for the one-act play competition was staged Tuesday evening in South

I attended the one-act play competition and thoroughly enjoyed the performances. The students did an excellent job and GOOD LUCK! at Miami.

Are we entering another dust bowl. The dust moving into our area Tuesday evening looked very similiar to that of the "dust bowl" era; not quite as dark.

Prior to the arrival of the dust storm Tuesday we had some beautiful weather. It was so pretty Thursday that I had to get in the garden and plant those onions, I noticed as I headed for the house to do the tilling that Curtis Kidwell had a head start on me. I haven't noticed if he did any planting, but he has the space worked.

Our neighbors to the south will be having their annual St. Patrick's celebration this weekend. I hope they have some beautiful weather.

The deadlines for filing for local offices on the school board or city council are drawing near. If you feel that you have something to offer or would like to see an individual on one of these governing bodies, here is the opportunity to get a name on the ballot. Next Wednesday is the deadline. And remember to thank those individuals who are serving; these offices are certainly not 'fun and games'.

ATTENTION FARMERS AND RANCHERS

Group To Organize

A meeting to form a Wheeler County Agricultural Marketing Club will be held Tuesday, March 21st, at 7:00 p.m. at Dr. Danny Vaughn's office in Shamrock.

The purpose of the club will be to give farmers and ranchers a hands on experience of how they can use the commodity and futures market to forward contract their agricultural products. Marketing clubs have been used in other parts of the state with a lot of success. If you need additional information please call 256-3212.

Dear Editor, Mayor er Senior Citizen

By Ab Gunter

I just found these two items that I did many years ago. The one about the dog was an old Airdale that belonged to the Story family that lived there many years ago, we all called the dog Blue and he sort of had the run of Town. The building that used to be where Lee Hardware is now, was then Hunts Hardware I believe and there was a curb that the Old Timers used to sit in the sun and would sort of spit and whittle. The streets were dirt back then and Ole Blue also enjoyed the sun and would lay there in the street between Hunts and the Citizen Bank and Trust (there on the southwest corner of the square.

The one about the Colonel and Cane I knew him we called him Cap Clay, I don't know where I got Colonel but Cap was a very old Gent when I was a little shaver and enjoyed him very much though he was very gruff, I would say this was around 60 years ago. (Not when I wrote it but when I set and listened to his stories.)

> THE TOWN DOG By Ab Gunter

With things bein as they are don't guess we got time any more. Used to, everybody had time to sit and visit just a mite and would talk, laugh and they'd light their pipes. There was a good sittin place on the West side of the Square. There they'd sit and fish and fight. Not really, but just talk and chew, spit and whittle.

And Ole Blue dog would lay in the street just out of range of the flyin juice. And lay he would, hours on end there in the dust and sun. Come dinner time and the crowd would thin. The dog would rouse and hunt a friend. Soon he'd return, belly full, to his place in the middle of the street to hear again the yarns they'd repeat. Don't recon Ole Blue was worth a flip but you know even now I can see that ole cuss layin there asleep in the middle of the street.

COLONEL AND HIS CANE

By Ab Gunter "Lee and me wus best of friends. Fit the battles and whipped their men," he'd say. The Colonel would take the cane and draw on the ground all the creeks, hills and all. How they ambushed the whole durn bunch of Blues. Scatter em like so much dust there on the ground they'd lay. Yes, he'd fight till the middle of day us kids sittin at this feet listening with all our might how this old Colonel would fight. Then when came time for the dinner meal we'd watch as he would go toddlin off down the street with the cane as his sight, to eat, rest and dream another fight.

Seems the YoYo Man has been ruling our weather. Down to 7 a week ago and nearly 90 today. We got the gardening fever and worked a while today. Can't work when it is hot, cold. or windy so our activities have been sort of limited.

I really enjoyed Una Bacon's essay on getting old. Sure hit the nail on the head. Especially mention of the microwave. I couldn't imagine wanting one but now I know even David can set out a nice hot meal in ten minutes. Funny thing, I had mine five years before I discovered there was a glass plate in the top that you could take out and wash. I'd been washing it in place all those years. Live and Carl and Lois Whipkey of Borger and Yvonne Meador of Amarillo were recent visitors of Birdie Whipkey. Saw Lois' sister Pauline in town. They'd also been to see her.

They are starting the spring cleanup at the Buffalo Cemetery March 27. If you have any flowers you want to keep, please pick them up before then. Caretakers are Kathy Heinsohn and Vikki Wildman. They do a very nice job too. I would be a good idea to mark your flowers when you put them out. After the Oklahoma wind blows them around, it is hard for the girls to replace them where they belong.

The Erick Kitchen Band went to the Erick Home last Tuesday. Among the guests were Mayor Junior Gordon and his wife Collene, Lawrence and Johnnie Homesley of Borger, and Janie Bruner all there to be with their mother Ola Gordon. Fern Howell, Nina Abla, Mary Bollen, Earl Crawford, and Bill Miller of Wheeler. Bill has been visiting his grandmother Iona Miller during spring break.

Band members were Betty Brothers, Jack Criswell, and Velma Gibson of Sayre, Richard Crawford, Iona Miller, Roy Swagger, Hazel Francis, Clarence and Althea Sanders of Erick, Bertha Coffey, Joe, Lois, and David Flowers of SW, Charter band members Sophia Spencer and Agnes Francis (both in their 90's) were able to be out.

Gertrude Garrett, Bryan Brady are hospital patients at Sayre, Rollie Howell and Fae Benson at Elk, Sam Davis has been sent to OKC. Butch McGuire has had surgery at Amarillo. Royice Roberts spent last week at Amarillo hospital. Our cousin Berneal Bass of Borger was next door. She'd had surgery.

Happy St. Patrick's Day. Find something green to wear. Royice Roberts, Mildred Allen, and Elaine

BRISCOE PTO February Meeting

The Briscoe PTO met Thursday night, February 23, 1989 for their monthly meeting. A very interesting patriotic program was presented by the K-4 grades. They were led by teachers Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Stippel and Mrs. Johnson. Immediately following the program, the home economics class entertained the younger children while PTO President Janet Stevens called the meeting to order.

First item of interest discussed concerned the community sign that the Briscoe Boosters and the PTO had voted to buy. Discussion was tabled while more information is gathered. Plans were next made for the awards banquet that will be held May 20th for the 5th through 12th grades. Certificates will be awarded and a all-around junior high and high school boy and girl will be chosen. A meal will be served by Mr. Bar-B-Q. Tickets will go on sale at a later date. Certificates of award will be presented to K-4th grades on Monday, May 22. The PTO voted to sponsor a Pee Wee Track Meet. Date to be announced later.

The meeting was dismissed and refreshments were served by the 5th and 6th grades.

Congregational Concerns:

Dr. Mark W. Ford, Jr.

On Friday night, March 31st, at 6:30 P.M., the ladies of the Shamrock Congregation will host a 'Ladies Night Out''. The evening will begin with a supper in the congregation's new Fellowship room. Following the supper, the Mason Jars will sing. And then a lesson will be taught by Wilma Smith, the wife of the congregation's former minister, Wayford Smith. A special invitation has been extended to the ladies of the Wheeler congregation to attend this "Ladies Night Out".

their children. Regardless of their age or Biblical knowledge, parents are fallible and their practice of the will of God will always be imperfec-

The bible also teaches that the will of God is accepted or rejected by personal choice. Children, like every other person, have the privilege of choice which gives them the right to accept or to reject the training of their parents. According to the text, parents are to train their children "--in the way--" that they "--should go--", suggesting that children may choose not to go that way. Please do not misunderstand. Parents should and must train their children. But children can choose to accept or to reject that training. Proverbs 22:6 states a principle not a law. And it is a principle that warns and comforts parents. It warns parents: Train your children.

Live your faith before them. Encourage them to choose to imitate your faith then when they are old they--will not depart from it. But it also comforts people: Do not assume guilt that does not belong to you. You can train your children. You can pray for them. You can cry for them. But you cannot obey and serve God for them. It is their choice. Study Proverbs 22:6 again. Does it teach what you say that it does? Bill Morrison, Minister Church of Christ

Happy Anniversary to Jill and John Baker, March 19, Brad and Sue Chandler, Bob and Charleen Carey and Mozelle and Glenn Thomas and Willis and Verna Fillingim on March 25, 46 years for us.

Dwayne Meadows is doing o.k. since hip replacement surgery Thursday. His mom, Jean Meadows, has been staying with him. Cecil brought her home Saturday. Also Bubba has been staying some with Cecil. Jean was going back Sunday. Dwayne had some problems. The bone cracked when put the rod in. So hasn't been able to get up and walk.

Sybil Nelson and Iva Alexander were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at Wheeler United Methodist Church with lots of relatives and friends present. They make a handsome couple. We pray God's blessings on their marriage. Sybil has been a good friend for many years since they lived on the Holland Ranch when Larry and Susan were kids and went to school at Canadian and church at Gageby. They left on a short trip.

Amanda Sheilds visited Londa Crownover Sunday afternoon. Gary Bryant spent Friday night and Saturday with Boyce Crownover.

Sincere sympathy to the family of Mabel Gitchell in her death. Her husband pastored the Briscoe Assembly of God many years ago and they were loved by all. Her daughter, Fern, is married to Frank Young. She must be having a great reunion with loved ones in heaven.

Willa Fillingim took a baby pigmy goat and four baby rabbits down to Kelton Friday for Helen Singleton's class to see. She also showed them to some friends at the Wheeler bank and to the kids at the Christian Center School. Jodie and Terri Crownover visited Willa and E.G. Fillingim Sunday after church.

Nice to have Cindy Sweet and Jesse Ray of Borger and Bridgett Glasgow of Amarillo visiting at church Sunday. Cindy spent Saturday night and Sunday with Ray and Pat and Cheryl Hudson. Bridgett came with Nikki Scott and Rhonda and Brooke.

Agricultureal Week Will Be Celebrated

American agriculture leads the world in producing an abundance of high quality food. Our consumers spend less take-home pay on food than the people of any other country. An Americaan pays about 15 cents out of every dollar with five cents of that spent on food eaten away from home.

In recognition of these facts, our nation honors the food and fiber producers of the United States by marking March 19-24 as National Agriculture Week and March 20 as Ag

Although only one of every 40 Texans is a farmer or a rancher, the movement of food and fiber from farms and ranches to supermarkets and family tables provides jobs for one-fifth the work force not only in Texas but in our nation as well. Texas ranks number one in the sale of cattle and calves, cotton, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, and cabbage and spinach. These products, with others, produced roughly $11.5 billion in cash receipts for 1988. Only California is ahead of Texas in the amount of income generated by agriculture.

Dr. Carl Anderson, a Texas Agricultural Extension economist, summed it up by saying, "Agriculture Week celebrates the American farmer's and rancher's capacity to feed our own people while exporting our surplus for economic gain and humanitarian purposes as well."

My concern is very much with the Panhandle Fire Fighters tonight. High winds, dry grass and a blaze surely can give us problems. I grew up in the middle of the Panhandle. At that time there were vast areas covered with nothing but grass. Farms were few and far between. There was no fire-fighting equipment except burlap sacks and kitchen brooms. Fortunately most farmers had earthen tanks of water. I remember one night that word was relayed somehow, that there was a prairie fire over in New Mexico near Clovis. The wind was raging from the west. It was more than a hundred miles from our neighborhood but my dad and all the neighbors armed themselves with brooms and sacks and started west, by horseback and wagon. My mother gathered up the wash tubs, the boiler and all the buckets she could find, put them near the house and filled them with water. All night long she stayed up. She tried to keep us kids in bed, but really I think we were too frightened to sleep. Now and then she would go outside and gaze toward the west. Well, the fire didn't reach us. My dad came in near morning, black with cinders and eyes red and bleary.

That was our "Volunteer Fire Department", doing the best they could with what they had. And what they 'had' was mostly courage and determination to save their families and homes there on the wide-spread prairie. But with all our modern equipment, it takes courage to make a fire fighter. A salute to all firemen and It's gardening time again. We've had some nice days for it. Tim and Melinda have planted onions. The Editor said last week his plants had arrived. Early this week the Ed Rileys went to Farmersville to get their plants. Now Ed really grows good onions. Maybe it's worth a trip to get plants. Besides that he brings plants for anyone else that wants them.

Ed's wife, Erma and his sister, Hannah Faye Chapman accompanied him to Farmersville. On their return trip they stopped at Fairley to visit with their oldest sister.
