Makes Donation

The Xi Upsilon Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has made a donation of $70.00 to the tornado disaster victims in the Wichita Falls and Vernon area. Xi Upsilon Eta was advised that much has been donated in the way of clothing, food, furniture, etc. The donation was sent to the Bank of the Southwest in Amarillo where a fund has been established. Other clubs or organizations interested in donating money to this cause can mail their checks to: The Bank of the Southwest, Wichita Falls Disaster Fund, Box 3370, Amarillo, Texas, 79106. From Page 1 Lesson

"If we can stay healthy and get some breaks, we can go to the Cotton Bowl," says Verden. "We're got the material, but must stick together as a team. Personally, I just want to help the team out. Whatever comes after that, is fine.

"If we do go all the way, Coach Dockery will be a major reason. He's a good coach who doesn't mind getting in and working with the players. He'll take you off to the side and correct you, whereas some coaches merely oversee practice."

Verden has half his college career ahead of him, but visions of pro football dance in his head.

"I have thought about pro ball," says Verden. "But I'm not worring about it. If I get the opportunity, I'll play."

Whether he does or not, one thing is certain-Jim Verden has
