tornados, 53-19, and 30-8.

Harold Graves and Bob Howard are the big guns for the Martin county club.

Bentley has let it be known that he wants his Eagles to hook up with Bulls in a practice game before the chips go down but they may not get the chance.

Phillips' 66 Oilers of Oklahoma, one of the great cage quints of the country, are booked to play the Midland AAF team in Midland Friday night.

The Bartlesville brigade has such operatives as John Freiberger, Scott McNair, Martin Nash and Wilmer Rothman in its lineup.

The Oilers recently lost a 62-45 decision to the Denver Ambrose quint, falling victim to the devastating court game of Jack McCracken and his cohorts. Ace Gruenig is also on that Denver club, incidentally.

Steers Invade Angelo Friday

Battered from pillar to post by an alert Lamesa quintet in Lamesa Tuesday, Big Spring's high school basketball Steers hit the road Friday for San Angelo and the season's initial go against the Bobcats.

The tilt was originally scheduled to be played here but switched due to a conflict in dates with the Golden Gloves boxing tournament, which begins tomorrow and continues through Saturday. Instead, the Cats will be the Bovines' guests the night of Friday, Feb. 15.

Angelo's contingent has the reputation for being one of the toughest teams in District 3AA circles. The Concho gang isn't in a class with Abilene, which has posted them twice, but it can hold its own against any other club in the loop, including Odessa and Lamesa.

The Longhorns have three games remaining on the district schedule, including two home bouts. Tuesday the resident brigade catches Lamesa in a return go here.

SHIPPERS GET TWO KANSAS CITY, Feb. 6 (AP) — Frank Lane, general manager of the Kansas City Blues of the American Association, said tonight that Irl Henderson and Alva Ernertson, both right handed pitchers with the Blues last season, have been optioned to Beaumont of the Texas league.

G'Gloves Fighters Must Sign For Show By 3 p. m. Friday

Champs Eligible For Expedition To Fort Worth

Any amateur boxer who desires to take part in Big Spring's district Golden Gloves fight tournament Friday and Saturday of this week can enter into competition if he shows up at the high school gymnasium by a o'clock Friday for the weighing-in ceremonies. Promoter Obie Bristow said this morning.

Obie says he has no way of knowing what the entry list will amount to but he expects the program to consist of eight or ten fights nightly. Fighters from such cities as Midland, Lamesa and San Angelo have already registered for the bash convention and will campaign for the eight titles in the offing along with a dozen or more local simon-pures.

Winners in all divisions will be given appropriate awards and become eligible for the trip to the state finals at Fort Worth, all expenses paid, Bristow advised.

The high school gymnasium, scene of the tournament, is expected to be filled to capacity on both Friday and Saturday nights. Members of the Big Spring Athletic association, which is ramrodding the classics, report ticket sales have been brisk. A sellout of ringside seats looms before the fight is unreeled.

Lou Baker and his co-workers spent all Wednesday afternoon putting up the ring in the field-house. Ring lights will probably be installed this afternoon.

The local scrappers have opportunity to get the feel of the ropes this afternoon, tonight and tomorrow. Heretofore, they've been limiting their drills to limbering up exercises in a makeshift gym at the Settles hotel.

Officials appointed by Bristow have been instructed to report to the gym any time after 3 p. m. tomorrow for briefing as to their duties.

Another heavyweight joined the stable Wednesday. He is Jim Watson, a University of Texas boy from Midland. A 200-pounder, he has had ring experience both in college and the service.

Directors of the show are expecting a six-man team from the Midland AAF to enter into competition here. The sextet as yet have not been identified.

Lamesa is due to be represented by at least two scrappers — a heavyweight and a lightweight — while Midland has a high school bantamweight and a 135-pounder ready in addition to the soldiers.

From San Angelo, several lightweights and at least two middleweights are due to arrive in time for the weighing-in ceremony.

Doctors, incidentally, will be on hand for that ritual to give final physicals.

Fistiana Boom Is Continuing

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP) — From the way things are going, the boxing boom this year may exceed the fondest hopes of promoters.

An associated press survey showed today gross receipts are above the comparable period in 1945. Indicative of the trend are the sellouts reported in many of the smaller clubs throughout the country.

With promoter Mike Jacobs' announcement that a $140,000 gross is virtually assured for tomorrow night's scrap between Beau Jack and Johnny Greco, six shows in Madison Square-Garden will have drawn $512,000. This compares with $365,046 for the first six garden shows of 1945, a record year.

With the big outdoor shows, including the Joe Louis-Billy Conn heavyweight title bout in June, still to come, it seems certain that the $13,000,000 gross reported by 32 states for 1945, will be exceeded this year.

Topped by the garden turnout of 18,907 who paid $108,974 for the Rocky Graziano-Sonny Horne bout, on Jan. 18, the sock game is humming overtime in New York City. Sellouts are the rule at the small clubs, such as St. Nick's, the park arena and the Broadway arena.

On Feb. 1, the largest Michigan fight crowd in years, 11,171, turned out at Detroit to watch O'Neill Bell beat the veteran Fritzie Zivic. The gross was $28,161.

Aquilla Citizenry Solidly Behind Fem Cagers, High Title Favorites

AQUILLA, Feb. 7 (AP) — This town of 300 really levels off when it comes to basketball.

The gymnasium is packed when the Cougarettes play.

There are a lot of reasons. One is that Aquilla twice has won the state high school girls' championship, has lost only one game in four years and currently is riding a 26-game victory streak.

Another reason is that it's a beauty review when the girls come onto the court.

Then, there is the coaching genius and showmanship of John P. Cox, who over a quarter of a century of tutoring girls' cage teams has taken 19 Hill county championships.

Aquilla played on an outdoor court until 1941 when its modern gymnasium was completed. That was realization of a long-cherished dream by the community.

And one thing anyone may count upon at any game played by the Aquilla girls is a packed crowd.

In 1941 the team lost to the district meet to Ennis, which went on to win the state championship. In 1942 the Cougarettes won all their games until they met Borger in the state tournament. Borger took the title. Aquilla won third place.

In 1943 there were no state championship games played because of war conditions but the Cougarettes won all their practice tilts. In 1944 Aquilla didn't lose a game and took the title. In 1945 the Cougarettes lost one practice game but won the state championship.

Tonight Aquilla goes to Itasca for the start of the Hill county girls' tournament.

Cox has coached at Aquilla for the past 18 years as well as served as superintendent of the school and during that time the Cougarettes failed only four seasons to win the county title.

Scores mean nothing to the coach. As soon as one book is filled it is thrown away, thus there are no records on the total points and number of games won by the team or scores by individual players. They just play for the love of the game, Cox stresses, with teamwork the main point.

Cox doesn't like to run up big scores on the opposition. When he sees he has a team beaten he will use second-team players in an effort to hold the count down.

The first-string this year has Audine Odum, 1945 regular; Juanita Kennedy, who played guard last season, and Edith Gerik at forwards, with Pauline Odum and Pauline Nors, 1945 regulars, and Doris June Padgett, a reserve last season, at the guards.

Oilers, Cleaners Mop Up In Fems' Bowling League, Take Top Spots

Cosden's Oilers and Hartley's Cleaners are sharing the lead in Womer's bowling league standings as result of narrow victories scored in Wednesday night play at the West Texas alleys.

The Oilers edged the powerful Twins 7-6 aggregation, 2-1, while Hartley's was cleaning up on Seven-Up by the same count.

The losing aggregations made away with most of the individual scoring honors, however. Twins finished with team high single game score of 842 while Seven-Up racked up a 2189 three-game tops.

Bruins Defeat Hosses, Aggies Bop Longhorns

Mary Ruth Dozier and Gypsy Smallwood, both of the Twins team, were individual leaders. Mary Ruth's 229 proved a solitary point better than Smallwood's best efforts were able to compile.

The Bottlers' Edna Drennan had a 520 for three games to set the pace in that department.

Standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Cosden	9	6	.600
Hartley's	9	6	.600
Twins	6	9	.400
Seven-Up	6	9	.400

Charley Parker Looking Forward To Resuming Track Career At TU

AUSTIN, Feb. 7 (AP) — Army Lieutenant Charley Parker of San Antonio, one of the state's all-time great school boy track stars, took time from his brief six-day leave en route to a west coast camp and came to Austin to look around the Memorial stadium under track, where he won much of his greatest fame.

He still intends to come back to the University of Texas," Longhorn track coach Clyde Littlefield said after his departure.

The sprinter whizzed off 50 yards while Littlefield clicked a stopwatch at 5.4. Littlefield thought that plenty good for a man who hasn't been in a track suit for two years and who has gained seven or eight pounds.

"I've wanted to coach that boy for five years," Littlefield said. "I'll be mighty glad when he gets back."

Parker enrolled in the University in 1944 but left for military service after one term. In high school he held the national AAU junior 100 and the senior 200 meter dash titles and won 52 final events in succession in three years. His best times were 9.5 in the 100 and 20.6 in the 220-yard dash at the 1943 state meet. He expects to be in the Army for another year.

Airlines Report Increase In Traffic

Substantial increases in all forms of traffic were recorded by Continental Air Lines for the year 1945 over 1944, Donald A. Duff, executive assistant in charge of traffic and sales for Continental, announced today.

Passenger traffic during 1945 showed an increase of 125 per cent over 1944, revenue passenger miles flown by the airline in 1945 total 53,649,316, as compared with 23,823,438 during the previous year. This represents an 86 per cent increase in the number of passengers carried.

Another Shortage—In Oratory, Now

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 7 (AP) — The South Carolina Bar association has postponed indefinitely its annual meeting set for Feb. 13-14 because, the executive committee explained, it had been unable to obtain a speaker for the occasion.

Barge Explosion Rocks Houston Ship Channel

HOUSTON, Feb. 7 (AP) — A blast which shot flaming, gas 500 feet into the air injured at least 15 persons, damaged a dock and several small craft in the Houston ship channel here last night.

A barge, reportedly filled with high-test gasoline, exploded and showered fire on the dock, tow tugs and four barges.

One of the tugs sank; the other was burned badly above the waterline.

Ex-President Of NY Stock Exchange Dies

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP) — Henry G. S. Noble, 86, president of the New York Stock Exchange in the first World War, died yesterday.

A member of the exchange for 56 years before his retirement in 1938, Noble was a member of a family that held a membership for more than 100 years.

Demaret, Hogan, Nelson Favored In Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 7 (AP) — Two hundred golfers moved out on Brackenridge Park course today in the pro-amateur event, warm-up to the annual Texas open which starts tomorrow.

As the field swung into preliminary play, a native of this state was considered most likely to win first money of $1,600 in the nineteenth open tournament.

There are seven Texans among the star PGA touring brigade, any one of which has the shots to fight for the title. Foremost is Byron Nelson, who has won 21 tournaments in little more than a year. Nelson is returning to the grind after being away for three weeks for a physical check-up and to attend to private business.

Jimmie Demaret, who took top money in the Tucson open; Ben Hogan, winner of the Phoenix open; Dick Metz, Lloyd and Ray Mangrum and Henry Ransom are the others hailing from Texas.

While today's pro-amateur has 200 contesting for the $375 in prizes, tomorrow's first 120 holes of the open will list only 120. The field had to be cut down in line with the PGA's new policy. So yesterday 107 amateurs and non-accredited pros contested for 18 places with the PGA touring group furnishing the other 112 without qualifying.

John Barnum, Houston amateur, led the qualifiers with a four-under-par 67. Nelson tested the course with a 70 but complained he was off on his game. "I practiced two and a half hours trying to get back on before playing the practice round," he said.

Nelson is playing in today's pro-amateur, going out shortly after noon.

No Castor Oil On Its Art Says City Hall

NEW YORK, (AP)—Castor oil is not being used to restore the $3 million collection of oil paintings in New York City's city hall, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Georg Lorber, executive secretary of the city art commission, made this solemn announcement when the Metropolitan Museum of Art protested reports that castor oil was being used in the work. He explained that castor oil was used that way many years ago, but that turpentine is the principal agent employed now.

Shot Up In War; Shot Full Of Learning

FORT LEWIS, Wash., (AP)—Pfc. Gustaf A. Carlson of Coeur d'Alene, Ida., is regarded as the "prize specimen" of the information and education section of the Madigan convalescent center.

He had not finished his first year of high school when he went overseas. During six months convalescence here from two wounds he had become a full-fledged high school graduate and has 24 semester hours to his credit to enter college with when he is discharged.

Vets Build a Future

OFFICE WORK—A group of Oklahoma City ex-GIs, who formed a building firm, here clear away an office site.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 6. (AP)—GI ingenuity—credited by many generals with being one of America's most potent weapons of the war—has been turned loose against the housing shortage in Oklahoma City.

Unable to find suitable homes a group of veterans of World War II decided to form their own building company and build their homes themselves. They will incorporate as Veterans Associated.

They gathered together—100 strong—and cleared a former downtown parking lot for their office.

Accumulated rubbish, a couple of old buildings and wrecked automobiles disappeared in no time as the former servicemen, including former officers, army privates, marines, sailors and seabees went to work. The job, which leaders estimated would take two days, was finished by noon of the first day.

A large quonset hut was put up on the lot to serve as the office—all by the GI's with no outside help. The tools were borrowed, the office site loaned by an Oklahoma City business firm.

Plans call for remodeling of the quonset hut with a limestone front and a big limestone fireplace being added. Fuel for the fireplace will come from several large cottonwood trees felled to clear the lot.

"Work is going forward on the incorporation papers," said Harold Brand, president, "and we are going to get started building some homes as soon as we can get organized."

Under the plan, the corporation will be operated like a private business except that all labor will be recruited from among former servicemen who will be paid prevailing wages, plus a bonus for all houses completed.

White Shirts Guilty Of Inciting Mob

NEW YORK, (AP)—New Yorkers have formed lines that extended around a city block for movies, liquor, cigarettes, meat, nylons, butter, or what have you. But it required the cops to handle a mob that gathered in the Times Square section when a haberdasher advertised white shirts.

The crowd not only hampered automobile traffic but interfered with such serious business as the attendance of bobby-soxers at an early movie show.

One of the last of 3,600 white shirts went to a man who declared: "Without this I don't know how I could get married tomorrow night!"

Dimout Returned In New York City With Tug Strike

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP) — New York City today took drastic action—exceeding that imposed in wartime—to meet an acute fuel shortage caused by the four-day strike of tugboat operators in the city's vast harbor.

Mayor William O'Dwyer proclaimed a state of emergency late yesterday, after tugmen voted against returning to work despite federal seizure of the towboat industry, and ordered:

All public schools shut down tomorrow until further notice.

Possible use of school buildings for hospital purposes to handle an increasing number of pneumonia cases due to lack of fuel.

Possible use of schools to house thousands of cold-water flat dwellers suffering from lack of fuel.

No deliveries of coal or oil to places of amusement, including theaters, motion picture houses and night clubs.

Strict rationing of fuel to public utilities, hospitals and other institutions.

Interior temperatures cut to 60 degrees and no heat in subway and street cars.

A drastic "brownout," shutting off all outdoor signs and dimming street lights where possible.

Charles White will head the special gifts campaign in the Howard-Glassecock Chapter of Red Cross for this county. H. D. Norris, chairman of the chapter's fund drive, has announced.

Mrs. Ed Teale, of Garden City, will serve in a similar capacity for Glascock county, Norris said. Mrs. Teale has served as chairman of the special gifts division there for the past two years.

Activities in the drive are to be launched here on the morning of Feb. 18 with a breakfast, with Halley Sädler of Sweetwater making a special address.

Leading Hostellers To Be Here Feb. 28

Top figures in the Hotel Greeters of America will be here Feb. 28 for an afternoon and evening session of charter No. 56, the West Texas Hotel Greeters association, it was announced today.

In addition to Arthur Landstreet, Memphis, Tenn., president of the unit which embraces hotel greeters of the Americas, Mrs. Jewel Record, Ft. Worth, president of the international auxiliary, will be here.

Mrs. Charles Pryor, Amarillo, president of the West Texas auxiliary, is seeking a large attendance of auxiliary members, said Jake Douglas, Big Spring, district president.

Local Draft Board Members Honored

Four Howard county selective service board members were presented awards in ceremonies at the Midland county court house Wednesday in honor of their uncompensated service for more than two years.

Those from Howard county receiving awards were George G. White, chairman of the local selective service board since its inception five years ago, Thomas J. Coffey, five years on the appeal board, and H. C. Hooser, a board member for three years.

Thomas and Hooser attended the ceremonies in which Major John W. Lipscomb of the State selective service headquarters presented the awards signed by President Truman and Gen. Hershey. In addition to a medal and pin, each member also received a yellow and red service ribbon.

Addressers, Borden, Crane, Dawson, Ector, Gaines, Howard, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Scurry and Upson counties were represented at the ceremony.
