"SLOW DOWN AND SAVE!"

In this paraphrase of the current traffic safety slogan, "Slow Down and Live," Sheriff Bus Dorman, this week gave motorists a tip on how to cut down on automobile expenses.

"A lot of motorists don't realize that a heavy foot on the accelerator is a heavy drain on the pocketbook," Dorman said. "Tests show that a top cruising speed of 65 miles per hour is much costlier than one of 40 miles per hour."

He said that when speed is stepped up, gas and oil consumption per mile increases greatly. There is also more wear on the tires and brakes.

"Of course, there's more wear and tear on the driver's nerves and temper, too," Bus added. "And there's also greater chance of an accident should a dangerous situation arise."

He pointed out that a vehicle (Continued on last page)

Dick Guynes, manager of the Wheeler Chamber of Commerce is to be commended for his forethoughts in getting these listings in a magazine that is sent to all parts of the state. Good publicity for Wheeler.

INFESTATIONS OF INSECTS NEED CONTROL

Insects are causing some damages throughout the county and a control measure now could save your garden or crops if you are being damaged. A check should be made now and at regular periods to determine our insect buildup. Gardens are being damaged mostly by plant lice, which is a very small, soft, green bodied insect that sucks sap out of the leaves. This may be controlled by using 1% pyrethrin dust or 1% parathion dusts. Grasshoppers are doing limited damage to both gardens and crops and it looks like the number may build up. They may be controlled by the use of chlordane, toxaphene or aldrin. Do not use sulphur, DDT, toxaphene, BHC, or chlordane on cucurbits, the county agent stated.

Know Where Toys Are Obtained, Please!

Wheeler County merchants have requested that parents check more closely into the source of small toys and other trival articles that children drag home, according to a report from County Sheriff Bus Dorman.

Mr. Dorman reports that many complaints of petty shop lifting here come to his attention in the past few weeks. Much of the loot is small articles such as children would play with. Many parents know that their children have new toys but do not know where they came from. If this is true in your case if you will check the source it may save trouble later the sheriff suggests.

923 Persons Get X-Rays In Wheeler And Mobeetie

A total of 923 persons had their chests X-rayed in Wheeler and Mobeetie on Monday and Tuesday of this week during the first two days of a county-wide health program designed to discover every unknown case of tuberculosis in the area.

The mobile X-ray machine, operated by the TV Division of the Texas State Health Department, moved on to Shamrock Wednesday morning to operate there until 5:30 p.m.

Seven hundred and forty-three persons availed themselves of the free chest X-rays in Wheeler on Monday. This was an increase of 430 over the 313 which participated in the program the last time the X-ray machine was brought here — in the Fall of 1955.

One hundred and eighty persons took advantage of the health measure in Mobeetie on Tuesday. This was 110 less than the 290 which participated two years ago.

One thousand four hundred and fifty-five participated in the program two years ago.

Several people came in for X-rays at both Wheeler and Mobeetie after the scheduled closing time, officials stated.

This was the ninth time the X-ray equipment has been brought to Wheeler County. In 1954, those getting X-rays were: Wheeler 887; Mobeetie 360; and Shamrock 2,353.

Joe Rogers, local X-ray chairman says, "Thank You" to the following:

Southwestern Public Service Company, Watson Burgess, Miss Maurine Herd, Deward Wofford, Aaron Williams, Dick Guynes, The Wheeler Times, Mrs. Garnet Gunter, Mrs. Harrison Hall, Miss Dorothy Hall, Miss Annette Hutchison, Mrs. Vera Rogers, Dr. Glenn Walker, Dr. H. SALARY SPLIT RUMOR FALSE

Sheriff Bus Dorman this week asked the Wheeler County papers to attempt to clear up the rumor that a deputy had been fired and his wages split up between the other two officers, namely Bus and John.

Mr. Dorman states, "This is not the case. The deputy resigned his post and in an economy measure we are attempting to carry on the duties of the office without replacing him. It may become necessary to hire additional help this fall. John was moved from the north part of the county to Shamrock and his pay raised from $245 to $250 per month. This is the regular salary of previous Shamrock deputies. Any interested person may check the records at the courthouse in Wheeler to confirm these facts if they so desire."

R. J. Holt, Chairman of the County Savings Bonds Committee, reports that Savings Bonds sales in this county were during the first five months of the year $59,010 or 23.6% of the goal.

Sales in Texas were $13,840,433 in May which was an increase of $1,000 over the month of April. The State of Texas has now reached 37.6% of its 1957 goal.

Holt said that if every citizen of the county will buy an extra dollar during the remainder of 1957 the county will reach its goal.

About Your Health By Texas State Health Dept.

It may come as a blow to the male ego, but the facts are inescapable: men belong to the weaker sex—outnumbered, outwitted, & outlived by the sturdier female.

Are women biologically more resistant to disease and death than men? Is the male animal shortening his life by greater aggressiveness, greater exposure to stress and disease, or by ignoring the laws of health? Can anything be done to reduce male mortality?

Male birth rates — 106 boys for each 100 girls — as well as death rates have always been higher than female rate. It has long been assumed that women are biologically more resistant to disease, tolerating pain and illness better than men.

There are also striking sex differences in causes of death. Lung cancer kills six times more men than women. The male peptic ulcer rate is four times as high, and tuberculosis and syphilis are twice as high. Three times more men than women commit suicide or are murdered. The odd thing is that higher male mortality, compared with females, extends to most animal species as well as to humans.

In differences in longevity of men and women were due solely to female biological superiority, the difference in death rate should remain constant. But instead, the female death rate has actually declined more rapidly than the male rate. In 1900 the white American female averaged 1.9 more years of life than her male counterpart. In 1953, she was living 7.2 years longer than the male.

Men are helping shorten their own lives. They have insisted on carrying the greater responsibility and have had to develop aggressiveness to meet that responsibility. Results: more worries, more stress, more contact with disease and physical dangers.

Women, on the other hand, are more likely to release pressure through tears, rest when they feel poorly, consult their doctor early when ill, and follow medical instructions better than men.

Much can be done to reduce excessive male mortality. One investigator has suggested a nationwide inventory of the physical, mental, and emotional assets and liabilities of men in preparation for intensifying the attack on accidents and occupational diseases and the research into cardiovascular diseases and cancer.

Alleviating the stresses of competitive living in a materialistic age requires that the fragile male be continuously instructed in the laws of health and encouraged to follow them.

WHAT TO DO WHEN BREATHING STOPS

These five figures illustrate, from top to bottom, the steps in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation now being taught in Red Cross First Aid courses.

(1) Mother, using middle finger of one hand, clears child's mouth of any foreign matter. With same finger, she holds the tongue forward.

(2) Mother places child in a face-down, head-down, position, and pats him firmly on the back with the free hand, to help dislodge any foreign object in the air passage.

(3) The child is placed on his back and the mother, using middle fingers of both hands, lifts the lower jaw from beneath and behind so that it "juts out."

(4) With one hand or y, the jaw is held in this jutting-out position.

(5) The mother, covering the child's mouth and nose with her mouth, breathes into the child with a smooth, steady action. The free hand applies continuous moderate pressure to the child's abdomen, between navel and ribs, to prevent the stomach from being filled with air.

Jodie Weatherly, Bud and Ann of Amarillo visited his mother, Mrs. Virgie Weatherly and with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weatherly Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Denton of Lelia Lake visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Williams and family over the week end.

You don't have to urge this car along. A Chevrolet comes alive with the flip of an ignition key. The power is charged with gumption. The wheel responds in a twinkling to tight corners or turns. SAFE JULY 4TH DRIVING TIPS

As millions of fun-seeking motorists head for the lakes, mountains or beaches over the Fourth of July holiday, safety experts are hopeful that extra care and caution will keep the highway accident toll at an all-time low.

To help achieve this goal, Jeanne Smith safety consultant, has prepared this list of driving tips.

Control your temper when behind the wheel. Highways are crowded and travel is slow; don't "blow-up" and take unnecessary chances.

Start early, expect frequent delays and leave for home early, preferably during daylight.

Watch out for careless drivers who are over-anxious to reach their destinations.

Slow down, to allow passing cars extra room to get back into the right lane ahead of you.

Always give the other driver more than his share of the road.

Get into the proper lane well in advance of turning — and always signal your intention to turn or stop.

Pull your car entirely off the road when stopping for sightseeing or a roadside picnic.

Check traffic in all directions, especially to the rear, before pulling out of a parking spot onto the highway.

Reduce speed at sundown and drive within the range of your headlights.

Concentrate on your driving — it's a full time job.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitworth and family of Quannah were Wheeler visitors Sunday.

Wheeler County Soil Conservation District News

Cooperators with the Wheeler Soil Conservation District have over 16,000 acres of rangeland being deferred this summer. This is a very good year to defer your native ranges. Since the drought has decreased grass stands and the vigor of the plants, the available moisture that we have has made it possible for a good range recovery. Soil Conservation Service personnel have inspected some of the pastures and this recovery is looking good.

Most pastures being deferred are weedy. This is normal following a drought. Meanwhile the grass is gaining the needed vigor and next year the weeds will not be noticed.

On the Eugene Brewer's ranch, located East of Allison, Sand Blue-stem grass is 8 inches taller now than it grew all of last year. Switch grass growing on a deferred bottomland pasture of Tom Furey's, East of Wheeler, might make a good seed crop this year. Pastures that are deferred this summer and harvested for a seed crop can still be used for winter grass grazing without any decrease in quality.

Mrs. Fred Waters returned home Friday night from San Antonio where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Maxie Herd. She visited a short time in Oklahoma City with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hathaway while en route home.

WEDDING DAY

"With this ring I thee wed."

Our marriage is beginning where a marriage should begin—in Church. Our hands meet across the Bible. My eyes fall to the printed page, and the verse I see there is so appropriate that I catch my breath in awe and amazement.

Here is the story of a king who long ago sought for a virtuous woman and was told that her price would be far above rubies. Here are detailed the qualities that a truly virtuous woman would have—faithfulness, industry, thrift, compassion, courage, strength, honor.

As I look up at my new husband, I feel a surge of humility. I make a silent pledge that these words in Proverbs will be my guide as his wife. They're a challenge, I know. A big challenge! But, with the help of the Church, I'm going to try to live up to them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Pitched Roof Trims Costs Of Cooling

Air conditioning is more effective and less expensive to operate in a home with a pitched roof, according to a leading research engineer in the field of home cooling.

"The larger the air space in a well-ventilated attic, the greater the protection from outside heat," says Prof. John R. Watt of the mechanical engineering department of the University of Texas. "Flat or shed roofs have virtually no protective air space."

Professor Watt told an audience of air conditioning engineers and members of the National Association of Home Builders that:

"Doubling the amount of air space in the attic reduces heat absorption into the living areas by 75 percent."

This air space, combined with thick mineral wool insulation in the attic floor, reduces penetration of overhead heat so efficiently, Professor Watt says, that smaller air-conditioning units can be used and cooling costs are reduced by as much as half. For complete protection against summer heat, mineral wool also should be installed in walls and living area floors.

Professor Watt based his recommendations on research conducted at the Air Conditioned Village, Austin, Tex., where the operation of air-conditioning equipment in various types of homes was studied under actual living conditions.

A properly ventilated air space under a pitched roof acts to reduce heat radiated from the roof to ceilings below by wiping off surface heat to carry it outdoors through the vent openings.

Many architects and cooling engineers advise light-color asphalt shingles for the roofs of air-conditioned homes, since a light surface reflects more of the sun's rays. Asphalt shingles are available in many light colors to satisfy the individual tastes of most home owners.

The combination of a pitched roof, light-color asphalt shingles, ventilation and thick mineral wool insulation is effective in reducing overhead heat in any house, air-conditioned or not.

Right Windows Aid to Comfort In Hot Weather

Short of installing a complete air-conditioning system, the average homeowner can make his house more comfortable in summer with good ventilation.

A house is well ventilated when its windows are arranged so that inside heat can escape through an opening at the top and cooler air can come in through an opening at the bottom.

Perhaps the most ideal window for this type of ventilation is the double-hung style shown in the drawing. However, windows of ponderosa pine come in a wide variety of styles which can be arranged for proper ventilation.

Among these are awning and hopper styles installed in banks of two or more. The awning window opens outward, while the hopper style opens into the room. Either of these, when installed one above the other, can be opened to permit the exit of heat at the top and entrance of cooler outside air at the bottom.

The awning window has another warm weather advantage: When open, its surface forms a tiny roof, permitting the window to be left open during a cooling rainstorm.

Sliding and casement windows of ponderosa pine also offer good ventilation. The sliding style opens at either end, creating a cooling draft as heat rushes out one side and cool air comes in the other. A casement window opens completely, offering a large opening for the passage of air.

With granaries carrying a full year's supply from previous crops, growers thought market prices would drop to the lower support level if controls were abandoned. In approving controls for the fifth consecutive year, farmers will limit sales to the amount grown on a 55-million acre allotment — the same as on the past four crops. Approval of the controls came while they are under attack by Secretary of Agriculture Benson. He has told Congress quotas and price supports are not working to stabilize agriculture.

It pays to spray for hornflies when they number 15 to 25 per animal. Spray often enough to keep the flies under this number. Treat with a wetting spray with special attention to the head, toping and flanks. You may use malathion, toxaphene, DDT, or several others in this control.

traveling at a fast rate of speed covers a greater distance between the time the brakes are applied and the time the car stops than a slower moving vehicle does. Therefore a driver's chances of hitting an object that suddenly looms in his path increase as his speed increases.

Dorman summed up his advice in the following words. "Save on your car's upkeep, save wear and tear on your nerves, and save your life by driving at a sensible speed!"

Scale Model Helps to Plan Garden Color

Planning your garden and landscaping scheme on paper is a good idea, but here's a better one: Build a scale model of your entire lot in color. It will let you actually see what the whole plan will look like when it's in full bloom.

Start by making a scale model of the house itself. Walls can be made of a strip of shirboard folded into a rectangle and set on end. Make the roof from another shirboard.

Use crayon to draw in windows, doors and trim, matching the colors on the actual house as carefully as you can. Matching the roof color is particularly important, since a modern trend in color styling is to consider an asphalt shingle roof the key exterior color and to relate other exterior colors to it. A wide variety of deep colors and light pastels is available in asphalt roofing.

With the house in place, paste sandpaper down for the driveway and the patio and fill in the lawn areas with green art paper, felt or old towels.

Hat pins stuck through colored paper or felt make good trees. Shade trees should be placed to protect the house and patio from the hot sun. Thick evergreens are good to break a cold winter wind.

Whatever colors you choose for flowering trees should harmonize with the basic colors of the house. For example, if your roof is covered in a warm color, such as a deep red blend of asphalt shingles, dogwood trees set here and there will be in good harmony, with pink blossoms in spring and red leaves in the fall.

Equally good for color harmony with one of the warm colors in asphalt shingles are pink and red blooming shrubs, such as mountain laurel and azaleas planted along the foundation.

The final step is to decide what flowers—annuals and perennials—you want. You can match their colors fairly closely with knitting yarn. Spot them on the model until you get a pleasing layout and color scheme.

Remember, you can't go wrong if you choose garden colors which are complementary to the colors on the house. The result will be attractive color harmony, not a kaleidoscopic hodge-podge.

HOME OWNERS QUESTION

Q—How can I get insects from sticky painted outside walls?
A—A tablespoon of kerosene added to each gallon of paint should effectively kill and insects away from paint.

Q—What causes streaks of dirt to appear on ceilings?
A—In our homes the spaces between studs and ceiling joists are often not properly insulated. The heat tends to move to the colder surfaces framing members. Insulation puts a barrier between the studs and the ceiling joists, preventing the heat from moving to the ceiling.

Q—Sooner or later always seems to have cracks I've filled in the walls of my garage. How can I prevent them from cracking?
A—If you'll check the foundation for a hole, it will hold much better. Also, soak the hole thoroughly with water.

Q—How can I stop from squeaking?
A—Generally, the sound in stairs is caused by movement of tread boards. A simple sandpaper finish on the treads into the riser boards in front blocks at the same rear will also solve the problem.

Q—The soil in my house plant pots is compact and hard. Is there any harm?
A—Very definitely, watering prevents the soil from obtaining enough better plow the soil fork to loosen it up. If not to dig deeply, damage the roots in watering the plants is one of the major such surface hardens.
