Red Cross Roll Call Period Draws Near

Membership Campaign Starts Next Tuesday, Nov. 11—Has Place in National Defense

America's national defense efforts require a great expansion of all American Red Cross activities. C. J. Meek, roll call chairman of the Wheeler Red Cross Chapter, declared today in urging "all-out" support of the greatest membership roll call in Red Cross history, to be held from Nov. 11 to 27.

Meek said the Wheeler chapter has a definite part in the national appeal. "We must go over the top in this roll call," he added, "because the continuance of the national Red Cross program depends upon the success of the local chapters in appealing for members."

Funds realized during the roll call period, he pointed out, will be used to enable the American Red Cross and its chapters to carry on its expanded services to the army and navy and to widen its national defense program for the civilian population.

The Red Cross has more than doubled the number of field directors and medical workers in its employ stationed at army and navy posts and hospitals. Red Cross staffs are at 185 stations and hospitals covering 900 points of military and naval service. Approximately 200 field directors and assistants are dealing with the able-bodied personnel of the army and navy, while 140 workers, assigned to army and navy hospitals, render medical, social service and communication service for convalescent patients as well as plan medically approved recreation.

To facilitate these within-camp activities, Meek said the Red Cross has under way a $1,250,000 construction program to erect Red Cross administration buildings at each of 62 army camps. These buildings contain offices, consultation rooms, living quarters for the Red Cross staff, and a reception room and lecture room for classes in Red Cross first aid and home nursing courses. "It is essential for the complete functioning of this vital program that local chapters strengthen their home service departments," Meek said. "These departments, with the field directors at the camps and hospitals, form the liaison between the military and civilian population which is the duty of the American Red Cross to

Buster Johnson Dies Following Operation

Buster Johnson, 41, passed away Monday morning in a Dallas hospital, where he had been the past three weeks following an operation. He had been in ill health for several years and everything possible was done to help him regain his health but to no avail.

Orville Buster Johnson was born Jan. 24, 1900, and died Nov. 3, 1941, at the age of 41 years, nine months and 10 days.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Naomi, and two sons, Jim and Lloyd; his mother, Mrs. R. O. Johnson, Kelton. Also six sisters, Mrs. Arthur Whitener, Wheeler; Mrs. J. D. Rutherford, Kelton; Mrs. Lige Cooper, Hardesty, Okla.; Mrs. W. G. Murchison, Pittsburg, Calif.; Mrs. Jay Robertson, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. L. H. Tucker, Kelton, and four brothers, Albert C. Johnson, Kelton; W. H. Johnson and J. A. Johnson, Friona, and W. L. Johnson, Springdale, Ark., and a number of other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church in Kelton by Rev. Wayne Cook, pastor of the Wheeler Methodist church, assisted by Rev. L. T. Davis, Kelton.

Flower attendants were Misses Novella Whitener, Rena Johnson, Louise Whitener, Mary Emma Johnson and Mrs. Gordon Whitener and Mrs. Herman Whitener.

Pallbearers were Pete Reeves, Aubrey Pond, John Lister, Ton Price and Buck Henderson.

Interment was in the Kelton cemetery, with Hunt Funeral Home in charge.

WHEELER FOLK TO FUNERAL OF RELATIVE LAST SUNDAY

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Wood and his daughters, Mrs. Gordon Stiles, Wheeler, and Mrs. Joe K. Clarke, Lefors, motored Sunday to Hereford to attend the funeral of Wesley Higgins, 33, who died Saturday.

He is survived by the widow and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Higgins, and a number of other relatives.

The deceased was a nephew of Rev. Wood.

PEACE AND HARMONY FULLY RESTORED

That peace and harmony between The Times and Lewis Nordyke, Sunday morning Exchange Editor over KGNC, Amarillo, has been completely restored is evident from the following message received this week from the verbose gentleman:

"The exchange of pleasantries between The Times and the little radio program on Sunday mornings has been the source of a mighty lot of pleasure," writes Nordyke. "I didn't have to read your mail," he continues, "to know about The Times display window; I read about it in the paper each week. Don't think I've missed it a single time. My suggestion that you visit with me on the air has been in dead earnest. I'd like for you to tell us about the window and the part it plays in the community."

And Nordyke has actually invited The Times editor to appear on his program at a date to be announced later. And listen, some of you cynics, don't go blabbing around that an invitation was what this scribe was fishing for all the time—for it wasn't! Or, let me see now, was it?

Local Stores Closing at 11 Armistice Day

Wheeler retail stores in all lines who can do so without undue inconvenience to the public, will close almost 100 per cent at 11 o'clock next Tuesday, Nov. 11, for the remainder of the day. The closing is in deference to Armistice Day.

Those signifying their intention to close are: Puckett's Grocery, W. E. Pennington & Son, Russ Dry Goods, Citizens State Bank, Panhandle Power & Light Co., Clay Food Store, Ernest Lee Hardware, J. P. Green & Sons, Nash Appliance & Supply Co., R. & F. Store, M. McIlhenny's, City Barber Shop, Wheeler Poultry & Egg, Nations Barber Shop, Wheeler County Produce, City Bakery, Crescent Cleaners, Adams Grocery.

Drug stores, cafes and gas stations, because of the nature of their services, cannot close without hardship to potential customers.

Wheeler Man, Borger Lady Married Oct. 12

Mrs. Winnie Whitley, Borger, and H. E. Young, sr., Wheeler, were united in marriage Sunday, Oct. 12, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jewel Winston, in Amarillo.

Mr. Young has been furnishing his home here and Mrs. Young will come Sunday to take up her residence in Wheeler.

WHEELER LADY TO FUNERAL OF NEPHEW IN NEW MEXICO

Mrs. H. M. Wiley was called Monday to Portales, N. Mex., to attend funeral services for a nephew, John Russell, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, who died Sunday night from injuries received about 9 o'clock that evening. Young Russell was driving home from a nearby ranch, where he was employed, when his machine collided on the highway with a load of water well equipment which, it is reported, carried no warning lights.

He leaves a widow and five children.

Agricultural Defense Plan Sheet Important

Rated Alongside Munitions of War in National Defense Work—Farmers Don't Strike

"Goals for the different agricultural commodities necessary to national defense were enumerated in recent news releases," states County Agent Jake Tarter in a communication addressed to The Times. "Execution of the defense plan sheet," he continues, "is one of the most important phases of agricultural planning in years, especially in connection with a defense program."

It is a matter of record, Tarter points out, that farmers (or agriculture) have never gone on strike, but have always produced as and when necessary. Nor is it believed they will strike in the present crisis, but will sign the defense plan sheet and conform to its provisions.

Signing up should be done with the knowledge that they are cooperating with other agencies and industries in the production of their commodities, which are as vital as guns, ships or other defense material, since a nation must be fed and clothed to maintain itself and meet any contingency that may arise.

Wheeler Mustangs to McLean Friday Night

Local Gridsters Underdog in Fray with Tigers—Shamrock Irish Here Following Friday

The Wheeler Mustangs will go into the game Friday night at McLean as the underdog, but will be trying every minute to upset the Tigers who, by reason of their loss to the Lefors Pirates, are tied for second place with the Shamrock Irish and Wellington Rockets.

The McLean team is a powerful machine, boasting several lettermen in its line-up, plus a large number of reserves. The Tigers were among the 3-A conference leaders until the Pirates squad mowed 'em down at Lefors week before last by a 9-6 score. It will be remembered that the Mustangs held the Pirates to a 32-12 score in a game here Oct. 10.

The McLean Tigers had been undefeated in conference play this year, overpowering the Lakeview Eagles 35-0, the Memphis Cyclone 19-0 and the Wellington Rockets 19-3, until the Pirates downed them at Lefors.

The Wheeler squad has been unsuccessful in conference engagements so far this season, but with each succeeding encounter the Mustangs have displayed marked improvement, and hopes are entertained that they will give a good account of themselves in Friday night's contest.

Having an open date, the team enjoyed a rest last week, and will be recovered from minor injuries and bruises, rarin' to meet the Tigers—and if possible—beat them.

Shamrock Here Next Week

High point of the current football season locally will be reached Friday night, Nov. 14, when the Mustangs will be hosts to the Shamrock Irish in the last home game for Wheeler.

Previous records and performances count but little in this annual battle royal, with every player giving an all-out account of himself in what always proves to be the outstanding game of the region. While the Shamrock team is in a three-way tie for second place and Wheeler is at the bottom of the conference group at this time, their relative positions will not mean much when they glower at each other here next Friday night at 7:30 p. m.

A young lady, to be chosen from the student body of Wheeler high school, will receive the honorary title of Football Queen in a coronation ceremony to be staged between the halves. Candidates from the four classes are: Seniors, Maurine Hunt; juniors, Billie Ruth Ring; sophomores, Sammie May, and freshmen, Ada Dell Good.

The successful candidate will be escorted to the place of honor by the Mustangs co-captains, Pendleton and Reeves, while the crown will be placed upon her head by the captain of the Shamrock team.

Wheeler Colts Defeat Wellington Jr. High 7-6

The Wheeler Colts, junior high squad, defeated the Wellington juniors Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29, at Wellington in the first game played by the small Horses this season. The Wellington team had met three opponents before engaging the Colts. The two teams will meet in a return game here Thursday afternoon, Nov. 13, at 2:30.

Members of the Colts making the trip were Gene Hall, John Noah, Odous Hecoker, Garland Weeks, Lewis Craig, Warren Schattenberg, Carroll Pettit, Junior, Pendleton, Raymond Barnes, Don Farmer, Devon Brigman, Henry Risner, Chester Anglin, Junior Ahler and Tommy Ford.

Gordon Phillips, Wheeler football coach, is proud of his little charges who made such a good showing in their first game.

Agricultural Sign-Up Dates are Announced

Early this week, James A. Harris, AAA administrative officer, announced a schedule of dates and places for Wheeler county farmers to make application for conservation payment and sign up the farm plan sheets, which are now ready.

Dates and places arranged for the best convenience possible to those concerned are as follows:

Nov. 6-7—Shamrock (Clark, Leake, McDonald, Bailey districts).

Nov. 8-10—Wheeler (Neeley, Hardesty, Scribner districts).

Nov. 11-12—Twitty (Davis, Baker districts).

Nov. 13-14—Briscoe (McCoy, Davis, Laman districts).

Harris also requests each farmer to supply his office with the following production data for 1941: Gallons milk produced, number of hogs sold or slaughtered, eggs (dozens) sold and consumed, beef cattle sold.

Silo Last Resort in Saving Damaged Feed

County Agent Tarter Recommends Making Silage of Mouldy, Rain-Soaked Bundles

"The last resort in saving bundle feed damaged by excessive moisture to a point where it is mouldy and threatens to rot is to make silage of it," recommends County Agent Jake Tarter.

This advice comes from the county agent in answer to inquiries by many Wheeler county farmers who have been seeking some method of salvaging bundle forage crops subjected to the continued rainy weather of recent weeks. Large quantities of feed, cut just before the rainy period started, has damaged badly as it lay on the ground too wet to shock, or even after it was shocked.

"Mouldy or damaged bundles," declares Tarter, "will make good silage if put in the silo before they dry out. If permitted to dry, more or less souring results. If the feed sours, stock will not eat it; or if they do, the acids will injure their teeth. Silage can also be too wet," continued the county agent.

"It should be kept in mind that if silage is not cut when put in the silo, it must be cut when taken out. Cutting is much easier done during the filling process," Tarter concluded.

Some hints to follow in silo filling when mouldy or spoiled, or even good materials are used, include:

Place water hose near opening of silage cutter and fan will draw the liquid into the cutter, giving a uniform mixture of water and silage. Spoiled or mouldy bundles need water added, even if they are wet, in order to get uniform moisture.

Be sure silage is well packed as silo is being filled.

Fill silo its full length.

Don't wait until wet, mouldy or damaged bundles dry out.

If good or fresh bundles are used, very little water is required.

It is practical to partly fill a silo and wait a few days before finishing the job, but all silage should be well packed as it is put in.

New Drivers License Schedule Is Released

Complete reorganization of drivers license schedules throughout the state, effective Nov. 1, was announced last week by Homer Garrison, state police director.

The new schedules, making drivers license examiners much more accessible to the public, are the result of an expansion program under the new drivers license law which provided for the 62 new drivers license examiners who graduated from training school a week ago Saturday and began work the following Wednesday.

In the new set-up numerous schedules, affording the maximum convenience, are provided. Wheeler is in the Pampa schedule, which is as follows:

Monday—Pampa, 8 to 5.

Tuesday—Canadian, 9 to 12; Wheeler, 2 to 5.

Wednesday—Pampa, 8 to 5.

Thursday—Borger, 8:30 to 4:30.

Friday—Pampa, 8 to 5.

Saturday—Shamrock, 8:30 to 12:30; Miami, 2 to 4:30.

WHEELER GIRL IS MEMBER NATIONAL TEACHERS GROUP

Miss Ruth Faust, senior arts and sciences student at Texas Technological college, Lubbock, recently became a member of the Future Teachers of America, national professional organization.

Thirty-two new members were initiated into the organization at a service held in the home of Dr. Lewis B. Cooper, associate professor of education and psychology.

Miss Faust is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Faust, living east of Wheeler.

DEFENSE TRAINING CENTER FOR OUT-OF-SCHOOL YOUTHS IS FORMED HERE

Young Men Between Ages of 17 and 26 May Take Choice of Four Different Courses

W. C. Zirkle, vocational agriculture teacher in the Wheeler schools, announces the formation here of a defense training center, in which boys between the ages of 17 and 26, not attending school, may enroll for free instruction in their choice of four different courses: mechanics, electricity, carpentry or metal work. Anyone desiring to enroll is requested to contact Zirkle as quickly as possible.

The federal government, as a defense training move, is supplying $700 worth of equipment and paying

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO BE ON THE AIR

How the 239 Red Cross chapters in Texas, with many years of peacetime experience, are adapting their services to fulfill civilian defense needs will be dramatized in a special half-hour radio program at 7:45 o'clock Sunday night, Nov. 9, to be broadcast by the 16 stations affiliated with the Texas state network, it was announced today by Dr. H. E. Nicholson, chairman of the Wheeler Chapter.

Scheduled for Nov. 16 by the six stations affiliated with the Lone Star chain will be a 15-minute dramatization of adaptation of Red Cross services to the national defense program.

Draftees from County Will Go to Fort Sill

Beginning Dec. 1, Wheeler county draftees under the Selective Service program will be sent to the Fort Sill, Okla., reception center for induction, instead of Fort Bliss, as heretofore. This is according to C. R. Weatherly, chief clerk of the county selective service board with offices in the court house here. Men from the north half of Texas will be sent to Fort Sill until further notice, Weatherly said.

One man has been called for December, it was learned.

Under the new advance examination plan, potential 1-A men are called for physical examination at Lubbock from 20 to 25 days previous to probable induction. All registrants classed as 1-A by the local board, and who pass the medical examination here and at Lubbock will be subject to induction as needed.

Local Man's Father Dies at San Angelo

T. H. Forrester, 86, a native of Tennessee, passed away Sunday, Nov. 2, at his home in San Angelo, where he had resided for the past 35 years and was known as "Uncle Tom" by his younger friends and was loved by all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife and one son, R. H. Forrester, Wheeler; one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Roberts, San Angelo, and a brother George Forrester, Whitney; also a granddaughter, Mrs. J. D. Todd, and daughter, Jane, Corpus Christi.

All the relatives attended the last rites on Monday afternoon.

Interment was made in the Belvidere Memorial cemetery in San Angelo.

Wheeler Man Is Head County School Group

Stina Cain, principal of the Wheeler grade school, was elected president of the Wheeler County Principals' and Superintendents' association at a meeting of that organization in Mobeetie Thursday night of last week.

It was the first meeting of the year, hence the election, in which Cain succeeds Jesse J. Dyer, formerly of Twitty and now teaching at Shamrock. John Walker of Shamrock succeeds Cain as secretary of the association.

Because of bad weather, several members were unable to attend, but a good meeting was enjoyed by the 16 present. A delicious chicken dinner was served by the Mobeetie homemaking classes.

The next meeting will be held at the Wheeler home economics cottage on Nov. 25, starting at 7 o'clock.

PANHANDLE SERV. & STORAGE TO HAVE OPENING SATURDAY

"Free, free, something of value to every visitor Saturday, Nov. 8," says Paul Brannon in announcing formal opening that day of the Panhandle Service & Storage recently established in the Cam Austin building by Brannon and Curtis Pond.

Individuals showing marked ability at the conclusion of the course are to be awarded a certificate and will be in line for promotion into defense jobs. Others may use their training as the basis for a vocation.

Only a limited number can be accommodated, therefore immediate application for enrollment is essential in order to benefit from this exceptional opportunity.

Cessation of Rain Break for Farmers

Clear and Cooler Weather Permits Activity in Fields—Frost Checks Crop Growth

Cessation of rain throughout Wheeler county during the week end brought encouragement to farmers and smiles to their faces as crop harvesting got under way in earnest during the past few days. All available help has found plenty to do in the fields, with a cotton crop to save and a bumper feed crop to be stored away.

Sunday was mostly fair, with high clouds in late afternoon, succeeded by considerably cooler weather that night and Monday, which opened with hazy, threatening conditions that gave way to sunshine. Wednesday night brought a heavy white

294 BALES GINNED HERE
According to reports obtained from managers of the two local gins, a total of 294 bales had been ginned in Wheeler up to noon today. Several loads were waiting in line at both places at that time, and they will run late tonight in an effort to keep up.

frost which has checked crop growth and tends to hasten maturity. Several farmers have expressed pleasure at the sharp north winds which drove away the rain, and with the frost, which has helped to mature crops.

Full co-operation has been practiced by various agencies to facilitate harvest work. Pursuant to plans announced last week, the local schools have been taking up a half hour earlier in the morning and dismissing at 12:30 to permit the children to pull cotton without completely missing school or being counted absent. Many of them, it is said, would have been out of school entirely but for this plan.

Cotton has been gathered in rapidly during the past few days. Both the Wheeler gins, as well as those in surrounding communities, have been running long hours to keep up with the fleecy flood pouring onto their loading docks.

Production of feedstuff this year in Wheeler county, if it can all be saved and used to the best advantage, should materially help the defense program as well as those who produce it.

Although damage to an extent hard to estimate resulted to feedstuff from the continued rain, much of the apparent loss has been offset by storing huge quantities of bundles and fodder in silos. Silage already put up runs into thousands of tons. A few instances cited by Jake Tarter, county agent, will indicate the probable amount. Among these are F. A. Mooney, 240 tons; Aubrey Pond, 40 tons; John Baird, 110 tons; A. J. Laycock, 14,000 tons and the Bullington Ranch, 18,000 tons.

Unsettled conditions developing this afternoon, with prospects of more rain (or snow), has brought uneasiness to those who have been hoping for several weeks of fair weather that would permit saving a good crop after it is made and ready to harvest.

Lions Club to Again Head Holiday Events

During the business session at Tuesday's Lions club luncheon, President Homer Moss appointed C. G. Miller, Raymon Holt and Fred Ashley as a committee to supervise the Christmas lights decorations and arrange for further extensions of lights on a portion of the street running west from the southwest corner of the square.

This committee was also authorized to plan pre-holiday events, such as a poultry throw and Santa Claus visit with treats for all the little folks.

Dr. H. E. Nicholson and J. L. Gilmore were named to represent the club in the Red Cross roll call campaign. Dr. Nicholson made a brief talk on the Red Cross.

For entertainment, Miss Arlene Reynolds sang "God Bless America," accompanied at the piano by Miss Maurine Hunt.

BROTHER OF WHEELER MAN DIES AT RYAN, OKLAHOMA

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphey were called to Ryan, Okla., Monday to attend funeral services of his brother, Add Murphey, 63, who died Nov. 3, following a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Murphey of Texico, N. Mex., came and took his parents to Ryan, where they all attended the last rites Tuesday afternoon, returning to Wheeler that night.

Alfred Murphey and wife returned home Wednesday.

PRIORITIES AND SERVICE

There can be no question of the need of strict material priorities at a time when defense demands are straining all resources. But, unless these priorities are carefully and wisely applied, there is a danger that the normal life of the people will be unnecessarily disrupted.

An example is found in the present-day need of retailing for materials and supplies which are absolutely necessary to its efficient operation.
A modern store, for instance, must have adequate refrigeration, cutting machines, scales, paper and bags and a host of other articles. It must have repair materials. In many cases, priority ratings are making it extremely difficult for stores to obtain them. That is creating an extremely serious problem for all kinds of stores, chain and independent alike, and it is a problem which is of direct concern to the consumer.

All Americans look to retailing for efficient service. They take it for granted that sanitary standards will be of the best. They take it for granted that they will be given honest weight, and will receive precisely what is ordered. If stores are not permitted to obtain supplies
which are vital to their operation,
it is clear that standards of service
will suffer tremendously.

Here is a matter which affects 130,000,000 people. It is understandable that there should be confusion in the priority system at the beginning. But this confusion must be swiftly eliminated, and a scientific, workable rating basis must be established, if the American people are not to suffer needless harm.

ABUNDANT OIL NEEDED

The demand of Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commission chairman, for all possible oil production short of physical waste is timely and pertinent, wisely observes the Houston Post.

The nation's machinery for producing all other natural resource materials and commodities needed for defense is being overhauled and re-tooled for greater output, while oil,
the most vital war need of all is being held down to the same sort of pinched-in flow that was resorted to nearly a decade ago to bolster crude prices through scarcity.

While the nation is turning its in-

SPARE THAT TREE!

dustrial structure upside down to step up production, not only are the tens of thousands of Texas oil wells choked down to little more than a trickle, but most of them actually are under shutdown orders for about a third of the time, solely for production purposes.

As Colonel Thompson declared, oil
is the country's first line of defense,
and certainly sufficient oil should be produced and ready to meet whatever call the emergency may create.
But, instead of stocking up for such demand, the railroad commission has caused the reduction of oil stocks above ground to about 19,000,000 barrels below the safety point, according to the chairman.

Holding down production to boost prices would be as patriotic as a plow-under policy to make prices of farm products higher, or to curb steel production for the same purpose; whereas, the department of agriculture itself is sponsoring a vast nation-wide program to whip farm production up to the very maximum,
and every effort is being made to increase the steel output.

No one need worry for fear the bottom will fall out of the petroleum market any time soon. On the contrary, there are already indications of an early increase. Gasoline has gone up in price recently, and will continue to soar if oil advances.
Perhaps a larger production allowable would stabilize the market from the top, which would not displease
the consuming public.

At any rate, the many requests for increased allowances, made at the state-wide proration hearing Monday, foretold the probable emergency demands to come, which Colonel Thompson envisioned in his call for the largest volume of oil
that can be produced without physical waste. It costs no more to be on the safe side than on the short side,
so why not play safe?

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT

The defects in the isolationist and mere oppositionist position do not lessen the fact that Colonel Lindbergh and his associates can and do make a strong case against the defects in the administration's case.
Not all of those enlisted in the so-called America First movement are isolationists except in opposition to carrying war to Europe, which was a platform of both major parties
last November.

Lindbergh last week made his strongest attack on the weakest
point of the administration's present position. His charge that the present Roosevelt course is government by subterfuge is undeniable, because it is true. Urged the speaker in Madison Square Garden Wednesday night:

"Let all Americans, no matter what their viewpoint on the war
may be, unite behind the demand for a leadership in Washington that stands squarely upon the American traditions—a leadership of integrity
instead of subterfuge, of openness instead of secrecy, a leadership that demonstrates its Americanism by taking the American people into its confidence."

To that program there can be no logical opposition, although there is plenty of new-deal opposition without logic.

For, on both domestic and foreign policy, Roosevelt and his clique have believed that they could best accomplish their ends—whatever these may be—by indirection, by executive decree, by anything except a forthright statement of what the policy really is.

Politically, the program has been successful to the extent of increasing enormously executive centralized power. But however laudable it may be from the standpoint of personal success, it is not democracy.

Today, because they think him to be right, Roosevelt is supported in his war policy, or the visible outlines of it, by a good many million Americans, who will not support at all his domestic policies, so far as these, too, are visible.

They resent most bitterly and justly a pronounced tendency by the administration to make hay for the domestic program under the pretense that it is food for the war effort.

It is surely axiomatic that policies cannot be determined under democratic policies unless we know clearly what the policies are. It would be a welcome return to American principles if Roosevelt would state his exact aims openly and fight in the open. If the program is worth anything at all, it can stand full and free debate.

No matter how smugly self-satisfied any government may be over its rectitude, a democracy cannot trust it if it is secretive.—Dallas
News.

DEMOCRATIC ACTION

In what seems to be a growing chorus from many sections of British opinion calling for more direct action upon the continent, the most striking voice is that of a convention of "shop stewards" claiming to speak for the workers of the armament industries.

"We all share the great alarm felt by the workers in every factory that the government is not pulling its weight alongside of Russia. The factories are seething with suspicion that the government is letting down Russia or that the presence of the Halifaxes, Moore-Brabazons and Margessons is the reason why there is no second front."

This is a voice unauthorized by the regular trade-union hierarchy, and it has explosive overtones. But it has been given wide publicity by the standard British newspapers;
and if it is a reminder that there are still social and political issues in Britain which have only been forced into suspension, and not abolished,
by the pressures of the struggle, it is also a reminder of how far the real Britain is from waging a mere barren defense of a static past.

The "Halifaxes, Moore-Brabazons
and Margessons" are used as symbols of Chamberlainism and Munich.
The Nazi propagandas shriek through Europe, and there are those in this country who still echo them, that Britain is a representative only of a decadent past.

There are Americans who, in face of the whole history of the last two years, still see no more creative energies in the British people than were manifested in the long prewar paralysis; and perhaps there are too many among the victim peoples who still wonder whether British and American democracy carries a revolutionary vigor equal to the demands of the colossal chaos which Hitler has made.

Such outbursts as that of the British armament workers' representatives can be regarded as straws in the great winds of democratic action capable of sweeping away
such doubts.

Britain is not fighting to rebuild the past. American democracy is not a static quantity; it has refused to sink into the passivity and decay
in which the isolationists have sought to confine it and is looking more and more boldly to the future.

The democracies are neither dead nor static. It is the life in both of them which counts, the vigor which can not only beat Hitler but can provide the valid framework of social invention around which the new world will be rebuilt upon the ruins.—New York Herald Tribune.

alleged embezzlement of funds from

The members of the local First Methodist church recently voted to install new pews in the main auditorium of the building and also revitalize the interior woodwork and re-calsomine the walls, which when completed will add greatly to the appearance as well as comfort of those who attend services at the church. The new pews will be installed and ready for use in about two weeks, members of the congregation stated.—Miami Chief.

General alarm spread among potato growers of this territory this

the fact that 7,500 acres had been estimated for this area by growers.

Fully Home-Owned

This produce institution is owned and operated by farmers for farmers. It is strongly established with an operating capital and other facilities, and is here to stay. This farmer-owned enterprise affords many advantages to its membership. Among these are a combined sales volume which commands respect, also absolute freedom for its members. Any farmer or grower of produce may become a member at any time, without investment or obligation, other than becoming a customer. Membership can likewise be terminated at any time. However, the experience of original members and others who have joined the association has been amply satisfactory and profitable to warrant continued affiliation. If you are not a member, we suggest careful investigation and a few trial transactions.

Winter Is Coming

PREPARE YOUR HOME FOR IT NOW!

Autumn's nippy weather, without even consulting the calendar, gives assurance that winter will soon be here. Therefore, now is the time to prepare your home to ward off the chilly blasts and searching cold that is a part of the winter season. It will pay good returns in health and comfort to repair the roof, line or box up thin walls, apply new outside or inside wall finishes and generally weather-proof the home.
Among other advantages, will be a substantial fuel saving when flimsy walls or open spaces are reinforced with siding, boxing or wall board. All kinds of winterproofing materials are available
here. Suggestions on refinishing or fixing up the house in numbers
of ways will cheerfully be given.
Come in today and tell us your problem and we shall deem it a pleasure to offer our assistance.

THE NORGE

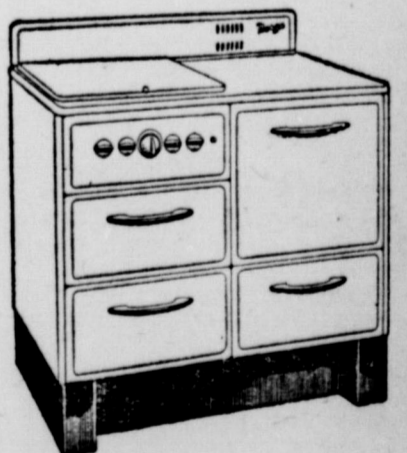

SPIRO-SPEED GAS RANGE

offers New Adventures in Thrifty, Delicious Meals!

From the kitchen of the average home comes at least 1,000 meals
a year . . . the meals upon which depend the health and happiness of the family. And if these meals are to be palatable, wholesome and flavorful, nothing—not even the skill of the cook—is so important as the kitchen range. If the oven door is poorly insulated or warped, or if the oven burner is not easily controlled, it is impossible to do proper baking and roasting. If top burners are not readily adaptable to every cooking requirement, many a recipe will fall short of its full possibilities and food and fuel will be wasted.

1,000 MEALS A YEAR

With at least 1,000 meals a year to prepare, it is obviously good economy to equip the kitchen with a modern efficient range. The new Norge gas range—also adapted to Butane fuels—brings together
in one unit every cooking convenience and improvement approved by the American housewife PLUS new features that surpass her fondest dreams.

STANDARD FEATURES ON ALL MODELS

The cooking range is not only the most important appliance in the home, but, as in the case of these stunning Norge models, it can be one of the most beautiful pieces of household equipment you could wish to own. In the Norge line you will find a model suited to your particular needs.

BUTANE GAS TANK IN STOCK

WHEELER CHAPTER
Texas Association of Future Farmers of America

W. C. ZIRKLE, Instructor

Lone Star Chapter
The local chapter of the F. F. A. has been awarded a certificate by the state department of vocational education showing it received last year the Lone Star chapter award. These certificates are sent each year to chapters scoring 900 points or above on a score card sent out by the state department of F. F. A. work. This is the second such award received by the Wheeler chapter in the last two years.

F. F. A. Officers
The following boys have been elected as officers of the F. F. A. for the school year 1941-42:
President, Jim Johnson; vice president, S. D. Miller; secretary, Harry Garrison; treasurer, Donald Hunt; reporter, F. B. Craig; parliamentarian, Lewis Craig; historian, Bill Cosper; farm watch dog, Carroll Pendleton.

F. F. A. Meetings
The chapter has held three meetings to date, in addition to the Home Ec.-F. F. A. picnic on Oct. 14. At the three meetings all officers have been elected, committees appointed and other chapter business transacted. Two of the meetings were followed by a recreational hour. About 80 per cent of the members have attended every meeting.

Greenhand Initiation
The following boys were initiated greenhands at the regular meeting Tuesday night, Oct. 28:
W. E. Mason, Junior Ahler, Eldon Ray Lee, Harry Risner, Kenneth Crowder, R. B. Mann, Raymond Barnes, Frank Mitchell, Eddy B. Witt, Charles Hubbard, W. J. Patterson and Thomas Downs.

The regular F. F. A. initiation ceremony was conducted by the chapter officers, with Jim Johnson, president; Charles B. Sandifer, vice president; L. B. Pendleton, reporter; Nile Patterson, secretary; Oscar Ragan, treasurer; Carrol Pendleton, watch dog and Gene Hall, conductor. There are eight other members to be initiated that could not be present at the meeting.

Requirements for this degree are:
1. Be enrolled in vocational agriculture.
2. Have satisfactory project program.
3. Know from memory the F. F. A. creed.
4. Receive a majority vote of the members present at a regular meeting.

Rope Making
The three vocational agriculture classes have together made over 3,150 feet of rope this year. This rope is made from binder twine at a cost of about two-thirds of a cent per foot. In quality this rope compares favorably with any that can be purchased. If there are those in the community who wish to have ropes made they are asked only to furnish twine.

The F. F. A. wants to express appreciation to its president, Jim Johnson, for the fine work that he has done and to show its sympathy in his bereavement.

F. H. T. Hallowe'en Entertainment
The spirit of ghosts and witches prevailed at the F. H. T. meeting Wednesday, Oct. 29. After a business session Joyce Sorensen gave some interesting ideas on decorations for Hallowe'en, which she demonstrated by having the dining room decorated with leaves and cut flowers.

Mary Ruth Evans gave a short talk on the origin of Hallowe'en and Lotie Marie Zybach led some games which put everyone in the proper mood for the occasion.
When each girl drew her fortune from the mystical looking box, which the witch of wisdom had placed on the table, she read her future to the rest of the class.
Refreshments of congealed orange and prune salad were served to 25 members.

Why You Should Patronize Times Advertisers

We believe the practical course of action for residents of this section is to read The Wheeler Times advertisements carefully each week, and then make needed purchases from the listings contained in these advertisements.

TIMES ADVERTISERS ARE THE ONES TO PATRONIZE BECAUSE:

- They are proud of their merchandise and their prices, otherwise they would not publish them for everyone to read. Their prices are in line with good business practices, and will compare favorably with prices to be found anywhere.
- The fact that they advertise shows they are progressive and wideawake business houses—the kind that have quality merchandise and will give the best of service.
- They are the leaders in prices. They set prices after careful and business-like consideration. Others may copy them, but those who make the prices are the ones who prove their confidence in the offerings and deserve your patronage.
- They are community builders; because as a general rule, those who advertise are the ones who are of the most good to their town, encouraging citizens of the trade territory to spend and keep their money at home.
- They are making an effort to sell to you, which should be rewarded with patronage. The man who pushes his business, whether it be large or small, deserves favor over the one who sits back and waits for business to come in—provided it doesn't go off to towns where more enterprise prevails through merchants inviting trade to their stores.

As a favor to yourself and your community—trade at home and

BIBLE PROPHECIC FELLOWSHIP

Last Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. C. C. Merritt, the Fellowship in Bible Prophecy enjoyed another fine session. An invitation is extended the public to visit next Tuesday evening's session and learn what joy it is to study Bible prophecy.

This study is not starting something new in the way of organized work. It is simply a striving to help each one attending to be a better Christian and to be of greater service in the community and among the groups of associates, in and out of the churches. These studies will help the individual in Sunday school and church work.

CARD OF THANKS

GOV. STEVENSON PROCLAIMS A FOOD-FOR-FREEDOM WEEK

Joining with the farm defense program leaders in their efforts to encourage increased food production, Gov. Coke Stevenson has proclaimed the week of Nov. 3 to 9 as Food-for-Freedom Week in Texas.

In a conference last week with B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA Defense board, Gov. Stevenson pledged the wholehearted support both of himself and his state defense committee in the Food-for-Freedom campaign.

In his proclamation, the governor pointed out the importance of the mass meeting held in Waco, Nov. 4, when R. M. (Spike) Evans, national AAA administrator, told what he saw during his recent trip to England to study British food needs.

"The farmers of Texas have been asked to provide greatly increased amounts of food to feed America and the nations resisting aggression," the proclamation said. "They deserve the support of all citizens in that task."

The Texas USDA Defense board launched a state-wide farm-to-farm canvass on Nov. 3 and will ask every individual farmer in the state to pledge increased production of milk, eggs, pork and certain other products.

LAWRENCE'S BEST Fortified Egg Mash

This feed encourages more eggs, lowers hen mortality and means more profit to the poultry owner. Hens must have in their feeds the materials to make eggs. A hen is a manufacturing plant, converting feed (raw materials) into finished products (eggs). To keep hens trouble-free and producing more eggs, as well as build up the stamina and lower the mortality rate, science has proven the need of certain elements in their feed.

FORTIFIED EGG MASH, containing vitamins, minerals and glandular activating agents, is found to be the most satisfactory method of supplying these essential elements. Lawrence's Best Fortified Egg Mash contains these and other desirable elements.

CUSTOM GRINDING SERVICE

In response to popular demand of many feed customers, we have installed brand new equipment for custom grinding. With a man otherwise employed full time in feed manufacturing, this service is possible without much extra expense to us, but with excellent service and accommodation to patrons wanting custom grinding done.

Lummus Thermo-Cleaner Proves to Be a Winner!

We have just added a new Lummus Thermo-Cleaner to our equipment, to give our customers the cleanest and best cotton that can be ginned. The Thermo-Cleaner not only DRIES and CLEANS cotton: It HUMIDIFIES it as well. Moisture is added to dry cotton and removed from cotton that is wet. Yet the fiber is never damaged. We hope you'll drop in to see this new equipment, which can help make your work count for a lot more.

Many customers who have had cotton ginned here since we installed the new Lummus Thermo-Cleaner, express complete satisfaction with results obtained. They claim better turn-out and higher quality than expected, and attribute this to use of the Thermo-Cleaner.

MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY

(Uttered in 1449 by an old Englishwoman, whose vision of the future has been a source of wonder for nearly five centuries.)

A carriage without horses shall go
Disaster fill the world with woe;
In London Primrose Hill shall be
Its center hold a Bishop's See.
Around the world men's thoughts
shall fly,
Quick as the twinkling of an eye.

And waters shall great wonders do
How strange, and yet it shall come true,
Then upside down the world shall be,
And gold found at foot of tree;
Thro towering hills proud man shall ride,
Nor horse nor ass move by his side.

Beneath the waters men shall walk;
Shall ride, shall sleep, and even talk;
And in the air men shall be seen
In white, in black, as well as green.
A great man then shall come and go,
For prophecy declares it so.

In water iron then shall float
As easy as a wooden boat.
Gold shall be found in stream or stone,
In land that is as yet unknown.
Water and fire shall wonders do,
And England shall admit a Jew.

The Jew that once was held in scorn,
Shall of a Christian then be born.
A house of glass shall come to pass
In England—but alas! alas!
A war will follow with the work
Where dwells the pagan and the Turk.

The states will lock in fierce strife,
And seek to take each other's life;
When north thus divide the south
The eagle builds in lion's mouth.
Then tax and blood and cruel war
Shall come to every humble door.

Three times shall sunny, lovely France
Be led to play a bloody dance;
Before the people shall be free
Three tyrant rulers shall see;
Three rulers in succession, be
Each sprung from different dynasty.

Then when the fierce fight is done,
England and France shall be as one.
The British olive next shall twine
In marriage with the German vine.
Men walk beneath and over stream Fulfilled shall be our strangest dreams.

All England's sons shall plow the
land,
Shall oft be seen with book in hand,
The poor shall now most wisdom
know,
The water wind where corn did grow;
Great houses stand in far flung vale,
All covered o'er with snow and hail.

And now a word in uncouth rhyme,
Of what shall be in future time;
For in those wondrous far-off days
The women shall adopt a craze
To dress like men and trousers wear,
And cut off their lovely locks of hair.
They'll ride astride with brazen brow
As witches on broomsticks now.
Then love shall die and marriage
cease,
And nations wane as babes decrease
The wives shall fondle cats and dogs,
And men live much the same as hogs.

In nineteen hundred twenty-six
Build houses light of straw and sticks,
For then shall mighty wars be planned,
And fire and sword shall sweep the
land,
But those who live the country through,
In fear and trembling, this will do.

Flee the mountains and dens,
To bog and forests and wild fens—
For storms shall rage and oceans
shall roar
When Gabriel stands on sea and shore;
And as he blows his wondrous horn,
Old worlds shall die and new be born.
—Original Mother Shipton's Prophecy.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR
Special cement floors for shower rooms treated so that, when wet, they will give off minute quantities of copper which kills "athlete's foot" germs (though you probably can't see the bactericide any better than you can the germ).

Pretty close to the long-sought "perpetual motion" machine are new clocks: so delicately adjusted that they are "wound up" by changes of temperature... Roof shingles in strips of four, for speedier installation, but so marked as to avoid a too-regular or "artificial" appearance... An electric heater made to be built into a wall, with safety grill and fan to distribute the warmed air.

A wrist watch that can be set right to the second; pulling the stem stops the second hand while the other hands are being set... An apple beverage closely resembling freshly-pressed cider, but "keeping" indefinitely because of a flash pasteurizing process.

All-plastic goggles for workers engaged in grinding and similar tasks—with no frames or sidepieces to obstruct "horizon" vision.

Times Wantads—5c a line.

Now Is Good Time to Fall-Proof the Home

Safety in the home is mostly good sense and good house keeping, says Bernice Claytor, extension service specialist in home improvement, in urging rural people to "fall-proof" their homes. Falls send thousands of people to the hospital every year and cause many deaths. In fact, life insurance companies report that about 80 per cent of the accidental deaths of persons 65 years or over are due to falls.

The specialist says more falls happen on steps and stairs than anywhere else in the house. To overcome this danger she suggests the following of specifications recommended by the U. S. bureau of standards in building safe stairs. Another is to install hand-rails for every flight on at least one side of the stairs. This goes for cellar steps and attic stairs as well, she says.

Home stairways should be well-lighted, and all steps should be kept firm and in good repair. Stairs finished with wax should not be slippery, the specialist warns. Likewise, carpets on stairs and in hallways should be kept free from worn spots and upturned edges, or they may catch a heel or toe.

Fall hazards in the kitchen include water or food spilled on the floor and climbing up to high shelves. For reaching high storage space, Mrs. Claytor suggests use of a substantial little kitchen stepladder. "Don't trust yourself on a chair, a table or a stool," is her advice.

In the living room slippery floors and small, loose rugs are dangerous. These rugs can be made safe by use of a non-skid fabric underneath or by using some of the various rug anchors now on the market. Falls in the bath tub may be saved by a strong bar on the wall or a rubber mat in the tub. In addition, the whole family should be encouraged to help keep the soap off the bathroom floor or the bottom of the tub.

Penalty Now Imposed on Overplanted Wheat

Wheat farmers overplanting their 1942 wheat acreage allotments by any amount will be ineligible for full parity and conservation payments and wheat loans, according to Clarence Zybach, chairman of the Wheeler County AAA committee.

Under the 1941 program, farmers who exceeded their allotment by not more than the larger or 3 per cent of three acres could dispose of the excess acreage within a prescribed length of time and qualify for maximum payments, Zybach said in explaining that this tolerance would not be permitted under the 1942 program.

The deduction rate for excess wheat under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation program has been raised from six times the payment rate specified under the 1941 program to 10 times the payment rate. The new deduction rate applies to parity as well as agricultural conservation payments.

If allotments are exceeded by as much as 10 per cent, the penalty rate will wipe out the entire wheat parity and conservation payments. If the acreage allotment is exceeded by more than 10 per cent, deductions will be applicable to other payments earned unless the non-allotment wheat farm option was followed, the AAA officials said.

Marketing quota restrictions will apply to producers on farms subject to quotas on which wheat acreage allotments have been exceeded in the event a marketing quota on wheat is approved in a referendum next spring. In explaining wheat regulations further, the chairman said that if wheat acreage allotments are overplanted and marketing quotas are in effect, producers will be eligible for loans on only the marketing excess for the farm provided wheat loans are available.

Davis News

(By Mrs. Zura Bullock)

Everyone surely is enjoying the sunny weather the past few days; but cotton is hardly dry enough to gather yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Aderholt and daughters of Briscoe were Sunday guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Gene Anderson, and Mr. Anderson.

Clyde Bullock is helping his brother-in-law, Ray Aderholt, of Mobeetle pick cotton this week while Mrs. Aderholt and son, Gary, are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bullock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bass and sons returned home Monday. They have been in Shamrock the past two weeks at the bedside of his brother, Bill Bass, who was critically ill in the Clinic hospital. Bill fell from the top of a windmill two weeks ago and bruised his jugular vein. He is well on the road to recovery at the present writing.

Jeff Copeland returned home the latter part of last week from California.

Smart Alec

"Com-pan-ee, atten-shun!" bawled the drill sergeant to the rookie squad. "Com-pan-ee, lift up your left leg and hold it straight out in front of you!"

By mistake, one soldier held up his right leg, which brought it side by side with his neighbor's left leg.

"Aw right," shouted the sergeant, when he noticed this, "Who's the wise guy over there holding up both legs?"—Bulletin, Riverside, Calif.

AN OPEN LETTER

To my patients: Now, that you are recovering, or have recovered, it fills my heart with gratefulness to Him who alone could make it possible that I should be used in assisting natural laws to bring about your recovery.

I am not the one to be praised, thank God. He knew we humans would break His divine laws of health and bring about our own suffering; therefore, He put within our own body a laboratory in which the body could produce its own healing chemistry. All God enabled me to do was to correct distortions that prevented that laboratory to function. Again I say, thank God, and tell your suffering friend "what great things God has done for you."

Sincerely, your devoted servant,
Dr. C. C. Merritt. 43fc

Margarine Important In Nutritional Value

Bearing on Food Budget and Uses in National Defense Program
Told by Institute

The new importance of oleomargarine in the American diet because of its nutritional value and its bearing on the family food budget is emphasized in a statement released today by the National Margarine Institute.

Attention of dietitians, home economists and consumers is directed to a highly nutritious food fat at a period when there is a growing emphasis on the relation of food and nutrition to the national defense program.

On Sept. 6, the Federal Food and Drug administration placed into effect a standard of identity for oleomargarine, popularly known as margarine, under which it may be enriched with a minimum of 9,000 units of vitamin A. Vitamin D also may be added.

The statement is based on facts that have received official recognition from the United States government and the American Medical association. These facts are given additional significance by the recent declaration of food authorities that there are 40,000,000 undernourished people in the United States.

The nutritional properties of margarine are pointed out in the statement as being uniform and dependable. Prevailing methods of manufacture in which the purity and cleanliness of margarine are subject to scientific control is indicated.

Margarine is made primarily from refined oils and fats produced by American agriculture. This economical table fat fills a position of increasing importance in the government's health program which strives to effect a higher standard of nutrition for all of the people of the United States.

The statement is presented in question and answer form in a booklet and contains an educational story of modern margarine, its nutritional value, economy and uses. Explanation is made as to the manner in which it is manufactured, its ingredients, its fat content, digestibility and dietary uses. It also contains a number of selected recipes in which margarine is suggested as an ingredient.

DRYS ACTIVE AT WACO

Among Texas cities of over 25,000 population, three—Lubbock, Abilene and Tyler—are in dry counties. There is a possibility that a fourth, Waco, will be added to the list next month.

Petitions are being circulated for a county-wide election in McLennan county and the dry forces are said to be planning a vigorous campaign. From this distance, the chances appear to be against them; but Wichitans can remember how near their own county came to voting dry in 1938, and it may be that the same conditions in McLennan county make the issue doubtful there.

Sentiment for prohibition ebbs and flows in Texas counties as conditions at the beer joints become more obnoxious or less so. A dry victory in McLennan county would result in the calling of elections in other of the more populous counties.

The course of events in this respect is going to be charted largely by the beer retailers themselves. Each establishment that permits objectionable conditions makes dry votes. A few places in a county that get into the honky-tonk class can create dry sentiment which the law-abiding places find it hard to overcome.

Texas' enforcement agencies are doing a better job than they were a few years ago, but the real responsibility is that of the retailers themselves. Our guess is that the move for an election at Waco is due to the manner in which a few of the establishments are being conducted.—Wichita Falls Record News.

Home-Making Hints

By MISS VERA MARTIN
Home Supervisor, F. S. A.

Cabbage

Cabbage, unlike its more elegant relatives, cauliflower, broccoli and brussels sprouts, is really "in season" the year round.

When you go to market for cabbage, look for heads that are firm and heavy for their size. Naturally you'll also try to get one that looks fresh, is closely trimmed with no yellowed leaves, and that hasn't been obviously injured by worms or decay. Sometimes you can detect cabbage that will have a strong flavor—by noting the bottom end of the head. If the outer leaves have separated from the base of the stem, the cabbage may be strong-flavored, coarse-textured.

In cooking cabbage the important points to remember are to leave the lid off the pan and not to overcook. Leaving the lid off the pan keeps the vegetable from having too strong an odor and makes for better flavor. Also, it keeps the pale green color of the outer leaves intact.

A modern quick-cooked cabbage dish is 5-minute cabbage. For this, heat about 2 cups milk, add 1½ quarts of shredded cabbage. Cook about 2 minutes. Add another cup of cream or top milk, thickened with 3 tablespoons flour, richened with 3 tablespoons fat. Add salt and pepper to your taste, and cook the cabbage quickly for 3 to 4 minutes, stirring it all the time. Result: crisp cabbage with a delicate flavor, creamy white and pale green as it was to begin with.

Because raw cabbage is such a good and inexpensive source of vitamin C, nutritionists include it in the blue ribbon group of vitamin C rich foods, one of which needs to be in the meals every day. Serve cabbage raw in any number of ways. From the old standby cole slaw, to our modern shredded cabbage aspic creations, there are hundreds of combinations using raw cabbage—other vegetables, with fruits, raisins, nuts and various salad dressings.

Refrigeration An Aid In Saving Foodstuffs

An adequate family diet will make America strong—by making Americans stronger.

And an adequate family diet—according to Miss Verna L. Miller, director of Home Economics for Frigidaire Division of General Motors—depends upon three things: the proper buying of food, the efficient preservation of food, and the correct preparation of food.

"In general," says Miss Miller, "there are three broad fronts on which this campaign must be waged. These are: the buying of foodstuffs, the keeping or storage of foodstuffs within the home, and the preparation of foodstuffs for serving.

"I think the American housewife has been fairly well educated in the proper planning of meals. She understands the meaning of a balanced diet. Almost all public utilities and reputable manufacturers of foodstuff and household appliances—as well, of course, as various federal and other agencies—provide free and often elaborate information on infant and child feeding, meal planning, what to do with leftovers, etc.

"But the housewife will have to go beyond these if she is to do her part in keeping the nation's health and morale—almost synonymous here—at top level.

Careful Buying Advised

"First, she must buy her foodstuff properly. She must take advantage of bargains and special sales. But she must not buy in too great quantity merely because of reduced prices. Wasting or hoarding food is wasting our national effort.

"Next comes the proper care of foodstuffs in the home. That means correct, efficient refrigeration. And again the penalty is waste.

"Frozen salads and desserts, ice cream, quick-frozen food, and the frozen storage of meats all require sub-freezing cold. Various mechanical refrigerators provide a super freezer with low temperatures for these foods.

"For the ideal storage of meat, it is necessary to have uniform low temperature, together with the proper amount of air circulation and humidity. A meat tender, placed directly under the super freezer, is designed to supply this moist extracold.

Moist Cold Required

"Fresh fruits and vegetables, especially leafy green vegetables, are highly perishable. They require moist cold to preserve them best, and should be placed in a hydrator to keep them cold and moist and appetizingly crisp until serving time.

"Left-overs and foods prepared in advance should be stored in covered containers and kept always within the range of 32 to 50 degrees F. until ready to be used.

"It is one thing to buy the right foods for a healthful diet and quite another to handle them so that vitamins don't vanish into thin air and valuable minerals get sidetracked down the kitchen sink or into the garbage can."

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION By W. W. REID

Dr. Frank Kingdon, former president of Newark (N. J.) university, is the honorary founder chairman of a committee of 200 laymen of all Christian denominations—known as the Laymen's National Committee—organized to observe "Bible Week" from Dec. 8 to 14. "The Bible in the hands of every American" as a means of promoting national unity and national defense is the aim of the organization.

After more than 60 years of missionary service under the Methodist church in Japan, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop have returned to the United States and are living in Los Angeles. At the time of their departure they were the oldest American residents in Japan, having first gone there in 1879. Dr. and Mrs. Bishop retired from an active missionary professorship in Aoyama Gakuin in 1926, but continued to carry on their work until this year.

Upon completion of this long period of service, Ambassador Joseph C. Grew wrote: "Your constructive work through the years, especially your work at Aoyama Gakuin, will not be forgotten, for our Japanese friends do not readily forget such selfless service as you have rendered. I know that among your associates are many prominent Japanese whom you first met as students. You have contributed much to mutual understanding and goodwill."

Speaking recently at the Temple Israel, New York City, Rabbi William F. Rosenblum said that complacency, compromise and convenience are the major aims of present-day society. "There is no need to wait until this war is over to fix the war guilt," he said. "Nearly every one of us has had a part in its coming because we have been too complacent about our slums, and our wage slaves, and our bigotries, and a hundred and one infractions of the laws of God for man."

Addressing the students of a Christian university in China recently, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, himself a Christian, said: "We have plenty of man power for the army without you. We need you to remain in school to complete your training for Christian leadership in the new China that will emerge from the war."

After 10 years of labor, a committee of church scholars has produced a new translation of the New Testament in "Basic English." "Basic English" had been developed by C. K. Ogden, of the Orthological Institute of Cambridge, England, and it is said that by means of 850 "basic words," used in accordance with a few simple rules any idea can be expressed in the English language.

Man at Large

For Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7-8, we bring you a picture called Man at Large with Marjorie Weaver and George Reeves. This story is based on the escape of a Nazi spy from Canada who illegally enters the United States and who continues to operate for Germany. It gives a good insight into the way that Nazi Germany is trying to overthrow our government with her Men at Large, her spy system. It also shows the law enforcement agencies of the United States and how they are pitted against the attacks from those who would wreck our government.

Week-end in Havana

Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne and Cesar Romero bring you another fine show in Week-end in Havana which is photographed entirely in beautiful Technicolor. If you saw Tin Pan Alley, That Night in Rio, or even Down Argentine Way you will have some idea of the treat that is in store for you in Week-end in Havana. This most lavishly produced picture comes to the Rogue Theatre Preview, Sunday and Monday, Nov. 8-9-10. It is a brand new picture and the few who have seen it declare that it is all you could ask for in any picture. It has the stars, romance, class, singing, music, Technicolor and a Cuban background—all that you could expect from a picture—and we know that you will be pleased.

All that Money Can Buy

Every now and then the motion picture industry makes a picture that is termed a "sleeper" because it is made as an ordinary picture but seems to have that extra something that makes it an instant hit. Such a picture is All that Money Can Buy, starring Edward Arnold and

Walter Huston. The story runs something like this—A young farmer has had his crop practically ruined by bad weather, his farm is mortgaged to the village miser, and his wife has been badly injured. In anguish he cries out that it is enough to make a man sell his soul to the devil. A moment later he meets the devil face to face in the barn. The devil promises him wealth for seven years provided he will sign a contract, which he does. See it Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 12-13, at the Rogue.

Baptists in Meeting at Abilene Next Week

Several Thousand Members Expected at General State Convention on November 11-14

ABILENE.—The 5,000 Texas Baptists expected here Nov. 11-14 for the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will find Abilene prepared to care for the crowds, members of the local committee declare. Dr. W. R. White, president of Hardin-Simmons university is general chairman.

Hardin-Simmons university, whose Golden Jubilee will be celebrated during the convention, is spending $10,000 to remodel and enlarge its auditorium. Total capacity will be 3,000 and another 1,500 can be seated in the gymnasium across the street, where a public address system will bring the program to overflow crowds.

The First Baptist church, where the Woman's Missionary union will hold its sessions Nov. 10 and 11, while the Brotherhood convention meets in the Hardin-Simmons auditorium, is spending $5,000 remodeling and redecorating its auditorium.

The Abilene Chamber of Commerce is conducting an intensive drive for homes in which convention messengers may be housed. A goal of 4,000 homes has been set, and messengers should write Don Wallace, Abilene, Chamber of Commerce, for reservations either in homes or hotels. Civic clubs and churches of other faiths are co-operating to make the convention one of the best in Texas Baptist history, committee members said.

Dr. E. H. Westmoreland, Houston, is chairman of the program committee.

Three thousand Texas Baptist laymen are expected at Abilene Nov. 10 and 11 for the annual Baptist Brotherhood convention which holds its sessions just before the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Nov. 11-14.

R. A. Springer, Dallas, State Brotherhood secretary, was in Abilene early this week conferring with Judge E. S. Cummings, state president, concerning plans for the meeting, the theme of which is "The Church and Its Men."

Several featured speakers will appear on the programs. "A Venture on Faith" will be the subject of a symposium, heard at each session.

Seventeen district presidents of the Brotherhood will report on "What's Happening Out Our Way," a group of three or four speaking at each session.

Among the musical features of the convention will be numbers by the Hardin-Simmons "Golden Girls Quartet" and the world-famous Cowboy Band.

Food Stamp Purchases Increase for October

Expenditures for food in Wheeler and Wheeler county were increased $2,589 during the month of October through the government's food stamp program, it was revealed today by L. J. Cappleman, regional director of the Surplus Marketing administration for the 13 Southern states.

This sum represented the amount of blue stamps issued by the Wheeler and Wheeler County Stamp program office during the month. In addition, $3,474 of orange stamps were purchased from the government during the period, bringing the total amount available for food purchases due to the stamp program to $6,063 for October.

Participating in the Wheeler and Wheeler County Stamp program during the month were 311 cases, representing with their families, 1,247 persons. Those participating represented 94.7 per cent of the 1,315 persons in the area eligible to receive stamps during October.

Since the stamp plan has been in operation, $14,649 in blue stamps have been issued in Wheeler and Wheeler county, augmenting regular food expenditure for the area by that amount.

Amount of blue stamps issued per person during October averaged $2.07.

TELEPHONE WORKERS MEET IN WHEELER LAST SUNDAY

The Southwestern Telephone union met Sunday afternoon at the court house for a regular business session.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Shaffer, Dalhart; Frank Winn, Perryton; Jake Winneck, Guyton, Okla.; A. V. Hill, Beaver, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Shelley, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jenkins, Memphis; Joe Darden, Wellington; E. F. Fandrum, Panhandle; Dad Landrum, Vega, and Harold Shively, Wheeler.

PEEPING IN THE WHEELER TIMES WINDOW

Exhibits sent to The Times window and favors for the editor's table during the past week comprised good variety and excellent quality.

Mrs. Floyd Atherton, up Briscoe way, contributed a generous supply of turnip greens and turnips Saturday. On the same day, W. M. Pendleton, another valued friend living northeast of town, brought in a pair of giant turnips.

Mrs. Annie Sivage of Wheeler entered a beautiful dark red cocom blossom the last of the week, thereby maintaining the window's aesthetic as well as practical status.

Early this week Roe Green brought in a 6-pound sweet potato of the Maryland Sweet variety, grown by Fred Harris at the Jovett Station northwest of town.

This fellow John Henry Watts, whom some of The Times readers will remember hearing about on other occasions, has broken loose again with a 38-inch object which he declares is a sweet potato. At least he claims this entry puts Albert Chapman and W. J. Brumley behind the 8-ball and says it's now up to them. "If they can beat this one," snorts John Henry, "I'll put an extension on that posthole digger handle and see what I can do."

HISTORY CLASS OF WHEELER SCHOOL HAS SKATING PARTY

History II class of the Wheeler school enjoyed a skating party at the local rink Friday night, followed by refreshments at the drug store fountain.

Those attending were Lois Anglin, Ima Jo Blue, Marion Janelle and Imogene Crowder, Gynn Crossland, LaRue Cole, Dorothy Elliott, R. J. Holt, Virginia Lowrie, Wanda Megee, Sammie May, Doris Manney, Nina Merle Pond, Wanda Jean Sewell, LaVerna and LaVerta Turlington, Marie and Caroline Warren, Celeste Wiley, Warren Schattenberg, L. B. Pendleton, Ruby Mae Roper, Louise Tillman, Inetta Maxwell, Pauline Dyer and sponsor, Miss Adams.

NELSON PORTER FAMILY IN RECENTLY-PURCHASED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Porter and daughter, Frances, moved last week to the former J. R. RED CROSS ROLL CALL PERIOD DRAWS NEAR provide. Our own chapter must be prepared to bear its share of the load, but it can only do so with the wholehearted support of the entire community during roll call."

"This year, for the first time," Meek reported, "enrollment in the American Junior Red Cross is being conducted simultaneously with the roll call for senior members. Children are not asked to join individually, but enroll as a classroom with a nominal fee for the entire group. Almost 10,000,000 boys and girls in the schools of America already participate in all the varied Red Cross programs through the Junior Red Cross. This year that figure should be more than doubled, because the need is great."

Meek called upon every resident in the Wheeler area to enroll today as a Red Cross member through the local chapter in order that "our community may contribute its full share to this important humanitarian program which means so much to our homes, our family, our town and our nation."

WHAT SAY YOU?

God Is all-Powerful

God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that He is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is worshipped with men's hands as though He needed anything, seeing He giveth to all life and breath and all things, and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed and the bounds of their habitation. That they should seek the Lord if haply they might feel after Him and find Him, though He be not far from every one of us. For in Him we live and move and have our being as certain also of your own poets have said, For we also are his offspring.—Acts 17:24-28. —W. J. BRUMLEY.

PROGRAM OF SACRED MUSIC AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday evening, Nov. 9, at 7:15, a service of sacred music will be presented at the Wheeler Methodist church. The program will consist of organ music by Mrs. McCrohan, quartet arrangements and special numbers.

This service will be the last at the local church before the annual Methodist conference convenes at Big Spring on Nov. 12.

People of the entire community, who are not planning to attend church elsewhere, are cordially invited to be present for this special service, states Wayne Cook, pastor.

CHAPLAIN AMERICAN LEGION SPEAKS HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

Rev. Herbert Markley, for nine years pastor of a Presbyterian church at Breckenridge before his election as state chaplain of the American Legion, addressed a mass congregation at the Methodist church here Sunday night. The Church of Christ and Baptist church dismissed their evening services so members might hear this eloquent guest speaker whose sermon-lecture evoked many compliments.

Rev. Markley came to Wheeler Saturday afternoon following an official visit with District Commander Jim Johnson and the American Legion post at Canadian.

Some of the local Legionnaires who had previously heard him, with the approval of Rev. Wayne Cook, Methodist pastor, prevailed upon him to remain over Sunday night and deliver the sermon. He was a Sunday dinner guest in the home of Legionnaire and Mrs. Dick Craig.
