Complete unofficial state returns from the Texas Election Bureau Tuesday showed Daniel defeated Yarborough for governor by 3,547 votes but Yarborough was waiting for the official canvass of returns before conceding.

Yarborough's decisive defeat of Daniel in Wheeler county Saturday day came as a surprise to many local political observers. In the first Democratic primary a month ago, W. Lee O'Daniel carried the county with Yarborough second and Daniel a close third. The July vote was: O'Daniel, 704; Yarborough 664, and Daniel, 660, with three other candidates accounting for the remainder of the total vote of 2,430.

In the attorney general's race, Wheeler county voters followed the state patterns in presenting Will Wilson a sizeable majority over Tom Moore. Wilson polled 923 votes to Moore's 707.

In the only local race, voters of Mobeetie, Briscoe and Wheeler elected Frank Lee as county commissioner in Precinct 1 to unseat W. L. (Shorty) Erwin, seeking reelection.

Lee polled 463 votes and Erwin 329. It was the heavy majority in the Mobeetie box that showed Lee into a strong lead. He polled 253 to Erwin's 34 in the Mobeetie box which cast four more votes than it did in the July primary.

Range Improvement Field Day Cancelled

The U. S. Southern Great Plains Field Station, Woodward, Okla., has announced cancellation of its Twentieth Annual Range Improvement Field Day, previously scheduled for October 6, 1956.

This action was deemed advisable because the severe drought conditions necessitated removing many experimental cattle on June 19, 1956. All spring grass plantings failed due to drought, and forage production on the grazed ranges has been only one-third of normal.

CIVIL DEFENSE WEEK SEPT. 9-15

Texans, preparing their observance of National Civil Defense Week September 9-15, were reminded today that their state is no stranger to disaster.

"It is one of the 'first' of which Texas does not brag that we have more major disasters each year than any other state in the union," R. J. Holt, supervisor of Wheeler civil defense and disaster relief unit, said.

Storm, fire, flood and explosion have taken hundreds of Texas lives, injured thousands, dislocated the lives of thousands of others and destroyed property valued at millions of dollars in the last few years, Holt said.

Unquestionably the toll would have been much greater if it had not been for the training many (Continued On Last Page)

WHEELER CO. PRODUCE ASSN. CHECKERBOARD NEWS By Narville Arganbright

FEED COWS NOW TO HOLD VALUABLE FALL PRODUCTION

Feeding the proper amount of grain ration and hay while cows are on pasture is one of the most important measures of all to keep a herd at capacity production and profit through the year.

A recent Purina test showed that cows grazed on pasture produced an average of 1750 lbs. more milk per lactation over "grass-only" cows.

When a well-balanced grain feed is not given on pasture, cows quickly lose body condition. Then this happens:

1. Cows fall off in milk flow and continue to lose body weight. (You may have noticed this already, if not feeding on pasture.)

2. Cows go into the barn in the fall in low body condition, so that they simply can't reach capacity production from September thru December, no matter how well they are fed then. They must use part of their grain feed to put back body, less before they can come up as they should in milk flow. How you feed now will determine your milk production in the fall when prices are good. See us for sound Purina pasture feeding recommendations.

Kenny Institute in Minneapolis Soon Will Be One of Our Largest Rehabilitation Centers

Minneapolis, Minn.—A construction and modernization program now under way will make Elizabeth Kenny institute here one of the country's most complete inpatient rehabilitation centers for the care and treatment of nerve, muscle or joint disabilities, according to R. Bruce Reinecker, president of the Elizabeth Kenny foundation, with national offices in this city.

Established in 1942, Kenny institute is the foundation's original treatment center in the United States. Besides being the Kenny treatment center for a large area, it also is the International Kenny Therapist Training center. Well over 8,000 patients from throughout the United States and a number of foreign countries have been admitted here for polio treatment and rehabilitation.

Here, also, have come doctors from many parts of the world to study and evaluate the Kenny method. Upwards of 150 registered nurses and physical therapists have come here to take the Kenny Therapist training course.

The construction of a second new wing and modernization of the existing structure will provide Kenny institute with additional rehabilitation, research and laboratory space, Reinecker said. Bed space, too, will be increased. Cost of the current building program, estimated at $1,500,000, will be met through a grant from national headquarters of the Kenny foundation and funds allocated by the federal enough for the main dish. Meat is often browned in a little fat to develop its flavor. In combination dishes, highly flavored or cured meats such as ham, dried beef, corned beef, and sausage may carry their taste further than fresh meat.

When the meat is limited, other foods will add zest and additional food values. Tomatoes, onions, parsley, chives, green peppers, celery, sour cream, lemon, nippy or smoked cheese all contribute in both ways.

Other seasonings your family may enjoy with meat are bay leaf, catsup, chili, curry, garlic, marjoram, paprika, sage, soy sauce, sweet basil, tobacco sauce, thyme, Worcestershire sauce. Since these are used in small quantities and keep many months, they are not expensive in the long run. Seasoning is especially important for meat-extending dishes. Meat loaves and other dishes which combine meat with bland foods such as macaroni, rice, or potatoes depend on skillful seasoning for their goodness.

Seal Assures Top Quality Of Windows

The prospective home-buyer who wants to be sure that the house he's considering has top-quality wood windows can follow the advice given by window manufacturers' representatives to the Federal Housing Administration. This is to look for the seal of approval of the American Wood Window Institute affixed to each window frame.

At a series of meetings held for officials of 70 regional F.H.A. offices, it was explained that the AWI seal "makes it possible to be sure at a glance that high standards of workmanship have been met or exceeded," according to Practical Builder magazine.

The seal certifies that the window has been made according to a Commercial Standard of the U.S. Department of Commerce. It is now being applied only to double-hung windows, but plans are being made to extend the certification to awning, sliding, and casement windows as soon as appropriate standards have been prepared.

F.H.A.'s interest in the seal lies in the fact that the agency has the power to grant a higher mortgage insurance commitment when a house is built with materials that exceed minimum FHA requirements.

Practical Builder explains that the seal assures a purchaser that the window has been made of properly dried lumber, that it is satisfactorily weather-stripped, that it has been treated with a water-repellent chemical, that the sash operates easily, and that the frame is accurately machined and free of defects.

ALL-INDIAN CEREMONIAL

The largest all-Indian ceremonial between Anadarko, Okla., and Gallup, N. M., and the only full-scale Indian celebration in Texas will be unveiled September 1, 2 and 3 in Buffalo Stadium in Canyon.

With a cast of 80 Kiowa, Comanche, Apache, Geronimo Apache and Wichita Indians from Oklahoma, the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will feature performances twice daily during the Labor Day week end. The afternoon performances, which begin at 2 p.m., will consist of authentic Indian dances and games, and each afternoon performance will be different from the others.

The evening performance each day, beginning at 8 p.m., will be a historical pageant entitled "The Peace Pipe of the Prairie." The script for the pageant calls for a recollection of Indian history from pre-Spanish times to the present.

Included in the pageant program will be a dozen Indian social ceremonial dances, a representation of historic Indian village life and several forms of Indian entertainment as they were used in the days before the White Man drove the Indian from the plains.

The Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial is sponsored by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. The Ceremonial started with an invitation to the Indian tribes who once lived in Palo Duro Canyon to return for a visit. The Indians suggested the ceremonial, which will become an annual celebration.

It is hoped that after the first year's Ceremonial, it will be moved from Buffalo Stadium to the Palo Duro Canyon itself.

The Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will get underway with a parade in downtown Canyon at 10 a.m. September 1, which will depict the Indian mode of travel from historic times to the present. Invitations have been given to riding clubs in Dalhart, Borger, Pampa, Hereford, Amarillo, Dimmitt and Plainview to participate in the parade.

Tickets for the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will be available at the gate of Buffalo Stadium. Prices are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Homemakers who are after good buys at the meat counter will consider the grade and the cut. By choosing U. S. Good, Commercial, or even Utility grades of beef instead of the top grades, Prime or Choice, you usually pay less per pound for similar cuts. Also you may get more lean meat to the pound since these less expensive meats often have less marbling of fat. It will be worth your while to compare prices.

The cut refers to the part of the animal from which the meat comes. The buyer can save money by using the less tender cuts of beef, the less popular cuts of pork lamb, and veal, and organ or variety meats such as liver, heart, and kidney when they are available. The protein in these cuts is just as good nutritionally as in the expensive cuts. In some variety meats it is even better. Of course, in comparing prices of cuts you will need to allow for bone and gristle, which raise the cost of the edible portions.

It pays to know the best ways of cooking the different cuts of the less expensive meats. For braising as pot roasts and swiss steaks, use beef round, rump, flank, chuck, short ribs, heart, and all cuts of veal; for broiling, frying or roasting use all cuts of lamb, pork shoulder, ground meat, liver, brains, spare ribs, pork chops, for simmering as stews and soups use neck, plate, shank, kidneys.

Good cooking can help make any cut of meat a favorite main dish with the family. For braised meats and stews use long slow cooking. For extra flavor, first browns meat in a little fat. To braise, use little or no liquid except the juices that cook from the meat. Cook, closely covered, with low heat. To stew, add water to partially cover meat, cover kettle, and simmer.

The meat grinder also helps to make meat tender. After grinding, any meat cooks as quickly as a tender cut. Pounding, or scoring with a knife, before cooking is similar in effect to grinding but tenderizes meat less. Meat itself is usually flavoring

SOCIAL SECURITY NOV. PAYMENTS

Recent amendments to the Social Security Act provide for payments, effective for November of this year, to eligible widows, wives whose husbands are already receiving payments, and women workers who are at least 62 years of age.

Benefits to wives and women workers will be scaled down according to how much the applicant lacks age 65, and this will be an amount which would have been payable had the applicant waited permanent reduction from the until age 65 to apply. In most cases, however, more total benefits will be received by filing before age 65 than by waiting until age 65 to apply, according to a statement from John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office.

At the time application is filed as a wife or widow, proof of age must be furnished. Proofs most commonly used are old insurance policies or family Bible records. In addition to age proofs, widows will furnish proof of marriage in the form of their marriage certificates.

It will expedite the handling of these applications, Sanderson said, if the following information is furnished in advance. The information called for below should be mailed to the Social Security office in Amarillo.

1. Name of husband, if applicant is wife or widow. His social security number. Date of his death, if deceased.
2. Name and address of female worker applying on her own work, her social security number, and date of her birth.

3. If applying as wife or widow, your date of birth, address and your social security number, if any. Also a statement as to type of age proof available.

THE PARABLE

herefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

(St. Matthew 13:13)

THE PARABLE is the basis of all religious education. From infancy through adult life we learn spiritual truths only as they are interpreted for us in terms of every-day experience.

OUR CHURCHES follow the example of the Greatest Teacher. Simple precepts or more complex doctrines are brought to us in vivid illustration. Lessons, sermons, hymns — even church architecture and ritual — are full of human narrative, word pictures or traditional symbolism to help us grasp and apply God's truth.

SPIRITUAL MATURITY must come to us through the effective teaching and practical guidance our churches provide. Our souls cannot grow simply by seeing a church on the corner, or hearing folks talk about religion. Worshipping and learning every Sunday, we will understand Christian truth in living terms and use our understanding to serve God and man.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

They will reside in the Ray Siegmund house on South Main street in Wheeler.

Siegmund leaves the Wheeler county post he has occupied since March 5, 1951, to accept the district agent's job in Extension District 6, with headquarters at Fort Stockton. An employee of the Extension Service since February 1, 1948, Siegmund has been one of the most popular County Agents ever assigned to Wheeler county. In addition to his sincere devotion to duty resulting in major contributions to the farm economy of the county, the universally liked agent has been active in many phases of civic and community work.

Regretting to lose his invaluable services, Siegmund's friends all over Wheeler county rejoice at his deserved promotion and extend best wishes to Ray and his family in their new home.

The gym last Saturday morning and were issued practice suits. Actual workouts started Monday afternoon. The first home game will not be until September 28. The first game on the Mustang schedule is at Canadian on Friday, September 7.

Coach Atwell said this week that he thought Wheeler should have another good season with the Mustangs winning more games than they lose, especially in conference play. The first conference game is at Quitaque on October 5. The game with Erick, Okla., here on September 28 is the only home game until October 19, when the Mustangs meet the Turkey eleven on Nicholson Field.

Need More Living Space?
Fix Up Attached Garage

Owners of small homes with attached garages are catching on to one of the neatest tricks yet devised to gain more living space at a minimum of cost.

Acting on the theory that the family deserves more consideration than the family car, they're turning their one- and two-car garages into bedrooms, larger kitchens, playrooms—anything that fills their needs or suits their fancy.

And the cash savings are big because the new-found living space already has a roof, concrete floor, and three framed walls.

The home handyman-and-wife team can do much of the work themselves on this project. They can install insulation, put down tile floors, and do interior finishing.

Batts and blankets of mineral wool insulation, because of their lightness and ease of handling, are a favorite installation project for the husband-and-wife team. Only a few ordinary tools are needed, and when the job is done, the family knows its new living space will be easier to heat in winter and will stay cooler in summer.

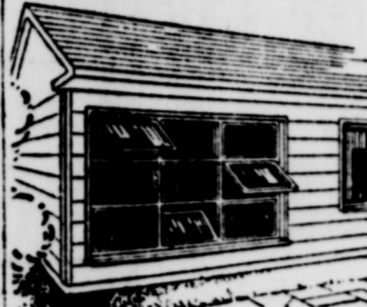

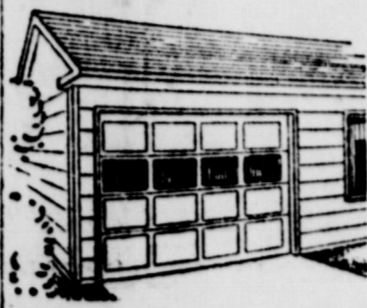

Thick mineral wool is virtually essential to comfort in a room converted from a garage. The reason is that three walls and the roof of an attached garage normally are exterior surfaces, directly exposed to outdoor temperatures.

A contractor should be called in to handle major carpentry and supervise plumbing and heating installations.

Chances are he'll recommend filling all or part of the garage door opening with windows of ponderosa pine to get away from a "blank" appearance at the front of the house, and for light and ventilation. Other windows are necessary, too—perhaps a widow wall at the rear overlooking your garden, perhaps one or more windows at the side.

It is economical to replace a garage door with a large grouping of windows, for little new wall framing, sheathing, and siding need be added when that is done. Ponderosa pine window units are available in a wide range of stock sizes to fit openings of various dimensions.

Attached garage, top, can become new living space for a growing family with a minimum of remodeling. Bottom, Here the garage door was replaced by a wall of awning and hopper windows of ponderosa pine.

THANKS!

I wish to take this opportunity to say, "thank you" to those of you who so loyally supported me in the campaign. Although the majority of you voters did not see fit to return me as your commissioner I have no ill will toward anyone. I am glad to live in a country where the voters may express their sentiments at a free election.

I shall endeavor to serve out my term with the same consideration to all that I have shown in the past. Thanks again to all.

Sincerely,
W. L. "SHORTY" ERWIN

Civil Defense —

Texans received in those years in defense and disaster rescue and relief work," R. J. added.

Pointing out that this training had been conducted on every level from the smallest community to the top executive organizations of the state government, Holt noted that the lives of every Texan are touched at some point by defense and disaster work.

"National Civil Defense Week is in a way a tribute to all those who have given so unselfishly of their time and efforts in this cause," Holt said. "These people are members of your family, your neighbors and your friends."

"Whether or not there is an organized observance of Civil Defense Week in your community, it would be most fitting if you would take this occasion to thank the civil defense volunteers for the work they have done."

"Let us all salute the civil defense volunteers who have done such a tremendous job."

4-H Clubbers —

Wheeler, High individual; Jimmy Hill, Wheeler, second high individual; Roland Miles, Wheeler, third high individual; and Bob Martin, Briscoe, fourth high individual.

The livestock judging team placed second in the livestock judging contest and Jerry Lackey of the Kelton 4-H Club was high individual of the entire contest. Other members of the Wheeler County 4-H livestock judging team were Dean Sims of Wheeler; George Harris and Larry Anderson of the Kelton 4-H Club.

One of Wheeler County's top 4-H club calf leaders, Bob Martin from the Gageby community, won top honors with his herford steer from the herd of Jake Hess at McLean.

Bob's steer, called Jeff, weighed 540 pounds but he was so well balanced that he placed over several steers that weighed 650 to 1165 pounds. The little steer started his winning way when he won the light weight division of the Hereford class of the Junior Livestock Show. Then he showed against a Shorthorn and an Angus to win the purple rosette for champion of the Junior show.

The third time he went into the show ring was for the Grand Champion of the North Plains Steer Show and this time he won over a fat 1165 pound Hereford steer.

Bob Martin had one other steer that placed fifth in the open class of the steer show. This steer was from the Ferris Hess herd of McLean.

Wheeler County had one entry in the Junior Wheat Improvement Contest and it was given the grand champion ribbon. This sample of wheat was entered by Bob Martin of Gageby community and the variety was Commanche, Bob planted certified seed last fall on summer fallowed land and harvested about eight bushels per acre this year. This sample was hand picked and tested 63 pounds per bushel.

By winning the wheat show, Bob was also presented a pen and pencil set. He will also enter another sample of wheat in the State Wheat show at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo in September.

SAVINGS BONDS SALES ARE UP

During July the sales of Series "E", U. S. Savings Bonds in Wheeler county amounted to $15,022, according to R. J. Holt, county savings bonds chairman, Sales of Series E and H bonds combined for the first seven months of the year totalled $174,743, or 69.9 per cent of the 1956 quota of $250,000.

In Texas sales for the first seven months were $115,029,501.

Mr. Holt also stated that of the Series E Bonds that have matured, over 70 percent are still being held for the additional option period of nine years and eight months.

Mr. Holt reminded those people who hold matured F and G bonds that these bonds do not earn interest after maturity and that they should exchange these matured F and G bonds for Series E, or the new H, J and K bonds in order to earn additional interest.

Wheeler county stands in fourth place of the eight counties comprising District 2 of the Amarillo area in total saving bonds sales.
