Grasshopper Control

The grasshopper problem is still severe in some parts of the county. As the grasshoppers mature they may not feed as voraciously as they have early in the year, but the numbers are still high enough to cause considerable damage.
There are insecticides that have been effective in controlling grasshoppers. Sevin® Bait has been effective in gardens and around houses. Sevin® wettable powder can be used on fruit and ornamental trees.
With continued hot dry weather, the grasshoppers may be moving out of grassland into green crops. Toxaphene bait can be used along fence rows and field Margins. This bait can be made by mixing 100 pounds mill run bran 1 1/3 pt. toxaphene 6E, 7-8 gals. water and 2 gals., black strap molasses. Sawdust can be substituted for bran up to 3/4 of the mixture, i.e. 75 lbs. sawdust and 25 lbs. bran. The bait, a crumple mash, should be uniformly moist.
Spread the bait uniformly at the rate of 10 to 20 pounds per acre. The most effective applications are made in the morning hours and when the bait is still wet.

Fence rows and crop margins may be sprayed with toxaphene to prevent grasshoppers from moving into cropland.
Grasshoppers in rangeland can be treated with Sevin® Spray.
All of these insecticides should be used in accordance with the product label.
Prussic Acid Poisoning In Livestock
Extremely hot dry weather in Wheeler County could lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock grazing certain pasture grasses and forages. The acid builds up in Stressed plants that become particularly dangerous when new growth results after rain.
Although many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when new growth is grazed following, drought conditions are John and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.
The most dangerous time as far as the grazing is concerned is when the wilted plants but forth new growth. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted plants or plants putting out new growth immediately after a rain. New plant growth usually becomes non-toxic and can be grazed within 10 days to 2 weeks following a rain.
As far as prussic acid poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases animals become affected within 10-15 minutes after eating toxic material and can die in 2-3 minutes. Symptoms may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues.
The following are steps that may prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock.
1. Hungry animals should not be turned in on suspected plants that may contain prussic acid. An animal well filled with hay before turning in a new pasture will be less affected by the plant material that may be toxic.
2. Remove all animals if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning. Keep in dry lot and feed well cured hay until suspect ed forage can be tested.
3. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early by intravenous injection.
4. Have suspect plant material checked by the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory at Amarillo. Local veterinarians can assist in packaging and submitting samples.
The overall key to preventing prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and then to keep cattle from grazing such plants until the toxic stage has passed.

Guard Against Heat Exhaustion, Sunstroke, Heatstroke

Guard against heat exhaustion, heatstroke or sunstroke during the hot Texas summer.

The combined effects of sun, exercise, heat and excessive perspiration which result in loss of fluids and salts can produce a serious condition.

To prevent sunstroke or heatstroke, avoid being in the sun and heat for a long period of time, drink a sufficient amount of liquids and wear loose-fitting clothing such as cotton t-shirts which help to retain perspiration and keep the body cool.

WHEELER PUBLIC LIBRAR Book Review

"Warwyck's Woman" is Rosalind Laker. It was not out love or lust that Daniel Warwyck a dashing prize-fighter, had bght Kate Farrington in t market at Brighton that wa July day in 1826. But ev marriage to a fine girl as Ki was a thin mask for respectabl when Warwyck continued to d convention by refusing to les the ring — and by insulting wife with open infidelities. Daniel got much more than bargained for that day in Brigt on what he had not discerned Kate's quiet presence was strong-willed independence ev bit as fierce as his own.

"Sons of Fortune" is the Malcolm Macdonald novel — t third book in the on going saga the Stevenson family whi opened with "The World Fro Rough Stones" and "The Rk Are With You Always" With t Stevenson fortune secure. Treatment consists of getting the person out of the sun immediately. Slowly sipping cool not cold water will help to cool down the body.

Sunstroke, heatstroke Heatstroke, or sunstroke, is more serious than heat exhaustion. It's often a medical emergency.

A breakdown of the cooling system of the body which causes the body temperature to rise uncontrollable causes heatstroke.

Because the sweating mechanism is not working, there is very little perspiration. One symptom of heatstroke is dry, red, hot skin and a fast, strong pulse. The victim may also be nauseated and have a headache. There is also a possibility of the person collapsing.

As the case of heat exhaustion, the important thing is to get the victim out of the sun and to lower the temperature.

Sponge the person with water, especially around the head. Avoid giving the victim stimulants such as tea or coffee because of the possibility of complications such as increased blood pressure.

If the person is unconscious, give no fluids at all.

Bi-County LVNN Group Meeting
The July meeting of Bi-County #72 was held, July 5, 1978 at the Abraham Memorial nursing home in Canadian. 10 active members were present and one visiting LVN who has recently moved to the area of Bi-County, Division of LVN Association of Texas. Invocation was given by Bonnie Dodson.
The program was presented by Psychologist, Jim Morris from Perryton. The subject material of the program covered many areas of Mental Illness, ranging from mental depression to psychotic disorders. One topic of particular interest was child abuse, Mr. Morris covered both mental and physical abuse of children. Information was given about modern treatments in mental illness, and about Family Services work to involve the entire family unit in the patients treatment and rehabilitation in an effort to improve environmental conditions, of the patient therefore lessening the possibility of relapse in the patients condition. The program brought to mind the age old stigma attached to people with mental health problems, I wonder when society is going to realize that mental illness is no disgrace any more than appendicitis, and we certainly will not gossip or leer at anyone that has had an appendectomy or has broken a bone in their body.
Back to the news of the LVN division, Mr. Morris gave us the opportunity to ask questions about problems we encounter in our work, and I believe that we all benefitted from his lecture.
After the program, division business was taken care of, committees were completed and we feel that our organization is nearing completion.
Following the meeting refreshments were served by members from Canadian.
The next meeting of Bi-County 72 LVNA will be held August 8th at 7 p.m. in Wheeler at the Parkview Hospital Conference Room. We would like to extend an invitation to any LVN in the area to attend the meeting as our guest.
Card of Thanks
We would like to express our deep felt appreciation and thankfulness for the many prayers and deeds that were shown us during the illness and passing of our loved one. Special thanks to the Parkview Hospital, the Doctors, the nurses for their kind and special care for him.
May God bless each and everyone of you.

CARLTON-GUTHRIE NUPTIAL VOWS ARE EXCHANGED IN CEREMONY JUNE 2

In candle light services Friday, June 2, 1978 at 7:30 in the evening Miss Shevon Renae Carlton became the bride of Bobby Lynn Guthrie in the First Baptist Church of Shamrock.

Rev. M. B. Smith, pastor of Highland Baptist Church of Pampa, read the vows. Rev. Smith performed the wedding ceremony for the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlton when they were wed. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Guthrie of Perryton (formerly of Wheeler) are parents of the bridegroom.

Double ring vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with an arch entwined with greenery and accented with blue bows flanked by heart-shaped candelabras holding tapers. The unity candle and prayer bench completed the decor.

The bridal path was marked with blue bows. Scott Wells, organist, presented a prelude of nuptial music as guests arrived and the traditional marches for the processional and recessional.

Mrs. Susie Rhodes, pianist accompanied Sabra Hacker of Hereford as she sang "Always and Forever", and "You Make Me Feel Like A Brand New Girl". The couple knelt at the altar she sang "The Lord's Prayer". As the couple lighted the unity candle, Mrs. Hacker sang "Make Us One".

Marianne Whittenberg, cousin of the bride from Shawnee, Oklahoma was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynn Alexander of El Paso and Lisa Stokes of Pampa. Allison Rhodes was the flower girl.

They wore floor-length blue polyester gowns designed with empire waists and tie sash. The gown featured cap sleeves, V-neckline with a collar and A-line skirts. Each carried a single white silk rose tied with blue tulle and blue streamers.

Jeff Davis of Wheeler served as best man. Groomsmen were Tim Patterson of Wheeler and Joe Guthrie of Perryton, brother of the bridegroom.

Wendell Moore, Kirk Weatherly, both of Wheeler and Scotty Carlton brother of the bride, served as ushers. Wendall and Kirk lighted the candles, also.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal floor-length gown of sheer organza and cluny lace over bridal taffeta designed with a high neckline enhanced with a cameo insert. The gown featured an empire waistline, bishop sleeves terminating in a wide cuff at the wrist and an a-line skirt which swept into a chapel-length train edged with a double ruffle of organza and lace. The neckline, bodice, sleeves and skirt of the gown featured inserts of lace complemented with seed pearls.

Her veil of imported illusion, edged in lace, fell from a coil of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations enhanced with blue streamers tied in love knots and showered with tiny flowers atop a white bible. The bride left a red rose from her bouquet and presented it to her mother as she approached the altar and as the couple left the altar she lifted another red rose from her bouquet and presented it to Mrs. Guthrie.

The bride carried out the tradition of wearing something old, something new something borrowed and something blue. Her something old was an engagement belonging to her grandmother, Lucille Burgess. Something new was her shoes. Something borrowed was a diamond initial ring from her bridesmaid, Lynn Alexander. A blue garter accompanied her attire with a 1978 coin in her shoe.

The mothers were escorted in the church to the song on the piano "To the Morning". Mrs. Carlton chose for her daughter's wedding a floor-length gown of pink sheer organza fashioned with a high neckline, a tie sash at the waist and an accordion-pleated skirt edged with a floral hemline. Mrs. Guthrie wore a floor-length apricot polyester gown designed with long sleeves and a v-neckline. There corsages were white carnations tied with silver ribbon on silver bases.

LEARN NOT TO BURN

By Ken Daughtry-Fire Marshall

TREAT ANY BURN IMMEDIATELY
 Sunburn... scalding hot tap water... splashed hot oil or food... "freshening" an open fire... smoking in bed... ignition of gasoline vapors... children playing with matches or candles...
 Wind gives wings to fire. Keep the weather in mind when preparing for cook-outs, campfires and other outdoor activities that involve open flames. One quick swish of wind, and fire has ignited the nearest thing - which might be you. Keep plans flexible to avoid mixing fire with a stiff breeze. Learn Not to Burn!

 7-12-78 Grass Fire

KEEP FIRE SAFE
 "Think fire safety in your everyday summertime work and play," concludes Morgan. Be careful fueling and using power mowers. Take caution with outdoor electric tools, such as hedge trimmers, and make sure extension cords used outside were designed for that purpose. Keep youngsters at a safe distance from all open flames. And remember that Summer's lightweight clothing is more hazardous around flames than closely woven, heavy winter apparel, calling for extra caution by people of every age.

Local FFA Members Attend Conv.

Ty Henderson, Gary Brotherton, Bobby Jones, Dale Manning, and Russell Gaines of the Wheeler FFA Chapter along with Vocational Agriculture Teacher Terry McCasland were part of over 6,000 future farmers and guest that attended the 50th convention of the Texas Association of the Future Farmers of America at the convention center in San Antonio last week. Convention participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the heritage and historical developments of the FFA and vocational agricultural education programs. The convention theme is "FFA at 50: A Golden Past and Brighter Future." Each person registering will receive a 50th convention souvenir program and a special golden anniversary medallion as a memento of the meeting. More than $320,000 worth of scholarships, plaques and other awards will be received by FFA members and supporters of the program during the convention. Outstanding FFA members will be recognized for their leadership and supervised farming or agribusiness education programs. Federal money to support vocational agricultural education was provided in 1917 with the passage of the Smith-Hughes Vocational Education Act. In 1928, the Future Farmers of America organization was created. Nearly one million agricultural students have participated in vocational agriculture programs since its inception. Records of achievement and progress continue in today's vocational agricultural programs. Today's FFA member represents 50 years of vocational agricultural education excellence. Prior to the general session, scheduled for Wednesday morning, the board of student officers were held for them on Sunday
