Marion McRae, S1-C Died May 4 As Result Of Ship Being Sunk

Marion Verl McRae, S1-C, grandson of O. D. Richardson of the Locust Grove community, lost his life as a result of enemy action on May 4, while in the service of his country.

McRae, 20 years old, was on the USS Luce, which was sunk off the shores of Okinawa during the heat of the battle to take that island from the Japanese.

Soon after the sinking of the ship, Mr. Richardson was notified that his grandson was missing in action. A month later, notice came that he was still missing. July 15, a telegram from Vice Admiral Randall Jacobs, Chief of Naval Personnel, advised "facts available lead to the conclusion there is no hope for his survival."

Seaman First Class McRae was born December 24, 1925, at the Richardson home in the Locust Grove community. His mother, the former Miss Mary Richardson, passed away following the birth of the child, and he was reared by his grandfather.

Volunteering for service in November, 1943, he took his Naval training at San Francisco and Seattle Washington. After being home on leave in March, 1944, he left for overseas service.

Verl was a nephew of Albert and Everett Richardson, also of the Locust Grove community.

Another new location announced last week is the Pendleton and Vaughn No. 4 McDowell, 1320 feet from north and east lines of section 29, block 23, HQGN survey. Completed last week was the Pendleton & Vaughn No. 2 McDowell, section 50, block 23, HQGN survey, drilled to 1827 feet. Pay of 4.6 million cubic feet of gas was won from 1668 to 1742 feet after treatment with 1500 gallons of acid.

Pampa Army Air Field To Hold "Open House" Next Wednesday P. M.

Pampa Army Air Field, Pampa, Texas, (Special) — Elaborate celebrations of Army Air Force Day will be held at Pampa Army Air Field Wednesday afternoon, August 1, when residents of the Panhandle will have the opportunity to inspect the air base and see a myriad of AAF activities, it was announced today by Col. James A. De Marco, commanding officer, who extended the "open house" invitation.

The program of events has been arranged to mark the 38th anniversary of the establishment in 1907 of the aeronautical division of the office of the chief signal officer.

Tentative plans indicate that the day will be packed with events which visitors will be sure to find of interest. A B-25 Mitchell bomber will be on display and sightseers may inspect the plane from a specially constructed ramp.

All parts of the installation, including the link trainer department, the cadet detachment and production line maintenance, will be open for inspection and experienced guides will be on hand to point out items of interest and to answer questions.

Formation flying with 48 planes, made up of eight elements with six planes in each element, will be a feature of the day. An enlisted men's track and field meet has also been planned and a baseball game will be a feature of the afternoon's activities.

Of interest to many of the visitors will be the new War Information Room, which will be formally opened, following recent renovations. The same building houses the Pampa Army Air Field's Hall of Fame.

One of the biggest features of the day will be a demonstration of ground-to-plane communication which visitors will hear through a public address system tied in with the control tower.

Visitors also will have an opportunity to see a formal military review with all military personnel participating. Col. DeMarco said. Arrangements have been completed with the Liberty Bus Co., Pampa, so that half-hour service will be given to and from the air base at a special rate of 25 cents per round trip.

Complete plans have not been made, but it was indicated that a typical education and information program will go on in the post theater during the afternoon and that many other items of interest will be on the program, copies of which will be printed and distributed to all visitors.

Home Demonstration Council To Meet July 28

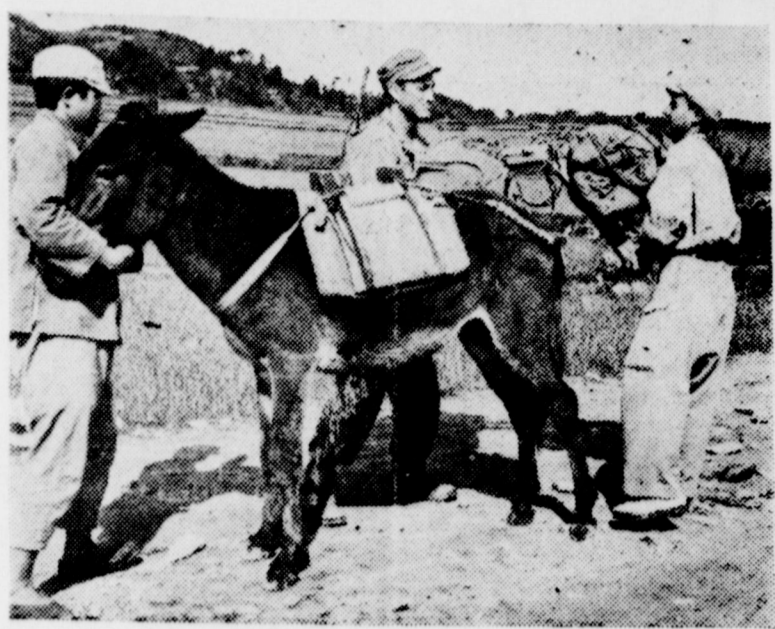

The Home Demonstration Club Council will meet next Saturday, July 28, in the District Court Room at 2:30 p. m.

"This council meeting will be used primarily as a 'check-up' to see how many projects and goals already have been met and how many remain to be worked on in 1945," states Mrs. Zeman, County Home Demonstration Agent.

August 1st Is Final Transfer Date

August 1 is the deadline for school transfers. A. C. Wood, acting county superintendent, reminded parents this week.

Mr. Wood pointed out that those children who have completed the grades taught in their home district and will go elsewhere to attend school must be transferred as well as all others who plan to enroll in some school outside their own district.

Chinese Combat Command, U. S. Army—Technician Fourth Grade John B. Cook of Wheeler, serving with a veterinary detachment of the Chinese Combat Command, is shown loading a pack animal assisted by two Chinese soldiers.

Americans of the CCC, under Maj. Gen. R. B. McClure, Palo Alto, Calif.; work very closely with the Chinese armies, divisions and smaller units under Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, supreme commander of the Chinese Army, in the war against Japan's great continental military power in China.

This liaison is concerned primarily with the planning and execution of field training and tactical operations, and with the receipt, distribution and assignment of American equipment and supplies for Chinese military units.

Believe It Or Not! Wheeler Is Without A School Superintendent

Do you have a friend who has a brother-in-law whose cousin's wife knows of a good school superintendent looking for a good job. If you do, contact a member of the local school board for Wheeler needs to employ a superintendent as quickly as possible. The board has employed three since Superintendent Jesse Dyer tendered his resignation a few months ago but most everything in the book has happened since then.

F. M. Shawver, who has been head of the Kellerville school system for the past few years, was first employed, but after being ill for several months in the spring his doctors advised him to try a different altitude. Upon his resignation, C. M. Puckett of Odell was employed but died a few days later following an operation. Last week H. H. Risinger of Dodson accepted the superintendency of the school and his wife was to teach in the grades but superintendents are scarce and the Dodson board promptly decided to raise their school head's salary six hundred bucks per year if he would stay with them. Result—Wheeler needs a superintendent.

Pfc. Clint Westmoreland Is Reported Wounded

Marine Private First Class Clint R. Westmoreland, about 20 years old, has been listed by the War Department as wounded in action in the Southwest Pacific area.

Clint is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westmoreland of Twitty. The Marine has notified his parents that he received a shoulder wound but that it was slight and that he expected to be out of the hospital and back in service soon.

The Twitty youth has been in service about one year and trained at San Diego, California. He fought the Japs at Okinawa and while there received publicity through a picture released in newspapers throughout the United States. The picture showed Clint, who is small in stature, along with a big Marine Lieutenant, and the caption read: "No Jap too big or too little for them."

CITY OF WHEELER NEEDS TO CONDUCT GENERAL CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN — An Editorial

Wheeler has one of the most modern and adequate water systems for a town its size in the state. It has just as modern sewage disposal system. Its natural setting, with a large number of trees and shrubbery, is not favored by many towns of the Panhandle area. During the past few months the paving of the wide streets in the down town area is a project of which any town could justly be proud. Plans are under way now for the construction of several feet of sidewalk. Recently, new residences have been erected, many others have modeled and re-decorated as have several of the business houses. With arrangements made for the trash to be removed from the alleys, much has been done in clearing objectionable trash and junk where it was properly piled for pick-up. City ordinances have been passed to govern sanitary conditions such as limitations in regard to number of livestock, location of pens, sanitary pit toilets, if located in the city limits, etc.

With all this, and many other wholesome potentialities, there exists in our village of something over one thousand souls, conditions that are deplorable. Citizens have become careless regarding the keeping of live stock in town, certain alleys are littered with weeds, trash and in many cases filth of fly-breeding nature, in some cases out-door toilets are no more fly-proof than if their four walls did not exist. Even we of the business section have allowed paper and trash to collect in front of our buildings and are failing to use proper means of keeping flies away from our doors. Will we wait until a polio or typhoid scare invades the town? Are we all working so many hours that we cannot take a little time off to correct certain conditions that everyone knows should be corrected? Are we so dumb as to not realize that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure? The local Chamber of Commerce has discussed the possibilities of staging a city-wide clean-up campaign, of some means of getting every business man and every other citizen interested to the degree that some action, action whereby results will be realized, will be taken. If it's a matter of finance there is little doubt that adequate money would be contributed since there are few business and residence owners who do not have more money at present than they have had in years. Why wait?—Let's do something—NOW!

State Property Tax Rate Is Increased

The automatic tax board has set the state property tax rate for 1945 at 72 cents per $100 valuation, an increase of 15 cents over last year's rate.

Taxes under the new rate are payable beginning October 1. The new rate breaks down on the basis of 35 cents per $100 valuation for general fund support, 35 cents for the available school fund and two cents for the confederate veterans' pension fund.

Rates in the respective categories for last year were 35 cents, 18 cents and two cents.

The new assessed valuation upon which the 1945 rate will be levied is $4,084,993,824, an increase of $52,000,000.

Each division of the new rate is the maximum permitted by law and the constitution. The general fund rate of 35 cents is necessary to meet general fund obligations for next year. The 35-cent school tax rate is necessary to meet the $30 per capita scholastic apportionment set by the state board of education for next year. The per capita is an increase of $5 over this year. The confederate veterans' pension fund tax rate is set by statute which leaves the board no alternative, although the fund has about a $3,000,000 balance.

The general revenue rate is calculated to produce $12,875,964 next year and the school rate is estimated to yield $12,155,583.

Jap Morale

It has long been regarded as the duty of each Japanese, to smile. He found this to be a Jap custom of long standing, and no matter what his station, he must muster up a smile even if it is only just to be polite. Living in Japan today has put a damper on the smile and so the radio puts out programs to advocate smiling, to appear cheerful and thus not allowing the enemy to detect any unhappiness among the Japanese people. With the already slim diet reduced further by 20%, the difficulty in smiling is apparent. Japanese don't have heavy meals in normal times. Clothing is rationed and coal for fuel is taken away entirely, for civilian use. Amusement houses are almost all closed. Travel is out for the private individual for any journey over 60 miles and he has to get an official priority for even that. Every worker, every citizen is now under government order, which force can move him any place at any time. There are no rest periods in industry and all males from 12 to 60 have to work, females from 12 to 40. Women are preparing to fight when invasion comes. It is understood from returns, that the Japanese people are like the Germans when they too were definitely sure the end was coming and victory lost, that they would like to give up, to have peace. But, in order to live they are forced to fight to the bitter and disastrous end. When you consider their hopeless life, the day to day struggle, just to keep face before the enemy by smiling is ridiculous. They are not happy about the situation, in any way.

Towards Death

We seem to head for death with faster post-war autos. Having held to our 35-mile speed, removing the limitation will probably result in an unprecedented race, making us wish a car couldn't go so fast. The pictures of some of the new cars for the future might relieve our minds, when we see they have wider and stronger bumpers. Maybe it means better protection to motorists in the car construction. This is what the manufacturer can do for us, but the speed harm, we do ourselves. Flying airplanes at such high rates of speed won't help returning boys to keep to a slower-for-safety program when they go back to the family bus. If, however, we can't see the folly in our ways, perhaps the builder of autos, as he thinks of safer bumpers will hold us in check by thinking in terms of speed and sudden death.

The Flier Things

War leads to many advances and discoveries in medical science, but war does not seem to promote the artistic urge, the arts seem to suffer and the expression in painting, poetry, composing, drama and writing all appear to stand still. The fact is that the highest level for such of these arts comes from not grim terror of battle, but is inspired from a peaceful contemplation of those things war affects. Many of our critics judge the best books written on the war theme, are not written during war but afterwards when there is time for reflection. This doesn't mean that some poems, some books, music and plays are ineffective be-

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

Items of interest culled from newspapers on the Times' exchange list.

We run into new ones every week. Last week a woman selling advertisements on a "folder" to be printed somewhere, came in and asked for a copy of the paper. Then she asked if The News would be interested in buying an ad on the "folder." We said we were not interested, and reminded her that a "thank you" is not pay for a copy of The News. Then she said, "Oh, in that case I don't want the paper. I sold an ad to a customer who said I could get a copy of his advertisement here. I'll just go back and have him write one."

Any time a solicitor of "advertising" cannot spend as much as a nickel in town, we don't care for some. Maybe it could be said that The News is entitled to buy "donation advertising" as well as anyone, and we will gladly do so when the donation goes to a worthy cause. The merchant who distributes the "advertising" will get a break that is far in excess of the others. And on the other hand, The News could furnish "folders" for a fraction of the sum accumulated by selling ads to everyone. —McLean News

If, in saying that this country does not want any territory, President Truman meant that it would waive its claim to the mandated islands in the Pacific, he was taking an unrealistic stand, and one out of keeping with his country's thought and interest. He may not have intended that his words apply to the Pacific islands formerly under Japanese mandate, but interested parties are likely to place that construction on what he said.

The American people do not want any more colonies, in the accepted sense of the term. They do not want any additional territory, merely as territory. They do want their government to retain such of the islands won by American valor as will definitely be useful for airfields and as bastions for defense. It will be necessary to possess some other islands, not actually needed for these purposes, in order to prevent their being occupied by nations whose interests might conflict with our own. The American policy in such matters must be not only realistic, but even hard-boiled. So far from being inconsistent with the hopes for a lasting peace, the American attitude supports and furthers those hopes. —Wichita Falls Record-News

There is the drum beat of destiny in the words of Dr. Wei Tao-Ming, the Chinese ambassador to the United States.

"The question now is not how long China can stand the strain. It is how much can Japan take and how soon will she collapse."

Great words, these. Think how through most of seven years since the "incident" of the Marco Polo bridge with which Japan opened its cause they have come during war, but the young who express talent in these lines, on the whole, have to keep to the subject of staying alive that tomorrow, when peace comes, they can display their worth in the arts. Such is the way of war.

The Times War Time Reporter Says

Folks I'll tell you I never will forget the time Grandpa's old sow wandered off down on the creek and a big catfish swallowed her. But she was a purty tuff old sow and managed to work her feet through that catfish and walked out of the creek with him. Grandpa went out to feed and when he saw that catfish a walking around a grunting and a squealing he liked to swallowed his uppers.

You know today my mind got on the Panhandle and I just got to living over some of their troubles—and so I am going to dedicate my poem to 'em.

When the summer winds start blowing
And there's little signs of rain,
All the feed stuff is a burning,
With small chance of making grain.

All the plans they made last winter,
That new car they planned to buy,
Seems so far away at present
But they surely made a try.

Then dark clouds begin to gather,
And it seems they are to stay,
As the gentle rains start falling
Crops are made for them that day.

cruel war on China, the Chinese have had to hang on doggedly. The constant, sometimes almost hopeless question was: How long can China stand the strain?

Now, with new armament, with rapidly increasing allied assistance, with Japan's cities under destructive bombing night and day, China is already winning an ever widening front. Her armies at least are on their march to victory. Probably no one, not even an informed Chinese, can guess what it means along the dirt roads, over the mountains, up the muddy rivers, wherever the electric word passes that the issue of victory has been determined.

"How long" is now asked of Japan, not of China. —Amarillo Times

Take it from young Jimmy Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Thompson, a plain .22 shell can be just as dangerous as the traditional "unloaded gun"—that is, if the shell has recently been rescued from a fire, and a delayed action explosion occurs while the shell is in your hands. That was the accident that happened to Jimmy and yesterday morning the bullet was removed from his hand. —Hereford Brand

Senator Tom Connally is in the eye of America. He successfully guided the San Francisco Charter through the touchy Senate Foreign Affairs Committee. The Charter will be before the Senate next week. We've Had Some Interesting Experiences, Too!

Whether you fly 'em . . . or make the fuel that flies 'em . . . you learn something!

The boys who have been filling Tojo's fleet as full of holes as an old tin can will have some interesting stories to tell when they get home.

And Phillips is going to have some interesting things to tell you (and show you) too!

Because a big part of our job the last five years has been to produce the 100-octane Aviation Fuel that has kept the big boys over Berlin and Tokio. And it hasn't always been an easy job.

In some ways it has involved almost as many trials and tribulations as a pilot goes through before he wins his wings. We've built vast new laboratories and staffed them with the wisest and most experienced scientists we could find. We've built new plants and introduced new processes. In short, we've gone "all out"—with every bit of brains and brawn we have—to give our fliers every ounce of precious 100-octane fuel that could be produced!

The result—today Phillips is one of the very biggest producers of 100-octane Aviation Fuel in the country! That's a mighty important fact—and one of which we're very proud.

And it's a significant fact, too—for every man and woman who plans to drive a car after the war. Because you can bet your bottom dollar that all the experience, all the know-how, all the scientific knowledge we've gained in becoming one of the largest producers of 100-octane gasoline—will be packed into the Phillips 66 Gasoline which powers your post-war car!

When you see the Phillips 66 Shield, remember—it stands for fuels for Victory today, and fuels for better driving tomorrow.

American knows that the lack of unity among the nations, who are opposed to the Axis movement, will certainly lead to another war. It is just as well that we remember our position in 1918-19. We withdrew from international affairs, and were hit by the bloodiest and most costly war the world has ever experienced. We do not want to see the same thing happen again. Most of the rank isolationists in the Senate are now convinced that America must take its place at the peace table, or the next generation will suffer another war. —Canyon News

On this the 20 day of July, 1945, the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County, Texas, convened in special session, at the regular meeting place thereof in the Courthouse at Wheeler, Texas, with the following members of the Court, to-wit:

Commissioner Montgomery introduced an order and moved its adoption. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Anglin. The motion, carrying with it the adoption of the order, prevailed by the following vote:

AYES: Commissioners All.
 NOES: Commissioners None.

The order is as follows:

WHEREAS, at the general election held throughout the State of Texas on November 7, 1944, the qualified electors of the State, voting on the proposition, approved the amendment to Section 9, of Article 8, of the Texas Constitution, which amendment provides that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the county tax levies authorized in said Section 9 of Article 8, by changing the rates provided for any of the purposes authorized in said Section by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of such taxes exceed Eighty (80c) Cents on the one hundred dollars' valuation for any one year, provided that before the Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in such levies the same shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such county at a general or special election; and in event such re-allocations and changes are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of any such county, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which same shall have been approved, unless the same again shall have been changed by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of such county, voting on the proposition; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County, Texas, deems it advisable and to the best interest of said County to re-allocate the county taxes authorized to be levied annually by Section 9, Article 8, of the Constitution, by changing the rates in respect to certain county taxes as herein provided;

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED BY THE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF WHEELER COUNTY, TEXAS:

MOVIE CHATTER (By a Rogue)

Marshal Of Reno
Wild Bill Elliott and Gabby Hayes will be at the Rogue Theatre Friday-Saturday, July 27-28, in a rip-snorting western picture called Marshal of Reno. This will be the first time we have had Gabby with the Red Ryder, Wild Bill Elliott, so we are suggesting that you come out and get acquainted with this new cowboy. We are sure that you will enjoy Gabby as you have always done in the past.

It's A Pleasure

Prevue - Sunday - Monday, July 28-29-30, brings another Technicolor production to the screen at the Rogue. And we can assure you that you will be delightfully pleased with It's a Pleasure which stars Sonja Henie and Michael O'Shea. If you have ever seen Miss Henie on ice skates you will have a pretty good idea as to what kind of picture to expect. The photography is enhanced by the great outdoors, while the story is laid against a tuneful background of gorgeous girls and fast moving comedy. It's just the kind of picture that Prevue audiences go for in a big way.

Here Come The Waves

Here Come The Waves stars Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton and Sonny Tufts. We do not think you need any coaxing in order to come out to see this one. The playdate is Wednesday-Thursday, August 1-2 at the Rogue. Will we be seeing you, or are you going to be stubborn and miss a perfectly swell show? Your friends will all be talking about the picture and you will just have to admit that you were a chump and stayed away... or will you?

Worley Writes Of Europe's Reaction To President's Death

By Eugene Worley

The death of the late President Roosevelt occasioned genuine and almost universal sorrow. Our convoy was four days out on the Atlantic when the news of the President's death was picked up by short wave radio. Immediately a deep gloom pervaded the entire ship, from the highest ranking officer aboard to the lowest. One soldier was heard to remark, "Roosevelt dies but fellows like Hitler live." This, of course, was before the Battle of Berlin, where Hitler was supposed to have perished leading his men in defense of the German capital.

Memorial services for FDR were held aboard ship during some of the roughest weather old timers said they had ever seen. Every ship in the convoy was rolling and pitching with many decks washed by high smashing waves. Such weather reminded us of the grim realities and extreme urgency of the economic and political waves through which the American ship of state is passing and must pass.

All flags of the Allied nations were at half mast in London. From taxi driver to the Prime Minister ample evidence of sorrow and concern was written on all faces. The French people reflected the same sense of personal loss and the same was true of most of the Italians. And in Greece and Palestine, Roosevelt's death was mourned. But I saw no trace of concern, one way or the other, in Germany.

On everyone's lips was the query "Who is this fellow Truman?" "What is his background?" "Will he see the world problems as Roosevelt did and will he follow the same policies?"

Needless to say, there was deep concern for several weeks after Truman assumed the killing duties of the highest office in the United States—and even the world, for that matter. However, after Truman's first address to Congress this feeling of fear and uncertainty began to diminish. His subsequent quick and positive acts in endorsing the San Francisco Peace Parley, the Reciprocal Trade Agreement, Bretton Woods, his unconditional surrender insistence, and other positive positions on world wide questions had completely eliminated the "What - does - this - fellow - Truman - stand - for?" wonder of many nations in the world. And has definitely added to the stature and prestige of the United States. The next test of Truman as an individual and as President of one of the greatest powers history has ever known, comes at his conference with Stalin and Churchill.

Most everyone in Washington believes the former farm boy from the "Show-me" State, who has surrounded himself with sound, learned and practical men, will emerge from the conference with increased prestige and added respect.

Mrs. R. T. Watts and Lois Laverne visited relatives in Pampa Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Roscoe Allen and children went to Amarillo Monday for a week's visit with her sister.

Fat-Salvage Bee To Aid in Licking National Fat Shortage

It's been ages since we had an old-fashioned "bee" in these parts, but just as we've always pitched in to help a neighbor, so must we pitch in for our country. To help make hundreds of battlefield and home-front essentials, more used fats are needed than are on hand. City folks are trying to make up the deficit of over 1,200,000,000 pounds. But their fate aren't enough. Women in small cities, towns and rural districts must also save every drop of fat. Not just big amounts. But scraps of plates, meat trimmings. Melt them down once a week. Your butcher will give you up to 4¢ and 2 red points a pound. If you have any difficulty, call Home Demonstration or County Agent. Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.

Favors Says All our Constitutional Amendments Should Pass

State Representative Ennis Favours of Pampa, declared today that all our Constitutional Amendments submitted to the people in a State wide election on August 25th this year should pass and that he knew of no serious opposition to any of them, but admitted there was very little interest in the election. He said the FIRST Amendment on the ballot permitted members of the Armed Forces, or ex-members honorably discharged, 18 months or less, to vote during the war and 18 months thereafter without the payment of any poll tax; the SECOND provided for a continuous salary of all members of the Legislature during their term of office; the THIRD provided for a Nine Judge Supreme Court of Texas; and the FOURTH increased pensions for the needy old people from $30.00 to $40.00 per month, including both State and Federal funds. Surely he said, only a few people at the outside would object to allowing members, or ex-members of the Armed forces vote under the conditions of the First Amendment and that because the Governor vetoed the conditions of the First Amendment and that because the Governor vetoed the Statutory Bill, it did not mean that he had any objection to the Constitutional Amendment. As to continuous pay for members of the Legislature, he said that every body agreed that approximately $600.00 per year was not enough pay for a member of the Legislature, and that $3,600.00 per year would attract bigger and better men to offer for the office and result in fewer and more sensible laws. He insisted that we now have a Nine Judge Supreme Court and that only three wrote the opinions, and said this Amendment would permit all Nine Judges to participate in opinions. Favours said naturally it would take more money to pay $40.00 pensions to the needy old people but that no additional State taxes would be required and that he presumed if this Amendment should pass, the next Legislature would transfer more money from the Clearance Fund to the Old Age Assistance Fund, and that if the Amendment failed, the next Legislature would not be so liberal with the old people and probably would reduce appropriations for pensions.

By BOYCE HOUSE

J. E. Crews of San Antonio has written a poem entitled "The Call of Texas:"

We sons of Texas hear her call
Wherever we may roam;
Her diamond studded skies at night
Are beacon lights of home,
For well we love our native state
Where brooks and rivers flow,
And honor all the pioneers
Who came so long ago.

No matter where our journey leads,
No matter where we stray,
We always hear that constant call
From Texas, far away,
And long for snow-white cotton fields

Where darkies work and sing—
To hear the song of mockingbirds,
At midnight, clearly ring.

The scenes of childhood call to us,
Where simpler things abound,
Where cabins nestle in the woods,
With stillness all around;
We hear an old red rooster crow
In melancholy tone,
Which tells as plain as spoken words,
"The folks are not at home."

We boast of lofty skylines in
Our cities, that is true,
But the scenes that really call to us,

Sure folks as me and you,
Are old, adobe ranch houses,
Low, rambling, plain and strange,
And cowboys rounding up great herds
Of cattle on the range.

The sight of some old mission wall,
Beside a crystal stream,
The crumbling ruins of old forts,
Are monuments of dream;
And live oaks veiled in Spanish
moss

Beside a still lagoon,
Cast their enchanting silhouettes
Against the southern moon.

Ah, long her hills have sheltered us
Within her proud domain,
Where sunset sheds its mellow glow
Across the rolling plain,
Her wondrous beauty and her charm
Can never half be told,
Nor painter's brush, nor poet's song,
The picture half unfold.

Picnic Lunch Honors Court Members, Wives

A picnic lunch honoring members of the Commissioners Court and their wives was held Monday, July 23, in the backyard of the home of Judge and Mrs. George Hefley.

Mrs. Green Burkhalter, Recreation Chairman for the County Home Demonstration Council, lead the group in recreation. Each person attending received three peanuts. Every person who was lured into using the word "No" lost a peanut. The game continued through the noon hour. A fine market for peanuts could have been established with this group.

In the semi-annual report to the Commissioners Court these 4-H club girls, Georgia Gay Porter, Joy Williams, and Rozena Helton, told in conversational manner of work in Wheeler county. Examples of their work were shown which included beautifully canned fruits and vegetables from their gardens and well-made dresses and aprons. They told of many accomplishments including planting cherry trees and improving their bedrooms. 4-H clubs have worked on garden exhibits and are now working toward their annual encampment.

Four Home Demonstration club women gave high-lights of the women's work. Mrs. Henry Lee had posters or products to illustrate the demonstrations given by the home demonstration agent from January through June.

May Ruth Stauffer told the group that 150 pressure cookers were tested in 16 communities. Club women tested their own and their neighbors' cookers.

Mrs. C. G. Cantrell Sr., told that more than 100 articles made of sacks were turned in by club women for the sack exhibits in Shamrock and Wheeler. Another county-wide exhibit is to be arranged in September on "made-over garments." Seven home demonstration clubs have arranged individual club exhibits in their club vicinity. There will be others.

Mrs. Ernest Zybach reminded the group that the 398 dozen pineapple were bought by 337 families at a saving of 537,300 blue points from the resulting 9,950 points of pineapple canned.

4-H club girls and home demonstration club women joined in expressing appreciation for help and cooperation from the Commissioners Court.

Club women attending and Mrs. Hefley brought basket lunches. Arrangements for the picnic lunch were made by the following club women and the Hefleys: Mesdames Hester Dodson, J. H. Watts, and R. L. Ramsey.

TO SEE YOU THROUGH

The days are gone when you could trust to luck and get by with inferior lubrication. These days, your present car, truck or tractor equipment has got to last.

You can count on Amalie Motor oils to give lasting, extra protection. They are refined from pure, 100% Pennsylvania crudes by the exclusive Amalie straight-run method. Conclusive tests prove they are far richer in oiliness—the vital essential to effective protection — than less carefully refined oils. Switch to Amalie NOW.
