County Could 'Catch Up' On Bonds Saturday

Howard county men on the fighting fronts who have held the firm conviction that their folks at home could and would match anybody else in the nation in contributing to the war effort would be disappointed—perhaps a little embittered—to learn the figures in Howard county's response in the Second War Loan.

While many communities, some close around with larger allotments, were winding up their campaigns in two and three days, this county Friday had something like a half-million more dollars to go, if it is to carry out the assignment Uncle Sam has handed down.

Doing all you can, brother?

BUY WAR BONDS

Thursday's sales ran over $41,000, to bring the month's total to a little over $206,000. That's a long way from the $708,000 needed, and Chairman Ted O. Groehl said the situation is far from satisfactory. "Not only is it unsatisfactory," he said, "but we are facing the shameful fact of possible failure at a time when our country calls most desperately."

"I can't believe yet that Howard county won't remedy this situation, I think we'll come through, but I'm urging that we come through immediately."

The people have a big opportunity on Saturday, when more than a score of booths will be located in downtown business houses and staffed by club women volunteers to take applications for bonds. Drive leaders would like to see at least a $200,000 day in this "downtown sales day." It's the day they hope the county will "catch up."

"We ought to be willing to walk a mile to buy a bond," said Groehl, "but tomorrow nobody will have to walk more than a few steps. It'll be easy. It'll be patriotic."

Howard county had gotten on the line for a $16,600 purchase, this amount being authorized by the commissioners' court Thursday. There was a probability that the city of Big Spring would add to its bond holdings, and that the independent school district might take some securities. Banks already have gone over their quota.

Groehl expressed gratification at this but repeated Secretary Morgenthau's statement: "This is the people's war and the people ought to help finance it."

Particularly were larger investors urged to use their money in subscribing to government securities—the "little fellow" seemed to be doing fairly well. It was emphasized that investments made in tax certificates and other classes of treasury securities as well as the War Bonds counted.

Anti-Inflation Order Results In Strike

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—The administration was confronted today with the first strike growing out of President Roosevelt's hold-the-line order against inflation.

As labor protests against the order mounted, employees of the Universal Atlas Cement Company, Universal, Pa., who were the first to feel its effects, went on strike.

AFL members of the War Labor Board denounced the order as a "flagrant violation" of the no-strike-no-lockout agreement and said the administration will lose the workers' confidence.

CIO leaders added nothing publicly to President Philip Murray's letter of two days ago but privately conveyed their views to Stabilization Director James F. Byrnes and the WLB. More than 150 protesting telegrams were delivered to the board, more than half of them from CIO United Automobile Workers local unions. The Universal Atlas employees are represented by the CIO mine, mill and smelter workers.

Hub of the controversy is the WLB's loss of power to approve pay increases for the correction of "inequalities." Murray's letter to affiliates called this a serious omission and urged that cases of injustices be called to Byrnes' attention.

In the Universal Atlas Cement case, the WLB unanimously cut a referee's recommendation of a 5 1/2 cent hourly raise to 2 cents and said it was powerless to allow the other 3 1/2 cents to adjust "inequalities."

ELEVEN KILLED

FORT MYERS, Fla., April 16 (AP)—Eleven army flyers were killed late yesterday when a twin-engine advanced training plane crashed at Buckingham Field near here, public relations officers announced today.

Compromise Tax Plan To Be Sought

Factions May Try To Bring Out A Withholding Levy

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—House republicans supporting the skip-a-tax-year plan and democrats opposing it launched a joint effort today, under the leadership of Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), to reach a compromise on pay-as-you-go income tax legislation.

The bi-partisan effort to settle the issue developed at a morning conference in Rayburn's office attended by House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts, Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) and members of the house ways and means committee.

Rayburn said afterward: "We're going to try to forget the Ruml plan (first to embody the skip-a-year idea) and all other plans, and then sit down and try to work out something that will be acceptable to all concerned."

Martin told newspapermen, "we had a little conference to see if it was possible to reach a compromise."

It is expected that any compromise so reached would embrace a 30 per cent withholding levy against the taxable portions of pay envelopes and salary checks. This would not be an additional tax but a means of making weekly, semi-monthly or monthly deductions from earnings against taxes as now computed.

If the parties can agree, the withholding levy probably would become effective July 1.

Dollar Value Faces Fight

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) called for a last-ditch fight against further extension of the president's power to devalue the dollar today as congress divided sharply on Secretary Morgenthau's plan for a postwar international currency.

The dollar-devaluation power, originally granted in 1934, will expire next June 30 unless renewed. Morgenthau was called before the senate banking committee today to justify a proposed two-year extension as well as a companion authority giving the president control over a $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund when the dollar's gold content was cut by about 41 per cent nine years ago.

"I don't think the president should have that power," Taft said. "The constitution says that congress has the right to regulate the value of money."

The gold reserve act of 1934 gave the president authority to reduce the value of the dollar by as much as 50 per cent. He cut it only to the equivalent of about 59 cents, in terms of the old dollar, however, leaving a further reduction possible at his discretion.

Negro's Confession In Trial Evidence

ALBANY, Ore., April 16 (AP)—After a bitter struggle in the absence of the jury, Los Angeles police statements quoting Robert E. Lee Folkes, negro dining car cook, as admitting he slew Martha Virginia James were admitted in evidence by Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling in the "lower 13" murder trial today.

In the face of opposition by Defense Attorney Lesoy Lomax, who charged the admissions were obtained after the negro had been given liquor and after use of "third degree" methods by Los Angeles police, Judge Lewelling ruled the statements were admissible.

Musso Gets To Work In Building Island Defense

LONDON, April 16 (AP)—Premier Mussolini was reported by the Berlin radio today to have declared Sicily, Sardinia and smaller islands at Italy's southern flank as an area of military operations in a move interpreted here as throwing up defenses hastily against expected Allied attack.

Allies Advance In North Tunisia, Eighth Army Preparing New Push

Ship Welding Work Faulty—

Seven Arrested On Sabotage Charge

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, announced today the arrest of seven men, formerly employed as welders, on charges of sabotaging Liberty ships being built at the Bethlehem-Fairfield (Md.) shipyards.

Hoover said that the men "have admitted performing faulty welding in order to finish their work in a hurry and earn more money." He added that there was no evidence of "any Axis direction or sympathies on the part of the welders."

Nazis Strong In Counter Movements

Bad Weather Slows Aerial Pounding Of Axis Points

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 16 (AP)—First army infantrymen drove to within 15 miles of the key road junction of Tebourba yesterday in some of the fiercest fighting of the Tunisian campaign, it was announced today.

In a series of local attacks east of Medjes-El-Bab, the Allied mountain line advanced to points between 25 and 30 miles from Tunis. Tebourba, once held by the Allies in the eastward push last fall, lies 18 miles air-line west of the axis-held capital.

Allied bombers and fighters continued their assaults upon axis air fields in Tunisia, although the weather was bad and it was announced that RAF Wellingtons struck effectively Wednesday night at enemy airbases in southern Sardinia.

Only patrol activity was reported on the Enfidaville line front, where Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's Eighth army is again massing strength for a climactic push to the north.

The first army, led by Lieut. Gen. K. A. M. Anderson, by a series of infantry attacks in the mountains, gained the highest ground in northern Tunisia, overlooking the plain to Tunis.

The Germans, in two savage counterattacks yesterday, temporarily regained the 2,000-foot Djebel Ang, eight miles northwest of Medjes-El-Bab, but British infantry launched a counterassault of their own and not only retook the peak but ground beyond it as well.

French forces who stormed forward Wednesday to capture the Djebel Sefsof, seven miles above the village of Karharoun on the southwestern rim of the axis line between Tunis and Bizerte, also were hard pressed by the Germans, but held their ground and captured more prisoners.

The Eighth army, pulled up before the Enfidaville line, about 80 miles south of Sousse, continued to patrol its mountain front while awaiting artillery to blast the Germans from their positions.

Air operations over Tunisia were restricted by bad weather, but medium bombers again raked the remaining axis air fields in the battle area and big Wellington bombers visited south Sardinia to start large fires on the Decimomannu airfield.

Allied fighter planes executed offensive sweeps and patrols over the forward areas and fighter-bombers attacked enemy tanks and vehicles. Two enemy planes were reported destroyed. All Allied planes returned to their bases.

The air offensive over Tunisia has cost the enemy more than 450 planes in combat alone since the beginning of the March offensive March 20. An additional 150 German and Italian planes have been destroyed on the ground, officers estimated.

The German air force has been so weakened that fighters are sent up only to reveal Allied bombers and they have avoided combat with the large American-British fighter sweeps over the Tunisian area.

Ickes Recommends 35-Cent Increase In Crude Prices

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—Petroleum Administrator Ickes has recommended a 35-cent crude oil price increase averaging 25 cents a barrel, he told the house small business committee today.

The recommendation was sent to the Office of Price Administration April 7, but an OPA official testified that after its receipt he told Price Administrator Frestiss Brown that he thought it was "a pretty bad time" for such an increase.

Brown also appeared before the committee, but did not testify on Ickes' recommendation. He did, however, tell the committee it was the "obligation" of his agency to increase the price of crude oil if such action was necessary for successful prosecution of the war.

FORT WORTH, April 16 (AP)—Increase of 60,000 barrels of oil daily in Texas production was ordered by Petroleum Administrator for War Ickes in his directive to the Texas railroad commission for May, Chairman Beauford Jester of the state regulatory body announced today at the opening of its monthly statewide proration hearing.

This lifted the total production permitted for Texas under the PAW directives to 1,582,000 barrels daily, the first increase in two months. The directives had remained stationary at 1,522,000 barrels during March and April.

The increase of 60,000 barrels to 1,582,000 barrels compares with nominations by purchasers of 1,670,142 barrels for May, a gain of 15,775 barrels, announced by the commission. However, the current daily allowable in Texas is 1,460,894 barrels, with additional production of approximately 120,000 barrels of condensate daily.

While Ickes ordered an increase in Texas production, he specified that more than one-half be given to pools yielding asphalt crudes, directing that the output of this type of oil be lifted to 71,000 barrels daily from current flow of 35,000 barrels, or an increase of 36,000 barrels.

Russians Use Bombers To Hit Enemy

MOSCOW, April 16 (AP)—The Red army is throwing a mounting force into the bombing of German military objectives and cities, the latest feat of Russian fliers being announced as a raid on a German airbase on the Leningrad front where 13 German planes were destroyed on the ground.

The noon communique told of the exploits of a band of Russian fliers who bombed and strafed the German airfield, setting fires to buildings in the area as well.

The raid came on the heels of a Russian long-range attack on Koenigsberg, the third bombing of that east Prussia city, and an assault on Danzig, the first one this year.

In land fighting, Soviet troops struggled ahead in the Kuban area of the Caucasus, capturing another German stronghold and dominating the position in the face of fierce counterattacks by large numbers of German reserves.

Another sharp Nazi attack on the Donets river line north of Chuguev also was turned back, the Russians said.

The Danzig raid was made on the port's warehouses, ship building yards, chemical plants and machine tool factories as well as other industrial objectives, it was announced.

Another mission struck Koenigsberg and started fires in many quarters of the city.

Japs Stronger Than Ever In Aleutians

A FAR WESTERN BASE IN THE ANDREANOF ISLANDS, Alaska, March 31 (Delayed) (AP)—The Japanese are "stronger than ever on Kiska and Attu," returning army pilots reported after bombing the enemy bases in the Aleutians for the 90th time in March at 25-foot elevation.

This thirtieth raid boosted the all-month high to 320 tons of explosives dropped on Kiska and Attu during March, eleven bomber command figures showed.

A returning pilot who has flown over Kiska since last July, said "the Japanese heavy and light gunfire was the heaviest yet. More lead was thrown into the air at us today than a month ago and it was more deadly."

A minute study of aerial photographs show that the Japanese have more gun emplacements in Kiska and Attu today than they had March 1.

Senate Passes Bill Freezing Labor Fees

AUSTIN, April 16 (AP)—A bill freezing labor union dues, assessments and admission fees to the 1938-1941 level and imposing penalties for misrepresenting working conditions was finally passed unanimously by the senate today.

Fines of from $100 to $1,000 and imprisonment of from 10 to 60 days were set for union agents or employees who misrepresent the permanency of employment, the amount of work to be done or the nature of work or working conditions to induce a person to join a union.

Sen. Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo sponsored the measure.

Shortly before final passage, Hazelwood attached an amendment declaring null and void any provisions of his bill that may be judged in conflict with the Manford union regulation bill recently passed by the legislature.

The same penalties included for misrepresenting working conditions were set for violating the maximum dues and assessments provision.

The measure prohibits "any dues or assessments as initiation fees or any charge whatsoever for admission to membership in any amount in excess of similar dues, assessments or charges made for the year 1939, 1940 and 1941."

Tingle Rites Set Saturday

Funeral for Clyde P. Tingle, 47, who succumbed at a local hospital here Friday, will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday at the First Baptist church, and the body will be shipped Sunday morning to Fort Worth for interment Monday.

One of his two sons, Charles, was due to arrive Saturday morning from Camp Roberts, Calif. and the other, Jack, presumed to have been at an embarkation point, had not been contacted.

Besides his sons, Tingle left his wife and two daughters, Mrs. M. L. Hamilton and Mrs. J. L. Tallentire, both of Big Spring. Other survivors included four sisters, Mrs. Joe Brown, Corralia, Ore., Mrs. T. A. Robbins, Mrs. Henry Cook and Mrs. Ottilie Mitchell, all of Fort Worth, and three brothers, J. D. Tingle, Waco, and Charles and Bert Tingle of Fort Worth. Several other relatives reside here, at Abilene and Fort Worth.

Tingle was connected with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for 23 years, having been in its circulation department before coming to Big Spring nearly 123 years ago as agent for the paper. He had operated a newsstand here during that time.

Rites here will be in charge of the Rev. P. D. O'Brien with Mrs. Alma Hout in charge of music. The body will lie in state at the Eberley Funeral Home until time for shipment Monday at 10 a. m. There will be a short committal before interment.

Missing—The parents of Tom Hartman (above), former All-American football player at the University of Michigan, were informed by the war department that their son is missing in the South American area. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps a year ago.

Two Escape Artists Lead Break From Georgia Pen

REIDSVILLE, Ga., April 16 (AP)—Lied by two notorious Georgia escape artists, 22 prisoners described by the warden as "the worst we got," escaped from Tattin state prison today after overpowering three unarmed guards.

Warden H. D. DuVall said three of the prisoners jumped on guards E. G. Morrison, W. E. Overstreet, and N. M. Spivey, locked them in a cell, took the prison keys and unlocked the front gate.

After taking the guards' keys they dismantled the prison telephone switchboard and pulled a switch which plunged the prison into darkness.

They stole two prison trucks and

Texas Victory Open Starts Today With Field Of 250

DALLAS, April 16 (AP)—The Texas Victory Open, boasting a field of 250, started today — the forerunner, thinks PGA President Ed Dudley, of golf tournaments in every section of the country designed primarily to contribute to the war effort.

"I look for many more to be held now that it has been shown by the Texas Open that such tournaments can be staged successfully," said the balding Chicagoan. "Already, plans are being discussed for a similar tournament at Wichita, Kansas."

Half-pint Ben Hogan, showing lack of practice but still considered the man to beat, headed up a field of 40 pros and more than 200 amateurs.

Ben, who doesn't take his opening 18 holes until this afternoon, tried the course out for the first time yesterday and complained about his rusty short game. "Between 30 and 40," he grinned when asked his score on the practice nine holes he played.

Henry Ransom, Houston pro, remained the hottest guy on the course. Ransom followed up his blistering nine-under-par 63 of Wednesday, when he tied the Dallas country club course record, with a 70, explaining that he was "taking it easy today."

Ray Hill of Randolph Field, former assistant to open champion Craig Wood, turned in the best nine holes of the day. He was out in 38 but coming in he had seven birdies to give him a 31.

Others with 66 were Ray Kenney, Dallas schoolboy who won the Texas amateur championship last year; Earl Stewart of Dallas, former national intercollegiate champion, and Dick Martin of Dallas, but the best 18-hole round of the day was played by George Aulbach of Amarillo, who had a 67 in which he showed six birdies.

A war bond rally is scheduled for tonight and tournament officials are going after sales totaling $1,000,000. They already have half that amount pledged. In addition, all proceeds from the tournament are being contributed to the Red Cross.

Several score men went into 4-A in latest classifications released by the Howard county selective service board.

This is a classification reserved by men in the first registration, but who have since attained their 45th birthday. Although over age, they technically are still on the rolls of the men 21-45 who were liable originally for military service.

In class 1-A were Juan P. Valdez, Ricardo Gomez, Gustavo R. Rodriguez, Lorenzo Pineda, Arthur L. Tamplin, Joseph C. Frazier, James J. Windham, Willie F. Palmer, Grover C. Fonder, Jr., R.

Longhorn Nine To Play Kelly Field

AUSTIN, April 16 (AP)—The Texas Longhorns, defeated twice in a row by the Waco army flying school baseball club, squared off today with Kelly Field.

The Waco Wolves swept a two-game series yesterday by winning 11-3. Nick Popovich, young White Sox farm hand, held the Longhorns to six hits.

More Than 40 Tex. Leaguers In Service

DALLAS, April 16 (AP)—More than 40 players who performed in the Texas league last season are in the armed service — meaning better than 25 per cent now are carrying guns for Uncle Sam.

A survey showed today that 43 players from the league which suspended operations now are in some branch of the service and that 54 are in other minor leagues. Nineteen are in the majors.

Dallas has eight in the service against an equal number in class AA leagues and four in defense plants. One ex-Rebel, Johnnie McFarland, went to the big leagues but entered the army before the season opened.

Beaumont has nine in the service and five in the major leagues. Tulsa has ten in the armed service and three in the majors. Fort Worth has none in the service so far as the known while eleven are in AA leagues and two are in the majors.

Oklahoma City shows six in the service but none in the majors. Seven San Antonio players entered the service while the others were divided among Toledo and the St. Louis Browns, and Manager Ralph Weingartner is in a defense plant at Wichita, Kas.

Shreveport has eight players in the armed service, two are in the majors and all others except three who are farming or in private industry are in class AA ball.

Houston has three of its 1942 players in the service but only one in the majors—Paul Dean.

Hope Held For The Safety Of Tom Harmon

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 16 (AP)—Friends of Lieut. Tom Harmon, dashing former all-American football player, are standing fastly clung to hope that he was safe today and Fritz Crisler was one to help them.

Calling Harmon "the greatest competitor I have ever known," Crisler said "there isn't another guy in the world who has a better chance of returning if he has had the allment of breaks."

Crisler, football coach and athletic director at the University of Michigan, was confident and advisor to Harmon both when the Wolverine grider was piling up a sensational athletic record and in later business pursuits.

Fritz's No. 1 protegee has been missing since April 8. That's all the word there has been from the war department.

"Call it wishful thinking—maybe that's what it is," Crisler said, "but I know Tom too well. I know what he has always done when the pressure was on him. I've seen his cocksureness and tremendous physical strength and I just won't believe he's through."

"My greatest fear is that his fighting heart spoiled his chances. In a jam he'd stick with the plane to the last moment, even when reason dictated otherwise, rather than try to save himself."

At The Training Camps—Yankee Twirlers Have Not Been Given Enough Work To 'Shape Up'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BROOKLYN — The high-flying Dodgers cross the river again today to battle the New York Giants, who they defeated Wednesday, 1 to 0. The veteran Curt Davis, who has been on the shelf with a thumb fracture suffered early in the training season, is scheduled to report for duty and may see his first mound action.

NEW YORK — Idle yesterday and with only a workout scheduled today, the New York Yankees approach the season's opener with a pitching staff suffering from lack of work. Only two chuckers have been hurled as much as nine innings opposition, and Spurgeon Chandler seems to be the only one ready to go a full game.

BOSTON—Three cancellations in three days have the Braves pitching staff upset and Casey Stengel is worried about the lack of work for Tobin, Esrrett, Andrews and Joffcoat. None has gone more than six innings and Stengel figures he may have to use two a game.

ST. LOUIS—Cardinal Manager Billy Southworth will try Mort Cooper for the full nine innings today in the fourth game of the city series with the Browns, and hints it is a tuneup for a probable opening-day assignment against the Reds next Wednesday.

CHICAGO — Manager Jimmy Wilson, although his Cubs won only one of three games from the White Sox in camp, forecast his team will win the spring city series starting today.

Landis pulls no punches in expressing his views on almost everything—except baseball. His hair snow-white, he sits in a high-back leather chair, behind a desk literally covered with papers, statues of baseball stars, an airplane clock and various documents piled two or three inches deep. His offices, high in an upper Michigan boulevard sky-scraper, overlook Lake Michigan.

He believes spring training in the north, above the so-called Landis-Eastman line, proved satisfactory to the players. He said he hadn't received one complaint, either from players or club officials.

Landis is pleased so many major league stars—such as Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Lyons, Bob Feller, Red Ruffing, Johnny Beazley and a host of others—have entered the service of their country.

"As prominent as they were, they did the wise thing in joining the armed forces as quickly as possible," he commented.

Luke Sewell, manager of the St. Louis Browns, says anybody who tries to pick a pennant winner this season must be barmy. Good pitching, even steady pitching, will tell this year, more than any other, he says.

"You'll see from six to eight 20-game winners in each league," Sewell predicts. "Those long ball hitters, those 320 men have been thinned out."

Sees More Sports After The War

FORT WORTH, April 16 (AP)—Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian University thinks intercollegiate athletics of all kinds will be conducted on an even larger scale after the war than in past years.

"Sports are needed, both for those participating and for those who like to watch competition," he commented.

He said he thinks spring training an important and valuable part of football, that it does not get in the way of regular spring sports, and that when the war ends the schools that have dropped these workouts will go back to them.

Yankees Not Good, But Rate At Top Of The League

By JUDSON BAILEY

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—The New York Yankees this year are the worst-looking team Joe McCarthy ever has managed in the big leagues, yet everybody is picking them to win another American league pennant and there is no reason to believe the majority isn't right.

You only have to look once at the Yankees this spring to realize the changes that war has wrought on baseball and if you can stop shuddering long enough to look at them two or three times, you start mulling over their rivals in the hope of finding some other pennant possibility.

But it is a sad commentary on the caliber of the clubs in the American league this season that not one can be counted on to step out in front of the Yankees.

The Yankees have only one regular infielder, Joe Gordon, and one regular outfielder, Charley (King Kong) Keller, back from last year.

Oil Trace Logged In Wildcat Test

W. S. Gutherie No. 1 Pauline Allen, wildcat test north and east of Vincent, was said to have had an oil odor below 3,600 feet, according to reports received here.

There was no free oil, but the petroleum odor was logged at around 3,600 feet. At latest reports the test was below 3,715 feet in softer lime. Contract depth for the test, located in 87-20, LaVaca Navigation, is 4,000 feet.

They have lost Joe DiMaggio and Tom Henrich from the outfield, Buddy Hassett and Phil Rizzuto from the infield and Red Ruffing from the pitching staff. Yet these may not prove to be mortal wounds because other clubs have been hit equally as hard.

The Boston Red Sox should finish second, just as they have in four of the last five years. Manager Joe Cronin has had to give up his entire outfield—Ted Williams, Dominic DiMaggio and Lou Finney—as well as Shortstop Johnny Pesky, and two good pitchers, Bill Blaud and Charley (Broadway) Wagner.

Back of these two clubs may come a three-way scramble between the Cleveland Indians, St. Louis Browns and Detroit Tigers, with their ultimate positions dependent largely on the draft.

On a hunch, we would place Cleveland third, St. Louis fourth and Detroit fifth.

This leaves the Washington Senators, Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia Athletics to bring up the rear. Washington is much improved but is vulnerable to the draft. The White Sox are uncertain defensively and lack power, while the less said about the A's the better.

America's war machine is growing—growing!
It's getting ready to deliver a tremendous, irresistible wallop that will smash the Axis flat—once and for all.
But brother—that punch has got to start from your pocket! And now's the time to let it go!
Uncle Sam is asking us to lend him 13 billion dollars this month. 13 billions of extra dollars—over and above any War Bond buying that you'd be doing anyway! Money to buy ships and planes, money to feed and clothe and arm and train the millions of your fellow Americans who will deliver this punch—who are ready to work and sweat and die to keep the place you live in safe.
Uncle Sam is asking you to back them up. He's asking you to lend the money they need by investing in War Bonds.
In the next few weeks, you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are giving their time and effort to this Drive.
But don't wait for him. Today—now—go to your nearest bank or Post Office or place where they sell War Bonds. And for your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!
There are 7 different types of U. S. Government securities—choose the ones best suited for you!

THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES... YOU LEND YOUR MONEY!

Auxiliary To El Paso Presbytery Has Three Day Parley In Odessa

Next Meeting To Be Held In Midland

Sixteen delegates from the First Presbyterian church in Big Spring returned Thursday evening from Odessa where they attended the thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the El Paso Presbytery. Midland was chosen as the convention site for the 39th annual parley which will be held in April of 1944.

With "About Our Father's Business" as convention theme, programs and addresses by missionaries and outstanding Presbyterian ministers were given along with luncheons, banquets and dinners as entertainment for church delegates.

Mrs. Preston Black of Barstow was elected president of the Presbytery, and Mrs. D. A. Koons, Big Spring, was named on the standing committee with a nominating group. Mrs. A. A. Porter was elected to serve on the program committee for the organization.

Mrs. J. E. Hogan, nursing recruitment chairman for the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, 8th district, spoke at the Thursday morning session, stressing the urgent need for nurses, and the excellent opportunity offered to worthy girl students who would like to go into training as a nurse.

Miss Mary Dodson, Presbyterian missionary who spent 20 years in Korea, gave an outstanding address at the Thursday afternoon meeting entitled "The Experiences of a Missionary in Korea." Miss Dodson explained that after war was declared, the missionaries were confined to their quarters and placed on a starvation diet. As a challenge to American people, Miss Dodson stated, "Let no hindrance be in your heart as we go about our Father's business."

At a luncheon held Thursday at noon, Mrs. Thomas D. Murphy, outgoing president, was presented with a life membership to the El Paso Presbytery by the organization.

Final registration revealed that around 151 persons from Clovis, N. M., Fort Stockton, El Paso, Pecos, Big Spring, Midland, Coahoma, Colorado City and other surrounding towns attended the meeting.

Delegates from Big Spring included Mrs. Sam L. Baker, district chairman of the Presbytery; Mrs. R. V. Middleton, chairman of finance; Mrs. J. C. Lane, delegate and chairman of publicity; Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Jr., delegate, and Mrs. E. H. Talbot, president of the local auxiliary.

Others attending from the Presbyterian church were Mrs. James T. Brooks, Mrs. E. L. Barrick, Mrs. D. A. Koons, Mrs. A. A. Porter, Mrs. Cecil Wasson, the Rev. and Mrs. James E. Moore, J. C. Lane and daughter, Anna Belle, Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. R. T. Piner.

Another communication received at the superintendent's office was a report of the state supervisor, E. H. Boulter, who visited the Garner school recently. Commendations made by the supervisor included that for the excellent spirit between teaching staff and the pupils. Group singing in the auditorium was especially mentioned as most enjoyable during his visit. Administration and organization was called good, under the circumstances to which all schools are laboring during these trying times. The transportation system is operating smoothly and Mr. Boulter expressed his thanks and appreciation for the lunch and courtesies extended during the visit at Garner.

The Baptist Missionary Society met Monday afternoon at the church for the regular Royal Service program in charge of the president, Mrs. J. T. Gross. The meeting was opened with a song and prayer and the program "Indignation" was given by the members as talks and reading. A short business session was held and the meeting was dismissed with a song and prayer. Present were Mrs. Herchell Smith, Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. C. H. Riddle, Mrs. E. O. Sanderson, Mrs. Cecil Rhodes, Mrs. L. J. Burrow and Mrs. J. T. Gross.

The Knott Home Demonstration club met Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Jr. for a regular meeting, with the president, Mrs. Paul Adams, in charge. Roll call was answered with each member telling her plan for buying war stamps regularly and systematically. The program was in charge of Mrs. E. O. Sanderson who led a round table discussion on "What I Can Do to Help the War Effort." In the business session plans were discussed concerning the club's contribution to the food sale at Big Spring sponsored by Howard county council April 24 and a number on the program for the council party to be held the same date in the afternoon at the First Methodist church. Other routine matters were discussed and a refreshment plate was served to Mrs. Cecil Shockey, Mrs. Joe Meyers, Mrs. W. A. Burchell, Mrs. Herchell Smith, Mrs. Fred Roman, Mrs. Grady Dorsey, Mrs. E. O. Sanderson, Mrs. J. B. Sample, Mrs. Oscar Smith, Mrs. Paul Adams and the hostess, Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Jr.

O. G. Denton is in a Big Spring hospital where he is being treated for serious burns he suffered when he washed his hands in gasoline after working on a tractor and then lighted a cigaret and ignited the gasoline.

Harvey Adams returned Wednesday to Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, where he is in training as an air cadet. He spent five days here with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Adams. Mr. Adams returned to his home last week from a Big Spring hospital where he has been under medical treatment for several weeks.

Bill Shockey sends word that he is stationed at Camp Bell, Calif., since returning from a 15-day furlough here with his brothers, Clarence, J. B. and Cecil Shockey.

Garner School Wins Certificate For Bond Sales

KNOTT, April 15—Superintendent Noel Burnett of Garner received word this week from Frank Scofield, war bond administrator for Texas, that he had received his certification that the Garner school had sold $2,148.90 in war bonds and stamps in the "Jeep" campaign ending April 21 and the school would receive a special Treasury Award for achieving its sales goal. Special commendation for the school and its effort in this campaign, and the outstanding record reached were mentioned by Mr. Scofield in expressing his appreciation.

Another communication received at the superintendent's office was a report of the state supervisor, E. H. Boulter, who visited the Garner school recently. Brother-Sister Act: Johnny and Mary are almost as proud of their new Eton suits of cotton hosiery as they are of their Easter bunny. The cardigans are cut alike, of cross-barred blue and white, shorts and skirt are solid color. Best of all, they're sturdy and washable.

Downtown Stroller

Cpl. LORENZ GAST, former Big Spring resident, is visiting in town for a few days on a furlough from the Hawaiian Islands. Cpl. GAST says that the islands are even prettier than the picture post cards and travel folders used to show them.

With regard to the bond sale drive now in progress, we visited with Mrs. ART ARMSTRONG the other morning and she was turning in funds for bonds she had sold. Mrs. ARMSTRONG has a new approach that seems to be paying off, when people in her district aren't contacted, she goes and calls on them and has been collecting too.

Speaking of bonds, all the women in town have really been cooperative about planning to spend Saturday in downtown stores selling bonds. All of the women answered something like Mrs. ROBERT HILL, who said, "of course, we'll take the booth, that's little enough to do, isn't it?"

Talked a little while with Mrs. T. C. THOMAS the other day and she tells us that she sold a short story to the McClure syndicate which is to appear this weekend in print. Now Mrs. THOMAS is looking for papers to see the story, a real thrill for writers.

Watching the children on their way to school this morning we got to thinking that it won't be long until school is out for three months. What we wouldn't do with a three month vacation if we had the three months, a bank account, and there wasn't a war on. Oh well, you can't stop us from dreaming.

Point Reduction Must Also Bring Price Reduction

Butchers may not reduce point values of rationed meats and fats without at the same time lowering money prices, the local War Price and Rationing board announced Thursday.

Before a retailer lowers the point value of a rationed item, a new amendment to the rationing regulations provides he must lower the price of the item at least 25 percent below its established ceiling price. If he lowers the point value more than 25 percent, the selling price must be reduced below the ceiling in proportion.

In no case, however, is the retailer required to reduce the money price more than 50 per cent below the ceiling.

Retailers must post the ceiling and reduced money price along with the reduced point value.

The action was taken to put a brake on retailers who during the early stages of the new meats and fats rationing program have tended to abuse the point lowering device provided in the regulations. Retailers acting in good faith will not suffer, it was said, since it is normal practice to cut prices when items must be moved quickly to prevent spoilage.

The amendment, effective April 5, provides that the retailer's report to his local board covering his sales at lowered point values must contain a certification that he likewise reduced money prices as required by the amended regulations.

God's Rules Will Not Change, Minister Says In Address

The world will be changed after the war, but not the Golden Rule and the rule of God, said Jim Harvey, Church of Christ minister, in a talk to the Kiwanis club Thursday.

His address dealt with the changeable elements in a changing world. Some people are always changing, he said, while others resist all change but cannot escape the changes about them.

Life, he continued, must be built around the changeless rule of God rather than a negative formula which accomplishes no good while trying to do no harm. Eventually, he said, this type of existence sinks to the level of getting all one can out of his fellow man.

County Over $50,000 In License Receipts

The total was reached here on April 8th, and up to the 10th of April, the office had collected $13,855.52 over the fifty thousand which it will divide equally with the state.

County Balance Is Increased By Food Stamp Fund

Howard county's general fund was $2,215 fatter at the end of March by reason of liquidation of the food stamp office and transfer of the funds back into the general fund, Auditor Claud Wolf reported in his monthly summary to the commissioners court.

In his report, Wolf also pointed out that due to the final rush in paying of auto licenses the office of the tax collector has not yet rendered full report for March but he advised that the county will receive more than was expected from the payment of auto license taxes.

Actual balance on hand as of March 31 was $90,518.77 with receipts from March 31 to April 10 amounting to $38,807.78 to make a balance April 10 of $129,326.55.

Up to March 31 the report shows a balance of $14,909.87 in the road and bridge fund, $29,241.31 in the general fund, and $982.54 in the officers salary fund. Jury fund amounted to $9,857.36, permanent improvement, $1,337.33, road re-funding bond, $9,163.77 and special road bond fund, $17,370.12.

Court house and jail warrants were $576.88, viaduct warrants, $4,584.59, and food stamp fund $2,215.

A breakdown of distribution of the road and bridge fund expendi-tures shows the largest expense outside of regular wages to be $1,523.05 for gas and oils and $1,261.84 for parts and tires.

Charity expenses for the month came to $757.00 with the largest expenditure for medical fees and hospitalization amounting to $308.08 and utilities and rent amounting to $232.22. Not included in the sum was $133 for a salary case worker.

Included in the officers salary fund was an expenditure of $240.14 for groceries for prisoners. Under the permanent improvement fund, painting on the honor roll board amounted to $96.50.

Total disbursements issued dur-ing March amounted to $14,873.69.

25 On Hand For Scouter Training

Approximately 25 Boy Scout leaders participated in the third weekly session of the leadership training program at the First Baptist church Thursday evening.

The program had to deal with program building and program material, the former subject being discussed by the Rev. Jim Moore and the latter by Joe Pickle.

Women Train For Scout Leadership

Women completed their ground-work for final meetings of their training course when they staged their delayed Girl Scout leaders class Thursday afternoon at the high school band room. Much of the time was spent in learning songs, folk dances and games, but particular emphasis was placed on investitures and flag ceremonies which will be used Monday afternoon in investing 13 new leaders and their assistants. The course is to be concluded Wednesday with a hike and "cook-out" program, and plans for this were developed at the Thursday parley under direction of Mrs. Warren Edson.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"The more I read about it, Judge, the more I realize the tactics and requirements of this war are as different from the one I fought in 25 years ago as night is from day."

"Yes, and I can give you an example of how true that is, Fred. In World War I the chief uses of alcohol produced for war purposes were found in smokeless powder, medical supplies and chemical warfare materials. In this war the need for this product is far more vital because it is also used as a fuel to propel torpedoes, to make shatterproof glass for airplane windshields and instrument covers, to make lacquers used in camouflaging equipment and as a base for synthetic rubber needed for tires, gas masks, paratroop equipment and dozens of other things."

"Every time I think of it, Fred, I realize how fortunate we were in having a beverage distilling industry in existence when war broke out... ready and willing to convert 100% to the production of this critically needed war product. I'm mighty sure boot-leggers wouldn't have."

GAS IS IN TO WIN — USE IT WISELY

Physical Fitness One Of Our Needs

If Britain won her battles on the playing fields of Eton, where on earth are we Americans going to win our battles? We have no equivalent of the playing fields of Eton, where every boy got his share of exercise and built up his physical stamina. The all-too-familiar picture of Americans getting their exercise shows 3,000 rotters in the grandstand and 22 young men heaving and pushing on the gridiron. Too many spectators, not enough participants—participant-sports has been our undoing. Twenty-five per cent or more of the 18-year-olds are eliminated from service on physical grounds. Eight million of the 22,000,000 men in the 18-37-year classes are physically unfit for military service. As a result a lot of physically fit fathers will have to shoulder rifles because too many single men and youths were behind the door when the muscles were passed out. One thing our various systems

Hollywood Sights and Sounds— When You've Seen These, You'll Know About War

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Underground activity in Nazi-occupied territory is proving such a rich source of dramatic material for the screen that you can look for the cycle to continue indefinitely. Practically all the major producing units are working on one or more pictures with this theme, in addition to those already released. This follows the familiar Hollywood pattern of one successful picture setting a trend, and the trailblazer in this cycle seems to have been RKO's "Joan of Paris," which introduced Michele Morgan, bonafide French refugee, and gave Paul Henreid, a Nazi-hating Austrian, his first real break. The great danger at present seems to be overdoing the subject, wearing out its freshness. But lately there have been indications that the story departments have anticipated this repetition, and the settings, which at first concerned chiefly France and Norway, are becoming more varied. Assassination of Reinhardt Heydrich proved such a natural as story material that both United Artists and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer turned out pictures on the subject, U.A. under the title "The Hangman Also Dies," already released, and Metro under the title of "Hitler's Hangman." U.A. made the most of its opportunities, holding the premiere at Prague, Okla., and getting a send-off from Bohus Benes, consul-general for the Czech government-in-exile, and Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk. Brian Donlevy is considered to have done a particularly good job in the role of the man who shot Heydrich. All the action in this story takes place in Prague. The upcoming Metro picture tells the story of the eradication of the Czech town

Capital Comment Fritz Lanham Starts New Plan

By GEORGE STIMPSON
Special Washington Correspondent
 Had "food conference" this morning in the House Office Building cafeteria with five Texas congressmen—Sam Russell, of Stephenville, Gene Worley, of Shamrock, Albert Thomas, of Houston, Nat Patton, of Crockett, and Luther Johnson, of Corsicana; conference dealt more with consumption of food than with production. Then went upstairs to inspect Boris Gordon's portrait of Judge Joseph Mansfield, of Columbus, chairman of the house rivers and harbors committee; the painting a spitting image of the venerable and much-loved judge, hangs on the wall in the committee room over the seat where the chairman sits when he presides over the committee; Boris, a familiar figure on Capitol Hill, has done portraits of Jack Garner, Col. Oreta Culp Hobby of the WAACs.

Washington— Presentation Of A Tax Speech By Mrs. Luce

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — Notes on a speech by Rep. Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut (whose first two names are the most misspelled in Washington today): Mrs. Luce—Mr. Chairman, not being a tax expert there is little I can add to the current confusion on the pending legislation. (Note: Goeh, that's a natty gray spring suit. Wonder if it's 60 per cent all-wool. The lady certainly is setting a hair style with those little bows in her hair. Already, about one out of every eight of Uncle Sam's nieces here has adopted it.) Mrs. Luce—"What was the original tax bill aimed to achieve—revenue, reform, remittance, or reelection?" (Note: What a shame to be wasting all those wisecracks on the Congressional Record, which, as literature, is strictly perishable. Well, wh'd'ya know, that tall black-browed fellow taking his seat in the press gallery is Henry I. Luce. Come to check up on his "Globaloney Girl"? Well, he won't be disappointed in the attention her colleagues are giving her. Congressmen are flocking back to the floor faster than LaGuardias going to a fire. They're listening, too.) Mrs. Luce—"It does not take any giant brain to figure out that however healthy Mr. Douglas's bill may be for the state of the national exchequer, it will be dashed unhealthy for the Congressman who supports it!" (Note: That's language all your colleagues understand, Lady, but where did you get that delivery? I know, now—the theater. Clare Boothe Luce is an actress in the disguise of a Congresswoman. The way she skips from crest to crest of inflections; the absence of gestures; that soft, confidential modulation of her voice as if she were talking with you, not at you—all of it spells theater.) Mrs. Luce—"Many of you will insist that this arbitrarily to put one hundred odd-odd-odd taxpayers (she was referring to the country's richest) of whom I am one, incidentally, in a special non-favored, discriminated-against, unforgiven doghouse group is rank demagoguery." Mr. Chairman (banging his gavel)—"The time of the gentleman from Connecticut has expired." Mrs. Luce (jarking around as if she had been hit with pea-shooter)—"I ask unanimous consent for 2 minutes more." Note: Well, who would have thought it? The lady is actually nervous. That interruption caused something awfully close to stage fright.) Mrs. Luce—"Politics, they say, are made in the stomach and pocketbook . . . but, before this war is over, it may be our sad duty to vote for emptier stomachs and emptier pocketbooks." (Note: Well, that's that, Lady, but your "2 minutes" was typically feminine. It really was five and even then you had to drop the last two paragraphs of your speech. What's that on the face of Mr. Luce as he slips out of the gallery? If I'm not mistaken, it was a fleeting grin—the kind he might allow himself if he had just launched a new successful publication.)

in the chair; it should have read "chair"; there was no objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas. "Ruml-rings" on Capitol Hill indicate there may be another tax bill before long. Hope Biding Miller, Texas-born and reared society editor of the Washington Post writes: "Inside New Deal circles in Washington are only slightly perturbed over rumors that Senator W. Lee O'Daniel of Texas is laying plans to run for the presidency in 1948." Several members arose on the floor to congratulate Fritz Lanham, of Fort Worth, on an innovation he has introduced on Capitol Hill; Fritz explains it this way: "I wish to bring to the attention of the members of the House a policy that has been adopted by the committee on public buildings and grounds which, in my judgment, may well be followed by the various committees of the House. There is frequently a great deal of collaboration between the legislative and administrative branches of the government. That understanding and lack of cooperation are frequently due to the fact that very seldom the representatives of these two branches have an opportunity to get together and confer. Consequently when the administrative authorities come before our respective committees with reference to bills pending before those committees we have an accumulation of misunderstanding for approximately one year. "To keep current with the business of the public buildings and grounds committee, especially insofar as it pertains to housing under legislation emanating from that committee, we are holding on the first Tuesday of each month an informal conference of the committee and these administrative authorities so that the necessary explanations can be made, misunderstandings obliterated and cooperation increased. If any member of the House has a problem in his district bearing upon legislation emanating from the committee on public buildings and grounds, we shall be glad to have that member appear at these stated meetings on the first Tuesday of each month in order that the necessary explanations and corrections may be made. "If this policy were followed by the various legislative committees of the House, in my opinion, we could with very much greater smoothness and efficiency get the laws which we enact administered in accordance with the legislative intent. We are, insofar as we know, pioneers in the field of collaboration, and we hope that we are setting a laudable example for the other committees of Congress. And I may say that the administrative authorities have indicated their complete accord with this program." Think you've got something there, Fritz; that may be a partial answer to the eternal problem of friction between "The Hill" and "The Departments." Senator Tom Connally suggests that one of the causes for inadequate history-teaching in our institutions of higher learning is the trend in modern college life to allow the students a larger discretion as to selective courses rather

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 6
 "Oh, a deal, is it?" Jones inquired thinly. He twisted up his forehead in a corrugated frown, but the gambler continued to sit there and grin and Tubac grew vaguely uneasy. Plainly this was no ordinary thorn and, if sounded right, might reveal a few things Jones could use in his business. So he dragged out a smile that was bland as the gambler's. "What kind of a deal?" he asked, and Blackwater Bill chuckled slyly. "Just a deal," he said, "that'll put the akids under that slick banker, Haines. We'll fold that bank up like an accordion." "How you figurin' to do it?" "It's just the kind of dumb play he loves, and he'll gulp it down hook, line and stinker." Jones said: "It must be gold. the way you're guardin' it!" "Lead center, Mr. Jones; I can see you're a man of perception. Gold it is. When you bait your hook for a banker, gold's the only thing you can use." Tubac grunted. "Don't make a story out of it! Just give me the works an' get a wiggle on." "Hmmm. Great notions aren't hatched in a moment. And, besides, I said a 'deal'." Blackwater Bill leaned forward. "I want a half interest in this ranch." Jones grumbled. "I'll give you a half—if the deal comes off." "Now look—" said Blackwater suavely, "the first thing to do is for you to take all your money and put it in the bank." "In the bank!" Jones cried, and looked the gambler hard in the eye. "You must think I'm green—" "You want to bust that bank or don't you?" "Sure I—But—Well, go on." "You leave it—" "Yeah," Tubac said sarcastically. "I'll leave it all right." "You put all that money in the bank—every penny you can get your hands on. A thousand, if you can. I've got a few hundred that'll chuck in, too. As you've so rightly suspicioned, under normal circumstances you'd never see a cent of it again. Haines would manage that, somehow. But—" and Blackwater Bill smiled thinly, "the circumstances aren't going to be normal. Before Haines gets around to pulling anything we'll yank our money out again and leave his bank with crepe on the door!" Jones shook his head. "Maybe I'm just an ignorant saddle bum but that play don't look very bright to me. Even if we're lucky enough to get our mazzuma out of his clutches, how's that goin' to bust his bank? He'll still have as much as he had before—as he's got right now." "I guess you're forgetting. I said the circumstances won't be normal. When we pull that money out of there we'll start a run that'll make that wing-footed god look anchored." "You musta been smokin' rattlesaw to think up anything hair-brained as that! No thank you, Mister Blackwater Bill. My money's a heap safer right in my pocket!" "You talk like a fool," declared the gambler scornfully. "I tell you this is a sure-fire thing. It can't miss! First, we put the money in the bank. After an interval we take it out—whether we get it or not makes little difference. We present our receipts and demand the money. Have you got that digested?" Jones nodded. "Fine," said Blackwater and leaned forward. "Now here's the joker. After we deposit our money, and before we go back to draw it out, we arrange matters in such a way that Haines has a need for his ready cash elsewhere. Quick's he's used it we ask for our money. Is it plain to you now?" "It's plain," Jones said, "that I'll lose my money—" "You might. I don't think you will, but you might. Even so, what's two or three thousand? Ain't it worth that much to bust Haines flat—and maybe that Stampedes crowd along with him?" There was a glint in Blackwater's eyes as he said, "It happens to know Haines has put considerable money into X & L Mines—bought all the stock he could get. On margin. If the market fluctuates—" "It won't," Jones predicted. "I know them mines. They're at Pearce an' sound as a rock!" "As a matter of fact, they're sounder," smiled Blackwater. "But the stock and the mines are two different things." "I know all about stocks!" Jones cut in grimly. "I learned about stocks from an expert! But it takes hard cash to force stock—" "We don't have to force it up. All we've got to do is sell Haines the impression it's being forced up—" "An' how are you going to do that?" "Just you leave it to me. Once Haines is convinced someone's monkeyin' with that stock he'll move heaven and earth to save his shares. He knows those mines are good well as you do! That's what I'm counting on. He'll want to see his shares wiped out, even if it means he's got to dip into his bank for the money to save them. And when he dips—" Blackwater Bill spread his hands and smiled. Jones, staring bug-eyed, suddenly laughed. "You're a genius!" he cried, slapping his thigh. "I believe it'll work—" "It will work all right. Now the first thing to do," said Blackwater briskly, "is to get our deposit

Tubac got out his wallet and thumbed through his pile. "Twenty-five hundred eighty-seven dollars an' fifty-four cents."

"Certainly!" Blackwater eyed him impatiently. "You will be in no danger whatever. They won't be expecting you back so soon." To Be Continued.

AP Correspondents Praised For Great Stories On War

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—The great stories of the war have been told graphically, truthfully, and comprehensively by the greater array of reportorial eye-witnesses the Associated Press has ever had in war time," General Manager Kent Cooper said in his annual report to the press association's directors in session here today.

The general manager called specific attention to the news exploits of AP's outstanding war correspondents, including 1941 Pulitzer prize winner Larry Allen, now a prisoner of war in Italy; Clark Lee of Bataan fame; Yvonne McDaniel for his "Farewell to Singapore," and "Afterward his work in Australia; Vern Haugland, who wrote a dramatic diary while lost for 43 days in a New Guinea jungle, and

US Engineers Wanting Men

Volunteers between the ages of 18-45 are being accepted by the United States Army Engineers if they are trained equipment operators who have been working as civilians on engineering and construction projects.

The army plans to recruit 9,000 specialists a month, according to announcement from Maj. Gen. Eugene Reybold, chief of engineers.

"This is a challenge to men who want to help engineer the forthcoming victory—who want to get this war over with in a hurry," said General Reybold.

Applications may be submitted locally by calling Capt. A. H. Christian at telephone No. 24 or Capt. Earl R. Hury at telephone 1680, extension 221. Captain Christian is area engineer and Capt. Hury is post engineer for the Big Spring Bombardier school and is authorized to make necessary examinations. If these contacts cannot be made with convenience, inquiries should be written to Capt. C. D. Gray, Corps of Engineers, box 688, Fort Worth.

Occupations included in the list from which men might come are: Automobile mechanic, blaster, construction carpenter, construction foreman, electrician, utility repairman, quarryman, rigger, section foreman (railway), water supply foreman, well driller, motorboat operator, jackhammer operator, heavy construction equipment operator, machine shop foreman, operating engineer, power earth auger operator, pipe line pump station repairer, and water supply filter operator.

General Brant Visitor Here

Brief visitor at the Big Spring Bombardier school Thursday afternoon was Maj. Gen. Gerald C. Brant, commanding general of the Army Air Forces Gulf Coast Training Center. Accompanied by Lt. Col. E. H. Casaday, General Brant came here from Midland, and went on to Randolph after a conference with the post commandant, Col. Robert W. Warren.

County Health Officer Named

County commissioners in their part of the action to be taken in control and quarantine of venereal-diseased persons appointed Dr. Clyde Thomas, Jr., as county health officer in a session Thursday afternoon at the courthouse.

According to the statutes, both a city and county health officer are needed to issue warrants for persons known infected with the disease. Dr. J. E. Hogan is city health officer.

Apparently, with the appointment, action can be taken as soon as the special warrants have been drawn up and printed. Warrants served on the infected persons will hold them in quarantine until they have been treated and cured of the social disease.

No new steps had been taken in regard to a curfew hour for juveniles, another proposal to combat "amateur prostitution" which authorities claim is one of the major problems.

To enforce the curfew hour, the city ordinance prohibiting juveniles to be free to be out after an hour set in the ordinance.

Bill Provides $20 Pensions

AUSTIN, April 16 (AP)—The department of public welfare can pay 185,000 old people $20 monthly pensions during the next two years if the senate civil jurisdiction committee's version of a house bill is adopted.

Sen. Jesse Martin of Fort Worth made this statement yesterday when the committee favorably reported a bill authorizing a $75,000 monthly increase in old age assistance expenditures.

The bill now goes to the senate floor as a substitute for Rep. Ennis Favors' measure lifting the ceiling on monthly payments and not specifying a monthly limitation on pension outlays.

Written by Martin and Sens. William E. Stone of Galveston and Allan Shivers of Fort Arthur, the senate bill raises the ceiling on total monthly payments from $1,750,000 to $1,825,000.

Passage of the substitute bill plus the $1,154,000 which may be made available to the pension fund by house bill 159 would provide an additional $900,000 a year above current allotments, Martin said.

Both houses have passed bills releasing $1,154,000 frozen in the pension fund for payment of current pensions. The senate stipulated that the sum be expended in 24 equal monthly payments while the house did not include this restriction.

The bill is now in conference committee.

Mason, formerly worked for Cosden here and has a brother, Burton Mason who is in boot training at the naval base at San Diego.

Fight Looming For Control Of Civilian Supply

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—Legislation to set up a powerful and independent boss of civilian supply headed toward a senate test with labor support today, while opposition developed from War Production Board quarters with announcement of a new appointee to take over just that task.

WPA Chairman Donald M. Nelson announced Arthur D. White, president of Dun and Bradstreet, financial reporting firm, would succeed Joseph L. Weiner as vice chairman in charge of civilian supply.

Weiner has supported pending legislation to divorce the civilian supply problem from WPA. Nelson has strongly opposed it.

Closing a month of public hearings, the senate banking committee commenced consideration of the measure.

Both Senator Taft (R-Ohio), committee member and Senator Maloney (D-Conn.), author of the proposal, expressed belief that backing given by the Congress of Industrial Organizations for creation of a civilian supply administration strengthened likelihood that the bill would be sent to the senate floor.

The principal aim of the bill—to create a boss of civilian supply with authority over manpower, rationing, distributing and producing materials—drew protests from Nelson and War Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt that it would put brakes on the military program and hinder the war effort.

Negroes Fined On Liquor Charges

On a plea of guilty in Mitchell county court, Will Clay, negro, was fined $100 and costs for transporting beer in a dry area after his apprehension by Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors.

Anderson Davis, negro, was also fined $100 and costs in Scurry county court after pleading guilty to possession of beer in a dry area.

The quantity of beer in both cases was released to the liquor control board to be sold to the highest bidder who holds license or permit.

Some Applications On Hand In Lease Conversion Plan

A few applications for certificates of eviction by landlords have been received at the local Rent Control office, Charles Sullivan, attorney-examiner, said Friday in connection with landlords leasing their property to the government under the conversion program.

When a landlord takes advantage of the government plan to lease property for seven years and remodel it for tenancy, he must secure an eviction certificate from the rent control office. If the landlord's lease is approved then the rent control area director passes on the eviction.

Once the lease has been approved, Sullivan said, then the government acts as landlord in renting the property to war workers.

Work at the Rent Control office has slowed down from its peak, the attorney-examiner reported, but registration of rental units continues. The office received 23 new registrations so far this month in the county not including hotels and rooming houses. Counting hotels and rooming houses the county has on register 2,900 rental units.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—Light selling today stemmed the two-session rallying drive of the stock market.

The list was hesitant at the start and, while plus signs were in evidence here and there near the close, declines of fractions to a point or so were widely distributed.

Oils were relatively lively and ahead minor amounts as Petroleum Coordinator Ickes revealed he had recommended an average crude price boost of 35 cents a barrel to the OPA.
