The New Program

Time has a faculty of never wasting any of its time. It is always right on the dot. The months, weeks, hours, minutes, even the seconds tick off in regular succession, never late, never in a hurry, but never missing. The whole universe moves on with the same precision and regularity.

Nature's annual program is always carried out, but such is not always the case with the programs of humanity. It would be tho, if we could establish and maintain the same order as does Nature. We make out our programs, but do not keep them. For awhile we adhere to them very tenaciously, then we begin to slip, forget, defer, until after awhile the schedule is all broken to pieces—perhaps forgotten.

There were a hundred odd things that intervened last year to break into your program—sickness, rains, lack of finance, poor markets, and a whole category of causes and excuses—yet we still realize the program was good, and even the having of it perhaps was of value toward the things we did accomplish.

Right now is a good time to take out the program for 1924. Make a slip of paper now and jot down the important things to be accomplished this coming year. Know what they are.

Have a program for your business, your school, your church, your home life. It will mean to you during the coming months. Get it all ready now. The year has begun. Don't delay your program.

No Bugs to Bother

Everywhere there is being a silent, bitter, unrelenting warfare between the farmer and the myriads of little bugs and infinitesimal insects that seek to destroy the source of food and clothing.

With the curculo, the cut worms, the boll weevils and other insects, bacteriologists, the pathologists and entomologists, with all their knowledge and energy have never been able to yet win a complete victory.

While the tide of battle surges backward and forward, man apparently gains some headway, but this is often offset by the discovery of half a dozen or more new species that are getting in their deadly work.

Amidst all this worry and perplexity it is a delightful consolation to realize there is one section of the world where these pestiferous little insects are reduced to a minimum, and that mankind may put forth his main effort unhindered and unretarded by these marauders. Such is the South Plains country which knows no boll weevil nor boll worm, and is unacquainted with them, any of the pests which handicap the other sections of the United States.

Levelland Leaders

(Too Late for Last week)

We are having some fine weather now. Glad to see the roads drying off and people on the go again.

Our new Baptist pastor, Rev. T. F. Suttles and family, from Marquez have arrived. There will be preaching every first and third Sunday. Everybody come.

Miss Lola Bowers has arrived home after a months visit with her sister in Waco, who has been very ill.

S. S. Ripley and family left Thursday for Gordon where they will spend a few weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. Lykes, of Roscoe is directing a new dwelling in our town. His family will be in next week.

Messrs. C. L. and B. E. Gunn have completed their garage and are now ready for work.

Messrs. Lonnie and Cecil Loyd, Cleo Taylor and Miss Vera Loyd spent a few days in Levelland last week.

Several attended the Christmas tree at Clauene Monday night. They had a very nice tree and program.

The Christmas tree here was well attended Friday night.

Mrs. G. W. Alexander was called to the bed side of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Greene of Brownfield, Friday.

Clarence Williams has returned home after an absence of about three months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ressonner spent Christmas with the latter's sister, Mrs. R. H. Goodrich, of Lubbock.

The party at Mrs. Alexander's Tuesday night was well attended, all reporting a nice time.

Little Beatrice Alexander and Maxine Gunn are on the sick list this week.

Car of prairie hay next week. Let us know your wants.—Littlefield Grain Company.

It is reported the Burton-Lingo Lumber Co., of Lubbock will erect 14 cottages for rent in Littlefield. However, the Leader has not yet been able to verify the report.

The Littlefield Auto Co., report the following sales: F. Z. Payne, Sudan, truck; J. H. Palmer, Lubbock, sedan; Zac Taylor, Amherst, tractor and gang plow; C. L. Hasie, roadster; R. A. Kelm, touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. McKinney, of Lubbock were here Monday on business. Mr. McKinney has the Overland agency in the Hub City, and reports a flourishing business, it being necessary to borrow cars from neighboring dealers to supply his customers.

W. S. Hall, one of the prominent farmers of Spring Lake vicinity, and Prof. Street, superintendent of the Spring Lake public schools, were in Littlefield Saturday on business. While here Mr. Hall paid the Leader office a very pleasant visit. Although his subscription was not due for six months, yet he paid up for another year in advance, and said "keep her coming." Mr. Hall reports several new settlers arriving in his section of the country, and says the wheat of that section is looking fine.

High School News

The New Year has started off with much enthusiasm among the high school students, especially in the annual work of which definite plans have been organized and work has begun. All high school students have resolved to make the Littlefield high school of 1924, known throughout the state. Co-operation of all the students and the Littlefield citizens is necessary to make this great work a success.

With the increased enrollment of thirty students, make the maximum enrollment, 280.

Although this seems to be a favorable beginning of the new year for the majority of students, there is one in particular, who seems to have made a bad beginning. This student is no less than the Ornerly (Honorable) Earl White, who, as punishment for acting like a first grade student, had to stand in the corner. The students all hope that the natural color of Earl's face will return again, and that the old adage is "a bad beginning is a good ending." will prove to be true.

Miss Patton's countenance, upon returning to the school room Thursday, after Christmas vacation, was

LITTLEFIELD LOTS ARE NOW SELLING FAST; MUCH IMPROVEMENTS

While Littlefield land is selling by leaps and bounds there is every indication that the town will keep pace with the country development, as lots are constantly in demand and buildings being constructed every week.

During the past week the Littlefield Townsite Co., report the following sales:

NAME	LOT	BLOCK
J. E. Alexander	13	23
W. H. Heinen	6	10
J. W. Vickery	4	23
Shaw-Earnest Co.	6	23
A. T. Parker	5	23
L. R. Crocket	2	16
A. E. White	2	23
Dr. G. D. Weaver	9 & 10	16
F. G. Sadler	4	37
Mrs. Myrtle A. Brazil	12	23

L. R. Crocket is this week putting up residence building on his lot adjoining the Littlefield Service Station.

Dr. Weaver will begin construction of combination residence and office building as soon as carpenters can be engaged.

Mrs. Brazil expects to soon put up a building which will contain bakery and residence.

L. G. Coffman, who has purchased the corner lot directly north of the Littlefield State Bank, has let contract to a Weatherford concern for a two story brick building which will house restaurant and cafe below, the upstairs being used for rooming apartments.

LITTLEFIELD'S POST OFFICE SHOWS BIG INCREASE IN BUSINESS

That the Littlefield post office has had an increase business amounting to thirty per cent over the previous year, is the statement made this week by Postmaster W. J. Wade.

According to the Postmaster's report, which has just been forwarded to Washington, the box rent stamp sales for 1922 was $2,035.13; for 1923 the same items reached a total of $2,653.19, or an increase of $618.06.

While the figures are not yet available, it is thought the money order business will be practically double in 1923 what it was the year previous.

Mr. Wade states that the bulk of this increased business has been during the past five months since the influx of new settlers began.

Card of Thanks

I wish to take this opportunity of publically extending sincere thanks to the Littlefield citizens for the fine one of gloom and depression, due to a very sad accident, and which almost proved a disastrous one, as all pupils feared she would have to wear the same dress for the rest of the year. She lost her traveling bag containing all of her clothes and valuables. The pupils were all interested when she received a telegram stating her clothes were on the way. At once Miss Patton's countenance changed to the bright and sunny expression which is so natural. Everything is now joy and happiness throughout the high school.

We notice that Miss Paul has been wearing different colored hose, which is the result of waking Christmas morning to find a red stocking filled with all kinds of toys for nice little girls.

Mr. Parnell, the other day, was noticed writing a very important letter, so the pupils thought, because at intervals he would stop and smile as if he had a recollection of some fond incident. Then it was supposed that he grew excited over some rash declaration, upset the bottle of ink, but by his quick actions, saved the precious document. We are in hope that Mr. Parnell will gradually receive his nerves.

Last, but exceedingly important, is Prof. Speight, who has come back from Christmas vacation with increased vigor of making Littlefield high school great. As Mr. Speight is a general favorite with the pupils, they are all willingly to work at his bidding.

As a whole, the teachers and pupils of the high school mean business. Come and see if you don't believe it. —Contributed.

Developing a New Empire

Several counties above the Caprock are turning in an average yearly production of 20,000,000 bushels of grain, 10,000,000 bushels of milk and kafir, and 500,000 tons of hay and forage. In the 14 counties mentioned, the value of agricultural products, as far back as 1919, was found by the census bureau to be $45,000,000, the value of hogs, $1,400,000, the value of poultry products $1,100,000, and the value of dairy products $700,000. All on a population of four persons to the square mile, and with only 20 per cent of the land improved.

There are several significant things to consider in connection with the plains country and its agricultural possibilities. They are:

That the population increase is fastest in Texas.

That 95 per cent of the land is tillable.

That an inexhaustible water supply flows from end to end, from 35 to 100 feet beneath the surface, removing the menace of drought.

That one more railroad (and probably several railroads) is apparently the verge of buildin g across the plains.

That the great ranches are going on the market in small tracts and on terms.

That King Cotton, seeking more lands to conquer, is turning northward into a virginal territory.

Any one of these items, taken alone tells progress and prosperity for the plains. The last three named are especially significant.

Railroad Extensions.

For the first, it is of course Littlefield East that a brand new project, the last week, a Panhandle and Gulf, is now ed whereby the interstate commerce comed (by proxy) with a petition Land Co., heuld a line from Tucumcari, New entire Littlefield, to Fort Worth, through the cepting a few of the plains.
