Five Civilians To Take Over Atom Control

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—A five-man board of civilians made ready today to take over from the Army the momentous task of guiding this country into the atomic age. The five—a federal power expert, a physicist, an editor, a retired rear admiral and an investment banker—thus shouldered "responsibilities as great as any men have ever assumed in peacetime."

Schools' Tax Roll A Record $17,293,713

The 1946 tax roll, largest in the history of the Big Spring Independent School district, was approved Monday evening by the board of trustees. Total of the valuations for the district was $17,293,713, a gain of $3,870,530 over the values for 1945, or about 29 per cent. "Inside the city the valuation was approximately $14,000,000, according to estimates based on city values, which are taken for two thirds against the full value for school purposes."

Scores Busy As Salesmen For Welfare Fund

T&P Men Plan Special Rally Wednesday

More than two score volunteers took to the field Tuesday in the opening of the general business canvass of the community fund campaign, and T&P employees scheduled a big rally for 3:45 p. m. Wednesday.

At a breakfast session at 7:30 o'clock in the Settles ballroom, workers under John A. Coffee and Harold P. Steck took prospect cards and began immediately making contacts.

W. G. Wilson, Jr., chairman of the T&P section, assisted by S. H. Newberg, were working out details with Thurman. They hoped to have the high school band on hand for a brief concert to open the rally, and these appeals will be voiced by Thurman, Ted O. Groehl, Mayor George W. Dabney and Capt. Olvy Sheppard. Contact of workers will begin immediately after the rally.

Stalin Sees No Signs Of US-Soviet Tension

Blasts Churchill, Defends Veto

LONDON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin declared today the Soviet Union has not developed an atom bomb or any similar weapon and said Russia's troop strength in the occupied countries of eastern Europe totalled 80 divisions, to be reduced in two months to 40.

He believes that "not only the economic, but also the political, unity of Germany is to be desired." The responses to Mr. Baillie's questions constituted the second such interview Stalin had granted in a period of slightly more than a month. On Sept. 24, in answer to questions submitted by Alexander Werth of the Sunday Times of London, he said he could see no danger of a new war.

Chiang Points To Russian Occupation

SHANGHAI, Oct. 29. (AP)—Foreign observers speculated today that Chiang Kai-shek's drive toward Dairen was his indirect way of serving notice to the United Nations of the continued, illegal presence of Soviet troops in that important port city.

Policy May Be Clarified In Molotov Talk

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—The United States delegation disclosed today that it would approach Russia directly in an effort to end the controversy over the big power veto, which was sharpened in the United Nations assembly today by Generalissimo Stalin's statement defending the veto.

Americans Want To Bring Issue Up For Decision

As small nations took the floor one after the other to urge limitation of the veto in the Security Council and appeal for big power co-operation, it was reported that US Delegate Warren R. Austin was working on a compromise formula which he planned to discuss privately with all the five major powers, including Russia, in an effort to reach an off-the-floor agreement.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Eucamate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose

LOVED for ITS OWN INDIVIDUAL FOLGER FLAVOR!

A unique blending of highest quality Mountain Grown coffees, the Folger Flavor is rich—vigorous, with a fullness that is deeply satisfying and yet with a rare winy tang that is utterly individual and delightful.

Because of the definite intensity and richness of Folger's Coffee, you will find it most economical to use, for in fairness to its extra flavor you should try using less of Folger's than of lesser flavored brands!

For a really good cup of coffee, be sure to ask your grocer for Folger's.

Pen Fugitive Is Captured

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—Roy Wilford, 43, of Kansas City, Mo., wanted for escape from both the Texas and Missouri penitentiaries and by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on three charges, was captured here last night.

Texas Ranger Truman Stone, and Travis county deputy sheriffs arrested Wilford, also known as Roy Meeks as he attempted to flee from a West Sixth Street house. He did not resist.

Sheriff H. D. (Rip) Collins said Wilford was wanted by the FBI on charges of violating the federal motor vehicles theft act and of illegally wearing a government uniform. He said the man's record showed an escape from the Missouri penitentiary in 1940 and from the Texas penitentiary in 1945.

Wilford's Texas sentence was on a conviction of bank robbery and car theft at Sherman 1940.

Collins said he would probably be turned over to the FBI.

Movie Strike In Deadlock

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29. (AP)—Hope for quick settlement of the movie strike, now in its fifth week, dissipated today as the International Alliance of Theatrical State Employees and its insurgent technicians' local 683 failed to patch up their squabble.

A basis for a return to work of Herbert Sorrell's Conference of Studio Unions was established, however, as a plan for a supreme arbiter in minor disputes and a three-man board to settle major issues was placed in motion.

The CSU, IATSE and the Screen Actors' Guild didn't get around to the business of selecting the referee or the board, but that was to be accomplished in a day or so, leaders said.

Deposed leaders of technicians local 683 declared that the bulk of the 2,100 members would not return to work until Roy M. Brewer, named to the presidency by International President Richard I. Walsh, was deposed.

EVIDENCE DEAD, THERE'S NO CASE

SAN GABRIEL, Calif., Oct. 29. (AP)—The jury was in the box and all was ready for the trial of Harry Wooding, 58, on gambling charges.

Wooding was accused of operating a roulette-type wheel which paid off on the basis of which holes two rats stumbled into after being spun around. The state alleged some of the holes were stuffed with cheese.

"Bring on the evidence," Justice Richard J. Keller ordered.

"The evidence," confessed Deputy District Attorney John C. Galliano, "has died."

"Case dismissed," retorted the judge.

Week's Oil Output Shows An Increase

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 29. (AP)—Crude oil production in the United States averaged 4,749,565 barrels daily during the week ended Oct. 26, an increase of 13,833 barrels over the previous week's production, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

Greatest change was Kansas' increase of 13,300 barrels to 280,350 barrels.

California's increase was 2,200 barrels to 875,400. Oklahoma was up 2,200 to 355,850. Michigan gained 403 barrels to 45,900, and the Rocky Mountain area for Colorado, Montana and Wyoming showed an increase of 330 barrels to 169,610.

States with decreases for the week were Illinois, down 2,350 barrels to 202,750; the Eastern area, down 1,500 barrels to 67,500, and Louisiana, which fell off 750 barrels to 401,800.

Texas' production was 2,046,550, the same as the previous week, and Mississippi's 76,105, a drop of 300 barrels.

Parking Meter Installation To Start Soon

Work on installation of 600 parking meters in the downtown area of Big Spring is expected to begin within the next few days, city officials announced today.

The city commission passed a parking ordinance at their last regular meeting to pave the way for the installation. However, the work has been held up pending arrival of an installation specialist to be sent here by the manufacturer. City Manager B. J. McDaniel reported this morning that the manufacturer's representative had notified officials that he would arrive here Wednesday.

The meters were received about a month ago, and standards have been stored here by the city since July.

Gandhi Goes Into Rioting Calcutta

CALCUTTA, Oct. 29. (AP)—Stabbing, burning and looting marked continued Hindu-Muslim strife here today as Mohandas K. Gandhi, Hindu spiritual leader, neared the city on his way to troubled East Bengal.

Congress party officials arranging for Gandhi's stay kept secret the place where he will detain upon his arrival from New Delhi. The visit is his first to Bengal Province since he came last year for a meeting of the Congress Party working committee.

Bows and arrows were among the weapons mobs used in the latest communal violence in Calcutta. In the disturbed Noakhali and Tippera districts of East Bengal where Gandhi is going, however, reports indicated that refugees were returning home slowly under military and police protection and were being given food, clothing and medical supplies, some flown in.

Street Topping Work Scheduled For Next Week

The city street department expects to begin topping 18 blocks of new paving Monday morning, city officials reported today.

Areas involved are mostly blocks connecting present paving, with the largest individual project on Rannels street, between 11th Place and 18th street.

Construction of base for the 18 blocks will be completed by the end of this week, officials said, provided the present working schedule is maintained. The program was stalemated by rains three weeks ago, but full-scale operations have been underway for the past 10 days.

Transportation Is Still Big Worry In Stock Sales

Cattle receipts dropped to approximately 1,000 head today at the West Texas Livestock Auction company's weekly sale, but transportation was causing more concern than the decrease in offerings.

Officials estimated at noon that about half enough railroad cars would be available to handle the day's run. Trucks were to be used for handling as much of the overflow as possible.

Early sales indicated that prices would be virtually the same as last week for cattle and calves. About 100 head of hogs, sent through the ring early, brought up to $28.75 cwt.

Local Group To Water Meet

Four Big Spring men left this morning for Lubbock, where they were to attend a joint meeting of the Permian Basin, Cap-Rock and Panhandle water works and sewerage associations this afternoon.

Development and conservation of water supplies, especially the underground source, were to be featured on the program. E. L. Killingsworth of the city engineering department and secretary of the Permian Basin group was to address the joint session on "Presentation of Resolutions Relative to Ground Water Protection."

Also scheduled to appear on the program were Dr. Waldo S. Glock, associate professor of Geology and Climatology at Texas Tech; Capt. Winfield Holbrook, director of the Texas Water Conservation Association, Plainview; Col. E. V. Spence, member of the State Board of Water Engineers; H. M. Roberts, consulting engineer of Lubbock; and Judge J. E. Sturrock, manager, Texas Water Conservation Association, Austin.

Others attending from Big Spring include B. J. McDaniel, city manager, Herbert Whitney and R. T. Piner.

Rotary Anns Give Program For Club

Rotarians honored their wives, the Rotary Anns, at their regular luncheon today at the Settles hotel.

Mrs. Shine Phillips, program chairman for the Rotary Anns, was introduced by Chester O'Brien, program chairman for the Rotary club during October. Mrs. John E. Bronson, accompanied by Mrs. Ann Houser, sang George Ger-shwin's, "I Got Plenty of Nuttin'" from "Porgy and Bess."

The Rotary Anns then told their pet peeves about their husbands. The tables were decorated with clusters of pyracanthas and the speakers table was centered with a bowl filled with yellow, dwarf marigolds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Cotton futures at noon were $9.75 to $10.00 a bale lower than the previous close. Dec. 29.15, Mch. 28.90, May 28.32.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Bids were forthcoming for individual favorites in today's stock market but many leaders suffered from neglect at slightly lower levels.

Some purchasing was credited by brokers to faint indications that the threatened coal walkout would not eventuate. Other labor disputes, however, were said to have restrained numerous customers who either trimmed accounts or stood aside.

Dealings tapered after a moderately active opening and the direction was rather choppy near midday.

Howard Farmers Not Disposed To Sell Cotton As Prices Drop

Although the farmers seem inclined to give the market a few more days before taking definite action, it will not be surprising if cotton buyers can forget about Howard county cotton until at least next spring, according to forecasts made by local observers today.

Not just a few, but an overwhelming majority of Howard county cotton growers already are pondering the idea of putting their 1946 crop into the government loan while they wait and "feel out" market trends during the next few months.

The local ACA office reported today that a number of farmers already have inquired about the loan procedure at that agency, and some loans are expected to be negotiated within the next few days.

Another market decline as registered Tuesday would place the market price at very little more than the loan value, officials pointed out. It has been estimated that most of Howard county's remaining crop would rate loans of about 21 cents a pound. Unless some farmers have held bales from early harvest, it is doubtful that any would rate as high as 24 cents a pound.

Harvest costs have become more pronounced with each drop in the market for West Texas farmers, since early season scales still are demanded by most migratory workers. Most farmers are paying $2.35 a hundred pounds, delivered at the gin.

The falling market also appears to have hit West Texas cotton growers harder than those in the "deep South" where the harvest reached the advanced stages before the break.

Ex-Texas Ranger Dies At Age 100

BRADY, Oct. 29. (P)—Funeral services for J. W. Alexander, former Texas Ranger who observed his 100th birthday last April, were to be held here today.

He died Sunday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. M. E. Soules. At the age of 15, Alexander ran away from home to join the Union Army in the Civil War. He came to Texas when he was 25 and became a cowhand at Fredericksburg. He served with the Rangers from 1871 until 1873.

He was born April 25, 1846, at Winterset, Iowa, and had lived in the Brady area since 1898. He is survived by six sons, two daughters, 30 grandchildren and 40 great grandchildren.

Roy Rogers, Jr., Makes Appearance

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29. (P)—"He looks plumb strong enough to get up and walk outta that nursery."

Such was the appraisal of Roy Rogers, western actor, as he gazed through glass at his first son, Roy, Jr., 7 pounds 10 ounces, born yesterday. Rogers lost an aerial race from Chicago with the stork, the son arriving an hour before his plane.

The child is the third for Rogers and his wife, Arlene. The others are Cheryl, 6, and Linda Lou 3.

Budget OK'd For Gonzales Foundation

GONZALES, Oct. 29. (P)—A $165,000 budget for 1947 has been approved for the Gonzales Warm Springs foundation by the organization's board of directors and a program is being mapped to assure development of the foundation into Texas' most comprehensive infantile paralysis treatment center.

Treasurer Harold Michelson reported the net worth of the foundation is $580,639 and that bank balances total $306,844. Most of the latter is earmarked for plant expansion.

Ross Boothe of Gonzales was re-elected president of the foundation, as were Michelson as treasurer and Henry Reese III as secretary.

Mrs. J. K. Beretta and Dr. E. A. Cayo of San Antonio, Mrs. H. F. Weibert of Seguin and Joseph Grant of Gonzales were named vice-presidents.

The executive committee is composed of Boothe, Michelson, Reese, A. G. Ainsworth, Frank Boehm, Joseph Grant and Dr. George Holmes, all of Gonzales. Dr. Holmes was reappointed medical director and Dr. E. A. Cayo orthopedic director.

36th Division Given Honor By France

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (P)—Because the 36th Division played a major part in opening an important penetration route toward the Rhine plain, the Republic of France has awarded it the Croix de Guerre with palm.

The award will probably be formally made here Armistice Day, when colors of national guard units which served in World War II will be returned to the state by the War Department, said Carl L. Phinney, president of the 36th Division association. Phinney yesterday received notice of the award from President Bidault of France. The citation noted that the 36th "particularly distinguished itself from Nov. 24-Dec. 2 in the Vosges, where it contributed in a decisive fashion to the victory of Alsace."

In spite of savage resistance by the enemy and a difficult terrain, the citation said, the division executed a daring maneuver and by surprise attack seized the pass and town of Sainte-Marie-Aux-Mines. The break through into the Alsatian plain followed.

Seizure of the pass won the Presidential Unit Citation for the Third Battalion, 134d Infantry.

Briton Relieved Of His Command In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Oct. 29. (P)—A military communique announced today that Lt. Col. Richard H. L. Webb, veteran commander of the First Battalion of Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, had been removed from his command for giving "unauthorized and unofficial opinions" to a group of correspondents the night of Oct. 24.

The incident occurred when Webb, a veteran of several wars and holder of numerous military decorations, took the men to his office to save them from arrest after a subordinate complained they were "interfering" with the screening of Jews following a bombing incident.

The correspondents, who included three Americans, later quoted Webb as making "extremely anti-semitic remarks" while talking with them. All filed stories to Britain, and the United States and military authorities subsequently launched an investigation.

Cotton Carryover Represents A Major Problem

CAMERON, Oct. 29. (P)—The major problem of the cotton industry is to dispose of a 18,500,000 bale world carryover and to find new uses for cotton, Rep. Stephen Pace of Georgia, chairman of the House Cotton Subcommittee, told a crowded courtroom here yesterday.

Pace, travelling through the south to hold hearings on cotton problems, asserted that substitutes, such as synthetics, plastics, rayon, and paper, last year replaced 2,000,000 bales of cotton and this year would replace 2,500,000. He said other factors presenting threats to cotton were the great increase in cotton growing in Russia and the use of acreage for cotton in sections which have never grown cotton before. He said such acreage will grow two bales of cotton per acre as compared to the lower yield over most of Texas.

"The situation for cotton is serious but not hopeless," he said. "It will take courage and work to put over the cotton usage program."

We Learn Some Old Lessons Again

The world is full of disillusionments, and the rate at which these are manifested is in keeping with the tempo of the times.

Thus it is that in the past few years many popular notions have received severe jolts. For instance, there has long existed the idea that the military was a highly efficient organization, but you can't tell the average GI that anymore and make it stick. He's liable to give you the famous quotation from the late General Hugh Johnson that given enough money a blind Chinaman could do as much with a manure rake. The same might be applied to some of our construction and production records during the war, for the national debt (which we'd rather pay as freeman than not have an option on whether to pay) might substantiate the theory.

But down to an every day idea. We are finding out that many of the big industries of the nation are not the all-inclusive marvels we once thought them to be. A case in point is that of our automotive industry.

Time was when most of us had the idea, though we don't know why, that a major automotive industry was a wonderful organization that practically took the raw metal, rubber, wood and plastic and turned it into a truck, car or tractor. Now we learn from the chain of strikes, of all things, that these industries have been well organized points of assembly. They have been getting their parts from various sources and putting them together on their assembly lines to turn out their version of what a well designed and built machine should be.

Because we had the former notion, most of us breathed a sigh when the General Motors and other automotive strikes were settled months and months ago. We didn't realize that a couple of thousand men making ball bearings could stall the lines quite as easily as 40,000 on those lines.

We live and learn, even if it is the old lesson that in a progressively complex society we have to get along together, but that most of us are content to look out for No. 1 and let the rest go hang.

Though Tricky, The Climate's Fine

One of the certainties of West Texas weather is that when one brags on it, the weather is most apt to change. Take the case of George C. Burke, a native Kentuckian converted to a West Texan. After repeatedly telling the folks back home about West Texas sunshine, his mother came to visit—and of course it clouded and stayed that way.

But George is right. The climate is a better talking point than our own natives realize. Take in our cloudy and dusty days, and we still come up with a marvelous record of sunshine and pleasant nights. Although we are fast nearing the normal first frost date, we have been treated to balmy weather in which a coat actually is uncomfortable and which makes a sheet or thin blanket ample cover. Even at the risk of seeing it change, we think it's wonderful.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Big Unions Talk Increases Again

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The biggest unions—the ones which had the biggest strikes since the war ended—are beginning to talk higher wages again.

Those unions are the CIO Autoworkers the CIO Steelworkers, and John L. Lewis, AFL Coal Miners.

Their gigantic strikes, coming as they did in the midst of reconstruction, tied the country in knots.

So far the word "strike" has not been mentioned by the Autoworkers, Steelworkers or Coal Miners. At the moment they're talking only of higher wages.

There is a question: can they afford to strike again any time soon?

The Autoworkers went through five lean months of strike, starting in the fall of 1945 and winding up in the early months of 1946. The Steelworkers struck one month last winter. The coal miners were out two months last spring.

After any lengthy strike, in which workers finally win higher wages, it takes them a good while to make up for the income they lost by strike.

In each of these big strikes—Autos, Steel, Coal—the government went to step in and establish wage limits. It did the same in other big strikes.

But as the months passed the government removed more and more controls from prices and the climax—or the near-climax—came this month when President Truman took all controls off meat.

And he did more. He said the end of most of the other government controls would be speeded up. OPA pulled off more price ceilings. That meant more wage controls were ended, because they apply only when workers produce goods that sell under OPA ceilings.

Looking back over these past four years in which the government controlled wages and prices, the union leaders argue: The government was a lot tighter on wages than on prices.

They argue: Workers need still higher wages to try to catch up with the much higher prices. They argue that the wage increases granted the recent strikers were not enough.

Industry argues that it is the higher wages that have forced prices up.

The Auto Workers are starting their demands by asking higher wages from Chrysler, Packard and Hudson.

The Steelworkers may not say exactly what they want until December, when their policy committee meets.

John L. Lewis wants to talk about wages with the government, which has been operating the coal mines since May.

Meanwhile, because the government still has price controls on autos steel and coal, it still controls wages in those industries.

Hal Boyle's Notebook

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa. (AP)—The Leopard Men of Nigeria are on the prowl again. Recent reports state that upward of 200 clawed and mutilated bodies, victims of the Leopard Men, have been found in the jungle fastnesses.

Nobody knows the exact origin of the Leopard Men, or "Anyotes," but they have given more trouble to white administrators than any other secret society in the history of African colonization. They spread terror among various tribes from Mozambique, across the Congo to the West African coast.

The Anyote wears a leopard skin draped over his head and down to the waist, with two holes cut for the eyes. On each wrist is an ingenious iron bracelet with four sharp prongs which lie flat against the hand when open but project forward like claws when the fist is clenched. They often carry a stick with a replica of a leopard's paw on one end. By jabbing this into damp soil they give the impression of a leopard stalking a victim.

On the warpath, the leopard men wait beside a jungle trail until an unsuspecting villager comes along. Then, shrieking like the animals they emulate they spring on his back and claw out the jugular vein with their iron hooks. The body is dragged into a convenient clearing and mutilated amid a frenzy of fanatical numbo-numbo.

Initiation into the sect is a terrible ordeal, lasting for two months and including torture and mutilation which must be borne with stoicism. The witch doctor impress on the young men the vital necessity for complete obedience to the leader and for absolute secrecy. Death is the penalty for disobedience. In the final ceremony the Laki, or Chief Leopard, butts the prescribed ritual marks in the flesh of the recruit, who then becomes a fully fledged Anyote.

Horrorism is a potent weapon and colonial authorities find it almost impossible to secure reliable evidence against the Leopard Men, even from intended victims who may escape. They do not often escape.

THERE'S MORE THAN ONE WAY TO SEE EYE TO EYE

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

Early To Bed, 3a.m.

NEW YORK — After just about three years covering Broadway, its theaters and its glitter, its saloons and side streets, marching along its length and breadth from dusk to what Runyon calls "the tubercular light of dawn," I have been instructed quite firmly by my doctor to quit my late hours and get to bed by 3 a.m.; 4 at the latest. Or else, he added.

This may seem a slightly laughable hour to be described as "early," but the peculiar requirements of a newspaperman assigned to watch the insanities, inanities and occasional important news which happens in that elastic state of mind called Broadway does more than just keep him out late. It keeps him on edge, a broad target for ulcers and nervous breakdowns, assigns him a permanent pallor lightly referred to as a "night club tan," and in a good many ways works distinctly counter to the sort of existence suggested by, for instance, Bernard Macfadden.

IT IS not so much the hours which convinced my doctor that I should get a new schedule; he objected mostly to the fact that I do my writing from 3 a.m. until 6 of 7, thereupon heading the few blocks for home, my head still full of whatever I'd been two-finger-ing into my Woodstock. The doctor said it is a familiar occupational complaint among his dozen or more newspapermen patients, and that anyone who tries to sleep under these peculiar circumstances is just a journalistic joke. It is a virtual impossibility, he said, to relax in a swift few minutes after pounding a typewriter for several hours. He said the result, unless I adjust myself directly to a slightly more relaxed pattern, would be something referred to in Broadway's clinical terms as "The Whammies," and therefore I'm now a convinced believer in early hours. Three or 4 a.m., that is.

ASKING around, I discovered I am far from the first Broadway reporter to be afflicted with such a condition. In fact, my doctor and a few of my friends in advanced whammies stages congratulated me on having my complaint nipped so early.

"I didn't know about it until I had three ulcers," one columnist confided. Another said he had been to rest homes six out of the last ten years instead of to the mountains or beach. Another gentleman well into his middle years who has been chronicling Broadway happenings with a blithe and apparently carefree pen for a good many years confessed he has become a sleeping pill addict. Still another said he is seriously studying the curriculum of Alcoholics Anonymous, having been unable to withstand the blandishments of the assorted saloon keepers and night club owners who like to build good relations with the press. This latter situation is one of the worst hurdles a Broadway reporter faces. In order to last more than a few weeks on the Main Stem he must be able to look his donor firmly in the kisser and say: "Get thee behind me, Billingsley."

And so to bed! Wow! It's half past four.

GOP's Records Need Checking

WASHINGTON. — It is interesting to look over the field of candidates the Republicans have tushed in to run for Congress now that they expect a landslide. Fortunately for them but unfortunately for the country some of the voters are not taking the trouble to dig into their records.

Take, for instance, the record of Fred W. Danner, Republican candidate to Congress in Akron, Ohio. The average voter does not have the time and inclination to examine documents in the recorder's office in Summit county, Ohio, but if he did some interesting things would develop.

These records show that Mr. Danner, who now seeks to be paid by the federal government, for three years did not even bother to pay his taxes to the Federal Government. In fact, he did not bother to pay up his back taxes until June 27 of this year—just a few weeks after he was nominated on the Republican ticket. Only at that very late date he finally straightened out his tax record with Uncle Sam.

front end of his corn picker, a dangerous machine that slashes and shucks the ears from cornstalks.

Later Mrs. Newburn was worried when the ambassador insisted on washing the dishes after dinner at the Newburn home.

"I wouldn't think of letting you do that," said Mrs. Newburn. "Why not?" replied the ambassador. "I'm perfectly capable. And a guest should do his share of the household work."

"Oh, it isn't that," said Mrs. Newburn. "We take this English China out only for special occasions. I'm afraid you may break it."

Note—Inadvertently, this column recently reported Lt. Gen. Frederick Morgan as the successor to Field Marshal Wilson in Washington. This was in error. Wilson's successor is Lt. Gen. William Morgan.

Richard C. Wooton, attorney and certified public accountant who prepared Bilbo's income-tax return said that the $8,750 was spent in the Doxey campaign, but the senator had no records to substantiate this statement. Nor did he have any substantiation of his statement that the previously noted $25,000 was spent in the Doxey campaign.

Nice pickings, senator, if you can get away with it!

Bilbo's Little Game

This column has already exposed part of Senator Bilbo's little game of securing contributions and "gifts" from Mississippi war contractors. However, there is more to come. Here is another chapter. Previously it was revealed that Senator Bilbo received a present of an 8-acre lake, an island on the lake, a dream house built on the island, furniture to put in the house and a $1,912 Cadillac—all from two war contractors who got Army jobs through the help of the Mississippi senator. It was also revealed that two contractors gave Bilbo $25,000 which he later claimed was a contribution to the senatorial campaign of Wall Doxey, though the latter said he never spent anywhere near that much.

However, on top of all this, B. L. Knott of the Morrissy-Knott Construction company, gave Bilbo $5,000 on June 12, 1941. Later, on Sept. 7, 1942, Knott gave Bilbo's secretary, Edward F. Terry, $3,750.

Morrissy and Knott had not only helped construct Keeler Field at Biloxi, and Key Field at Meridian in 1941, but had received $3,527,268.39 in war contracts in 1943.

The two "presents" they gave Bilbo were charged on the company's books in equal amounts to the personal accounts of the two partners. When questioned about them by government inspectors, Morrissy refused to comment. Knott stated that they were for the Wall Doxey senatorial campaign.

However, Senator Doxey and his campaign associates all said that no such money had been spent by them.

Spanish War Surplus

As if there weren't enough headaches in disposing of the war surplus goods from this war, the War Assets Administration recently had to unload some ancient horse-drawn ambulances used in the Spanish-American war.

The problem finally was solved by removing the wheels and painting the bodies in delicate pastel tints.

Presto—the relics were converted into gay cabanas and bathing shelters for seashore resorts. They sold like hotcakes.

American ingenuity also is finding practical applications for other surplus war items, including ammunition cartons. Some young ladies would be surprised to learn that the box now containing flowers from an admirer once contained bullets. Florists are buying "ammo" cartons by the hundreds.

Air-raid helmets make laying nests for hens, while WAA press agents boast that metal Army helmets have become drinking troughs for hogs, though, as hog-raisers ourselves, we very much doubt that one.

Capital Chaff

Zinc speculators were burned up last week by Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho. It had leaked out that the OPA would grant an increase in the price of zinc, following which the OPA postponed action for three days. This gave the smart operators time to go out and buy zinc before the rise. So Senator Taylor, furious that OPA would permit a situation where a lucky few stood to profit on something the entire industry should know, called in Idaho newsmen and announced the price rise. . . . Washington hostesses are miffed at Ingrid Bergman for vetoing their dinner invitations. Opening in Knott stated that they were for the Wall Doxey senatorial campaign.

However, Senator Doxey and his campaign associates all said that no such money had been spent by them.

British Envoy Washes Dishes

When British Ambassador Archibald John Clark-Kerr made an unannounced visit to an Iowa farm recently he threw a big scare into friendly farmers by riding on a corn picker.

However, he caused an even bigger sensation when he volunteered to wash the dishes after a meal in the home of his hosts, the parents of 21-year-old Roger Newburn of Webster City, Iowa. Roger is the 4-H Club member who invited the ambassador to the tall-corn county during a meeting at the British embassy in Washington last August.

Roger's father held his breath while the British envoy rode the

Animals Getting Out Of Hand

Animal crackers: Someone ought to notify the animal kingdom that man dominates this earth. In Texas, some of the animals are getting out of hand.

For example, down in Harlingen a coyote attacked Johnny Osborn. Osborn lives at a hotel. As he walked up the front porch, the coyote leaped at him. He had to summon help. Charlie Reece, city jailer and poundmaster, shot the animal.

In Hillsboro, Mrs. R. A. Matthews was bitten by a squirrel. She was burning trash when the squirrel jumped off a fence, bit her twice on the arm. She knocked it off, and a pet cat tried to come to her rescue. The squirrel chased the cat away, howling. Joe E. Matthews, Mrs. Matthews' son, finally killed it with a rock.

And in Brownsville, a rattlesnake delayed the march of progress. The rattler was in an old control tower at the International Airport. It was to be reroofed. H. H. Hoagland climbed into the tower, saw the snake, and fled. Work was delayed until the rattler could be cleared out. A day or so.

It's things like that that make people cynical. Such as, for example, the woman who was looking at the lovely and raggy hawkeye scene in the new Walt Disney movie "Make Mine Music."

"Bet there are snakes in there," she commented.

An animal was born in Lufkin which looks like a dog, cries like a cat, has feet like a panther, and ears and tail of a pig. The animal freak was shown by Mrs. O. D. Brett of Burke. It was born on the Etrett farm. A brood sow gave birth to it, along with a little of 10 normal pigs.

The animal, still alive and being fed cow's milk, is called a "hog-cat" for want of a better name.

Joe Gunnels, hunting near Trinidad, killed a snow white squirrel, a very rare thing. Last recalled in the neighborhood was killed in 1875. It had pink eyes.

Pinza Courts Movies

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Opera the flood of protest that followed his singing on the radio what he thought was a nice song—"Besame Mucho."

"There is only one thing I have sought after in my life—outside of my wife," he confessed, "and that is a career in pictures. Everything else for me, with no effort on my part, has happened for me. But now I am seeking something."

With Italian sweeps of the hands, the singer explained to me that he is not placing his hopes too high, but thinks he is making progress today his goal. He made his celluloid debut with "Carnegie Hall," in which he sings and acts a bit. He will soon be heard kidding with Crosby on Bing's radio show. And he probably play Chappalin in the life of S. Hurok.

From appearances, Pinza should do all right in films. He has a handsome, aquiline face, and from reports he is a better actor than most in Opera.

"In opera there is not much opportunity to act," he said. "Most performers think only of their voices. They have to be ready for their cues and don't have time to worry about their expressions. They have been trained only for the voice."

"But when I studied in Bologna, we also had to take a course in how to act, as well as how to sing. I always try to be natural in an opera role, and yet feel the part."

You can be assured that Pinza will not be singing "cement mixer—putt! putt!" on the screen. "I realize you have to popularize in the movies," he said, "but you cannot go too far or you will lose your opera audience." He recalled

Quakers Take Over Herd's Position In Grid Ratings

Texas Still Sets Pace Among Clubs In S'west Circuit

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP)—The top trio among the country's football powerhouses—Army, Notre Dame and Penn—today headed in that order into the last half of the race to decide the 1946 National championship.

And while it appeared more certain than ever that the titanic clash of the Cadets and the Irish was a week from Saturday would all but decide, it also became evident that George Munger's Quakers were going to have their say in the deciding.

Army, salting away victory No. 24 with its 19-0 victory over Duke had no trouble staying at the top in the Associated Press' weekly poll of the nation's sports writers, while Notre Dame enhanced its second-place standing with a 41-6 romp over Iowa.

With Texas and Tennessee dumped from the ranks of the unbeaten and untied, Penn's 32-19 verdict over Navy moved the Quakers from sixth place into third. Another shift jumbled the University of California at Los Angeles, Pacific Coast pacemaker, from fifth to fourth.

Penn. like Army and Notre Dame, has an easy week ahead, meeting Princeton while the Cadets ease off with West Virginia and the Irish meet Navy. And Columbia, Penn's next opponent, should do nothing to mar the Quaker's unbeaten record going into their Nov. 16 clash with Army.

Of the 172 scribes casting ballots in this fourth weekly poll, 104 put Army at the head of the list. Sixty-one—40 more than last week—favored Notre Dame as the No. 1 team. The other seven first-place ballots were split among Penn., with four, and UCLA, Georgia and Harvard, with one apiece.

Based on the usual system of ten points for a first-place vote, nine for a second, eight for a third, and so on, Army piled up a staggering 1,647 points, 138 more than last week's count. Notre Dame picked up 238 over last week for a 1,578 total. Penn and UCLA were the two other teams to top the 1,000 mark.

Georgia, which trampled Furman 70-7, skipped from seventh to fifth place and completed the select list of the major unbeaten and untied among the first ten. Harvard, sixth of the majors with a clean slate, ranks number 17 in this week's poll.

After Georgia came Northwestern, followed by Texas, Rice, North Carolina and Tennessee's 19-6 trouncing by Wake Forest still left the Longhorns and the Volts among the first ten. Wake Forest, was down the list in 27th position last week, was advanced to 12th place with 101 4-5 points on the basis of its upset of Tennessee.

Standings of the top ten teams (first place votes in parenthesis; Points based on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 system):

Team	Points
1-Army (104)	1,647
2-Notre Dame (61)	1,578
3-Pennsylvania (4)	1,100
4-UCLA (1)	1,018
5-Georgia (1)	935
6-Northwestern	659
7-Texas	500 4-5
8-Rice	465 4-5
9-North Carolina	281
10-Tennessee	191

Hamlin, Riddle, Metheny Liable To Major Draft

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—It is becoming more apparent each year that baseball's annual selection, more popularly known among the fans as the draft, is dying a slow death due to the growth of the farm system.

With the chain system now in vogue, nearly all of the good prospects in the minors belong to major league teams, and usually they are drafted prof. Before the season's close the parent clubs "purchased" the contracts of their minor league hirelings, and of course when the annual draft meeting is held most of the players left for selection are those least in demand.

In the lengthy list recently submitted to big-league club owners by Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler, there are some 3,000 eligibles for the Friday, Nov. 1, draft selection. Largest in years—but it is difficult even to find half a dozen likely prospects.

The list includes LeRoy Parmelee, John Hutchinson, Johnny Riddle, Hugh Poland, Bud Metheny, Fred Frankhouse, Tom Sunkel, Pete Gray, Mike Garbaruk, Luke Hamlin, Jimmy Bucher, Alex Kampouris and Ray Harvell, Cy Buker, Chet Kehn, Don Lund, Les Barge, Garland Lawford, Bob Wilkins, Steve Peck and Johnny Moore.

Some of the more opulent clubs have declined to bid for any players. Last year's bid players were chosen. Of these, only two Gene Handley of the Philadelphia Athletics and Mike Budnick of the New York Giants, lasted out the season.

In 1945, 21 players were selected and all were returned to the minors, although three, Vance Dimes, LeRoy Jarvis and Howard Moss, returned for another trial. That in sharp contrast to other years when such draft gems as Grover (Pete) Alexander, Hack Wilson, Lefty O'Doul, Pinky Whitney, Curt and Virgil Davis, Red Lucas, Sam Gray, Hal Carlson and others were plucked from obscurity.

Probably the biggest draft bargain of them all was Alexander. Picked by the Phillies off the Syracuse club late in 1910, Alex began to pay off immediately. He won 28 games in 1911, a rookie pitching record which still stands.

In '27 the Phils took a young third baseman from New Orleans named Art Whitney who became one of the finest infielders ever to wear a Philadelphia uniform. The same year the Giants came up with Lefty O'Doul, who twice led the National League in batting. The year before, the Chicago Cubs secured a chubby, broad-shouldered kid named Lew Wilson from Toledo for the $7,500 waiver price. A few years later, Wilson set a National League home run record of 56.

Pin Removed From Bronchial Tube

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (AP)—An open safety pin which Kathleen Molby swallowed nine weeks ago—when she was about one month old—was removed yesterday in an operation at Children's Memorial hospital. The pin was removed from her right bronchial tube. The baby was brought here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Molay from their home in Wilmington, Calif., for the operation. Hospital attendants said she was "resting easy."

Cayuse Kickers Pacing League

By The Associated Press
Speaking of punters just take a gander at what the booters at Southern Methodist University are doing. Eight players have kicked the ball in SMU's five games this season and averaged 39.0.

Bill Richards is the leading kicker of the team with an average of 43.5 yards on the 19 times he has put his toe into the oval. Richards also tops the Southwest Conference statistics released today by James H. Stewart, executive secretary, "show."

Tied for second are Huey Keeney of Rice and Ed Green of Southern Methodist with an average of 41.7. Richards, Green, and Bill Moxley have done most of the punting for SMU but Wayne Campbell, Rollin Frase, Frank Payne, Billy Mizell and Bill Weatherford also have been called upon for kicking duty.

It's nothing new, however, for SMU to have terrific kickers. Last year Howard Maley led the nation.

Good kicking has made SMU one of the leaders in defense in the conference. The Mustangs have held the opposition to 939 yards in five games—an average of 188—to rank second behind the Rice's 165-yard average.

Individual leaders in conference football remain about the same as last week. Ken Holland of Arkansas tops the ball-carriers with 334 yards on 79 runs. Bobby Layne of Texas leads the passers, with 719 yards on 44 completions in 76 tries. Jim Canady of Texas is the leading pass-receiver with 300 yards on 12 catches. Marion Flanagan has run back five punts for 163 yards to lead in that department. Texas still is the team offensive leader with 2,327 yards in six games—an average of 388 per game—and Rice is pacing the defense.

Texas has one of the country's top passing records with 62 completions in 109 throws—an average of .562.

Jayhawks Nose Out Knott Five

Howard County Junior College's Jayhawks nosed out the Knott Independents, 36-33, in a basketball exhibition game unreeled at the Steer gymnasium Monday evening. The Knott quintet substituted for the Ackerly All-Stars, whose management, advised the JayCee coach, LeRoy Bush, that his team could not make the trip. The Hawks will play the Ackerly club in Ackerly Wednesday night.

Jack Griffin led a torrid pace last night, ringing up 13 points, but he and his mates had to be on their respective games to subdue the Knott clan. Tommie Elliott popped up with nine points in the H.C.J.C. attack. John Rudisell wasn't far behind with seven while Troy Brown came along with three field goals.

Griffin, Elliott and Brown started the contest along with Wesley Deats and R. L. Heath. Jimmy Felts was the Knott standout. The Big Springers led at half time, 36-33.

J'Davis-Lamar Standout Bout

By The Associated Press
Conference play will be in full swing this week in the sixteen districts of Texas schoolboy football with a clash between Lamar and Jeff Davis at Houston as the feature.

This is the only game matching district leaders. Lamar, Jeff Davis and John Reagan are tied for the top with two victories against no defeats. Reagan this week plays Milby, the second-place team. District 6 opens the conference drive this week—the last district to start championship play. Favored Highland Park (Dallas) goes to Sulphur Springs and Arlington to Denton.

Only five districts have undisputed leaders to date—Ysleta in District 4, North Side in the Fort Worth district, Orange in District 14, Austin in District 15 and Brownsville in District 16.

Southwest Conference Tilts May Play To 750,000 Fans

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—The Southwest conference should register over three-quarters of a million paid admissions for its home football games this season.

Already pushing toward halfmillion mark and with 15 games to go, the conference is certain to break all attendance records.

A contributing factor has been all good weather for its games but the major reasons have been stronger teams and a general interest upturn with plenty of money and a universal spending mood.

Despite the fact that each school raised its prices, 19 home games this season have drawn 442,132—an average of more than 23,000 for the same period last year 24 games drew 274,499 — an average of 11,437.

If this season's average is maintained the conference will end up with better than 750,000 and there is no reason to believe it won't be with such big games as Southern Methodist-Texas A. and M. (already a sellout for the 47,000 capacity Cotton Bowl), Rice-Texas A. and M. (which should draw 40,000) and Texas-Texas A. and M. which will attract 45,000.

The only school that has failed to show a gain this season is Texas Christian and it is not far behind 1945. Texas is better than 100 per cent ahead of last year, Rice is almost 100 per cent and Texas A. and M. is up almost 50 per cent.

Southern Methodist, however, shows the greatest gain of all.

The Mustangs played three games at home last year to this date and drew 21,150; this year two have attracted 56,396. Baylor in four games last year had 21,465; in two this season it has shown 27,000.

Arkansas' average is a little ahead of last year when four home games brought in 40,786 while this year two have drawn 21,740.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Jumbo Jim McWhorter, the talented young coach of the football Yearlings and chief scout for Head Mentor Johnny Dibrell, says Midland may be the toughest club Our Town's Steers will meet from here on out.

According to Jim, Midland's team has the speed and the deftness afoot to give the Steer forwards plenty of trouble unless they keep on their toes and slam them to earth before they get started.

Dunny Goode? Mac says he's the best running back he's looked at this year and that includes Byron Townsend, Pug Gabriel, Lloyd King, Brian Roberts, Pat Patterson, et al. And Dunny, it seems, has plenty of help from Bobby Cole and Bobby Drake.

What about Abilene? McWhorter allows as how the War Bird passing game will deal some misery but Pete Shotwell doesn't have much of a running game. Jim thinks we can take Abilene, San Angelo and push Sweetwater down to the wire.

In short, we're not out of the District 3AA race yet. All it would take to put the boys back in the scrap would be for Midland or Sweetwater to knock the Odessans off their lofty perch, and that isn't outside the realm of possibility. If the homelings knuckle down against Sweetwater like they did last year, then the Ponies are in for a bad time.

Here another surprising McWhorter revelation: Lloyd King of the Abilene troops, as a passer, is nothing out of the ordinary. On the other hand, his receivers, Duane Hendley and Bill Middlebrook, are about the best in the business. They devour anything close to them.

Jim Nooncaster, who scouted the Longhorns for the Midland club last weekend, coached at Brownfield high back in the '30's. He fielded a district winner there around 1935 and ran into one of John Dibrell's crackerjack Colorado City teams in the regional The Wolves won that one, 18-0.

One of the standouts of Nooncaster's team was Jiggs Tankersly, brother to Jack Tankersly, who gave the Bovines such a bad time two weeks ago. Nooncaster, who saw Jack play this year, says Jiggs was the better operative because he was bigger (around 200).

Every member of the Dallas baseball club, which won the Dixie Series recently, collected $306.94 from the pennant fund raised by Dallas Fans. That raised their "take" on the playoffs to nearly $1,000 apiece.

DENISON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Most duck hunters don't know a duck when they see one, says Game Warden Eddie Laird after the weekend opening of the wildfowl season on the Texas shores of Lake Texoma.

On Saturday's opening day seagulls on the big lake persisted in flying formations. Quick-on-the-trigger hunters kept shooting them down.

Warden Laird warned that he would have to start getting tough with no excuses taken. The Gulls are protected by a $25 fine.

Cowhands Must Win Wednesday To Retain Lead

Championship of the Grade school football league is expected to be decided Wednesday, Nov. 6, when Central's Red Devils tangle with the West Ward Waddies at Steer stadium.

However, in order to keep their chances alive for a clear shot at the title, the Cowpokes must get by a dangerous College Heights club tomorrow afternoon. The White Shirts from College Heights have won one and lost one to date.

Their only reversal came at the hands of Central, defending champion and strong favorite to repeat as pennant winners.

West Ward will depend upon an offense built around the sensational little Spec Franklin. Franklin has plenty of help from such mates as Dewey Byers, Bobby Hayworth and Gene Gross.

Other games Wednesday will pit North Ward against Central and East Ward against the South Ward Midgets, still looking for their first victory in two seasons of play.

The program will get underway at 3:30 p.m. Quarters of all the contests will be limited to six minutes each.

Jewelers Gain On Innkeepers

Nathan's Jewelers, who have been fighting to keep out of the second division of the Classic bowling league, made major strides toward the top spot in Monday evening competition at the West Texas Recreational Center by shutting out Texas Electric in three games.

The Nathan sweep was the only one in four matches. The circuit pace setters, Douglass Hotel, edged Fox's Cafe, Big Spring Neon outdueled HiWay Package store and Elmo Wasson stopped State Drug, all by a 2-1 count.

C. J. Staples of the Wasson quintet had to share individual scoring honors with Jack Smith of the Druggists after making off with the high single game with a 214. Both Smith and Staples banged out a 561 for the aggregate tops.

Wasson's quintet compiled a 2351 to beat out the Innkeepers for team scoring laurels. The Hostlers came through with a tally of 2523.

More than 23 billion people rode on the trolley coaches, street cars, and gas buses of the nation last year, an increase of 75 percent above prewar levels.

Surplus Aircraft Prices Are Lower

Although prices on many retail articles are advancing, the War Assets Administration has announced decreases for prices of several types of surplus aircraft, and the planes can be purchased from WAA storage depots on a "first come, first served" basis. No priority certificates are needed for purchase.

Beginning today, any primary trainer, except a Fairchild PT-26, can be acquired for as low as $250, less than half the former minimum, the WAA said. Twin engine Cessna's, including two Army and one Navy model, are reduced to as little as $1,000. Howards, Beechcraft, Waco and Stinson models likewise have come down sharply in price, as well as transport types.

Complete information on exact prices of specific models of all surplus government aircraft and location may be obtained from the WAA regional office in Fort Worth, or from the office of aircraft disposal, 425 Second street NW, Washington, D. C.

New Chief Of Staff For Air Command

TOKYO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Thomas D. White of Ann Arbor, Mich., was designated chief of state of the US Pacific Air Command today, replacing Maj. Gen. Clements McMullen, who is returning to Washington for reassignment. White has commanded the Seventh Airforce since June, 1945.

Woman Charged With Kidnaping Makes Statement

Mrs. Lupe Garcia, 23, charged with kidnaping of 2-year-old Glyndon Bradley, Colorado City, here last Thursday, has made a statement in connection with the case, police said Tuesday.

Officers quoted her as saying that she had been drinking and that the first thing she knew she was at the bus station with a baby. She did not know why she took it with her to San Angelo.

Her statement reiterated that she first met Ralph Fernandez Lovington, 46, on the bus. This tied in with a statement by Lovington, said authorities. He has been held in connection with the case, having been taken into custody as he got off the bus with Mrs. Garcia.

Glyndon is the son of Mrs. L. P. Barfield, Colorado City, who, with her husband, was eating in a cafe in northwest Big Spring at the time the child, who had been left in the car, was missed.

By The Associated Press
 Southern Methodist University is setting the pace in the Southwest Conference B team football league.

The Mustang B's have won four games and lost none, giving up only 12 points to the opposition. Texas and Rice are undefeated but each has been tied.

Three games are scheduled this week. Southern Methodist plays Texas at Austin Friday night while Baylor engages Texas A&M at Waco. Saturday Arkansas clashes with Magnolia A&M at Magnolia, Ark.

The B teams standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts	Opp	Pct.
S. Meth.	4	0	0	65	12	1.000
Texas	1	0	1	20	13	.750
Rice	1	0	1	20	13	.750
Tex A&M	2	1	0	40	13	.667
Arkansas	3	2	0	57	45	.600
TCU	2	3	1	78	54	.400
Baylor	1	3	0	57	41	.250

Results last week: Texas 7, Rice 7 (tie); Texas A&M 21, Baylor 0; Arkansas 13, Arkansas Tech 6; Texas Christian 7, Oklahoma 7 (tie).

This week's schedule:
 Friday—Southern Methodist vs Texas at Austin (night); Baylor vs Texas A&M at Waco (night); Saturday—Arkansas vs Magnolia A&M at Magnolia, Ark. (night).

Surplus Phone Equipment To Be Put On Sale

A national fixed price sale of a large quantity of unused and used telephone wire and cable and related miscellaneous items, having an original cost to the government of about $3,000,000, has been announced by the War Assets Administration.

Orders for the material received by Nov. 6 will be filled in the following sequence: First priority (certified veterans of World War II); second priority (RFC for resale to small business); third priority (state and local governments); and fourth priority (certified non-profit organizations.) The remaining inventory will then be used to fill orders received from commercial users.

The equipment is located at the ASF Depot, Bellemead, N.J., and all inquiries and offers to purchase should be made directly to the War Assets Administration, 70 Pine Street, New York 5, N.Y. A catalog listing of the property may be obtained from the Fort Worth WAA regional office.

As material becomes available, similar sales will be held in other sections of the country, the WAA announcement stated.
