STRETCHING YOUR MEAT DOLLAR

and make a major impact on your food budget.

During 1981, food-price hikes will be due mainly to upward trends in prices of meat and meat products, forecasters predict.

Since meat costs are usually the largest part of the food budget--25 - 30 percent, follow several meat-stretching basics and save.

two major steps: buying and preparing.

other meats, providing highmins and some fat.

Let "cost-per-SERVING" be a buying guide. Don't go by "cost-per-pound" only.

To figure according to "cost-per-serving", determine how many servings a pound of various cuts of meat will yield, then look at the price per pound and DIVIDE it by the number of servings. Your answer is the cost-perserving.

Here's an example of how that works:

Let's say a pound of ground e meat cost $1. It yields four servings. Divide $1 by four. The answer is 25 cents, so ground meat -- in this case -costs 25 cents PER SERVING. Now let's compare that with ribs. Say a pound of ribs costs 60 cents. Ribs only yield about two servings per pound. So divide 60 by two. The answer 7, is 30 cents, so ribs, in this case, cost 30 cents PER SERV-ING.

or half lamb shoulder and half beef round. An interesting Stretch your meat dollar -- combination is white-meat chicken with yeal.

Another argument for grinding your own meat focuses on specials--savings can be significant when a larger cut of less-tender meat is on "special" and you grind it yourself.

Usually pre-packaged ground meat at the grocery market is made from lesstender cuts anyway, along with trimmings from the Meat stretching depends on chuck, round and sirloin. Pork and lamb ground meat is from the shoulder or shank cuts.

Surprisingly to some consumers, the ribs are more expensive than the ground meat in this example.

How can you know the number of servings different cuts of meat will yield?

Use this guideline: meat that is mostly lean with no bone, gristle or fat makes about four or five servings per pound. Round steak and ground beef are examples.

Meat with much fat, bone and gristle, such as short ribs or spare ribs, usually provides only one or two servings per pound.

Finally, in buying meats, consider a variety of meats so you can take advantage of specials. Compare prices of beef, pork, lamb, poultry, and fish. Also, the "Variety" meats, such as liver, kidney and other organ meats are usually bargains.

'PREPARE' TO SAVE "Prepare" to save--that is, prepare menus and food items with savings in mind.

Use more ground meats, since they are economical, versatile and convenient.

Use them in elegant casseroles, pastas, meat loaves, meatball dishes or as simply meat patties.

Stretch the number of servings per pound by adding nonfat dry milk, soy mixtures, rolled oats, cracked wheat, egg and bread crumbs.

Or you can use vegetables as meat extenders -- mushrooms, celery or onions are examples. Add a bit of crumbled bacon, garlic, herbs and spices and you have interesting tastes with budget-impactful economy.

To vary the meat selection, grind your own meat and mix less-expensive cuts with moreexpensive cuts -- half chuck with half sirloin, for example,

THE EGYPTIANS

For an update report on the Egyptians read Isaiah chapter 30 verses 7 and 8. Also Isaiah chapter 31, notice verse 3 and consider the Camp David accord, the peace treaty made between former President Carter, Sadat of Egypt and Begin of Israel. In this verse, three national leaders are referred to as falling, as well as the three nations they represent. Carter fell last November on election day, Sadat of Egypt has been assassinated and Begin of Israel will be the next to fall. He may hold out until the King of the North that is mentioned in Daniel chapter 11, verse 40 or 41 through 45, when this King will take Jerusalem and in a very short time will take the whole nation of Israel and Egypt, also several other nations including America.

The Assyrian mentioned in Isaiah chapter 31 should be a German King. Most of the German people are the descendants of the Assyrians of ancient Assyria. They began to settle in Europe some 2,000 years ago and eventually forming the German nation, so we can assume that the King of the north will be a German. Read Isaiah chapter 11, verses 11 through 12. Isaiah chapter 27 verse 13, the Assyrian mentioned in this verse should be the present nation of Germany or possibly east and west Germany united. Some of the prophecies of the Bible are dual in meaning.

The ten tribes of Israel were taken into captivity by the Assyrians of ancient Assyria in 721 B.C. and the Descendants of the ten tribes of Israel along with the house of Judah the Jewish people are to be taken into captivity by the Assyrians of our time during the 31/2 year tribution period and many of them being delivered at the time of the Second Coming of Christ. The Assyrians of our time being the German nation and one of the ten nations that will make up the last revival of the Roman empire. If we don't want to do slave labor for our enemies, better be making preparations for this coming time of trouble. This includes the young women also, the enemy will be after you too. The reason I have written the articles I have been writing is to fill in the gap that most of the preachers are leaving open.

NOV. 13 TO 20 - DIABETES WEEK

About one out of every fifty persons has diabetes and those who know they have it lead normal healthy lives, as long as they observe proper care. THERE ARE MANY UNKNOWING DIABETICS.

Unfortunately, no painful discomforts disclose the beginning of diabetes. It can cause serious harm before it becomes known.

URINE SUGAR A WARNING SIGNAL.

By dipping a testing paper in the urine, you can tell if sugar is present. This indicates the possibility of diabetes and a quick visit to a physician for further tests is a "must." We have these inexpensive testing papers in our Diabetes-Aids section.

DIABETES IS OFTEN HEREDITARY.

It is not contagious, but if there are diabetics in the family, diabetes is a hazard. This danger is increased by overweight.

DIABETICS CAN LIVE LONG LIVES.

SCRIPTURAL WORSHIP

I Corinthians 14:26, "How is it then, brethren? When ye come together, everyone of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying." Hebrews 10:25, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

Many Christians do not ever worship God in a Scriptural fashion. In fact, the way the Bible teaches us to have church would be considered out of order in the majority of churches today. Nothing can mess up your theology or your program like the Bible. Most people pay more attention to tradition than they do to the Word of God. "Well, this is the way we've always done it," they say, and anything different than their way is fanatical or weird whether its in the Bible or not.

Scriptures teach us that when we gather for a church service, that we are to worship God, hear the Word of God, exhort one another, and make our contribution to the service (I'm not referring here to monetary contributions). Though the majority of Christians rebel at the thoughts of it, the Bible teaches that we should clap hands to the Lord, shout with the voice of triumph, sing in the Spirit, raise our hands, testify in the congregation, pray and praise God together (all praying aloud at the same time), allow the Holy Spirit to manifest Himself through gifts such as tongues, interpretation of tongues, prophecy, healings, miracles, supernatural revelations, and other ways.

Usually, due to limited space, I don't list very many of the Scriptures in my article here that I base my comments on, but because this subject is so foreign to most of God's people and most Christians will label people who believe in these things as "nuts" instead of paying attention, I have listed below a number of Scriptures that teach us how to worship God in church. Psalm 92:1, 98:4, 22:22, 35:18, 107:32, 149:1, Luke 24:52-53, Acts 2:4, Acts 4:24 & 31, Ephesians 4:11-12, Colossians 4:16, I Corinthians 12:7-11, 12:28, I Corinthians 14:26-40, Psalm 47:1, 63:3-4, I Timothy 2:8, Ephesians 5:18-19, Colossians 3:16. Read for yourself. Notice such phrases as, "lift up hands", "lifted up their voice in one accord", "they were in the temple (or congregation) praising and blessing God", "forbid not to speak with tongues," and "to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit." Now, after reading these things, make your decision to worship like the Bible says. You know, God is right even if it does go against our tradition. He intended for each of us to be a participator in worship, not a spectator in the service. Forget the church bulletin and go by the Bible. Supernatural things will begin to happen. Paid Adv. A number of steps are necessary before the coal becomes fuel. The coal is first crushed into chunks averaging 3/4" in size; it is then pulverized to a face-powder consis-
