R.C. PORTER FORMALLY ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

R.C. Porter of Spearman this week formally announces his candidacy for State Representative in the Texas 88th Legislative District, on the Republican party ticket.

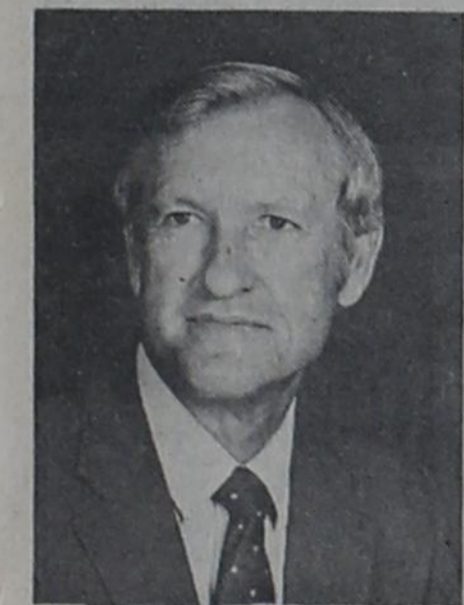

Porter, who was a candidate two years ago, points out that "Two years ago, Buchanan did not have to run on a record, but this year he has to, because I will insist on it. I believe that development of this issue will illustrate an almost totally ineffective record in the 1981 Legislative session. I know of no bills passed or even introduced by him."

"Our Panhandle area, with special problems needs better representation than this. It needs it very much. I will work positively, and diligently, in Austin and over the district to do an important job that needs doing," he declares.

A Hansford county farmer for all his adult life, Porter, 58, is a Navy veteran of World War II. He served 12 years on the Spearman school board, six years of this time as board president.

He presently is a director of the Panhandle Education Service Center, a state agency that serves the Texas area north of Lubbock and that provides a number of aids to schools.

"It is important that a legislator bring business experience, a business outlook, to his job, and I pledge to do this from a background of being an independent agribusinessman most of my life. I have worked to this purpose as a school trustee, in other public service, and will continue to do so positively," he declares, and adds: "I favor a return of government to near at home and will work for this in Austin. Government works better close to the people it serves, without the expense and lost motion of bureaus that

FREE BLOOD PRESSURE CLINIC

There will be a Free Blood Pressure Clinic for all Wheeler County residents regardless of age, Thursday, April 1, 1982. It will take place in the south end of the Old Nicholson Memorial on Canadian Street from 9:00 - 12:00 a.m.

This clinic is sponsored by the Retired Senior Volunteer Program and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

In order for the blood pressure clinic to be continued, it will be necessary for the number of citizens seen to average fifty or more individuals each month. The number of people reporting for the blood pressure check has dropped in recent months. The clinic is free. Bring a friend; you could save a life.

fatten and grown each year. With the people of the 88th district, I see the need for practical business management in state government—and I believe that a Panhandle farmer, who every year meets business problems, can make a positive contribution to state government and to the people he represents. It would be entirely appropriate for this district, which produces one-tenth of all agricultural gross revenue in the state, to be represented by a farmer.

"As a school trustee I have been alarmed at a trend to centralize our Texas schools and to dilute local control. I have opposed this unhealthy trend and will do so as your State Representative.

"Because I do not believe anyone should hold an office for life, I make another special pledge: I will not seek more than six years in this office, if you elect me, and would refuse any pension benefits. I want to work for the office, not have the office work for me.

"On this premise, this simple platform, I ask for your support and your vote in the 1982 election. And I pledge to serve you fully, to be responsive to your wishes, and to carry out the office of State Representative, District 88, seriously and effectively."

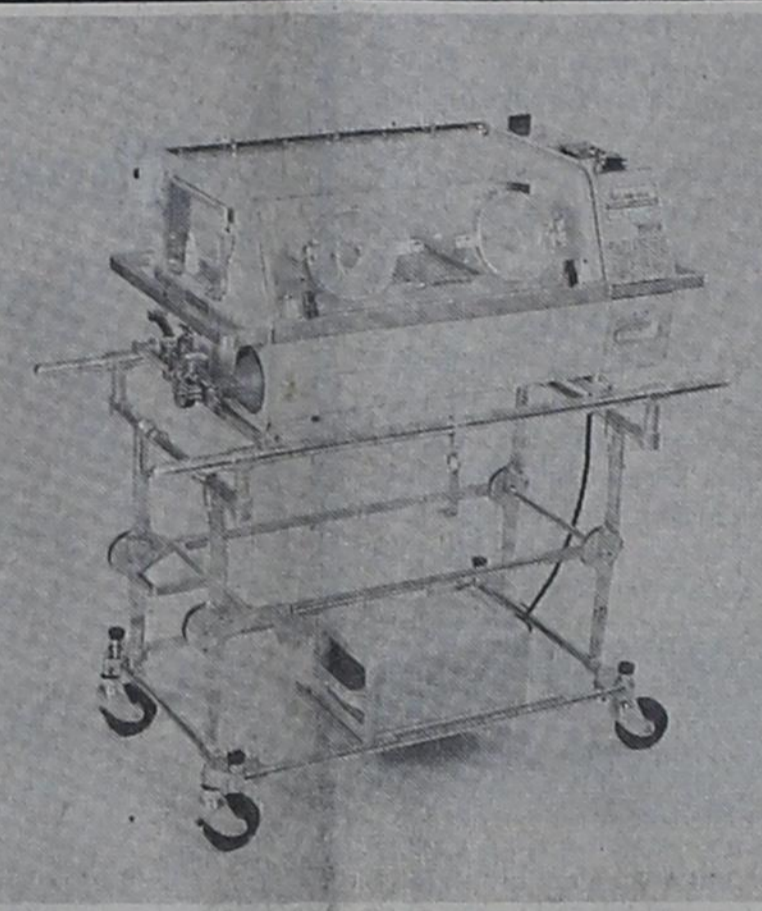

"And I thank you for your good wishes and your help." Porter has no opponent in the Republican primary in May but will face the Democratic party nominee in the general election in November. (Pol. adv. paid for the R.C. Porter Campaign Fund, R.C. Porter, Treas., Rt.2, Box 5, Spearman, Texas 79081.)

RICHARD WALLACE SEEKS ELECTION TO SCHOOL BOARD

Richard Wallace, a native of Wheeler, has filed for Place Four in the school board election Saturday, April 3, 1982.

I believe that your children and my children are an investment of the future. To insure this investment we need to enhance quality education. Our current administration, faculty, and student body needs active support from our community in attaining primary aims of advancing education.

DRIVE NOW UNDERWAY TO PURCHASE INCUBATOR

We need your help again! The Wheeler Ambulance Service is starting a drive to raise money for two incubators or Isolettes, for infant care. One unit will be permanent for Parkview Hospital, the other unit is a portable unit that can be used in the ambulance when need for transporting an infant or used at Parkview if needed. Parkview has a portable unit that is not satisfactory for either in hospital use or transporting these babies when emergencies arise.

The transport incubator is self contained, intensive care incubator fully equipped with all life support systems for: maintaining infant body temperature, a properly humidified and oxygenated atmosphere, continuous observation of and immediate access to the infant. This unit provides a complete, mobile intensive care environment in which to transport those who need care to the point at which they can be received via ambulance, helicopter or aircraft.

The second unit does the above plus alarms that react before a crisis can arise. This is an audio and visual alarm system that have thermosensors that shut the heater down if an environmental overtemperature occurs. Air temperature is closely monitored and a separate air temperature sensors backs up the overtemperature alarm systems for still more security.

The Wheeler LVN assn, now disbanded, started this fund by donating the money left in their treasury. Other clubs and individuals that have donated are: S4 Study Club, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Peggy Ford, Fredericka Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coates, all in memory of George B. Dunn. Lisa Burrell, Mimi Boedeker, Alta Jean Davis and Vera Rogers, all in memory of Richard Richie.

Any clubs or groups who would like to have a program given on these incubators may do so by contacting Mary K. Christner at 826-3469, she will make the necessary arrangements.

A donation can will be placed at the Wheeler Times office for any contributions or deposits may be made at the First National Bank in Wheeler or the First State Bank in Mobeetie. All donations will be greatly appreciated. The total cost of both units will be $10,000.00. This may seem like a lot of money but if one unit saves the life of an infant it will more than justify the cost. Thank you for your help.

 Tuesday night 23, to let the ones away know how cold we are. We are down in 30 degrees at night. 34 degrees in Amarillo Thursday morn.
 The Prevention Magazine says the rich eat to much fats. The poor to little protein, and the in between to many carbohydrates.
 Colie and I visited Claude and Mable Parker Tuesday. Played some 80 and ate supper there.

 Many thanks to Verna Fillingim for carrying her news to the paper office last week. My sister Madell Pillers from McKinney, Texas called me to see why the Briscoe news was not in the paper last week and others called thought I was sick.
 Bob Markham visited us today Thursday. He was doing fairly well since he got out of the Wheeler hospital. Talked to George Parker today. He sounded like he was taking a cold. We hope not. We received a letter yesterday from an aunt Grace Echols in rest home at Edenberg. An uncle Kelly Gray is also in same rest home. Uncle Kelly was 98 years young, 24 of February. Aunt Grace has to be helped in and out of her bed, in and out her wheel chair. How sad. Uncle Kelly only son Harvey had surgery found malignant colon. He is taking radiation. Will have to take chemotherapy and cobalt later. He is 71 years old now. How sad. Colies cousin.

lets are anything from garage and charity sales to "lightly worn" or "little used" designer-label garment sales.
 With increasingly better fibers and fabrics being developed, many garments show little wear, although they're deemed no longer useful to the original owner because of changing fashion trends, weight gain or loss, lifestyle patterns or individual preference.
 How can you know this system will work for you?
 Start by investigating second-hand stores in your local area. Find out store reputation and policies.
 Often thrift stores take garments on consignment for a set period of time—this means they'll keep something for a certain time span and then send it back to the owner if it doesn't sell, so no one garment hangs on the racks until it reaches "old age".
 This is a workable system for the consumer who not only wants to buy but who also wants to "trade in" some garments he or she no longer can use.
 If at all possible, when purchasing second-hand clothing, try the item on for fit and becomingness. Inspect right and wrong sides for quality workmanship or flaws.
 With the economy today, it's now considered "smart" to get the most for your money.
 Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

FASHION ACCESSORIES ECONOMICALLY
 Accessories are helping put the "fun" back into fashion -- economically.
 Fashion jewelry, belts, bags and shoes offer consumers a way to vary looks and appropriateness of dress easily and inexpensively in spite of the trend toward buying fewer, better quality clothes.
 Consumers are "taking accessories up" on the offer, too, as accessory sales are on the upswing.
 Current jewelry trends are bolder -- including bangle bracelets, beaded necklaces and large earrings in hammered metals, natural stones or seashells, fans or nautical motifs. Headbands and combs remain popular, too.
 Belts continue to feature large, bold buckles, knotted ropes and sashes.
 Handbags and shoes in braided and woven leathers, snakeskin, quilted looks, straw and canvas are popular. New shoes are flatter with cone or scalloped heels, while the "new" in handbags means "molded" and "structured" designs are returning.
 Use accessories to complete a current look, such as sporty and nautical, a feeling of South America or the South Seas, or the rustic and romantic looks.
 Evaluate each accessory to determine if it highlights your best features and enhances other items you're wearing.
THRIFT SECOND-HAND STORES MEAN BIG FASHION SAVINGS
 Thrift or second-hand clothing stores can mean a 30-50 percent savings on fashion items and family clothing, consumers from throughout the nation are finding.
 More consumers in all income groups are shopping at these stores, too.

An energy-efficient electric water heater can save you money when installed close to the point of use. And, since the heater is glass-lined and fully-insulated, it keeps water hot longer. You can reduce the amount of water your household uses by filling the dishwasher to capacity before turning it on or by using the short cycle. Using your clothes washer only when you have a full load and taking showers rather than baths also can save money on water and electric bills.

Don Pemberton, Consumer Services Representative, Lubbock.

Keeping track of the amount of electricity your family uses is easy when you know how to read your own electric meter. Many customers are confused by the four or five dials they see on the meter, yet reading the meter is not difficult and may help you budget for your monthly electric bill even before it arrives. For complete instructions on reading your meter, check the back of the envelope your electric bill comes in or contact your local SPS office for the free booklet "Reading Your Meter."

Woman Tried In S.S. Fraud

A Little Rock, Arkansas woman has pled guilty to Federal charges that she lied about the whereabouts of her sons so that she would continue to receive payments on his behalf. According to Larry Mayo, Branch Manager of the Pampa Social Security Office, Annie Barbee of 2025 S. Monroe, Little Rock, Arkansas had claimed that her son was living with her when, in fact, he was an inmate at the Tucker Unit, Arkansas Department of Corrections.

Mr. Mayo said the Federal Assistance Program, called Supplemental Security Income (SSI), provides monthly payments to needy persons who are 65 or older, or blind or completely disabled. These payments are not made to residents of publicly supported institutions. SSI is financed with General Tax Revenues, not Social Security Taxes, Mr. Mayo said.

Mrs. Barbee was placed on a 3 years probation by U.S. Magistrate Robert Faulkner.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

JOE DON KING COTTON MEETING

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Wheeler County Crops Committee will sponsor a cotton production meeting Thursday, April 8. The meeting will be held in the District Courtroom at Wheeler beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Robert Metzger, Extension Cotton Specialist from College Station, will be in Wheeler County for the Meeting.

Topics covered by Dr. Metzger, will include weed control, varieties, proper soil temperature for planting and fertility.

All cotton producers are invited to attend this meeting. Education programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

GREENBUG THREAT TO PANHANDLE WHEAT LOW BUT REQUIRES CAUTION

The Texas Panhandle wheat crop has thus far escaped heavy greenbug infestations, but wheat producers need to keep a close eye on the crop.

Even though infestations are currently low, farmers should not become complacent about checking their wheat for greenbugs. As the weather warms, populations of the insects can increase dramatically.

Greenbugs are about 1/16 inch long, light green with a dark green area down the back. They should not be mistaken for other aphids that can be on wheat this time of the year.

One of those is the oat bird-cherry aphid, which is very common on Texas wheat but rarely requires control with insecticides. It can be distinguished from the greenbug by a reddish-orange spot which surrounds the base of the cornicles, which are two small tubes at the rear of the body.

The English grain aphid can also infest wheat at about the same time as the greenbug. It can be distinguished from the greenbug by entirely black cornicles and the lack of a dark green area down the back. Insecticide applications are seldom justified for English grain aphid control.

All three aphids feed in the same manner, but the greenbug is by far the most damaging. It not only sucks juices from the plant, but at the same time injects a toxin which causes discoloration and tissue destruction.

Greenbug damage usually appears as localized yellow spots within the field. As greenbug infestations increase the yellow spots become larger. Sometimes, general infestations affect entire fields.

Estimates of the greenbug infestations can be made by walking diagonally across a field and making five random counts for each 20 acres of field area. Each random count should consist of a linear foot of row.

Make counts during the warmest part of the day when greenbugs are most likely to be exposed on the above-ground part of the plant.

During inclement weather, greenbugs may congregate deep in the crown of the wheat plant. If the soil is loose or cracked around the base of the wheat plants, greenbugs may actually be below the soil line.

Under these conditions, infestation estimates will be difficult to make and control will be much less effective.

The need for an insecticide application to control greenbugs should be based on the size of the plants and number of greenbugs present. The accompanying table provides a general guide in determining need for treatment.

Many times, less than satisfactory control of greenbugs is achieved with insecticides. This may be due to several factors, such as temperature, wind, coverage, and possible resistant greenbugs.

Insecticides work most effectively when applied at temperatures above 55 degrees Fahrenheit. Wind conditions should be low and spray volume high to achieve best coverage for the most effective greenbug control.

GUIDE FOR TREATMENT OF GREENBUGS

Plant Height (inches) 3-6, 4-8, 6-16; Number of Greenbugs per linear foot, 100-300, 200-400, 300-800.

GREEN UP YEAR LAWN

In the early spring home lawns need a boost to get them in shape for the growing season just around the corner.

A turfgrass specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, suggests three operations that can get a lawn off to a good start—scalping, fertilizing and applying a weed killer.

Scalping a lawn in late winter serves to revitalize it and promote spring and summer plant growth.

Begin the operation by lowering the blade of your lawnmower one-half inch below the normal setting. Then mow the lawn in two directions that are at right angles to each other and remove the clippings after each mowing.

Duble also recommends keeping the lawnmower blade lower until mid-summer.

After scalping the lawn, apply a complete fertilizer (one containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium) to promote leaf and root growth. Use about 1 1/2 pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn area. This is equal to 10 pounds of 15-5-10 fertilizer or about 12 pounds of 12-4-8 fertilizer.

For a dark green lawn, apply nitrogen every 60 days at the rate of one pound to 1,000 square feet.

The Allison School Board Trustee election will be held April 3. Candidates for three places on the School Board are: Tom Reames, Barbara Williams, Larry Elmore, Gary Hall, Danny Rhodes, Junior Coulter and Hiram Begert. A large voter turn out is oped for in this election.

Doris Newsom and Donna Nall were Sunday afternoon callers in the Erskine and Mary Grayson home. Mary is recovering nicely from surgery, having returned from the hospital on Wednesday.

The evangelist, Dr. Griffin, who is in charge of revival services at the Baptist Church, is from Alaska. His wife however, was born in Mobeetie and grew up in Shamrock. Also assisting in the revival is Bill Hobdy, music director, from Canadian.

At the Lefors Junior High track meet, Roy Greene parti-icipated in the long jump, Kim Boydston entered discus and shotput, and Angie Purcell entered discus competition. Kim has improved a lot, throwing the discus 60 feet and the shot 21 feet. Angie threw the shot 22 feet and the discus 66 feet, placing 5th in that area at the meet.

Leon and Nadene Lane officially take over the grocery store April 1st.

Moisture began falling Friday afternoon at first in the form of sleet, later turning to snow. After an accumulation of several inches, rain fell through Monday.

Monroe and Nadene Reynolds have their grandson, Clay, from Canadian visiting with them this week.

Richard Nall was a dinner guest Wednesday evening in the home of Ed and Donna Nall.

Marki Chandler represented Allison in the Miss Irish Rose pageant at Shamrock during the St. Patrick celebration. Marki is the daughter of Kenneth and Peggy Chandler.

Some of Marki's accomplishments include: Homecoming Queen, Most Athletic, Honor Society member, member of Who's Who, FHA president, FCA president, FFA secretary, and Most Beautiful. Marki is interested in teaching kindergarten and interior design, and sports of all kinds. She did a fine job of representing Allison!

5 Supernatural Signs That Should Follow Every Believer

[Part 3]
Mark 16:17, "And these signs shall follow them that believe;...they shall speak with new tongues." Jesus Christ the Head of the Church said that this is one of 5 SUPERNATURAL signs that SHALL follow THEM THAT BELIEVE. He either meant that or He lied about it. Since He is the HEAD of the church, I choose to believe Him instead of some of His subordinates in the position of pastors, evangelists, and teachers who say that tongues have passed away or that they are of the devil. How could they be of the devil when Jesus said it was a sign following believers?

Nothing has been more helpful to me in life than the baptism in the Holy Spirit with the accompanying sign of "speaking in other tongues". The Scriptures teach that it edifies you when you pray in tongues (1 Cor. 14:4). The Word says that you speak Divine secrets when you pray in other tongues (1 Cor. 14:2). Can anybody tell me what is bad or wrong about being built up, speaking secrets in the Spirit, or talking to God? In 1 Cor. 14:17, God said that praying in tongues is "giving thanks well". It is mostly a private thing however. Paul instructed that speaking in tongues should not be done excessively in church, yet it does have its place in church. But the really great benefits to the individual come in private. 1 Cor. 14:5, "I would that ye all spake with tongues". 1 Cor. 14:18, "I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all." Acts 10:46 says the people speaking in tongues MAGNIFIED God. In Acts 2:11 it says the followers of the Lord were heard speaking the wonderful works of God in other tongues.

This month of April will be the anniversary of the night I was baptized in the Holy Spirit (16 years ago). There is much more to it than tongues, but the speaking in unknown tongues is a major part of it, and I thank my God for it. I feel sorry for people who do not pray in other tongues. Paul says it is edifying, giving thanks well, praying in the Spirit, talking to God, and not to be forbidden. The Lord Jesus Christ said believers would do it, and every New Testament writer did it. Strikes me kinda funny when people criticize and castigate us for speaking in tongues and then read the literature of tongue-talkers for their doctrine. You cannot read anything in the New Testament that was not written by someone that spoke in other tongues. If all those guys believed in it and the Head of the church said believers would do it, let's accept it and be blessed by it. Praise God.

Have you ever noticed that people who are baptized in the Holy Spirit and speak in tongues also say things like "Praise God", "Glory be to Jesus", "Hallelujah", and "Thank the Lord" more frequently than Christians without this experience? If it is from the devil, why does this happen? Looks like they would be more inclined to praise the devil, doesn't it?

IRA - THE LITTLE GUYS TAX SHELTER
Want to "make a million" in the next 30 years?
You can if you invest your money in an individual retirement account (IRA).
An IRA is a personal tax-shelter retirement savings plan for all workers -- including those covered by a pension or a profit-sharing plan.
You can set aside up to $2,000 per year and deduct the amount you invested from your gross income.

An IRA is fast becoming a "little guy's" tax shelter since it reduces tax obligations and income. It's an investment that can be deducted.
No taxes need be paid on the IRA until amounts are withdrawn beginning at age 59½ or later.
How does it work?
If you save the maximum amount -- $2,000 a year is the highest amount -- you set aside about $38 per week.
In 30 years, at a 12 percent annual interest rate, your investment will have grown to about $1 million.

Working spouses can double the maximum amount of savings. They can set aside up to $4,000 a year.
In addition, couples with only one working spouse can have an IRA for a non-working spouse.
Such a couple can contribute up to $2,250 a year and divide the amount as they desire.
And you aren't limited to only one IRA so long as the total annual contribution to all accounts doesn't exceed $2,000.

Equal deposits to two or more accounts could enable you to compare performance so long as service charges don't eat the differences in earnings.
IRA options are offered in a variety of places, including banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, mutual funds, insurance companies, stock brokers and the U.S. Treasury.

Some employers may offer their own type of IRA plans.
But, remember to study the terms and conditions of the IRA plan before investing -- there is no ceiling on what rate of interest can be paid, so the amount of earnings can vary from place to place.

You should also know what charges, if any, will be made for opening or managing an account as well as transferring funds from one account to another.

You are allowed to switch funds once a year if you are unhappy with the performance of your IRA.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

In the past few weeks we have been discussing some claims of the Bible under the general question: "How Do You Feel About the Bible?" I would like to examine one more claim of the Bible which is even more than that. It is a demand that the Bible makes of all of us who would truly please God. The Bible demands our complete respect.

First, the Bible demands that we respect it in our study. In 2 Timothy 2:15, the apostle, Paul, told the young man, Timothy, to: Study (give diligence, ASV) to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing (handling a right) the word of truth.

If the command or exhortation can be given to one who is recognized as already knowing the scriptures from his youth (2 Tim. 3:15) to work hard (literally; strive) to handle the word of truth properly, the conclusion must follow that it is not only possible, but even likely, that it might be misused.

Second, the Bible demands that we respect its authority. It's claim to be God's revelation, containing his will, demands this. In 2 Thess. 3:14, Paul, after having given commands to certain in the church at Thessalonica, gave these further instructions:

And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. He went on and said they were not to count the erring brother as and enemy, but exhort him as a brother, but the demand that they respect his instructions in this letter are none-the-less clear.

Finally, the Bible demands that we respect it's integrity. This means that we must be willing to accept it as it is, without trying to alter it by additions and or subtractions. God has always demanded this of his people. He demanded it of Israel under the old covenant.

Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you. (Deut. 4:2)

Paul, to the church at Corinth:

Now these things, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things that are written: that no one of you might be puffed up the one against the other.

The length of this article precludes the citing of more of the numerous passages that bear out this idea. If you care to read them for yourself, a few are: Matthew 4:4, 2 Peter 3:15-16, and Revelation 22:18-19. The Bible demands that we respect its integrity.

I NEED YOUR HELP.

The approaching School Board Election, April 3, 1982, will be of vital importance to each taxpayer and parent of school age children in the Wheeler Independent School District. The possibility of increased taxes due to new State legislation requires the Wheeler School District to examine its priorities.

It is my belief that every student should have the best possible education Wheeler can offer. Each student should have ample opportunities in which to excel according to the student's interest and abilities. A balanced curriculum must include academics, vocational programs, music, art, and physical education as well as athletics and other extra-curricular activities.

My teaching experience has included all types of students in both large and small towns. As a teacher of the learning disabled, I have observed that students who can not read will be handicapped in all classes. Special reading classes at all levels of learning skills would be a major interest to me. I believe that teacher input at board meetings concerning their problems and needs would be a benefit to the school system. I believe that increased interaction between parents and teachers would be in the interest of the student. As a business woman, I am well-acquainted with financial problems the board must handle.

The Wheeler School District has recently completed extensive expansion and remodeling of the school's facilities. These accomplishments include: new gymnasium, new football field house, new lights and seating for the football field, modern scenic lighting for the auditorium stage, expanded parking areas, four new much needed classrooms, additional teachers, aides, teaching specialists, and increased budgets in all academic areas. These endeavors are particularly timely due to the recent tax laws passed by the State legislature. All property in the State will be taxed based on 100% valuation and could result in increased taxes. However, due to Proposition 6 in last November's election, the school board can give a tax break to property owners equal to what the State laws allow. The School Board should work for a budget that offers quality education but would allow a livable tax rate for home owners, farmers, and ranchers. Any new expenditures should be for expanded learning facilities.

If you believe as I do in a balanced curriculum for all students while maintaining livable taxes, then it is essential to go to the polls on April 3rd, and cast your vote for Bobbye Hill, Place 4.

Here And There

by Laura Guthrie

Again the men in space have shown us that it can be done. Wasn't that a beautiful landing in the White Sands! Maybe not so awesome as landing on the moon. But still, with breath abated I watched the mighty machine touch the earth.

Next Saturday we will have the excitement of Election. You may think that it is a small thing but I must say again and again-what a privilege it is to have a vote. Let me plead with you not to neglect this privileged and duty. Just think for a minute! Suppose in order to vote we had to face the "hardliners" with guns. Suppose we had to sneak through hiding, climb walls, wade through underbrush, to escape a gun that was trying to keep us from voting. I'm not making this up. Surely you have been keeping up with maneuvers in San Salvador. Despite all their hindrances the people got to the poles-the biggest vote they had ever had. Why? Because their rights were in danger. We are not in such a state! We could be. Exercise your rights while you are at liberty. And remember—the lack of your vote defeats your choice. It is the people that stay at home that lose the election. In San Salvador the ones that do not come to vote are called "No Shows." Well I hope that next Saturday the "No Shows" are few.

Last week I really had some surprises. One afternoon a strange car loaded with strange women parked in my driveway. At least I thought they were strangers. But on introduction, I found I had known Rita Smith and Sarah Smith Fitzgerald since 1917! I had seen them very seldom since 1920. But they still live in the same community where we knew each other when we were "just girls." They live at Abernathy. That is where I finished high school. The other women also lived at Abernathy and were along for the trip.

On that same afternoon, my friends Doris Schoeter of El Paso and Frances Sellers of Almodorda, N.M. came by. Elva Wood was with them. They were spending the night with Elva. They had been a week or so in Pampa with their mother, Lela Wilson who had some surgery. However Lela had by then returned to Leisure Lodge and was feeling quite well.

My neighbor, Ella Clemens spent the weekend in Pampa with friends. She attended several sessions of a Revival at the First Baptist Church.

Nelly Horton spent last week in Dallas with a brother, Lee Carson and his wife Louise. Nellie shortened her travel time by flying to Dallas. Bud Holdeman has returned from a flight to New Orleans where he visited with his daughter.

Sallie Harris' home was used last week as a meeting place for her daughter, Vineta Hopkins of Albuquerque and a long time friend, Elaine Dalrymple from Ft. Worth. The women had not seen each other for twenty five years. Sallie had the time of her life being hostess to them.

I'm being kept on my toes a bit this week. Grandson Joe, of Canadian is now employed at our local Thriftway and is staying with me. Well-cooking for a long, lanky boy isn't quite like the bits and bites of the elderly, but I like it.

Lydia and Melinda and a friend Willidene Sorensen of Canadian visited a short time with me on Sunday afternoon. Willidene also visited with her daughter Phillis Sorensen.

Larry Jennings. Mona has attended Wheeler schools since first grade, and will be a senior next year.

Local Students Being Tested

Students at the Wheeler schools will be participating in the school district's annual spring SRA Achievement Testing program beginning March 29 and running through April 16.

All of those students in grades 1 through 12 who were pretested in October will be involved in the current post-test.

"Achievement testing is vital to the school's total academic program; comments Dewey Shepard, Wheeler school counselor. "It helps the classroom teacher to identify where their students are academically as related to where they should be."

Earlier last week Wheeler students received a school newsletter to take home to their parents explaining the current testing program and the procedures to be followed. Any parent wishing to learn more about the school's testing program can contact Dewey Shepard at his high school office.
