Al Griffin, on Mocking Bird Hill, reports .60 inches. Bogin Griffin in the northeast part of town reports 1.10 inches. First National Bank gauge showed 1.29 inches. W. L. Williams, in town, reported 1.50 inches at his place. Lyndon Sims, north of the city reports .57 inches there.

The attendance has increased each year until a record crowd is expected this year.

Tuesday, August 27 has been set aside as clean-up day in preparation for this reunion and picnic.

City Disposal Plant Approved By State

Mayor C. B. Kirk announced this week that an inspector for the State Health Department had given Wheeler an approval on its sanitary sewer disposal plant. The inspector was in Wheeler last week and made a through investigation of the plant.

He recommended that the big lake at the end of the system be broken up into smaller bodies and the ground around the edge treated to keep down vegetation. The smaller, shallower tanks will permit the algae to work more efficiently and keep down odor better. However the inspector did not think there was any pollution from the present system.

He also recommended the use of a chlorinator in the water system.

COACH SOUNDS CALL FOR ALL GRID PLAYERS

Louis Boynton, new Mustang football coach, will hold a get-acquainted session with the Wheeler high school football squad Friday, August 23. It will be solely for the purpose of meeting old and new members of the squad and swapping ideas, he said. There will be no practice.

Coach Boynton who comes from Seymour and was assistant coach at the Class A Quannah high school for four years, has announced he will use the Split-T formation.

Faced with vacancies both tackles, both guards, a halfback and an end, the new Wheeler grid mentor will have his hands full in reforming the Mustang outfit. But he has a strong nucleus in Harold Crossland, Jim Porter, Gary Satterfield, James Cox, Jimmy Hill and Roland Miles, last season starters returning this year.

Richard Gaines will assist Boynton in the gridiron work.

Word reaching here is that Matador, Turkey and Estelline all have goodly numbers of starters and will probably be rough competition this season. Canadian and Stinnett have both been picked by (Continued On Last Page)

NAME FACULTY FOR ALLISON

Allison public schools are tentatively set to open August 26. Supt. D. L. Malin recently announced. He said there is still a possibility the opening may be delayed for one week.

It may be necessary to hold some classes in churches and other community buildings for a short time until remodeling of the old building is completed, Malin said.

The Allison school faculty is complete, with nine teachers in addition to the superintendent now under contract.

On the faculty will be Dan Pruitt as coach; Mrs. Dan Pruitt, Mrs. Paul Newsom, and Mrs. D. L. Malin, high school teachers; Jimmie Field and Mrs. Agnes McColvin, grade school teachers; Mrs. Ben Park, homemaking instructor; and Bennie Venerable, vocational agriculture instructor.

The school has been unable to employ a band instructor this year. Supt. Malin said, but there will be a combination orchestra, chorus and band under the direction of the superintendent.

Landmark Baptists Open Revival Sun.

A two weeks revival meeting will be started next Sunday by the Landmark Missionary Baptist Church, and the public is extended a warm welcome.

Elder Earl F. Jones of Mountainburg, Ark., will do the preaching. There will be song and prayer services each evening starting at 7:30 and the preaching will begin at 8. Miss Donnie Risner, song leader, will be in charge of the music.

The revival will be held in the church building in the southeast part of town where the congregation has been holding its services.

Reunion Saturday Registration 9 am

Starting at 9:00 Saturday the Ex-Students and Teachers Association of Wheeler will begin its reunion. Registration will begin at the high school building and as the attending guests register for the reunion the Commemorative directories will be given to them. Registration for the reunion is the only way you can get one of these directories.

At the High School Building the exhibits section will be open and ready. The Committee in charge of this part has prepared quite a lot of material for the exes to look at and remember. There will be pictures, annuals, mementoes, old school papers, individual photographs, and other items that it should be fun to see. The entire public is invited to come and see the exhibits also. This activity will continue, with the exception of the lunch hour, until 2:00 in the afternoon.

At 2:00 P. M. the reunion meeting will open at the American Legion Building. The building will be cool with air conditioning and there will be entertainment during the afternoon that should be lots of fun. There will be surprises as well as exhibitions of our local talent. Mrs. Ida Mae Goad will handle the refreshments for this meeting and she says she hopes she has to hunt up more refreshments every hour all afternoon. This meeting will continue until five o'clock in the afternoon. The gathering will be devoted to letting everyone get to visit and talk with those in attendance under comfortable circumstances. There will be plenty of tables and chairs and plenty of cold refreshments as well as lots of coffee. At 5:00 the meeting will adjourn for the dinner hour until 7:30 P. M.

At 7:30 the business meeting of the Association will convene at the Gymnasium for election of officers and the handling of other necessary business. President Virgil Jamison has given his word that this session will be as short and compact as possible. After the election of officers there will follow some other entertaining Shenanigans before the meeting is adjourned. After this meeting is over the open house parties will begin and a cordial invitation is being extended by a large number of people in our town for the attending guests at the reunion to come on down and enjoy themselves.

Starting at Nine O'Clock in the evening also the American Legion will be having a dance for Ex-Students members only and those wishing to attend will have plenty of time to go to this after the business meeting is over. The admission will be one dollar per person to this dance.

A good attendance is expected at the reunion and it is hoped that all the people in Wheeler will come out and meet with friends and take part in the reunion.

The Commemorative directories have been delivered to the advertisers. As you hear comments about them be reminded that the only way to get one is register at the Ex-Students reunion on Saturday, August 17.

The entire program for the meeting is printed elsewhere in this issue of The Times. It might be wise to cut it out so that no confusion may exist. Don't forget, you people who did not attend school at Wheeler, you are cordially invited to come on down and have a good time also.

LOCAL SCHOOL EQUILIZATION BOARD MEETING

George Gandy, president of the Board of Education of the Wheeler Independent School District, this week announced that a five-man equalization board was working to equalize tax renditions in the Wheeler School District. He stated that many inequalities had been found in the renditions, and that the board was attempting to remove them.

"In some cases the amounts of the renditions have actually been lowered," he said. "However in many others they have been vastly raised." The board is attempting to fix an average value on the property, then they will apply a percentage yard stick to this valuation to arrive at the value for which the property should be on the tax rolls, a spokesman for the board said this week.

Budget hearing for the Wheeler Independent School District will be held at its next regular monthly meeting, scheduled for Thursday night, September 5, at 8 o'clock.

Coach Louis Boynton will start football practice on Monday, August 26. A meeting of returning lettermen and prospective players is planned for Friday, August 23. Purpose of this meeting is to get acquainted and find out what prospective material will be available with the start of football practice.

Mr. Brown stated that three teachers had resigned this summer. They were: J. G. Watson, vocational agriculture; George W. Daugherty, science; and Mrs. Edna Yates, upper grades. These teachers have all moved to more lucrative teaching positions.

Another new teacher this year will be Richard Gaines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Gaines of Wheeler. Mr. Gaines was hired for the extra teacher earned last year on Average Daily Attendance. He will also assist in coaching football.

Comparison is Drawn (An Editorial)

Not far from the head of a little stream called Bronco Creek in 1900 there was a school house erected and named Bronco School. The lumber for the School was hauled from Memphis, Texas by wagon. Miss Emma Wine taught the first term of school in this location. The first year there were only four families represented in the school. It is not known just who these families were but the Guynes family, the Hampton family, the Cole family, and the Witt family were here then and may have been the four families of children going to the school. In two or three years more families started moving North of this location and the famous argument over, where the school house should be moved, and whether it should be moved started.

The school was finally moved from the original location, which was the Southwest Corner of the John Scott section, to another location north of there for one year, then it was moved back to its original location for a few years. It was then moved to where the Lish Gaines Home now stands. It was then torn down and built larger but still was only one room. Francis Reynolds, who later married J. A. Spikes and Dorothy Reynolds who later married George Stanley were teachers in this school while it was in this location before being moved into the town of Wheeler.

The Teachers in that day were responsible for sweeping the building, bringing in the wood to burn, and carrying water for the school. At that time there was only one newspaper in this part of the country and it was operated in Miami, by Leslie Ladd. The only stores were in Mobeetie and a person could travel across Wheeler County for quite some time without seeing a house.

Fifty-seven years, the tenure of one mans life have passed and quite a change has been wrought. Today there are eight schools, over ten thousand people in the county, good highways crisscross the area and transportation facilities have made possible things that would have seemed far fetched in the early days.

The School at Wheeler now has over 150 students in High School, operates numerous buses to bring in the rural children, has a plant consisting of six nice buildings, a lighted Football Field, an adequate number of Teachers; and many more improvements that are too numerous to attempt to mention. The Wheeler School is probably at this time the larest business in the town, operating on its present scale the school spends more money on operation per year than the entire earning power of the county was in that beginning year of 1900.

From our Wheeler School have gone people into many walks of life. From its humble doors have gone girls and boys to become doctors, lawyers, statesmen, teachers, professional people of all kinds, financiers, great soldiers, private business men, successful ministers, and other types of life work that are a credit to those living these lives as well as the school.

In spite of drouths, depressions, market fluctuations, wars, inflation, and what not the Wheeler School has continued to progress. Slowly but surely this institution has added to its physical plant and its curriculum until to day it is something of which all of us who live in this community can be proud.

The Ex-Students Reunion that is to be held on Saturday, August 17, will commemorate the 57th year of above mentioned progress. Let us all be thankful that the early day settlers of this area realized the need of education for their children and did what they could to start what we now know as the Wheeler School System.

Mrs. Lester Murray of California visited her sister, Mr. Virgie Weatherly, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Weatherly, Mrs. Lester Murray, and Mrs. Virgie Weatherly journeyed to Shawnee over the week end for a visit with another sister, Mrs. Nellie Huckbee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Field Meek and family, who have been visiting the C. J. Meeks since July 27, returned to their home in Baytown Friday, August 2.

Legislators Explains Passage of "Civil Rights" Bill

The passage of a law at federal level entitled, "Civil Rights Law." Such accomplishment would provide two important results. First, it will provide the opening that the advocates of centralized government have so long sought in our political philosophy; the entry of the federal government into a phase of our political philosophy that could result in the pre-emption by the federal government of all the individuals' political rights.

Secondly, it would create a political platform from which politicians could take credit for helping to pass such a bill and assure their listeners they would work for amendments to the law which would go away with the right of trial by jury and other matters unacceptable to advocates of centralized government.

For these reasons, you can understand why the proponents are more interested in immediate passage of the title of the bill than its contents.

The pressure is on to force the Congress to adopt legislation authorizing the return of German and Japanese assets seized during World War II under the "Trading With the Enemy Act" of 1917. This is alien property. There is a tremendous amount of money involved in this issue. Present estimates are well above 300 million dollars. Mail is coming into the offices of those of us on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee asking for early action in returning this property to its former owners. Some of this mail comes from individuals, some from societies, and many of us get buttonholed daily by registered and unregistered lobbyists.

Some of the arguments are most amusing. For instance, those who desire that these assets be returned argue long and loud about the sanctity of the private ownership of property as a basic U. S. policy. They forget about the basic American policy of fairness to the effect that for each wrong there should be a remedy. They play down the fact that many of the assets of these countries should be used as reparations for the damage they did by starting the war. They argue that even so, the property involved is property that belonged to individuals and, therefore, should be returned to them. They say that even though these individuals were enemies of the United States and contributed measurably toward trying to des-

Seek State's Top 4-H Alumni For 1957-58 Honors

WOULD you like to nominate for special honors a former 4-H Club member who has become an outstanding citizen? This is now possible through the national 4-H Alumni Recognition program being conducted by the State Extension Service, and sponsored by Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Plant Food Division, Little Rock, Ark. To be eligible, candidates should have performed some outstanding service, made a notable contribution to the community, state or nation, or displayed exceptional leadership. The person need not now reside in your state.

By sending in the name of a qualified 4-H alumnus, you may pave the way for well deserved recognition. Two winners from each county will be named for special recognition certificates. Four outstanding persons will be honored in the state, and will receive a burnished copper and walnut plaque.

Eight men and women will be honored during an impressive banquet at the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. Besides the expense paid trip, each one will be presented with a gold 4-H alumni key, the national award. The 1958 candidates also will be selected at this time. stroy the very way of life in which they now seek refuge, their only mistake was in permitting their property to fall into the hands of the conqueror and that they should now have it back.

For some reason there seems to be considerable diversity of opinion on the subject between the Department of Justice, the Department of State, and the Department of the Treasury. The Committee undertook to obtain testimony from all three departments, but the only person who showed up to testify was an underling in the State Department whose greatest accomplishment on that particular day was in locating the House Office Building and the Committee room in which the hearings were being held. He was not an unwilling witness but was of little help to the Committee because of the vast amount of knowledge he did not have on the subject.

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

The two ladies sat in folding chairs between their adjoining trailer homes in a Wisconsin trailer park — a delightful, tree-shaded spot on the shore of a sparkling lake.

They had met for the first time just a few hours before. But, with the camaraderie and neighborliness that are the marks of trailerites wherever you find them, they had already found common interests and were cheerfully exchanging views while one pared apples and the other shucked beans for their respective dinners.

One of the ladies, obviously a recent recruit to the mobile home clan, exclaimed in a surprised voice:

"Do you mean that your husband lets you drive, even when you are towing the trailer? Doesn't it frighten you?"

The other lady shook her gray curls and smiled reassuringly.

"It's really not difficult at all," she replied. "Dad and I have driven our trailer all over the country he retired three years ago and we have never had an accident worse than a flat tire.

"Of course," she continued, "there are a few things you have to remember. One is that you can't turn corners close with a 20-foot trailer behind the car. And, even though our trailer has its own air brakes, it takes longer to stop, so we keep our speed down and play it safe. It takes longer to pick up speed, too, which means that you must be sure there is plenty of clear road ahead if it is necessary to pass another vehicle."

The veteran trailerite went on to explain that their most nerve-racking problem was handling the big trailer in heavy traffic. The best solutions, she said, were to stay off the road on week-ends and holidays, use less travelled routes when possible, or drive at night.

"Dad and I have plenty of time but we like to use the smoother main highways so we do a lot of our driving at night when it is cool and the roads are not crowded. This is particularly helpful when our route takes us through or near big cities.

"We like night driving. Many of the highways have reflective material on the center lines, hazard markers and all the other signs, and we feel almost as safe as driving in daylight. We make sure our tail and headlights are working properly, we never drive when we're sleepy, and we make sure that we drive carefully."

Such a chance conversation is a good reminder that the problems raised by the motor age affect the folks who live in mobile homes even more than the rest of our nation on wheels. But if all trailerites are as level-headed and sensible as this lady they have little to worry about as they follow the seasons with their home hitched behind the car.

ELK CITY RODEO SEPTEMBER 2-4

Elk City's 19th annual rodeo will unwind September 2 for a three night stand boasting to be a contender for the title of Oklahoma's biggest semi-centennial outdoor area event.

The 19th annual rodeo will get underway at 8 p.m. sharp on each of the three nights—September 2, 3, 4—and this year claims the greatest assemblage of title-winning cowboy champions and the finest star-filled billing of added attractions in the 19-year history of the Elk City show.

The Elk City rodeo this year is being produced as a four-county Cheyenne-Arapaho Country contribution to Oklahoma's semi-centennial observance.

Directors of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Association, comprised of representatives of Custer, Roger Mills, Washita and Beckham counties, this year requested the Elk City rodeo directors to tie the 19th annual rodeo in as a portion of Oklahoma's semi-centennial and as an added feature of the anniversary of the opening for settlement of the Cheyenne-Arapaho country.

Roger Mills county earlier this year staged the annual Cheyenne-Arapaho Country celebration at Cheyenne. The Elk City rodeo will be a continuance of the four-county association's contribution to the semi-centennial observance, it was pointed out.

As in past years the 19th annual rodeo will commence with a gigantic parade through downtown Elk City at 4 p.m. Monday, Sept. 2. The opening performance will begin at 8 p.m. in an arena-stadium constructed in the Elk City park exclusively for the annual rodeo. Free parking adjacent to the rodeo arena is available for all who attend the performances.

The Beutler Brothers, the Cheyenne-Arapaho Country's own contribution to rodeo fame, will again furnish the stock and the arena direction for the Elk City show.

The star-studded specialty attractions will include an old favorite of past years—Ruhv Nance and his prize-winning rodeo band. Other specialty attractions will feature clowns, precision riding teams and "educated" animal acts, all of which will be presented in rapid fire fashion designed to prevent any lull in the two-hour program.

HOW A TRUCK DRIVER BECOMES A HOBBS KNIGHT OF THE ROAD—More than 200 Texas truck drivers have been honored in the past two years by a state-wide program designed to recognize doers of good deeds on Texas highways, whether it be heroic action during a crisis or simple acts of consideration and courtesy. Typical examples of these acts are giving first aid at highway accidents, clearing wreckage from the highway and directing congested traf-because of "good character." The philosophers Descartes and LaMettrie taught that animals were automaton, highly complex machines without feelings. As a result the laws came for a time to allow much cruelty to animals. But in recent years, the laws have changed back again to protect animals from abuse. We have evidently changed our minds about the nature of animals. Our beliefs about crime — what causes it, and who's to blame, and how to control it — find expression each year in our legislation, in our court decisions, and jury verdicts. (This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Our laws have their roots deep within our beliefs. And the laws shift as our beliefs change. Thus working backwards, you can find a people's deepest beliefs by discovering their notions of justice — about adults, children, nature, animals, and other things. Until this century, the laws held children fully responsible for crimes. Like adults, they faced trial and punishment — often prison or death. Today we seek mainly to reform child offenders, rather than to punish them. Some primitive people hold inanimate things like stones & rivers guilty of offenses. For centuries the laws held animals morally responsible for their acts, and therefore try-able in courts. "And if an ox gore a man or woman to death," Exodus XXI says, "the ox shall be surely stoned." Says Plato in The Laws: "If a beast of burden or any other animal shall kill anyone, except while the animal is competing in the public games, the deceased's kinfolk shall prosecute it for murder. Courts in the Middle Ages duly summoned animals to appear. As late as 1750, a French court tried a she-donkey and condemned her to death, but it later pardoned her

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows:

"Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this State as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of the State as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection except as permitted by Section 63 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the State to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per centum (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the State.

"All funds provided from the compensation of such person or by the State of Texas for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the Treasury of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States; or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent University Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of this State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of those funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said Fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said Fund.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said special election and this Amendment shall be published and the election held as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

FRONT and CENTER!

Front and center in this little community stands the Church.
 Your church may not be so centrally located but all that it stands for is front and center in your community life:
 The worship of the God who made us and all that exists . . . The teaching of love and unselfishness as the highest good for all men . . .
 The preaching of the worth and dignity of each individual . . . The motivation for service in the community . . .
 The battle against evil in high places and low . . .
 Your community needs the Church and all that it stands for—front and center!
 And the Church needs you!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

REUNION AUGUST 17, 1957

ASKS DATA ON FORT ELLIOTT

James M. Oswalt of Canyon, is doing research for a master's thesis on the subject of "Fort Elliott, Texas," and in a letter to The Wheeler Times said he would appreciate hearing from any one having historical material he might use.

His address is Box 59, West Texas Station, Canyon, Texas.

Please inform me if there are any copies of early papers (1870's to 1900's) at Wheeler. I am assured there are none at Mobeetie.

This may interest you. I have found a copy of the Mobeetie paper, the Panhandle, dated Feb. 25, 1882, and have a microfilm copy. It was found at the American Antiquarian Society at Worcester, Mass., and is a rare find. Surely if Massachusetts has one copy we Panhandlers should have several. I will be indebted to you if you help me find these.

If you feel it is warranted, I would appreciate your mentioning that records, letters, papers, pictures, diaries, and the like if pertinent to Fort Elliott, are direly needed.

I will answer and visit any one willing to help me weave the Elliott story. I have copies of almost 2,000 pages of Army records pertinent coming to me this summer. These will give me original sources but I do want to dig out the Wheeler County documents. Anything any one will surrender will be deposited at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon and preserved.

the commercial booths. Merchants and others should start making arrangements NOW for their exhibits. The Commercial booths add to any fair and the proceeds from their rental is sorely needed to defray the expense of the Fair.

A few new courses have been added to the school curriculum this year. They are: Chemistry, Algebra II, World History, Typing II, and Shorthand. The latter is a pickup from past offerings. The State Accreditation requires that physics and trigonometry be added to the curriculum next year. Graduation requirements will also be upped with the 1958-59 school term.

The Grade School Auditorium and rest rooms, dressing rooms at the gym, and the south half of the high school building have been re-roofed this summer. Halls in the grade school buildings, classroom in the ag building, one room in the high school building and the interior of the home ec cottage have been painted this summer. The home ec girls did most of the work on the cottage as their summer project.

Supt. Brown stated this week that he expected a better school term this year than last. He said that all teachers were well qualified and that they were capable of rendering high service in the school community.

Athletic prospects are good. Academic capabilities of the school are tops. Facilities are adequate but as not complete as we would like to have them. All in all Wheeler should have an excellent term of school this year, the Superintendent said.

cleared of rubbish and litter. The school has permitted the use of their buildings and grounds for the fair but would appreciate if they were returned in as sanitary a condition as they are loaned.

Commercial booths in the buildings must be down Tuesday morning and the building readied for use at school that day. The bedding for the livestock, implements, outside booths, etc. must be removed from the school grounds as soon as the Fair is over so that school facilities will be ready Tuesday morning.

These and other matters of a business nature needing discussion make this a very important meeting of the Chamber. Plans to attend on Tuesday night, August 20.

How To Create

3. Never waste money by advertising or waste time trying to attract trade to the town—nobody reads the ads, there is never anything in the paper, it's always late, and why should anyone want to come to town—it's a dead place.

4. Turn down all appeals for contributions; and do it in a nasty way so you won't be bothered again, because the money collected is eventually stolen by some "higher-ups" anyway.

5. Refuse to serve on all committees, have nothing to do with civic organizations. Never give time to community projects—the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations never do anything and are run by a bunch of dim-wits who want only to get their names before the public. All the city officials are in office to get a share of the graft.

3. Knock the town, knock the industries, knock the schools and churches, keep repeating the town is going to the dogs, things are better other places, to invest in such a dead place would be the height of foolishness—and keep on knocking like a drunken woodpecker.

There you have it—six simple directions for producing ghost towns. It's hard for one person, working alone, to get results; but if you keep at it, eventually you'll get some converts, and A GHOST TOWN.

Bringing up a husband is no easy job!

Husbands have to be fed three times a day, watched over and picked up after 365 days a year. They need praise when things go right and sympathy when things go wrong. And almost all of them have to be reminded about making plans for retirement.

It's a good thing a husband's love is worth all the trouble he causes.

Retirement is in the future for all of us. And the sooner we start making plans for it, the happier these years can be. Does your husband have a retirement savings plan? If not, encourage him to start one.

One of the best ways to prepare for retirement is to invest regularly in U. S. Savings Bonds. They're solid as a rock—guaranteed by your Government. They're loss-proof, fire-proof, theft-proof—the Treasury will replace them without charge in case of mishap.

And best of all, U. S. Savings Bonds now pay you higher interest—faster! Every Series E Bond purchased since February 1, 1957, pays you a safe and sure 3-1/4% interest when held to maturity. It pays higher interest, too, in the earlier years, and matures in only 8 years and 11 months.

So now, more than ever, it's smart to save with guaranteed-safe U. S. Savings Bonds. Your husband can buy them regularly where he banks or through the Payroll Savings Plan where he works. But just be sure he starts today!

Part of every American's savings belongs in U. S. Savings Bonds

Everything's Big except the price

The new kind of Ford looks big because it is big... and it acts as big as it looks!

No matter how you measure the new kind of Ford, it comes out BIG! Not only is it the longest sedan of the low-price three... it's longer even than some medium-priced cars. And no other car in Ford's field can match its performance!

Styled to stay in style. Measure Ford's exclusive "Sculptured Look" against cars costing hundreds more. You'll see that Ford is years ahead... with styling that makes it unnecessary to pay more.

Built to stay built. Try Ford's "big-car" ride, and you know why Ford makes luxury a low-price word. With new suspension, new frame and body, you'll wonder where the road bumps went!

There's a great deal waiting in the new kind of FORD (Air Conditioning)
