MUSTANGS TOP TIGERS, 32-7

The Wheeler Mustangs handed the McLean Tigers their first defeat of the 1956 football season last Friday night. Led by the brilliant yardage gains of Jim Porter, who tallied 101 yards gained rushing, the Mustangs won by a score of 32-7. Jajo Jaco scored two TDs, Porter two, and Larry Hunter one. Jaco had one more TD that was called back because of a rules infraction.

Paul Garvin of McLean scored the only Tiger TD in the fourth period. Jack Bailey kicked the extra point.

During the entire first quarter of the game the ball was handed back and forth in a see-saw affair with neither team being able to drive to pay dirt. Lots of good football was displayed by both teams in this period.

In the second quarter Mustang Fullback Jim Porter plunged from the 5-yard line for the first tally. The try for point was not good. Then, as time was running out at the half, Jajo Jaco snagged a pass and went 32 yards for a TD. This was called back and the play terminated because of a rules infraction by the Mustangs. This play caused quite a bit of dissent but the rule book explicitly states: "If the offensive team commits the rules infraction and time runs out the play is terminated. If the defensive team commits the foul the play stands."

After the half both teams came out fighting. Early in the third stanza Jaco picked up four yards and the second Mustang TD. Harold Crossland, Mustang Quarterback (Continued on last page)

Farmers Will Receive $9 Acre For Conservation Reserve Land

Wheeler County farmers will be paid $9.00 per acre annually for land placed in the Conservation Reserve phase of the Soil Bank program, according to Albert Marshall, office manager of the Wheeler County ASC.

Marshall addressed large groups of farmers in Shamrock and Wheeler on Monday and Tuesday nights of this week, explaining the general picture of the Conservation Reserve portion of the new farm program.

The Conservation Reserve part of the program is different from the Acreage Reserve which has to do with retiring acreage formerly planted to basic crops — cotton and wheat in this area. Most farmers are already familiar with the Acreage Reserve part of the plan.

Information and the proper Conservation Reserve forms were received by the ASC only last week. Farmers may begin signing at the ASC office next week.

According to Marshall, this is how the Conservation Reserve works.

All farmland regularly used in the production of crops, including crops such as tame hay which do not require annual tillage is eligible for the Conservation Reserve. The following are excluded: 1. non-cropland used only for pasture; 2. land designated for the Acreage Reserve program (cotton and wheat allotted acres).

The minimum acreage acceptable in the Conservation Reserve is 5 acres, except that in special cases, on small farms, the minimum acceptable may be one acre. The total annual Conservation

Supt. Tom Baker of Lela was in Wheeler on business Tuesday.

Reserve payment to any producer, for any year, and with respect to all farms in which he has an interest is limited to $5,000.

To participate in the Conservation Reserve program, farmers must sign contracts with the U.S. Department of Agriculture through their county ASC Committees. These contracts will be for 3 or 5 years, at the option of the producer, for land that is already in approved cover crops. The contracts will be for 5 or 10 years, at option of the producer, where an approved vegetative cover must be established.

However, if any farm has land that would qualify for the Conservation Reserve in 1956, the contract will be for 1 to 6 years for land that is already in approved cover crops, and for 6 or 11 years where an approved vegetative cover must be established.

There are two kinds of Conservation Reserve payments: cost-sharing and annual.

A Cost-sharing is a payment to assist in the establishment of soil and water conservation practices on the designated acreage. This payment will be 80 per cent of the cost of establishing such practices. Types of eligible conservation practices (Continued On Last Page)

The Order of the Rainbow for Girls was founded by William Mark Sexson, an ordained Minister of the Christian (Disciples) Church, while serving as minister of the First Christian Church in McAlester, Okla.

Mr. Sexson, who had joined the church when only 12 years of age, began his ministry at Fourteen, and was an ordained minister at 17 years. He immediately became identified with the craft as a lecturer and contributor to Fraternal literature. He spent practically all of his life in research work and was honored by the Fraternity on many occasions.

In 1909 he went abroad spending much time in Europe, Assyria, Palestine, and Egypt in search of Masonic information and further preparation for his work as a contributor to Masonic Literature.

September is "Better Breakfast month", because with the opening of school it means a fresh start for most family members in one way or another. It is also the time when eating habits are re-established for the school and work days ahead. It is a fine time to establish good breakfast habits for every member of the family.

Eating a good breakfast pays off in efficiency, alertness, and better health. It has been determined by survey that the school children who eat a good breakfast make much better grades and are more easily controlled. Research has also shown that breakfast-skippers rob themselves of potential alertness and efficiency during late morning hours, and that dieters are wrong if they think missing breakfast is a practical way to lose weight.

There's much room for improvement. Only one out of five children goes to school with a good breakfast. Sixty percent of teen-age girls habitually eat a breakfast entirely inadequate to their physical needs. Only about 40 percent of the women say they have good breakfasts.

Aim for an adequate breakfast. That means one that will provide one-fourth to one-third of the day's total food requirements in calories and nutrients. It should include these basic foods, fruits or fruit juices, cereal or eggs and meat, or both, whole or enriched bread, butter or margarine, milk and coffee.

Two visitors attended the regular Monday meeting of the Wheeler Kiwanis Club this week.

Plans were completed for the interclub at Borger next Friday. If you can attend be at the north side of the courthouse at 10 a.m. to load for the jaunt, President C. J. asks.

Final plans for Kids day, September 22, were discussed. David brought another timely program with the coaches and tri-captains of the Wheeler Mustangs and a discussion of the rules changes. Coach Atwell explained some of the questions that have arisen from situations in previous Mustang games. Good program David.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Slemmer and Mildred Ann attended the West Texas-Corpus Christi football game in Canyon Saturday night.

Blanche Grainger returned home Sunday from Shreveport, La. where she went to see her niece off to London where she will study voice for a year at the Royal Academy of Music.

Local Man Develops "Hi-Fi" Music For Ships

Navy Chief specialists Bill Barry, more, who recently completed a tour of active duty at the 11th Naval District Headquarters in San Diego, Calif., has developed a method of bringing "hi-fi" music to men on the little ships of the fleet.

Barrymore formerly lived in Wheeler, with his wife, the former Miss Blanche Fowler of Sweetwater, Okla., and their two children.

His new method of recording on tape has made it possible for small ships like destroyers to have top quality music. Small ships have a great deal of "rock and roll" on the high seas. This makes it practically impossible for them to use standard records due to the tendency of the needle to jump out of its track and scratch the record. Tape recordings are not affected by the ship's motion.

Barrymore has been a member of the Naval Reserve for 14 years.

Wheeler County Soil Conservation District News

Hunting season is with us again and with it comes the greatly increased danger of fires. Grass fires should not be taken lightly. Grass is one of the Wheeler District's greatest natural resources and deserves to be treated accordingly.

The extended drought has reduced growth on most ranges and the subsequent over grazing has left much of our range with little or no cover to burn. There are many acres of good grass, however, that will continue to be a hazard until general rains relieve conditions.

The District has about 50,000 acres of grassland that still have enough feed to winter the cattle now on them. There are nearly 20,000 acres that have been rested all summer to have grass for this winter. Clipping tests made recently by Soil Conservation Service personnel assisting the district showed 700 to 800 pounds of usable hay per acre on grassland of G. W. McIlhany east of town. It would cost at least $6.00 to buy enough roughage to replace an acre of this grass this winter.

When the cost of fences are added it does not take a very large grass fire to be as disastrous as a residence fire. Pastures are the stockman's place of business. Give them the same consideration you would expect others to give your home, office or store.

Watson Burgess attended to business in Amarillo Monday.

Newsletter From Your CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS

Most of you will recall the fight that was had last session on the gas bill. The bill finally passed both Houses of the Congress and was sent to the White House. President Eisenhower vetoed the bill, even though he had previously expressed his opinion that federal regulation of the producers of gas at the wellhead was not in keeping with the best interests of this country or our form of government. Although he stated in his veto message that there was some indication of undue lobbying activities and based his veto on that reason, he did not impress me or others who were thoroughly familiar with the situation. I suspected at the time, and so pointed out in a newsletter, that there was more politics in the veto than there was reasoning. The bill was either a good bill or a bad bill.

If it was a good bill it should not have been vetoed, because somebody tried to pay somebody else some money in some lobbying activities. If the bill was a bad bill, it should never have passed the Congress, lobbying activities or no lobbying activities. The truth is that it was a good bill, although I did not feel that it went far enough in freeing the producers from federal control. Very few bills in our legislative history have been the subject of more extensive hearings than were had on this gas bill. It was thoroughly debated in the House of Representatives and passed the House by a vote of 209 to 203. It then passed the Senate and went to the White House where it was vetoed. I thought the veto was wrong then, and I still think the same way.

The odd situation that has developed concerning the gas bill is simply this. Rumors around Washington are that some ardent supporters of the President are seeking the active and financial support of the oil and gas people for the fall campaign. The O and G people are supposed to have been told that if such support is forthcoming, the President will sign the gas bill as soon as it gets to the White House next year. I would advise the O and G people to be sure to read and understand exactly what is going on.

In the first place, it should be pointed out that the phrase "as soon as it gets to the White House" is the tricky part of the language.

In the second place, it must be remembered that the bill passed the House by a final vote of 209 to 203—a margin of only 6 votes.

In the third place, it would not be difficult for several of the Members who voted or the bill to change their votes in the next session and vote against the bill. It would only require a change of 4 votes to defeat the bill in the House. This would mean that the bill would never reach the White House. Therefore, the promise of the ardent supporters of the President that the bill would be signed "as soon as it reaches the White House" would not be broken, simply because the bill had not reached the White House.

The truth is there is a propaganda campaign going on today against the oil and gas industry. The present Senate lobbying hearings are furnishing a good stage from which to criticize the oil and gas people at the producer level. If this propaganda campaign is successful, it will hurt the economy of the Panhandle of Texas. The big utility companies in the East want to firm up their gas sources and fix it so that the producers and royalty owners must sell their gas into the pipelines for use in the East and Middle West.

They realize the possibility that many new discoveries for gas usage are highly probable, and that the value of gas as a natural resource will be measurably increased.

These utility companies are willing to subject gas producers to federal control in order to protect their own source of supply. These utility companies had better wake up. Because federal control of the gas at one end will simply open the door to federal control of rates to be fixed at the consumer level, and these utility companies will find that such a policy as they now support, could easily result in nationalization of the fuel industry. Certainly no freethinking American would subscribe to that policy.

The propaganda campaign against the oil and gas people will not only hurt the economy of the oil and gas people themselves and the people who work at that particular field in the Panhandle of Texas, but it will hurt every business in our section of the country including the farmers and the ranchers.

What this country needs, and especially the Panhandle of Texas, is a restabilization of the segments of the economy that have been throttled in the last few years. I refer especially to the farmers and ranchers. Certainly we don't need any attacks on other segments of the economy in our District.

SAM A. THOMAS HEADS AG. DEPT.

Sam A. Thomas has been named manager of agricultural development for the Southwestern Public Service Company. Mr. Thomas will be headquartered at the company's Amarillo office, Watson Burgess, local manager, announced this week.

He will be responsible for coordinating the company's program for bringing more of the benefits and efficiency of electricity to farm production and rural homes with all interested agricultural agencies in the company's 45,000 square mile service area. Special attention will be given to working with County Agents, Home Demonstration Agents, 4-H and Future Farmer groups, and school and college agriculture teachers.

A native West Texan, Mr. Thomas has been with the production department of the electric light & power company since 1952. He is a graduate of West Texas State College, taking his degree in agriculture. Prior to joining Southwestern Public Service, he taught agriculture for more than six years in the Wheeler County Vocational School at Mobeetie, Texas. He is a major in the Air Force Reserve.

In announcing the new appointment, W. L. Pearson, industrial manager for the Public Service Company, said: "Agriculture is still the dominant element in the economy of our service area. Electricity can increase farm production, lower production costs, and bring more comfort and convenience to rural homes. Sam Thomas has spent all his life in this region, and brings to his new position a knowledge of electricity, and the part it can play in a more modern and productive farm and farm home which will be of great value to many people in our service area."

What Is Fallout?

FACTORS AFFECTING FALLOUT distribution over countryside downwind from a nuclear blast are the size of the earth particles carrying the radioactivity, their altitude and the speed and direction of the wind. Generally, in the United States, the winds which would dominate the direction of fallout would be the strong, usually west-to-east winds at about 40,000 feet. For this reason, the Federal Civil Defense Administration warns that only weather experts, with methods of tracking high-altitude winds, can predict with reasonable accuracy the area to be affected by fallout. Men with radiation monitoring instruments are also required to determine whether an area is "safe" from radio active fallout after a nuclear attack. (FCDA Plans)

There will be band concerts, free movies, fireworks, radio and TV programs. Every day of the fair will be crammed with fun; every day will offer something different to see and do.

Why settle for less than Blue Chip performance?

It doesn't take a new GMC owner long to spot the difference—especially if he's just switched from another make truck. Take the way every Blue Chip GMC is "engineed". An ultra-modern power plant gives him flashing response, sparkling road-pace—and record fuel economy.

Hydra-Matic® is another eye-opener. Right away he appreciates its time and effort saving in traffic. And later on, he cashes in on the big maintenance savings.

And every trip he can carry a bigger load. For GMC chassis are rugged—GMC axles are extra-capacity.

So he hauls more—and hauls it comfortably. GMC cabs are man-size and deepcushioned. Recirculating ball-bearing steering makes handling free and easy. Close-quarters parking's a cinch with Safety Power Steering.*

And at every stop, a Blue Chip GMC attracts admiring attention. With that distinctive boulevard styling, it's a smart advertisement-on-wheels for any business.

Ford Trucks cost less

And low first cost is only your first saving

● Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. Check what you get and what it costs. You'll like what you see.

Look at the costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life. And a 10-million-truck study proves Ford trucks last longer.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more in a Ford. For example, more horsepower per dollar—proved by a comparison of factory-suggested list prices and net horsepower of all truck lines. You get more comfort and safety in Ford's Driverized Cab with exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully... consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

levied the annual tax rate, it would remain in force and effect during that taxable year.

The proposed amendment continues the provision allowing the Legislature to authorize an additional tax up to 15c for further maintenance of public roads, subject to a vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county. It continues the Legislature's authority to pass local laws for maintenance of public roads and highways without the local notice required for local or special laws.

Those who favor this amendment argue that it is businesslike; that its flexibility in allowing the County Commissioners to adjust the tax rates for these constitutional purposes from year to year is needed for better and more economical administration of the county's affairs. Opponents say that separate tax limits for each of these purposes were written into the Constitution as an important and needed protection of the taxpayers from loose fiscal policies, and that rates should not be changed or adjusted without the express approval of the qualified property tax paying voters.
