New Produce Station Opening Is Saturday

Declaring that he has "something to crow about" and that, principally, is his return to Wheeler after an absence of several years in Allison, O. D. Arganbright announces the opening of his new produce station on Saturday of this week. It is located in newly-erected quarters just west of the Fred Farmer garage, at the northeast corner of the square.

N. Arganbright, son of the veteran county produce man, will be associated with his father in operating the new station.

GREAT VARIETY OF ITEMS HITS THE WHEELER TIMES

So wide has been the variety of items brought to The Times for display during the past week, together with a large number of contributors, the report is given in groups according to variety, as follows:

Field Corn—Two fine ears brought back from Bonham by J. R. Hale.

Watermelons—Jeff Turner, on Friday; C. C. Merritt, on Monday, and Mrs. O. I. Johnston, on Tuesday.

Peaches—W. W. Adams, today, Elbertas; J. M. Burgess, today, Croquets.

Apples—W. M. Pendleton, Saturday, Red Starkingtons; John Cornelius, Monday, Stark Delicious; W. A. Purnell, Wednesday, Stark Delicious and an unnamed variety.

On Sunday, R. J. Holt captured a large silvery-looking spider (very appropriate coloring to a banker) and presented it for the office window display.

Thanks, all of you; if necessary, a larger display space will be provided.

County Schools Get Nice State Payment

Warrant for $5,546.00 Is Received this Week—Schools In Good Financial Shape

Receipt, this week, of a warrant in the sum of $5,546 of state aid money for the schools of Wheeler county is reported by B. T. Rucker, county superintendent. This payment is a portion of the 1936-37 rural aid fund for schools of the state.

A recent survey of the county schools shows them to be in excellent financial condition, better than in many years, states Rucker. Bearing out his statement, the following details are submitted:

Out of the 20 common school districts of the county, 14 of them are clear of obligations of any kind, other than bonded indebtedness. The other six schools have very small amounts outstanding on local bills. Likely all of this will be paid off in full upon receipt of the balance of the rural aid funds for the 1936-37 term.

Six of the districts have no bonded indebtedness of any kind. Four have paid off such obligations within the past two years.

FREIGHT RATE REDUCTION EFFECTIVE FOR 3 MONTHS

Supplementing his statement published in The Times last week concerning extension of drought freight rates on feedstuffs to five Panhandle counties, C. A. Studer of Canadian, president of the Northwest Panhandle Feeders association, advises that the reduction will extend through Nov. 30, or for a three-months period.

"Sixty days had been asked for," adds Studer, "with hopes for more time, if it could be secured."

MARVIN JONES SPEAKS HERE FRIDAY, SEPT. 17

CONG. MARVIN JONES

Word was received here this week that Congressman Marvin Jones of this district will make an address at the court house in Wheeler on Friday afternoon, Sept. 17, at 2:30 p. m. While his audience is expected to comprise a county-wide gathering, composed principally of farmers, a cordial invitation is extended the general public to attend.

Many Boys May Enter Conservation Corps

Greatly Modified Rules to Admit Several Thousand During Month of October

A call for approximately 11,000 white and 1,200 colored boys to be enrolled into the Civilian Conservation corps during October has been issued by Adam R. Johnson, director of the Texas Relief commission, to the various County Welfare boards.

This number far exceeds any former enrollment and will give almost all boys in the state an opportunity to enroll if they are unemployed, 17 to 23 years of age, in need, and whose parents or themselves, due to financial limitations, are not in a position to secure or provide comparable training. Full strength of the Texas quota is 16,000 white and 1,700 colored, and due to discharge of enrollees reaching the age of 24 and or completion of the maximum enrollment of two years, replacements will be necessary.

Heretofore, rules did not allow boys from other than the groups receiving or eligible to receive public assistance be accepted, but these have now been modified. Such boys who have no dependents may allow two-thirds of their pay to remain on deposit and upon discharge, or completion of their enrollment, receive the full accrued amount. Where there are dependents, an allotment will be made each month direct.

Over $500,000.00 each month is brought to Texas through these allotment checks to dependents, which materially relieves the burden that would otherwise be carried by the communities.

The local resettlement office has received notice of the contemplated October enrollment. Geo. C. Jones, supervisor, would like to contact any families receiving assistance through the resettlement program, with a view of having eligible boys make application for enrollment, if so interested.

Wheeler Young Lady Takes Marriage Vows

Miss Evlynnne Irons Becomes Bride of George O. Caviness Here Sunday Afternoon

Miss Evlynnne Irons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Irons, Wheeler and George O. Caviness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Caviness of Causey, N. Mex., were united in marriage at a ceremony read by Rev. A. C. Wood of Lefors at the J. E. Risner home, Sunday afternoon, August 29.

The bride was charming in a white taffeta gown and was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Lula Mae Farley and Miss Pauline Irons. The groom was accompanied by Leo Jackson of Flomot and Jack Davis of Friona.

At the reception following the wedding, Mrs. Caviness cut the bridal cake while Mrs. J. E. Risner presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Caviness was graduated from the Wheeler high school in '33 and attended West Texas State college at Canyon. She was employed as a commercial teacher in the Morse public schools this past year.

Mr. Caviness also attended W. T. S. C. after graduating from the Causey high school. He will be football coach and grade principal for the approaching term at Vega, where the couple will make their home.

Out-of-town guests present for the nuptials were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rosser, Plainview; Miss Edith Ashley, Canyon; Miss Corine Foote, Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jackson, Flomot, and Jack Davis and Woodrow Loone, Friona.

Oil Company Field Men In Auto Wreck

Three employees of the Humble Refining company, J. U. Parker, J. Mike Killough and Frank Brodie, who have been stationed at Wheeler for several weeks while engaged in field survey and exploration work in an area northeast of town, received minor injuries in an automobile collision on Highway 83, near Twitty, late Friday afternoon. The car in which they were riding collided with a highway truck driven by Archie Harlow.

The men are members of an engineering party who have headquartered at the Wheeler hotel, now operated by Ed Watson.

Following the accident, they were taken to Shamrock Clinic hospital for first aid treatment, afterward proceeding on their way to Wichita Falls, where permanent homes are located.

Miss Martha Jane Shipman of Lefors was in Wheeler the last of the week, visiting friends.

Farmers Barbecue a Glorious Success

Crowd of Over 1,000 Enjoys Feast and Fun at Kelly Ranch Last Night

Beginning early yesterday afternoon and continuing well into the night, the Wheeler County Agricultural association's barbecue and get-together of farmers and friends, was declared a signal success. A crowd of between 1,000 and 1,100 is reported at this popular affair, sponsored by the county agricultural council of the association.

Abundance of good things to eat, including five young heaves, was provided. The barbecue committee was composed of C. A. Dysart, chairman, and J. A. Bryant and Grant Beck, assistants. The Duncan Coffee company of Houston donated admiration coffee. The Johnson Radio service of Shamrock arranged and contributed lighting facilities. Other donors of the northern part of the county are listed elsewhere in this paper.

The program committee, headed by Paul Macina, provided a list of speakers and some novelty numbers as entertainment features. Among the speakers were:

Eugene Worley, state representative, who discussed state and national legislation; J. B. Clark, Shamrock attorney, talked on "Present Necessity and Benefit of Production Control"; C. H. Day, Plainview, vice president of the Texas Agricultural association, explained the "Necessity of Local, State and National Organization";

Vance Johnson of the Amarillo Globe-News was introduced and offered brief remarks, as did also J. Z. Baird, chairman of the Kelton Community Agricultural association, who stressed the organization theme in pungent phrases.

Following the speakers, an entertainment program offered Dave Futch and his "Skillet Lickers" from Mt. Zion, in musical and vocal numbers; Glenn Truax, Shamrock, violin; "Chigger" Baird, songs; the Cooper quartet, Davis, vocal; Charlie Melton, Mobeetie, jig dances, and "Shorty" Loter of Wheeler, violin.

That everyone connected with the Farmers barbecue and round-up, held at Kelly Bros. ranch northeast of Wheeler yesterday afternoon and evening, are grateful for the financial assistance by merchants, business and professional men of Wheeler, Mobeetie and Shamrock, has been expressed by P. L. Ramsey, member of the finance committee, who requests The Times to declare through its columns the appreciation of himself and the other committee members. George Henderson, chairman, and Tom Laman, member.

A total subscription of $156.50 is reported to help defray expenses of the barbecue. Of this sum, Wheeler gave $55.00; Mobeetie $24.00, and Shamrock $77.50.

The Corral Again Appears In Times

The management of The Wheeler Times takes pleasure in calling attention of its readers to the first number of The Corral for the 1937-38 school term, appearing in this issue. Miss Bernie Addison, journalism instructor, overcame the handicap connected with a "first issue" by enlisting the aid of several ex-students, who did a creditable job. Return of the Corral brings the paper up to its former size of eight pages, a standard which it hopes to maintain.

HOW MANY BALES OF COTTON THIS YEAR?

About this time each year, estimates on the probable cotton yield for the county begin to make their appearance. A few days ago, Jake Tarter, county agent, allegedly "stuck his neck out" and said between 15,000 and 17,000 bales. But these figures were qualified greatly, depending upon weather conditions generally, and frost date, particularly.

Comes now J. W. Hooker, manager of the Farmers gin, Wheeler, who places his estimate at 14,000 bales. However, he also declares that weather conditions during the next 30 to 60 days will be an important factor.

Hooker believes that about 2,500 bales will be ginned in the town of Wheeler this year and his convictions are strong enough that he is making plans to care for his share of that amount.

The entire county produced only slightly more than 7,000 bales in 1936.

State Property Tax Abolition Advocated

Speaker Before Abilene Gathering Recommends Action as Great Tax Reform Need

Abolition of the state property tax is the greatest tax reform need in Texas today, Everett Looney of Austin, former assistant attorney general, told the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners association convention at Abilene last week.

"You all know of the many demands for aid that are made on your county courts today. To meet these demands—to take care of the needs of your citizens—you must have additional revenue. There is but one logical, sensible way to get this revenue—that is for the state to abolish the ad valorem tax, and leave property taxes entirely for local purposes," Looney told officials.

"We can confidently expect two great results from the abolition of the state property tax—

1. Local governments—counties and cities—can adequately take care of the needs of their communities, and

2. The property-owners—the homeowner, the farmer, the ranchman, the storekeeper—will be given a long-needed tax reduction," Looney declared.

Looney suggested that the loss in state revenue due to the abolition of the property tax should be replaced with a reasonable net income tax.

Such a tax, Looney said, should exempt the little man—the man who makes only a small income; should be based on a man's net and not his gross income, and should be graduated so that the man who makes an enormous profit would pay more proportionately than the man who makes just a small profit.

"There are thousands of people in Texas today with large incomes who pay no taxes except those on cigars and gasoline because they own no property. In other words, we who happen to own a little property are overburdened so that these folks can go tax-free," he asserted.

"Moreover, there are thousands of people living in other states who get dividends and profits from the exploitation of Texas resources, who, because they own no property in Texas, do not pay even cigaret and gasoline taxes," Looney pointed out.

"There is only one way to make these tax dodgers pay their fair share of taxes. That is by the levy of a net income tax.

"Let's give the property owner—the farmer, the rancher, the storekeeper—some tax relief, and at the same time make everyone do his part to support the government of Texas," Looney urged.

Harry Garrison, Junior Jamison and Gordon Tolliver returned Friday from Lubbock where they had been working and visiting the past week.

E. Goule Promoted to Lipscomb County

Popular Local Assistant Appointed County Agent—Made Fine Showing Here

Substantial promotion came this week to Ernest Goule, assistant county agent, when he was transferred to Lipscomb county as county agent, his duties beginning Sept. 1. Goule has been with the local office 16 months, coming here May 1, 1936, from Concho county, where he was adjustment assistant.

Goule is a graduate of Texas A. & M. college with the class of 1934.

He made a splendid record during his stay in Wheeler. In 1936 he helped to develop six Gold Star 4-H club boys, coached a livestock judging team which won the state championship that year, and also represented Texas in the National contest at Chicago that same autumn.

Goule has his work well in hand to date, even far advanced for the time of year, with prospects of at least six Gold Star boys and one Gold Medal candidate to show for his efforts in 1937. Because of his outstanding accomplishments in boys' club work, Goule will be greatly missed, but his many friends will be glad to learn of this well-deserved promotion in his chosen field of work.

No information has been received by County Agent Jake Tarter nor the commissioners court concerning Goule's successor, but a thoroughly capable man has been promised.

Resettlement Head at Special Meeting

Geo. C. Jones, Resident Supervisor Here, Attends Oklahoma Conference Last Week

Geo. C. Jones of the local resettlement office made a trip on Wednesday of last week to Guymon, Okla., where he attended a special called meeting of supervisors for the purpose of discussing the rural rehabilitation program. Problems and conditions in several counties were considered, and a tentative program outlined for the coming year.

Reports from Wheeler, Gray, Collingsworth and some other counties of prospects for excellent crop yields as a whole brought encouragement to regional officials present at the meeting.

Jones declares that several counties adjacent to Guymon, including the north tier of Texas counties, are in very bad condition. Wheat, he says, is reported to have made from one to three bushels per acre average and that he saw little or no feed of any kind growing.

He asserts that Wheeler county looks like an irrigated rose garden when compared to the "dust bowl" counties in that region only a relatively short distance away.

County Shelterbelt Plan Gains Headway

Applications Should Be Filed Now—300 Miles Estimated for this District

With a quota of 800 miles of shelterbelt plantings for the state this fall in three districts, estimates indicate that probably 300 miles will be planted in this district. No. 1, with headquarters at Shamrock under direction of A. G. Schattenberg. The other two district offices are located at Childress and Chillicothe. Assistant Schattenberg at the Shamrock office are Douglas S. Miller and Burton E. Ricketts, supervisory strawbosses, and Miss Edith Elaine Hammack, senior stenographer.

Since the office was opened a short time ago, requests by landowners for plantings have been received in large numbers. It is stated that applications should be made as soon as possible, as each shelterbelt strip will be taken care of in the order in which they are received. It is believed the forestry service nursery at Plainview will afford sufficient trees to take care of all plantings to be made during the fall program.

Five applications, three in Wheeler county and two in Gray county, have been received in the past week and the land has been inspected for tree planting.

The summarized report of 1937 plantings in Wheeler county shows a total of 89 contracts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Young, sr., and son, H. E. and Mrs. O. Lewis and daughter, Miss Geraldine, returned home Thursday from a trip to Dallas, Fort Worth and McKinney, where they visited relatives.

TODAY'S TAXOGRAM

Combined state, local and national debts, at the end of the last fiscal year, amounted to $415,961 for each person in the country, an average of $1,663.84 per family. This is the sum that must eventually be collected in taxes (in addition to the annual running expenses of the government) before the government debt is cleared up. In 1913, the federal, state and local debt amounted to $29.28 per person.

TEACHERS AND JOB-JUMPING

With proper regard for the old maxim about certain persons or classes "rushing in where angels fear to tread," some observations upon a peculiar school situation may not be out of place. Reference is made to the abuse of—rather than the use of—a privilege by an increasingly large number of teachers each year. And that is contract "jumping" usually at almost the last minute, with no apparent concern for the inconvenience such action occasions the school, the superintendent or the student body. The practice is mischievous, to say the least.

Not that The Times would seek to restrain anyone beyond reasonable bounds in the matter of employment; nor would it take away from teachers the privilege of trying to improve their condition. This paper believes every person has the right to change his or her place of employment. However in the publishing business an unwritten code requires that employees—whenever at all possible—give sufficient notice to permit finding a successor.

Not so with school teachers. Within the past few years the writer has seen teacher after teacher "jump" his or her contract and go merrily away. Quite frequently this has occurred right at the last minute, when officials felt that a complete faculty had been provided.

The writer has always felt that the teaching profession is on a higher plane than that of "hewers of wood and drawers of water," and therefore imposes obligations not common to the average trade or profession. The teacher is a workman shaping human lives in thought and word and deed, consequently the confusion and loss of time to students by indiscriminate "job-jumping" by educators is highly injurious, to say the least.

Continued and unwarranted abuse of privilege will eventually arouse patrons, and taxpayers who foot the bill, to drastic action. Perhaps a mild form of correction now to discourage the practice would prevent more severe measures later on. One method would be to limit the time when resignations may be tendered and accepted. If no teacher could "jump" a contract less than 30 days before school starts, under penalty of being disqualified for the current year, there would be a speedy cessation of the practice which bids fair to become a habit. Exceptions could be made to apply, of course, such as instances where the person's leaving would be as beneficial to the school as the teacher.

To avoid completing this comment on a pessimistic or fault-finding note, The Times commends those teachers who do take their obligations seriously, and who, in some cases, may actually suffer loss through adhering to their agreement even though better appearing propositions are tempt-

THE MAN WHO PAYS

The will to pay is hereditary, just as much as red hair or buck teeth. It is a common fallacy that a man pays his debts because he has the money. This is not necessarily true. On the contrary, the matter of paying has only a remote relation to money.

On the one hand is your friend with an abundance of money who cannot be cajoled, threatened, beaten, or gassed into paying the most ordinary debt.

On the other hand the poor fellow without a visible dollar—you know him—who is Johnny on the invoice. Money has little to do with either case. It is the breed of the man.

The man who pays is the man who thinks in advance. He never flashes a roll; he does not drive a car and carry a mortgage at the same time; he does not hang up the butcher or the grocer for food that he cannot afford to eat; he never lights the fire without wondering where the gas man gets off. He never throws the bull, nor pitches the bluff, nor gives notes, nor writes checks dated tomorrow, but when the bill comes in he is there with the coin of the realm. God bless him.

Sometimes he feels sore at the rest of us. He does not feel that he gets on any better than the fellow who skins as he goes. Still, he goes on and pays and pays, simply because it is in the breed.

And, after all, the world DOES think a lot of his breed. The man who pays is the bulwark of society. He is the balance wheel of civilization. He is the mainspring of commerce. Business blesses him, and he has honor among men for all time.—W. H. H. MacKeller.

MANY WILL AGREE

Commenting on her son's seeking a third term as president or organizing a third party for the next campaign, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, under a Paris date line of August 30 sees little likelihood of either occurrence, reports a United Press dispatch. Mrs. Roosevelt observed: "He (Franklin D. Roosevelt) feels that when he has completed the next three years he will have done what was expected of him and will be ready to let someone take his place."

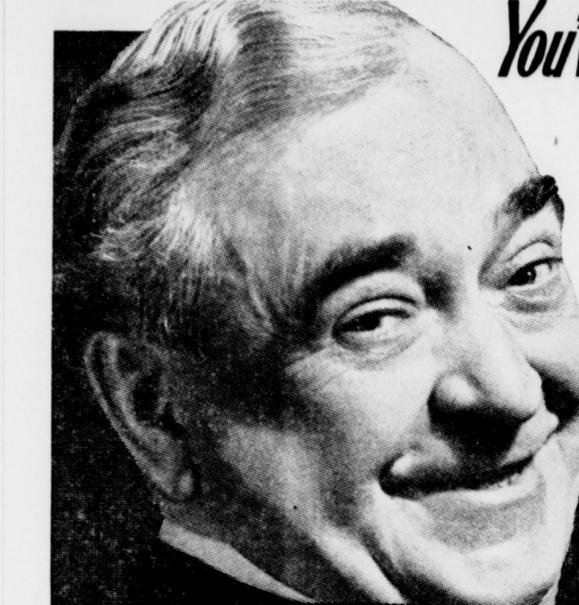

Her naive conclusion of the interview: "Surely there are other capable men in the country competent for the presidency," will meet with unanimous agreement by a majority of the male population of the nation.

EVERY FOURTH WORK DAY

It is estimated that Americans must work nearly one full year out of every eight—or about six weeks out of every year—just to pay the cost of the federal government. When the local and state government costs are added to the expenditures of the national government, the average American must work two years out of every eight to pay the cost of government.

The tax collector gets a cut in every pay check. His unseen hand reaches in and takes part of all the money spent—for food, amusement, clothing, train fare, power service. And his percentage today is greater than it ever was in peace time in this country. It is estimated that total government costs have swelled to $17,000,000,000 a year. That is approximately 25 per cent of the national income in good times. When you work four weeks, the public treasuries take your earnings for one of the weeks.

During the next year or so, we will "make or break" the tax situation. Every branch of government spending must be checked, from the national capital to the city hall. Congressmen started out at the beginning of the session to curtail expenditures, but so heated has been the long session that economy has been entirely forgotten. Some appropriations were worthwhile, it is true, while others were uncalled for. It seems that the sooner the people demand it, the sooner we will have to tie-up in tax boosting.—Paducah Post.

Olin E. Hinkle, until recently managing editor of the Lexington, Kentucky, Herald, and former W. T. student, will return to the college this fall as a member of the faculty, President J. A. Courses in journalism will be added to the offering of the West Texas State Teachers College, and the new courses will be taught by Hinkle, who will return to Canyon Sept. 1 to become a member of the college staff.—Canyon News.

Reports from all sections of the county are that Donley's crop prospects are the best in ten years with a total of 2.30 inches rainfall received from Thursday through Sunday. Feed crops are excellent, while cotton is heavier with fruit and sturdier than in many years past. Prospects now are not like early forecasts, as the crop is trenched now, the county agent said.—Clarendon News.

Albert Cooper says in the Shamrock Texan that McLean high school plans to organize another football team this fall and will play several of the neighboring teams, including Shamrock. The McLean superintendent of schools said McLean was waiting to see if Shamrock planned to have a team, and as soon as they found out that Shamrock was, a team was organized at McLean. Cooper says that he hopes Wellington and Wheeler will follow suit and form teams.—Memphis Democrat.

Well, Wheeler has its team organized—quite well, thank you—and expects to "take" those mentioned, including Memphis, just like it did last year.

Arthur Hudson swears that he has three Jersey calves that are sucking a mule. I asked him to get a picture of it. I asked Marshall Wells to go out there and get a picture. I don't believe it, but if it is true I will run it in the paper. In fact there are a lot of papers that will run it. Mules are not supposed to suckle colts—not to mention calves. If this is true, it is news. The funny thing is that the old mule is as dry as Collingsworth county in 1936, but Arthur says she puts on a heavenly look and acts like she was the mother of triplets.—Deck Wells in Wellington Leader.

"That's what the used-car dealer said to me when I brought in my old Jalopy. The paint and rubber were so-so. Upholstery, fair. But the engine? Marvellous! So he paid me way over the Blue-book value, and I've warned the family never to use any oil except Phillips 66 Motor Oil in our brand new bus."

The moral is: To keep your engine in tip-top condition, use the finest oil you can buy. Not the highest-priced oil, but a lubricant like Phillips 66 Motor Oil, which gives you more protection for every penny you pay. Guaranteed 100% pure paraffin base.

With high-degree oiliness. Standout quality makes it stand up longer. Tougher, heat-resistant film makes it give many extra miles of service. Next time, drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil. It's concentrated!... This year's big value in car lubrication. Look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

BRISCOE BRONCO

(News prepared for The Times by staff members of the Briscoe schools.)

The freshman class met August 31 and elected Miss Stubbs as their sponsor. The class decided to have a picnic at Gageby creek Thursday night, Sept. 2. A committee of four was appointed to decide what would be served. The committee is Wanda Sanford, Bud McCarrroll, LaJuana Treadwell and Harley Vise. The game committee includes Miss Stubbs, and Una V. Young.

Mr. Scott is really hard on the freshman class in algebra and science this year.

Bits Here and There

Can those freshman boys run? If you could see them when they are running through the belt line you would find out.

The geometry students are already groaning. Maydell and Hanna Fay have a lot of trouble with their hats.

Earl Simpson and Buck Hogue are great friends. The English III class has been learning how to make good paragraphs.

The Juniors are very fortunate in having an addition to the class. It is Lou Dean Luttrell.

Junior and Senior Picnic

The Juniors and seniors had their first social activity of the year last Thursday night. Dressed chickens were taken to Gageby creek and fried over open fires. The other requirements for a good feed were served and thoroughly enjoyed. Stray pods of hot pepper caused a few warps.

Games were played until all were tired and weary.

Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Swinburn, Mr. and Mrs. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Candler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waters, Mr. Evans, Mr. McNeil, Miss Stubbs and Miss Ewing.

boys had a meeting and voted to play groundball until we could get our gymnasium.

We have some outstanding teams. These are the senior boys and girls, the junior high school boys and girls, the grade junior boys and girls, and the fourth and fifth grade boys. John Cook is coach of the fourth and fifth grade; O. C. Evans, juniors; Alvin Scott, high school senior teams. Any of these teams challenges any team in the county, according to their divisions.

We have good prospects for a fine basketball team. "old Suitcase" can yell louder this year than last. We have two men that are six feet three inches tall.

We also have tennis to play, with several working out for it.

We hope to get a croquet set a little later.

Sophomore Activities

By CLIFFERENE SIVAGE
After studying several short stories, the sophomore literature class decided to sketch in play form, part of the short story "The Speckled Band," by A. Conan Doyle. Two plays, "Helen Stoner Visits Sherlock Holmes" and "Dr. Raylott Visits Sherlock Holmes," were written by each member of the class and the best of each selected to present in class. Ray Sanford and Exie Francis were voted best in each group.

Characters in the former are: Helen Stoner, Exie Francis; Sherlock Holmes, Armand Clepper; Watson, John Cook; stage directors, Betty Riley, Syble Jo Cook, Oleta Dickinson; prompter, Clifferene Sivage.

Cast of the latter includes: Dr. Raylott, Leon Ramsey; Sherlock Holmes, Ray Sanford; Watson, Alvin Hefley; stage directors, Alvin Hefley, Madell Young, Armand Clepper.

These plays may be used in assembly at a later date.

Second and Third Grade

We are doing a number of things we like to do now. At recess the swings and see-saws and the slides are always fun to some of us. The sand hill is as fine a place for play as ever. But just now there is a game several play every day. It is called Two-deep. It is really fun.

After lunch our teacher reads to us. We surely like the Indian book she is reading now. We have colored some Indian pictures. One was Black Hawk's Boy and one was a wigwam. The second grade read about Black Hawk's Boy in reading.

We read The Little Mexican Donkey Boy before reading the Indian book.

The second grade has learned some new number stories. One day they did some work with the third grade. The third grade has had review speed tests. Many of us can tell time now because we have a real clock on the wall.

Charlie and Gene Hubbard from Wheeler visited our room one day. They said they enjoyed it.

Mozell Wilson brings us flowers. She has given us a start of water lilies for the room.

The Three Mesquiteers

A mosquito is a small insect that is not particular about what or whom it bites, but bite it must and will. Mesquite is the name applied to a hardy West Texas variety of trees that are plenty tough. Now read all this again so that you will be sure to understand just what the name "Three Mesquiteers" signifies, because you are going to hear about them and you are going to like them as well as you like Hopalong Cassidy stories. The first story of the Three Mesquiteers is called "Riders of the Whistling Skull" and will be at the Rogue Friday and Saturday, Sept. 3-4. Come out and meet Tucson Smith, Stony Brooke and Lullaby Joslin. They are grand fellows.

Shall we dance? You said it. We shall all dance when Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers make their appearance at the Rogue for Saturday Proeve. Sunday and Monday in "Shall We Dance." It's a wow and how you will enjoy it. Thanks.

Easy Living

It is hard to make an Easy Living, but it is rather easy to make a hard living, and the harder the hard part the easier the easy part, and the more we live the better we like to live, and the easier we live the harder it is to live easy. So let's all just live 'til Wednesday and Thursday and see Jean Arthur and Edward Arnold in "Easy Living," and we will all agree that life is really worth living because of having seen one of the snappiest pictures of the year. A guaranteed attraction.

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"

By JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

Several months ago when the industrial North and East were paralyzed with sit-down strikes, I issued a statement that we were not going to have any confiscation of property in that fashion down here in Texas. I said I was convinced that the sit-down strike method did not represent the desires of an overwhelming majority of organized labor in our state; and that while I was and had always been friendly to organized labor, it was "un-American and unlawful to sit down on somebody's property and try to remain there." If a man wants to quit a job or strike, he has a perfect right peaceably to do so; but after quitting he has no more right to sit down on property or premises without permission than he would have to sit down in a private home uninvited.

The people of Texas approved of my statement because it represented the sentiments of an overwhelming majority of them. We haven't had any sit-down strikes in Texas and have had very little labor troubles as compared to other states.

Now another unfortunate situation has developed. Recently in Dallas a man who was trying to show a pro-labor picture in a public park was kidnapped and taken out in the country by a bunch of hoodlums who tarred and feathered him. Another labor organizer was kidnapped and beaten so brutally that he was laid up in the hospital for over a week. Other outrages of a lesser nature were perpetrated and threats were freely being made as to what was going to be done with labor organizers.

Everyone concedes that labor has a right to organize and to select organizers and leaders of their own choosing. The freedom of speech and the right to assemble peaceably are guaranteed by both state and federal constitutions. The brutal treatment accorded these men in Dallas is indefensible. I recall a few years ago when the unfortunate Ku Klux epidemic broke out and many men were taken from their homes at night and flogged because they had violated the laws. The people of Texas rose up in their might and took the position that even if a man had violated the law he was entitled to trial in a courthouse and not in a creek bottom. Today it isn't even claimed that the men who were kidnapped or tarred and feathered were violating any law. All that was said by those who perpetrated the outrages was that the men belonged to the CIO. It isn't a violation of the laws of our country for these men to belong to the CIO, regardless of what we may think of that organization.

In my opinion, it is just as important to protect people from outrages of this kind as to prevent the taking of property from the rightful owners by the sit-down strike or other unlawful method. Because I didn't want to see the thing get started again in Texas I immediately sent 25 members of the state police to Dallas with instructions to protect men in their right to speak freely and to assemble lawfully. These officers are instructed not to take sides in any controversy but simply to prevent violence on either side.

I was surprised to get a bunch of inspired telegrams apparently approving the treatment given these organizers because, the telegrams said, they were members of the CIO. I don't care to what organization they belong. If they violate any law they ought to be prosecuted for it; but no set of men has the right to take the law into their own hands and kidnap, or beat, or tar and feather, these men. I think the people of Texas are backing me up in this stand.

Since the state police went to Dallas these troubles have practically ceased. I am very hopeful that the situation will adjust itself without any further trouble.

I really wish the general public could know in detail the many fine things that have been accomplished by the Public Safety department. I am particularly proud of the intelligence branch. In this division we have fingerprint, handwriting and ballistic experts. This has been a great help to local officers everywhere and, of course, has materially assisted the state in dealing with the more hardened type of criminal.

Just as illustrative of what has been done in the one field of ballistic work: As perhaps most of you know men from this department can take a bullet that has been fired and trace it to the gun that fired it by markings on the bullet. They have done this in many instances and solved cases that might otherwise have gone down as "perfect crimes."

For instance, recently in one Texas town a man was murdered at night as he slept. He was not robbed, and officers were at a loss for a motive. They did, however, find shotgun shells of a certain type. They picked up every gun of this caliber in the little town and fired some test shells, together with the ones found on the ground, in to Austin. The fired shells from each gun had been numbered and the experts in the Public Safety department shortly advised that the shell with a certain number on it was from the same gun as that which fired the shells found at the scene of the crime. It was no trouble to trace the ownership of this shotgun and its use to a negro in the community who promptly confessed the crime. This is just one of a number of similar cases that illustrate how quickly the department can assist your local officers.

Some time ago I had occasion to use the handwriting experts. The state of Illinois had asked for extradition papers on a prominent citizen of this state on a charge of forgery alleged to have been committed in Illinois. The notary public who took the acknowledgement in Illinois identified this citizen and in an affidavit asserted that he had seen him sign the instrument in question. While I was hearing the case I had the handwriting expert from the Public Service department to go over the alleged forged deed and compare it with samples of the defendant's handwriting; and before I could close the hearing these experts reported to me that without any question the defendant had not forged the deed. You can imagine how grateful these people were to our Department of Public Safety for the service, which cleared the name of a good citizen of Texas.

From time to time I shall try to tell you more of the work of this department and other departments of the state government in which I think you may be interested.

GOD REQUIRES SOCIAL JUSTICE
 Scripture Text: Lev. 19:9-18, 32-37.
 Lesson Scope: Lev. 19:1-18, 32-37.
 Devotional Reading: Amos 8:4-8.

An Approach
 Nothing short of God's demand upon the people of Israel from a social standpoint can be called social justice. Though might is often on the right, yet might never makes a thing right. Choosing or making a law of social justice which comes short of the laws God gave Israel is but to come short of true justice.

Like others of God's laws, this social law is so perfect that few, if any, of imperfect man ever live up to it perfectly. But, howsoever perfect a man may live up to it, he should never be guilty of substituting his keeping of God's social law for God's plan of redemption. Man is a sinner because he has transgressed God's perfect laws. His near-perfect keeping of God's law can never atone for his sins. Modern man's so-called "Social Gospel" as a means of salvation serves only to deepen man's guilt and to confirm his just condemnation. "Without the shedding of blood there is no remission" (Heb. 9:22), and God has prepared a Lamb for a sacrifice whose blood alone can cleanse us from our sins (1 Pet. 1:18, 19; 3:18). Also please read Gal. 2:16.

THE HEART OF THE LESSON

Introduction
 God gave this law to Israel through Moses about B. C. 1490. Though only to Israel did God give this law, he always expected, and still expects all mankind, if they are to meet His approval, to live up to it. When God made man "in his own image and after his own likeness" this perfect social law was written in his heart and he needed not that any one should teach him. But sin robbed the human heart of all this perfection and now God has "tabulated" it for him.

For the Christian, the "new creature" in Christ, who has been born again from heaven (Jno. 3:5, 8), who taught and led by the Spirit of God (Jno. 14:26; Gal. 5:16-26) these things are again written in his heart (2 Cor. 3:3).

The Golden Text

"And as ye would that men should do unto you, do ye also to them likewise"—Lk. 6:31.

Giving this "Golden Rule" but little thought, some people will rush forward and say, "Fine. I'll govern myself by that law and then I'll not need the blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth us from all sins," little realizing what all this law involves. Take a look at a word Jesus spake just before He gave this rule, "Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you" (verse 27). And who is he (or she) that perfectly keeps even his imperfect conception of the "Golden Rule?" You see, even the best of us need an atonement. Only the sacrificial work of Christ is sufficient for the justification of fallen man.

Obligations Toward the Unfortunate

"Malefactors of great wealth" indeed are they who fail to recognize their obligation toward the unfortunate. Whatever may be the method "leave them for the poor and strangers," this help to such must be forthcoming. And God emphasized it by thus reminding them, "I am the Lord your God."

I doubt if a better method could be found, so far as it can be applied unto our modern method of living, than that which God gave (Lev. 19:9, 10). This much is true, it does not make idle and indolent persons out of those who are thus benefited. The "fortunate" who thus fail in their obligations to the poor, in turn become more unfortunate than the needy, for God is no respecter of persons.

Other Obligations

Certainly it is true that he who steals, though his barns are already full, is a greater sinner than the thief who steals to satisfy his hunger. But theft is never God's way for one to get food. Our modern social relations are made abominable by an unjust low scale of wages. The evil practices of some in high positions becomes an induction to "crime waves" of the common class.

God Practiced What He Preached

"The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them" (Matt. 11:5). And this is the testimony Jesus gave to verify His claims of being the Christ of God. This is in principle the attitude we should assume towards such unfortunate people if we are to live in harmony with the teaching of our lesson. To the extent of the ability God has given us to be of help to the helpless we must fulfill it.

The Only Motive Power

Practicing this law of social relations calls for a right motive and that motive is, or includes, the power. That power is love. One will not get very far alone with his attempt to

A Safety Tip FOR YOUR Labor Day Trip

TAPPING RUBBER TREES ON FIRESTONE PLANTATIONS IN LIBERIA
 From the Firestone plantations in Liberia comes an ever-increasing supply of the world's finest rubber. Money saved here and in manufacturing and distribution enable Firestone to sell a safer, first-quality tire at lower prices.

Here's Why FIRESTONE STANDARD TIRES GIVE YOU MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

DON'T take chances on your Labor Day trip. Protect yourself and family by equipping your car with a set of new first-quality Firestone Standard Tires. Firestone builds extra quality and extra safety into these tires and sells them at lower prices because Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping Process. This counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because there are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra-tough, long-wearing tread.

You need all of these features to make your car tire-safe on your Labor Day trip. Firestone gives them to you at lower cost. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children? THAT a million more were injured? THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

At right is section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see by actual demonstration.

At left is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blowouts and skidding.

Water Conservation Meeting at Amarillo

Delegates from Five-State Area to Hear Panhandle Water Problems Next Wednesday

One of the largest and most representative crowds ever assembled at Amarillo is expected for that city on Wednesday, Sept. 8, at which time a meeting of the Panhandle Water Conservation association, and similar groups from the five-state dust bowl area will pay honor to Congressman Marvin Jones and other senators and representatives of the Southwest for the work done on the water and soil conservation program at the recent session of congress, according to John McCarty, president of the Panhandle body.

The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning of Sept. 8, in the Crystal ballroom of the Herring hotel, and will include a barbecue at Jack Hall's ranch at noon, and a program in the afternoon.

The governors of the five southwestern states have been invited to be present, and it is believed that most of the congressmen and senators from the Southwest will be in attendance.

The meeting will hear the report of Carl Hinton, secretary-manager of the Panhandle Water Conservation association, who was recently delegated by the five-state conference at Amarillo to aid in securing legislation for the semi-arid part of the nation. It is also expected that definite plans will be discussed for carrying out the program with the greatest possible dispatch now that legislation and funds have been secured which will enable the program to be put into effect.

BOUQUET TO THE BAND AND ITS DIRECTOR

The Wheeler band and its director, J. W. Lummus, should be accorded a large bouquet in recognition of service performed for the community. Whenever an occasion arises to which the band can lend a hand, it is there. Proper appreciation of the organization can best be realized by harking back to the days when nothing of this nature was available here. If a little political gathering or some other need occurred, an outside musical group had to be called in. Such is not the case any more.

Latest instance of the band's willingness to help out was seen Friday evening of last week when the football squad returned to town. Lummus and a goodly number of his players assembled at the entry to the business district and greeted the Mustangs; a short program was also rendered in front of Nora's cafe, where the gridsters were guests at a banquet.

Officials of the association are urging as strong an attendance as possible, especially of commissioners, courts, farmers, ranchers, business men, county agents and any citizen interested in soil and water conservation.

It is not definitely known at this time just who the representatives will be from Wheeler county.

Many grocery patrons, whether in town or country, prefer seeing the merchandise when buying. To all these, regardless of residence, we extend a cordial invitation to come in and inspect our offerings and note the attractive prices on every article in stock. Lack of space prevents itemizing the various articles. But we do believe that a pleasant surprise awaits those who pay us a visit during the week-end or at any other time. Tarter Conducting a Training School

Five Men Advance to Better Posts from Agent's Office in Three-Year Period

While his modesty possibly forbids his hanging out a shingle inscribed "Professor," yet the records prove that Jake Tarter, Wheeler county farm agent with offices in the court house here, is justly entitled to that distinction. During the three-year period closing July 1, five men have gone from the local office to better positions in the agricultural department.

First of these was O. J. Walker, who went from Wheeler to Hall county as administrative assistant in the county agent's office. Next was H. M. Breedlove, promoted to county agent of Donley county, with headquarters at Clarendon. The third man was Joe L. Meharg, given the post of administrative appraiser with the federal land bank, and stationed at Chillicothe. Then J. E. Crabtree was appointed county agent of Sherman county, and the latest "graduate" of the Tarter school is Ernest Goule, who last week was named county agent of Lipscomb county.

Tarter accepts the situation somewhat philosophically, remarking good-naturedly: "Yes, about the time these fellows become trained to where they are worth something, they are taken away from me. But I'm glad to see them making progress and wish everyone of them the best of luck."

Three Instructors Added to Faculty

New Mentors to Teach Commercial Work, Home Economics, Second Grade

Three new teachers have been added to the faculty for the coming school year. They are: Miss Pauline Irons who will be employed in the grades, while Mrs. Nina H. Young and W. J. Murdaugh will fill positions in high school.

Miss Irons will teach the first high grade. She received her B. A. degree from Canyon and has had experience in two other schools. Miss Irons taught at Locust Grove for one year and at Happy for three years.

Mrs. Young will be in charge of the three years of home economics and sponsor the Home Economics club. She came to Wheeler recommended by Miss Ester Sorenson, district state supervisor as one of her best teachers. Her home is in Roby.

She attended two years of school at North Texas State Teachers' college in Denton, finishing at Texas Technological college at Lubbock with a B. S. degree. The past summer she attended Colorado State Agriculture college at Fort Collins, Colo. Mrs. Young has had wide experience, teaching three years at Haskell and two years at Littlefield.

W. J. Murdaugh is employed as assistant coach and commercial work teacher, in typing and shorthand, and will teach grade school arithmetic. He attended the Greenville high school, playing football for two years, and his home is in Greenville. In his senior year in high school he was a member of the football squad that went to semi-finals at Abilene. Murdaugh attended East Texas State Teacher's college at Commerce, during his freshman year.

His sophomore year was spent in Greenville at Wesley Junior college and he finished at the Austin college at Sherman where he received his B. A. degree. In '35 he was a member of the Texas conference championship team at Austin college. Murdaugh played football four years in college.

SECOND YEAR AGRICULTURE IS OFFERED FOR FIRST TIME

One new course is being offered to students of high school this term. W. C. Zirkle is teaching second year agriculture.

Home economics III is being instructed by Miss Nina H. Young, who is also teaching home economics I and II. Several students enrolled for the third year of home economics. It was not offered last year.

Miss Winona Adams is teaching economics, which was taught in the school term of '35 and '36.

SYMPATHY

The Corral staff joins the faculty and the student body in expressions of sympathy for Mrs. C. C. Crowder in the death of her mother, Mrs. Blakemore, who died in San Antonio, Monday.

Quill and Scroll To Entertain Friday

Ex-Journalists, Cubs to be Given Party by Society Members

All former members of the journalism class and those taking journalism this year are to be entertained tomorrow (Friday) night at the Home Economics cottage by the members of the Quill and Scroll society at 8 o'clock.

The party is given for the purpose of inducing students to join the Quill and Scroll. Beatrice Miller, Huffman Walker and Amos Page are on the entertainment committee. Marthalsy Wiley, Irene Hunt and Aubrey Warren compose the refreshment committee.

Six W. H. S. students are members of the Quill and Scroll society. To belong to this organization one is required to be in the upper third of his class, junior or senior, must have done outstanding journalistic work, and must be recommended by the supervisor.

Marthalsy Wiley and Beatrice Miller are charter members of the society. Irene Hunt is president; Amos Page, vice president; and Huffman Walker and Aubrey Warren are the other two members.

Impressions Given by New Teachers

"What are your impressions of Wheeler high school?" This question was asked the three new teachers as they got into the swing of things Monday. Miss Pauline Irons, Mrs. Nina H. Young, and W. J. Murdaugh are these new instructors.

Miss Irons will teach the first high grade. When asked her impression of Wheeler she replied: "Well, I haven't much of an impression because I have lived here so long. However, it does seem strange to be teaching here."

The home economics teacher, Mrs. Young, says she thinks she will like Wheeler very much but she had not been here long enough to tell yet.

Murdaugh, assistant coach and teacher in grade school, says he thinks he will enjoy his work in Wheeler. When asked his opinion of the football team he said "With lots of work, I think they will come out fine."

Faculty Members Attend School, Visit

Vacations Spent in New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas

Supt. J. L. Gilmore spent part of his vacation working on a program for the Federated State Teachers banquet for Thanksgiving. In this survey he visited every teacher's college in the state. Mrs. Gilmore spent part of the summer visiting relatives at Melrose and Fort Sumner, N. Mex. After she had returned from this trip she went to Eagle Nest, N. Mex.

W. C. Zirkle spent three days in El Paso and the rest of his time at home, working on the vocational agriculture projects which the boys had started here during the last term of school.

Mal Wynn, music instructor was at home with his mother in Norman, Okla.

Miss Lois Kirby worked for the Jordan Flower shop in Dallas. Miss Jmogene Holbert was with her family at Eagle Creek lodge in Alto, N. Mex. Miss Winona Adams attended the University of Texas for six weeks working on her master's degree.

J. W. Lummus was busily engaged in tutoring the band students. He held classes during the summer and is now reorganizing classes for the coming year.

Miss Bernice Addison was at her home in Dimmitt, Texas. W. J. Murdaugh spent his vacation at home in Greenville, Texas.

Mrs. Nina H. Young attended The State Agriculture college at Fort Collins, Colo.

Mrs. G. O. McCrohan took a month's trip to the west coast. She was with her mother for a week and the rest of her time was spent at home.

Mrs. Allen I. Smith was at her home south of Shamrock. Mrs. C. C. Crowder visited relatives at Lubbock and was at home part of the time. Mrs. J. Loy Davidson went to Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico. She was also in Albuquerque, N. Mex., and El Paso, Texas. Mrs. C. J. Meek was at her home in Wheeler.

Mrs. John Hood visited friends and relatives at Brownwood, Hearne, Houston and Galveston and attended the exposition at Dallas. She made a ten-day tour of Turkey, Muleshoe and Amarillo.

Principal C. B. Witt spent one week in the Ozark mountains of Arkansas, and in August he attended a family reunion in Hereford.

Coach Stina Cain enjoyed a stay of two weeks in the mountains of New Mexico and one week on Bridgeport Lake in Wichita county, Texas.

Mrs. Gordon Phillips was at her home in Wheeler.

Mustang Band Opens School Program With "America" Monday

B. T. Rucker Speaks on NYA Help; Dr. H. E. Nicholson Gives Opening Address

The Wheeler Mustang band opened the program Monday morning by playing "America," which was followed by "Washington Post March" and "Aggie War Hymn."

B. T. Rucker county school superintendent, in his address before the body gave the challenge that "There is no one at the top of the pyramid of life except a mouse chasing around and it is up to the school students to be inspired by that to strive harder to reach the top and chase away the mouse." He also spoke on higher education and NYA helps for this school.

D. H. E. Nicholson, president of the school board, gave the opening address which was on cooperation with the school and those connected with it.

Superintendent J. L. Gilmore acted as chairman and at the closing of the program instructed the new members who are added to the faculty this term of school.

The students then assembled to their proper rooms to be enrolled for the new session of school.

Students Advise Others On Hard Courses Offered

"Aw! quit shavin'." "I don't want that!" "You better not take geometry. It's no cinch!"

These were some of the exclamations heard when the students were being enrolled in the high school building last Tuesday. Old friends met, and old books found new owners, as it was all confusion in the jammed halls of the school building.

Shuffling feet, and excited cries and an occasional sigh was heard as some weary pupil finally succeeded in getting a few tattered and worn-out books, or, perhaps, shiny new ones.

With all the turmoil and excitement over, the students came back Wednesday morning and another school session began.

Changes Made In Building
A change was made this year which will probably change the system of the school. The high school and the two divisions of the first grade were moved to the small building, while the other grammar grades are located in the large building.

THE CORRAL

THANKS AGAIN

To Editor C. G. Miller the entire school, especially the Corral staff and the journalism students, wishes to say once more "Thank you." Through his splendid co-operation and generosity we can put out a weekly four-page paper which compares favorably with those of larger schools. This service is given of absolutely no cost to merchants, administration officials, or students.

A suggestion was made to have the Corral printed only every other week this year to save work and expense. Miller answered that, although it costs more in money and labor, he prefers to publish it weekly so that news will be more timely.

Without this genial editor's printing the Corral, journalism students could not put into practice principles learned in the course. W. H. S. could not boast a school paper. Times readers would not know many things which happen at school.

So, with this first issue of the 1937-'38 Corral, the staff wishes to extend to Miller and his helpers gratitude in advance for printing the other 35 issues.

ANT OR GRASSHOPPER?

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" while on the other hand "all play and no work makes Jill a dull girl."

In a recent issue of the Epworth Highroad a program was outlined on higher education. This article said that one group of students go to school for the purpose of having the "fling" that mother and dad denied them at home. These students accomplish little.

The second group attend college but have no social life, and spend all their leisure hours with their head in a book. It is said of them that they have no common sense.

The third class budget their time make all their class work, join in the social life, and sometimes work. They get a well-rounded education. This applies to high school students likewise.

If we will enter into our pleasure and work with a large amount of zest we will receive from both the pleasure that they are capable of returning.

HOWDY, FOLKS!

Howdy folks. It's mighty nice seeing all you students starting back to school. A person can just feel that old school spirit in the air. With all those gold suits sending out a good old pep tone and to know it's our own Wheeler band, who could help bring glad that school is starting.

It really doesn't seem like Wheeler high school in the new building but those familiar faces tell us it is still the same school.

Welcome to the new teachers and students. We are sure you will like our school when you get acquainted with it.

Everyone, including old timers that have not been seen on the campus for a number of years, are as welcome as a rain after a long drought.

SNUBBING POST

Now is the time when all "apple polishers" should get their good work in. . . Much of the hodge-podge of registration will be eliminated by next week.

If the local school system continues to grow, it will be necessary for each student to carry a map to find his way around. The most beneficial change this year is the high school building moved to the former grade building. Students are commenting that the dash to the majority of buildings for classes won't be so far especially in cold weather.

Cowboy boots seem to have become a favorite with some of the members of the faculty as well as with high school boys.

The Wheeler band is a thriving organization and their uniforms are a wonderful improvement.

Before going farther, this column on behalf of the student body, tenders greetings to the new faculty members: Miss Pauline Irons, grades; Mrs. Nina H. Young, home economics; and W. J. Murchaug, assistant coach and commercial work teacher.

A glance at the W. H. S. gridiron recalls last year's victorious football record and a glance at the present squad makes one certain that history will repeat itself.

Two jumps ahead of other organizations, the Quill and Scroll makes news copy by entertaining the Cubs with a party Friday night.

Stumbling block for toe stumpers is the slightly elevated floor level on the way to the study hall.

If really isn't necessary to mention it, but the ex-journalists, with the aid of dictionaries, are editing this first Corral.

Two '37 Grads Say They Like Texas University

Bonnie Adams and Elva Willard were the only last year's seniors to attend school this summer. Both girls were students of Texas university. The main purpose for their going for the six weeks was, they say to wear off part of the freshman "green" before the long term.

Elva seems to enjoy being her own boss, the nice long walk to school and of course seeing the boys who worked in the kitchen. Her beautiful building and the fountain in front of the library were among the many things that Bonnie declared that impressed her. One of the huge swimming pools attracted her special attention as a recreation resort.

Both Elva and Bonnie are planning to return to Austin this fall to continue their work in Texas university.

Parent-Teachers Conduct Summer Roundup Clinic

P.-T. A. accomplishments for the summer included the Summer Roundup which was a clinic conducted for all school-age children last Monday. Letters were dispatched to the parents who were urged to bring their children for the physical and dental examination, under the supervision of Dr. H. E. Nicholson. The clinic was at the school building at 10 o'clock.

The officers for the P.-T. A. for this year were chosen at the last meeting of the association in April. They are: president, W. C. Zirkle; vice president, Mrs. George Porter; secretary, Mrs. Bill Perrin; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Witt.

There will probably be a conference of the officers this week and they will set the date for the first meeting, some time this month.

Shelter Belt Rules

By the U. S. Forest Service

The primary purpose of the shelter belt plantings is to protect soil from wind erosion. Aside from this, these belts will supply fuel and posts in later years, furnish protection for livestock, conserve soil moisture, furnish cover and food for wild life, protect growing crops, improve living conditions, and in other ways contribute to the general well being of the region.

The plantings will be planned to give the maximum benefit to the individual farms on which they are located, but by far the best results are obtained by grouping belts on a number of adjoining farms. In other words, your planting will be more effective if your neighbors also plant shelter belts. In order to secure the most from the planting and to assure its success, certain requirements must be observed, most important of which are:

1. LOCATION. Plantings will be located where, in the opinion of the Forest Service and the land owner, they will give maximum protection to fields. This will usually be in an east and west direction along an south or north edge of the field.

2. SIZE OF THE BELTS. The plantings will be about 7 rods wide, consisting of 10 rows of trees and shrubs. A strip of less than one-half mile in length will not be considered unless it is limited by ground conditions or it would be a continuation of another planting.

3. SOIL. Plantings will not be made where the soil is not suitable for tree growth.

4. TREES AND PLANTING. The trees will be furnished and planted by the Forest Service without charge. After planting, the trees will become the property of the land owner. However, the land owner must agree not to remove or sell the young trees.

5. CARE AND PROTECTION. The land owner agrees to exclude all livestock from the planted area. For this purpose, the land owner will furnish the fencing materials necessary for constructing a minimum standard two-wire fence with posts not more than 20 feet apart. The Forest Service will furnish the labor for constructing the fence.

6. GROUND PREPARATION FOR PLANTING. The land owner must prepare the ground for planting in a manner acceptable to the government.

7. CULTIVATION. Proper cultivation is essential in successfully establishing and growing trees. Since the trees become the property of the land owner after planting, it will be his responsibility to provide this necessary care. The government may, if funds permit, assist with cultivation, when an emergency exists.

Norval Cummings of San Antonio, who has been working in Borger for the summer, stopped over Saturday to visit with friends enroute to Wellington where he will join his aunt, Miss Otha Cummings, and they will go on to San Antonio. Norval attended school in Wheeler year before last when he was a freshman.

Harold Nicholson of Dallas came home Saturday and spent the week end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Nicholson. Paul Wiley, who had been visiting Mr. Nicholson at Dallas, came home with him and will stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wiley. The first school starts at College Station.

Bodie replied: "Not very, you went with one."

Commercial work seems to be attracting a number of the female enrollment that had had only vague plans to take the subjects before.

It has been suggested that R. J.'s new nickname be "Pappy, jr."

There was the end of an envelope sticking out of Aubrey's pocket Monday. It looked very businesslike, but then—

It's rather hard to understand so many exes visiting school this week—is it love for dear ole Wheeler Hi—or could it be the irresistible charm of some of the present pupils?

It is "rumored" that there was so much food at the football banquet that a certain person had to spill his tea rather than to waste it.

We sincerely hope that the new teachers will make a few boners so as to add ginger to this corner. The old (not in years) teachers are a lot too good.

A certain pupil has made the suggestion that air conditioning be placed in the high school building. It would be rather nice to have a soda fountain, too.

It's time we were forgetting all our summertime romances and going back to our winter realities (Or winter romances).

Two of last year's blooming romances still blossom. They could be Orveta and Wallace, and Verna and Dudley.

SPECIAL—Hot off the press—Ray Holley, prominent high school student, kicked the bucket Tuesday morning. (Or is a waste paper basket a bucket?)

At the Churches

Methodist Church

E. C. RANNEY, Pastor

America is drinking itself back to prohibition. The dangerous and murderous drunken drivers and the vast cost and waste in life and money is sickening many people out on the practices of the temperate. In the state of New York in the last 12 months 26 larger towns have voted local option. New Yorkers are not noted for being dry, either.

Sentiment against women and minors drinking is stimulating the fourth temperance drive to make America dry. The first great wave of sentiment against liquor started two centuries ago, before the American Revolution and continued until the Civil War. The second temperance movement followed the Civil War and reached its peak in 1885. The third movement is dated 1900-1920, and ended with prohibition. But a new one, and possibly the most thorough going one is now being born of much suffering, many broken hearts, and empty parlors.

September 26 is Rally and Promotion Day and we shall need to make preparations for this.

The pastor will preach on, "Finding My Place in God's Kingdom to Come."

The weekly services will be as usual.

The League will meet at 7:15. They had a good hour last Sunday, serving and making plans for work.

The Church of Jesus Christ

C. C. MERRITT

"A fair show in the flesh" is no new thing, but a truly true spiritual growth. That statement is taken from the pen of the Apostle Paul at the very beginning of Christianity, one thousand, nine hundred years ago.

Several of the evangelists, of pastors and of the local churches is often measured by that false "yard-meter" of "a fair show in the flesh."

Does he have many converts? Does he draw great crowds? Is his church filled full and running over? Does the church have a fine modern plant, and is it very popular? Is its membership composed of the merchants, bankers, scholars, doctors, lawyers, super-undertakers?

The desire for "a fair show in the flesh" leads to compromise—the compromise of offending parties to the world.

"Science" say they, "has proved miracles to be impossible." Therefore, if you are to get and retain scientists in the church, you must deal with the miracles of the Bible as myths and superstitions. So here you are in our modernism.

"Joseph, not God, was the father of Jesus Christ did not arise from the grave; he is still dead as the proverbial door nail. That a cross of Christ was a necessity and the blood of Jesus Christ needful to cleanse us from our sins is a barbaric relic belonging to the uncivilized age, etc."

In Paul's days, compromise was to avoid persecution. Today, it is to avoid ridicule and to appear wise and great. But Christ has promised to sound the church of God from these Satanic influences. The Father may permit Satan to sift the church as wheat, but the true and genuine children of God will be saved out of it.

Service each evening at 7:00 finish the series of sermons on the book of Galatians. Subject: "The Sanctification of the Spirit."

Watch the church's subject: "Watching the Suffering Christ."

What are your needs? Come, and we will help you.

Assembly of God Church

A revival meeting, which started last Sunday, is now in progress at the local assembly of God church. The evangelist, Rev. James Bell of San Diego, Calif., is bringing very interesting sermons. A graduate of the Berean Bible institute of San Diego, Rev. Bell is qualified and capable of delivering messages that encourage the Christian and appeals to the lost.

The general public, and especially members and friends of the congregation, are urged to hear this man. Services each evening at 7:00. Prayer meeting at 7:30, preceding the sermon hour.
