THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

Wheeler Cotton Oil Co. Pays $100.00 Ton for Cottonseed

Purchase Limited to Seed of First Bale—Offers $75 for Seed of Second and Third Bales

First Bale Here Tuesday

Joe Hyatt Takes Community Honors with Delivery Date Only Four Days Later than 1940

Upon learning that Wheeler had received Tuesday evening its first bale of cotton for 1941, H. M. Wiley, manager of the Wheeler Cotton Oil company, promptly announced that he would buy the seed, paying at the rate of $100.00 per ton. This offer, which was gladly accepted, is limited to seed from the first bale.

Wiley added late yesterday afternoon, however, that he would pay at the rate of $75.00 per ton for seed from the second and third bales ginned in Wheeler this year.

His action, he stated, has a two-fold purpose. One is to afford an additional bonus to growers of the first three bales ginned here. The other is in the nature of a protest against prevailing price inequalities.

The Wheeler man returned the first of the week from a trip down state and reported that at Nocona the price of cotton seed was $55.00 per ton; at the Chillicothe Co-op it was $57.00 and at the oil mill in the same city, $60.50 per ton. He contends that some regulation should exist and believes his $100.00 per ton offer will help call attention to what he asserts is an intolerable situation.

First Bale Arrives

Joe Hyatt captured community honors for the first bale of the current season's crop when he delivered a load of cotton from his river farm south of town to the Farmers Co-op gin here late Tuesday evening which yielded a 490-pound bale, according to Frank Cooke, manager of the gin. Hyatt's delivery on the 16th was only slightly later than the average date for the past eight years, as shown by records found in The Times files. The table published below reveals Sept. 13 as the average for the period mentioned.

Earliest bale, it will be noted, was Sept. 1 and the latest Sept. 30. Production of a bale at this time is somewhat surprising to many farmers who have felt that, due to an unusually wet year and comparatively backward season, cotton would be two or three weeks behind schedule and a record late date for the first bale might result.

It is understood that another bale or two are almost ready, but may be delayed by Tuesday night's rain, which will hinder picking somewhat.

The Record

1933—Sept. 9, W. F. Wright.
1934—Sept. 1, Rufus Watts.
1935—Sept. 23, R. L. McClain.
1936—Sept. 30, Mrs. R. L. McClain.
1937—Sept. 16, Fred Rowe.
1938—Sept. 10, L. A. Gaines.
1939—Sept. 6, J. C. Bradstreet.
1940—Sept. 12, Otis Ford; Jeff Cole, second bale same day.
1941—Sept. 16, Joe Hyatt.

Cash Bonus Raised

Today, Raymon Holt, Dick Craig and Homer Moss took turns at circulating a subscription paper for first bales cash bonus. A neat sum was donated by Wheeler business and professional men and women. The premium money, in accordance with a custom of the past few years, will be divided 50, 30 and 20 per cent among the producers of the first three bales.

Donors to the bonus fund and amounts are as follows:
$5.00—Farmers Co-op gin, Wheeler Co-op gin, Citizens State Bank, Puckett's Cash Grocery.
$2.50—Cicero Smith Lbr. Co., Russ Dry Goods.
$1.00—Fred Ashley, Crescent Cleaners, The Wheeler Times, City Bakery, Wheeler County Produce, McDowell Drug Co., Wheeler Athletic Club, Homer Moss, Terrell Gunter, D. A. Hunt, Harry Wofford, Artie Lee Hunt, Clay Food Store, Ernest Lee Hardware, M. McIlhany, M. C. Jaco, Nash Appliance & Supply Co., R. & F. Store, Jim Magruder, City Barber Shop, City Drug Store, A. B. Crump, J. P. Green Hardware, C. J. Meek, J. C. Woolbridge Lbr. Co.

50c—W. W. Adams, Tamsey Riley.

YOUNG QUARTER-HORSE BRINGS NEAT PRICE

Buck Britt, residing east of town, sold a 2-year-old stallion of quarter-horse breeding Wednesday to Walter Merrick of near Kelton for the neat sum of $600.00. The animal is said to be a splendid specimen of that breed, but the purchase price still represents a tidy sum.

In discussing the sale, D. E. Holt, local banker, said Mrs. Britt (his daughter) fussed at her husband for selling the horse. Holt said he told her that she would have had a real reason to fuss if Buck hadn't sold—at that price.

The quarter-horse breed, as a foundation for cow horses and rodeo stock, appears to be steadily gaining in popularity. As indicated by the name, they are fleet animals particularly adapted to short, quick bursts of speed so necessary in range work of round-up and roping. They are short-coupled, compact animals with plenty of power for quick get-away and fast action for short distances.

County Club Fair to Offer Many Features

Hobby, Flower and Antique Exhibits in Addition to Regulation Competitive Entries

Wheeler county's annual Home Demonstration Club fair at Shamrock on Friday and Saturday of this week will offer several features in addition to the regulation competitive entries, according to Miss Sybil Gidden, assistant county home demonstration agent.

Principal among these features will be the hobby, flower and antique shows.

The hobby show is sponsored by the Thursday Literary club of Shamrock. Mrs. W. Y. Burden is chairman. Anyone who has a hobby of any kind, especially the collection of pitchers, vases, salt and peppers, match folders or "what-nots," are invited to enter them in this show. The flower show, as has previously been stated in these columns, is sponsored by the Wednesday Study club of Wheeler. Mrs. John Lewis of this city is chairman of the flower show, in which entries are invited by everyone.

The antique show is sponsored by the Business & Professional Women's Club of Shamrock. Miss Re Lumen is chairman of this feature. Those having interesting antiques, old family heirlooms and other items adapted to this type of display are urged to enter them.

Club Entry Subjects

Subjects of exhibits for the various groups, announced this morning by Miss Gidden, are as follows:

Kelton—Eat fruits and vegetables for minerals and vitamins.
Pakan—Beauty is more than skin deep.
Wheeler—Bedroom.
Allison—Uses of peaches.
Briscoe—Refinishing furniture.
Shamrock—Clothing for a family; using Cotton Stamps wisely.
Head—Sanforized shrunk.
Home Demonstration Council—Household linens; spend your Cotton Stamps wisely.
4-H Council—Let's strengthen America.

Country Neighbors—Bathroom linens.
Magic City—Methods of canning.
China Flat—Layette.

Activity Evident in Local Scout Circles

Boy Scouts from the Wheeler troop attending the court of honor meeting Tuesday night at Dodson were Jean Hall, Junior Ahler, Donald Hunt, Don Farmer, Charles Hubbard, F. B. and Lewis Craig and Devon Brigan.

Atty. Homer Moss and Murray Fuquay, pastor of the Baptist church, accompanied the Scouts. A moving picture show of the progress of Camp Ki-O-Wah, Lake Marvin, was enjoyed.

At the last regular meeting of the Scouts, under direction of Scoutmaster Frank Wofford, the new patrol leaders were elected. They are Lewis Craig, Jean Hall, Charles B. Sandifer and Donald Hunt.

A check-up on the aluminum drive made by the Scouts showed about 100 pounds collected.

TWO AGED SISTERS VISIT THIRD AT TWITTY SUNDAY

Mrs. S. F. Pruett, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Havenhill, at Twitty enjoyed a visit last Sunday with two of her sisters, Mrs. M. D. King of Vernon and Mrs. L. B. Penrod, of Mangum, Okla. Mrs. Penrod's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Penrod, who live east of Mangum brought the two ladies to Twitty where they all spent a delightful day together.

The trio is well advanced in years, Mrs. Pruett being 87, Mrs. King 78 and Mrs. Penrod 71.

Other visitors during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Havenhill and daughter, Miss Elsie Fay, of Sayre, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Havenhill. Leslie is a grandson of Mrs. S. C. Havenhill and he and his wife left Tuesday for San Francisco, Calif.

Program for Kelton's Annual Fair Released

Viewing Exhibits, Visiting, Musical Football Game, Band Concert, Rodeo Comprise Features

The program for Kelton's annual fair on Friday, Sept. 26, has just been released through the county agent's office here. It comprises a number of interesting features that indicate a well-rounded day's entertainment for all who attend.

All departments will be open to receive entries, beginning at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and all competitive entries must be in place by 10 a. m. Friday morning, the day of the fair. Judging in all departments will begin at that hour. The formal program follows:

10:00-11:30 a. m.—Visiting and viewing the exhibits.
11:30-12:00—Violin and accordion music by Gambrell Sisters of Texola, Okla.

12:00 Noon—Lunch hour.
1:00-2:30 p. m.—Six-man football game, Kelton vs. Dodson.
2:30-3:00—Band concert by Shamrock high school band.
3:00-5:00—Amateur rodeo by local talent.

"There will be no speaking at the fair this year," comments Jake Tarter, county agent, "and the foregoing program promises to be on of the best and most interesting ever presented at Kelton's annual community gathering."

With Henry Hink as general chairman, names of his committee members have previously been published in these columns. Anyone wishing to exhibit machinery or farm and home equipment for advertising or sales purposes, should see the chairman or one of the assistants, who are solely responsible for that feature of the fair.

Harold Nicholson and Bryan Lady are Wed

Miss Ruth Thurmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Thurmond of Bryan, and Harold Earl Nicholson, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Nicholson of Wheeler, were married in a beautiful twilight ceremony at the First Baptist church of Bryan on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, with Dr. W. H. Andrew officiating.

The candle lighted altar was adorned with seasonal greenery, Woodwardia ferns and palms forming a background for the pedestal baskets of large white chrysanthemums. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette over satin.

Mrs. Glenn Flake of Houston, matron of honor; Mrs. Ray Keeling, College Station; Misses Lucienne McNeil, Dallas, and Meroba Fitzhugh, College Station, bridesmaids, and Miss Martha Ann Lewis of Little Rock, Ark., junior bridesmaid, were gowned alike in replicas of the bride's gown, all of which were designed by her.

Lieut. Paul Wiley of Wheeler attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Dr. Robert Gollody and Dr. J. M. Ashby of Dallas, Lieut. Stratton Connelly, Whitney, and Robert Thurmond of Bryan.

At a reception following the ceremony the guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond, Mrs. Nicholson, the bride and groom and the entire wedding party.

The bride attended Baylor university, Waco, and T. S. C. W. at Denton. She was a member of the D. A. P. and Adelpian clubs.

Nicholson was graduated from the Wheeler high school in 1933 and later attended A. & M. college, graduating with a B. A. degree in 1937. He now attends Baylor Medical school in Dallas, where he will receive his M. D. in June, 1942. He is a member of the Phi Chi fraternity.

After a trip to Monterrey, Mexico, the couple will be at home in Dallas.

Wheeler Man Elected Agent Nearby County

B. A. Zorns Goes to Collingsworth County Tuesday After Five Years in Local Office

Information was released Monday evening from the county agricultural agent's office that B. A. Zorns had been elected new county agent of Collingsworth county to succeed W. K. Cottingham, who left there some time ago. Zorns, accompanied by his wife and three children, went to the new position Tuesday morning.

This is a distinct honor and definite advancement for Zorns, who came to the Wheeler county office in the latter part of September, 1936, five years ago. In recent years he has been secretary of the Wheeler County Agricultural Conservation association, a position of considerable importance. He had a great deal to do with compliance under the AAA, also disbursement of conservation, parity and other farm program funds.

That Zorns will be keenly missed by the county agent's office goes without saying. He had a thorough knowledge of his own duties and was familiar with practically all business handled through the office. He and his charming wife and little daughters will also be greatly missed from local social and business circles.

His successor will probably be chosen Friday of this week.

In Zorn's departure, County Agent Jake Tarter adds another "graduate" to his string of men now totaling nine, who have gone from this office to better positions and larger opportunities for service in the state agricultural extension service.

The Times joins with other Wheeler friends of the family in extending congratulations, although regretting the loss of this estimable family from the community.

Lions Club Sponsors Some New Activities

During its business session following Tuesday noon's luncheon, the Lions club discussed some new activities which it proposes to sponsor in the near future.

Among these was a discussion and explanation of the birth certificate program by Dr. H. E. Nicholson. He was joined in advocating the idea by Harry Wofford, who announced that application blanks had been prepared and would be distributed by the club throughout the county for the benefit of those who do not have birth certificates.

Both speakers stressed the fact that present-day employment with the larger companies in all lines requires the data provided by a duly attested birth certificate.

The club voted to sponsor this program. A committee composed of Lions Bud Martin, H. E. Nicholson and Homer Moss was appointed to promote the plan.

Upon introduction of the subject of attendance by Wheeler business and professional men and women at surrounding community fairs and gatherings, such as Kelton and Allison, Lions C. G. Miller and Bud Martin were appointed as a committee to encourage such attendance.

Harry Wofford informed the club that Wheeler's Boy Scout finance quota is badly in arrears and urged serious consideration and early action if Scout work is to be continued here.

Finally, the club endorsed the annual Mule Colt and Horse show at Wheeler. It was suggested that all local business interests be approached in regard to this for the purpose of ascertaining their attitude which, if found favorable, would result in co-operating with Bob Irons and others of the surrounding community in again holding the show. No definite action can be reported at this time.

MISS CHANCE IS VICTIM OF BURNS BY PRESSURE COOKER

When Miss Lucile Chance, county home demonstration agent, opened a pressure cooker one night early this week after feeling sure the machine had sufficiently cooled, she received minor burns from the flash of steam and heated air on its release.

Although not of serious nature and confined principally to the victim's face and arms, Miss Chance has been greatly hampered this week in her activities as a result of the accident. Friends greatly regret the mishap right at this time, with the county club fair scheduled for tomorrow and Saturday, an event in which she always occupies a leading part.

Mrs. J. M. Porter, Mrs. D. E. Holt and Mrs. Joe Beasley motored to the Tobe Frye ranch Sunday afternoon and visited with Mrs. Henry Frye of Sulphur, Okla.

JACO COOK SHACK OPENS AFTER SUMMER VACATION

The Jaco Cook Shack was reopened Saturday after being closed several weeks this summer while the proprietor, Marl Jaco, and wife took a vacation. They have thoroughly renovated and redecorated the interior. The walls are done in white with a red trim.

New patrons as well as the old will be glad to know that Jaco's will be open on Sunday as well as every day in the week.

Bible Lovers Revival Starting Next Sunday

Dr. MacKrell, Pastor of Little Rock Baptist Church, to Conduct Two Weeks Series

Literature has been distributed this week in Wheeler and surrounding area announcing a Bible Lovers Revival to start here next Sunday, Sept. 21, with James MacKrell, D. D., pastor of the East Side Missionary Baptist church of Little Rock, Ark., doing the preaching.

Listed as a prophetic Bible study, free from sensationalism, wild fire or fanaticism, the series is said to be one which any and all people may attend without fear of being offended. Starting at 8 o'clock each night, the revival will be held in the Wheeler Co-op gin warehouse on Highway 83, across the road north of the Garrison Service station.

Some of Dr. MacKrell's announced subjects are:

The Double Cross of the Dictators and their Doom.

God's Wife and Why He Got a Divorce.

Is America Headed for Armageddon?

Can Hitler Be the Beast of Revelation?

God's Plans and Purposes for the Human Race as Revealed by the Bible.

Can a Sinner Pray the Lord's Prayer?

Three Divine Voices Speaking to a Deaf Generation.

Why Everybody Must Love the Jew or Go to Hell.

World Events in the Light of Bible Prophecy.

When King Jesus Reigns from Jerusalem.

When the Faucets of Wheeler Run Red with Blood.

The Secret of a Christian Life.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend as many of the services—or all of them—as they can.

Officers of Wheeler Legion Post Elected

Recent removal of a man from the community, John Barr, who was elected commander of the local American Legion post for the coming year, has necessitated a shift in officers, states Jim Risner, adjutant.

The new roster, decided by election and appointment, is as follows: J. H. Lowrie, vice commander, succeeds Barr as commander; Bob Rodgers, first vice commander; U. B. Trayler, second vice commander; Jim Risner, adjutant; Dr. H. E. Nicholson, finance officer; Claude R. Cox, chaplain; Dick Craig, historian; Dr. Glenn R. Walker, service officer; Aaron Williams, child welfare officer, and Dr. V. N. Hall, sergeant-at-arms.

Regular meeting dates of the post are the first and third Thursday of each month.

Mrs. Frye Visits Son and Family

Mrs. Henry Frye, Sulphur, Okla., who had been visiting her son, Tobe Frye, and family and friends at the Frye ranch, northeast of Wheeler, the past 10 days returned home Sunday evening after attending the family reunion.

Her grandson, C. G. Frye, and family of Anadarko, Okla., took her home. Mr. Frye had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Frye.

Selective Service Asks for More Men

Three to Leave Next Thursday for Training Camp; Five Wanted Early in October

The Wheeler County Selective Service board has received a call for three more draftees who are to leave here Sept. 25 to reach camp by the 26th. Those named to go are: Alton Lee Henry, Shamrock, No. 385.

B. F. Crossland, Wheeler, No. 393. Garland McLemore, Shamrock, No. S-344.

In addition to these, reports C. R. Weatherly, secretary to the board, five men are asked for Oct. 10, leaving here on the 9th. These have not yet been selected, hence their names are not available at this time.

Deferring "28's" and Overs

In regard to deferment of men 28 years old and over, the local office has received some pertinent information which states:

In Class I-H shall be placed each registrant not a volunteer who on July 1, 1941, or on the first day of July of any subsequent year has attained the 28th anniversary of the day of his birth and who upon classification is not classified in Class I-C, Class IV (other than Class IV-E), Class III, or Class II.

A registrant who attains the 28th anniversary of his birth after July 1 of one year and before July 1 of the next year shall in no event be entitled to or receive classification in Class I-H until the latter date.

A registrant who is in or entitled to be classified in Class I-H who volunteers for induction shall be classified in the same manner as a registrant not in or not entitled in Class I-H. Although on a preceding July 1 he had attained his 28th anniversary, nevertheless a registrant shall be entitled to volunteer for induction and may be inducted, if otherwise qualified.

The new rules place all men in the 28-year and over group, who would otherwise have been in Class I-A, in Class I-H. They are still registrants, however, and if the occasion should arise might be liable for service.

Registrants under the Selective Training and Service act must promptly notify their local board of any change of address or become liable to severe penalties provided by the act, General J. Watt Page, state director, has again warned.

General Page said he had been advised by National Selective Service headquarters that many cases of delinquencies investigated by the department of Justice have been due to carelessness of registrants concerning their duty to report changes of address, or ignorance of the law requiring them to do so.

The Selective Service act provides that any registrant who violates the law shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, the director pointed out. This punishment, he said, is specified as "by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

It is the policy of the Selective Service system, Page stated, and of the department of justice which is charged with enforcement of the act, to take action in those cases where there is willful intent to violate the law. Nevertheless, he stressed, investigation of borderline cases is taking up much valuable time of local boards and of department of justice agents which should be devoted to urgent work for national defense.

Registrants are, therefore, urged to notify their local boards immediately of any change of address to avoid being reported to the United States district attorney as a delinquent.

General Page also emphasized that registrants who are expecting to be called into a branch of the armed forces to which they have made application should notify their local boards and report all developments in connection therewith. This, he said, will enable the local board to co-operate with the registrant in his particular ambition to serve his country.

TRAVEL PICTURES AND SONG RECITAL MOBEETIE FEATURE

This paper has been requested by interested parties to announce that a program of travel pictures and song recital by Mrs. W. H. Price of Borger will be presented in the Mobeetie Methodist church tomorrow, Friday, night.

The entertainment is sponsored by the Women's Society for Christian Service of that church. A silver offering will be taken and refreshments served. Everybody is invited.

CART BEFORE THE HORSE

Rising prices are definitely not the fault of retail merchandising, despite mistaken rumors to that effect, which have recently gone into circulation. The truth is that retail merchandising has done a remarkable job in holding price increases to the minimum.

The figures tell the story. Today factory payrolls are 50 per cent greater than a year ago, and the average worker's earnings are 22 per cent greater. Yet retail food prices have advanced only 7 per cent since June, 1940. In the same period, wholesale food prices advanced 22 per cent—an increase three times as great as that which took place in retail food prices.

Compared with 1929, factory workers have about a 42 per cent greater food purchasing power. Other workers' food purchasing power is up 28 per cent. Retail food prices are some 20 per cent under 1929 levels.

What is true of food, is true to a very large extent of other commodities. The fact that price rises have so far been moderate, in the light of inflationary tendencies produced by the arms drive with its unprecedented spending, is very largely the work of merchandisers. All kinds of stores, chain and independent alike, long ago announced their determination to protect the country's standard of living to the limit of their abilities. They have been signally successful in doing that.

Prices will inevitably rise in the future. Higher costs of doing business, combined with increased purchasing power and dwindling supplies, make that inevitable. But to blame this on retail merchandising is to put the cart before the horse.

Generally speaking, retail prices are being advanced when, and only when, wholesale prices and operating overhead make it absolutely unavoidable. That is the progressive retail policy today. And it will be the retail policy in the future.

HOGGING THE PORK BARREL

The needs of the defense program are now being used as an alibi for the unprecedentedly swift rise in our national debt. But that alibi cannot stand up on analysis.

The treasury's own figures tell the tale. In the fiscal year ended June 30, federal expenditures were $12,600,000,000. About half of that sum went for defense purposes.

What is happening is simply this: The staggering cost of defense is being piled on top of an exorbitant "depression" federal budget which has not been cut in a single important particular. The waste goes on.

The overlapping and duplication of activity goes on. All the costly, needless "luxuries" and political tax-exempt business projects on which the government embarked during the depression in competition with highly-taxed private business, are being maintained as usual.

HAS LABOR GONE MAD?

The railway labor unions are now demanding wage increases averaging about 41 per cent. If those increases were granted in toto, the additional wage cost to the railroads would be $900,000,000 a year. F. J. Gavin, president of the Great Northern railway, recently pointed out just how big a sum $900,000,000 is.

It is more than four times the sum that congress has authorized to be distributed to farmers this year in parity payments on the five basic crops.

It is more than the value of all the wheat and potatoes produced in the United States in 1939.

It is more than the total gross revenue of the United States postal department.

It would take every cent of the total railroad freight revenue for the first two and one-half months of this year.

This gives you an idea of what the railway labor unions are demanding. And railway labor is, generally speaking, the best paid on earth. A computation based on Social Security board figures for 1939 (the latest statistics available) shows that the average annual earnings of railroad employes were approximately 50 per cent more than the earnings of employes of other industries. And railroad working conditions, hour provisions, etc., are extremely favorable to the worker.

Furthermore, the $900,000,000 demanded is more than 20 times the average net income of the railroad industry during the 10 years which ended in 1940. If the demanded wages had been in effect last year, the railroads would actually have lost $800,000,000!

Granting of these astonishing wage demands would make absolutely unavoidable a tremendous increase in the rates the railroads charge for transportation. And that would be a long step toward ruinous general price inflation. Has the leadership of railroad labor gone absolutely mad?

ROOSEVELT ON THE COURT

The president's second article for Collier's magazine on the now historic supreme court fight adds essentially nothing new to the discussion which he voiced at the time. His refusal to accept constitutional change as involving too much delay was made openly during the fight. Although the point is often overlooked, that stubborn insistence on the Roosevelt will was the deepest cut at our traditional institutions. For if there is to be made any fundamental alteration in our system of checks and balances, it should be made in the constitution, not by the will of a ruler or even of a majority, the will that our wiser forefathers saw clearly might frequently be in error in the heat of momentary passionate conviction but which could be aligned with reason if its execution could be delayed long enough to permit logic to bear on emotion. Roosevelt unfortunately is always impatient of logic. It has no emotional appeal.

The president of course insists that the court has no authority to overrule legislation. His supporters as a rule argue on that basis. Yet even if their construction of the equal powers of the court is right or is now preferred by a majority of the people and the states, that interpretation should be clearly made in the constitution.

It seems never to occur to dyed-in-the-wool new dealers, never to

Roosevelt, that convictions on the authority and duty of the supreme court to decide on constitutionality of legislation, as it has traditionally done, are quite as honest as his own opinion to the contrary.

Thus when Roosevelt says that the new court, now a Roosevelt court, began to interpret the constitution, instead of torturing it, what he means is that the new court sees eye to eye with him.

Those of us who adhere to the traditional view are quite as certain that the Roosevelt court is now torturing the constitution, not interpreting it. And we believe it as firmly as Roosevelt may believe to the contrary. That opposition is entirely willing to carry the issue directly to the people, the one thing that Roosevelt, for all his firm convictions, has never been willing to do.

It can only be done by making a clarifying amendment to the constitution a direct issue.

Neither Roosevelt nor any of his supporters has ever answered one plain question which is in point: "If the supreme court is not empowered to determine the constitutionality of legislation, what protection does exist against a congressional decision to enact laws violating the rights which the constitution unquestionably guarantees?"

THE FOOD STAMP PLAN

With the inception of the depression some 10 years ago, millions of people lost their employment and eventually had to go on relief rolls. The government had to care for these people.

Many plans for feeding them were devised, but few of them called for the handling of food through regular established retail channels. This meant a loss of business to the retailer, and many of the small ones had to close up shop. Some of them went on relief rolls.

The government had a problem on its hands. Milo Perkins, one of our own Texans, was called to Washington, and it is said that mainly through his ingenuity, the Food Stamp plan was devised and adopted by the Department of Agriculture, and approved by the congress and President Roosevelt.

This plan was hailed as the great solution. It was put on trial and gradually proved its merits and its benefits—to the merchant, and largely solved, in a practical way, the marketing problem of the producer for his surplus crops—and incidentally a service to the relief.

Many millions of dollars have been appropriated by the congress and scores of cities throughout the United States have been organized and are today distributing surplus commodities, bought by government-appropriated money, and distributed through the established retail grocery outlets. The relief client is getting a balanced diet; the producer is thus afforded a market for his products; the retailer—good business for which he is paid.

It is a sad commentary that some merchants would be so careless or deliberate in their operations that they would violate the rules established for the operation of the Food Stamp plan. Will they kill the goose that lays the golden egg?

Uncle Sam is jealous of his prestige established for law enforcement. The Journal shares in the opinion of many others that wilful and flagrant violations of rules and regulations in the operation of this plan will result in wholesale denials of participation and jeopardize continuance and expansion of the program.

Those who are too selfish to be satisfied with the bounty of the plan may find themselves—at no far distant date—not only deprived of the privilege, but also destroyers of the entire method. The government will not tolerate continued abuses.

Mr. Grocery Merchant, it behooves you—each and every one of you—to live by the rules and to see that your fellow merchant does likewise. —Texas Food Journal.

Our warehouses are bulging but some of our people are hungry. Our granaries are full, but millions are starving in France, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Finland, Denmark, China and many other nations. Our farmers can produce an even greater amount of foodstuffs, but they are told to keep it down so that the demand will earn them a meager living. Since the government is risking billions, it could risk something to provide food in future days. Everything else is being urged to run at full capacity, and it is being done on government credit and subsidy. Why not turn the farmers loose?—Deck Wells in Wellington Leader.

John R. McClure, of Gage, Okla., who recently converted a Model A Ford into a tractor to pull a mower over his large acreage, is cutting 50 acres a day instead of the 40 he had anticipated. McClure is cultivating 1,200 acres under government supervision, which will eventually be turned to native grass.—Higgins News.

Deputy Sheriff Del Taliaferro accompanied Harold Hawk and Ray Bateman to Guymon Wednesday seeking trace of cattle that have been stolen from the Hawk and Bateman ranches during the past few weeks. Bateman has seven head missing, four steers and three heifers, all whiteface yearlings. They were branded X (cross) on left shoulder and may also carry in addition a K on left shoulder or a V on left jaw. Hawk lost three cows and three calves.—Ochiltree County Herald.

Vaughn Hall brought in the biggest rattlesnake Monday afternoon that we have seen to date, the reptile measuring a fraction of an inch less than six feet in length, and about 12 inches around its "waist." The snake was killed in his pasture near the twin peaks south of Quitaque. It had 10 rattles but a number had been broken off.—Quitaque Post.

From information at the sheriff's office we learn that the official appeal of Orrin J. Brown, convicted in the 84th district court on charges of murdering Leota Frances Murphy, must be filed on or before Sept. 16. Should attorneys fail to file with the appellate court on that date the convicted man would be returned to Spearman for sentence. Brown was tried at a special term of district court convened June 10. He was convicted on Saturday evening, June 14, just before midnight.—Spearman Reporter.

Little Helen Smith, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Smith, caught her hand in a grain drill and the member was crushed so severely it had to be amputated. Mr. and Mrs. Smith live on the Jim White place east of town, where Smith has been busy preparing the ground and drilling wheat.—White Deer Review.

The sky Tuesday was simply full of them! Just what "them" was no one seems to know, but hundreds of insects—with something resembling cob webs strung along among them—could be seen from the ground. Some residents called them migratory grasshoppers, some called them spiders, some called them millers, and others thought the insects were of different species.—Memphis Democrat.

An indefinite delay in paving 23 blocks of Canadian streets is anticipated by the city officials, because of lack of WPA labor in this and adjoining counties, Mayor John Caylor said this week. Hemphill county must have at least 27 WPA men on the Class I labor rolls before it can expect a "go ahead" order for the paving job. There is no such labor available on the rolls of this county nor any of the adjoining counties, Caylor declares.—Canadian Record.

Announcement was made Tuesday in Amarillo of the provisional acceptance of a site for a giant bomber base near Amarillo. It was reported yesterday that the site is largely in Randall county, adjoining the helium plant.—Canyon News.

Have you ever worked in a store?

It doesn't take long, when you work behind a counter, to find out that when things are advertised they sell better than when they are not.

In other words, advertising means more goods sold and more manufactured.

And that means more jobs in stores and factories.

That's worth keeping in mind—advertising makes jobs.

The sophomore class met Wednesday for the purpose of electing officers. They are: Bill Bailey, president; Wesley Martin, vice president; Modelle Robison, secretary; Lanelle Scribner, reporter; Charles Haning, treasurer.

High School Yard
Students of the Mobeetie schools are quite proud of the high school yard. They also appreciate Mr. McCain, who has given so much care and taken so much interest in the yard during the past four years.

Four years ago last summer the yard was so badly covered with weeds that a mower was used to remove the growth. In doing this several small trees were cut along with the weeds.

McCain has exerted much effort to keep the school looking its very best. He has planted new grass, kept it cut, and has the building and grounds in splendid condition.

DRAIN, REFILL, and POSTPONE

your next quart

New oil lasted 5,683 miles longer than the runner-up in Death Valley Death-Test ...CERTIFIED

Your own engine gauge-stick can tell you best about Conoco Nth motor oil. Next best is to buttonhole the most frugal car owners you know around town. Some have never yet added a quart since changing to Conoco Nth. And you can see why right here—by the mileage figures from the Certified Death-Test of Conoco Nth oil vs. five other big brands.

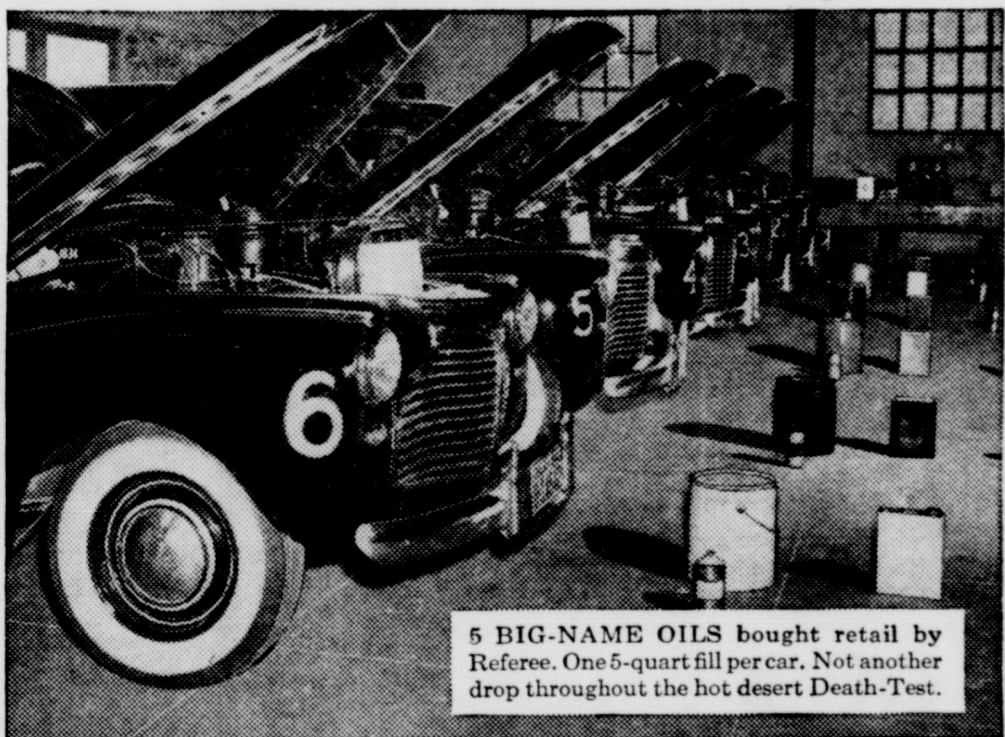

The whole big success of Conoco Nth started down in Death Valley—so hot you can't sweat. Here 6 new stock cars, strictly alike, each got one 5-quart fill of some one oil being tested. Then the Official Referee clamped on the locks; never a drop of oil could be added.

Eyed by impartial officials every instant, the cars all reeled off their 57 miles hourly. Here and there on the desert a carcass lay bleaching—and desert death awaited these car engines, too. For none could finish till its oil hit bottom—finishing the engine beyond repair.

CONOCO Nth gave nearly Twice the miles averaged by the others tested!

The 5-quart fill of Conoco Nth lasted 13,398 miles... Certified. Conoco Nth outlasted one big brand by 8,268 miles. Even the best of the five was outlasted 5,683 miles by Conoco Nth oil. Such a real difference must have a real source. And two real life-givers created by man... two modern synthetics... are in Conoco Nth motor oil.

You know of modern vitamin synthetics, making up for Nature's life-givers lost in some modern food processing. Similarly, the extreme refining needed by oils for current cars has been destroying Nature's best life-givers! But in their place today Conoco Nth brings your engine the two patented Conoco synthetics.

5 BIG-NAME OILS bought retail by Referee. One 5-quart fill per car. Not another drop throughout the hot desert Death-Test.

One of these—man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent—will keep your engine OIL-PLATED with lubricant that can't all quickly drain off of inner surfaces. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance! And the latest Conoco synthetic—man-made under U.S. Pat. 2,218,132—will check "festering" of oil that's encouraged by foul leftovers from every engine's normal firing. This common oil trouble is now checked or inhibited by the new man-made Conoco life-giver—Thialkene inhibitor.

You'll never Death-Test your Conoco Nth oil in sinister Death Valley, any more than you repeat other proving-ground tortures. You'll still drain and refill at recommended intervals. But how you'll expect to stretch the distance before adding a quart, judging by this big fact: 5 heavily advertised oils in the Certified Death Valley Test were outmiledged 74% to 161% by Conoco Nth oil. Economy like that counts up into dollars! Change to Nth oil today at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated.

Tri-State Fair Plans Outstanding Program

Texas and New Mexico Governors to Attend—Defense Display to Be a Big Feature

From its start on Sept. 29 to the closing on Oct. 4, the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo will offer an outstanding program, with top priority on entertainment for thousands of men, women and children, declares a news release.

Gov. Coke Stevenson of Texas will attend the opening of the exposition and Gov. John E. Miles of New Mexico will be there for the closing. Among distinguished visitors during the week will be Capt. Charles E. Rosendahl, noted naval officer and lighter-than-air craft expert.

Arrangements are being made now for a defense display in addition to the regular exposition features, free shows afternoon and night in front of the grandstand and a mile long midway—the same midway booked for the Oklahoma State Fair.

When the Southwest's show window is unveiled Monday morning, Sept. 29, the importance of agriculture and livestock in national defense will be stressed anew.

"If food—agriculture and livestock—is to win the war and write the peace then the Southwest is better prepared than in any other period of Tri-State Fair history," declared Ray Pinkney, serving his third consecutive year as president of the exposition.

"There is no question about the various department exhibits being the best this year," he continued. "Last year's fair was most successful which gave the exposition more money to spend this year for entertainment."

Alleged Oil Shortage in East Proven False

Investigating Committee Finds No Actual Shortage—Charges Unnecessary Alarm

Late last week a special senate investigating committee reported there was no actual shortage of gasoline or other petroleum products in the East and recommended removal of existing restrictions.

Accusing Secretary of Interior Ickes, defense petroleum coordinator, and his aids of "over enthusiasm" in creating "unnecessary alarm" on the part of the public, the special committee said that the "shortage," as we see it, is a shortage of surplus—and not a shortage of products or a lack of facilities to transport them."

Some developments of the investigation indicate the alleged shortage is only another piece in the crazy quilt of psychological terrorism being foisted upon the American public by administration zealots; a studied scheme not founded on fact designed to portray the "terrible" conditions prevailing in a country not even at war.

Chairman Maloney, Democrat of Connecticut, reported: "With proper conservation, motorists should find it possible to obtain the gasoline and oil products which they need. We believe that present restrictions should be lifted, and that the public, with a clearer understanding of conditions, would co-operate in carrying out an effective program of conservation."

Most pertinent testimony before the committee was that of J. J. Pelly, president of the Association of American Railroads, who assured the committee there are enough idle tank cars to relieve any oil shortage on the Atlantic seaboard in two weeks. He presented figures showing there are 125,000 tank cars in the United States suitable for moving oil and that about 20,000 of these could be put into immediate service.

Pelly is confident that within two weeks the railroads could be delivering 200,000 barrels a day to the East. Since that is 26,000 barrels more than Ickes "claimed" the shortage to be, the problem would thus be solved.

It would be a tragic paradox for the eastern part of the country, with this nation's vaunted transportation facilities, to be suffering for so essential commodities as oil and gasoline while the wells right here in Texas are held down on production by governmental order. It smells like plowing up the little pigs and shooting the cattle when thousands of American people were hungry, if not actually on the edge of starvation.

Luncheon Planned for Defense Bond Leaders

Announcement has been made by E. Byron Singleton of Amarillo, chairman of the 18th Congressional District Defense Bond committee, that a luncheon for all county representatives and committeemen will be held in the Amarillo Hotel at 11:45 a. m., Monday, Sept. 29.

Purpose of the luncheon and get-together is to form plans and launch an intensive sale of defense bonds and stamps throughout the district. Frank Scofield, from the treasury department at Austin, will be the principal speaker.

District representatives and all members of the county Defense Bond committees are urged to attend. The district committeeman of each county is responsible for making reservations before Sept. 27.

Wheeler county representatives of the district committee are Joe Cooley and Mrs. W. H. Walker. County committeemen in addition to these are:

A. J. Laycock, Flake George, W. H. Walker, J. H. Caperton, W. O. Morrow, Edwin T. Griffin and H. B. Hill, Shamrock; Chester Lewis, Harry Wofford, A. B. Crump, R. H. Forrester and R. J. Holt, Wheeler.

HAYTERS ENTERTAIN AT WEEK END PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayter were gracious hosts over the week end to her four sisters and three brothers and their companions. Mrs. Hayter is the youngest of the eight Hodges children and this is the first time in eight years they have all been together.

The group of 13 attended Sunday morning services at the Methodist church in a body.

Mrs. Hayter prepared all the meals with only a little assistance in serving and dishwashing and admits the Saturday evening Swiss steak dinner was the top meal. Mr. Hayter says the sleeping was quite simple because the guests were kept up late and were so tired they could sleep almost anywhere.

The guests included Mrs. Mollie Moore, Henrietta; Mrs. Maggie Moore, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Jimmie Harrison, Yukon, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hudson, Gordonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hodges, Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hodges, Iowa Park.

Sunday afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Walker and children, Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hodges and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hodges and children, Canadian; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hodges and family, Miami, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hayter and daughter, Beverly, McLean.

SHOWER AT CANADIAN HONORS NEWLYWEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson, Canadian, gave a party and miscellaneous shower Monday evening of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Johnson. Mrs. Johnson was Miss Annie Ruth Denham of Wheeler before their recent marriage.

Those attending and sending gifts were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Preston Johnson, Dean Cook, Alex Simpson, Ed L. Savage, L. J. Boone, Loyd Bell, Leslie Webb, J. F. Oehlert, Frank Ross, Arnold Johnson, C. D. Reagan, Wright Bussell, J. T. Tippy, M. L. Walls, Harold Price, Jim Johnson, Geo. G. Ayers, D. A. Witt, Albert Knollenberg, Harold McCleery, J. W. Hale, Noble Trueblood, N. E. Johnson, Ernest Haralson, Joe Pavolosky, J. R. Trayler, Canadian.

Mesdames Bud King, Harriett Tesson, Fred Bradford, Grace May and son, and Velma Lois Bell, Robert Tesson and Geo. McReynolds, Canadian.

Miss Ida Mae Johnson and Mrs. H. H. Corbin, Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rowley, Gem.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Johnson, Mesdames J. M. Porter, C. J. Meek, H. M. Wiley, Bruce Denham, Opal Denham, Elva Green, Buford Conwell, Bertha Denham, J. I. Maloy, Cora Teakell, H. E. Nicholson, Terrell Gunter, R. A. Lile, J. L. Gilmore, M. L. Gunter, Harold Nash and T. S. Puckett; Misses Glynetta Teakell, Ethel Sanders and Gladys Gunter, Wheeler.

METHODIST SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. ZIRKLE

The Womens Society for Christian Service of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Zirkle, with Mrs. J. A. Bryant, president, in charge of an interesting program assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Davidson and Mrs. Tobe Giles, while Mrs. G. L. Wren read the devotional.

The hostess served lovely refreshments to Mesdames J. A. Bryant, Joe Beasley, Joe Barr, Wayne Cook, Lloyd Davidson, Tobe Giles, I. B. Lee, Ernest Lee, J. M. Porter, E. T. McCleskey, G. L. Wren, Luther Parks, Harold Nash and a guest, Miss Caroline McBee.

The society will meet with Mrs. Tobe Giles Monday afternoon at 2:30.

MRS. PERRIN ENTERTAINS JOLLY DOZEN CLUB

The Jolly Dozen club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Bill Perrin as hostess at her home on South Main street.

Attractive refreshments were served to Mrs. Marlow Dill, Mrs. Homer Moss, Mrs. Shorty Erwin, Mrs. Jess Swink, Mrs. Buford Conwell and the hostess, Mrs. Perrin.

MRS. HAMPTON HOSTESS TO FRIENDLY SEWING CIRCLE

The Friendly Sewing circle met Tuesday afternoon of last week with Mrs. C. M. Hampton. The time was enjoyably spent visiting and doing various kinds of needle work.

Lovely refreshments were served to Mesdames H. H. Greenhouse, Lee McCasland, W. L. Jolly, W. L. Gaines, Cliff Bradstreet, W. E. Gaines, H. H. Herd, Frank Rogers, Dorsie Hutchison, and Misses Muri and Elizabeth Gaines and the hostess, Mrs. Hampton.

Future Homemakers of Wheeler Meet Tuesday

The Wheeler Chapter of Future Homemakers of Texas club met in the homemaking cottage at noon Tuesday, Sept. 16, for the purpose of organizing and planning its year's work and the election of officers, states Nina Merle Pond, reporter.

The meeting was called to order and presided over by Pauline Dyer, acting chairman. Early in the meeting, characteristics of a good club member were discussed by Gearldine Williams. This discussion was followed by a short talk, in which Edwina Flanagan explained the aims and purposes of the club, which are:

To develop organized interest in homemaking as a vocation.

To foster high ideals of and an appreciation for home life.

To learn more of the changes which have taken place in the home and the reasons for organized training.

To respond actively to community needs and enter into community activities.

To encourage recreational and educational activities for students in homemaking education.

To stimulate interest in the wise use of leisure time.

To encourage thoroughness in undertakings.

To stimulate interest in acquiring broad experiences.

To promote mentally and physically healthful girls and women.

During the meeting the following officers were elected: president, Pauline Dyer; vice president, Edwina Flanagan; secretary and treasurer, Gearldine Williams; reporter, Nina Merle Pond; parliamentarian, Wilma Jean Dalton, and historian, Hazel Burrell.

Meeting dates, it was decided, will be every other Tuesday night, beginning with Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Adrian Risner is the new employe at the Crystal Ice company. His duties started the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Beck, living near Wheeler, spent the week end in Dumas with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thelma Rampey and her brother Cloman Bayless, Cayuga, came Friday to take home their father, E. H. Bayless, who had spent 10 days with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mitchell, and family. They all returned Saturday.

J. L. Massey of Dallas was a guest last week of his cousin, Mrs. Willard Ingram, and husband east of Wheeler.

Mrs. Jim Goodman of Meridian, Okla., came Thursday and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Callan, until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richerson, Amarillo, and their daughter, Mrs. Sam Hale, and son, Richard, of Pampa were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richerson and children.

Co-operation in School Activities
 Co-operation is the association, or collective action, of persons for their common good. This benefits each individual if he does his part.

If one wishes to get along with the other members of the organization, he must be glad and willing to do his part. His part consists of what he is asked to do, and what he is asked to help do. When one co-operates with the other members of the class or organization, there is created a feeling of satisfaction between the members by all concerned.

If all the members of an organization co-operate accordingly, a better organization is established. Co-operation is the creator of famous business firms and other substantial institutions. Co-operation on the part of the owner, employes and buyers have made these great things possible. If all will co-operate in a small organization a great thing can be accomplished some day.

Co-operation in school activities shows how much honor and respect the student has for his classmates and teachers. When a person has honor and respect for other people, they will have honor and respect for him. Therefore we all should co-operate to keep our goal going higher each day.

VALOREE RILEY, Senior.

Sports
 Sports is one of the main subjects in a good school. Sports is not only a game to use up the surplus energy that most young Americans store up, but also teaches the average student a number of things and improves the student physically.

One of the main things sports teach is good sportsmanship. This means how to be a modest winner as well as a gracious loser, and also means your consideration for fellow players. In basketball and other similar sports, you learn that if you lose your temper you also lose the game.

Sports help you mentally in different ways. It develops the coordination of the muscles and mind, develops the students memory and trains him or her to be wide-awake and alert.

Although the perfect student does not let sports dominate his or her school life, he or she should take part in at least one sport, and more if possible.

MELVIN HELTON, Junior.

Our Army
 Anywhere in the issues of the American Legion magazine you will find sound, reasoned articles concerning the United States army, which has been under attack over the air, in magazines and in newspapers. The critics have railed against the military establishment because it was not ready last spring or this summer for offensive blitzkrieg action. They say our army leaders are unmindful of what has transpired in Europe since September 1939. They say our army is "fighting the war of 1918."

We have been told that to win a modern war we must put the army in tanks, trucks and motorcycles, supply the dive bombers to accompany them, and forget everything else. In short, build a small panzer type force and forget our "mass army." As if the German army, which invented the blitzkrieg, were not a mass army, and as if in the panzer divisions the men didn't get the basic training of infantrymen!

Until the fall of France our regular army received scarcely more than enough in each year's appropriation to sustain itself, as John Thomas Taylor and T. H. Thomas point out in the September issue of the American Legion magazine. Today the United States has a million and a half men under arms, and American industry has performed miracles of production in supplying them with the arms and equipment they need.

The training soldiers of our new army are getting is excellent. It includes the best features of the modern system of blitzkrieg warfare. No American parent need fear that if we go to war his soldier son will be sacrificed needlessly. The experience of 1917-18 proved that the American soldier is courageous, intelligent, resourceful. That's the kind of fellow the 1941 soldier is—a firstclass fighting man. In the day of decision he will most certainly save the civilization built up in this land by 300 years of toil and sacrifice.

DOYLE RAMSEY, Sophomore.

America for Me

"I am an American" is a statement which every true American is proud to make. And why shouldn't we be? We live in a free land where we can go to school, laugh, sing and play.

America is more than just a land of fresh air and sunshine. It is a democracy by the people and for the people. Our great American ideal is that the rights of all the people should be first. There is something about the way the American people live, talk, act and think that is not known in any other country.

American citizens have, through all these years enjoyed the greatest freedom of opportunity. Any man could better himself, materially, educationally, and spiritually, to the extent his talents permitted. We know that the people of a nation may be conquered but their ideals can never be conquered.

This is our United States to cherish and love. So do your part to keep this land of youth and freedom, a land where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.

JOYCE SORENSEN, Sophomore.

How Do You Tackle Your Work?

How do you tackle your work each day? Do you take the task that comes your way with a confident, easy mind? Do you stand right up to the work ahead or do you pause to view it?

You can do as much as you think you can, but you'll never accomplish more. If you're afraid of yourself there is little for you. Failure comes from the inside first. And you can win though you face the worst, if you feel you are going to do it.

How do you tackle your work each day? With a confidence clear or dread. What do you stop and say when there's a new task ahead? What is the thought in your mind? So just tackle the next you find; by thinking you are going to do it and you will.

ANITA O'BRIEN, Freshman.

Patriotism

We freshmen think patriotism is a subject worthy of our attention. Don't you?

We think the flag should be regarded with much respect. The rules and privileges pertaining to it should be closely observed. Don't you?

We don't think that "Old Glory" was designed to be used as a door carpet or a floor mat. It must never trail in the water or touch the ground. The freshmen believe very much in patriotism. Don't you?

We are proud of our free country and glad of our freedom of speech and press. We think our song, "The Star Spangled Banner," is a great song and everyone should stand when it is played. Don't you?

We freshmen are great Americans and have much respect for our country. Don't you?

AUDIE LEE, Freshman.

"Who is a Student?"

My idea of a good student is one who learns rapidly and well. One who does not spend time at study periods reading other material when their lessons are not prepared or a person who recites in class and who is prompt. One whose mind is not easily distracted.

I think a pupil should ask questions about the lesson when he does not thoroughly understand a particular part.

Ofttimes when we see a person idling away the time of a study period we wonder, "What kind of a grade does that person make; surely he can't be the best."

"Preparedness" should be the motto of every pupil in school from the primary class through to the senior class. Preparing a lesson usually goes the farthest in making a perfect grade.

Since study is the route to education, studying should not be looked upon as a task but as a pleasure. What do you think?

LOTTIE MARIE ZYBACH, Freshman.

Are We Appreciative?

We should take care of school property as well as we do our own furniture.

When we see marks and scratches on the desk and seats we wonder, "Are we appreciative of the opportunities we have?" Often we see the print of shoes on the walls, erasers torn up, pieces of chalk lying around on the floor. Such things as these are what cause outsiders to form the wrong opinion of the school. When we walk into a room and see books flung around over the floor with pages torn out of them we pause and think. Do we realize how much expense and embarrassment we are causing the patrons of the school, our friends and ourselves?

On the playground we also see how a pupil takes care of school property. When we see balls lying around torn into pieces, we think, "No really good sport or pupil did that." When tennis nets are torn, basketball bladders bursted, bats thrown carelessly around, then we know someone is very careless and unappreciative of the splendid opportunities offered them for their education.

When we become unappreciative, careless and indifferent of the opportunities we have, let's think, "What kind of opportunities did our forefathers have?" Are ours any better?

MARY RUTH EVANS, Freshman.

Personality of the Week

Edd Clepper has been in Briscoe school nine years. He has always been an active member of his class. He had an outstanding part in the junior class play last year.

Age—16.
 Favorite Study—Physical education.

Favorite Teacher—Mrs. Wood.
 Favorite Actor—Joe E. Brown.
 Favorite Actress—Zazu Pitts.
 Favorite Screen Play—"Carolina Moon."

Favorite Sport—Chinese checkers.
 Favorite Song—"Playmates."
 Favorite Color—Baby blue.
 Likes—All-day suckers.
 Dislikes—Castor oil.

Pet Expression—"I'm a hard man."
 Ambition—Comedian.

Junior Class

The junior class presented the chapel program on Sept. 5. The flag salute was led by Nelson Dyson; a play, "The Man On The Street," was given by some of the junior class; in this was a band led by Vernon Davis. Vernell Hogue gave a reading, Melvin Helton gave a French harp solo. Marjorie Bruton sang and played on the guitar, and Mr. Mohr led some group singing.

Sophomore Scribbings

The chapel program given by the sophomores last Friday was a success. The parents present were Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Lee Barry.

The sophomore class has received its English work books and work is going forward on them. We are wondering who from our membership will make the honor roll.

Fish Happenings

The freshman class is giving the program Friday, Sept. 19. It will include the following:

Flag Salute—Led by Audie Lee and Jack Swetnam, with flag presentation by Wayne McDonald; instrumental duet—Ewing Barnett and Bobbie Candler; play—Mary Ruth Evans, Anita O'Brien, Cecil Francis, Lottie Marie Zybach, Ewing Barnett, Bobbie Candler, Sammie Lee Daugherty, Mary Helen Rodgers and Margaret Anglen; piano solo—Lottie Marie Zybach; reading—Weldon Temple; jokes—Audie Lee and Jack Swetnam.

We wonder why everyone is whispering around in study hall; is it because of the party?

Seen and Heard
 Carl Simpson barely escaping an accident while on a very special errand.

Friday Night Shows

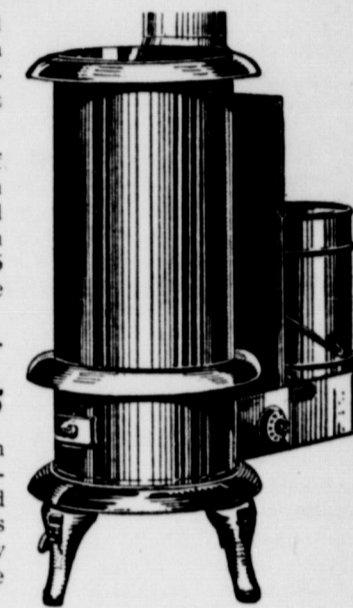

The first picture show of the season at the Briscoe auditorium was given Friday night, Sept. 12. It was "The Vengeance of Hannah." A nice crowd was present, considering the weather, which was unsettled. This Friday night the picture will be "The Cyclone Ranger." Admission 10 and 15 cents.

PREPARE NOW

For Chilly Mornings and Evenings and Much Cooler Weather Soon to Come. Enjoy

QUICKER, CLEANER HEAT WITH AN Oil-Burning Heater

These High Grade Heaters Afford Greater Comfort and Economy than Will Be Found in Many of the Higher Priced Stoves—and They are Built for Long and Satisfactory Service.

No chills and shivers this winter, if you have one of our oil heaters in your home. A turn of a valve and a match gives you instant warmth on cold mornings. In less than 5 minutes' time your oil heater can be red hot.

Gas Heaters

If you are convenient to gas, we can supply your stove needs with standard quality merchandise in new and modern designs. We have gas heaters in suitable sizes for every room in the house in appropriate styles and finishes.

Farm Security Urges Stabilizing Incomes

Conservation and Utilization of Crop Resources Recommended by County Supervisor

With the best feed crop in several years now maturing in Wheeler county, the Farm Security administration is encouraging its borrower-families to stabilize their incomes by properly conserving and utilizing their crop resources.

Frank O. Wofford, county FSA supervisor, believes that although farmers may expect increased incomes during the present period of national defense, they also face higher production costs.

"Farm families co-operating with this agency," Wofford said, "are being assisted in increasing the net returns from each acre of land by using their feed crops so that the maximum pounds of butterfat, beef, pork, wool and so forth are produced."

"The farmers who utilize their acreage to best advantage, who conserve their feed supplies by proper storage and feeding practices and who manage their farm plants on a sound business basis are the farmers who will prosper most now and in the future."

"For example," Wofford continued, "an acre of sorghum fed as silage will go approximately twice as far as when fed in the form of dry bundles. This is especially true with dairy cows. This fact, coupled with the comparatively low cost of trench silos, is expected to result in an additional number of these storage facilities here this year."

The best substitute for pasture is silage, and silage can be had by every dairyman even though he has only two cows, Wofford said.

Citing the saving of feeding silage, the FSA supervisor said dairy farmers especially appreciate the value of this ration. He told of an experiment made at the Ohio state station, where dairy cows received a dry roughage ration of hay and stover with 13.5 pounds of grain were compared with cows being fed 58 pounds of silage, a little mixed hay and four pounds of grain. The silage-fed cows gave 15 per cent more milk at 41 per cent less cost.

Sounding a warning that crops next year may not be as abundant as they are this, Wofford stated that since a good crop is on hand at the present time every effort should be made to see that it is properly conserved, and in most cases, placed in trench silos.

"Fact is," he concluded, "this is a mighty good time for farmers to lay in a supply of feed that will last them at least two years."

Information about constructing trench silos, their location, size, cost, harvesting and filling operations may be obtained without charge from the FSA office or the extension service office.

The eight million members of the Methodist church gave a total of $90,323,961 for all church purposes during the year ending May 31, 1941, according to Treasurer O. W. Auman of Chicago. Of this amount $4,166,262, or 55 cents per member, were given for the general benevolences of the church and $946,331 were given for aid to Methodists in Great Britain, for war sufferers in China and in Europe, and for religious social facilities for United States soldiers in training camps.

Galangue is one of the outstanding Christian stations of the west coast of Africa. It was opened in 1923 by the American Board and is manned entirely by negro missionaries; its work is supported by negro congregational churches in America. Wynn was born in Jensen, Fla., and educated at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical college, and from Andover-Newton Theological seminary. Mrs. Wynn was educated at Emerson college and at Boston university, and has been a teacher of English and of dramatics.

Fall Convention West Texas C. of C. Nov. 4th

Meeting Date Shifted from Summer to Fall and Will Convene at Midland this Time

The 1941 fall convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, its second for the year, will be held at Midland on Tuesday, Nov. 4. Selection of the date was made by the WTCC officers' committee and the board of directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, and announced in a president's news letter by J. Thos. Davis, head of the regional chamber.

Davis' letter revealed further streamlining in line with action taken by the organization's directors at Mineral Wells last May when it was decided to meet in the fall instead of the summer, beginning with the fall of 1941. The Midland convention will be organized on a delegation basis, its business to be transacted by a house of delegates considering projects and resolutions presented by the all-important convention work committee, and voting under the town unit rule as set up in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce by-laws.

The delegates will complete their work in one day, adjourning at the close of an evening festival banquet at which a nationally known figure will deliver the address. The host city will provide entertainment features.

One important non-business feature of the past is being retained. That is the immemorial "My Home Town" contest directed by Judge C. M. Caldwell of Abilene. It will follow the pattern adopted earlier this year of district contests with winners brought to the convention city for re-competition in finals.

Delegates to the Midland convention will be the members of the local Public Affairs committees or their substitutes or alternates. These committees are being created throughout the territory by local chamber boards at request of the regional organization. Although the local WTCC director in each case is named chairman, the committee is controlled by its local chamber.

Serving in a house of delegates at the WTCC convention is not its only duty. It will serve also as the Westex chamber's contact with the community on matters requiring unified action. It will receive all WTCC committee reports and president's news letters. It will lead community action on territorial, state and national programs and campaigns undertaken jointly. And it will conduct its town's participation in the WTCC's newly announced inter-community Defense and Preservation contest.

To date, creation of Public Affairs committees in 29 towns, distributed over the state, has been certified to the West Texas chamber.

Home-Making Hints

By MISS VERA MARTIN
Home Supervisor, F. S. A.

Stop Food Wastes

"Waste not—want not!" is a maxim thrifty homemakers have always practiced. And with every rise in food prices the army of thrifty homemakers get more recruits.

Today, stopping unnecessary food wastes at home has become much more than a matter of family thrift. It is a basic step in the nationwide movement to conserve all of this country's food resources.

Home economists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture list here many of the ways that food waste in the home may be prevented. They point out that the smallest food waste is never a minor matter.

Waste happens all along the line. So the homemaker has to practice constant watchfulness from the time she buys the food or gets it in from the garden until it appears on the family table.

Groundwork for such waste is laid in unplanned shopping. Wise buyers never shop without their notes. These notes may be mental or down in writing. But they are based on advance meal plans for the family for the period for which the shopping is done.

Some homemakers can buy far ahead because they can make plans far ahead. Some can't. It depends on how regularly every member of the family eats at home. Some groceries can be bought long before needed. Some can't. It depends upon how perishable they are and the storage arrangements in the home.

Learning to know marks of quality eliminates much shopping waste. Government grades can help the buyer. So can other information on labels of packaged products. In other cases, a woman simply has to learn to recognize for herself the difference between good and poor.

Wise shoppers also see that they get their money's worth in quantity. This too, can be learned from reading labels. And it's a good policy to be a scalechecker—see that you get all you pay for. Thrifty homemakers, for example, make sure that the butcher puts in all of the fat trimmings with her cut of meat. These she uses in her cooking.

Improper storage is another food thief. Leftover fats and drippings are good food and can be used again. But they must be stored as carefully as other fats—in a dry, cold, dark place. Left on the stove to grow rancid, they'll not only be a waste in themselves, but they will spoil the flavor of other foods in which they are used.

And just as there is a right way to store fats so there is a correct way to keep other foods.

Briscoe H. D. Club Meets

The Briscoe Home Demonstration club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lee Barry. Mrs. Bob Ramsey, chairman, had charge of the meeting.

Following a discussion of plans for fair entries, a parliamentary drill and interesting program was enjoyed on "Our Personal Growth," with each giving her views.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Lester Johnson, Verne Lohberger, Elbert Zybach, Lloyd Childress, Clint Higgins, Bob Ramsey, Clarence Zybach, P. L. Meadows and John G. Newman; Patsy Ramsey and Danny Lohberger and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. P. L. Meadows on Oct. 7.—MRS. LEE BARRY, Reporter.

Country Neighbors Meet

"Properly controlled heat in the home is one of the best forms of health insurance one can buy," said Miss Lucile Chance, Wheeler county home demonstration agent, addressing a meeting of the Country Neighbors club in the Mrs. Hester Dodson home last Friday afternoon, Sept. 12.

"Kerosene is the cheapest fuel we have and gasoline is the most dangerous," the speaker continued.

Those present were Mrs. Roger O'Gorman, visitor, and Mesdames G. L. Braxton, Forest Carver, Lula Box, Fred Box, Berry Strange, M. A. Pillers, Thomas Todd, Glenn King, H. H. Liles and the hostess, members. Mrs. John O'Gorman was welcomed into the club as a new member.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. G. L. Braxton at 2:30 p. m., Friday, Sept. 26. All members urged to attend and visitors welcome.—MRS. THOMAS TODD, Reporter.

Borger plans an Adobe Walls pageant Oct. 16, 17 and 18. Around 1,000 Indians will be brought from reservations near Anadarko, Okla. Descendants of Indians who fought in the battle of Adobe Walls more than 60 years ago will be in Borger for the pageant. Extensive preparations are under way with C. R. (Jake) Stahl as general chairman.—Panhandle Herald.

Texas Tourist Travel Shows Favorable Gain

Tourists coming to Texas during this summer's vacation period apparently have been seeing more of the Lone Star state and driving more miles in Texas than did tourists last year. This is indicated by a survey by the Texas Highway department made at the 11 courtesy and information stations operated during the summer by the department at the various points of entry into the state.

It is shown by a six week's summary of the stations' operations, from June 17 to July 27 this year, that 13,272 out-of-state cars stopped at the 11 stations. Those cars covered 7,650,525 miles in Texas, it was estimated by checking their proposed routes. This was an average of 668 miles per car, as compared with an average of 493 miles per car in 1940.

A number of other interesting features are revealed by the facts compiled at the stations.

The figures show that only 11 stations were operated this summer, as against 13 last summer. The 11 this year, however, will have served about as many cars during the 14 weeks they are open as the number for 1940, when a total of 31,012 stopped for information.

During the six week's period covered by the present summary (June 17 to July 27), 23,049 cars were served at the 11 stations operated by the department this summer. Of these, 9,777 were Texas cars, and 12,272 were out-of-state automobiles.

California cars stopping at the stations outnumbered all others, totaling 2,354 vehicles, while only seven cars from Rhode Island were listed.

A comparison of the estimated number of miles driven in Texas per car by states shows Maine led with 1,200 miles, and Oklahoma lowest with 403 miles per car. However, it was noted that Oklahoma cars served numbered 1,778, while only 12 cars from Maine stopped, indicating that the New Englanders who stopped for information really traveled over the state to see it after coming all the way from Maine to Texas, and that the neighboring Oklahomans journeyed on many short tours, or trips, into Texas.

The highway department courtesy and information stations are operated during the heaviest summer months of tourist travel. The 11 operated this summer were located at Texarkana, Gainesville, Denison, Wichita Falls, Texline, Glenrio, Pecos, Canutillo (near El Paso), Laredo, Orange and Marshall.

Movie Chatter

(By a Rogue)

The Big Store

For Friday and Saturday, Sept. 19-20, patrons of the Rogue Theatre will be given an opportunity to see their old-time favorites, the Marx Brothers, in their newest picture, The Big Store. This picture has been built purely to entertain you. It is chuck full of the newest and best comedy as only the Marx Brothers can give. You really have a treat in store and we know you are going to like it very much. It is full of gags, gags and gaiety, with never a dull moment.

The Awful Truth

For Preview-Sunday-Monday, Sept. 20-21-22, the attraction at the Rogue is an old picture called The Awful Truth. This picture was made several years ago but it has never been shown in Wheeler. The year that it was made it won the Academy award for the best picture of the year. It has only recently been reissued and is still making history wherever it is run. The stars are Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, and they have never been better. And being an award winner, we need not tell you that it is good, because you know your pictures as well as we know ours, and perhaps better. So we will be seeing you.

Caught in the Draft

For Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24-25, you will be given the privilege of seeing the most talked of picture of the current movie season. We are talking about Caught in the Draft, which stars Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour. In the supporting roles will be Lynne Overman and Eddie Bracken who go along with Bob Hope when Uncle Sam reaches out and brings him into the selectee training camp. This picture is one of the most laugh provoking films that has ever been produced. We suggest that you come in pairs so that when one of you becomes exhausted from laughing the other may take over and keep up with the fun until you are rested. In this way you will get all the picture. Remember that the date is Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24-25.

NOTICE Taxpayers

House Bill No. 76, passed recently by the legislature and signed by the governor, releases all penalty and interest on State and County Ad Valorem Taxes, both real and personal, which were delinquent before July 1, 1940. Those who have any such delinquent State and County taxes may take advantage of this complete interest and penalty remission NOW by paying

ALL TAXES DUE

If a lien holder wants to pay all the delinquent taxes on the property on which he holds a lien, it will be necessary for him to pay a penalty of 6%, unless all the taxes on all other property owned by the taxpayer (both personal and real) are paid at the same time. The above rule also applies to the owner of the property.

THIS LAW EXPIRES NOVEMBER 1, 1941

(The penalty and interest remission law does not affect 1940 taxes. The usual penalty will be collected on delinquent taxes for 1940, which at the present time amounts to 12%, and must be paid at the same time as other delinquent taxes in order to get the discounts.)

To find the savings possible under this law, use the following figures to compute the usual penalty which would customarily be collected, and will again be in effect after Nov. 1, 1941:

1934 and All Prior Years—45½ Per Cent	1937—27½ Per Cent
1935—39½ Per Cent	1938—21½ Per Cent
1936—33½ Per Cent	1939—18 Per Cent

Under the Penalty Remission Bill, all penalty and interest are released if all delinquent taxes are paid. If all delinquent taxes were paid on one parcel, with others unpaid, the 6% penalty would obtain. But if only a part of the taxes are paid, then the usual penalty would apply.

Texas Senator Wins in Tax Bill Struggle

Connally Saves Rights of Married Couples to Render Separate Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Tom Connally, during the passage of the tax bill, again fought for and triumphed in the elimination from the bill of provisions depriving married couples in the eight community property states, of which Texas is one, of the right to file separate income returns.

Being the lone senator from a community property state on the Finance committee, the Texas senator was out-voted in committee; however, Connally carried his fight to the senate where he was able to muster sufficient votes to force the Finance committee chairman to strike the provision from the bill. This action will save the tax-payers of Texas millions of dollars each year.

Connally in his service in both the house and senate has been an ardent supporter of state's rights under the community property law.

In his individual report on the tax bill, the Texas senator said, "Under the community property system, marriage creates a universal partnership. To its capital, the husband and wife contribute their separate property and to it they must contribute their full services, and divide the resulting income share and share alike. The courts require the use of the property for the benefit of both partners and will restrain its waste or diversion to others."

"The supreme court of the United States in a series of carefully prepared and presented cases has held that one-half of the community income belonged to the husband and one-half to the wife, that it was actually owned by them in these proportions, and therefore taxable to them in such proportions."

"The heroes of San Jacinto," exclaimed Connally in the senate, "before they wiped the blood from their swords, placed in the constitution of the republic the community property laws giving to wives an equal vested interest in the community income. They believed that a woman who was worthy to be the mother of their children was worthy to receive one-half of the earnings of their hands. We shall not surrender those rights without a determined resistance and a savage fight."

PEEPING IN THE WHEELER TIMES WINDOW

Although not as many as on some occasions, The Times window entries during the past few days have represented both beauty and utility.

Last Saturday Clarence Crowder brought in a sample of delicious Elberta peaches, too good and too fragile to long remain in the window.

Dean Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Griffin, added a sample of green peppers grown by him to the Cushman exhibit exhibited the week before. Dean is a real gardener.

T. C. Helton, living four miles west of Allison, brought in a pair of ears of his Oklahoma Silvermine corn which showed extra high quality and would be a credit to any northern corn growing state.

On the genuine beauty side is listed a lovely bouquet sent in by Mrs. Fred Rowe, living two miles north of town. Varieties included dahlias, roses, crepe myrtle and mountain mist. Her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Goad, brought the entry to the office Friday.

Today, Tobe Frye submitted a half dozen fine apples from his orchard east of town. In the lot are Golden Delicious, Red Delicious and Jonathans. Widely publicized fruit regions could well envy this fine fruit, with little hope of excelling it.

Just to prove those golden yellow vegetables he grows are not pumpkins or squashes, as some have charged, J. A. Bradshaw, today brought in another specimen with instructions to cut it open Saturday morning and have it on display just to prove he knows his watermelons. It shall be accordingly done.

Shamrock Baptist Man Again Heads District

Vernie Pipes Re-elected Moderator; Wheeler Pastor is Renamed Secretary-Treasurer

Rev. Vernie Pipes, pastor of the First Baptist church, Shamrock, was re-elected moderator of the North Fork Baptist association at the annual meeting held last Thursday and Friday at Wellington.

Other officers elected are: Ted Ewing, Mobeetie, vice moderator; Murray Fuquay, Wheeler, clerk and treasurer; board members of the district, Rev. Pipes and Rev. J. P. Neal, Wellington; Rev. Robert Lawrence of Lefors, associational organizer; Rev. W. O. Cooley, Kellerville, chairman of the executive board.

Between 250 and 400 Baptists of the association attended the two-day session, representing 28 churches in the district.

Dr. Gordon Bayless of Pampa was one of the principal speakers for the opening day's program. Rev. J. C. McKenzie of Amarillo, district missionary, was a guest and led the devotionals. Various pastors and church workers of the association gave reports on departmental work accomplished during the past year.

Friday was given over to reports and the W. M. U. district meeting. It was estimated that more than 600 persons had been added to the church rolls of the association in the past year.

Those attending the meeting from Wheeler were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Russell, Miss Elsie Weeks and Rev. Murray Fuquay, the latter remaining over night for the second day's program, while the others returned home Thursday night.

Special Service Men Given Texas Rangers

Appointment of six criminal investigators to the Texas Ranger force has just been announced by Col. Homer Garrison, state police director.

The appointees included a sheriff who resigned his office to join the oldest state police organization on this continent, a former sheriff, two deputy sheriffs, a highway patrolman and an inspector for the Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association.

The additions were provided for by the last legislature and were made necessary by increases in regular criminal work, internal security investigations and cattle theft. Colonel Garrison said most of the new personnel will be assigned to cattle theft investigations. With livestock prices soaring, cattle thefts have increased enormously in recent months.

After a period of experimentation in the Austin district, the Rangers are adopting throughout the state a new system of combating cattle rustlers. It includes enforcement of the law requiring bills of sale on livestock, inspection of livestock in transit through the maintenance of highway blockades, night patrols on county and private roads, and systematic checks of livestock auction rings and other sales outlets.

Of the six new appointees, local interest attaches principally to Raymond Waters, now of Lubbock, who resigned last October as sheriff of Wheeler county and since then had been employed by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission as game warden. He has been assigned to the Lubbock district.

Arraign Sherman Man on Charge of Robbery

Lee Kirk of Sherman was arraigned before Judge A. C. Wood in justice court here today on a charge of robbery to which the accused entered a plea of not guilty.

Kirk's hearing resulted from an alleged robbery of Frank Copeland, Shamrock, which occurred Monday somewhere between Wheeler and the west county line. Officers say that Copeland, who was returning from the northwest Panhandle where he had been working in harvest, picked up Kirk as a hitch-hiker at Skellytown, bringing him toward Shamrock.

It is also said that both men were drinking to some extent and that Copeland's passenger, who is minus the left arm from below the elbow, relieved him of $98. His haste to leave Wheeler upon arrival here, puts Kirk in a bad light. But he made good his departure.

Sheriff Jess Swink and Deputy Lee McBee, upon learning of the incident, instituted search for the (unknown to them) Sherman man. Clues to his identity were uncovered at Skellytown and along the route, together with his home address.

Word sent officers at Sherman man on watch and Kirk's arrest was made upon arrival there.

Swink and McBee went to Sherman Wednesday and brought their man here for the preliminary. Bond was fixed in the sum of $1,000 at today's hearing.

Farm Loan Group Has Interesting Meeting

With more than 40 present, the Wheeler National Farm Loan association had an interesting session at its 18th annual membership meeting in the Rogue Theatre here Tuesday afternoon.

S. B. Davis, president, told the crowd of home-owners that 129 farmers in this area are using the association's long-term, low-interest rate Federal Land bank loans to climb to farm and ranch ownership, or to refinance existing obligations at lower rates and more desirable terms. Davis was chairman of the meeting at which entertainment features included a free picture show.

Members reelected were S. B. Davis, Briscoe, and J. C. Bradstreet, Wheeler, to three-year terms on the association's board of directors. Hold-over directors are H. J. Finsterwald, Mobeetie; J. A. Callan, Wheeler, and N. M. Tipps, Briscoe. In his annual report, R. H. Forrester, secretary-treasurer, revealed that the Wheeler National Farm Loan association, founded in 1923, now has 129 loans for $328,000 on its books, in addition to 110 Land Bank commissioner loans for $181,000.

"But these figures are important only for what they represent," Davis announced, "and what they stand for is more than 239 farm families, owning their homes, living on their land, here in the vicinity of Wheeler and northern part of Wheeler county."

He pointed out that members of the association are "protected in their ownership because with a land bank loan only a small portion of the total loan comes due at any one time—yet the farmer can pay ahead in fat years to take care of lean ones—or reduce the length of time required to pay off his indebtedness."

Local Youth in Army Ordnance Department

From the ordnance training center at Aberdeen proving ground in Maryland comes word that having been selected for training in a branch of service which only 2 per cent of army personnel achieve, Alvie O. (Bud) VanPool, formerly of Wheeler, and Sam V. McClelland, former assistant sports editor on an Amarillo newspaper, are already making marked progress.

The course of schooling will soon enable them to take their places in the field forces of the ordnance department, one of the army's most technical and highly specialized branches.

The ordnance training center, commanded by Brig. Gen. Julian S. Hatcher, is providing all units of the army with trained ordnance specialists at the rate of 2,000 a month. These men will supply and repair the weapons and combat vehicles of the nation's armored units, air corps, artillery and other fighting branches.

They are now receiving basic training in the replacement center, commanded by Col. Bethel W. Simpson, and one of the three correlated units which compose the ordnance training center.

Later, some of the men will be transferred to the unit training center under command of Lt. Col. William I. Wilson. Here they will be organized into integral ordnance maintenance companies and, after completion of specialized training, will go into the field as complete units.

Others will be transferred into the ordnance school to be trained as specialists and instructors in ammunition, small arms, artillery, automotive, depot and supply, and administrative branches of the ordnance service.

Shamrock Man Victim Saturday Auto Wreck

Jerry Grady Killed and Companion Injured When Tire Blows Out Near Wellington

Jerry Grady, 23-year-old Shamrock man, was killed late Saturday afternoon in a car accident south of Wellington and his companion, Miss Chesta Lee Walker, also of Shamrock, was painfully injured. It is said a tire blew out on Grady's automobile, causing the machine to turn over several times.

Grady and Miss Walker were on their way to Altus, Okla., to visit her parents at the time of the wreck.

Grady received a deep gash on the left side of his head and died within a few minutes after the accident. Miss Walker, an employee of a Shamrock cafe, received a fractured leg and other injuries, none of which were said to be serious. She was taken to a Wellington hospital for emergency treatment.

Young Grady's tragic death was a shock to many friends in Shamrock where he was popular and widely known. He had made his home there the past 15 years and while attending high school was a star member of the football team.

For the past two years he had been an employe of Ed Harris, drilling contractor.

Surviving besides his parents are three brothers, Walter Grady of Denton, Robert Grady of Shamrock and Vaughan Grady of Congress, Ariz.; four sisters, Mrs. Charles Perry, Shamrock; Miss Birdie Grady, San Antonio; Mrs. Harold Mayfield, Casper, Wyo., and Mrs. Murray Wiley, Grapevine. He was a nephew of Hal Vaughan of Shamrock.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at Locksburg, Ark., home of Grady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grady, who formerly lived at Shamrock.

Cemetery Improving Completed for Season

The new water well and windmill at the Wheeler cemetery, installed some time ago, are paid for and the committee, composed of Mrs. Ernest Lee and Mrs. Dick Craig, who solicited funds for the much needed improvements, wish to thank everyone for their financial assistance and invite all who can to visit the cemetery and inspect the clean-up work they had done with the remainder of the funds.

The following is a list of those contributing since the first list was published some time ago. Mrs. J. F. Alexander, Mrs. H. Flanagan, Mrs. T. P. Morton, J. I. Maloy, John McCarroll, Clayton Kelley, Amos May, Clint Starkey, Bill Cole, Wheeler, and J. R. Edwards, Bend, Oregon.

No further funds, according to Mrs. Lee, are being asked for the remainder of the current season. Next year may see the introduction of further projects, at which time aid will be asked, if needed.

AMERICAN LEGION MONTHLY DISTRICT MEET AT FRIONA

J. M. Johnson of Canadian, district commander of the American Legion, announces the monthly meeting of the 18th District American Legion and Auxiliary will be held at Friona next Wednesday, Sept. 24.

The session, starting at 7:30 p. m., will include lunch with abundance of chicken and a short business session. Wallace P. Martin, a past commander of the Legion from New Mexico will give the address of the evening.

Johnson hopes to have a good representation of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members from the eastern Panhandle present at the Parmer county meeting.
