

Every Citizen Called To The Attack Tonight In Buying War Bonds

Thrilled by the knowledge that the collapse of Italy will shorten the war, the Howard county Third War Loan army was on the move today to do its own part in hastening Victory and saving more American lives.

Its part is the subscribing of $1,791,400 in government securities during the Third War Loan which opens today to last through September.

So far in September, purchases have been only $15,292. There was a good demand at the issuing agencies today, however, including War Bond headquarters at the chamber of commerce, which will be staffed each day from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. by volunteer workers from various women's clubs.

The attack really will be touched off this evening at 6 o'clock, when 15 bombers from the AAFBS roar over the city for brief maneuvers. Their approach will be signaled by the city fire siren.

Then, at 6:15, one of the city's most impressive patriotic parades will move through the downtown streets. In the review will be the band, a squadron of cadets, vehicles and WAC detachments from the Big Spring Bomber School; the high school band, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and other uniformed groups.

The procession will wind up at the east side of the courthouse square, where Howard countians will be given the opportunity to translate their patriotism into war bonds, in the first of a series of sales rallies that will be held during the campaign.

Sheriff's Bond Honors County War Casualties

An inspirational example in the "Bonds for Buddies" program was set today as the Third War Loan drive got under way.

A $1,000 bond was purchased by Howard county's sheriff and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Merrick—not in tribute to one service man, but in memory of all those Howard county lads who have made the supreme sacrifice.

Sheriff Merrick planned the tribute some days ago, but waited until the start of the Third War Loan to make his purchase. In memory of the boys who gave all, he said, it is a privilege to make an investment in freedom and quick victory—the things for which the supreme sacrifice was made.

Two $500 bonds were purchased today to honor Capt. Frank Fisherman, who is in Sicily. They were bought by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fisherman, who occupy another bright place on the "Bonds for Buddies" Honor Roll.

Those who will buy a bond as a tribute to any boy in service are asked to clear their subscription through Bond headquarters at the chamber of commerce. There the name and address of the serviceman will be taken, so that he may be informed, in a special letter that the folks at home are "backing the attack."

Russians Capture Ukraine Center

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Russians in a special order of the day tonight announced the capture of the north Ukraine rail center of Bakhmach, 15 miles west of Konotop and 110 miles east of Kiev.

Bakhmach already had been partly by-passed by the swiftly advancing Russians who had captured several points to the northwest, cutting the railway to Gomel. Marshal Stalin's order of the day was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded here by the Soviet monitor.

Italian Prisoners Told Of Surrender; Some Of Them Weep

HEREFORD, Sept. 9 (AP)—Some Italian prisoners of war wept, others took the news of Italy's capitulation without sign of emotion, Col. A. N. Risdon, commander of Hereford war prisoner camp here, disclosed today.

The Italians, numbering between 3,000 and 4,000, got the news of the surrender this morning for the first time. They include officers and enlisted men. Colonel Risdon said the reaction of some was that the surrender had been expected for several months. Others said they had known it was a lost cause for some time.

Reds Push For Dnieper River

MOSCOW, Sept. 9 (AP)—With the great steel center of Staling and the rich Donets industrial basin safely in their grasp, two victorious Red armies swept forward today on the heels of the demoralized Germans fleeing toward the Dnieper river, their last main line of defense on Russian territory.

Front dispatches placed the Russian troops less than 70 miles from the Dnieper at some points, but the Germans were exposed to a greater immediate danger in the region to the south of Staling. Here their entire southern flank was exposed to the terrific pressure of the Russian armored offensive; from Marupol on the Sea of Azov westward to the Isthmus of Perekop and the Gateway to the Crimea.

The entire 600-mile front stretching as far north as Smolensk was ablaze as the mighty Russian war machine plunged ahead to rid Russian soil of the invaders before the heavy autumn rains already beginning—make mobile warfare impossible.

Americans In Italy Due To Win Freedom

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Italy's surrender is expected to mean freedom for approximately 2,000 Americans and 70,000 British and Canadian troops and civilians now held as Italian prisoners of war.

"It can be assumed that the unconditional surrender accepted by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower took into account the immediate release of all prisoners of war and that they will reach Allied hands as soon as conditions allow," the British war office said today.

Injuries Fatal

HILLSBORO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Fred Charles Moldor, 31, died here last night from injuries received in an interurban-pane truck collision in which her husband was killed and eight other persons injured.

Musso Dragged Out Of Office 'Brute Force' -- Berlin Version

The Berlin radio broadcast today its version of Benito Mussolini's downfall—that Mussolini was "dragged by brute force" from the royal palace, strapped to a stretcher and spirited away in an ambulance. His removal on July 25, the broadcast said, was the result of a secretly-planned coup d'etat between King Vittorio Emanuele and the present premier, Pietro Badoglio. "It seems to be certain," the broadcast said, that Il Duce was taken to Ponza Island, in the Gulf of Gaeta about 75 miles southeast of Rome.

Carrier Force Lays Waste To Marcus Island

Not A Jap Plane Challenges US Navy In Its Bold Stroke

By TOM YARBROUGH

PEARL HARBOR, Sept. 9 (AP) The biggest aircraft carrier force ever sent on a single mission in the Pacific, boldly appearing 900 miles past Japanese-held Wake and within 1,200 of Tokyo, sent bombing planes for eight hours over Marcus Island Sept. 1 until enemy defenses there had been laid waste.

Not a Japanese plane got off the ground. Not an enemy bomber showed up from other bases within range. Not a ship from Nippon's war fleet interfered at any time with the American task force, simply braving for a fight in so-called enemy controlled waters.

One-ton block buster bombs, dropped for the first time from carrier-based planes, blew up Japanese hangars, fuel, ammunition stores and living quarters and pock-marked two mile-long runways—facilities which the enemy had improved 400 per cent since Marcus first was raided in March, 1942.

From an aircraft carrier near Marcus, I saw these planes take off before dawn Sept. 1 to begin the job of reducing Marcus to ruins. Hour after hour into mid-afternoon, dive bombers, torpedo bombers and fighters—Grumman Hellcats making their debut in combat only to be disappointed by the complete absence of enemy air opposition—kept up a methodical pounding.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, in a communique yesterday disclosing the first details of the raid, estimated that fully 80 per cent of the military installations on Marcus were destroyed.

The bombers made 300 individual runs. The fighters, which wiped out seven twin-engined bombers, parked in a line, made 350 strafing runs and fired 150,000 rounds of ammunition. Delayed action bombs churned areas of smoke and fire into a new fury. The fires were so intense that they still were burning a day after the raid. All this occurred in an area covering only 740 acres.

Six More Jap Ships Sent To The Bottom

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Six more Japanese merchant ships have been sunk by American submarines and four have been damaged in attacks on enemy supply lines, the navy announced today.

These ten successful attacks raised to 319 the total of Japanese transport, cargo and warships which have been reported sunk or damaged by American submarines since the war started. This total includes 223 ships definitely listed as sunk.

20 Million Tons Of Shipping Completed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Office of War Information reported today that American ship yards have delivered more than 20 million tons of merchant vessels since Pearl Harbor.

Exact figures on United Nations shipping losses in the third quarter were not given, but the OWI said "we are now delivering ships several times faster than the enemy is sinking them."

Heaviest Blows Yet Directed At Invasion Coast

By GLADWIN HILL

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—With Allied forces swarming into the heart of fallen Italy, the greatest formations of American and British bombers ever hurled across the channel by daylight pounded today at enemy ports and air fields in northern France, carrying into the eighth consecutive day a terrific aerial offensive which may form the final prelude to invasion from the west.

The unprecedented assault, launched in conjunction with the largest invasion exercises ever seen in the channel, climaxed 18 hours of steady pounding of Hitler's Atlantic fortifications during which not a single Allied plane was downed by German air units charged with defending Europe against the long-awaited push.

Enemy naval vessels and coast artillery were among the prime targets of the vast bombardment accompanying the invasion rehearsal which kept the French coastline alight all night with bomb bursts and anti-aircraft fire and rattled windows this morning six miles inland from the English shore.

American flying fortresses and Thunderbolt fighters spearheaded the widespread daylight attack. First announcements from U. S. headquarters and the British air ministry said American heavy bombers and RAF fighter-bombers struck at air fields and other targets in northern France while fighter squadrons patrolled the channel and swept over France—all with remarkably little opposition.

American and British medium and light bombers started off the intensified attack late yesterday, sowing devastation around Boulogne. An authoritative announcement said Marauders of the U. S. 8th air force hit the same targets in daylight today.

The Berlin radio quoted the German news agency DNB as saying that Paris was the target of at least a portion of the huge bomber fleet which headed for Europe early today. The broadcast said the attack was made on the northwestern part of Paris by both American and British planes.

Dispatches from Folkestone said the great burst of daylight activity started shortly before 7 a. m. and during the first hour alone hundreds of Marauders, Venturas, Mitchells and other bombers roared out across the coast in packed formations.

The paucity of enemy aircraft testified to the thoroughness of the Allies' seven-day preliminary campaign against German operational bases in France and indicated the enemy's wariness to match his declining air strength against the Allies' mounting superiority.

English coastal residents who reported through the battle forays said they never saw such a big fleet over such a short time as the procession of hundreds of planes which strated over soon after dawn and still was being augmented two hours later.

Many Calling On Tax Officials For Help

According to H. W. Axe and W. H. Harrison, the internal revenue inspectors who are in room 17 of the post office to render assistance to all who must fill out income tax estimates, the people are coming to receive help in extremely large numbers and many more are expected before five o'clock Saturday when the two close their office.

51ST VICTIM

HOUSTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Another body was found today in the blackened and charred ruins of the Gulf hotel at Preston and Louisiana, bringing the total casualty list of the Tuesday morning fire to 51.

Musso Dragged Out Of Office 'Brute Force' -- Berlin Version

Mussolini answered that he felt strong enough, in order to save the Italian people, to oppose the crown and if necessary even to army. As he left, he noted that his car and special guard had been removed from the palace entrance and ordered servants to bring it. Instead, a colonel approached him and said: "Your excellency, I have received an order to arrest you. Please enter this car." The German broadcast said that the fascist militia had been crippled "by the traitors" and that Mussolini was powerless to resist.

Germans Claim They Hold The Northern Area

Reports Say Hitler Has Determined To Fight To The End

By EDWARD KENNEDY

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—A German military spokesman announced today that "north and central Italy have been occupied by German troops," a Berlin broadcast said today.

"In so far as the occupation had not been carried out already it has now been done. In most towns of Italy the armed forces allowed those forces to be disarmed (by Germans) without offering resistance," declared the broadcast, still quoting the Nazi military spokesman.

At the same time the spokesman declared Allied troops which entered Tuesday on the Gulf of Euzemia, north of Palmi, had been enveloped by German troops and their annihilation was imminent Wednesday evening. Reuters reported from Stockholm that Adolf Hitler had held a war council today at which it was decided to reinforce the German Po line and fight to the last man.

At the same time the German radio began issuing a stream of orders, apparently for the purpose of confusing the Italians and contradicting earlier steps taken by the surrendering Badoglio regime in Italy.

Fighting Reported

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Germans announced tonight that Italian troops "occupied Brenner Pass" on Tuesday—one day before the announcement of Premier Pietro Badoglio's unconditional surrender—and acknowledged that Italian troops have been fighting the Nazis in some parts of Italy.

In a broadcast restating and emphasizing the Nazi line that Italy's capitulation was "treacherous," the German international information bureau, a propaganda agency, made these disclosures while claiming that the internal situation in Italy still was generally in German control.

Air Bases Wanted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Allied forces sweeping through fallen Italy are believed to have one prime military objective—the occupation of air bases from which to destroy Germany's oil sources in Rumania and Hungary.

Bases within easy bombing reach of the great oil center at Ploesti, Rumania, and the lesser fields in Hungary may prove to be the key to Hitler's whole European fortress.

Nine Named In Indictments

Grand jurors returned seven indictments involving nine men after being in session Tuesday and Wednesday and were ordered to report back to 70th District court on September 30 at 10 a. m. Indicted were Jim Tim Forrest, Henry, forgery; Paul Harris, rape by force; Lavern Smith, forgery; Robert Hilburn, theft; and E. A. Hart, passing forged instrument.

Arrests involving four men in two other cases "have not yet been made. The criminal cases have been set for the second week of the term beginning September 13 when a petit jury has been summoned.

A divorce was granted Wednesday to Sybil Webb from R. H. Webb, and custody of a minor child was given to the plaintiff for the duration and six months after which time readjustment of the custody is to be made.

Change of name was granted to Benjamin Feuerwerger changing his name to Fierwerger and to Yolanda Pritchard changing her name to Yolanda Lynn Pritchard. In the suit of Coaden Petroleum corporation versus J. L. Thomas, foreclosing mortgage, an agreed judgment was reached.

Amphibious Drills Finished In England

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—In a full dress rehearsal of invasion plans for the future, all arms of the British services have completed a giant amphibious exercise in the English Channel, it was announced officially today.

Bombers Wreck Headquarters Of Enemy At Rome

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 9 (AP)—A powerful American and British force under U.S. Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark surged ashore in the vicinity of Naples, a third of the way up the Italian boot, at 4 a. m. today.

It was immediately engaged by German forces fighting fiercely in the midst of the chaos of Italy's unconditional surrender, but Allied headquarters announced that operations were going according to plan and that prisoners already had been taken.

At the same time it was announced that waves of Flying Fortresses, striking six hours before the armistice with Italy yesterday, had wiped out German military headquarters in Italy with a terrific half-hour bombing of Frascati, 12 miles outside Rome.

Official reports said the town, nearly every building of which was occupied by German officers, was levelled. The town, with a population of about 12,000, is famous for its wine.

The landing operations this morning (9 p. m., Wednesday, CWT) putting Americans into combat in Italy for the first time initiated what was likely to prove the grimmest campaign yet fought in the Mediterranean theater. British Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, who commanded Allied ground forces through the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns, is directing the new operations of all troops in Italy, it was announced. The make-up of Gen. Clark's force was not announced. He has been commanding the American Fifth army in North Africa, but Swiss and Swedish radio reports

Po Valley Seen As Nazis' Main Defense

While other Allied forces executed a second landing early Wednesday at Vibo Valentia on the Gulf of Eufemia, 30 miles north of Palmi, the Eighth army, it was announced, swept forward until it held the road running across the peninsula from Locri to Gioia. This gave the Allies complete possession of about 40 miles of the length of the toe.

Here the Allies were being steadily reinforced. The German plan apparently was to fight a stubborn delaying action in southern Italy as long as possible until their main defense line is reached in the mountains south of the Po valley.

Eighth Army Makes Progress In The South

Canadian and British troops of the Eighth army "have moved forward considerably," the bulletin announced, adding that the lateral line of the Eighth army "has been considered," the bulletin (See AMERICANS, Pg. 5, Col. 11)

Hitler Rushes Men To Prevent Break-Through

Hitler apparently had reached a decision, as announced by the Berlin radio, to throw the German army into a full-scale defense of Italy. Thousands of German troops, including some of the best, had been pouring into Italy in recent weeks in anticipation of an Italian surrender.

Hard-pressed as was the reich on the Russian front, Hitler apparently was straining every resource to prevent a break-through on the south.

Task Big, Says FD In Opening War Bond Drive

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—Axis Italy has fallen, Berlin and Tokyo are surely next, but the task ahead is "bigger and tougher" and Americans should fend off any rocking chair philosophy that the war is won. In this vein, President Roosevelt touched off the third war bond drive for $15,000,000,000 last night.

Anticipating a wave of optimism, the president warned in a radio speech that the "time for celebration" hadn't yet arrived. Moreover, he asserted, he has an idea that the day of final victory will find this nation in a mood of "grim determination that this shall not happen again," rather than in a celebrating frame of mind. After referring to the hard job yet to be done, Mr. Roosevelt perhaps tipped off his listeners to big things happening even as he spoke. At two points in his speech he interpolated the phrase "at this moment" when speaking of Allied troops landing on strange enemy coasts and bombers roaring in at roof top level. He may, or may not have had in mind the new Allied landings at Naples, announced a few hours later.

The president called the Italian armistice a victory for both the Allies and the Italian people, released after years of "war and suffering and degradation." The Mediterranean war is far from finished, however, he declared for "we must drive the Germans out of Italy x x x we must drive them out of France and all other captive countries; and we must strike them on their own soil from all directions."

The Italian denouement consummated plans made at Casablanca last January, said Mr. Roosevelt, and he and Prime Minister Churchill have made "new, well-considered plans for the future." "But throughout these conferences we have never lost sight of the fact that this war will become bigger and tougher," he said, "rather than easier during the long months to come."

Sgt. Holcombe, Once 'Missing', Is Prisoner

As though by miracle, the family of S-Sgt. Horace Newton Holcombe, given up as lost on a bombing raid over Germany when his Flying Fortress crashed into the North Sea, learned Thursday that he was alive and a prisoner of war in Germany.

The word came from Gen. Ullo, the adjutant general, and was sent to Mrs. Janet Shirley Holcombe, his wife. However, she is taking mechanic training at Duncan Field, San Antonio, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howard, said that efforts to notify her had not been successful yet. Moreover, S-Sgt. Holcombe's mother, Mrs. E. W. Holcombe, was visiting in Denver, Colo., with a daughter, Mrs. B. L. Brake, and could not be contacted immediately. The adjutant wired that a "report had been received through International Red Cross . . . that your husband, S-Sgt. H. N. Holcombe is a prisoner of war of the German government. A letter of information follows from the provost marshal general."

The Associated Press had reported on Aug. 19 that Sgt. Holcombe had discovered a fire in the plane while about 25 miles off the coast of Germany. Three engines were out and when the sergeant asked the pilot, Lieut. Eugene Wilcox of Moravia, Iowa, what he planned to do, the officer said he was going to "ride her down." Holcombe replied that if Wilcox "had enough guts to ride her down, I'll stick along."

He stayed in the waist fighting fire until the ship crashed and broke in two. Lieut. Wilcox said he feared Holcombe and some others had perished. Believing that Sgt. Holcombe was dead, friends and the family held memorial services for him on Aug. 21 at the Lee's Baptist church where he was a member.

$17,980 Is Goal In County For The United War Chest

Back from a regional meeting at San Angelo Thursday, Pat Kenney was laying plans for organizing forces to carry Big Spring and Howard county through its next big campaign—United war chest drive in October.

With R. K. McEwen, co-chairman, he is drafting workers for key posts in the campaign, but as far as active steps are concerned, these will be delayed until after completion of the all-important third war loan drive during September. Starting date is set tentatively for Oct. 8.

Howard county's quota for the war chest, Kenney announced, has been pegged at $17,980 as a part of the $4,885,781 Texas quota and the $125,000,000 national goal.

Italy Needs Food, Clothing And Medicine; U. S. Must Supply It

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—The Allies will have to put an economic hotwater bottle on the Italian boot to get it back on the ground and into shape again. That is going to mean some food, clothing and perhaps medical care as a starter. And in return? One government specialist in Italian economies, pointing out that the Allied military gains far outweigh any other benefits, says this country and Great Britain can expect very little in the way of goods or produce from Italy for some time.

He adds: perhaps the only thing Italy can spare now is briar for pipes. But getting Italy started back toward normal will be necessary for the Allied armies moving north. The job will take time and will be the harder the harder the Germans resist expulsion from Italy.

The Allies—if for no other reason—would not want a hungry or rioting populace behind their armies facing the Germans. Besides food, these appear to be the Italian needs: Clothing, since Italy has been shut off from cotton and wool supplies from the war's start; shoes, perhaps; petroleum, which it has been obtaining from Rumania; fertilizer; and oil seeds, the seeds for human purposes and the residue of the seeds to make cattle feed.

Italy's agriculture will have to be restored and therefore needs farm machinery but this will not be easy to supply since the Allies have no abundance of it. Italian food supplies have been drained in feeding its armies at home; in the Balkans in North Africa; by food ship sinkings; and by fruits, nuts, vegetables, cheese, rice and potatoes sent to Germany. Those last were the food items in which Italian production normally exceeds Italian demands but the country is deficient in production of grains—like wheat—and oils, meat, fish, eggs.

Arthur Stallings said Thursday that only the lack of pickers was holding back an intensive cotton harvest in the Lomax area. "We have enough open now to turn out 25 or 30 bales a day if only we could get the hands," he said. A few early pickers are being utilized for maize heading to give cotton a few more days to open well.

A True Conversation

BETWEEN GENERAL MARSHALL AND SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY MORGENTHAU

"Mr. Secretary, can we military leaders plan to fight this war in an orderly way—in the surest and most effective manner—or must we take extraordinary risks for fear the money will not hold out?"

"General, the American people will take care of that. They will not let our fighters suffer from lack of support until we achieve complete victory, no matter how long that may take, nor how much it may cost!"

Soil Conservation Supervisors To Be Named On October 5

By O. P. GRIFFIN
County Agent

There is an important election coming up, and one that is likely to be overlooked. There will be no hot campaign for this or that candidate; and, because of the fact that there is no pork barrel, and no pie counter in connection,

If that DIZZINESS is from CONSTIPATION

PRU-LAX—the tasty laxative—may be just what you need. A compound of Senna and Cascara, combined with syrup and mild carminatives. PRU-LAX stimulates "rhythmic activity" and aids peristalsis of the colon. According to a medical text, Cascara and Senna are "preferred" in chronic or habitual constipation. Constipation may be the cause of headaches, vertigo (dizziness), anemia, acne or other skin affections. Don't let it persist. Get a bottle of PRU-LAX at your druggist today. an election the next year and so on. That is, the term supervisors will serve will be five years, with the exception of those elected this year in subdivision Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Howard county is a part of Martin-Howard Soil Conservation district. This district has recently been enlarged by the addition of Midland county. It also embraces a part of Glascock county, that part that the drainage of which is not part of North Concho watershed. There is also a small corner of Howard county that drains into the North Concho and therefore is in North Concho district.

There is no more important function of our government than the soil conservation districts. They have an immediate and special meaning in West Texas where the rainfall is all needed to grow crops and pasture. The future progress of West Texas and the welfare of all our people is dependent on whether we shall use the light rainfall afforded by our climate, or allow it to run off. Most of Howard county people are familiar with the progress that has been made in this direction during the past 10 years. But we have only started. Under the district plan, 4 or 5 times as much can be done in the next 10 years. And this will be brought about by democratic processes. The people will elect their district supervisors who will govern the conservation processes to be applied in the district. Agencies of the federal and state governments will furnish technical skill as servants of the supervisors and the people.

We are fighting a great war to perpetuate government by the people. Can we set aside enough time to see to it that there is a good turn out at the election meetings in each of the subdivisions of Martin-Howard district on October 5th? Place and time of election meetings will be announced in the newspapers.

Rationing Has Created New Luncheon Dishes!

WE can thank our rations, white and blue ration stamps for creating new foods and new combinations of foods for luncheon and supper. Not long ago, New York's famous Waldorf-Astoria began featuring a familiar, everyday breakfast cereal in a wonderful new way . . . on the luncheon and supper menus of their glamorous Starlight Roof. Feature star among the cereal-and-fruit luncheons was "Toasties Waldorf." A delicious new combination of familiar foods. Best of all, it's the kind of dish that every woman can make in her own home . . . quickly, conveniently and with no cooking required. "Toasties Waldorf" is just as good as it sounds. On a heaping bed of crisp Post Toasties—in your rayon individual bowl—center a shimmering fruit gelatin, made with assorted fresh fruits. Then serve with milk, light cream or sugar. Try it as the main dish in this menu: A hot soup with wafers, "Toasties Waldorf" and your favorite dessert. Then, too, it is satisfying to know that when you give your family one of these cereal dishes, it will contain three foods from the "Basic Seven" food groups recommended by our National Nutrition program.

Labor Supply May Be Larger Within Next Few Weeks

By O. P. GRIFFIN
At the beginning of this week the state as a whole had only about half enough cotton pickers to meet the calls that are being made for them. This does not mean that cotton pickers are that much short of the supply in Howard county. But the drought and hot weather during the last few weeks has caused cotton to open prematurely, and farmers have been calling for pickers over a much larger area—all at the same time.

Very good progress has been made in harvesting the crop during the past weeks. Some of the big cotton counties like Nueces and San Patricio are about through. In Howard county the calls for pickers the past week far exceeded the supply of pickers. Some pickers are coming in, but there is not much hope for enough pickers for two weeks yet. However, this shortage will not continue for more than two or three weeks. The drought has been more severe in the counties southeast of here. The short crop in these dry counties will soon be gathered and pickers may be expected from South Texas. In other words we can expect our shortage to be largely supplied by October 1.

In the meantime there are a shall have to make the best use we can of these, and local people who are willing to pick cotton. The Howard county labor board has been called to meet Saturday to make plans to tide over the period when we shall be short of pickers. Farmers have been very cooperative in listing their needs, and now have orders for nearly 2,000 pickers. It is hoped that this cooperation will be continued by mailing the cards when they secure pickers. If very many neglect to notify us when they get pickers, our records will soon become worthless, because we cannot tell what orders have been filled, and which have not. When you hire any hands at all you should fill out and mail the card.

Now we had expected to get Mexican cotton pickers from across the border. Present indications are that no help will be available from this source. Likewise the prospects of getting prisoners of war are very poor. However, application has been made for them by a number of counties. If these counties, that have made application, should secure a war prisoner camp, that would release some pickers and help us indirectly in that way.

Stanton Scout Group Here For A Picnic
Ten Stanton Boy Scouts and five of their leaders participated in an outdoor "feed" at the city park here Tuesday evening. The boys prepared the menu cornbread, barbecue hamburger, macaroni, tomatoes, pickles, potatoes and chocolate pudding, a meal that H. D. Norris, field executive for the district, said was one of the best he had ever seen scouts prepare.

Attending were Scouts Buck Allison, Herbert Jones, Sanders Dyson, Billy Vaker, Billy Howard, Jimmy Everett, Roland Blackburn, Leroy Gregg, Jay White and Eddie Peters. Leaders on hand were O. B. Bryan, Glenn Jamison, I. G. Peters, E. T. Williamson, and Ira Williams, scoutmaster.

Glamour In Herbs

VEGETABLES WITH OOMPH: Herbs make the difference.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE, AP Food Editor Herbs, used with care, will work wonders with your cooking. Herbs have plenty of appetite appeal. They give extra zip to sauces and stuffings for meats, fish, fowl and vegetables. New herbs and herb-flavored salads, dressings and vinegars are giving those two old-seasoners, salt and pepper, a real run for popularity. If you didn't put some of grandmother's herbs in a corner of your Victory garden, go herb-shopping at a food store. You will be entranced by the variety of these flavor-builders. Most of them are within reach of household budgets. Remember, however, to use them in moderation for subtle flavor. Here are some herb seasoning tips: 1. Put basil and minced chives in stewed or stuffed tomatoes. 2. Add sage to spring beans, tomato soup, cheese sauce for cauliflower, bread or rice stuffing for fish, meat or chicken and in tomato soup. 3. Thyme steps up clam or lobster chowder, sauces for pork, veal-and-tongue-and-is very good blended with frizzled dried beef and browned eggplant slices. 4. Marjoram increases flavor in vegetable or fish salads, pork pie, or browned pork chops, creamed or fried potatoes and escalloped leftover vegetables. 5. Rosemary does a lot for broiled or fried chicken, browned fish steaks, buttered spinach, lima beans or beets and meat pot pie or stew. 6. Dill spruces avocado salads, all kinds of beans, cheese and egg dishes. 7. Mint gives a "come-on" to carrots, peas, turnips, beets and cream soups. 8. A clove of garlic or pinch of garlic salt helps out vegetable salads, spaghetti and macaroni dishes, roast lamb and veal. 9. Minced chives and bash give a new flavor to escalloped corn, creamed mushrooms or creamed eggs, turning them into intriguing main dishes for point saving meals. 10. Mix chopped chives and thyme with sliced cucumbers, chill and serve with fish, chicken or veal. When using dried herbs to flavor foods, crush them to a powder by rolling in the palms of the hands and add as any other seasoning. Another word of caution—a little goes a long way.

Howard Wells May Expand Water District In Martin

STANTON, Sept. 9. — Steps are being taken toward annexation of six additional sections to the Martin county fresh water supply district No. 1, and a meeting has been called for Sept. 24 at the Valley View school for the purpose.

If plans for the annexation, growing out of petitions from families in the six section block, materialize, then it is probable an election on a bond issue of $8,000 will be called. This would be to furnish funds for drilling more wells and to centralize the pumping system rather than maintain three smaller, separate units. The new system would provide for a 50,000-gallon storage from four wells with 100-gallon-a-minute capacities. The service would provide water for 100 families aside from supplying several thousand head of livestock. Currently the district comprises 42 1-2 sections and the supply is located on the Earl Powell Bax-X ranch 11 miles north of Stanton. P. G. Yates is president, W. D. Howell, secretary; S. F. Weathers, M. McKaskle and W. P. Reid, directors.

Information Given On Tenant Eviction

Numerous inquiries are made at the Area Rent office from both landlords and tenants, according to Charlie Sullivan, area rent director, relative to the removal or eviction of tenants when a rental unit has been purchased for a home by the buyer. Sullivan advised that under the rent regulations, it is necessary for a purchaser of a rental unit to file a petition with the office for a certificate of eviction. If the purchaser has paid as much as one-third cash for the property, not borrowed money, and desires to move into the unit with his family, the certificate of eviction is granted allowing the tenant three months to vacate the property. Some tenants have reported that purchasers demand they vacate the rental unit without filing with the office and Sullivan pointed out that this is a violation of the regulation. Wyatt Yields One Hit As Cards Beat Boston, 3 To 0

No-Hitters Not In The Books This Season

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The major leagues are approaching the end of their second successive season without a no-hit pitching performance, perhaps proving that as much luck as skill enters into such classics.

Ten pitchers have come within one hit of ringing the gong this year, but some malicious fate apparently has been standing in their way.

Whitlow Wyatt of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who never has hurled a no-hitter, yesterday barely missed this goal for the fourth time in his major league career.

He stopped the Boston Braves, 3-0, for his seventh straight success and 11th of the season, but a clean single to right field in the first inning by Charley Workman kept Wyatt from entering the hall of pitching fame.

Only two other games were on the program yesterday, both in the National League.

The St. Louis Cardinals handed Rip Sewell, Pittsburgh's 20-game winner, his eighth defeat, 5-1, with Stan Musial hitting two homers. Rookie George Munger held the Pirates to seven hits.

A homer by Babe Dahlgren, his fifth of the year, provided the winning margin for the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 triumph over the New York Giants. Big Bill Lee, gaining his first victory since joining the Phillies, was tagged for home runs by Ernie Lombardi and rookie shortstop John Kerr to account for New York's runs. Ace Adams made his 62nd relief appearance for the Giants for a record.

Troop 3 Boys Win In Swimming Meet

Results of an inter-city Boy Scout swimming meet last week in Sweetwater are in and the lads of troop No. 3, Big Spring, have a clear title to their claim of superiority over Sweetwater scouts.

Big Spring boys under W. D. Berry and Garrett Patton, heads of troop No. 3, grabbed 24 out of 39 places and took nine of 13 first places in the bi-lateral meet.

Local first winners include Jackie Barron (4), B. B. Lees, Hugh Cochran (2), Gene Nabors (2); second place winners, Jackie Barron (2), Gene Smith, B. B. Lees, (4), Hugh Cochran (2); third place, Hugh Cochran, Pete Cook, Gene Nabors (2), Jackie Barron.

Jackie Barron was high point man in the under 110 pound division with B. B. Lees as runner up. Louis Pendergrass, Sweetwater, led the top division with 13 points, only three ahead of Hugh Cochran, Big Spring.

Norton Must Build Team With Wholly Green Material

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 9 (AP)—A good college football team walks the Texas A. and M. campus these days but as far as the coaches are concerned it's just like dangling a roast beef sandwich ten feet over the head of a hungry man snared in a bear trap.

This football team—if it could be used—would come from air corps pre-flight and army special trainees, marines and sailors, but none will find their way to Kyle field on a Saturday except as spectators while Coach Homer Norton plays out a South-west conference schedule with boys on whose high school diplomas the ink has scarcely dried.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (AP)—You may never know where the next big game is coming from this football season. . . . How about this one, for instance—North Texas Aggies vs. Southwestern (Texas) Sept. 18. . . . Well, Southwestern may start seven members of last year's championship Texas U. team and the Aggies could field an entire team of former T.C.U. players with such guys as Doyle Caraway, Texas Tech Little All-American, and Red Maley, the S.M.U. passer, in reserve. . . . Mike McGrath, who trains Lieut. A. G. Vanderbilt's second-string horses, used to be Alf's first string chauffeur. Mike once drove cross country from New York to Los Angeles and got there ahead of his boss, who took a train. . . . But so far he hasn't been able to get that kind of speed out of his nags.

Lunch Program is Renewed In The Colorado Schools
COLORADO CITY, Sept. 9.—With the opening of Colorado City schools this week announcement was made by the school board of the continuation of the lunch program in the primary ward school. The cafeteria serves two buildings, Primary and Hutchinson.

Originally begun as a WPA project the room was kept open by the board last spring when WPA funds were discontinued. Mrs. Ruth Moore, foreman last term, will again direct the room and will be assisted by three experienced helpers. Mrs. Inez Dearen, Mrs. Claude Martin, and Mrs. Nancy Sanders.

Between 175 and 200 hot plate lunches are served to the children of the war school's daily for a dime a plate. One of the major reasons for the opening of the room under the WPA set-up—children without dimes and without lunches who were fed free—is not expected to present a problem, school officials say. With all physically able parents in the town employed, the number of children needing the lunch assistance will be small, the principals believe.

Local Bowlers Defeat Team From Odessa

The men and women's bowling teams of Big Spring showed two outfits of Odessa exactly how it should be done Tuesday night as they defeated the visitors by neat scores of 2,965 to 2,903 in the men's game and 2,001 to 1,687 in the women's round.

J. L. LeBlieu bowled the highest game of the evening with a 212 score for the third game, followed up by Rat Ramsey's 207 in the second game and J. Christian's 204 in the first round. LeBlieu grabbed double honors when he ended up with the highest total pin score of 557 while O. Payne (Odessa) had runner-up honors with 547. Other players climbing into the 500 bracket of the contest were Ward Hall 507, and the following men from Odessa: J. Christian, 515; D. Alexander, 535.

The highest game of the evening in the women's contest was the 174 of Grace Appling that was followed up by the 169 of Olive Cauble. The highest score bowled by the Odessa team was 145 by Mrs. L. Shafter. Appling and Cauble also ranked one-two in total pins with scores of 430 and 417.

Lend-Lease Not Outright Gift, President Says

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—President Roosevelt says it is not America's intention to write off as pure gifts the materials which are going to our Allies under lend-lease arrangements.

The chief executive took occasion at his press-radio conference yesterday to correct any such implication when he said that two sentences included in the latest lend-lease report, which bore his name, had not actually been approved by him.

The sentences, appearing in a foreword to the report issued while the president was in Quebec last month, read: "The congress in passing and extending the lend-lease act made it plain that the United States wants no new war debts to jeopardize the coming peace. Victory and a secure peace are the only coin in which we can be repaid."

Mr. Roosevelt told the reporters that these statements had an element of truth but yet were not entirely accurate, adding that in a narrow, technical sense, we do not want new war debts. But the nations benefiting from lend-lease are expected to repay us, as much as may be possible, though not necessarily in dollars.

Move Spurred To Stop Draft Of Fathers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Italy's unconditional surrender gave momentum today to a congressional drive for a ban on the drafting of fathers.

On both sides of the capitol demands were voiced for quick action to halt the projected induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers and for a general congressional survey of manpower resources.

"There just isn't any need for the drafting of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers," said Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the house military committee as he predicted prompt enactment of legislation to block the move or at least to forestall it until the middle of next year.

Weldon Bynum Will Coach At Robstown

ROBSTOWN, Sept. 9 (AP)—The board of trustees of Robstown schools announced last night that Weldon Bynum, coach at New Braunfels for the past two years, had been named head football coach and athletic director here. They said Bynum would report here next Monday.

The most troublesome hay-fever period lasts from the middle of August until the first killing frosts.

Lions Told Of Grid Prospects

John Dibreil, whose prematurely gray hair shows what football coaching can do for even the strong, pulled the drapes back temporarily Wednesday and gave the Lions club a glimpse of prospects for his 1943 Steer grid machine.

Virtually throwing caution to the wind—for Dibreil, at least—the coach told Lions that he believed the Steers would have an improved team this year. His boys are short on experience and weight but long on spirit and speed, he explained. The coach added that he had never coached a group of youngsters with as much will to win.

"A hustling ball club is hard to beat," he said. "Our starting line-up will be only 157 pounds, and that includes one 208-pounder, so we probably will be the lightest team in district 3-AA this year."

Jack Odle, who has been volunteering his service as assistant coach, had words of praise for both the boys and the coach and admitted it had been years since he had seen as fast a backfield as the starting lineup will have. "Coach has given me a free hand in working on passing, receiving and punting, so if it falls down, blame it on me," and then he added that he "won't be here to take it" since selective service has called him to report this month.

Dewey Stevenson and Barclay Wood, co-captains, each said "we have pretty good material and with a little help from the town we will have a winning club."

Texas Cotton Estimate Down 375,000 Bales

AUSTIN, Sept. 9 (AP)—Texas cotton production, estimated at 2,900,000 bales as of Sept. 1, will be 375,000 bales of 11.5 per cent less than prospects on August 1, the U. S. department of agriculture reported today.

Texas produced 3,038,000 bales last year and an average of 3,419,000 bales for each year between 1932 and 1941.

Abandonment of acreage from all causes is estimated at 2.0 per cent of the acreage in cultivation July 1, leaving 7,888,000 acres for harvest.

The indicated yield per acre on the acreage remaining for harvest is 176 pounds, compared with 182 pounds in 1942, 165 pounds in 1941, and an average of 160 pounds for the period 1932-41.

The reduction from the splendid prospects of a month ago was due primarily to deterioration in the northern, west central and northwestern high and low plains areas, as the result of drought and an extended period of very high temperatures. It was one of the driest Augusts on record, with rainfall limited to a few widely scattered showers, most of which occurred in the north high plains and in a few counties in eastern and southeastern districts.

Steers Shaping Up Nicely As They Start Scrimmages

The first hard rough and tumble practice of the '43 season was endured by the Big Spring Steers Wednesday afternoon as the boys went through their first scrimmage and left the field with the knowledge that the other guy won't move unless you move him.

The squad went through a rough bit of blocking before the first string met the second string in what proved to be a pretty valuable bit of head knocking for the squad that is gaining more determination and experience with every evening of practice.

The guard position is looking good and Harland Morgan and Thomas, the two boys who are looking the best, have plenty of speed that comes in handy when the guards pull out to form interference for the end plays and the reverses that the team uses with plenty of speed and power. Jimmie Byres, a guard who had plenty of punch and who was coming in mighty handy, was lost by Coach John Dibreil because he was unable to arrange his program in order to attend the practice sessions.

Felix Hudgins is looking good at the end position and is extra good on passes and blocking. The tackles are working hard on the blocking and the defense job and with the practice they will have before the Steers meet their first opponent, Colorado City, on September 17, the boys should fill the spot with what it takes to win the game.

The backs have plenty of speed and they will be hard to find when they carry the ball with the scamper that they will gain with the orders that Coach Dibreil is sending out. Blocking back Leo Rusk was what it takes and seems to have the position pretty well in the bag.

According to Coach Dibreil, the Yearlings will be issued their uniforms next Wednesday and they will be coached by the football players who are ineligible for the Steers. The elementary teams will be supervised by Coach Dibreil but will be coached the same as the Yearlings.

THE WAR TODAY: Hitler Has Been Robbed Of Magic

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Italy's surrender is a good deal like the Christmas present which we knew we should find in our stocking but which is none the less a matter of much rejoicing.

The capitulation of this first member of the axis to go under in the Allied flood represents a military triumph, but the moral effect may be even greater. This is particularly true of the Balkans, where disaffection is running through the axis satellites and the occupied countries are eager to get at Hitler's throat. It will cast a long shadow across the unhappy people of Germany itself.

Italy's collapse has robbed the nazl fuehrer of his magic. Many advantages lie in the triumph, but it seems to me that the vital consideration is that it represents the liquidation of axis power in the whole Mediterranean theater.

The preliminaries to the conquest of Italy are great pages in the history of the global war is the record of a really united effort, in which all the allies played their parts to the limits of their ability.

There was the stonewall stand of the magnificent Red forces at Stalingrad. There was the gallant Allied defense which stopped Rommel's drive toward the Suez Canal. Then came Libya, Tripoli, Tunisia and Sicily. All these contributed to the present victory.

Just as in those grim days of a year ago, so now the operations of the big three—America, Britain and Russia—and the other allies, have served by coincidence or design to complement one another. The collapse of Italy has set Hitler's Balkan bulwarks to shaking like reeds in a storm. Simultaneously Marshal Stalin triumphantly announces the Red capture of Stalino, Hitler's key base in the rich Donets Basin, and proclaims in an order of the day that "the Donets Basin is cleared of the Germans."

Thus the nazl fuehrer's whole vast eastern front, and its continuation down into the cockpit of the Balkans, is rocking under the impact, direct or indirect, of the various Allied operations. The efforts of each ally are bolstering those of the partners. It's important that we keep this firmly in mind, in the interest of unity.

Col. Elliott Roosevelt On Mission In London

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Col. Elliott Roosevelt whose photographic reconnaissance unit with the northwest African air forces helped lay the groundwork for the invasion of Sicily, has arrived in London on a secret mission, it was disclosed today.

The president's son came from Washington, where he had attended a series of military conferences.

Immediately upon his arrival here, Col. Roosevelt, who said he was still attached to the North African theater of operations, conferred with high air force officials, including Col. James Hall, of Fort Worth, Texas, chief of the photographic reconnaissance unit of the U. S. eighth air force.

Natural rubber had been adapted to more than 35,000 uses before the war.

From where I sit...
by Joe Marsh

We were sittin' on Bill Webster's back porch Saturday complaining of the heat.
"Reckon this is the hottest day on record," Homer Bentley observes. "And the thirdest," says Bill, taking a long draught of buttermilk.
That got us on the subject of thirst-quenchers—and Bill allowed as how nothing was as cooling as a tall, cold glass of buttermilk. Thad Phibbs and I both voted for a glass o' cool refreshing beer. Dan Miles said he'd take iced tea, "with a sprig o' mint in it."
"Anyway," says Bill, "we all got a right to our own tastes... and that ought to leave everybody happy."
And from where I sit, Bill's right. It's a small point of course—but tolerance of what the other fellow likes—and his right to enjoy it—whether it's buttermilk or beer—is the important thing in any argument.

Sport Clothes Geared To Wartime

Sports clothes have long been favorites with American women. Their easy wearability, flattery and their casual, right-for-everything air accounted for their universal acceptance. But the war has brought them into a key position spotlighting them as never before. Volunteer workers, defense workers, office workers and college girls — one and all, busy women point on sports clothes for their basic dependability, their versatility, their ability to take hard wear, long wear, and come thru unscathed, and with honors. This year your sports clothes needs are amply provided for. In jackets (No. 1 suit-building ingredient) there are 3-button classics, club collar perennials, cardigans, blazers and "soft" jackets. All of these are datelessly styled for season-in-season-out wear and all top separate skirts, slacks, to perfection. Skirts to go with them are plentiful and smarter than ever with more variation in details. Kick-pleat skirts, new built-up trouser styles, box pleat, boxed, fly-front, button-front skirts abound.

Bright Plaid plaid suspender skirt of rayon and wool sporty enough for school and football games, dressy enough for dates and Sunday wear with the soft velvet jacket added.

Knits or Match Colors
The fabrics for these jackets and skirts are plain, patterned or nubby tweeds, plain, striped, checked or plaid flannels, wool and rayon gabardines, wide wale or pin wale corduroys. And sturdy is the word for all of them. Colors include the browns, greens, blues and reds in light and dark shades, with the neutrals (gray, beige, black) big favorites as always. So if you're suit-minded (and who isn't these days) take yours mixed or matched, but take yours the smart and thrifty way, by building it yourself. Slacks, too, are definitely a staple of wartime wardrobes. Geared for action, for clothes-saving at "at-home" hours, they're expertly tailored (many of them pay special attention to "difficult" figures).

Sweaters Are Tops
Of course your sports clothes wardrobe isn't complete without its quota of warm sweaters, and fresh blouses. In sweaters you may choose the classic pullovers and cardigans, or new novelty styles but whichever you choose you'll be grateful for their cozy warmth, these days of fuel-rationing. Weskies rate high in the warmer-upper-school. Trim and smoothly tailored, they top slacks, skirts, nestle under suits and look really dashing, especially in bright flannels, or knits. There are a bevy of beautiful blouses in classic or dress-up variety, ready to serve you according to the occasion, every hour of your busy day.

P-T. A. Meeting Held At Elbow

ELBOW, Sept. 9—The first fall meeting of the Elbow Parent-Teacher's Association was held at the school house Wednesday afternoon. Highlight of the first meeting was the election of officers. Mrs. Britt Cox was named president. China Relief Fund May Go To $1,000

A special Chinese relief offering taken at the First Baptist church last Sunday, may reach $1,000 before it is sent to state board and alter combined with similar gifts from the Southern Baptist convention.

Church officials said that the collection Sunday had netted $761 to date, and that there was an additional $125 pledged. Several from other denominations had a part in the offering and the pastor, the Rev. P. D. O'Brien, was hopeful that the membership would yet push the contribution, made for the relief of suffering Chinese civilians, to $1,000.

We saw a beat-up Ford of considerable vintage, lacking fenders, running board, and several pieces of equipment, lounging against the curb the other day. On its sides were painted such signs as "Enter Here" and "Don't Laugh At Me, You May Be Old Yourself Someday."

It was a reminder of those pre-war days when every college Joe and high school boy who could talk his family into such a predicament had a jalopy. To add to its beauty, the car got a dose of bright colored paint and signs and slogans to suit the owner's taste.

For a moment we had a wave of nostalgia for those days of long ago and for the boys who used to drive those rattle traps and hold them together with adhesive tape and a prayer.

Then it dawned on us. Those same boys have changed their cars for airplanes. Instead of sallying forth to see their gals on Saturday night, these fellows are flying missions of war in nicknamed planes like "The Warhawk," "The Snuffy Smith" and "The Cindy."

These same boys are holding some of their planes together with adhesive tape and a prayer on the

Editorial - - Balkans' Future Important After Italy's Capitulation

An Italian people broken in morale by bombs and defeats on land, sea and in the air, has capitulated to Allied might to lop off the weakest ally partner but leave for the moment unanswered: How much Italian soil will the Nazi forces of Hitler attempt to hold? What of the future of the Balkans?

Italy's capitulation probably shortened the war some, and undoubtedly will have an enormous psychological effect on Germany and her satellites.

Italy's surrender means the United Nations have won a major battle in the global war, with the fighting that lies ahead likely to be long and bitter before the Germans and the Japanese in their turn surrender.

Now that the Italian fleet is immobilized for good, if not a weapon of the Allies, the British may divert much of their Mediterranean fleet to the Far East in the fight against the Japanese. That is one possible effect of Italy's surrender.

Another military advantage is the fact that the Allies no longer have to bomb or fight the Italians. The others depend on what the Germans do. If the Allies gain the airfields of northern Italy they can base bombers there for attacks on such German industrial objectives as the Skoda arms works in Czechoslovakia, the communication lines in Hungary, installations in Austria, perhaps the oil fields of Rumania.

Through Italy, too, may lie an eventual route to the Balkans to fight the Germans on the front there.

Regardless of whether such benefits accrue to the Allies, the capitulation of Italy makes her island bases available to the Allies—Rhodes and the Dodecanese in the Balkan sector of the eastern Mediterranean, Sardinia and perhaps the French island of Corsica on the west.

As for the psychological repercussions, the crack in the axis that came with Mussolini's fall as dictator of Italy has resounded already in the satellite countries.

Hungary may be the next to bubble with the ferment of revolt. She has always looked to fascist Italy as her protector in the axis, the defender of her interests.

With fascism fallen and Italy out of the war, Hungary's leaders may feel there is nothing to hope for from Germany.

If Hungary goes, so too may the airfields of northern Italy

however, in assaying their position for Germany, needing Hungarian wheat, Rumanian oil and the Danube communications, is not likely to let them go as readily as she abandoned her Italian ally.

Bulgaria might be the first to draw out of the war—She, too, has been closely attached to Italy, since Queen Joanna of Bulgaria is a daughter of Italy's King Vittorio Emanuele. On the other hand, so long as the Germans occupy Greece they are not likely to let go of Bulgaria as a buffer on the side of Turkey along a possible invasion route from the Near East.

Finally, the effect on German morale itself may be important, for Italy's capitulation shows the German the falsity of the Nazi propaganda that all Europe was knit together in Hitler's new order so solidly that the Allies would never shake the continental countries apart. It also proves the might of American and British arms and brings home the fact that this might is knocking at the door of Germany herself.

(The above commentary on the surrender of Italy was written by Richard G. Massock, chief of the former Rome bureau of The Associated Press.)

Washington Daybook— Trouble Ahead For Japs, As Planned At Quebec

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON—While all eyes were centered on the Quebec conference (and nobody was seeing much of anything) the British made a move here which may be one of the most significant in the whole future of our war in the Pacific.

The British Information Service revealed that a special British military, naval and air mission had arrived here to study all the problems of tactics, weapons, supply, communications, transport, and medical services connected with the war against Japan.

The point was underlined that this commission would have no decisions to make in connection with operational planning.

All of which adds up to the fact that talk that the Quebec conference was centered on strategic plans for the war against Japan was so much eye-wash.

Missions concerned wholly with details about weapons, supply lines, etc., aren't even thought of until the major operational strategies are laid out.

The broad outlines for a combined British-American offensive against the Nips must have been laid down long ago—probably at the Washington conference between Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt last May. That's when Generals Stilwell, Chennault, Ewart (from Australia) and Wavell (from India) were present and reporting. It is possible that at that time, too, there was a decision to appoint a new Southeast Asia commander to lead the operations against Burma, the recently named Lord Louis Mountbatten.

There are two important things about the new British mission that seem to have been overlooked:

(1) Its composition. It is headed by Maj. Gen. S. Lethbridge, one of England's most distinguished officers in the Royal Engineers. Naval members are topped by Rear Admiral F. H. W. Golden and Surgeon Captain H. W. Fitzroy Williams. Also from the army is Brigadier H. Bartlett; and from the air corps, Air Commodore L. L. MacLean and Group Captain W. R. Clements. Of the Royal Canadian air force. And when Mountbatten arrived in Washington, that covered about the entire field of military operations. (2) Its plans for survey. These plans include not only a series of thorough conferences with supply, maintenance, communications, etc., officials in Washington, but a visit to the vital military and naval establishments in this country and after that a junket to all the fronts in the Pacific theater.

General Lethbridge's mission isn't window dressing. If it had been, they wouldn't virtually have sneaked into town under cover of the Quebec conference.

They are here for a purpose—and that purpose is working out the details for a combined British-American offensive against the legions of Hirohito that'll make Kiska, Guadalcanal, New Georgia, and even Midway seem like bloody little sideshows.

Tips For Tax-Time This September Business Is Part Of Pay-As-You-Go Plan

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
AP Features Writer
WASHINGTON—That new-fangled tax declaration is due soon.

About 15 million taxpayers must file by Sept. 15 an estimate of their income and Victory taxes on 1943 income, or be liable to a penalty of 10 per cent of their tax.

The purpose is to get tax collecting more completely on a pay-as-you-go basis. The government's idea is:

1. To allow the treasury to "catch up" with wage earners whose income may fall in higher surtax brackets than is covered by the withholding levy.

2. To obtain quarterly payments on 1943 income from merchants, doctors, lawyers and others who receive income which is not subject to withholding. The A in the ABC's of this business is to find out whether you must file a declaration. You must file if you are:

1. Single, and expect to receive in 1943 or received in 1942 an income of more than $2,700 in wages subject to a withholding levy. OR income of more than $100 from other sources, provided total income is $500 or more.

2. Married, and expect to receive in 1943 or received in 1942 an income of more than $3,500 in withholding wages, OR income of more than $100 from other sources, provided your total income exceeds $624 or the aggregate income of you and your spouse amounts to $1,200 or more for either 1942 or 1943.

3. Single or married, and were required to file an income tax return for 1942 and your wages subject to withholding for 1943 are expected to be less than wages for 1942.

Persons in the military services, however, get a special exclusion from taxation of $1,500 in service pay. Therefore a single person in the armed forces would have to receive $2,000 in service pay and a married person more than $2,124 to get into the declaration class.

Moreover, military personnel in foreign countries and on the seas get declaration deferrals.

The safest way to make out a tax declaration is with expert help at a local office of the collector of internal revenue. Here's how to fill out the form:

Obtain a computation form which is provided by the revenue bureau along with the declaration blank. There are two kinds of computation forms, a simplified form and an alternative form similar to the long return used for March 15 reports.

The short form has a tax estimating table which simplifies work and it automatically provides for liberal deduction. However, if deductions, such as interest, taxes and heavy medical expenses, run as high as 10 per cent of gross income, use of the alternative form probably is advisable.

Let's say you use the simplified form. You are married, have two dependent children, and an estimated total 1943 income of $3,600 in salary. List this income on the first line of the computation form. On the next line put total deductions, $2,120. That includes $1,340 for married and $390 for each child. (The deduction if single is $560.)

Subtracting the $2,120 from $3,600 leaves $1,480. The table shows the tax on $1,480 is $252.

Next, estimate what you owe in Victory tax for the year. Subtract $624 (the amount of yearly wages exempt from Victory tax) from $3,600. That leaves $2,976 subject to tax. You take 3 per cent of the latter amount—$89.28. That's your estimated Victory tax. Added to $252 income tax, it makes a total estimated 1943 tax of $341.28.

Now take your declaration form. On the first line put down $341.28. Next estimate total income and Victory tax which will be deducted from your wages. First there is the matter of Victory tax deducted from January 1 to July 1 before the new withholding levy went into effect.

If you can't get the total figure from your employer, compute it this way: Your income in this case for the half year was $1,800. Subtract $312, (half the full year Victory tax exemption of $624) and that leaves $1,488. Victory tax deductions on $1,488 at the rate of 5 per cent amount to $74.40.

Then estimate combined income and Victory tax withholding from your salary between July 1 and December 31. Best way to do that is to multiply the amount deducted from each paycheck by the number of paychecks you expect to receive the last six months of the year. In our sample case the tax withholding is $28.80 on monthly pay of $300. The total withholding for six months is $172.80. Add that to the $74.40 Victory tax withheld in the first six months and you get an estimating withholding for the entire year of $247.20.

Next on the declaration form you subtract the $247.20 from the $341.28, your total estimated tax for 1943. That leaves $94.08. But you can subtract the payments made last March and June on your 1942 income tax.

Bette dared not wait for daylight to launch any scheme for Hollywood—
He's Happy To Make The Grade As A Taxpayer
By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—Here's the tale of a happy taxpayer, a male Cinderella, a big, right guy named William Bendix.
Big Bill grins about taxes. They're too high now ever to permit him to work up one of those old-time Hollywood fortunes, though he's in the money. "I really love to pay taxes," he says. "Makes me feel important. It took me a long time to get to be a taxpayer."
And it did. Today he's under contract to Paramount and 20th Century-Fox for two pictures a year for the next five years. But 11 years ago, when he was a fat and happy grocery clerk in Elizabeth, N. J., a supermarket moved into the neighborhood and wiped out his job. Remember how things were in 1932? That's how things were for Bill Bendix, only worse. Pretty soon the Bendixes—Bill, his wife Tess, and baby daughter Loraine, who's now 13—were living in a dank tenement basement.
One of the jobs he took in desperation, shortly after repeal, was to serve as master of ceremonies in a tavern. No salary, just tips—and those mostly from drunks and toughs paying him not to perform. As a singer he was no Caruso nor Sinatra, and as an m.c. he was painfully self-conscious. Later he tried selling cheese on commission. No go.
When the Federal Theater Project was created, he wanted to get in, but balked at going on relief to qualify. It was Tess who did that for him, after things got so tough Bill had had to send her and the baby to her father. Tess wanted to be back with Bill and she signed him up.
He was with the FTP three years, and then he got a break outside—a good part in the Theater Guild production of "Four Cents a Word." The play never opened. He was in six quick flops after that, with ensuing hard times, before he played the part of Krupp, the policeman, in "Time of Your Life"—and M-G-M couldn't wait to bring him out for "Woman of the Year."
They flew him west, and his part developed into something colossal. He was a star in his first picture—until the cutting room took out all his shine.
Hal Roach signed him for a series of comedies about a taxi-driver, but then Roach went into the army and stopped production. This time, however, Bendix had "arrived."
Other casting directors had seen him and the contracts were waved. He's been featured largely in "Wake Island," "China," and "Guadalcanal Diary," and is getting to be our most popular mugg.

Tax

Say your total tax in 1942 was $163.40 and your March and June payments amounted to half of that, or $81.70. Subtract the $81.70 from $94.08, and you have $12.38. That's the unpaid balance of estimated tax.

You are required to pay half, or $6.19 with your Sept. 15 declaration and the other half on December 15 when you make a similar declaration.

If your 1942 wages were as large as those in 1943, however, chances are your taxes will be "overpaid" and the government tentatively will owe you money. You will not get a refund until you make your annual return for 1943 next March and then it will depend upon whether that final return shows you to be overpaid.

Midland - Corsicana Pipeline To Be Started In November

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—Construction of a pipeline from Midland to Corsicana, Texas, to provide a much-needed outlet for the oil of the rich West Texas-New Mexico Permian Basin, will begin in mid-November, says Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes.

Ickes announced yesterday the war production board had approved the use of 335 miles of new twelve-inch pipe, using 29,900 tons of steel, for the line to carry oil from the Permian Basin, which he described as the "last known area in which the United States crude oil production can be substantially increased."

The secretary, who also is petroleum administrator for war, announced that the WPB also had approved, and that the Magnolia Pipeline company would begin immediately construction of a 46-mile feeder line from Seminole to Midland, consisting of 8-inch second hand pipe.

Ickes said construction of the Midland-Corsicana line would start 30 days ahead of original plans and that construction of a companion outlet for additional movement of West Texas oil would start later this year.

The companion line, to be built by Stanolind Pipeline company from the Slaughter field to Drumright, Oklahoma, will provide an initial flow of 65,000 barrels a day, making the initial capacity of the two lines 107,000 barrels a day.

THE LONG NIGHT

She cracked the top of the slender glass vial carefully against the sill, flung the contents toward those eyes—still the only part of him she could see clearly. Instantly, he burst into a raging howl, went thrashing through the low brush around the house. As she jumped, Bette heard Paul Porter's voice. This time his sharp commands didn't silence the dog. It was going to work! She slipped quickly away from the house, careful to keep up-wind from the cabin lest the effects of the ammonia wear off too soon.

She circled the valley keeping well to the fringe of underbrush encroaching on the meadow itself. There was no moon but she would take no chance that Porter might see her in the few minutes it would take to cross. So it was nearly half an hour before she reached the gap, faced a pocket of shadow so deep she dared not attempt to go on.

Shivering, still trembling with the narrowness of her escape, she sat down to rest, to consider her next move. It was folly to attempt to go on without light. Yet even a match's brief flicker might be enough to attract Porter's attention. She couldn't be sure she was out of sight of the cabin. There was nothing to do but wait for dawn.

Allies Will Have To Beat The Nazis To Get The Italian Fleet

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (AP)—The unconditional surrender of Italy may mean that the Allies will get a still powerful fleet... a fleet that refused to fight more than a year ago.

If the Germans follow their usual course, they already have taken measures to destroy these ships by time bomb or mines and torpedoes.

When the Allies invaded Italy eight of its battleships were still afloat. The Italians also had 15 cruisers, 33 destroyers and three carriers.

They had about 70 submarines, 31 torpedo boats, 115 motor torpedo boats, 27 armed sloops and escort vessels and a number of armed merchant ships and tankers.

The report that the navy base at Taranto has been evacuated may mean that the Germans made the Italians sail their ships from that port. Two 25,000-ton battleships—the Andrea Doria and the Caio Duilio—and a number of smaller vessels were sheltering at Taranto. If they were serious about getting away they probably fled to Pola on the east coast or to Trieste.

The rest of their ships are still out of reach of the Allies and subject to scuttling.

The 35,000 tonners Littoria, Vittorio Veneto and Roma are at the Spezia base on the northwest coast.

The 25,000-ton Giulio Cesare was recently at Pola and probably is still there. The Impero and Cavour, both better than 35,000 tons, are at Trieste, far to the north and east of the toe of the Italian boot.

Allied leaders have long thought that the Italians have been saving their fleet for bargaining purposes. They also realize that the nazis will attempt their destruction in a manner similar to the scuttling of the French ships at Toulon.

Our seizure of these speedy ships depends on speed and luck. We will have to grab them before the Germans make them useless.

There are more than 4,000,000 books in the public libraries of New York City.
