Nice Amount Raised as Cotton Premiums

Producers of First Three Bales Ginned Here to Receive Total of $86.00

As announced in this paper last week, Wheeler's first bale of the current season's cotton crop was brought in late last Thursday by Fred Rowe, living a short distance northwest of town. The load was ginned Friday and yielded a 465-pound bale of lint.

Receipt of the annual "first bale" is the signal for raising premium or "bonus" money for the lucky and energetic producers. This year has been no exception in that respect. Early this week, J. W. Hooker made a round of the business places and called on the professional men, receiving a total of $86.00.

According to precedent established in late years, the sum will be apportioned to producers of first, second and third bales delivered to Wheeler gins.

Division is made on a 50, 30 and 20 per cent basis. Rowe, therefore, received $43.00 premium; second bale will draw $25.80, and third will get $17.20. This is deemed a fair and equitable division and provides an incentive for growers to strive for not only the three first place honors but also for the additional reward.

Donors of the premium money are as follows:

Farmers Gin Co., New Deal Gin, Citizens State Bank, Ernest Lee Hardware, Wheeler Cotton Oil Co., J. P. Green & Sons, Panhandle Power & Light Co., H. M. Wiley, Puckett's Grocery, Wheeler Poultry & Egg Co., M. McIlhenny, City Drug Store, Royal Drug, Crump-Mundy Service Station, H. E. Young.

J. H. Magruder, Bob Rodgers, Fred Farmer, O. D. Arganbright, Garrison Service Station, John Lewis, D. A. Hunt, Traders Compress Co., Doris Forrester, Dick Craig, R. G. Russ, Whitehurst & Son, Adams Grocery, W. E. Pennington & Son.

Nora's Cafe, Jaco Cook Shack, Maloy's Cafe, J. M. Burgess, The Wheeler Times, Title Abstract Co., Bill Perrin, Harry Wofford, Cicero Smith Lbr. Co., Woodridge Lbr. Co.

Local Business Man Marries Santo Girl

Clyde Adams, Miss Glennis Watson Take Nuptial Vows Last Thursday Afternoon

In an impressive 1 o'clock ceremony Thursday afternoon, Sept. 16, Miss Glennis Watson of Santo became the bride of Mr. Clyde Adams of Wheeler. The nuptial vows were spoken at the Baptist parsonage in Santo by the Rev. E. R. Bass, pastor. The bride was attractively attired in a wine chiffon velvet gown with black accessories.

Mrs. T. J. Reasoner, bride's attendant, wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories.

Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Watson of Santo, who formerly lived in Wheeler, where the daughter received her high school education and graduated with the class of 1930. Since that time she had been employed as a clerk in a general store at Santo, until a year ago when she opened a drug and millinery store of her own which she had successfully operated and will continue until satisfactory disposition can be made of the business.

Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adams of this city. After graduating from Wheeler high school he farmed one year before entering McMurry college at Abilene, where he took part of his training. He completed his college course at Texas Tech, Lubbock, and received a B. S. degree, graduating in June, 1936. He was employed in a cheese factory at Lamesa until June 15 of this year, when he came home to manage the Adams Grocery store for his father.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left Santo for Wheeler, where they will make their home. Enroute they were over-night guests of high school friends, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Sandifer, at Seagraves and also visited friends in Lubbock, arriving here Sunday.

Hereford Breeders Make Sales

W. L. Williams, Hereford breeder living southwest of Wheeler, reports the sale of four registered animals last week. Three bull calves were sold to W. P. Newell of Albany, Texas, and a H. H. Reeves of Shamrock bought a yearling bull which is to become his herd sire. Two other stockmen from Albany accompanied Newell on an inspection tour, which included this call at the Williams Hereford farm.

LIONS COMMITTEE APPOINTED FOR DUMAS HIGHWAY MEETING

Announcement at Tuesday's luncheon of the Wheeler Lions club that a meeting of Highway 41 boosters is to be held at Dumas shortly after the first of October resulted in appointment of a committee to attend the gathering by Boss Lion Nicholson. A. B. Crump is chairman, with Frank Fulfer and Nelson Porter as members.

Harry Wofford was named chairman and F. B. Craig, assistant, to arrange for transportation of the band to the Amarillo Tri-State fair today.

After discussion of other propositions, Taft Holloway, C. G. Miller and J. L. Gilmore were designated by B. T. Rucker, chairman, to provide entertainment at the next club luncheon on the first Tuesday in October.

Much Interest Shown In Forestry Program

Farmers Evince Co-Operative Spirit—Applications Should Be Filed Quickly

Farmers applying for shelterbelt plantings in Wheeler and adjoining counties appear much interested in the program, judging from the number of applications received at the District Forest Service office in Shamrock, states A. G. Schattenberg, in charge of the office.

Director Schattenberg estimates there will be a sufficient supply of nursery stock available to meet all needs in this area. However, he points out that anyone interested in a shelterbelt should make application at the earliest possible moment. This is to allow time for a service officer to inspect the location and advise regarding greatest protection and probable connections with adjoining belts.

Plantings will start soon after the first frost has checked the sap in young trees. Therefore, it is important that all applications be received prior to that time. It is likely that none will be accepted afterwards. Application blanks may be obtained from the service office in Shamrock, or from the county agent or chairmen of the various agricultural clubs in the district.

The director explains that signing an application does not bind the landowner in any way. Trees are furnished by the government and planted on farms free of charge. All that is required of co-operators is to cultivate trees in a manner similar to that of field crops, and to keep them free of weeds.

Shelterbelts planted last spring have made very satisfactory growth. The faster growing species have attained a height of from 6 to 8 feet, while individual trees in some of the belts, that were properly cultivated throughout the season, have reached a height of 10 feet.

Wheeler P. & E. Lays New Floor Covering

"That man's at it again" might well describe activities of Joe Tilley, manager of the Wheeler Poultry & Egg store at the southeast corner of the square. Tilley is continually making improvements and working out new and more convenient arrangements of stock and fixtures. His latest achievement, and one of the most notable from the standpoint of beauty and utility, is the installation of new floor covering in the main retail room. Use of linoleum, in pretty pattern, adds much to the attractiveness of the grocery. Refinishing the walls and ceiling with new paint completed the present improvements.

Judge W. O. Puett has been quite ill since Sunday night with an appendicitis attack. He made a change Wednesday afternoon for the better and it is believed he will recover without an operation. Miss Hattie Womack is looking after the judge's office during his absence.

POPULAR WHEELER BAND LEADER TURNS DOWN MORE LUCRATIVE JOB

Probably known to but few local people, yet reliably reported to The Times, is news of a gesture of loyalty and sacrifice by J. W. Lummus, director of the Wheeler band, that is worthy of highest commendation and even emulation by others who like their work and who feel more than passing attachment to their town and community.

Lummus according to the report, was called by parties in a nearby county seat town and offered a flat salary of $120.00 per month to direct a school band. This, combined with fees for private instruction, would afford a sizeable income, it is said. In fact, The Times informant stated,

Survey Made Tuesday on County Dam Sites

Eight Tentative Locations Named by Committee Working Under Conservation Plan

With A. B. Crump as chairman and Jake Tarter, secretary, a committee whose other members are Paul Macina, vice chairman; A. I. Baird, Tom Britt and C. A. Morgan, made a survey of the county on Tuesday to select tentative dam sites for construction of lakes. The survey was made to comply with requirements fixed by the district headquarters office at Amarillo and is in harmony with procedure in other counties of the region.

The entire program was formulated at a recent meeting in Amarillo of the five-state area covered by the Panhandle Water Conservation authority, and provides for the building of dams and construction of lakes to conserve moisture and check erosion. These lakes, when created, may serve the multiple purpose of flood control, irrigation, swimming, boating and general recreational centers.

Given in their order of priority, eight county locations are roughly described as follows:

- 1.—4 miles north, 1/2 west of Wheeler on Briscoe creek; area 128 acres.
- 2.—2 miles west, 3 miles north of Shamrock on Cole creek; area 142 acres.
- 3.—3 miles south, 1/2 east of Mobeetie on Sweetwater creek; area 89 acres.
- 4.—1 1/2 miles northwest of Mobeetie on Sweetwater creek area 182 acres.
- 5.—1 1/2 miles northeast of Shamrock on Shamrock creek; area 120 acres.
- 6.—1 mile east, 4 miles south of Kelton on Davis creek; area 110 acres.
- 7.—6 1/2 miles northwest of Shamrock on George creek; area 16 1/2 acres.
- 8.—3 miles south of New Mobeetie on Adobe creek; area 87 acres.

WHEELER TIMES WINDOW BLOOMS WITH VARIETY OF SPLENDID ITEMS

Second crop Elberta peach specimens by C. C. Merritt, Wheeler, and John Cornelius, living northeast of town, lead The Times window display this week in point of arrival.

From a sheer gastronomic (that means appealing to the appetite) standpoint, that 58-pound watermelon, presented by J. A. Bradshaw, has stirred more envious glances and looks of surprise than any other entry.

From the standpoint of sheer beauty, a lovely bouquet of dahlias brought in by Mrs. A. C. Mitchell, are "tops." Exceptionally large for this locality and of rare coloring, these flowers are truly beautiful.

Then from the purely practical standpoint, comes the entry made by W. J. Blassingame of Corn Valley—a stalk of cotton bearing 62 well-filled bolls and a number of squares and blooms. The field from which this cotton stalk is a sample was planted on the last day of May, with the Half-and-Half variety. Blassingame lives north of the Corn Valley school, on the present farm five years, and has 51.01 acres of cotton this season.

Next comes a perfect specimen head of tame sunflower, grown by Arthur Whitener, and a mate to it somewhat larger by Holt Green.

Lee Black, just north of town, sent in some fine Delicious apples, both the red and golden varieties, that show what Wheeler can produce in the way of fruit.

Completing the window is a sample of pears, sent up from his recently-acquired Montague county farm by E. D. Andress, who moved there last week.

Failing to make the window, but no less appreciated, was a half bushel of mighty good apples presented to The Times family Friday by W. M. Pendleton, living northeast of Wheeler.

Son of Local Couple Succumbs Wednesday

C. O. Newkirk Passes Away in Amarillo Hospital Following Appendix Attack

C. O. Newkirk, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Newkirk of Wheeler, died early Wednesday at the North-west Texas hospital in Amarillo, following an appendix operation the previous week. Newkirk had lived for 12 years in Amarillo, where he was employed as line foreman for the Southwestern Public Service company.

Clarence Otto Newkirk was born May 5, 1906, at Newport, in Clay county, Texas, and died Sept. 22, 1937, in Amarillo at the age of 31 years, four months and 17 days. Besides his loving wife, he is survived by four children, Clarence, Margaret, Nell and Lennie Earl; his parents, sisters and brothers: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Newkirk, Wheeler; T. C. Newkirk, Tascosa; O. E. and Ford Newkirk, Santa Fe, N. Mex.; Mrs. Carl McCoy, Amarillo; Mrs. Buster Grimes, Hemet, Calif.; Rex, Arthur, Opal, M. L. and Lennie Ella Newkirk, all at home.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon from the Griggs Funeral chapel, Amarillo, by Rev. B. F. Cook, pastor of the Greenwood Baptist church, of which the deceased was a faithful member to the time of his death. Interment was in Llano cemetery.

All the immediate relatives were present for the last rites except a sister, Mrs. Buster Grimes, of Hemet, Calif.

Marvin Jones Finds Crowd Here Friday

Several Hundred Farmers Gather to Discuss Farm Program with Representative

Delayed slightly in getting away from the Canadian celebration and barbecue, where he was an honored guest, Congressman Marvin Jones found a huge crowd of Wheeler county farmers assembled at the court house here Friday afternoon. These men had gathered for the purpose of discussing with Jones various phases of a proposed national crop control program for 1938.

While the congressman delivered an address, explaining the tentative federal program and touched on the possibilities of putting the farm industry on the same basis as manufacturing, he made no effort to monopolize the talking. As had previously been announced, his was a visit here to learn the desires of farmers themselves concerning the probable plan to be adopted.

Under leadership of Melvin Pillers, Twitty; J. Z. Baird, Kelton, and Milt Williams of Briscoe, outlines framed by the farmers were presented. Although formulated by different groups in various parts of the county, these outlines were found to be practically identical in general purport, stated Jake Tarter, county agent, chairman of the meeting.

The composite outline as agreed upon shows the farmers as favoring a production control plan that will hold production in line with demands of domestic and export consumption, and at the same time safeguard the consumer against a shortage. They also desired a loan feature on excess commodities produced during favorable years.

After spending the night here with his friends of many years standing, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crump, Jones left Saturday forenoon for Quail, where he attended another meeting similar to the one held here. A. B. Crump and Raymond Holt took Jones to the Collingsworth county appointment.

Lee Guthrie to Head Red Cross Roll Call

During a visit here this week by Earl B. Amos, field representative of the American Red Cross, with headquarters at St. Louis, Lee Guthrie was selected as chairman for the annual Red Cross roll call which will be held from Nov. 11 to 25, this year. Guthrie succeeds Dr. H. E. Nicholson to this position, Nicholson having served two years as roll call chairman in addition to chapter chairman.

From records carried by the field representative, it was learned that Wheeler county (especially this chapter) has shown splendid improvement in roll call drives. In fact it failed to function entirely only three years ago and is now well above the state average in membership and activities.

Mrs. Jesse Crowder and Mrs. John Ficke spent Friday and Saturday in Amarillo, arranging the Wheeler club exhibit at the Tri-State fair grounds.

OLD-AGE ASSISTANCE AGENT AT WHEELER ON WEDNESDAY

During a call at this office last Saturday, Miss D'Laurel Beville, investigator for the Old-Age Assistance commission, announced that she will spend from 2 to 5 o'clock each Wednesday afternoon at the court house here for the convenience of those desiring to make application for this aid. General information and assistance with problems under the old-age pension plan may be obtained from Miss Beville, who is located at Shamrock except for her weekly visits to Wheeler at the time stated.

Improvements Made at Baptist Church

Men of Congregation Run Concrete Curb Bordering Grounds on Tuesday

Assembling at the church Tuesday, several men of the Baptist congregation made substantial improvement on the church yard when a concrete curb was run on the west and north sides of the lots. Only recently a similar group of men spent the greater part of a day working on the grounds, eliminating Texas burrs and other noxious weed pests.

Under leadership of Taft Holloway, pastor, the local church is making good progress in a number of ways that indicates growth and advancement toward the position it should occupy in the community.

Speaking of recent developments, Holloway expressed pleasure at the interest shown by men of the congregation. He declared that for a long while the women of the church had borne the brunt and shouldered much of the responsibility. Not that he now wishes them to nor feels that they will become less energetic and enthusiastic in efforts to advance the church, but he expressed the belief that with aid and encouragement of the men, more rapid progress may be expected.

ANOTHER CROQUET MEET AROUSES FANS THIS WEEK

Organized in four teams of six members each, including the captain, play proceeded vigorously and without quarter.

W. Veale captained the team to which Burgess belonged and which dropped out, as stated above, on Tuesday night. Early Wednesday night Captain "Red" May and his crew fell out.

This left Captain "Big" Wright and Captain "Gravy" Burgess and their teams to fight it out to a finish, which was done in first class style, say reports. Wright and company finally won a decisive victory—if so close a score can be called decisive—with one wicket to the good.

Friends of the crest-fallen senior Burgess, the genial shoe repair man, are offering condolences.

Marked by minor disappointments to some—but almost a tragedy to that veteran of mallet and wicket, J. M. Burgess—another croquet tournament was staged this week on the city park courts. Minor disappointments were received by R. J. Holt, who was entertaining guests, and Bob Rodgers, with slight illness in the family, preventing their participation.

The near tragedy to Burgess resulted when the team of which he was a member was eliminated Tuesday night in a two-game series, one of them a "skunk."

More Space Arranged at Pennington Store

In preparation for what now promises a greatly improved fall and winter business over that of recent years, W. E. Pennington & Son are making alterations in the interior arrangement of their sales room to provide much more space for display of merchandise in both the grocery and dry goods departments. A partition across the rear part of the building has been moved back, forming smaller office quarters and affording considerable more shelf space along the side walls.

BEAUTIFUL INLAID CHESS BOARD CONSTRUCTED BY HOLT GREEN

With an already enviable reputation for skillful work in wood, Holt Green, district court clerk, surpassed himself recently in the construction of an artistic inlaid chess board. Using alternate coloring of light colored oak and walnut, Green utilized cedar and walnut for the squares, giving a pleasing effect through contrast. The job was turned out in a few hours spare time of evenings. The board has been on display at The Times office this week.

Hail Storm Sweeps Large County Area

Region Between Briscoe and Mobeetie Badly Damaged Last Friday Afternoon

Losses estimated at thousands of dollars were sustained Friday afternoon of last week by residents of a hail-battered area between Briscoe and Mobeetie, in the north part of the county. Scope of the storm, which swept down from the northwest in late afternoon, covered approximately 55 sections of land, states Jake Tarter, county agent.

Of this area, between 35 and 40 per cent is in cultivation, the remainder being grass land.

While no official appraisal figures covering the damage are available—if any have been calculated—it is currently reported that crop losses range from 30 to 80 per cent, with even greater destruction in certain localities. Very little insurance was carried by those affected, declares Tarter.

Roughly outlined the hail district extends from Treadwells on the north to the Reeves and McPherson places on the south; beginning in the vicinity of the Swetnam farm on the west, it runs east and southeast to Mitt Wilson's and less severe to Doyle Standlee's.

J. M. Self, living on the Mrs. Annie Savage farm, brought to Wheeler on Saturday samples of peaches that were completely ruined. Others in that area exhibited cotton stalks from which every vestige of leaves and bolls had been stripped, with the plants beaten to the ground.

In addition to crop damage, reports of quail and rabbits killed have reached this office. So far as is known, domestic stock and poultry escaped with little loss.

People of the hail ridden region have the deepest sympathy of those in more fortunate sections, since the storm comes so late in the season that replantings of any substantial value are practically out of the question.

Representative Worley Weds Last Week

Popular Shamrock Man United in Marriage With Bonham Girl Wednesday

From Bonham comes announcement of the marriage, on Wednesday, Sept. 15, of Miss Ann Spivy of that city and Eugene Worley of Shamrock. The ceremony was performed at Bonham, in the Spivy home, profusely decorated with garden flowers and ferns for the occasion. Only intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the rites. The bride was attired in a burgundy suit with matching accessories and wore a shoulder bouquet of lilies. A luncheon for the young couple followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Worley left in the afternoon for Dallas and were guests of a friend at the Hotel Adolphus. They expect to take a wedding trip to Mexico City, returning about Sept. 27 to Austin, where Worley as representative from this district, will attend a special session of the legislature. At the close of the session, Mr. and Mrs. Worley will establish their home in Shamrock.

Mrs. Worley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Cumbly Spivy of Bonham, is a talented musician and a graduate of Texas university. She has visited in Wheeler county on numerous occasions.

Worley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Oliver of Shamrock, and attended A. & M. college and Texas university law school, of which he is a graduate. He has been state representative from this district for two terms and is prominent in Texas politics. He is also connected with the law firm of Smith, Teed, Wade and Worley, having charge of the Shamrock office.

Local Musicians to Erick Saturday Eve

Several members of the Wheeler Band, chosen according to instrument played and availability, will form part of a composite band to render a concert at Erick, Okla., on Saturday evening of this week. The concert is to be given on the streets of the Beckham county town beginning at 8 p. m.

This occasion will bring together representatives from several Texas and Oklahoma bands and is designed as an aid to formation of a band at Erick, states J. W. Lummus, director of the Wheeler group.

Arrangements for the event are being made by Vernon Witcher of Erick, director of the fledgling organization.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Just suppose it should be announced from Washington that the next session of congress would devote itself to studying ways and means to reduce the present extravagant cost of government?

That it would adjust, reduce or eliminate special, punitive or class taxation that now hampers or discourages business—such as the capital gains and losses clause and the tax on corporation surpluses?

That it would adopt a strong and definite policy that would protect the rights of the worker, as well as the rights of the factory owner and the public?

That it would use all powers of the government to see that workmen or employees, union or non-union, were protected in their jobs and operations, and that infringers on their rights would suffer the full penalties of law enforcement?

That it would discontinue its present program of duplicating existing power facilities and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to provide an unnecessary competitive service against a private industry whose rates are already subject to stringent public regulation?

That it would study the rail transportation system from the standpoint of encouraging rather than hamstringing the American railroads, as is now being done insidiously by those who would socialize the carriers under government ownership?

Just suppose our government would announce such a program instead of coming forth with new and untried experiments threatening to property rights, personal liberties, investments and employment?

Do you think business would pick up in this country, money would start to flow into new enterprises, and new jobs be created?

Think it over.

PENSIONERS

Texas old age pensioners are the owners of property to the value of $26,500,000, an analysis made for the senate investigating committee indicates.

The analysis was made by W. A. Little, acting director of the state old age assistance administration, by the so-called sampling method. Out of all the pensioners, 500 names were selected at random and the property owners of these pensioners investigated. It was found that 41 per cent owned property of the average value of $650.

Applying the percentage to the entire number of pensioners gave a figure of 38,892 as the number of pensioners probably having an average property value of $650 each.

Chairman Claude Teer of the Old Age Assistance commission explained that these properties probably were principally small homes, and if the old people were put out of these homes, "you might just as well put them in an asylum." The psychological effect, he added, would be sufficient to harm some of the old people.

Property ownership, moreover, does not indicate that the owner has an income. "It may be a worn out farm, or a small home and those living in it may be practically destitute. We recently turned down an appeal of an old couple who had a worn out farm of 140 acres which we thought was worth perhaps $2,000 and those old people probably are in need," observes the committee.

AN INVITATION

To facilitate prompt communication with surviving relatives and materially assist in providing accurate data for a news story, it is said that some newspapers propose to issue an invitation to all readers who plan to do the following:

Mixing highways and highballs.
Turning a corner while driving too fast.

Passing other cars while going up hill.
Passing street cars on the left.
Speeding through streets and highways.

Turning around from the wheel to chat with passengers in the back seat.
Taking a nap at the wheel.
Riding four in the front seat.
Beating a train to the crossing.
Taking a chance.

Complete obituary details and, if possible, a late photo will be asked for as a gesture of co-operation. Advantages to the newspaper resulting from such thoughtfulness is readily apparent.

A POLICY OF SUICIDE

Any policy is better, almost, than the policy of reducing cotton acreage in Texas, while production is increased in every foreign area and in California to preempt the markets that Texas is losing. For that is a policy of suicide.

We are not, and never have been, advocates of such schemes as the export debenture plan or the domestic allotment plan. But we are frank to say that they would be better than the present policy. However, unless there is a radical change in sentiment among the farmers, the present policy is going to be continued. For the farmers are going to be made to believe that the present low price of cotton is due to the large American crop.

They will not be told that the foreign crop of 19,500,000 bales or 3,500,000 bales more than the American crop has had anything to do with it, and they will not be told that the decline in consumption of American cotton abroad to about 5,000,000 bales has had anything to do with it. They will not be told either that during the past five years, while they were reducing their acreage, California was steadily increasing cotton acreage, or that California cotton has been displacing Texas cotton in the world's markets.

They will be lead to believe that by reducing their acreage they can affect the world price of cotton, in spite of the collapse of five years of such a policy. The prestige of President Roosevelt himself is behind such a policy. For did not the president insist upon receiving assurance that new "control" legislation would be enacted before he would consent to a cotton loan?

The good intentions of the president and his desire to "help the farmer" will not prevent such a policy from having ruinous effects. But they will go a long way toward inducing the farmers to agree to such a policy. The odds, therefore, are overwhelming. And yet the farmers ought to be aroused to the real situation.—The Texas Weekly.

WHEN THE FIRST FREEZE?

A subject of deep moment to plains and near-plains people now is, when will the first freeze come? Looking to nature for signs some take the trees, others go by the prairie dogs, still others by the tarantulas and others the first "norther" of the season.

Taking this last "sign" would throw the first freeze of the season on Nov. 10, a long time away, plenty of time for the late cotton to develop and for the ground and the staple to dry out after September and its rains have passed. Sixty days after the first "norther" is said to have worked out a number of years here. Old-timers "go" by it pretty generally—those who watch signs at all. Some of the other "signs" do not coincide with the first norther sign.

It will be interesting to see what actually happens.

In the Panhandle of Texas the weather gets credit for "doing as it pleases," and no weather man has been able to predict it successfully. The mosquito trees have been about the most successful guessers at the seasons, and even they almost got caught a few years ago.

NO SPECIAL SESSION DESIRED

Whether we interpret our own secret thoughts as the desire of the people of this section or whether there is actually no desire for a special tax-raising session of the Texas legislature, we are not sure. We believe, however, that the two coincide. We know we do not want a special session of the legislature; we believe we know the people generally do not want such.

It is true there is a deficit of $10,000,000 in the general revenue fund and it is true we are told the amount will be another four million higher before the year—maybe it is the biennium—has passed. But there has already been assessed many millions by the legislature this year that must be paid and we think it will give the folks a chance to digest the pills already dosed out before being given new ones to assimilate. With every regard for the high patriotism of Governor Allred and the legislature, we say let the deficit go hang for the time at least. The schools, the highway department, are well financed. Other departments can get anything they want and there is no probability that any of the state employees will go hungry, even after discounting their vouchers.

Why not leave the thing be and let sentiment crystallize? After all, there is no definite assurance that the legislature convened will order any new levies. And a rest from any new ones will be a big help to those who are already strained to pay the old ones.

Our Exchanges

Items of interest culled from newspapers on The Times' exchange list.

Justice of the peace precinct No. 4, which includes the city of White Deer, will hold an election Tuesday, Sept. 28, to decide on the issue of whether to legalize the sale of vinous and malt liquors not to exceed 14 per cent by volume. Petition to hold the election was filed with the commissioners court late in August and contained 73 names. Action to grant the election was taken Monday by the commissioners court.—Panhandle Herald.

The vacation of Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Barcus was suddenly terminated at their summer home near Ruidoso, N. Mex., Saturday. The minister in making repairs in the attic fell when his foot slipped. He dropped through the ceiling to the kitchen where he came in contact with a stove. Two teeth were dislodged, his face lacerated and his glasses broken. First aid by a physician in camp permitted Rev. and Mrs. Barcus to make a hasty trip to their home in Clarendon where he is recovering nicely.—Donley County Leader.

Theodore Clarence Moore, 68, died early Wednesday morning in Amarillo. He had been a resident of this territory 40 years and of this county 25 years. Moore was at one time county superintendent of schools in Roger Mills county, Okla. He served several years and came to the Washita community in this county 25 years ago. He was a well known farmer, school teacher, real estate man and booster.—Canadian Record.

When converted at a revival, an Alabama ex-sinner said: "Friends, I want to confess everything bad I've done, but I can't until the grand jury adjourns."—Wellington Leader.

Evidently the Panhandle isn't the only place where a bit of precaution is practiced.

The great majority of people in any country do not want war, but history shows that it is possible to have a whole people shouting for war after feeding them propaganda for a few weeks. Right now it would be impossible for our own country to work up such sentiment for a war, unless threatened by invasion from a foreign power, and let us hope that we continue to be peacefully minded.—McLean News.

Floyd county's first bale of cotton to be marketed and ginned, was turned out by Scott Gin company Saturday morning for Clarence Reddy three miles southwest of Starkey, who sent the bale to town late Friday afternoon. The best premium was made up Monday for the first bale that has been given for the first bale since 1929, indicating an eager and interested set of business men in Floydada, anxious to see the cotton season get under way.—Floyd County Hesperian.

"Uncle" Charlie Harris of Miami, rounded out another milestone in life when he celebrated his 93rd birthday, Saturday, Sept. 11, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ray McGee and family. A sumptuous dinner was served at the noon hour. Two beautiful cakes with candles adorned the table, one the gift of Mrs. H. G. Taylor and Mrs. R. W. Cantwell, and one from his son, Oscar Harris.—Miami Chief.

By a not altogether fathomed process, as yet, Clarendon has been pinched out of her three or four year record of priority in the matter of eligibility for a federal postoffice building. The cold facts are that we are NOT to get the postoffice this fiscal year, and have fragile hopes of getting it in the next fiscal year. But for the coming 12 to 16 months, Clarendon must "keep the fire on," if she expects to secure a federal building at all in the next dozen years. The Hon. Marvin Jones can get the postoffice for Clarendon in the next two years, or he will not likely get it for us at all.—Clarendon News.

If owners of land in the Cartwright neighborhood east and a little south of Perryton cooperate, Ochiltree county will soon have another oil test going down, for J. B. Cartwright, sr., has signed a drilling contract with G. W. Louthan, Lincoln Ekern, and James Manatt, Pampa, and G. S. McCarthy, Amarillo, calling for the sinking of a 7,000 foot well. The contract is contingent on the signing up of leases on a 35,000 acre block.—Ochiltree County Herald.

You can raise corn in Plainview country. This conclusion is deduced from the experience of D. L. McDonald, who on his place north of Plainview produced about 60 bushels of Yellow Dent on an acre. McDonald last week had several sample ears of this corn down town showing it to friends. Ears were about eight inches long, one with 24 rows of grains, all nicely matured.—Plainview Weekly.

The editor of The Review begs the indulgence of the readers and patrons of the paper. For the past month or more he has been almost unable to do any work. Last week he spent in the hospital. Efforts to secure additional help in the office have failed, but it is hoped that a printer may be secured, when the editor expects to go back to the hospital for further treatment. In the meantime, we beg your indulgence.—White Deer Review.

At the Churches

Methodist Church

It was Lincoln who said: "The nation cannot long continue half slave and half free." During the first great Liberty Loan drive, Mr. McAdoo applied this to democracy also. In the last analysis this principle must be applied to religion.

"Surely we cannot long continue to have one standard of brotherhood for our home relations and another for our industrial and commercial relations. The home cannot be always operated by love and business by jealousy."—Babson "Business and Religion."

Though some of our bishops are opposed to the new plan of unification between our church, the M. E. church, and the Protestant Methodist church, the tide still moves that way. Of the conferences already held the vote stands: Illinois conference 30 for, 15 against; West Virginia, 144 for, 20 against; Kentucky, 131 for, 34 against. As a usual thing and the case was so during the Civil War, the border territory is the hottest and strongest for or against, but this time it seems to be for unification in border country.

Next Sunday is Promotion day in the church school. The sermon will be on some phase of this work. Evening services include league at 7:15, and sermon at 7:45. The women meet Monday at 2:30. Other announcements made later.

The trip and meeting to McLean was quite a success Tuesday with a splendid program, fine attendance, and an excellently served abundant covered dish lunch.

Church of Christ

The evangelistic sermons being delivered in a series of meetings at this church by Frank M. Mullins of Abilene are greatly appreciated by those who are attending the services. Every Christian in all the churches of Wheeler and vicinity would profit by these sermons. Therefore, you are urged to hear him in every service.

Usually, when an outstanding evangelist is employed by a church, great emphasis is placed upon that man in advertising the meetings. This very thing could have been justly done in this case but for the fact that it is my earnest desire that attention should be called—not to the man—but to the messages he has; not to the qualities he possesses, but to the Savior he proclaims. We are concerned only about the Person and His messages to a dying world. We, therefore, earnestly invite you to come and hear Bro. Mullins during his stay with us. Service hours are 9:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.—C. C. M.

It seems that our algebra class, which consists mainly of girls, is finding the subject a trifle difficult, but thanks to their wonderful adaptability, they are becoming used to 50's and 60's.

By this time next week, I imagine many of the students will be in different seats. Slowly, but very, very surely, all the boys are wandering to the front. All play and no work is the cause of this.

It's a wonder that we do not have a Williamdaughter instead of a Williamson; Helsenor instead of Henderson; River instead of a Poole; Truckman instead of a Carman; Sunny instead of a Mooney.

Seen and heard in freshman classes: Frankie Beatty saying a pair of shoes weighed 10 pounds; Laverne Williamson looking behind her; Ruby Walker giggling.

The senior class boasts a larger enrollment than has been at Kelton for several years. Those enrolled are: Lemoine Wagner, Genevieve Britt, Imogene Beatty, Lorene Clay, Morene Clay, Truman Henderson, Ray Webster, J. D. Beatty, Buck Henderson, Maxine Garner, Delbert Mitchell, Merl Kuykendall, Barney Lee Davidson, Thurman and Newton Richardson.

In junior business training class, Mr. Gandy seemed to have some difficulty explaining what a note was. He asked if there was any difference in a promissory note and a note that Genevieve would write to her boy friend informing him that she would meet him at noon. Imogene said, "Well, the first one would deal with money and the last one would deal with love." This seemed to be a very good answer.

J. D. Beatty has withdrawn from school.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

"Sportsmanship," quotes Webster, "is skill or practice in field sports." By this, he means that sportsmanship takes in all those who are interested and who do their best to be a good sport. By practicing hard and much in field sports, sportsmanship develops.

In school if, for instance, some students go out for sports enthusiastically, and others uninterestingly, then the attitude of the latter cuts down the percentage of sportsmanship in the school.

In the school building, on the campus, or in any other place that you may abide, be a good sport.

Practice much and learn your sport life skillfully so you will be drawn into the circle of good sportsmanship.

Basketball Girls to Present a Play Soon

Watch for the date that "Governor Joe's Amen" will be presented by the basketball girls. It is a three-act comedy by Myrtle Giard Eley, author of several plays.

The girls are going to take the boys' parts. No boy will be in the play. If you think some of the girls do not have gruff voices and manish features, just come out and watch them. The play is thrilling from beginning to end. When these girls make love to each other, the audience will die with laughter.

Cast of characters: Governor Joe Howard, a hardhearted, callous old brute, Merl Kuykendall; Bruce Howard, the governor's son, Maxine Garner; Morris Duke, Bruce's friend, Imogene Beatty; Larry Davis, a young criminal lawyer, Louise Britt; Mr. Blow and Mr. Beat, of the Beat and Blow Carpet Cleaning company, Frankie Beatty and Morene Clay; Gale Howard, the governor's daughter, Genevieve Britt, Alicia Howard, the governor's old maid sister, Daisy Cooper; Lessie Howard, the governor's wife, Vondell Davis; Mrs. Jim Conner, a heart-broken mother, Leone Hefley; Maggie and Jennie, the two maids, Grace Garner and Kathryn Whiteley.

The date has not been set for the play yet, but it will be soon. Watch for it and come and get the laugh of your life. Proceeds will be spent in buying new blouses for the basketball girls' suits.

Home Ec. Club Girls Enjoy Hike

The Home Economics club girls enjoyed a hike down to Reed's Lake and a weiner roast afterward late Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Lovelady, their sponsor, went with them. Some of the girls went boat riding and then they all built a bonfire. The girls ate to their heart's delight of roasted weiners, toasted marshmallows, watermelons, and other good things.

After they had eaten, the girls assembled around the fire and told stories and propounded riddles.

The picnic was over at 9 o'clock, and the girls went to their respective homes.

Freshman Breezes

The freshman class met Thursday, Sept. 14, to elect class officers. The following were elected: president, J. D. Henderson; vice president, Alvia Kenney; secretary-treasurer, Grace Garner; reporter, Frankie Beatty.

In this class, one of the largest in high school, we have an enrollment of 19. We are pleased with this enrollment, but would like to have more.

Three freshman girls are going out for basketball this year. They are Frankie Beatty, Grace Garner and Eunice Crafton. We are all hoping this will be a very successful year for the basketball girls as well as for the boys.

Junior News

Imagine the expression on two junior girls faces, when they received a geometry paper with as low a grade as seven marked on them.

The junior class is planning a watermelon feast for Thursday night. Music class seems to be the most interesting for the juniors. Do any of you suppose that some of the pupils could make musicians out of themselves?

We are very sorry our geometry teacher, Miss Lewis, is going to be away awhile, although Mr. Gandy, who is teaching in her place, is a very good teacher.

Ninth Grade News

As is customary, each class in high school elected its class officers. For the ninth grade, they are: president, Hershel Hartis; vice president, Junior Whiteley; secretary-treasurer, Rex Lovelady; reporter, Edris Dunaway.

We have had one meeting, and we chose George Gandy as our sponsor. He was prepared to make a long speech in appreciation, but the bell rang and we had to go to classes.

We all wish to send a note of sympathy to one of our classmates, Juanice Dale, who is in the Erick hospital. She was operated on for appendicitis Sept. 4, and is getting along nicely, and we hope to see her

These show people really need no introduction to theatregoers of Wheeler and northern Wheeler county. They have been here and at nearby towns in past years and their return is like a visit from old friends.

The Hurd organization has headquarters at Spearman, and is, in effect, a Panhandle organization. This same company has been in the show business for 19 years. They always specialize in clean entertainment, new plays and specialties, and this year is no exception. Their opening play for Monday night is "Too Much Mother-in-Law."

The Waikiki Novelty Boys orchestra, a very popular musical aggregation, is with them and is rated better than ever.

The tent will be located just east of the John Lewis Service station, at the southeast corner of the square. Popular prices are announced, with a special inducement on Monday night.

MRS. ROY PUCKETT HOSTESS TO LONDON BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Roy Puckett was a charming hostess Thursday afternoon to members and guests of the London Bridge club at her home on South Shamrock street. The reception room was artistically decorated with autumn flowers.

Bridge was played at three tables. Mrs. Floyd Adams won high score for members and Mrs. Al Watson won guest high. Cut prizes went to Mesdames Fred Farmer, Glen Porter and J. I. Maloy.

Dainty refreshments were served to Mesdames Nelson Porter, Ed Watson, A. B. Crump, Fred Farmer, Floyd Adams, Melvin Howe, Tobe Frye, Roe Green, R. P. Watts, Al Watson, Glen Porter, J. I. Maloy and the hostess.

RECEPTION WEDNESDAY FOR RECENT COURTHOUSE BRIDE

As a gesture of welcome to the recent courthouse bride and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moss, a party was given Wednesday evening at the club room in honor of the couple.

Raymond Waters and Mrs. J. E. Risner comprising the committee in charge. Misses Florence Merriman and Lois Hodges conducted the games.

A delicious buffet course, consisting of sandwiches, olives, cake and coffee was served under direction of Misses Bessie Mae Ficke and Dalton Burleson, assisted by Mrs. Geo. C. Jones and Miss Claire O'Gorman.

Further honoring the newly-weds, a 14-piece Pyrex cooking set, a gift of the county officers and employes at the court house, was presented to them.

Those present at the party were: Messrs. and Mesdames Rucker, Terrell Gunter, W. B. Hooser, Holt Green, Geo. C. Jones, Jim Trout and J. E. Risner; Misses Florence Merriman, Lois Hodges, Claire O'Gorman, Bessie Mae Ficke, Dalton Burleson and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Moss.

Corral Again First in Quill and Scroll Survey

Paper Scores 875 Points Out of 1,000 Possible in Rating

Score Book Offers Constructive Criticism on Work Done Last Year

For the second consecutive year, the Corral has been awarded international first place by the Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society of Journalism, of which Wheeler is a member school.

Same Score as Last Year
According to the achievement scale of international ratings, Wheeler's score was 875 out of a possible 1,000 points. This is exactly the same score made last year in the Critical Service, which is sponsored yearly by Medill School of Journalism. The Corral has been entered twice in this contest.

To compete in this survey, six copies in two groups of three, consecutive issues were sent to Quill and Scroll authorities. "The papers had to be at least six months apart."

News Writing Praised
On the score book, which contained comments and suggestions from the board of judges was this statement: "You may well be proud of The Corral. It serves Wheeler high well."
"Consistently good news writing," "Nice coverage of news" and "Alert in judgment of news values" were other favorable comments made.

Editorial achievements, innovations, and circulation of the paper received high scores. Constructive criticism on the inside pages of the paper were offered: "Your front and back pages are good, but inside pages are weak. Try using more short brief items on page three to pep it up."

Miss Bernie Addison, sponsor of the Corral, plans to order an engraved certificate of awards especially prepared for winners in the contest, which can be obtained for $1.50.

Achievement ratings were as follows: International honors, paper of superior achievements; international first place award, paper of high achievements; international second place award, paper of substantial achievements; international third place award, paper of fair achievements; and fourth place, no award, achievement low.

Pep Rally Is Theme in Chapel Program

Dr. H. E. Nicholson Is Master of Ceremonies for Speeches of Business Men

Both Wheeler schools assembled in the auditorium last Friday for a pep rally.

The program opened with the "Aggie War Hymn" played by the Wheeler Municipal band and dedicated to Harold Nicholson, a student of Texas A. and M. college.

Supt. J. L. Gilmore then announced Dr. H. E. Nicholson as master of ceremonies.

Dr. Nicholson called on several Wheeler business men for a talk. Those who spoke were R. J. Puckett, H. E. Young, H. J. Garrison, Robert Holt, Lonnie Lee, Taft Holloway, G. O. McCrohan, Nelson Porter, R. G. Russ and Marj Jaco.

Others speaking were Coach Stina Cain, Assistant Coach W. J. Murgadoh, Dr. Dually and Dr. Glenn Walker.

After the 24 members of the Mustang team had been called out on the floor and allowed to return to their seats, the band played a medley "The Eyes of Texas," "Hail, Hail," and "Our Boys Will Shine Tonight."

Preceding a tune called "Touch-down," J. W. Lummus, local band director, announced: "When we play this, we expect the boys to do just what it says."

The last song played was "On Wisconsin."

JOURNALISM CLASS EXCEEDS OVER PREVIOUS ENROLLMENTS

There has been a large increase in the number of students in the journalism class for this term as compared to that of the last two years.

In recent years there has been only one class which was larger than that of this term. There were 15 members in the class of 1934 as compared to the 14 of the present class. Twelve enrolled in 1936 and eight in 1935.

Those now taking journalism have prepared three papers for publication under the direction of Miss Bernie Addison.

As a student must be a junior or senior and must have a B average in English before signing up for the course, the group qualified to take this subject is small.

Officers Chosen for Home Economics Club

Stinson Elected President; Ayres, Barr, Jamison Will Assist in Activities

At the activity period Monday, the students and former students of home economics met in the cottage to organize a club.

Mrs. Nina H. Young, teacher, will be sponsor. Claudia Stinson, was elected president; Ruby Ayres, vice president; Lala Barr, secretary treasurer; and Imogene Jamison, song leader.

The president appointed the following committees: Program committee—Helena Jones, Imogene Jamison, Norma Lou Maxwell; year book—Marcell Farmer, Melba Wiley, Alvern Hampton; initiation—Ruth Faust, Lois Ficker, Presley Guynes; social—Ruth Barr, Norma Webb, Joyce Faust.

The initiation committee will meet as soon as possible to discuss plans. The Wheeler chapter will have a part in the district club meet which is to be held at Samnorwood, Oct. 2. A registration fee of 25c will be charged to cover the cost of lunch. If at all possible, the Wheeler club plans to go.

DAWN WEATHERLY IS MADE ASSISTANT MANAGER SHOP

Dawn Weatherly, graduate of Wheeler high school in 1937 was promoted last week to the place of assistant manager of Betty Maid Shop in Amarillo, Texas. She has been employed there for the last seven weeks.

Dawn was an outstanding student in Wheeler high school. She was exchange editor of the Corral staff and belonged to the Home Economics club and the girls quartette last year. One year she won a trip to Corpus Christi on a tailored dress in home economics.

CIVICS, HISTORY STUDENTS HEAR MARVIN JONES SPEAK

Students from the civics, history III, and history II classes went to the court house to hear Hon. Marvin Jones last Friday afternoon at 2:30. Congressman Jones spoke on farmers' problems and soil conservation plans. He also discussed the tariff problem as it is related to the farmer.

Parade, Broadcast Chief Features of Day's Attractions

Band to Lead Procession Down Polk Street, Entertain with Radio Program

Today is a holiday! Wheeler students looked forward all week to Thursday, a day of celebration given them by the school board to attend the Tri-State fair at Amarillo.

This is the first time the school has been dismissed for the fair. It is also the first year that Wheeler has been given a day by fair officials.

To Parade Down Town
Two chief features of the occasion are a parade down town in Amarillo at 9 a. m. and a broadcast at 4:30. The Municipal Band, decked in 42 resplendent new uniforms, is to lead the parade down Polk street from the Amarillo hotel to Tenth street. Following the band will be two or more school buses carrying students and teachers. Cars of Wheeleries, will come next in the procession.

To Broadcast Program
The radio program will be from 4:30 to 5 and will be broadcast from the Merchant's building at the fair grounds.

Approximately 20 bands from other schools are to compete in a contest for which prizes will be given of $75, $50, and $25 for the bands securing the greatest number of votes. Any one may vote for a school band on any day during the fair. Votes are cast in the Merchant's building. Winners will be announced Saturday night.

Band students are selling 75 cent tickets to the rodeo and the revue. They are allowed 15 cents on each ticket sold.

Numbers on the radio program are to include the following marches by

Student Confuses Arithmetic Terms and Gaudy Clowns

Even last week, grammar grade students were thinking of the Tri-State fair attractions.

Mrs. Smith asked in arithmetic class, "Oscar, what is the meaning of diameter?"

Little Oscar replied, "Diameter is a straight line drawn through the center of a circus."

WHEN IN ROME APPLIES TO STANDING FOR SCHOOL SONG

Have you ever attended a football game outside of Wheeler? If so, you noticed when a certain song was sung the entire congregation stood. That was because it was their school song.

Perhaps the reason the Wheeler folk don't stand up is either because they don't know they are supposed to or else they don't know our high school song, which is "We're Loyal to You Wheeler High."

Why can't we show our patriotism by rising when the school song is being sung? Others indicate their respect for their school by doing so. It is not always necessary for us to do as others do, but that old adage about "when in Rome" applies in this instance.

It makes no difference where the school song is being sung, we should show our appreciation of our school by standing. We do not only mean the school children, but the whole group that is representing the Wheeler school. If you know the school, you should sing it too.

Two songs should bring every Wheelerite to his feet: "Star Spangled Banner" and "We're Loyal to You Wheeler High."

KEEP TO THE RIGHT IN THE HALLS AS WELL AS ON HIGHWAYS

Wheeler school students are very fortunate because they have had no serious accidents. None of them have been run over going to or from school. However, this does not mean that we should disregard traffic rules.

All regulations regarding travel were obeyed by all people. America would have no need for traffic rules. One rule is that people walking should face traffic and that motorists should drive on the right side of the road.

When a person is out driving, he should stop behind all school buses, particularly if they are standing still. These are only two of our many traffic laws to be applied every day by nearly every school student. As these rules apply to traveling on the highways or downtown, so do traffic rules fit in with getting around at school.

All pupils sitting in the back half of the study hall should go out to the center door and those in the front

SNUBBING POST

The boys worked hard Friday night and we're proud of them. Poises to "Doug" Groves for displaying that old fighting spirit of his. The pep yell: "Hog skin, pig skin, any kind of leather, we play football in any kind of weather," was rather appropriate amid the falling tear-drops in the last quarter.

A song that has everything: "I've got plenty of nothing!" As the Chinese would say—Howard Nations sorta lost face in hall one day last week. Because of the slick floor or his careless steps he quite suddenly sat down.

This week's interesting personality Harley Mitchell. Clever, intelligent, witty, and seldom seen with a grouch.

If you noticed—Amos Page is a bit independent.

The goal shooting lasses of the gymnasium had a meeting Monday. Thirty-one girls out this year so far. It is rumored that Alton Weeks is a wee bit interested in a certain Wellington lass. We poor Wheeler girls never get a break.

The dash of gold on the teeth of Herbert Green and Bobby Groves add wealth to their personality. Plane geometry is proving itself rather complicated this year (as it didn't every year).

"This is my Affair" co-starring Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck is rather cute. The lovers in real life prove their ability.

"Big blue eyes and curly hair"—Maurice Barnes. What could be nicer than a day at the fair?

PET SAYINGS

Thelma Milum—"Oh, you don't say."

Betty Gene Coil—"You tell 'em, I'm tongue-tied."

Mr. Murdaugh—"Concentrate, please."

Bobby Groves—"I'll slap you flat of my back."

Mr. Gilmore—"Let's be a little quieter, please."

Mr. Witt—"You may pass out."

Amos Page—"I'll swan, I don't know."

R. J. Puckett—"Lord help me, the teacher won't."

Marilyn Johnson—"I'm sorry, teacher, but I didn't have time."

Mary Belle Johnston—"I wouldn't know."

Imogene Jamison—"I betcha."

Stina Cain—"You got me there."

Ruth Faust—"Glory be."

"Doug" Groves—"I'll try anything once."

half should leave by the front door. However, no one should start until all those coming in from classes are seated.

In the hall a good rule to follow is walk on the right-hand side. If all students would remember and practice these rules, we would have fewer head-on collisions in the halls.

MEET THE FACULTY

W. J. Murdaugh, assistant coach of the Mustangs and teacher of subjects in both high school and grade school, was born in Commerce, Texas, in 1915. He was the fourth son in a family of five boys.

When Murdaugh was only one year old his parents moved to Greenville and made their permanent home. It was here that W. J. attended school and began his athletic career. He played on the high school football team.

In 1933 Murdaugh went to college at East Texas State Teacher's college at Commerce. He was on the freshman football team. When asked about his part in other athletics he said, "Well, I played tennis quite a bit but not on the team, and of course I entered in track events in school."

From Commerce he went to Wesley Junior college in 1934 and to Austin college at Sherman in 1935. He played football on the team that won the Texas conference in 1935. An economics major and English minor, he graduated in 1936 with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Murdaugh is a pleasant good-natured person, possessing a sense of humor. He says of himself, "I am kinda bashful," but remembering a very calm and straightforward speech he made during pep rally this reporter is inclined to disagree.

Aviation he names as his hobby. "I read all the material on aviation and aviators I can get," he says, "and if I can, I want to own and pilot an airplane some day." Then he jokingly added, "Now, I have to be content with toy airplanes."

Swimming he especially enjoys. When asked if he liked boats, he replied, "Yes. Sailboats on the moonlight." He also likes blonds (girls) which is very extraordinary, as he is a blond himself.

Tiny Tots Munch Cookies While on Visit with Sisters

Did you notice Friday how the children in high school are growing the smaller instead of larger?

Every once in a while some one would hurry out of the study hall or class with a small child.

These tiny tots were seen in the aisles and when some of the poor things were pushed around by the big boys and girls. One little boy who was rolling against the wall bumped into Miss Holbert.

A little boy came in Miss Addison's class eating a cookie. You wouldn't think he would get to eat it with a bunch of big football boys around.

During journalism the crying of a little child was heard all over the grade school building. Several girls tried to persuade him to come inside the building, but with no success.

Imprisoned Mouse in Waste Basket

"Mouse." "Mouse." Miss Holbert squealed as she ran into study hall last Monday at physical education period. When she had quieted down she explained that a mouse was imprisoned in the waste basket in her room.

When two boys investigated they found the mouse, which was soon exterminated.

Caught in The Lasso's Noose

"I don't see why a man from Washington has to have an examination to marry an Organ Grinder," said Howard Nations.

Miss Holbert: "Ev'ly'n, do you want something?" Evelyn: "No, I was scratching my head."

Attention girls, Romeo Don Juan Page is on the lookout for a girl friend.

Heard at the ball game last Friday night a sweet young freshman girl saying, "Isn't Herbert Green dashing?" When I grow up I want a beau just like him.

Miss Adams in civics class: "I've always wanted to know the name of the country where they practice polyandry." That is where they have more than one husband.

Fancy Miss Kirby's trying to catch mosquitoes in a flask.

Is Marilyn Johnson still babyish enough to cry in a show?

Meta Bruton's latest heart-throb seems to be one of our greatest football players. . . . Guess who.

There seems to be something the matter with Mr. Murdaugh's hearing when he gets his home town paper. All he can say is, "what?"

Some of the Spanish II pupils need to study biology. They didn't know what a tabby-cat was.

What was Howard Nations thinking about when he said the dome of the capitol of Washington didn't have any hair on it?

We knew that Wellington was a big city, but we didn't think it was big enough for Howard to get lost in.

Marion: "Oh, I just hate you, Puckett."

Puckett: "Well I don't exactly love you, had you ever thought of that?"

OUR TEACHERS SEEM—

Supt. J. L. Gilmore—kind (fatherly).

Principal C. B. Witt—neighborly.

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore—sweet.

Miss Bernie Addison—efficient.

Miss Winona Adams—peaceful.

Miss Imogene Holbert—aristocratic.

Miss Lois Kirby—coquettish.

Coach Stina Cain—business-like. Mal Wayne—reserved. Mrs. Nina H. Young—domestic. W. J. Murdaugh—good natured.

Forrester Talks to Home Ec. III Girls

Speaker Tells Changes in Status of Women Since Early Times

Change in women's status was discussed by Judge E. H. Forrester last Friday when he talked to the home economics III class. He showed that in early times women were considered as chattels, but at present they do not need to depend on their husbands, since they were given the right to vote.

He discussed women's rights and laws affecting women, personal and community rights, and causes of divorce.

Girls of the home economics I class brought children of four to five to play school at the cottage Friday to see how they would react. As they have been studying the care of children, they are requested to bring a younger brother, sister or some child to class Friday. Time was spent observing how children's play develops them physically, mentally and socially.

One small boy withdrew from the group till most of the period was gone. Then he gradually started playing with the others.

As the girls had not had a place to leave their small charges the children accompanied them to classes.

Journalism Class Frantically Looks for Leads in News

"If you see a 'wh' I want it!" "No, I want it," answered another. "I'll take a 'where' if any one finds one," said still a third.

This was what caused the excitement in the journalism class last week. Each student was to find a news article beginning with "Who, what, when, where, and why." It seemed that each person was trying to find his "lead" or opening paragraph before the other one could.

Corral Staff Gets 2 Directories

Through the courtesy of the Southwestern Telephone company the journalism class now has two telephone directories. One is for use in the study hall and the other for the typing room.

Raney Gives Shower for Three Ex-students

Marthals Wiley, Bonnie Adams and Elva Willard were honored last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock with a surprise handkerchief shower given by Ethel Claire Raney.

Packages were hidden in the rooms. The guests found the different packages and traded so that the honorees had those containing the handkerchiefs.

Irene Hunt presided at the chocolate table with the assistance of the hostess. The lace-covered table was centered with a vase of golden glow, and floor vases of tall flowers decorated the entertaining rooms.

Those present were: Ruth Barr, Ferrol Ficke, Irene Hunt, Bonnie Adams, Marthals Wiley, Elva Willard, Lulu Barr, Lois Ficke, Genevieve Britt, Ethel Claire Raney, and Mesdames W. W. Adams, H. M. Wiley, J. E. Willard and E. C. Raney.

Those for whom the party was given are graduates of '37. Bonnie is attending Texas University at Austin. Elva Willard is enrolled at W. T. S. C. Canyon. Marthals left Sunday for S. C. W. at Denton.

Typing students should be able to type 20 words a minute by the end of the first semester according to instructor W. J. Murdagham. There were 22 students taking typing last year and 31 this year.

Three sections of typing are being offered to the students this year. A fee of $1.00 a month is to be paid by each student.

Students taking typing are: James Passons, Alton Weeks, Lois Ficke, R. J. Puckett, Irene Hunt, Inez Hunter, Marge Bowers, Vargie Bowers, Cleo Sewell, Earl Gilmore, Raymond Smith, J. B. Crowder, Scotty Eisner, Arnold Jones, Huffman Walker and Aubrey Warren.

"Cub" Reporter Misunderstands Teacher's Order

"You get the phone directory," said Miss Addison to a new student in journalism class Monday.

The "cub" reporter thought "teacher" meant to get a real, sure enough directory instead of just writing a story about the new one obtained last week from the telephone company.

She immediately went to the phone office, asked for a directory, and proudly placed it before her instructor.

LIBRARY BOOKS ARE ORDERED FOR SIXTH, SEVENTH GRADES

Ten new books have been ordered for Mrs. Allen I. Smith for the sixth and seventh grades. These were paid for by a library fee of 10 cents charged each student.

They are as follows: Black Beauty (two copies), Anna Sewell; Tony Tyler; Otis, Treasure Island, R. L. Stevenson; Sherlock Holmes, Conan Doyle; Call of the Wild, J. London; Freckles, Gene Stratton Porter; Freckles, Gene Stratton Porter; David Copperfield, Charles Dickens; and Adventures of Tom Sawyer, Mark Twain.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS PLAY GAME CURRENT EVENTS DAY

Thursday the journalism class spent the period playing a newspaper game. A slip of paper with a name of a person, a river, or town from some event in a daily paper was pinned on each one's back. Then questions were asked to give the person a chance to guess the name on his or her back.

When a student guessed the name, he was given another slip. Marion Smith won the contest by collecting more names than anyone else.

This was the first current events lesson of the year.

COLTS

Miss Pauline Iron's first A students are making a study of pets in reading and language. They are also making posters to illustrate different pets. In order to work better, they are grouped together.

The first B are learning to write some of the more simple words. They are also learning the members of the family by making poster to illustrate them.

"Care of Pets" is the main topic for the second grade. They are preparing posters to make their room more attractive and are studying oral language.

Mustangs to Meet Clarendon Bronchos Week from Friday

Squad Works Hard in Preparation for Coming Tilt on Home Field

The Wheeler Mustangs are being put through a rigid drill of plays and signals in preparation for the coming game with the Clarendon Bronchos next Friday night on the local gridiron.

This game will be hotly contested because the Mustangs have defeated the Bronchos ever since the conference has been organized. The first year Wheeler whipped, 19 to 0. Last year the Mustangs beat the Bronchos on first and tens, the game ending in a scoreless tie.

The Bronchos played Claude in a 6 to 6 tie. Both teams were evenly matched, penetrations being even.

The Wheeler squad played Wellington last week with an inexperienced team, and although they put up a good fight, they lost 33 to 6.

But with this experience and two weeks' practice the Mustangs will be ready for their opponents.

Mustangs Defeated by Skyrockets 33-6

Local Eleven Drops First Game of Season by Wide Margin; —Weeks Stars

Playing the last quarter in a drenching downpour, the former District 3B champs, the Wheeler Mustangs, met defeat at the hands of the Skyrockets on the Wellington gridiron last Friday night by a score of 33-6.

With the thought of revenge uppermost in their minds, the Skyrockets took the opening kickoff on their own 25-yard stripe and raced down the field for a touchdown. The try for point was to the left of the uprights.

After this brilliant play the Skyrockets kicked the ball over the required distance and Stafford, left tackle, fell on the oval. Marching down the field with Estes and Austin carrying the ball the Skyrockets got into scoring position there. After a pass from Austin to Bailey scored another counter. The try for point by another pass was good.

After finishing high school, Cain entered Junior college at Amarillo. There he played three years of football. Then after entering West Texas State college at Canyon, he played three years with the Buffalos. There he was assistant coach for the boys under Coach Jennings.

Stina Cain was one of the best boxing students ever to graduate from Canyon. He was captain of the boxing team in 1933. In five years of boxing he won his weight four times in the boxing tournaments at Roswell, N. Mex.

This is Coach Cain's first year as head coach at Wheeler. He was assistant under Coach Bob Clark last year.

The Skyrockets took the ball, and after a series of runs which gained yards like magic, Bailey plunged through the line for another touchdown. After a five-yard penalty against the Mustangs, the Skyrockets passed for the extra point.

Wellington substituted Holton for Smith, and Wheeler substituted G. Weeks for Passons. The Skyrockets, who drew a 15 yard penalty for talking, then tried a pass, which was incomplete. The Mustangs drew a 15 yard penalty for unnecessary roughness.

Wellington opened the second quarter by running a touchdown after a few plays. The Skyrockets drew a 15 yard penalty for holding.

In the second quarter the Mustangs' lone counter came when a pass from Weeks to Pitcock put the ball in scoring position. After a five yard penalty Weeks passed to Page for a nine-yard gain. Another pass from the Wheeler star to Pitcock scored a touchdown. Try for Mobette must have a better team this year. They played the Memphis Cyclones last Friday night and Memphis beat the Hornets 14 to 0.

The Flomot Longhorns were beaten by the White Deer Bucks, 7 to 0. This writer wants to congratulate the Bucks.
