THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

Bone-Dry Election Dated for May 3rd

Commissioners Order County-Wide Vote After Study Reveals Petition Is Correct

Meeting at the court house here Saturday, the commissioners court continued study of the petition asking a county-wide referendum on the liquor question, which was presented to the court early last week. Upon satisfying themselves that the document contained the names of 321 qualified electors, (six more than necessary) and met other legal requirements, the commissioners ordered such election for Saturday, May 3.

Signatures of only 316 qualified petitioners were needed to make the order by the court mandatory.

The Ballot and How Voted
The ballot upon which voters are to express their preference will read:

For prohibiting the sale of all alcoholic beverages.
Against prohibiting the sale of all alcoholic beverages.

To vote DRY, the voter should scratch (or mark out) the BOTTOM LINE. To vote WET, scratch the TOP LINE.

County Liquor Status

An impartial and academic summary of the county's liquor status, now and subsequent to the impending election, has been prepared by County Attorney Homer L. Moss. The information recites:

"Under the present liquor laws the status of Wheeler county is as follows: The entire county voted to allow the sale of wine and beer in 1938, and is classed as a wet county. However two precincts, comprising the north half of the county, have since voted to prohibit all intoxicating beverages, which leaves the south precinct (No. 4, consisting of the entire south side of the county) still wet.

"As it now stands, the two north precincts can never become wet again until those precincts, separately, at precinct elections decide by a majority vote to become wet again, which issues they may determine at local option elections held from time to time.

"Now, if the entire county votes dry in the coming election, Wheeler county will become a dry county in its entirety and can only become wet again if and when the entire county, at a county election, votes to become so.

"If the county votes wet in the coming election, the north precincts will remain dry and the south precinct will remain wet, the present condition remaining unchanged, and the three precincts can still vote themselves dry or wet at precinct elections."

The county, according to records at the court house, has seen a number of changes in the liquor situation. The first local option election was on April 16, 1904. The next was in 1914. An election held in 1934 legalized 3.2 beer, which was voted out in 1938. That year also brought in 14% light wines and beer in another referendum.

During 1939, Wheeler and surrounding precinct went dry, followed by Mobeetie and adjacent area in 1940.

Joe Tilley Announces Grocery Line Opening

The Wheeler Poultry & Egg company, Joe Tilley, manager, announces in another column of this paper the opening of a new line of fresh, staple groceries in connection with his produce and feed business in the Clay building at the southeast corner of the square.

That store formerly handled groceries, discontinuing the line more than a year ago, since which time a cafe and coffee shop had been operated by Mr. and Mrs. Tilley in a part of the building where the produce business was conducted. About two weeks ago the cafe was closed and the new grocery stock installed. In his announcement, Tilley states that he will conduct the new grocery venture on a strictly cash basis.

JOWETT YOUTH, ILL A LONG TIME, REPORTED IMPROVING

Eugene Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Jowett, is improving nicely since returning home about three weeks ago from Amarillo, where he was a patient in the Northwest Texas hospital for 73 days. During that time he was given a number of blood transfusions.

Mrs. Matthews was in Wheeler Saturday, shopping and had planned to bring Eugene with her but due to inclement weather it was decided to postpone his visit to the county seat a few days.

WHEELER OLD-TIMER IS HEARD FROM

Accompanying an advertisement for The Times Wantad column, E. B. Scarborough of Brady, Texas, writes: "I don't know whether this will fall into the hands of some of my old friends, or not. I left Wheeler just about 26 years ago. I have gone through many different things since I left there, but I don't feel—and don't think I look—six months older than I did when I left there. Am getting along fine. Range is splendid; sheep, goats and cattle all fat and frisky."

Farm Security Set-Up to Be Defense Agency

Designation as Part of National Program Received by Frank O. Wofford, Supervisor

The Farm Security administration, United States Department of Agriculture, has been designated as a National Defense agency, according to word received here by Frank O. Wofford, rehabilitation supervisor for the FSA in Wheeler and Gray counties.

Federal programs contributing directly or indirectly, or both, to national defense have been given a defense rating by the federal government. Wofford said a chief contribution of the Farm Security administration to national defense is its rehabilitation of farm families who have suffered the plight of economic insecurity.

The Farm Security administration does far more than merely lend money to low-income and needy farm families. Although this agency does make low interest loans to farm families unable to obtain credit from any other source, it has many other features to assist America's rural families.

Farm security makes it possible for many low-income rural people to find security of tenure, improved housing and sanitation facilities, improved diet, more stable income and, in many cases, improved medical attention.

Another phase of the defense program is in FSA families co-operating with the soil conservation program. They are using sound farm and home practices, rotating their crops, planning to plant cover crops and are growing feed for their stock as well. The rehabilitation supervisor reported that many of the landowners in Wheeler and Gray counties have given their tenants long-term leases so that live-at-home and soil conservation programs can be carried on. This program, he pointed out, is also a defense aid.

Wofford declared that "in these times of stress, long term leases—three to five years—are needed to give stability to the tenants and sharecroppers. These leases are beneficial to the landowners as well as tenants, because it gives the tenants an opportunity to improve the fertility of the soil and take advantage of the environmental program of the FSA."

In designating the FSA as a National Defense agency, the National Defense commission recognized the fact that if a nation has too many low-income, inadequately housed, fed and clad persons, it cannot be a strong nation in time of peace or war.

According to Miss Lucile Chance, county home demonstration agent, a meeting for people of the Corn Valley, Hay Hollow, Sandy Basin, Pleasant Hill and Wheeler communities will be held at the Methodist church here at 9 o'clock next Monday morning to organize the home demonstration mattress program and get the work started.

District Court Hears Jury Cases This Week

Wheeler Oil Mill Matter Disposed of Monday—Personal Damages Trial Not Yet Completed

District court has experienced a busy week since Monday morning when the docket of civil actions, with jury, opened. First to be disposed of on Monday was a case involving the Wheeler Cotton Oil mill.

Beginning Tuesday morning with selection of a jury, the personal damages action of Eddie Bayouth versus R. B. Lewis and the Caprock Bus line, has been heard. Bayouth, a minor, represented by his next friend, alleges injuries sustained to an eye while riding a Caprock bus with other members of the Wellington school band. Capital sum asked is $10,000.

After introduction of voluminous testimony, the case went to the jury late this afternoon with little prospect of a verdict before tomorrow some time.

The third week of court, starting next Monday, is scheduled as criminal, with jury. The list of names announced for possible service includes:

Buster Walsler, A. B. Turner, H. E. Young, J. M. Lawrence, Lonzo Beck, Ernest Gordon, Harold Robertson, Henry Miller, Roy Lamb, Tobe Frye, H. V. Vermillion, A. V. Hanes, Dana McDonald, O. B. Harvey, J. O. Stribling, H. N. Roach, Jack Clark, J. W. Atkinson.

C. C. Dyson, J. E. Gabriel, Nep Trew, Lester Hathaway, Bruce Gressett, O. R. Cook, Emmett Tabor, J. L. Waters, C. F. Hefley, J. B. Oswalt, C. E. Roper, Arnold Sonntag, M. H. Vaughn, Cecil Hammer, Buck Henderson, J. R. Baker, W. F. Rives, J. A. Welch, R. P. Grayson, Paul Bentley, Noel Revious and Allen Rucker.

Health and Nutrition Suggestions are Made

The Health and Nutrition subcommittee of the State Land Use Planning committee met in March to discuss some of the needs and ways for improving the health of rural people. Three major problems were pointed out at this meeting.

These were: Malnutrition, poor sanitary conditions and lack of medical service.

After a study of these problems, the health and nutrition committee made the following recommendations:

1. That the State Land Use Planning committee make the following recommendations to County Land Use Planning committees:

1. That brief community surveys be made to reveal the malnutrition, sanitary and medical service situation within their own communities and from which future action may be planned.

2. Encourage full participation in the AAA Supplementary Cotton program, the Supplementary Food program and the Garden program.

3. That the Texas Food Standard be used as a guide to better nutrition and give encouragement to use of land in growing food and feed to meet this standard.

4. Consider ways and means whereby whole wheat flours and cereals may be made more available through small home mills, mills in co-operative gins, or in grocery stores.

County Land Use Planning committees over the state of Texas are meeting in their respective counties during the period of April 14 through April 30 to make plans for their program on Food, Feed, Nutrition and Cotton Goods in National Defense.

The Wheeler County Land Use Planning committee, at its recent meeting, realized the needs in Wheeler county for such a program. Too many people, though they have enough food, do not have the varieties essential for good nutrition. Many people live to eat, rather than eating to live.

The factor most directly concerned with our health is food. Daily we can influence our health by the food we eat.

It is important that our health goal be set at attaining the greatest efficiency possible for us to possess, not merely preventing illness.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Three Killed in Car Crash at Twitty Wednesday Night

EGGLESTON IS RETURNED HERE FOR TRIAL

Sheriff Jess Swink and Deputy C. R. Bock of Shamrock, accompanied by another man, went to Fort Worth Tuesday and brought back Lee Roy "Little Oscar" Eggleston, who was indicted by the current grand jury on a charge of hijacking.

It will be remembered Eggleston was arraigned in justice court here Jan. 27 on a similar charge in connection with the alleged holdup of a car near Mobeetie early in that month. The prisoner plead not guilty and bond was fixed at $10,000, which was made shortly afterwards.

In the meantime, it is said, Eggleston was picked up at El Paso and charged with robbery. This arrest resulted in his parole from Huntsville being revoked by the governor. A bench warrant was necessary to secure Eggleston's release from Fort Worth authorities.

It is expected his trial will come up in the present term of court.

Local Firms Announce Summer Closing Hours

Large Majority Sign Agreement to Close at 6:30 Each Evening Except Saturdays

Circulation here today of a paper containing a mutual agreement among Wheeler stores and business firms to adopt summer closing hours was signed by a great majority of the establishments visited. Some who could not see their way clear to sign the compact have signified their intention of observing the practice as nearly as possible.

The agreement stipulates that places of business shall close at 6:30 p. m. each evening during the week except Saturdays, when no closing hour is specified. Drug stores, cafes, service stations and similar lines are not affected, of course, because the nature of their business requires later hours than that agreed upon. Object of the closing, which becomes effective next Monday, April 28, and continues to Sept. 1, is to allow store keepers and business men, together with employees, an opportunity for rest and recreation in daylight hours of late afternoon during the long summer days.

Firms and individuals signing the agreement are J. P. Green & Sons, Russ Dry Goods, Ernest Lee Hardware, M. Millhany Dry Goods & Groceries, Nash Appliance & Supply Co., Harrell's 5c to $1.00 Store, the R. & F. Store, City Bakery, Wheeler County Produce Association, W. E. Pennington & Son, Puckett's Grocery & Market, J. M. Burgess Shoe Shop and Clay Food Store.

WHEELER YOUNG MAN GETS PROMOTION IN ARMY WORK

Word received from Kelly Field states that George Kreps, son of Mrs. W. J. Warren of Wheeler, has been promoted from private first class to sergeant. Col. H. R. Harmon, commanding officer at Kelly Field, where Kreps is stationed, has just issued the order which is retroactive to April 1.

Military authorities at Kelly Field assert Kreps' promotion was based on his attention to duty and soldierly qualities.

Promotions in the air corps are not easily obtained even in time of national emergency. They must be earned by application and hard work.

Brileys Sell Station and Go to California

Mr. and Mrs. H. Briley, who have sold their filling station and grocery store nine miles east of Wheeler to Mrs. Janie Green of Sayre, Okla., left Sunday for Alturas, Calif., with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Briley, and children.

They will also visit relatives in and near Los Angeles, Calif., where they expect to locate when Mr. Briley finds a suitable location. Harley Pond of Kelton accompanied them.

Loses Two Fingers

Isaac Carter had the misfortune to lose the first and second fingers of his left hand when that member was caught in the casing while pulling a line of pipe in a water well at the Joe Barr place west of Wheeler Tuesday. His father, Julius Carter, was the contractor.

Mrs. Clyde Schaub, Her 10-Month-Old Son and Nebraska Man Victims of Collision

Mrs. Clyde Schaub and 10-month-old son, Clyde Don, and W. W. Barclay of McCook, Nebr., were killed when the car occupied by the Schaub family and one driven by Barclay met in a head-on collision at Twitty, 10 miles south of here about 6:25 Wednesday evening. Clyde Schaub, driving the car containing his family, suffered critical injuries.

Mrs. Schaub's death was instantaneous and the infant son died about 7 p. m. in the Shamrock General Hospital, where he and his father were taken immediately following the crash.

Barclay succumbed while enroute to the hospital. His body was taken to the Clay Funeral Home in Shamrock where, after a telephone conversation with authorities at McCook, it was learned that Barclay, about 30 years old, was on his way to Houston to visit his mother, seriously ill. The body was shipped today to Houston, where burial will be made.

Schaub, accompanied by his wife and little son, had carried the star route mail from Mobeetie to Shamrock for the regular carrier, George Grooms, of Shamrock who attended the funeral of a brother-in-law Wednesday.

The Schaub car was headed north and had slowed down to make a left hand turn across the highway to the Twitty postoffice and Montgomery grocery. Barclay, traveling south, is said to have been traveling at a high rate of speed and apparently struck the other car head-on. All occupants of both cars were thrown clear of the wreck. The Schaub car was hurled 78 feet from the point of impact with the Barclay machine, which turned over four or five times, according to eyewitnesses.

Schaub had lived in Wheeler and was employed at the Wheeler Wholesale station in 1938, later moving to Mobeetie where he operated the Shamrock Service station in New Mobeetie. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Schaub, and family reside in Wheeler.

The couple had been married about two years. Schaub is still in a critical condition, suffering from concussion, shock and internal injuries.

Mrs. Ina Mae Schaub, 26, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jolly, sr., who reside two miles south of Wheeler. Other survivors besides her husband and parents, are three sisters, Mrs. Jim Carricker, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Lige Mitchell, Twitty; and Mrs. A. C. Brown, Shamrock; three brothers, A. L. and Jack Jolly, both of Twitty, and W. L. Jolly, jr., Wheeler.

Funeral services for the unfortunate mother and babe will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at the First Baptist church in Shamrock, with Rev. Vernie Pipes, pastor, in charge.

Deepest sympathy is extended by people of this entire region to the bereaved survivors of this tragic accident.

Poison Protects Trees from Harm by Rabbits

Can rabbits be controlled and young shelterbelt trees shielded from harm by them? "Yes," declares J. H. Gordon, residing northwest of Wheeler, "by consistent poisoning I have been able to get many of my trees up past the rabbit injury stage." This is according to a report issued by the local shelterbelt office which includes the following additional information.

Gordon lives in a rabbit infested area and yet he has in his shelterbelt some fine Chinese elms, which is to a rabbit what spinach is to Popeye.

Continuing, he says: "I have spent considerable time in cultivation of my trees the past three years but I would have little to show for it if I had done it only to feed the rabbits. If a little poison maize is handy, the rabbit will usually take a few nibbles of it first. Result: he feels over before he can find his favorite elm tree."

Gordon explains further: "I counted 46 jackrabbits and several cottontails dead from poison maize in and near my planting just the other day. Incidentally, 46 rabbits killed at this time of year actually means destruction of many times that number next fall. So let's get them now. All out aid to the trees this year is our motto."

ACTION NEEDED NOW

The best defense is an aggressive offense. That has long been a military axiom. It can be applied with deadly parallel to our national fiscal policy. An army which burrows into the ground and does nothing but wait for the enemy, will, by all the rules of modern warfare, be beaten. Our fiscal policy is a policy of hiding behind sandbags of evasion and ignorance.

Palliatives are advocated to stem the tide of "inflation." But there is no fearless offensive against the causes of inflation. Inflation such as is feared today, is merely a prelude to bankruptcy. It is the result of uncontrolled public spending. Only by controlling the cause can the effect be averted.

What this country needs is a full realization of the exact meaning of national bankruptcy. It means the end of representative government and the rights and savings of the individual—the very things which we are arming to preserve. It might mean revolution. Bankrupt governments seldom pass out of the picture peacefully. It means actual physical danger and insecurity for every American family. This is the price of bankruptcy.

We are going to accumulate an unprecedented public debt. That is inevitable, due to defense costs. But in the name of common sense and for the sake of our children and our children's children, let's take the offensive against bureaucratic waste and pure political spending. Let's not be caught napping behind the sandbags of delusion.

LIBERTIES ENDANGERED

Representative government is slow to bring about drastic changes in the habits of the people, because a majority of the people have to be convinced of the merits and the feasibility of any change. When a pressure group uses the government as a weapon to force special or class legislation, basic liberties of the people are always endangered.

Representative government regulates business practices in the public interest, but does not seek ownership of private property. When private enterprise has to be corrected, government, through its power to regulate, can adjust unfair practices. It does not need to take the high road toward socialism as a remedy, thus destroying fundamental rights.

When a country that boasts of being a democracy, substitutes government ownership of private enterprise in lieu of reasonable regulation, the citizens living in that country will see the gradual destruction of free institutions. And they will find themselves living under a government which will slowly take away fundamental rights that govern their everyday living—rights which protect them from unjust treatment by government gone wild.

REAL PUBLIC SERVICE

How many people know that the doctors who serve the local draft boards give their services free? This takes much of the time of doctors in every part of the country. It has been granted generously, with no thought of reward. The young men who are being taken for the nation's defense have the satisfaction of knowing they are receiving the best medical examinations of any army recruits in the world.

How striking is the contrast between the attitude of the doctors in giving this invaluable service, and the attitude of those crafts and trades that have endangered the defense program through strikes and jurisdictional disputes.

"BUT STILL I AM FREE"

An Englishwoman, her husband at war, stood with her four children surveying the ruins of their bomb-shattered home. To Lady Astor she said: "It is all pretty bad, but still I am free to go where I like and think what I like."

And the American-born peereess comments: "Hitler may wreck our homes, but he will never break our hearts."

Again the inspiring thrill of pride. Pride over the daily evidences afforded in the heart of humanity there is something indomitable and deathless—the love of liberty that is dearer than life itself.

Nor is it confined to those of whom Wordsworth wrote, in lines of majestic beauty: "We must be free or die, who speak the tongue that Shakespeare spake." For it lives unconquerable, in hearts of men and women of all tongues.

Hitler, who dreams himself a conqueror, has found it and finds it smouldering if not flaming among every people whose lands he has invaded and despoiled; in every one of them. In recent days he has beheld widespread and angry popular demonstrations against a broken Yugoslavian government, intimidated into subjecting its people to his clanking chains.

That spirit will not, can not die. But Adolph Hitler can and will. And the impossible prison of steel in which he proposes to confine a world of rabbit-like robots, fit only to breed and be consumed, will fall in ruins long before it is completed.

For the spirit, which is of God, is more powerful than chains and iron bars and bombs and gauleiters. Millions of good men and women may be massacred. Others will rise to replace them. Others with the same quenchless love of liberty in their hearts. Others with the same reverence for the inviolable dignity of every human soul.—Omaha World-Herald.

FORD VS. PERKINS-CIO

People of this nation were rather surprised to see Henry Ford make concessions to CIO. Patriotism was no doubt the impelling reason for his decision to give in to these labor leaders.

In the first place, the Ford plant could be taken over by the government and operated during the period of emergency. This would mean complete domination by CIO, since Madame Perkins has a CIO organization.

In the second place, in spite of Perkins and CIO, Henry Ford knows that he can operate his vast business much more successfully than it could be operated out of Washington. In addition to this, when the war is over Ford will have a plant if he operates it himself, whereas he would likely have little left of his vast machines if operated out of Washington.

In the third place, rule by CIO and Perkins will come to an end one of these years following the war, and then the CIOers will be booted out and Ford will run his business independently, as he always has.—Canyon News.

FORD STRIKE SETTLEMENT

The strike that tied up Henry Ford's industrial empire has been settled through the application of ordinary, garden-variety common sense. It has been settled, as Gov. Van Waggoner put it, "because there was a will for peace."

Thus, except for the regret that this "will for peace" did not make itself felt before the Ford plants were closed down, the settlement becomes an example for industry and labor throughout the land.

To reach the armistice, the United Automobile Workers consented to the postponement of a national labor relations board hearing concerned with unfair labor practice charges unrelated to the strike.

The union demonstrated its good will by foregoing any influence which testimony at this hearing might have had on voters in the forthcoming N. L. R. B. election to determine its right to act as collective bargaining agent for the Ford workers. The company at the same time retreated from its refusal to allow the N. L. R. B. the use of its pay rolls to determine those eligible to mark ballots.

The election, of course, will determine whether or not Ford must, under the law, deal with the union. The immediate cause of the strike—the discharge of eight U. A. W. members—was settled by the reinstatement of five of them and the submission of the cases of the other three to arbitration. This, again, was plain common sense.

In view of the long Ford record of flat refusal to have anything to do with unions, even in the face of nine labor board orders and a supreme court verdict, it must be admitted that there is warrant for the assertion of R. J. Thomas, U. A. W. C. I. O. president, that the settlement is "a great victory" for the union.

However, we believe that the Ford Motor company also gained much, if only through the elimination of the disfavor in which it was held in many quarters because of its past attitude.

Of course, all this is only a preliminary settlement. The real test will come when—and if—the union wins the N. L. R. B. election and seeks to bargain with the company.

Here there is a fly in the ointment. Harry Bennett, chief of the Ford service department, several weeks ago conceded that the U. A. W. would win the election. He said the company would bargain because it was required to do so by law, but he added that the men would not get a job or title as a result. Henry Ford, in effect, confirmed this by saying that the company would never deal with a union.

The settlement is perhaps an augury that this last-ditch stand has been abandoned. The experience gained in the preliminary settlement should be a sufficient demonstration that common sense will be efficacious in the long-range settlement, too. If not, the "will for peace" will bear only bitter fruit.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The last date for paying truck licenses in Texas is April 28. This second extension was granted yesterday by the Texas Senate. Prior to that action, the deadline had been April 15. The first extension of time, from March 31 to April 15, was occasioned by the fact that the Texas truck load limit was raised and no rates set. The rate on pick-ups and small trucks, up to 6,000 pounds gross, are the same as last year. The new rate on large trucks is a little less than last year per 100 lbs.—Ochiltree County Herald.

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wylie, some 15 miles north and west of Friona, was totally destroyed and all its contents carried away by a severe wind that struck it about 4 o'clock Sunday morning, as were also all the out-buildings save one, a small one-room building.—Friona Star.

Fire completely destroyed the three-room residence and contents of Gharney Kent Friday night about 9 o'clock. One of the lowest-down stunts ever pulled by a human being was perpetrated last week in Fairview Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reheis had gone to a lot of expense and trouble to put out flowers on the lot where their daughter is buried. The next day they discovered that every plant had been pulled up and taken away. I thought that stealing pipe that was to be used for the cemetery water works last year was about seventeen degrees meaner than what Hitler is trying to do to the world, but stealing flowers certainly goes pipe stealing one better.—Memphis Democrat.

We notice that the legislative hoppers have been filled with bills concerning this and that, many of which are important to the State of Texas, but many others just so much chaff. What the voters want to know is this, Mr. Legislator: "Why in Hell don't you get busy on the main job that we sent you down to Austin to do?"—Booker News.

Home-Making Hints

By MISS VERA MARTIN Home Supervisor, F. S. A.

Are we well-fed? Here's the answer from Dr. Hazel K. Stiebeling, food economist of the Bureau of Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Doctor Stiebeling finds the answer in the analysis of a nationwide study of diets of families in the United States.

What are the reasons so many of us are ill-fed? Sometimes it's not having enough to eat. Sometimes, it's not having the right kinds of foods. Good management of a limited food budget and home-grown "protective" foods can often make the difference between fair or poor diets and diets that are good.

What are these important protective foods that every diet must have? They are the foods that are rich in the very food values that diets so often lack. They are the foods that protect against acute dietary diseases, that help to lift bodies from a low to a higher level of good health.

First foods to be called protective were milk and the green, leafy vegetables. They enrich diets in calcium, vitamin A, riboflavin and high-quality protein. Recent additions are the foods rich in the vitamins of the B group, especially the less highly refined flours and cereals. Still others are fruits and vegetables rich in vitamin C—oranges, grapefruit, tomatoes, raw cabbage, and others. And in some parts of the country lean cuts of meat, rich in the pellagra-preventive nicotinic acid, riboflavin, and high-quality protein, are considered protective foods.

Recent studies show that the nation needs to consume at least 10 to 20 per cent more milk—10 to 25 per cent more butter—and 25 to 70 per cent more tomatoes and citrus fruits, and about twice as much of the leafy, green and yellow vegetables.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Fishing Should Be Better
Fishing is expected to be better in most bodies of water in Texas, when the season opens May 1, than it has been for several seasons, according to reports from throughout the state received by the executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission.

More than 7,000,000 fingerlings were placed in the waters of the state by the game department last year and conditions have been excellent for their survival and growth, according to the chief aquatic biologist of the game department. Tests made with seines in several lakes show more fish than there have been for some years.

However, those same tests also disclose that more than half of the fish taken were under the size limit. Many, if allowed to grow until even June 1, would be keepers. As a result of the extremely early open season, while the adult fish are still spawning and many of last year's crop have yet to reach the legal size limit, many fish will be lost to Texas anglers. Thousands of fish which are undersized will die as the result of mishandling by persons catching them after the season opens.

Always wet your hands before taking a fish off the hook and always be sure to catch it by the tip of the lower jaw.

Ducks Survive Civilization

Stories of two ducks which had contact with civilization but which escaped have reached the game department office. One duck was seen waddling down the main street of Aransas Pass and was captured by two women. However, they decided they were unlawfully in possession of the fowl and released it. They found it had been slightly injured, which accounted for its inability to fly. When last seen the duck was waddling contentedly down the street.

The other duck, a big mallard drake, apparently mistook Highway 87 northwest of Dalhart for a river and landed on it with a bump which must have jarred his ancestors, as the editor of the Matador Tribune puts it. A light snow had fallen, but had not remained on the highway, although covering the countryside. The sheen of bright moisture probably made the road look like a river and the mallard dived onto it. However, he was able to crawl off into the weeds and disappeared.

San Antonio Anglers Step Out

The San Antonio Anglers club has set up a goal of 5,000 members by April 1, 1942, and under the direction of its new president, Dr. Hugh Warren, is moving out. One member, W. F. Rosenberg, recently turned in 111 new members in seven days.

The S. A. Anglers club, however, is not only going after members, but has an excellent and constructive program under way. It plans to organize a casting club in each of the nine junior highs in the Alamo City and has already formed one at Horace Mann. The club is concerning itself with keeping a supply of water in Medina Lake, with obtaining a large pool equipped for day and night casting practice and tournaments, with holding several tournaments and obtaining new laws which would improve fishing near San Antonio.

Ducks at $92 Each

Sterling City News-Record: Recently three men came down from a neighboring city and while driving around they collided with a local car. They then drove around in the northwest part of town and were seen throwing a sack out of the car. Upon investigation, it was found that the sack contained two dead wild ducks. The sheriff and state game warden reported the matter to Judge Carr and asked that the state of Texas be remunerated for its ducks. Judge Carr said $50 from each of the men, together with the trimmin's, aggregating about $184, ought to be fair enough, to which all parties agreed.

Wild duck the year round is very expensive eatin', if we do say it.

Cigs for Measuring Fish

You can use cigarettes with which to measure your fish if you are ever in doubt as to whether one is legal and you are out in the middle of the lake without a rule. The length of any standard cigarette is 2 3/4 inches and that of the new "longies" 3 1/4 inches. Lay as many cigarettes end to end beside the fish in doubt and add the total. It may save you a fine.

Neufchatel Cheese

Set one gallon of clean whole milk at a temperature of 78 degrees F. A two gallon shot-gun can is excellent for this purpose. Add 1-3 to 1-2 cup of starter or clabber milk free from gas holes or off flavors. Stir well into the milk. Add 2 or 3 drops of liquid rennet or approximately 1-4 to 1-3 junket tablet. Either must be mixed with 1-2 cup of cold water before adding to the milk.

Hold at a temperature of 78 degrees F. for 12 to 14 hours. At this time 1/2 inch of whey should show on top of the milk (whey usually forms just under cream line). Carefully dip the curd from the can with a cup or dipper and place in cloth drain. Allow to drain for several hours without disturbing. At this point, the curd should be worked to the center of the cloth with a spoon.

When all the free whey has drained off, fold the cloth over the cheese and press for several hours. This can be accomplished by placing the cheese between two boards and putting a 2 gallon bucket of water on the top board. Pressing time may be shortened by chilling the curd in cracked ice or placing in a refrigerator for several hours.

After the curd has been pressed, you should have 1 1/2 to 2 pounds of cheese. Work until smooth. Add salt to taste and mix well. The cheese is now ready to be placed in containers. Bowls, jelly glasses or paraffined cartons serve equally well for this purpose. Neufchatel cheese may be served plain; ground pimentos or a mixture of chopped olives and nuts are often added to give variety. Only enough is necessary to give a good flavor and appearance.

Processed Cottage Cheese

Take one gallon of separated milk and let it coagulate. Heat to temperature of 100 degrees F., stirring most of the time. Hold at this temperature for 30 minutes and continue stirring.

Drain off whey and squeeze drier than customary for ordinary cottage cheese. Take 1/4 cup butter, salt to taste (about 1/4 teaspoon), one teaspoon soda.

Mix the butter, salt and soda into the cottage cheese thoroughly and let stand for 2 hours. Add 1/4 cup sweet cream and put all into a double broiler and heat until a smooth consistency has been formed. Remove from fire and add 1/4 cup of sweet cream to which cheese coloring has been added (1/4 teaspoonful). Beat until smooth and turn into a buttered dish to mold.

This complete process should be finished within one day. This cheese is mild with very little flavor and needs an added flavor. Pimentos, caraway seed or a small amount of a strong flavored cheese melted and added, give a good flavor. If larger amounts of milk are used, increase added ingredients in proportion.

TO THE VOTERS OF WHEELER COUNTY—
CONCERNING THE BEER ELECTION, MAY 3

This movement was started in the South side of the county. Its outcome, wet or dry, will not affect the legal status of the North side, but every good citizen of this county will happily join hands in an effort to drive from our borders this fifth column of liquor interests. None ever claim that liquor has a moral uplift. All persons know that money spent for liquor will not buy bread, clothing, and other things necessary for life. Volunteer for the DRY DEFENSE and vote against the sale of liquor May 3, 1941. TAKE TIME TO VOTE DRY!

District Club Meet

"The Part of Future Homemakers in National Preparedness" was the theme of District VI of Area I Future Homemakers of Texas club meet, which was held in the high school gymnasium on Saturday, April 12, with the Wheeler chapter as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by Juanita Sherwood, president of Wheeler chapter, and roll was called by Gearldine Williams of Wheeler. The six chapters present were: Allison, Briscoe, Kelton, Mobeetie, Miami and the hostess group.

After roll call, a representative from each school spoke on how her club was trying to help in national preparedness. From the discussions it was learned that most of the clubs are making an effort to promote national preparedness. Teaching and stressing good nutrition, helping with lunchroom projects, caring for the sick, preparing informational news articles and radio programs, and starting garden contests were some of the things the various clubs reported.

Following this discussion, a short time was taken to teach the Area I club song, "Just Singing Along." At the business session which followed, Miami extended an invitation for the next district meet. This invitation was accepted and Mobeetie chosen as program chairman for that meeting.

In this session, Modene Wilson was elected to be a candidate from District VI for a state office for the year 1941-1942.

Dress Contest

Friday night, April 11, at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium the three homemaking classes presented their annual style show and dress contest.

Three types of dresses were modeled. The Homemaking I girls styled school dresses; the second year girls wore general wear dresses, and the third year class modeled afternoon and evening frocks.

In the first year class Virginia Lowrie placed first; Dorothy Downs, second, and Lucille Gordon, third. In the second year group, the places were: first, Glenda Schattenberg; second, Mary Ella Westmoreland, and third, Elda Gordon. Dorothea Lamb, Christine Tinney and Margie Mullins were first, second and third, respectively, in the Homemaking III class.

Virginia Lowrie, Glenda Schattenberg and Dorothea Lamb, first place winners, were awarded a trip to the State Future Homemakers of Texas rally, to be held in San Antonio from April 30 to May 3. Winners of second and third places were presented with pins for excellence.

Judges for the contest were Miss Virginia Sue Crowell of Mobeetie, Miss Frances Henslee of Allison and Miss Faye Wilson of Briscoe.

Track Winner

Bill Cosper, representing the Wheeler high school track team, entered the regional meet at Canyon Saturday, April 19. He ran the mile in five minutes, winning fourth place. First place winner ran it in 4:55. This makes Bill eligible to represent Wheeler at the State Interscholastic meet in Austin.

Seventh Grade Graduation

On next Friday evening, May 2, at 8 o'clock the seventh grade will present its annual graduation program.

The honor students, Charlene Green, valedictorian, and Elmer Toller, salutatorian, will have leading parts. The class will present a historical pageant depicting some highlights in the story of our nation. Each of the 55 graduates will have a part in the play and will be in appropriate costume.

The program in detail will be printed next week.

Open Air Band Concert

Saturday afternoon, despite unpleasant weather, the Wheeler high school band played a brief concert for a large audience assembled on the court house lawn. "I believe open-air concerts will prove popular with the public," comments Raymond Raillard, director, "and I hope we can keep the band together during the summer and offer many such concerts."

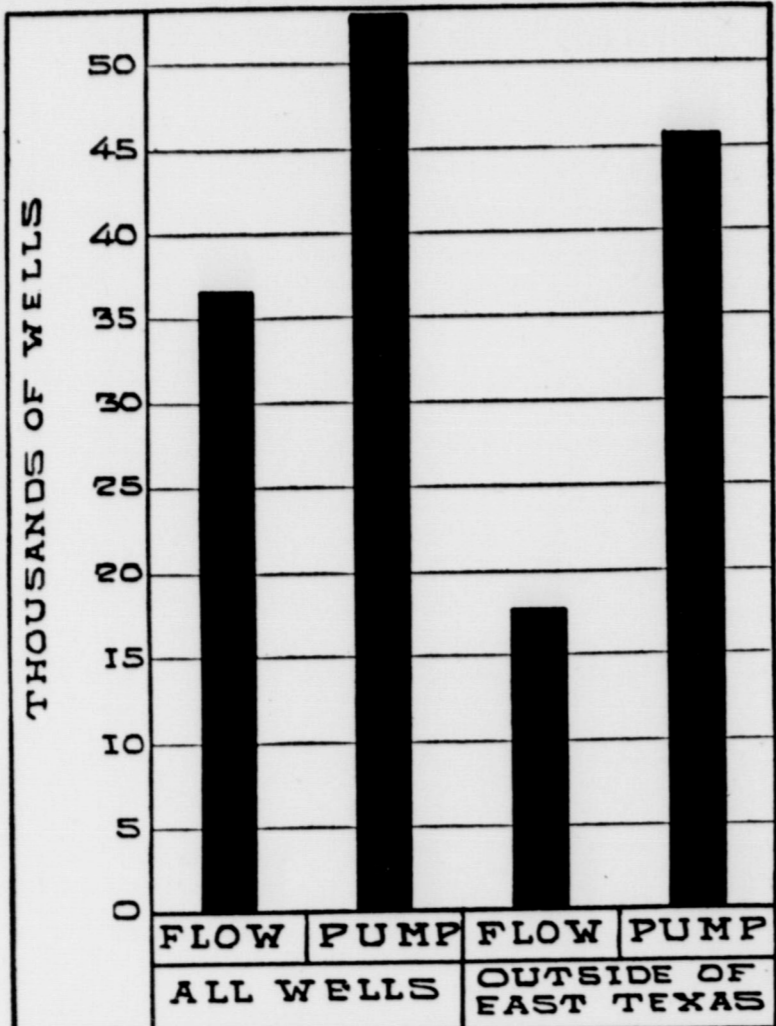

Because of the senior and junior annual trips the band will be unable to present a concert this Saturday.

Band News

Plans are under way to organize a summer band school for children of Wheeler and vicinity.

The summer band school offers beginners an opportunity of developing fundamentals without the added problem of how to sandwich in practice between their other duties and

Most Texas Wells Pumpers

—Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association

DALLAS.—Pumping wells are far in the majority among Texas oil wells, a survey just made by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association shows.

The pumpers, many of them making only a barrel or two of oil a day, constitute almost 60 per cent of all the oil wells in the state, the survey showed. Outside the East Texas field, the percentage is even higher, with 72 per cent of all producing wells on the pump. In some areas of the state as high as 98 per cent of all wells are pumpers.

In actual number, Texas pumping wells totaled 52,972 against 36,942 still flowing. Outside East Texas, pumpers numbered 45,836 compared with 17,844 which flowed. Figures are as of Jan. 1, 1940.

By entering a daily class under constant supervision, these fundamentals may be obtained without the cropping of any bad habits. Intermediate and advanced students may advance their knowledge of band literature and further develop playing technique. Above all, a summer music program of study serves as a means of developing an interesting avocation when spare time hangs heavily on the child's hands.

Briefly, tentative plans are as follows:

1. Length of term: Eight weeks (May 12 to July 11).
2. Meetings: Daily (Monday through Friday).
3. Classes: Each student attends two a day (one of individual instrument class instruction and one group rehearsal).
4. Instruction: Given on all reed, brass and percussion instruments.
5. Instruments: The rental plan is recommended (rent applying on purchase, ranging from $3.00 to $5.00 per month).
6. Fees: $5.00 for the eight weeks' instruction, payable in advance.

We heartily endorse the summer band school plan because of the great possibilities of developing latent talent in your child at a time when he has plenty of leisure. Now is the time to offer your boy or girl a chance of entering into an interesting and pleasurable field of experience.

Out of the approximately million Texans who get their entire living from the petroleum industry, 125,000 depend solely upon pumping wells, the survey shows.

"While the average pumping well in Texas produces about seven barrels of oil daily, further analysis shows that nearly 24,000 stripper wells produce an average of only 3.9 barrels a day," the association pointed out. "Some of these produce only half a barrel a day, but nevertheless are important to the small operator whose sole income comes from a few of them."

"These stripper wells are the backbone of the Texas oil industry since many communities and a majority of the people living in them depend upon such oil fields for their existence."

It's a Fact That—

Elsie was grieved when she heard over the radio that Elsie the Cow had died. The seniors are actually going to Carlsbad Friday. The F. F. A. boys had a good crowd at the program Monday night. The juniors were nervous Tuesday. Could it have been the play? Marie was missed at school last Friday. There is a new typewriter in the typing room.

That Jackie has been passing kisses around to the girls—only they were in the form of candy. That Donald Hunt has been trying to bribe Mrs. Brown to give him a good grade by giving her candy. That Beatrice wrote a 10-page theme in history. Carroll Adams read 30 pages of English. The seniors were really "stingy" this week—maybe they were trying to save enough money for the Carlsbad trip.

Carroll Pettit always has rosy cheeks—the girls really envy him. The juniors really had an entertaining play. Several members of the sophomore English class would like to buy some "poetic license" so that they could get by with grammatical errors.

Sports Day for Girls to Be Held at Canyon

High school girls from all parts of the Panhandle will come to West Texas State college on Saturday, May 10, for a Sports Day program.

Games and demonstrations will be conducted throughout the day to achieve a uniformity of rules and procedures which will make later contests possible, probably under the auspices of the Interscholastic League. The program is one suggested by a league committee which is studying the project.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m., to be followed at 10 a. m. by an assembly at which the day's schedule will be explained. The sports program will follow. Organized games supervised by the department of physical education for women will include basketball, baseball and volleyball. Kickpin ball and dodge ball will be played by other groups. In the women's gym, games will include table tennis, ping pong, horseshoes and shuffleboard. Rhythms will include new shoes and the schottische in dance sessions.

Sack lunches brought by the participants will be eaten at noon and the college cafeteria will serve those who wish regular lunches. Organized and other games will be played in the afternoon. Winners will be recognized at 4:30 p. m.

Lucille Jameson of Amarillo, a student specializing in women's physical education, will be general chairman of Sports Day. Other students will act as scorers, hostesses and guides.

Games will be started by teams made up immediately after registration, and contests will continue briskly throughout the day. Each visitor will have an opportunity to participate in several kinds of games.

Care and Culture of Roses

Paper prepared by Mrs. Floyd Pennington and read before the Home Demonstration Club by Mrs. O. O. Sandifer

Selection of Site for Rose Garden—A bed free from surface roots such as elm, poplar, willows and maples should be selected. The beds should be protected as much as possible from winds, but a sunny location is necessary.

Preparation of Soil—Most highly recommended for this area is to excavate a trench to the depth of 18 inches; fill the lower half with a mixture of well rotted cow manure over which the roses will be planted. Individual hills for rose plants should be located over this trench.

Selection of the Rose Plants—The American Association of Nurserymen has established a standard of grading rose plants: No. 1, three or more strong canes 18 inches and up; No. 1 1/2, two or more strong canes 14 inches and up; No. 2, two or more strong canes 12 inches and up; No. 3 (or cuts), one or more canes 8 inches long.

Grade "A" or "prime," are misnomers and a typical statement of "two-year-old bushes" means exactly what it says. Be sure to buy your plants by Grade 1, 1 1/2, 2 or 3.

Planting the Roses—First, prepare individual hills about 18 inches apart for hybrid teas with a small mound of dirt for the crown of the plant (the top of the crown about level with the ground) to rest upon so that the roots fall downward and outward.

Vitamin B in the soaking water is certainly recommended for spring planting. After the roses have soaked about one hour, dip the roots in thin mud, carry them to the garden and plant. When the rose is in place and the hole partly filled, the soil should be well tamped around the roots.

Fall planting is by far the best here; for Texas grown roses, a preferred period is some time between Nov. 15 and Jan. 1. One might watch the weather reports around Tyler and buy roses when they are naturally dormant.

It is essential that roses in our Panhandle be given winter protection. The rose garden should be freed of dead and diseased wood and it is well to apply a little tree paint over freshly pruned wood when putting the roses to bed.

The hilling of soil around the plant is the most common type of winter protection here. The roses should receive a dormant spray of Bordeaux mixture or lime sulphur before the dirt is pulled around the plant. It is most helpful to sprinkle the soil thoroughly with flowers of sulphur. This aids materially in controlling diseases of roses and also acidulates the soil.

Custom Hatching

Ample facilities and high grade equipment enable us to give our custom-hatching patrons first class service, regardless of large or small orders. We are prepared to custom hatch both chicken and turkey eggs. Bring in either kind and let us hatch them in our modern plant.

FRESH FEEDS

We manufacture feeds right here in our own plant, as the demand requires, thus insuring freshness and maximum quality. We blend our concentrates, add grain and make up Lawrence's Best Feeds according to tested formulas correctly proportioned to do that for which each particular feed is recommended.

worked into the soil, will insure better blooms in the spring.

The hill of dirt for winter protection should be 6 or 8 inches above the crown (the crown is the point at which the upper part of the plant is grafted on the root stock and should be at ground level).

Irrigation of roses in the winter time is important to avoid damage from hard freezes, but in late winter and early spring roses should not be watered. Allowing them to dry out will help hold back their growth in the spring.

When all danger of killing frost and freezes are past, then, and not until then, the winter protection should be removed. This protection should be removed gradually to allow the wood to harden. After the winter protection is removed, the plants should be pruned.

Concerning the control of diseases, it is most important always that diseased leaves and stems be removed promptly and destroyed by burning. Any time a root disease is discovered, the plant should be removed and burned and the soil should be treated with Bordeaux mixture.

A general spray consisting of 6 gallons of water, 3 cups of Bordeaux mixture, 1 cup Black Leaf 40 and 1/2 cup arsenate of lead is the most effective for a general spray to control both plants and diseases.

I believe the person with a small rose garden will derive more pleasure from cut blooms if she will select one choice variety, of course if she is more of a gardener and less of a decorator, she will want to experiment with additional varieties.

Roses which do well here in this part of the country are: White—Kaiserin, Augustus Victorian and McGredy's Ivory. Pink—Radiance (climber preferred), Mrs. Charles Bell, Los Angeles, Willowmere, Editor McFarland, Dainty Bess, Briarcliff, Jenetta Heller, Paul Neyron and Mrs. Henry Morse. Red—Etoile de Holland, Francis Scott Key, Red Radiance, Donald Prior, E. G. Hill and David O. Dodd, Yellow—Mrs. E. P. Thom, Soeur Therese, Luxembourg, Golden Dawn, McGredy's Sunset and Joanna Hill. Orange—Mme. Cochet, two-toned President Hoover, Edith Nellie, Perkins Talisman, Condessa de Sastago and Betty Uprichard.

Trail of the Silver Spurs

In this western melodrama the days of the old west and gold rushes are revived again in "The Trail of the Silver Spurs," the latest of the Rangebuster series. Herein the three Rangebusters, "Crash," "Dusty" and "Alibi," are commissioned by the U. S. government to track down a swindler known as the "Jingler," so called because of his "jingling" spurs. The maneuvers of these characters afford plenty of entertainment. And don't forget that Saturday night you have a chance at the "Silver Quiz." It's fun; it might be profitable.

Preview, Sunday and Monday

Honeymoon for Three The adventures of a popular novelist, whose women fans fling themselves at him without regard for the consequences, are portrayed in "Honeymoon for Three." A comedy of high class entertainment, tops in the cast, are Ann Sheridan and George Brent, supported by such characters as Charlie Ruggles, Jane Wyman and Walter Catlett. It must be good! There are some embarrassing situations but it all works out well in the end.

Wednesday and Thursday The Hardy Family

And now here is the best! The newest in The Hardy Family series, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary." It is one of the most entertaining of all The Hardy Family pictures—experiences that will strike home to the hearts of young and old alike. The members of this household pass two milestones—Andy graduates from high school, and the time-worn jalopy passes in favor of a smart new coupe. Some new characters are introduced—Kathryn Grayson, Andy's secretary, who has a wonderful soprano voice. Her brother is Todd Karns and the father of the two is Ian Hunter. Now doesn't this sound exciting? Don't miss it on Wednesday night for something might happen that would keep you away on Thursday.

$6.71 MORE COTTON PER ACRE! — convinced these growers that CERESAN PAYS An average increase of $6.71 an acre amply repaid a group of cotton growers who planted CERESAN-treated seed in several years tests in 5 states! CERESAN reduces seed rotting and seed-shin, makes stands more uniform, generally increases yields. Oklahoma A. & M. Experiment Station Circular 89 says, "Many Oklahoma and Texas cotton growers have already adopted the practice of seed dusting... it is a common experience to find the better quality cotton seed in the market under a 'Ceresan' label." Ben Trout, Wheeler." In the April 10 issue, after the above had ran only ONE TIME, appeared this Wantad—"NOTICE—No more Red-top cane seed; have sold out. Ben Trout, Wheeler." Additional proof of Times Wantads effectiveness will be cheerfully supplied interested inquirers. Why don't you try this economy sales method when you want to sell or buy something? The suggestion accompanying proofs of advertisements sent out not long ago by a large implement concern is so appropriate to the occasion that it is used in this advertisement regarding advertising. The suggestion read as follows: "We believe that it is the duty of every manufacturer to advertise his goods and to create an active general demand for them. However, we also believe that it is the duty of the retail merchant to ADVERTISE LOCALLY in an effort to center attention upon his store as community headquarters for the products advertised generally by the manufacturer." The foregoing is not the words of someone selling advertising, but is from a manufacturer of farm machinery and is the result of study by experts who have thoroughly examined the subject before reaching a conclusion. Unfortunately, the manufacturers of many lines of merchandise advertise little or none at all. In such instances, the need for advertising by the retail merchant is even greater. The Times has something to increase sales volume for every merchant in its territory, and only asks the opportunity to show results. The Wheeler Times The County Seat Newspaper Phone 35 Wheeler

Record Share of New Tax to Oil Industry

Mid-Continent Executive Declares Burden Especially Heavy on Panhandle Production

Over four-fifths of all new taxes on Texas industries would be placed upon the petroleum industry by the proposed senate omnibus tax bill, George C. Gibbons, executive vice president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, told the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners association annual meeting at Amarillo recently. The taxes would be particularly hard upon Panhandle oil and gas producers, he said, because of their high production costs and lower-than-average prices for their crude.

"Out of the total of $23,686,000 which the proposed tax bill probably would raise, $9,750,000 would come from sales taxes paid by Texas consumers," Gibbons said. "That leaves new taxes on Texas industries amounting to $13,936,000. And $11,240,000 of this, or practically 81 per cent, would come from the petroleum industry alone. Is it fair that petroleum or any other one industry be singled out to bear such a staggering part of the load?"

Even if the entire amount of the bill would raise, including consumer taxes, were counted, the petroleum industry would pay 47 1/2 per cent, Gibbons declared.

"The proposed increase in oil's gross production tax alone would be a raise of 45 1/2 per cent over the present tax," he added. "What if the farmers of Texas were forced to shoulder a 45 1/2 per cent tax increase? Or the ranchers called upon to pay a 45 1/2 per cent additional burden? Or the merchants of our state? How long do you think the people of Texas would stand for such an added load upon our farmers or ranchers or merchants?"

"Yet the Texas petroleum industry contributes almost as much to the income of the people of our state as its farms and ranches combined, and employs far more Texans and pays them much more in wages than all retail and wholesale stores combined."

Gibbons paid high tribute to the work of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners association for its work in reducing the ad valorem taxes paid by Panhandle operators. The Texas petroleum industry is now spending $50,000,000 a year in the Panhandle, with $19,000,000 going to Panhandle workers and $8,000,000 to Panhandle ranchers and farmers for leases and royalty.

Defense Savings Bond Issue Just Announced

Three Series Provide Patriotic Investment Opportunities to Large and Small Buyers

Frank Scofield, state administrator for the National Defense Savings staff, announces an issue of defense savings bonds to help finance the nation's preparedness program. Three series, designed to accommodate all classes of patriotic investors, are described in detail as follows:

The defense savings bond will be offered for 75 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 10 years. Thus, a defense savings bond bought in May 1941, for $18.75 will be redeemable in May 1951, for $25.00. This is an increase of 33 1/3 per cent, equal to an interest return of 2.9 per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually. This bond is not transferable, will not fluctuate in value and may be redeemed at any time before maturity at values printed on its face.

Intended chiefly for people of small income, ownership is restricted to individuals in their own right, with a limit upon holdings of $5,000 maturity value of bonds issued in any one calendar year. Denominations are $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. The defense savings bond will replace the present "baby bond" series and will be available to all subscribers under the regular purchase plan familiar to many thousands of small investors.

The new Series F savings bond, intended for larger investors, for trustees, and for reserve funds, is offered for 74 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 12 years. It can be held not only by individuals, but by trustees, associations, pension funds and corporations, with a limit of $50,000 cost price issued in any one calendar year, alone or in combination with Series G. If held to maturity, the yield approximates 2.53 per cent a year. The Series F bond is not transferable, and may be redeemed on 30 days' notice after six months from date of issue in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on its face. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

To meet demand for a current income bond, the new Series G savings bond, to be issued at par, bears interest during its 12-year term at 2 1/2 per cent, paid semi-annually by treasury check. Intended for both small and large investors, the Series G bond is not transferable, and can be registered like Series F in the name of individuals, associations and corporations, up to a total of $50,000 cost price issued in any one year, alone or in combination with Series F. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Series G Bonds will be redeemable before maturity on 30 days' notice after six months from date of issue at fixed redemption values printed on their face. In fixing these values, inducement is given to holders to retain their bonds until final maturity.

Defense savings bonds will be on sale May 1, 1941, at 16,000 post offices, at federal reserve banks and at the United States treasury. Series F and G savings bonds may be obtained on application to federal reserve banks or to the treasury. Arrangements are now being made through which it is expected that orders for bonds of all three series will be accepted at commercial and savings banks generally.

CERTAIN CONVICTIONS NO BAR TO MILITARY SERVICE

A man convicted of a felony, but who receives a suspended sentence, is still eligible for induction into the military service if otherwise subject to the Selective Service act, it was announced at State Headquarters today.

General J. Watt Page, state director, pointed out that this rule applies in those cases in which the suspended sentence is still pending, as well as in those cases in which the suspended sentence has been set aside.

"All Texas Selective service boards have today been instructed to check their classification records, and to reclassify and induct in the order of their order numbers all registrants heretofore placed in Class IV-F as felons who come within the purview of this ruling." General Page said.
