THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

COTTON & GRAIN YIELDS RUN HIGH

Yields of cotton per acre in Wheeler county this fall are far exceeding expectations. County agent Jake Tarter states that the original estimates on a number of fields of cotton were for a yield of one-third bale per acre, but some of these same crops are now being pulled and are averaging one-half bale of cotton to the acre in one going over. The great difficulty at this time is the lack of hands to get the cotton gathered.

Prevailing prices for pulling cotton is $1.50 per hundred. Many 10 to 15-year-old children are making $6 to $11 per day and some men are making $15 per day since the cotton is turning out at such high yield. Tarter said that there is need now for nearly a thousand hands in Wheeler county and indications are that the cotton harvest will run far into January unless that many hands are obtained in addition to the many already in the fields. Most every farmer has some sort of housing facilities for hands, the county agent states.

It is estimated that only about 22 per cent of the cotton has been harvested with a great amount of acreage so far not having a boll pulled.

Grain sorghums are equally as good this year in Wheeler county. During a brief dry spell in the summer, farmers estimated their grain sorghum crops at 600 to 700 pounds per acre, but now farmers estimate that the fall grain crop will average 1,000 pounds of thrashed grain per acre the county over. A few more combines are needed for combining and there are 111 calls waiting at the agent's office for hand headers to help with the grain harvest over the county.

Wheeler Will Observe Thanksgiving Nov. 23; Most Stores To Close

Stringing along with the majority of the populace of the United States, Wheelers will eat their turkey (if they are fortunate in having a turkey) next Thursday, November 23. As has been the case for the past few years, persons have been wondering which Thursday would be observed as the day for offering thanks. Practically all calendars have the 23rd marked as the red letter day, but Gov. Stevenson recently proclaimed the fifth Thursday (30th) as the day to eat Turkey in Texas. This is all well and good for most Texans, but Wheeler has an out of town conference football game scheduled for 2:30 on the afternoon of the 23rd. The county officials and personnel at the county agent's office say they are going to close shop on that day, the post office and the local bank are also stringing along with the majority of the nation and will close the 23rd; so the majority of Wheeler's business firms will do likewise. The hardware stores, dry goods stores, grocery stores, lumber yards, garages, appliance stores, light office, varieties will likely also be closed for the day. One drug store manager says his place of business will be closed in the afternoon. The school will dismiss at noon and the half day will be the extent of the Thanksgiving holiday for the students since they have lost so much time during the five weeks recess for crop harvest.

With the cooperation of the Congress and the calendar, it is hoped that next year all the nation will concentrate on the same Thursday, the fourth and last of the month, for the annual holiday.

On next Monday, the 20th of November, America's Sixth War Loan starts.

Wheeler county's quota in the national drive is $335,000 over all, $155,000 of which is Series E Bonds. The Sixth War Loan is scheduled to end December 16th, with subscriptions for E, F, and G savings notes processed by the Federal Reserve Bank between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31 counting in the official sales figures.

The quota for the state in the new drives is 414 million dollars of which 1105 million has been assigned for sales of Series E bonds. The primary objective of the Sixth War Loan, like the past several drives, will be to reach as many small investors as possible.

As in the last two war loan drives in Wheeler county, chairmen are named for each of the 21 voting precincts to see that each individual in every community has a chance to do their part in the drive. There are, however, no community quotas being set for the present drive and it is expected that every one will work in unison and purchase bonds totaling far in excess of the county quota.

These community chairmen, the same that were named for the Fourth and Fifth War Loan drives include:

Holt, today said, "by going all out in our effort to put over this, our Sixth War Loan Drive, will be a part of our showing our boys in service that we are still behind them 100 per cent. Put all the cash you can in bonds on this drive, as you have done in previous drives. It speaks well for you in the future."

Application For 1944 AAA Payment Ready For Producers Signature

V. B. Harcastle states that the State Office has been advised by the Washington Office that 1944 AAA Soil building payments can not be made until after January 1, 1945. Due to administrative rulings and the change of the program year from November 30 to December 30 payments cannot be made as early as in the past. Some soilbuilding practices are required to be in effect until the spring of 1945 and farmers are allowed until January 1, 1945 to carry out construction of dams, terracing and drilling wells, etc.

He also states that farmers should take advantage of every soil building payment applicable and adopted to their individual farm as a good farming practice. Harcastle requests that producers come to the office at their earliest convenience and sign their application as they are now prepared and waiting signature before mailing to State Office. He also urges each applicant to check his report to see that he has reported and been given credit for every practice carried out when signing his application. If applications are completed and in the State Office by January 1 payment will be made immediately thereafter.

Dairy Feed Payment for September and October

Mr. Harcastle states that the office is now ready to make September and October milk and cream payments. A Help To All

Sponsored by the American Bible Society and two participating groups, millions of service men and women with their families and friends, will join to observe a Nationwide Bible Reading from Thanksgiving - to - Christmas. The Bible has proven an inspiration to our armed forces. Those at home have long been guided by its counsel and vision. By concentrated reading, simultaneously, there will be a spiritual bond between those overseas and those who join them in reading. Through a national poll of pastors, Army and Navy chaplains, certain Bible passages have been chosen for each of the 33 days. These we will list later. With governors and pastors, newspapers and radios, co-operating to make each community aware of this mighty observance, the hope, the appreciation of mutual understanding in prayer, will bring a moral force to bear. In daily Bible reading. Many soldiers have already written home for families to join them in reading certain Bible passages, to keep faith in this way. What better stimulant to body and soul than to take the Book in hand. Of course we will observe this with reverence and concentration. Nothing but good can come from it.

On Their Way

Those millions of packages for overseas have started in for their checking, sorting and already delivery has begun in regulation method. The job is one that will tax the offices of the ports of embarkation as they represent every small corner of this land, addressed to every sector where a fighter is located. Perhaps Santa will find his way into a foxhole, the traditional stocking of khaki color, this year, will be served. Whether by jeep, transport plane or Liberty ship, the mails will get these gifts to their addresses. Of course, that is if the sender addressed the package properly, abided by the rules for shipping. Far more packages were received this year than last, but altho the job is bigger it will not be carried out less efficiently.

Enough Heat

It is difficult to imagine Athens celebrating its liberation with a slogan concerning its ninety-two political parties, which means for a country of seven million people, or 92 political parties for the size of our New York? Yet it was the old Greece that furnished the fathers of our government with programs and lessons in democracy. They knew Greece had turmoil among its political factions and the lessons to be learned was how to control passions among political parties and yet keep order among the governed. In spite of high feeling during campaigning, polling, etc., our party spirit never has made the disorder that might have resulted were we to have lost our heads. There are some who remark there is not enough difference between our two major parties, but we will be content with the variance as it is, rather than run the risk of danger to the Union.

One advantage a soldier has in sending home souvenirs to his wife, is that she can't send them back to be exchanged!

It begins to look as if Wheeler smokers are going to have to learn to roll their own.

If Mae West does write an "advise to the love-lorn" column, we are sure it will be authentic.

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

If you could forget about the men of Collingsworth who are fighting and dying in far places, you could say that this has been the most ideal fall in twenty years. Nature made it that way. Man has made it otherwise.

Indications that steel may be used more extensively in home construction after the war were given at the recent meeting of the American Institute of Steel Construction at Atlantic City. A Pittsburgh research engineer, Milton Male, predicted that a new light-gauge steel would rival wood in the building of postwar homes. He asserted that wartime tests have shown this light steel to be more economical and more efficient than wood. In comparison with wood, he said, the new steel offers greater strength, increased fire protection, reduced maintenance costs and more speed and economy in building.

A few homes with steel frames were built at least as far back as two decades ago. Several steel-frame houses have been erected in Dallas. But these generally were expensive homes in which economy was not an important factor. If steel or other metal materials can compete with lumber in price after the war, many builders will prefer the former because of fire protection and other factors. During the war, prefabricated and demountable housing units of steel have been shipped around the world and have served their purposes well. More use of metals after war would be welcome as a safeguard against rapid depletion of the nation's forests.

The situation in China is deplorable. General Stillwell was moved because he could no longer endure the international mess of warlords, grafters and factions who are fighting among themselves, rather than fighting the Japs. Chiang Kai-shek is now being pictured as another selfish warlord who is more interested in perpetuating himself in control than he is in winning the war against Japan. The truth of the situation may be months in developing.

In England no one under 30 has ever voted for Parliament. As Prime Minister Churchill has just reminded the House of Commons, no general election has been held since 1935. There have been special elections to fill vacancies in individual districts. However, as registration for new voters has been suspended for the duration, no one coming of age in the last nine years can get his name on the list.

There will be no election for at least another year. Parliament will extend its term of office, as it has done annually ever since the war started. The British are too busy fighting to take time off for a political campaign.

Soon after the war there will be an election. With 10 years or more of accumulated new voters to confound the prophets, the election results may well be surprising.

Wonder if those countries who in the past said they fought the wars while America profited from them, have changed their opinion this time?

The fellow who suggests a woman would make a better President than a man evidently hasn't heard the female politicians on the radio!

We used to ride a lot

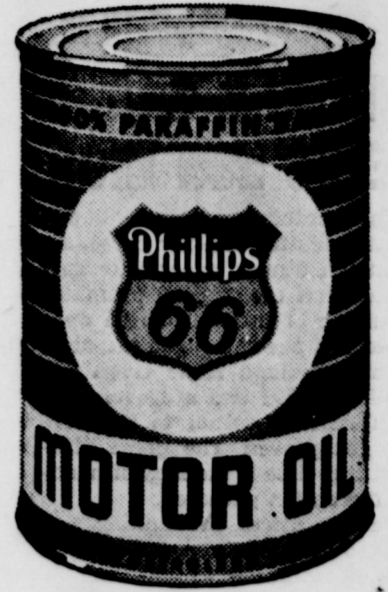

Wistful young America may not be able to understand why those long, lovely rides in the country are now only a memory.

But their patriotic fathers, meeting the necessity for conserving gasoline and for prolonging the life of tires and cars, have reduced their driving to a minimum. They know that "Care for your car—For your country" is more than a slogan, that such care is important lest the nation face a wartime crisis in domestic transportation.

So now, more than ever, they want a quality oil to preserve and protect their motors. Their only question is: How can I tell which are the quality oils?

Here is one easy answer, in a very frank statement by Phillips: If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

Experts recommend changing oil every two months. Especially, don't neglect the seasonal change this fall. Get rid of contaminated, summer-thin oil. Drain and refill with a quality lubricant. Ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

It's Phillips Finest Quality

By BOYCE HOUSE

James E. Ferguson was a stump speaker. His oratory ranged from rousing phraseology: "Fearless as any man who ever flashed a falchion in the face of a foe" to "I spit on the chip and double-dare him to knock it off."

Of a pompous opponent, Ferguson declared, "He has only two methods: blubber or bluster."

Crowds shrieked with joy as he described a scene wherein (according to Ferguson) an adversary made a frantic plea for a loan to avert disaster and "they tell me he actually got down and wallered on the floor like a cow with the cramp colic."

Frenzied supporters yelled, "Pour it on!" and Farmer Jim obliged by relating that the episode took place in a skyscraper and a confree, noting the absence of a certain rich man, hurried to the phone and urged, "Get over here quick! So-and-so is on the seventeenth floor of this building, threatening to jump out the window if he doesn't get the money." Back over the phone (Ferguson narrated) came the reply, "Open the window and let the darn fool jump."

Master of ridicule and denunciation, he uttered the biography of a political foe in a sentence. The man had made a fortune through the discovery of oil and then had seen it swept away, Ferguson said of him, "Rich by accident, poor by ignorance."

But Jim Ferguson could reach dramatic heights—as when, in Houston during one campaign, a large part of the crowd tried to howl him down. He walked to the edge of the platform and, in measured tones, declared:

"Let the historian write it down that on this night came James E. Ferguson to the city of Houston, named for the liberator of Texas, and almost within sight of the battlefield where freedom was won — and was denied the right of free speech." Quiet descended.

This tribute, the day after his death, was paid to the former Governor by Judge J. W. Strode, of Conroe. "I do not for one moment think it was necessary but if I am mistaken in this and if it was a part of the divine plan that he should ask for mercy at 2:45 p. m. yesterday when he knocked at the gates of the far beyond, I know he did so clear-eyed and with confidence, because he had extended mercy abundantly.

"Governor Ferguson was very, very human. Possibly, and without personal gain, he went too far for his friends. Possibly, at times, he was too uncompromising toward his enemies — but whatever you may think of any mistake made in his long, sad and serviceable career, I feel and know that 'in the court where his conscience shall sit as judge, he will stand acquitted, pure as light, as stainless as a star.'

THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS ARE STILL IN JAP PRISONS

What Will YOU Do About it?

REMEMBER CORREGIDOR? Remember the pictures of grinning Japanese soldiers guarding American prisoners? We're out to wipe the grins off their faces. We're out to liberate thousands of American soldiers and civilians still in Jap prisons. That day can come only with final victory.

We're out to finish the job the Japs started. The 6th War Loan Drive is part of the great national effort to win quick victory in the Pacific. The cost of victory comes high. It costs billions of dollars a month to fight Japan! But we know you'll do your full share, as you have in all the other war loan drives. Your full share is at least one extra $100 War Bond. Buy more if you possibly can. War Bonds are your best insurance of a safe, independent future.

Every four minutes of the night and day, one American home goes up in smoke! And, every two minutes, fire destroys or damages some place of business or other non-dwelling property! Are YOU adequately protected if fire sweeps your home, your furnishings, your business property? Is your insurance coverage sufficient to meet the loss? Is ALL your property included? Have you examined your insurance policies to make sure that you have the protection you think you have?

Senior News

The Seniors received their rings and pictures while school was turned out. Everyone who saw them said they were really good. The rings all most match the pins and necklaces the Seniors got last year.

Junior News

What was all the commotion Monday morning? The junior pins arrived and every one was in a dither. We think they are the best looking pins that have been in Wheeler school in a long time, and all seem to be proud of them. Some girls got necklaces, and they are good looking also. The juniors are looking two or three months ahead to a wonderful party, and the plans are accumulating all ready.

Sophomore News

The sophomore students of Wheeler high all reported back to school Monday, Nov. 13, after a five week leave. Nearly all the students were happy that school had started again; some still wish to work instead of starting back to school. I speak for all the sophomore students when I say I'm glad school has started again.

Freshman News

The freshmen met November 15, to elect a new reporter and to announce some donating in Junior Red Cross work. The new reporter is Betty May, and the freshmen regret the loss of Billie Jean Pond this week.

This And That

What was all the commotion Monday morning? Could it be because of some pins and necklaces?

When do the leaves begin to turn, Harold Ray? Maybe it's the night before exams.

Why will Mrs. Brown be so glad to see the juniors grow up?
 All the students are sorry Brother English is leaving. He taught three classes and was coach, besides being the Methodist pastor.
 Has everyone seen "Maw's" New store?

We will have a new column in the Corral next week written by Mary Alice Waters.

R. B. seems to make quite a lot of noise in study hall.

A new junior this week is Pat Patterson, he came here from Lubbock, and all the girls seem to be interested.

All the boys seem to be hanging around the library.

We were very sorry to see Bonnye Prayter leave, weren't we, Charles?

Why do Edna and Pat like sailors? Answer next week.

We wonder how it feels not being a working gal anymore? Ask Peggy.

We wonder why Richard leaves the hair oil off of his hair now. Could it be because he likes blond hair?

We wonder how Clyde feels being the only boy in English the first day.

We bet Howard W. has a nice Christmas. The freshmen have all promised him a gift if he makes A on algebra next time.

What's the matter with Jody in class? Is it because Lougene isn't there?

Vaneta has been complaining about the noise on the first row in algebra class. Look around, Vaneta.

We wonder if Billy E. had a good time Saturday night. Who made the date Bill?

Lois and La Verne are having a hard time in the library this week doing nothing.

Say, who was that flirting with Betty May, second period, Tuesday morning?

Wonder whose ring Jo Rean is wearing. Could it be Henry R.?

Oneta seemed to have had a good time while school was out for cotton picking. The freshmen boys still know the old tricks.

Ruby is so happy! Could it be because the Sadie Hawkins party turned out o. k. for her?

Football

The football team had the misfortune of losing their coach, but will try to do the best they can without him. The team will play Lefors Friday night.

NO CERTIFICATE NEEDED FOR THESE "SPARES"

Keep spare lamp bulbs on hand in your home to replace burnouts as soon as they occur. Most electric dealers now have bulbs in all common home sizes. You need no points, coupons or certificates to buy them—never did, in fact. So don't be without light these dark fall days and longer evenings.

It costs you little to have light in your home where you need it. You can be sure you are getting all you pay for if you keep your home lighting equipment in shape this way:

Begin by putting the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each lamp or fixture. Then keep the shades and diffusing bowls, as well as the bulbs, free of dust and dirt.

Use white or light-lined shades on your lamps, to reflect more usable light.

Move lamps closer to points of use, to shed more light directly on the work. You can often increase their usefulness by rearranging furniture so that one lamp will serve two people.

Your eyes need the correct amount of diffused light to perform difficult seeing tasks like reading or sewing without strain. Now is the time to see that your home lighting equipment can furnish proper illumination.

Potato Growers Get Higher Prices

Producers of early white potatoes will receive ceiling prices assuring them of the same average return as a year ago and about 17 cents a hundred weight above the legal minimum price, it is announced by the Office of Price Administration. At the same time, however, consumers will find that the average cost of this early crop of potatoes will be the same as retail prices of last season. The action was needed to maintain production at a level sufficient to meet estimated demands.

New Ceiling Price Lists For Retailers

Supplemental ceiling price lists that will include all the changes that have been made in the prices of dry groceries since issuance of the current quarterly community ceiling price lists will soon be forwarded to food retailers in most areas, the Office of Price Administration announces. Objectives of the additional lists is to make it easier for retailers and consumers to keep track of changes in ceiling prices. Under this plan it will only be necessary for grocers to post two lists for dry groceries — the quarterly list and this supplement — instead of the larger number of separate postings previously required. Thus it will be easier for housewives to find the price of an item.

Less Nitrogen For Farms

Continued high military requirements for nitrogen mean that less will be available during 1945 for use on American farms, according to a report of the Chemicals Bureau of the War Production Board to the authorization will be given at retail.

More Low Cost Shoes Seen

An increased production of low cost shoes of rationed types for men, women and children is anticipated by the War Production Board through relaxation of quality and quota restrictions. It is expected that better values will thus be made available to the public. The amended order eliminates price line and quota restrictions on footwear under certain price levels. The order affects shoes selling about $4 to men, $3 to $3.50 for women, and $2.75 to $3 for children.

Distillers' Alcohol Not Needed In January

Facilities of the nations grain beverage distillers will not be needed during January for making industrial alcohol, states J. A. Krug, Chairman of the War Production Board. The distillers, however, will return to industrial alcohol output in February 1945. The January release reflects the cut in requirements of alcohol for synthetic rubber during the fourth quarter of this year, due to the nearing of capacity rates by synthetic rubber plants producing butadiene from petroleum.

Army Releases Pacific Area Mail

Families of soldiers engaged in operations in the Philippines will soon be receiving batches of mail that have been delayed for security reasons during the period preceding the invasion of these islands. Some 400,000 letters and a large number of parcels were impounded. This mail originated with units now engaged in American army operations in the Philippines. Some of the letters date as far back as last July.

Mrs. Buster Walsler of Borger spent the week end in Wheeler. W. G. Hargett of Dallas is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richards and other relatives.

ON TO TOKYO!

Let's all get behind the greatest march in history—the march to Tokyo—and victory!

On countless invasion fronts, thousands of your fighting men are taking up the battle cry: "On to Tokyo!" We've got to back them up with what it takes for complete victory. Remember, the supply lines in the Pacific are long and your fighting men will need more material than was required for the entire European invasion to crush the Jap foe.

Let's Echo that cry with BONDS!

Our boys won't quit until they've reached their goal. Let's not stop buying Bonds until we've reached ours! In this 6th War Loan Drive, the Nation's goal is $14 billions ... our individual job is to buy at least an extra $100 Bond ... another and then another ... let's keep on going ... let's keep on buying ... let's keep on saying it with Bonds... Handle and Cook Game Properly
Quail season is just around the corner. Not to mention the deer season in much of Texas. And ducks and geese are the hunters' targets. The shameful truth is — a good deal of game often is wasted just because hunters and homemakers don't know how to keep and cook it properly.

So if you hunt or cook — here are some suggestions you may find helpful. They come from the wildlife and food preparation specialists of the A. and M. Extension Service — R. E. Callender and Miss Edith Lawrence.

The weather has a lot to do with how you treat game. If it's fairly warm, you'd better not keep birds more than a day without cleaning them. After a bird is drawn, the body cavity should be wiped dry — but don't wash it with water. Some hunters skin game birds instead of picking the feathers simply because it's easier. But many experts believe you'll lose flavor if the bird is skinned.

Mr. Callender says game animals should be bled and cleaned immediately after they're killed. They should also be kept dry.

Now about cooking. Remember that wild meat is likely to be dryer and tougher than domestic meat. Usually it's very lean, too, and fat should be added. Often game needs longer cooking than other meat, and it's advisable to use a covered pan, Miss Lawrence says.

Otherwise, most of the rules for cooking poultry and red meat hold for game. Venison that is young and tender may be broiled, fried, or roasted. Older meat should be braised or fricassed. It is a good idea to let older meat age for several days. Then give it the long, slow, moist cooking treatment.

If you've a particular prejudice against the wild taste of game, Miss Lawrence suggests that you cook vegetables with it, such as onions or potatoes. Carrots, celery, apples, or green pepper also would do the trick.

The Times War Time Reporter Says

My Granddaddy, I reckon, liked to chew tobacco better than anybody I ever saw. He chewed so much tobacco that he wore a hole thru both cheeks and grandma put on red patches on the outside to match his nose. I guess he was the best spitter I ever knew. He could hit a quails eye 4 times out of five on the fly, and I've seen him spit through the eye of a needle at twenty feet and never hit the thread.

My poem today is dedicated to an old friend that's about to pass on. I've patched the patches on you, old suit.

Your lining is thread bare, For many years we've been good pals.

No more good times we'll share. I've even took you out, old pal, With baggy knees and shiny seat; With all my heart I've cared for you And done my best to keep you neat.

But our ways must part, old pal, For I can't trust the strength of thee. I fear if I should bend too quick Some one would get a look at me.

4-H CLUB NOTES

The deadline for girls writing 4-H histories is December 1st. The winning contestant will be awarded the 4-H Gold Star pin. To be eligible for the award the girl must be completing at least her third year of club work. A county committee will visit each candidate's demonstrations and select one Gold Star winner from these candidates.

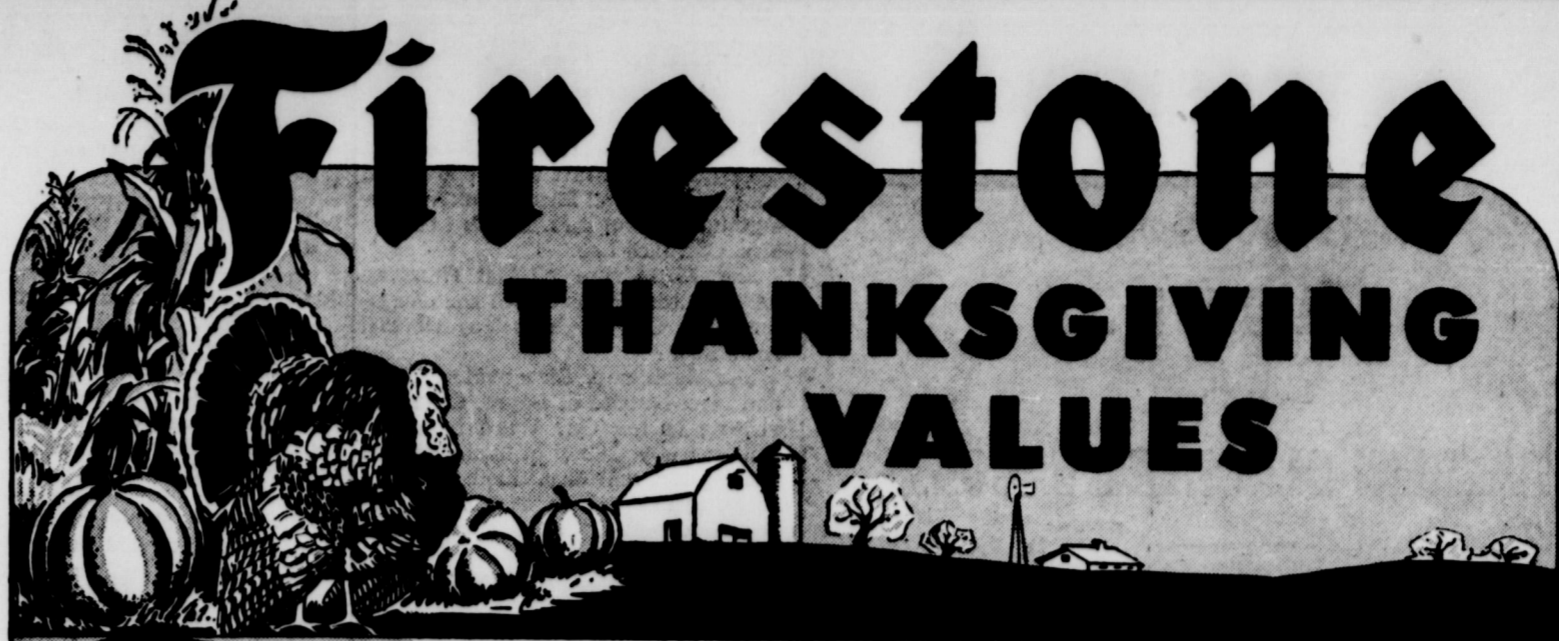

The Twitty 4-H club met Wednesday, November 8th, at the school house. After a brief business session with Alberta Winters, president, in charge, Miss Amy Sue Beckett, assistant home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on "Eating by the Texas Food Standard." The girls planned three meals for one day and checked to see how it measured by the Texas Food Standard.

The next meeting will be November 20th with their sponsor Miss Mawrine Jeter in charge.

Those attending were Dolores Welty, Jo Tanner, Novilla Hill, Alberta Winters, Wanda Fern See, Edwina Brown, Billie Ruth Shaffer, Mary Pearl McQuary, Joan Stevens, and Peggy Hefley and Louise Winters.

MOVIE CHATTER

Navy Way

Friday - Saturday

Here we have a trim job telling you about the training of our sailors but not how they fight. For a change the warring is omitted. The setting is at the Great Lakes Naval Station and the story is of four boys and how they reacted to discipline in various ways. Robert Lowery is the non-conformist who learns the hard way. Families of navy men will especially appreciate this entertainment.

Banjo On My Knee

Prevue-Sunday-Monday

Although some of the movie patrons saw this production several years ago, it is good enough for producers to reissue. So it must be good enough for you to see again. The story ingredients are tried and true entertainment elements — romance, comedy, melodrama, music, dancing, excitement and suspense. Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea and Walter Brennan play leading roles. The last mentioned you will remember as "Thunder" in the recent movie "Home In Indiana."

Story Of Dr. Wassell

Wednesday - Thursday

Here is an inspired, highly colored cinema saga of the life, loves and adventures of a country doctor who started in Arkansas and became eventually and eventually a hero of our World War II. The inspiration for this story came while Cecil B. DeMille, the producer, sat listening to Pres. Roosevelt discussing the heroism of our men-at-arms, pointing his remarks with reference to Dr. C. M. Wassell, of the Navy, who, with endless courage, endurance and skill, had saved the lives of thirteen wounded Americans who had been all but lost to the merciless Japanese in Java. This is the story of facts and a real person. Dr. Wassell himself says it is "98 per cent documentary." In technicolor, with Gary Cooper and Laraine Day it is heralded everywhere as the very best entertainment.
