The line will cross Wheeler County from the east to the west, running just north of Wheeler.

The accident occurred when the car in which the five persons were riding collided with a train at the intersection of farm-to-town road 1912, about 12 miles east of Amarillo.

In the crash were: Williams Richerson, 30, of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Day, 39, of south of Amarillo, former resident of this city.

The fifth victim, Mrs. Virginia Eunice Day, 35, wife of Everett Lucian Day, died at noon Sunday in the St. Anthony Hospital in Amarillo.

According to highway patrolmen in Amarillo, the accident occurred at 7:55 p.m. as the car in which the five people were riding was going south. The automobile struck the train just as the engine crossed the crossing. E. R. Melvin, engineer of the train, said.

The crossing is located between highways 66 and 287, southeast of Amarillo Air Force Base. The car was dragged about 60 feet by the freight train, which was travelling east. Officers said all five of the occupants were thrown clear of the car.

Red Cross Fund Drive On March 4; Goal Is $799.00

P. E. Yarborough, Campaign Fund Chairman for the Wheeler Chapter of the American Red Cross, recently held an organizational meeting of all committee heads and Community Chairmen at Nora's Cafe.

March 4 was the date tentatively set for the concerted drive for Red Cross funds of the Chapter. The goal for this year has been set at $799. Last year the goal was $1385. Mobeetie, Allison, Briscoe and Kelton communities are a part of the Wheeler Chapter.

Community Chairmen who will conduct the fund drive for their respective communities are: Archie Hibler, Buck Scribner, Ken Ball, H. E. Parmeter, and Clarence Zybach.

Mrs. Kenneth Franklin is treasurer of the group. Harold Kenady is secretary.

It was decided at the meeting to attempt to wind up the drive in North Wheeler County as near possible on Monday, March 4. By making a concerted effort, and Community Chairmen securing enough workers so that no worker will have too many people to contact, this should be an easy task. If you do not expect to be at home on that date please leave your donation to the Red Cross with the community chairman of your community or with a neighbor in order that solicitors will not have to call back to contact you.

Those in attendance at the organizational meeting included Jim Patterson, regional representative of Pampa, C. J. Meek, Thomas Daughtry, Dick Guynes, Chairman P. E. Yarborough, H. E. Parmeter, Percy Farmer, Clarence Zybach, Harry Wofford, Harold Kenady, and Chas. Slammer.

President George Gandy and Archie Hibler were out of town and unable to be president.

The big question in Washington today is the possible fate of House Joint Resolution 117, the so-called "Eisenhower Doctrine" or "Middle East Policy." Soon after this proposal was announced in President Eisenhower's first message to the Congress, a campaign got underway to sell it to the American people. The two major items in the proposal were the vesting of power in the President to send American boys into the Middle East, and the granting to the President of wide powers to spend money in that area. They quickly brought forth opposition from a number of people in our country. These were generally divided into three groups.

One group was against the granting of any of the powers requested by the President on the theory that the right to declare war should remain in the Congress; that the granting of power to the President to use armed forces in foreign areas was, in effect, granting to the President the right to wage war, declared or undeclared. Another argument by this group was that the United Nations had been formed to provide a police force to handle matters of armed conflict such as the Middle East situation. Another argument was to the effect that American tax dollars that had been poured into the bottomless pit of foreign aid had not produced the results that had originally been anticipated, and that the further lavish expenditures of such funds would constitute additional waste without effective results.

The second group vigorously opposed the use of armed forces of the United States, but did subscribe to the use of American tax money for both military and economic aid in the troublesome areas of the Middle East. Their reasoning was to the effect that, since we were a member of the United Nations, the entire matter of policing the area should be left to the UN, but that money would be needed by these countries in order to meet their economic needs, and that the providing of ample sums for this purpose would lessen the danger of shedding American blood in those areas.

The third group followed the school of thought that the power to send American armed forces into these areas should be vested in the President, because it was the only way that moves of dictatorship could be countered by this country. In other words if a dictatorial country decided to move armed forces into an area, that decision could be issued at the same time; that if the President had to wait until Congress acted before such an order could be given, we would be at a serious disadvantage. This group felt that all sums expended in dealing with the Middle East problem should be devoted to military matters and none to economic aid grants. They argued that the military operation would be much more effective in settling the matter and that the granting of economic aid could well create a situation that would make the military operation more difficult.

Of course, there were other divisions of thought but the three groups above named seem to constitute the nucleus of the opposition, and it appeared that a unification of these three groups would result in formidable opposition to the plan. However, the sales campaign that was commenced shortly after the White House pronouncement was most effective and is gaining momentum. The result is that a substantial amount of opposition in all three groups was measurably reduced. Much of the opposition was converted to support of the overall plan, but on the condition that the power to send American boys into the Middle East should be separated from the power to spend American money in that area; that both powers be granted to the President as he requested, but that they be granted in two separate authorizations so that each could be weighed separately by the Congress and subjected to such limitations as the Congress might want to place on either or both of them. It will be approved by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and by the House of Representatives in almost the same terms as requested by the President. There is still some doubt as to the form it will take when it is approved by the Senate. But the present trend, as indicated by the high powered sales campaign, indicates that any changes made by the Senate will be minor.

The punch line that is being used with telling effect in this campaign is that "the adoption of the Presidential proposal is necessary in order to stop communism." If this could be established, the vote for the proposal in both Houses would be unanimous. In fact, there would be no need for a vote. The proposal would be adopted by unanimous consent. However, the thinking of many Members of Congress is that the adoption of this proposal is an abdication of power by the Congress of the United States and poses a serious constitutional question in a strict interpretation of the Constitution.

 THAT BROKE THE
 "low-price" lineup!

This big high-stepping Chieftain started a revolution with a carload of "firsts" and an eye-popping price tag!

The low-price field never looked like this before! The handsome husky you see right here has the boat still rocking... with more power, more wheelbase, more room—and more sheer pride of ownership—than ever before possible on a well-trained budget! Just look at what they're making room for now in the low-price lineup: a strapping 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8... a whopping, road-hugging 122 inches of wheelbase and an all-new suspension system for a Level-Line Ride that's next best thing to a magic carpet! And this streamlined beauty takes on the field with more than six dozen "firsts", all proved by 100,000 of the roughest, toughest test miles a group of facts-minded engineers could devise! If this sounds like a wonderful buy—it certainly is! Our advice is to stop dreaming and price it! At a cost less than a lot of the low-price jobs, this newcomer is making big-time buyers out of former "all-three" owners!

Wheeler County Soil Conservation District News

Many farmers are taking advantage of the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank to seed grass on land not suited for cultivation or land not suited for continuous cultivation. Perennial grasses are good soil improving crops where all the growth is left on the land.

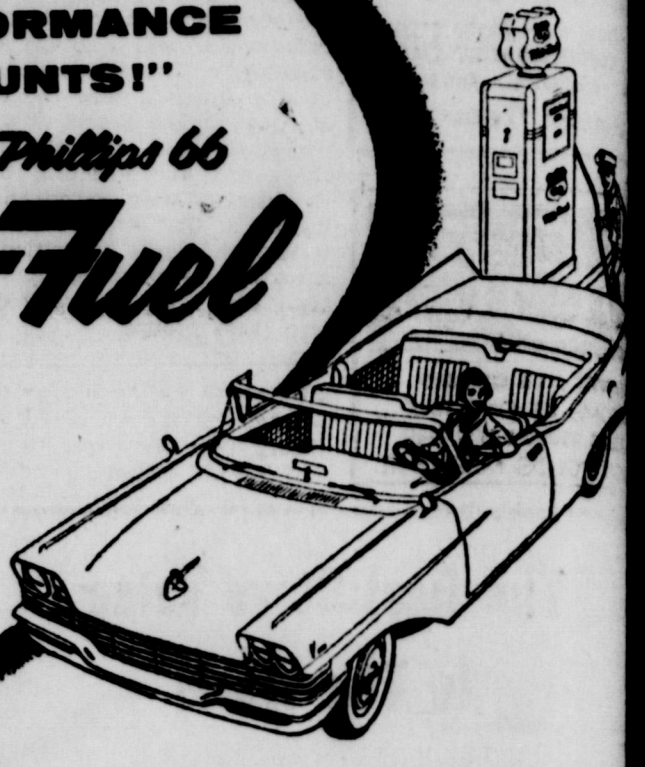

The Soil Bank payment for seeding grass includes seeding a sorghum cover in 1957 as a seed bed for permanent grass in 1958. Since grass seed are scarce and high priced, they should not be planted on land that does not have enough dead cover to remove the danger of blowing. The payment for seeding sorghum cover will cover a large part of the cost and will not interfere with cost sharing on the grass seeding next year.

Soil Conservation Service personnel assisting the Wheeler District will be glad to assist farmers select land for soil bank. They will also help the farmers select the grass to plant and give such advice as they can on whether to seed sorghum cover or grass this year.

Farmers who intend to seed grass this year should get seed soon. The increased demand caused by the soil bank is rapidly taking up the available supply.

Electric Clothes Dryers BEAT THE SUN!

You're sitting pretty with an electric clothes dryer. Teddy Kilowatt does all the hard work . . . eliminates all the bending, stretching, stooping and the carrying of heavy baskets of wet clothes.

Our area has a great climate — plenty of life-giving sun — great for sun bathing or basking on a sunny afternoon. But, unfortunately, our climate is not very kind to our clothes. The sun, which feels good to the skin, treats clothes harshly. It quickly fades out the colors, takes the life out of a bright print. You can "beat the sun," keep your lovely colors looking pretty, with an electric clothes dryer — the proven way to dry clothes and with ease.

the car and that the motor was thrown 30 feet beyond the car by the impact.

It is believed the victims were en route to Amarillo to attend the Golden Gloves boxing matches.

Mr. Richerson was born and reared in Wheeler and lived here for two years ago when he moved to Denver City, where he was employed by Southwestern Public Service.

Funeral services for the former local and popular resident were held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Wheeler. Mr. Seitz was widely known for his baseball managerial talents. Joint funeral services for him and Mrs. Seitz were held Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Pampa.

Joint services for Mr. and Mrs. Day were also conducted Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Pampa.

CAR STICKERS BY APRIL 15

The Car Safety Inspection Stickers, mandatory each year by the State Safety Department, are going exceedingly slow. To date the three inspection Stations in Wheeler report that about 15% of the cars and trucks in the area have been inspected. The inspection period started last September 15 and will end on April 15. Time is running out. It is more than two-thirds gone and only about one-seventh of the stickers have been put on.

The state requires vehicles to have their head and tail lights, horn, brakes, and windshield wipers in working condition. This is a necessary safety requirement and all should willingly comply.

On April 16 motor vehicles operating without the safety sticker are liable to be stopped and the operator fined, according to the Department of Public Safety.

If you have not obtained Safety Inspection on ALL your vehicles you should do so at once to avoid the last minute rush. "The deadline will not be extended as approximately seven months have been allowed in which to obtain the inspection and sticker," a spokesman for the Public Safety Department said this week.

Traffic All Snarled Up!

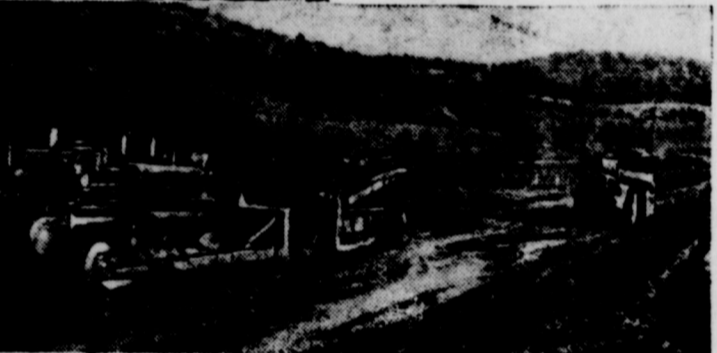

WATER TRAFFIC—How these Venetian boatmen steer their craft without plowing into one another is a navigation miracle. This mass of gondolas and assorted vessels glide along the Grand Canal in Venice, Italy, as part of the traditional festivities marking "The Wedding of Venice With The Sea," climaxing the tourist season.

TRAFFIC BOTTLENECK—This picture presents an unusual traffic "bottleneck"—two hamsters scuffling over the same bottle of milk. When this pair of two-year-olds were abandoned by their mother, an enterprising Irvington, N. J., man came up with this ingenious idea of feeding.

AIR TRAFFIC—This sight of a mass of TV antennae protruding above a ramshackle weather-beaten house in Moscow verifies Russians have TV reception problems, too. Although Muscovite factory workers seemingly earn only enough for the bare essentials of life, here's proof they enjoy modern luxury items such as TV sets.

BOTTLENECK CURE—Units like this International TD-24 200 hp torque converter crawler tractor, push-loading an International Model 55 14 cu. yd. Pyscraper are helping to build roads quickly all over the country which will ease hazardous bottlenecks in auto traffic.

Wednesday, February 13 is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Times is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Watson Hotel between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. absolutely free of charge.

The Times wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow."

row, a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stages pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures.

lodge in behalf of the past masters for the opportunity to have served the order and the recognition given them and that service.

Rev. Hugh H. Hunt, pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist Church of Amarillo make the principal address. He developed an interesting and thought provoking talk from a passage of the 98th Psalm, "In Thy Sanctuary There Are Strength and Beauty." He pointed out that either strength or beauty by themselves was not enough and might be dangerous. Only when a man was big enough to be strong and that strength was softened by the beauty of God was the picture complete. He prevailed upon those present to look to God and His will for the touch that would soften the strength of a free democracy.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Robertson and children were in Wheeler, Tuesday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Truitt Jennings and boys spent the week end in Hollis, Okla., visiting her parents and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Pringle and Alma Jean Jennings.

9,355 BALES OF COTTON GINNED

Wheeler County ginned 3,736 fewer bales of cotton in 1956 than in 1955, according to a report received this week from the U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

According to the Bureau of the Census report, 9,355 bales of cotton were ginner from the 1956 crop compared to 13,091 bales the previous year.

The sharp drop in production was caused by the prolonged drought and a slight decrease in acreage allotment.

Total ginning by counties in this area:

County	1956	1955
Childress	8,772	20,407
Collingsworth	21,842	31,508
Donley	9,059	11,173

He pointed out that although errors had made all was not bad and that the Red Cross did a job that no other organization could do. In this respect he pointed out the service rendered servicemen in the States and overseas. Red Cross got in where others could not to render aid and comfort to armed forces personnel.

"Red Cross has nothing to do with the re-settlement of Hungarian Refugees," Mr. Yarbrough stated. "However if contact with persons in other regions is necessary, they can and will make the necessary contacts with organizations set up by the Federal Government to handle the Hungarian situation," he added.
