

Mobeetie Church Building Fund Half Subscribed

Methodists of the Mobeetie vicinity subscribed more than half of the estimated cost of their proposed new $8,000 church building at a banquet held there Monday night, launching formal opening of the building campaign.

Less than 100 persons attending the affair volunteered contributions amounting to $4,600 and there is no question in the minds of the leaders of the movement that the building fund will be over-subscribed as soon as solicitors have traversed the territory.

The building committee headed by John Dunn, L. D. McCauley and Homer Matthews, plans to launch the building program as rapidly as possible although construction will, of course, have to await availability of materials.

Rev. E. D. Landreth of Clarendon district superintendent, was guestmaster at Monday night's banquet and the appeal for contributions to the building fund was made following a talk by Rev. Hugh H. Hunt, Wheeler Methodist pastor, on the topic, "The Building in the Kingdom of God." Rev. Hunt, incidentally, had served as architect in drawing up plans of the new edifice.

The proposed new Mobeetie church is a semi-Gothic, stucco structure. Tentative plans call for a seating capacity of between 200 and 250. There will be a church parlor and other departments in connection.

The new Methodist church will be a welcome addition to that fine, substantial community, and The Times joins in extending congratulations to those responsible for the leadership in the movement.

BRONCS READY FOR CLARENDON

The Wheeler Mustangs who have had the misfortune of playing four games without a victory thus far, will journey to Clarendon Friday for a tussle with the Broncs of Donley county when they hope to shake off the jinx that has beset them from the start of the season.

Coach L. G. Kammerdiener will take his small herd of Mustangs in full strength. He has been sending the boys through strenuous workouts the past week and practice scrimmage has seemed to strengthen both the offense and defense of his inexperienced string.

The Mustangs have been developing a stronger aerial game and given the breaks they are entitled to Friday after their long run of hard luck, they may administer a drubbing to their opponents who are favored on paper.

Coach Kammerdiener is hopeful a sizeable crowd of fans will accompany the Mustangs to Clarendon. Public support of the team has not been strong in the past two games and he points out that morale is an important factor especially among players who have had more than their share of costly bad breaks, and who are comparatively new in gridiron combat.

Despite the school vacation, the coach and his boys have been working hard daily to prepare themselves for a mid-season comeback. Fans should show their appreciation by turning out for the Clarendon contest.

The bus carrying football players and members of the Girls Pep Squad will leave the Square promptly at 4:30 o'clock. The game is called for 7:30.

Lefors Tickets Go On Sale Saturday

Football tickets for the Wheeler-Lefors game to be played Friday of next week will be on sale at the drug stores next Saturday for the convenience of fans. L. G. Kammerdiener, superintendent of schools, announced Thursday. Only adult tickets are offered in the advance sale. They are 60c each, tax included.

PLEA IS MADE BY TEEN AGERS

Mrs. R. William Brown representing the Wednesday Study club and Ira Mae Martin and R. B. Mann representing the student body of Wheeler High School appeared before the Wheeler Chamber of Commerce membership at its bi-weekly luncheon Tuesday and asked support of the civic group in establishing a Teen Age Canteen.

Mrs. Brown introduced the two students after explaining a survey of juvenile recreational facilities, or the lack of them, had led a group of women to believe a Teen Age Canteen might serve a useful purpose in Wheeler. She said Wheeler High School students who had been approached enthusiastically endorsed the idea, and this was made clear when Ida Mae Martin and R. B. Mann earnestly besought aid of chamber of commerce members in helping establish the canteen.

The two students, speaking extemporaneously, pointed the lack of facilities for clean fun, declaring "much pool hall loafing, drinking and roadside parking would be eliminated" if substitute recreation were placed at the disposal of teen age boys and girls. They entertained the civic leaders to investigate possibilities of a juvenile social center and Mrs. Brown concluded the program by reading an outline of a similar successful project now in operation at Canadian. (The details of the Canadian plan may be found on page one of today's Times under another heading.)

Lee Little, president of the chamber of commerce, thanked Mrs. Brown and the students for their appearance and appointed a committee consisting of H. M. Wiley, George Hefley, Harold Nash and L. G. Kammerdiener to check the desires of the civic body in the matter and report back at the luncheon two weeks hence.

R. H. Forrester brought a report of a recent trip made by a Wheeler delegation to Oklahoma City on highway matters, publicity on which is not deemed advisable at this time. At the suggestion of President Little, A. B. Crump was re-appointed local director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The group was entertained with a reading by Mrs. R. H. Forrester which concluded the program.

Guests introduced were: E. L. Krone of the Farm Security Administration, Cecil Denson, Ex-Private Albert W. Gunter of the Marines, Rev. E. D. Landreth of Clarendon who is district Methodist superintendent, Vernon Hardcastle and C. L. Akers.

Teen Age Canteen Plan Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE: Because of current interest in a proposed Teen Age Canteen in Wheeler, The Times presents herewith an article explaining the organization and operation of "Bug Haven," a successful similar project at Canadian, Texas.

By HARRY E. WILBANKS
President of Adult Council
Teen Age Canteen,
Canadian, Texas

Requirements: The interest of the young people. The untiring interest and energy of one or two adults who will push the project. A plan of organization.

Two of us who were interested in the organization of the Teen Canteen for Canadian worked out the following plan for the start. We asked the local Rotary Club to act as a sponsor and appoint a committee to work on plans. We then had a meeting of the committee with a couple of interested students and a teacher in the high school. We decided to ask the main social clubs of the community to have a representative on the Adult Council. The purpose of the Council is to provide the equipment necessary for the Canteen, to raise money for maintenance, and provide chaperons. The Adult Council met and was organized with a president and was organized with a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and business manager. The social clubs were contacted through the Council members and each contributed as much money as possible. We then set up a system of chaperons whereby each club would provide chaperons for a period of one month. The Council meets once a month to discuss any problems that might arise.

The students set up their own organization in the following manner: In the high school all young people thirteen and over were allowed to vote. The student body elected a president and each class elected two representatives to serve as a Court of Honor. The Court of Honor met and organized. They first made a group of rules by which the Canteen is managed. They made up the membership rules, etc., and arranged for the sale of membership cards to the students. They also set up a system by which each class would be responsible for some duty such as janitor work, checking attendance and caring for equipment. The Court of Honor is responsible for seeing that the work is done. In addition the Court of Honor has control over the membership cards and conduct in the Canteen.

The snack bar of the canteen is managed by the P.-T. A. and the profits are given to the Canteen every six months. The snack bar has a cold drink stand, a sandwich bar, a candy case, and a hot plate for making hot sandwiches and hot chocolate.

The membership has been controlled in the following manner. Application blanks are given to prospective members by the Court of Honor. These applications contain a brief statement of the rules of conduct in the Canteen. The student must sign a statement of his intent to abide by the rules and his parent must also sign. The Court of Honor then reviews the applications and issues membership cards at $1.50 per member. (Membership is limited to teen agers, 13-19, and to our local young people and those who have graduated from our high school and are back here for the holidays and the summer.) Each member is allowed ten guests during the year free of charge. No other admission is charged but we allow no one in who does not have his membership card or a guest card.

Anyone caught breaking the rules must appear before the Court of Honor and show why he should not forfeit his membership card. We have a desk at the door and each member must sign as he enters giving the time he arrives and then check out the time he leaves.

Our present Canteen is located in our old high school building. We have one lounge room which contains the snack bar, booths, easy chairs and a book shelf with current magazines. We provide all sorts of games for use in this room. Next to this room is the dance floor with a juke box, a piano with sheet music provided, booths and extra seats. In a long hall we have a shuffle board.

At present we are open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 7:30 until about 11 or 11:30. We rent the Canteen out on other nights to responsible groups for parties. It is generally used on Friday nights by the football boys after our home games.

There are many headaches and a lot of work, but we find that for the most part the people have cooperated wholeheartedly and the young people have benefitted greatly.

We shall be glad to have you visit our Canteen any time you wish and bring some of your young people along too. If possible let me know when you expect to come. We have special parties for the young people now and then, but will be glad to have you any time.

It might be of interest at the present time to know that we have the Canteen placed on the United War Chest Fund or Community Chest and in that way receive additional funds for the Canteen.

Worley Promises To Wage Fight For Postoffice

In a telephone conversation with The Wheeler Times, Congressman Gene Worley promised he would do everything possible to have Wheeler added to a list of eight Panhandle towns that will get new postoffices under a program recommended to Congress by the Public Buildings Administration of the Federal Works Agency and the Post Office Department.

"There is a hard and fast rule that an office must have gross receipts of at least $10,000 before it is considered eligible for a new government postoffice building," Worley said. "In other words, if the receipts are not as much as $10,000 the department says the government is not justified in spending the money to construct a new building."

He said the records show Wheeler's receipts were $9,405 but that he "would continue to do everything I can to help because in my opinion you need a building very badly."

Worley has wired and written the newspaper since the telephone conversation, emphasizing his aim to press Wheeler's claim before the federal departments concerned.

Acting on figures supplied by Postmaster Chester Lewis, The Times has notified the congressman that Wheeler's postoffice passed the $10,000 mark for the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1945. The gross for that 12-month period was $10,451.19, Lewis' records show. Letters have also been sent Worley in behalf of the postoffice by Mayor R. H. Forrester and others.

It is assumed the federal Post Office Department at Washington is using the gross volume for the fiscal year which ended on June 30, 1944 instead of the current year, in formulating its building program.

Panhandle towns included in present plans for new postoffice buildings are: Spearman, Paducah, Panhandle, Perryton, Phillips, McLean, Matador, Canadian, Clarendon, Dumas and Tulia.

Rev. Hugh H. Hunt, Wheeler Methodist pastor, went to Quitaque Wednesday to submit building plans and assist with architectural work on a proposed new church building. Rev. Hunt is doing some fine work as a church architect and planner, his last job having been the proposed new Mobeetie Methodist church.

War Fund Campaign Less Than Fourth Subscribed

G. W. WEATHERFORD of Kerens, Texas (above) will begin a series of meetings at the Church of Christ in Briscoe on Tuesday, October 23. The services will continue through October 30. Minister Weatherford will be remembered by many people of this vicinity as he has conducted revivals at Briscoe and Wheeler in the past. Services will begin at 7:30 o'clock each evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

In the name of many hundreds of Wheeler county boys who will remain in the armed service as occupation troops or as sailors patrolling the oceans of the world, Harry Wofford, local chairman of the United War Chest, appeals to citizens to give generously to the drive now in progress which is the only means of providing entertainment for these home-sick young men.

The town of Wheeler and the north part of the county have a quota of $1,400 to raise in the campaign which opened October 1 and continues through the month, and to date less than one-fourth of that amount has been contributed, Wofford said. Total donations Thursday morning amounted to $345.42.

"Too many people seem to take the attitude that now that the shooting is over there is no need for the war fund," said the chairman. "Quite the contrary is true; in many ways it is needed now more desperately than ever before. Our men in service are restless and dissatisfied. The U.S.O. must greatly expand its program of entertainment."

"Our allies in the war with Japan need food and clothing to maintain life. In China and the Philippines, starvation is rampant. We cannot let these valiant nations who helped us achieve victory be destroyed now. We must give and give generously."

Wofford said C. J. Meek who has charge of the Southside of the square is the only chairman to date who has raised his quota. Meek turned in a total of $109.50 against a quota of $75. Dr. V. N. Hall turned in $72.80, the Wheeler school teachers $44, the West side

SCHOOL TRAVEL SAFETY TALKED

A countywide gathering of school teachers and school bus drivers held in Wheeler last Friday on the call of A. C. Wood, assistant county superintendent, listened to speakers and then engaged in roundtable discussion of ways and means to eliminate all possible hazards from school transportation.

Wood, Highway Patrolman P. C. Wynne and County Attorney Homer Moss led the discussion of safety first, administrative and legal aspects of the school bus problem. Superintendents, teachers and drivers pledged their utmost cooperation in eliminating existing hazards in school travel and in maintaining high safety first standards.

School buses brought to Wheeler Friday were inspected by Highway Patrolman Wynne and others will be carefully scrutinized later. The school equipment will be maintained in first-class condition, authorities pledged, and school bus discipline and other factors pertaining to safe operation of the buses will be rigidly watched.

An angle in which the motoring public can help prevent possible injury to children riding the buses is by strict adherence to state laws requiring all cars to come to a stop when a school bus stops to unload passengers. In fact, local and state officers have indicated their intention to prosecute all violators of this law. The protection of lives of school children is too important to permit disregard of this safety measure, they said.

Dr. H. E. Nicholson was another speaker at the Teachers Institute, explaining Wheeler county has

WHEELER GROUP AT PAMPA C-C

Wheeler was well represented at the fourth quarterly banquet of the Pampa chamber of commerce Tuesday night when delegations were present from Amarillo, Panhandle, White Deer, Lefors, Miami Canadian and Wheeler. Those attending from here were Messrs. and Meses, Lee Little, R. D. Holt, D. O. Beene and R. H. Forrester.

Charles H. Dean, Plainview attorney and widely known speaker, told the gathering of 350 Panhandle civic leaders "we must get back to those old-time fundamentals of integrity and honesty."

"We must quit talking about cutting down on our work," Dean continued, "and get back to that real Democracy which we all want." He cautioned "we must get over being ashamed to talk about being an American because of being afraid we will be laughed at." He said democracy is the building up of the individual "and it is our duty to bring the individual back to his proper place because individualism is democracy's vital breath."

W. B. Weatherford, Pampa postmaster, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the out-of-town guests.

DEATH TAKES C. W. ERICKSON

Sorrow came to a host of friends of C. W. Erickson, longtime resident of the Briscoe community, Wednesday when word was received that he had passed away at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed when The Times went to press Thursday.

Mr. Erickson had been in failing health for a number of years and had gone to Colorado last July in the hope he would obtain some relief from a cooler climate.

Mr. Erickson, born in Red Oak, Iowa, had resided in the Briscoe and Zybach communities for 30 years and was well known among the older residents of Wheeler county. He moved to Cripple Creek, Colo., as a young man and worked in the mines there, moving to Wheeler county later and continuing his residence here until four months ago.

His wife predeceased him in death 22 years ago. He is survived by one daughter and a sister.

SCOUT CAMP IS PROPOSED HERE

Serving the double purpose of stimulating interest of more boys in Scouting and improving the City Park grounds, four blocks southeast of Wheeler, Buford Conwell has advanced the idea of erecting some sort of a Scout Hut or camp on the city grounds on condition that the Boy Scouts clean up the premises and maintain the city park.

Conwell and Scoutmaster M. O. McKay, who have been trying to establish a permanent Scout home in or near Wheeler, plan to discuss the matter with city officials and interested civic leaders.

McKay who has been trying to interest citizens in helping establish a Scout camp at the George Porter lake, seven miles from town, says he sees a definite advantage to both the Scout organization and the citizens of Wheeler in putting the Scout Hut on the City Park site.

If city officials and interested citizens see fit to support the proposal, the Scoutmaster said he will personally guarantee troop members will keep the park premises in good condition.

Conwell and McKay believe establishment of a permanent camp would encourage many Wheeler boys to join the Scout organization, making it possible for them to have a regular meeting place and headquarters for their various activities.

Fire Prevention Fire Prevention week has just passed. In our opinion there are entirely too many "weeks" but Fire Prevention is a matter of serious import to the people of our community and should command greater public interest in Wheeler than ever before. And that goes for the entire country.
Never in history was so much property destroyed by fire in 365 days, as during the past 12 months.

In our own country, which has not been subjected to the ravages of war, there are 1,000 home fires every day. Once every 50 minutes someone is burned to death—a large percentage of them children left in homes which contain unnecessary fire hazards. Eight hundred million matches are used daily, each one capable of starting a fire in a home or factory. Two hundred and fifty billion cigarettes are smoked each year—each is a fire hazard which can ignite waste paper, bed clothes, material placed carelessly on shelves, clothing, and a thousand-and-one other articles.

No one can prevent most of such fire losses except the home owner, the lighter of matches, the smoker, and each and every individual old enough to think. Annual fire losses in the United States, which could largely be prevented, are greater than those caused by the bombings of London during the

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

Items of interest culled from newspapers on the Times' exchange list.

No system of government is going to work unless the people do. The degree of prosperity a nation enjoys is going to depend upon the amount of work done and the number of people who work. Notwithstanding the high flung theories that we can tax ourselves into wealth and provide a life of comfort and ease and big pensions for everyone the fact remains that there are only two courses of wealth in the world; the soil and labor. The people who work are the ones who contribute to a nation's wealth and to the world's wealth. —Foard County News

The government has been forced to take over much of the refining end of the oil industry as a result of the fight to death being waged by C.I.O. and the operators.

The fight between the two had resolved itself, not to gain specific demands made by the union not to grant them by the operators, but is really a test of power as to whether labor will manage the business or the owners and stock holders.

"Samuel Gompers, great labor leader, once said, when asked what his men wanted was, "more" when you get that what will you wish? he was asked. "More" he replied.

It has been proven that all labor wished to improve its condition. Once that condition is met, a new standard is set and ambitions aroused and new demands made. Nothing will satisfy less than managership or ownership. Fear of post-war conditions that would result in less pay and less of jobs has caused all organized labor to make a last fight to become firmly entrenched to protect the job and the wartime pay. —Quanah Tribune-Chief

The navy's complete list of United States war vessels lost in the European and Pacific war tells, in its statistical tables, a rather interesting story of the Jap battle fleet.

Of the 696 vessels lost, only 47 were sunk by the fire of Japanese surface ships. And from October, 1943, until the end of the war, the guns of Jap surface craft accounted for only 12 American vessels—first years of the war. They are not as spectacular as the London losses because they are scattered all over the country.

Ten thousand deaths from fire, distributed over 48 states, and tens of thousands of homes and factories destroyed, do not make headlines like the bombing of a city, but the permanence of death and fire loss for those involved, is just as real.

Fire Prevention is something all should observe—not for one week alone but for every day in the year.

The first anniversary of the death of Wendell Willkie was the occasion, appropriately, for the dedication of Freedom House, in New York City, a structure where in a number of organizations striving to give broader meaning to freedom will be housed.

Among the speakers were several who mentioned the present need of the forthrightness, the sincere patriotism and the dynamic personality of the man who died a year ago. The nature of the occasion precluded some other comments that might have been made. No one mentioned the fact that Willkie's own party so far from recognizing its great need of his leadership, scorned him and ignored the principles for which he fought. Today that party is casting desperately about for someone who can give it direction and purpose and make it something other than a negative force in American politics. It may learn presently that when he died, much that was worthy and hopeful in the party died with him.

4-H'ers Taking Part in Farm Safety Program Study Accident Prevention Measures in City Plants

RURAL boys and girls are taking every opportunity to learn how to prevent accidents on farms. As one example, a group of participants in the 1945 National 4-H Safety Program (shown above) recently visited plants of an automobile manufacturing concern in Detroit to study safety measures taken to protect workers against injury.

To comply with the organization's safety regulations, the group was equipped with nonshatter eyeglasses, and the girls were clad in slacks and provided with hair nets or other head covering. Other safety measures throughout the plants were pointed out and the reason for their use explained to the 4-H'ers.

The tour will be credited to each member's 4-H safety program record. Participants in the program who achieve outstanding records in safety work this year will receive merit awards donated by General Motors. The awards are based on county, state, sectional and national levels.

Mrs. G. T. Richardson was hostess and served refreshments to the following members who met in the church basement: Mesdames M. P. Rogers, Pat Huff, Lee George, Doc Wilhelm, Helly Warren, Porter Rogers, Ernest Begert and Bill Begert.

MRS. ELBERT ZYBACH HAS CLUB MEETING
The Briscoe Home Demonstration club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elbert Zybach. Mrs. Barry was song leader, and Mrs. R. L. Ramsey led the club prayer.

During the business meeting the club voted to have a 42 party once each month. A very interesting discussion on the removal of stains from fabrics was given by Mrs. Ramsey. She said to remove iron rust from white washable material, spread the stained place over a vessel of actively boiling water, and then squeeze lemon juice on the stain. After a few minutes, rinse the fabric, and repeat the process, if necessary. This method is rather slow, but will not injure even the most delicate cotton and linen materials. Mrs. Ramsey said. A round table discussion was had on care of fabrics.

After a short period of recreation, refreshments were served to three new members: Mesdames S. E. Mason, B. F. Meadows and G. T. Riley and the following old members: Mesdames J. B. McNeil, Lee Barry, R. L. Ramsey, Ernest Zybach and the hostess, Mrs. Zybach.

Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Tucker of Amarillo, were guests in the R. G. Russ home Sunday.

FARM BUREAU MEETS OCT. 25

Reconversion and postwar problems confronting agriculture will be the principal topics for discussion by producers of this area at a meeting to be held at Amarillo on Thursday, October 25. Several from Wheeler county plan to attend.

The meeting is sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and is one of a series of 14 being held throughout the state. J. Walter Hammond, president of the organization, announced. Purpose of these meetings is to bring farm and ranch people firsthand information on the immediate problem of postwar prices.

"There is a growing sentiment to lower agricultural prices," Hammond said. "A collapse of farm prices, such as followed World War I, will lead to a break in the entire price structure of our economy. It will take the combined thinking of the best minds in agriculture to map a sound and practical farm program that will insure fair prices and prevent endangering the postwar economy of our nation."

The Farm Bureau strives to represent the true thinking of the producers of this state, and it is therefore necessary to call the farm and ranch people in to district conferences to give them an opportunity to express their views on these issues of such paramount importance at this particular time, in order that as an organization the Farm Bureau will know what course of action to pursue, Hammond declared.

All farmers are urged to attend this meeting and have a voice in the formulation of a program which they believe will be sound and constructive.

J. M. Hutton of Spearman, member of the state board of directors from this district, will preside. The meeting will start at 10:00 a. m. in the Amarillo Hotel at Amarillo.

Two GI's Do Some Overseas Shopping

WIFE, MOTHER, HOME-MAKER OF BRISCOE SETS EXAMPLE

By MRS. LEE BARRY

In the year of 1919, there came to Wheeler county a personality which has added much to the growth of her community. Mrs. John McCarroll who lives in the Briscoe school district and for years has been a member of the H. D. club, radiates a life of one who has not drifted but has done her share and more in steering and directing the progressive developments and through examinations, giving to her family, neighbors and friends a constructive way of living.

The phrase, "very fortunate" is often used in connection with those who get along well; but "good fortune" is not merely luck. It is a philosophy and understanding of life and its purpose. It is a faith that can meet each day as an adventure and a new beginning with a fervent desire to go forward.

As a wife, mother and home-maker, Mrs. McCarroll's success is based on her faith and energy placed in ideals: God, love, duty, wisdom and friendship. She desired that her children learn that Christian work, school and club activities, and home chores are large opportunities, and that — "It takes a lot o' livin' in a place to make it home."

These were busy interesting years. With a sense of humor and a spirit of cheerful cooperation she did her part in helping her husband build and furnish a modern home.

The house rang with voices of childhood and youth. Looking back it seems that the days passed swiftly; but many flags of golden memories were placed along the way. Always where there is progress there are problems and adjustments must be made. But life is like a house with many doors — and one must find the way through each door, that the house, or life, may serve its full purpose.

One door is very lonely and dark. The door where one must pass when trouble or deep sorrow comes into the home. For days one gropes and stumbles through this dark passage until from the "somewhere" comes the still small voice, "Peace be still." "Among the deepest shades of night can there be one who sees my way?" Yes: God is the Light — That turns the darkness into day. Then as this dear light grows brighter the opening of this dreaded door takes on many soft colors of meaning that blend together and give strength and understanding along the years.

Not long after they came to this county, a beloved little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCarroll's passed away. In the spirit of fortitude the fond parents carried on. It was at a little school house near the home that Mrs. McCarroll and family attended Sunday school and church when the children were small. She served as teacher to the adult class. She took an active part in striving for higher education, realizing that to bridge the way between home and school was an important step in helping the child and community. Through her efforts a Parent-Teacher unit was organized.

and hobbies have been many. In her home are found musical instruments, good reading material and the full life of Tennyson, a favorite author.

The newness of life was reflected in her gardens; the green lawn and budding flowers were an inspiration to neighbors and friends. As the years brought to maturity her three sons and daughter, one by one they left the home roof; and as a loving mother, Mrs. McCarroll shared their plans and ambitions and rejoiced in their careers. Home comings were anticipated and enjoyed.

Then came 1941 — Pearl Harbor — and war, 1942—43 and '44 — Another door to pass through, — and another room to enter. A room where hopes and plans were laid away, a room of anguish, suspense and fears. These were dark days for all; but through the door of prayer and faith, hands were kept busy and new summits gained.

Mrs. McCarroll placed her three-star service flag in the window and filled her days with many duties. Childish voices are heard again in the McCarroll home, little stockings are hung on Christmas nights, and the days took on a new meaning when her grandchildren, C. G. and Jackie Dodd, with their mother and daddy came for holidays. Letters of news, love and encouragement, she wrote often to her soldier sons and rejoiced with pride in their achievements. The maps of war theatres became as familiar to her as those of her own state. Much of her time was given to knitting, sewing and other Red Cross work. Other waiting hours were passed valiantly through making scraps into beautiful applique quilts for her absent ones. A new sun porch was added to the McCarroll home.

This year, 1945, gets on its way — and as V-E Day passes there was a brighter out-look. The conversations at meeting places and on the rural telephone took on a grateful, cheerful tone. Mrs. McCarroll had not been aware of the failing of her strength and health until a few days before she was stricken in July with an acute illness that necessitated a major operation. The faithful husband and daughter stood near during those doubtful days. As soon as time and government rules would permit, her sons came.

Slowly but gradually she improved. V-J Day passed — so much to be thankful for! From the hospital, back home again; back home again her children came and there within the family home the atmosphere of loving ties and affection, fond re-

By BOYCE HOUSE

The sympathizing, half-angry, old, black mammy bore her weeping, sobbing charge to the nursery and bound up his broken heart and soothed him to sleep with her old-time lullaby:

O, don't you cry, little baby; don't you cry no mo', For it hurts ole mammy's feelin's for to hear you weepin' so!
Why do dey bring temptation to de little hands an' feet?
What makes 'em 'buse de baby, kase de jam and 'zarves am sweet?
O, de sorrows, triberlations, dat de joys of mortals break!
O, it's heaven when we slumber, collections and happy narratives and incidents are lived again and she is regaining her health.

From these basic principles lived in stable American homes comes the hope of a new dawn and a better world.

With Grace Nell Crowell, we say: "So long as there are homes to which men turn at the close of the day; so long as there are homes where children are — where women stay; if love and loyalty and faith be found across these hills; a stricken nation can recover from its gravest ills. So long as there are homes where fires burn — and there is bread; so long as there are homes where lamps are lit — and prayers are said; although a people falters through the dark — and nations grope; with God himself back of these little homes; we still can hope."

it's trouble when we wake!
O, go to sleep, my darlin', now close dem little eyes
And dream uv de shinnin' angels an' de blessed paradise;
O, dream uv de blood-red roses and de birds on snowy wing;
O, dream uv de fallin' waters and de nebbber-endin' spring!
O, de roses! O, de rainbows! O, de music's gentle swell!
In de dreamland uv little children whar de blessed spirits dwell.
And then she tucked him away in de paradise of his childish slumbers.

The bow in its sweep grew slow and tremulous. It brooded like a gentle spirit over the violin, and the music eddied into a mournful tone. A little coffin sat by an empty cradle. The prints of baby fingers were on the window panes; the toys were scattered on the floor; the lullaby was hushed; the mirth and mischief and little feet and midnight screams of pain were no longer in the way to vex and worry. Sunny curls dropped above eyelids that were closed forever; two little dimple cheeks were bloodless and cold; two little dimpled hands were folded on a motionless breast.

The vibrant instrument sighed and wept. It rang the church bell's knell; and the second story of life, which is the sequel of the first, was told. I caught glimpses of half-veiled paradise and a sweet breath from its flowers. I saw the hazy stretches of its landscapes and heard faint echoes of its distant music. I saw the flash of white wings that never weary. . . . A string snapped; the music ended; my vision vanished.

United Gas Companies Employ Returned Vets

The United Gas companies have jobs for all their employees in the armed services whenever they come back. This was the substance of a letter sent recently to all employees of the United Gas companies, serving in the armed forces, it was announced today.

With the letter went a questionnaire, asking the employe if he wished to return, whether he wanted his old job back, and whether he felt that he had developed through military training to a point where he could handle other lines of work.

"With but few exceptions practically all of the hundreds who have returned answers to the questionnaire said that they wanted to come back," the Company statement said. "A large number of employes want their old jobs back. Many others said their experience had broadened then so that they felt competent for larger responsibilities."

W. E. Tillman and family of Le-fors were over to spend a few days with their folks last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson of Borger, arrived Saturday to visit a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Walser.

A list of contributors will not be run this year, Wofford said, because of the embarrassment caused small donors, and the fact it is impossible to get a complete list of contributors among rural communities. He and the committee feel it would be unfair to run a list of town contributors and not run those in the farm communities.

So far no reports have been received from the rural communities. Farmers have been unusually busy the past few days and Wofford believes that when they get time they will have no difficulty raising their quotas. He urges each rural chairman to proceed with his collection without waiting on any instructions.
