Mobeetie Sergeant Given Bronze Star Award In T.H.

Sergeant First Class John C. Fubanks, of the Replacement Training Center Schofield Barracks, is shown receiving the Bronze Star from Brigadier General Claude B. Ferenbaugh, Commanding General, Schofield Barracks.

Sergeant Eubanks was awarded the medal at an informal ceremony attended by the members of his unit on May 6, 1949. The citation award reads: "For exemplary conduct in ground action against the armed enemy on Attu (Aleutian) Island in May 1943." Sergeant Eubanks was wounded in this campaign and has received the Purple Heart. He also wears the Combat Infantry Badge. He was a member of the 4th Infantry Regiment which was attached to the 7th Division when that unit recaptured Attu from the Japs.

Sergeant and Mrs. Eubanks reside at Schofield Barracks. Mrs. Eubanks is the former Lois M. Shippy of Aline, Oklahoma. The couple have no children. Sergeant Eubanks entered the military service in January 1940. He claims Mobeetie, Texas as his hometown and is extremely proud that he is a Texan. His present job with the Replacement Training Center is that of Personnel Management Technician.

MOBEETIE OUT OF RRV LEAGUE

Mobeetie has withdrawn from the Red River Valley League. The request of Mobeetie manager to withdraw from the league was reluctantly accepted by league officials and team managers at a meeting held at Wellington Sunday afternoon, immediately after the annual all-star game.

Frank Cooke, Mobeetie pilot, said that it was almost impossible at times to field a full team, and then only after considerable effort had been expended in beating the bushes and making long trips to bring his players to the games.

Mobeetie, which had a season record of seven losses and five wins, had started off the season strong, and was a serious threat for the crown until the last two games, when they lost to Childress at Childress Thursday night 5-4, and then dropped another to Mangum Friday, 6-1.

No possible replacement was mentioned for Mobeetie. A new schedule is to be drawn up for the rest of the season, Paul Ord, league president, said, in time for next Sunday's games.

No changes will be necessary for tonight's (Thursday) games as Mobeetie was slated for an open date.

An advertisement on another page of this week's Times states that the Mobeetie nine will meet Memphis at Mobeetie on Sunday of this week, but the ad was already printed when the Times learned that Mobeetie had withdrawn from the league; therefore, the ad can be disregarded.

FREE CLASSING TO BE OFFERED

Plans for handling the 1949 cotton classing and market news services available to farmers without cost under the Smith-Dooley Act were announced here today by J. A. Albritton, in charge of the Altus, Okla., office of the cotton branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"Farmers should apply for these services just as they did last year," Mr. Albritton said.

To be eligible for the free cotton classing and market news services, he pointed out that farmers must meet these requirements: 1. belong to a group of farmers organized to promote the improvement of cotton; 2. plant part of his acreage in the variety of cotton adopted by the group; 3. file an application as soon as the cotton is planted.

Groups in this area should mail their application to P. O. Box 249, Altus, Oklahoma.

"To make sure farmers secure all the benefits due them under this program, their group application should reach our office by July 1," Mr. Albritton said. However, applications will be accepted until August 15th.

Mickey Guynes, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Guynes of Borger was the second place winner. Mickey is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Guynes and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weatherly of Wheeler.

Judy Payne was presented with a comb and brush set and a silver spoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dilley of Hamilton have been visiting in the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Porter. Brooks Parrish also of Hamilton has been visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Porter but he has already returned home.

ALL-STAR GAME TO BE PLAYED HERE SUNDAY

The Annual All-Star game of the Texas-Oklahoma Baseball League will be played on the Wheeler diamond Sunday afternoon beginning at 3:00 o'clock according to Clarence Holliman, president of the league.

Wheeler and Miami wound up the first half of the season in a tie for first place in the standings with each having won 4 and lost 1 league contest and Wheeler won the right to be host to the annual all-star tilt on the flip of a coin.

Wheeler lost only to Sweetwater during the first half season's play while the Miami nine dropped its only contest to Wheeler early in the season.

The host team will be made up of players from the Wheeler nine and the two teams with the lowest standing while the other team will be made up of players from the other three teams in the league.

The Wheeler team played Sayre at Sayre, Wednesday night, and dropped a close 3 to 1 decision to the Oklahomans with all their runs being of the unearned variety.

Bill Cooper and Buddy Vanpool formed battery for the Wheeler club in their fracas with Sayre. Other Wheeler players included: Maurice Burgess, Pete Burton, Cash Walker, Bob Holliman, J. D. Bealy, Roe Green, Richard Gaines, Bill Robertson, Adrian Risner, Junior Martin and Maurice Pettit.

B. POPE DIES AT ALBUQUERQUE

I am sure that with your continued fine work you will have even greater accomplishments to report for your county when this campaign ends."

The telegram was signed, Nathan Adams, chairman, advisory committee for Texas.

Improvements Made By Porters and Laffins Overlooked by Times

Even before the ink was dry on last week's edition of The Times, the editor had already had his hand called for overlooking two of the most important bits of improvement which have been made in the residential section of Wheeler during the past year.

Mrs. Carl Laffin called The Times attention to the fact that she has had one of the most modern chicken houses in the city constructed at their home in the south portion of the town. Mr. and Mrs. Laffin have also added a nice two-car garage at their home just recently.

It has also been called to the attention of the editor that he failed to mention the addition of two large rooms and a two-car garage at the George Porter home. Mr. and Mrs. Porter have also landscaped their yard and with the enlargement of their home have one of the most beautiful dwellings in the city.

The Times editor wishes to apologize to these two families especially for overlooking their improvements and to any others whose improvements he may have overlooked.

MRS. REYNOLDS FUNERAL HELD

Wheeler bookkeeping-accounting class is a half-time school which only requires that members put in 1 1/2 hours each week. Classes begin at 5:50 p.m. and last until 10:00 o'clock each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

At the present the class is studying typing. Typing classes will continue until around the first of September at which time the group will go into mathematics and other phases of bookkeeping and accounting.

Anyone who is interested in enrolling in the above mentioned class should call at the office of the Wheeler County Veterans Vocational Schools. The school office is located in the Wheeler County courthouse and George Gandy is coordinator.

C of C Encampment Be Held Last Of July

The annual Bible school encampment for boys and girls conducted by local Churches of Christ at Lake McClelland is being planned for the last two weeks of July.

Girls camp is scheduled for the third week of July, Monday through Friday and the boys camp is to be held the fourth week.

All boys and girls who wish to attend from the Wheeler community should contact B. M. Litton at the Church of Christ Building.

Those who have attended have found excellent recreation at the lowest possible cost. This camp is not operated for the primary purpose of recreation but for the purpose of teaching the Bible and building Christian characters. Anyone may attend from 9 years of age through high school.

CORRECTION

In a classified advertisement in last week's edition of The Times the location of the O. L. Tuttle place was incorrectly stated as being a mile east and one-fourth mile north of Wheeler and it should have been 9 miles east and one-fourth mile north.

The Tuttle place has berries for sale and The Times hopes that anyone who might have been misguided by the incorrect address found the place anyway because they really have some nice berries out there and there are plenty of them.

The Wheeler Kiwanis Club has taken a second hitch at getting started on improving the City Park in Wheeler and this time has managed to get the west portion of the grounds leveled off and the road through the park has been straightened out. Some individual members have taken some turns at clearing off some of the brush and trimming up some of the trees.

The club set Monday, July 11 as a date for all members of the Kiwanis who possibly can to report for work at the park along with any other interested persons who might be willing to help with the project in order that as much as possible can be accomplished on that date toward completion of the project.

Homer Moss, president of the Kiwanis Club, makes the following statements in regard to help with the project:

"As has been previously mentioned in The Times the Wheeler Kiwanis Club is sponsoring and assisting with a park in Wheeler.

"In our opinion, the park site is perhaps the best in the county with ample space and shade with a running creek and very near to be available to the public in the community.

"It should be ready by mid-July and will have picnic tables, drive-ways, some play-ground equipment, running water and sanitary features. A softball ground project is to follow.

"We care little for the credit, we just want the public to have a park for the pleasure and diversion it will offer as well as the site of future picnics and community wide gatherings. To do this, cash donations immediately are badly needed from any of the organizations or citizens of the city and community. The American Legion Ladies Auxiliary has already donated $20.00 and several citizens have indicated their intentions of assisting in such a manner. Any person or organization desiring to assist are asked to see me or secretary, B. M. Litton, as soon as can conveniently be done.

"This is a community affair more than that of the club and the people of Wheeler will get the credit.

"We will have a public work-day on Monday, July 11, if you have experience as a concrete worker, rock mason or just a common laborer your services will be of great assistance and warmly appreciated."

The Wheeler Kiwanis club will not hold a regular noon luncheon on Monday, July 4 since it is a national holiday but will meet at the regular meeting place on Monday, July 11.

Mr. Homer L. Moss went to the state bar convention in Fort Worth the first part of the week.

Mrs. Maude Chaffin of Levelland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Shelby Pettit, and family here this week.

Many Wheeler Firms Will Close Monday To Observe Ind. Day

July 4 is one of the most universally observed holidays the American people have and it appears that most Wheeler firms will observe Independence Day 1949 by closing their stores and places of business.

The Times did not make a complete survey of the businesses in Wheeler this week to see whether or not they planned to close, but some of the firms have announced in their advertisements both this week and last week that they would be closed all day Monday, July 4 in observance of the National Holiday and others whom the Times did query in regard to closing all stated unambiguously that they intended to close.

The courthouse, bank and post-office all will observe the July holiday and it is believed that many local residents will take advantage of the long week-end to make short trips, but it is hoped that people who do make trips will take utmost care with their driving in order that they may not be involved in an automobile accident of some sort.

Wheeler merchants and businessmen who plan to close Monday sincerely hope that the people of this trade territory will anticipate their needs in advance of that day and purchase accordingly so that their closing will not inconvenience anyone.

Take It Easy On The Fourth

Going somewhere over the Fourth of July?
If you are, then plan your trip safely.

But even if you stay at home, keep safety in mind for the Fourth of July holiday—one of the most dangerous week-ends of the year.

That is the advice of the National Safety Council, which is coordinating a nationwide campaign to hold down the usual up-surge of accidental deaths during the Independence Day celebration. One hundred and thirty national organizations, as well as state and city public officials, are cooperating in the effort.

Motor vehicle accidents lead the list of holiday hazards, the Council said. Drownings from swimming and fishing accidents is the second biggest risk. Other deaths are due to fireworks and firearms, sunstroke and heat exhaustion, food poisoning, falls and miscellaneous accidents.

The death toll for the month of July last year was 8,700, the Council said. While it is impossible to determine the exact number of deaths from all causes occurring during the Fourth of July holiday, the Council said the total was well above the average for other days of the month.

The Council expects more pleasure-seeking holiday motorists to pile into more cars and roll more miles during this one week-end celebration than ever before in the nation's history. More than 33 million motor vehicles will be on the move during the holiday.
The increasing number of new cars on the road and the substantial rise in gasoline consumption this year indicate a heavy death toll—unless everyone is fully aware of the holiday hazards and makes a real effort to avoid them.

There are two ways to hold down deaths
during a holiday period such as the Fourth.

One is for police, beach guards and others who have some authoritative control over public safety to be especially alert and vigi-lous in their enforcement of sane rules of public behavior.

The other is for all of us to realize that holidays are dangerous days, and drive a car, walk across the street, swim, fish or conduct ourselves in a safe and prudent manner.

If everyone would keep in mind the words "Take It Easy On The Fourth—Be Alive On The Fifth," this Fourth of July would bring much less tragedy and much more pleasure.

Most older folk will tell you that the old days were wonderful but few of them wish to have them back.

The man who engages in cut-throat competition soon or later feels the effect around his own neck.

The time to pay attention to your health is while you have it.

STORE GRAIN TO SAVE IT, MAKE PROFIT

Texas grain producers are face to face with a real problem; namely, how to save and, at the same time, get the most money from this year's bumper grain crop. The situation is due to grow progressively worse as the harvest shifts into high gear and the flow of grain from the combines becomes a torrent with no place to go except the ground.

The falling cash market prices and the lack of storage facilities are a threat to the continued prosperity of Texas grain producers, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A. and M. College. The production costs that went into this year's grain crop were high, and unless the storage problem is solved quickly, adds Bates, so that producers can take advantage of the higher returns available through government loans, they stand to lose millions of dollars.

Texas farmers are old hands at helping themselves and then each other. The present situation calls for such action B. F. Vance, chairman of the state PMA committee, says the organization he heads is interested in seeing very farmer who has grain to sell take advantage of the government loans. These loans are handled by the PMA organization.

Vance gives the following examples to show just what he means. Last fall many farmers could not take advantage of the government loan on grain sorghum because they had no on-the-farm storage facilities and no elevator space was available for rent. The result—farmers sold their crop on the cash market for considerably less than loan rates

Mealtime Marvels

CHICKEN SUPREME
Sunday dinner would not be Sunday dinner without chicken served in some delectable form—fried, broiled, chicken and dumplings, or what have you. Here is a wonderful new chicken recipe to add to the list of Sunday dinner favorites:

- 1 large fryer or capon
- 1 salted flour for coating fowl
- 2 tablespoons fortified margarine for frying
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups sour cream
- 2 tablespoons peanut butter
- 1/4 cup chopped cooked mushrooms
- 1 tablespoon sherry wine
- corn meal patties
- sliced baked ham

Cut the fryer or capon in quarters. Mix the salt and flour and roll the chicken in it as for frying. Place sufficient margarine in the frying pan to cover the bottom well when melted. Brown the chicken lightly. While the chicken is browning, prepare the sauce in a separate pan. Melt the margarine. Add flour to form a roux. Add sour cream slowly and stir until it thickens. Remove the chicken from the frying pan and place in a shallow baking pan. Cover with the sour cream sauce and remains of the margarine in the frying pan. Bake in a moderate oven (325° to 375° F.) until almost tender. This requires about 30 minutes. Drain off the sauce and blend it with the peanut butter, sherry, and chopped mushrooms. Pour back over chicken and cook 15 minutes longer. Serve the chicken on corn meal patties with slices of baked ham.

offered but not J. H. Graham and Fred Schmoker, who farms five miles west of Vernon in Wilbarger county.

They foresaw the need for on-the-farm storage and were ready with a structure 81 feet long, 12 feet wide and 10 feet high. The total cost was $980. They held the cost down by using secondhand materials and doing a lot of the work themselves. They were offered $1.75 per hundred for their milo, but it went into storage and they secured a government loan at $2.28 per hundred pounds. They stored 205,400 pounds and the difference between the market offer and the loan value was $1,088. This difference paid for the storage structure with some to spare and it is now available for future use.

Use Thrifty Cuts of Lamb

By ALICE DENHOFF

LAMB comes to the Springtime table, and while it is fine to have a succulent roast leg of lamb or a brace of thick loin chops, don't neglect the thrifty cuts.

All cuts of lamb are tender and may be cooked by dry heat—broiling, pan-broiling or roasting—which should be done at low heat (300° F., with no searing first required).

As for the fell, that thin parchment-like covering, there is still some controversy about this. From all accounts it's probably better off the shoulder, rack or saddle, is much better left on the leg. But it is a matter of individual choice.

Try a cushion shoulder roast for something good and different. Have retailer bone the square cut shoulder so as to make a pocket. It is then sewed around the edges leaving one side open for the stuffing. Make a good stuffing (celery, onion, parsley is recommended), skewer the opening, and roast without water, allowing 40 min. per pound for roasting.

Lamb shanks may be inexpensive, a real thrifty cut, but when well prepared, come up as a good, tasty and nourishing dish. Buy a lamb shank for each person to be served. Season with salt and pepper, dredge with flour and brown in hot fat. Place in baking dish, and pour the drippings over it. Cover and cook in 300° F. oven for about 2 hours.

Lamb Loaf

For a lamb loaf you'll need about 2 lb. of ground lamb for 6 servings. Prepare it as you would any other meat loaf, combining with an egg, seasonings to taste (minced parsley, onion, green pepper, etc., as well as salt and pepper). Use milk to moisten. Bake in 300° F. for about an hour. Serve with potatoes browned in the pan. Baked onions, string beans or tomatoes are good with a lamb loaf.

Good lamb notions include these ideas: Add chop fresh mint to stuffed lamb shoulder, add interest to bread lamb shoulder, add some barley to your next lamb stew!

and farms in the Progress community in Bailey county, had a similar experience. He constructed, on a contract basis for $1,475, a building 60 feet by 16 feet by 8 feet at the back and 10 feet in front. He stored 268,300 pounds of No. 1 milo and secured a government loan on this grain at $2.28 per hundred pounds. The difference in the loan value and the market price at the time of storage lacked less than $90 paying for his building.

Any farmer who is selling grain under the present conditions, has even a wider margin to work on.

Smith, Graham and Schmoker can tell you that it is just good common horse sense to provide your own farm grain storage facilities. It can mean dollars in your pocket now, Vance says.

Here Are Hints To Help Conserve Fuel

Right on the farm is the place for fuel conservation to begin. And the farm tractor is the first machine on the farm to begin it with.

Tractor owners in Texas own nearly 215,000 tractors, and from this number, it's estimated that 21 million gallons—just a hundred gallons a tractor—is wasted every year. That's just in Texas alone.

W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer of Texas A. and M. College, says there are at least seven good ways to save gasoline in order to cut down on the large amount wasted.

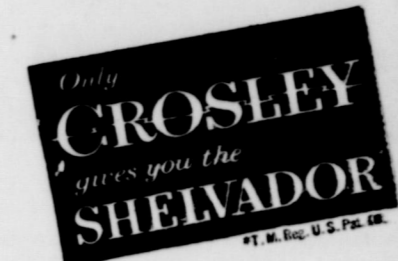

- Here they are:
1. Don't let the motor idle when the tractor is not in use. Cut off the engine when hooking up equipment.
  2. Look ahead. Figure out about how much you'll need and you'll need it. Then tell the tank wagon salesman well in advance.
  3. Prepare all the farm storage possible ahead of time, and see that all drums are in good repair. If you need more storage, get the new drums ready before hand.
  4. Make one trip to town do for many. Keep on hand a supply of spark plugs, fan belts, tools, gaskets and other day-to-day tractor repair parts.
  5. Haul full loads whenever possible.
  6. Tune up the engine during slack periods when it isn't needed in the field. And don't forget to adjust the carburetor.
  7. Put your equipment in the field in the best possible condition. By doing so you'll prevent costly breakdowns when in use.
- So, here's another 7-Step program the farmer may find to good advantage, Ulich concludes.

Lettuce—like many vegetables—loses its flavor and food value if kept too long, even in the refrigerator. Add salad dressing before serving in order not to wilt the leaves.

MOWING HELPS TO IMPROVE PASTURE GRASS

Pasture grasses have a pretty tough time of it fighting their way through weeds. And many times, weeds win in the plant war. Mowing is generally considered a good practice for getting rid of the weeds in pastures, says Robert R. Lancaster, extension pasture specialist of Texas A. and M. College. Mowing the brush, brambles, vines and the husky weeds that spring up on newly-cleared, fertile land puts them on the way out and gives the desirable pasture grasses a good chance to take over.

At the same time, mowing pastures freshens the over-grown, stemmy grasses. But, often, too much is expected of weed eradication by mowing, especially on poor-land pastures, he says.

Pasture weed control in the humid regions of Texas usually calls for fertilizing, and in some cases reseeding. Until the pasture grasses are thrifty enough to replace mowed weeds, mowing is hardly worthwhile.

If you're going to mow to control weeds, mowing must start when the first of the worst weeds begin to bloom, or soon enough to mow all of them before the seed can form. Bitterweeds, a common pest in bermudagrass pastures, may hold enough vitality to mature seed from the blooms even after it has been mowed. So, the way to stop this, Lancaster says, is to mow early and often. Cut high enough the first time so the sprouting stubble can be mowed again and again as it blooms repeatedly.

Clovers volunteer best in short grass. The fall clover stand and spring lespedeza stand permanent pastures depend largely on enough sunlight for germination and growth of the seedlings. This indicates close grazing or mowing in both seasons to favor these crops.

Grazing too close in both fall and spring might injure the pas-

When I saw lights burning in the High School auditorium last night, I looked in to see what went on. About twenty people were listening to Buzz Ellis, the electrician, talk about television.

I slipped into a back seat and asked Hap Thomas what was up. Hap told me it was the new Self-Improvement Club. I stayed to listen—and learned a lot. Buzz really knows his stuff.

Turns out this club meets every Friday night. Each member gives a talk on the subject he knows most about. I joined on the spot because

Giles Says Procedure For Acquiring Land Under Vet Program To Be Kept Simple

By BASCOM GILES, Commissioner of the General Land Office and Chairman of the Veterans' Land Board

(Editor's Note: This is the concluding article of a series of three by Bascom Giles explaining the newly created Veterans' Land Board Program.)

In keeping with the terms of the legislation creating the Texas Veterans' Land Board, its administration and operating policies will be kept as simple as the problems of this huge program will permit.

The fact that approximately 13,000 veterans have already contacted this office for information on the working details of the plan indicates the commendable desire of veterans to own a farm or ranch some under the idea originally conceived by the author five years ago.

Paper work involving application to participate has been cut to the minimum. Each successive step has been shorn of all encumbering details.

For example, proof of the applicant's eligibility can be established by submitting a certified copy of his honorable discharge plus substantiation that the applicant was a resident of Texas at the time he entered military service and is still a legal resident at the time of application for land program benefits. For those taking advantage of the 50 day priority offered those who have a service-connected disability sustained in combat, certification of such must accompany the application.

Each veteran will be limited to one purchase not exceeding $7,500 cost to the Board. He will be required to pay not less than five per cent down and execute an on-or-before note for 40 years at three per cent interest for the balance.

Should a purchaser desire to acquire a tract of land costing NOT more than $10,000 he will be required to pay the difference between $7,500 and the purchase price plus the five per cent down payment on the $7,500 loan.

He shall have served not less than 90 days on active duty in some branch of the armed service between September 16, 1940 and December 31, 1946, unless discharged sooner for service-connected disabilities. A certified copy of the applicant's honorable discharge will be required to be filed with application. In addition, a veteran who leases his land for oil or gas must apply one-half of all bonus and rentals to the retirement of his debt.

The veterans will NOT be required to live upon the property but he will NOT be permitted to dispose of it for a period of three years.

Payments of principle on note with interest will be made on a semi-annual basis. Each veteran will receive a contract of sale from the state and upon final payment he or she will be granted absolute title.

Failure to make payments when due, permits the Board to revoke the contract of purchase and to forfeit the land which can then be offered for resale to other veterans.

A veteran may reinstate his land which has been forfeited, up to the announced date of resale by payment of a penalty and placing account in good standing.

The Board in its first meeting named Alvis Vandygriff as executive secretary.

Vandygriff, an attorney, who hails from Ennis, Texas, has been serving as Chief Clerk of the General Land Office. He is a veteran of World War II having served as a Major in the Army Air Force. He was selected by the Board to direct the administrative machinery of the new program on the basis of his long experience in the Land Office where the offices and records of the program will be maintained.

For additional information or proper application forms, write the Veterans' Land Board, Bascom Giles, Chairman, General Land Office, Austin, Texas.

"Section 15-a. The Legislature shall have the authority to enact all laws necessary to provide for the trial, adjudication of insanity and commitment of persons of unsound mind and to provide for a method of appeal from judgments rendered in such cases. Such laws may provide for waiver of trial by jury in cases where the person under inquiry has not been charged with the commission of a criminal offense, and shall provide for a method of service of notice of such trial upon the person under inquiry and of his right to demand a trial by jury."

Milestone Model

W. F. Armstrong, general manager of Chevrolet, (left) and T. H. Keating, general sales manager, beam approvingly as the 22,000,000th Chevrolet emerges from the face of a king-size calendar. Behind June are the other months in which million-car milestones have been passed by the company since the war. The 22,000,000th was built within ten months of the 21,000,000th.

MONEY SAVED

Ephraim, storekeeper in a small Vermont town, was greeted by a neighbor who consoled him on the loss of some of his merchandise during a fire. "Did you lose much?" asked the friend. "Not too much," came the laconic reply. "I'd just marked most of my stock down 25 percent."

FALSE NOTIONS HINDER CANCER CONTROL HERE

False notions about the cause of cancer are hindering cancer control in Texas to a great extent, J. Louis Neff, executive director of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, said recently.

"Unfortunately, we do not yet know exactly what does cause the dreaded disease," Mr. Neff said. "What we do know, however, is that certain old-fashioned ideas about cancer are not true. It is a great misfortune that so much about cancer is cloaked in ignorance and fear."

The executive director stated, with emphasis, that cancer is not caused by a single severe injury, or by the use of aluminum cooking utensils, or by electric refrigeration, or by any particular food or combination of foods, or by the use of alcohol, or by kissing or by any other form of contact between persons or between persons and animals.

"These versions of what cause cancer are all old wives' tales," and the more we of the American Cancer Society can do to discredit these false notions and bring the true facts about the disease to the people of this state, the sooner it will be that Texas conquers cancer.

"Cancer is not caused by a germ or infection. It is neither contagious or infectious. Nor is cancer necessarily hereditary. Evidence indicates that children may inherit a certain degree of susceptibility which should make them more alert to warning signals. But

Good Eggs Make Much Better Cooked Food

It's the grade that makes the difference. And with eggs that means Grade AA or A. A perfect poached egg is tender, has a smooth, round shape and stands up.

Here's a tip from Louise Mason, extension food and nutrition specialist of Texas A. and M. College, about poaching eggs. To make sure it's tender, cook it at a low heat.

There is no reason to assume that children will inevitably die of cancer because one or more parents die of the disease.

The American Cancer Society official pointed out that cancer results when certain body cells rebel against the orderly process of growth and start off on a rampage of lawless expansion, destruction, and death. What causes this wild and destructive growth is not known.

"Until we do find the cause of cancer and develop additional methods of treatment," he concluded, "we must fight cancer with what we now know."
