COMMITTEE WILL CHECK INTO 'HAY DAY FOR AREA'

The Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting Tuesday night at Nora's Cafe. Entertainment was furnished by Bob Patterson and two of his students, Mike Holt and Dwight Ford, who played guitars and Mike Holt doubled as vocalist.

Betty Risner gave the financial report for the Chamber and also announced the number of paid members to be 45. An additional 45 names of prospective members were divided among the membership committee.

It was recognized that a better turnout is needed at each meeting. The Chamber of Commerce is an organization for the betterment of the community; it is hoped that his fac will be realized and more area people interested in this goal will join.

The president, Hyland Weaver announced that the Mobeetie Appreciation Banquet will be early next fall because of so many end-of-school-activities.

Weaver also stated that there is a possibility of work beginning in June on the paving and curbing of Shamrock Street.

Charles Jackson was introduced for the presentation of some startling facts concerning hay production. Jackson reported the amount of hay produced and the income resulting. He suggested an agriculture committee be appointed to look into the possibility of holding a Hay Day.

The committee consists of Harold Loyd Lee, Charles Jackson, Dennis Wilks and Archie Hibler.

The Chamber is going to hold a Dog Vaccination and tagging to be held as soon as arrangements for a veterinarian can be made.

Effort Is Being Made To Offer Driver Training

The Wheeler School Board and Arling Cordell, superintendent of schools, are exploring the possibility of offering a summer course in Driver Education.

According to Mr. Cordell, the class and its teacher would have to be paid for entirely by fees from each student. A fee of approximately $25 would be charged for each student. The state department of Education does not provide money for this training.

Mr. Cordell says at least 20 pupils would be needed for this class. These pupils would have to be at least 14 years old and still in school. They would be required 42 actual clock hours of instruction, probably spread over a period of 6 weeks.

This class would be open to anyone of the above requirements, whether they live in this community or not.

If you are interested, please let Mr. Cordell know as soon as possible. "We will need to do several things as soon as we can in order to be ready for the class to start after school ends," stated Mr. Cordell.

1964 Texas Wheat Referendum Program

Texas Wheat growers along with those of other wheat-producing states will participate in a referendum May 21, 1963 to determine a program for the 1964 wheat crop. Wheeler County has 391 eligible voters.

Who Is Eligible To Vote
All farmers who have a 1964 wheat allotment are eligible to vote. However, if a farmer's allotment is 15 acres or less, he must register at the county ASCS office. By doing so, he agrees that if the program should be approved by the necessary two-thirds majority, he will plant within his allotment and thus be eligible to receive price supports and diversion payments. This registration must take place not less than 7 days before the referendum date.

Alternatives
There are two immediate alternatives:
(1) If more than one-third of the votes are "no", acreage allotments will remain in effect and price supports will be available at 50 percent of parity or about $1.20 per bushel for growers who plant within their allotments. If growers choose to overplant, the only penalty would be the loss of price support.

(2) If more than two-thirds of the producers who participate in the referendum vote "yes", the provisions of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962, described following, will become effective.

Provisions of the 1964 Program

National Marketing Quota. If more than two-thirds of the votes are "yes", the Secretary of Agriculture will be required to determine a national marketing quota based on the estimated demands for wheat for domestic needs and export. Also considered in the national marketing quota will be our small volume of imports and the desire to reduce CCC stocks. The quota cannot be less than 1 billion bushels and, according to the Secretary of Agriculture's current estimate, will be set at 1.2 billion bushels for 1964.

National Acreage Allotment. To furnish the number of bushels required for the national marketing quota, a national acreage allotment will be set by the Secretary of Agriculture. To make this calculation, he will consider expected yields normal abandonment and expected underplantings as well as the amount of wheat to be removed from CCC stocks. Exact acreage is to be announced before the referendum date, but the Secretary's present estimate is 49.5 million acres. The 55 million acre minimum allotment is no longer in effect.

National Marketing Allocation. The national marketing allocation will be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with provisions of the Act and will be a percentage of the National Marketing Quota. It will include consumption in the U.S. and "most" of the wheat moving into export. The Secretary of Agriculture estimates the national marketing allocation to be about 925 million bushels in 1964.

Farm Marketing Allocation. The marketing allocation for a farm is determined by multiplying the farm acreage allotment for 1964 x the established normal yield for the farm x the national marketing allocation percentage (expected to be about 80 percent in 1964).

Price Support Levels. The amount of wheat deemed necessary as the national marketing allocation (i.e., for human consumption and most from 65 to 90 percent of parity). The Secretary of Agriculture has indicated that this price for the 1964 wheat crop will be set at $2 per bushel as a national average, and will be paid on about 80 percent of the normal production of a farm's acreage allotment.

If a farmer remains within his 1964 allotment and produces some wheat in excess of his farm marketing allocation, this excess production will be supported at "such a price level as the Secretary determines appropriate." He will take into consideration, "competitive world prices of wheat, the feeding value of wheat in relation to feed grains and the level which for feed grains." This price as estimated by the Secretary for 1964 is about $1.30.

Mandatory Diversion. The proposed program provides for a mandatory diversion which is computed by subtracting the national acreage allotment from 55 million acres and dividing this difference by the number of acres in the national acreage allotment. For 1964, based on preliminary USDA releases, the mandatory diversion will be 10 percent. This land must be diverted to soil conserving or other prescribed uses and the farmer will be eligible for diversion payments at the rate of 30 percent of the county support rate x his established yield x the acreage diverted.

Voluntary Diversion. A farmer may divert up to 20 percent of his 1964 acreage allotment (in addition to his mandatory diversion) and be eligible for diversion payments at the rate of 50 percent of the diversion payments at the rate of 50 percent of the county support rate x established yield x acres diverted.

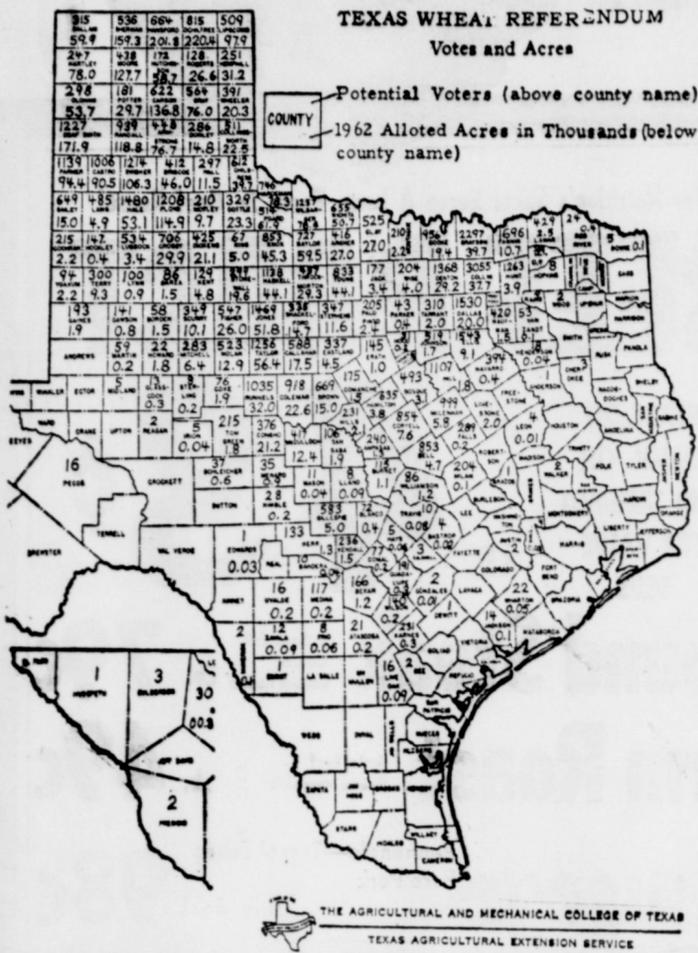

Overplanting. Producers who overplant will be subject to penalties which can be avoided by storing in addition to losing price support and diversion benefits. The excess production or by paying a penalty of 65 percent of the wheat parity price. Overplanted wheat production will be computed at twice the established yield x the excess acreage, unless the producer can prove the actual production of the excess acreage.

Small Farm and Feed Wheat Exemptions. The provisions under which a farmer could plant up to 15 acres of wheat for sale or up to 30 acres for feed without penalty are terminated. The 1964 program provides that farms which grew wheat under the 15-acre rule in 1959, 1960 or 1961 will have an allotment (1) based on their average acreage for these 3 years less 10 percent or (2) as determined in the same way as the allotments on larger farms. ASCS will assign to the farm the larger of the two.

Example of Operation of the 1964 Wheat Program
Assumptions: 1963 wheat allotment—100 acres
Established yield—25 bu. per ac.
Sample county support rate:
Farm allocation wheat $2.00 per bu.

Excess wheat $1.30 per bu.
Based on these assumptions and information released by the Secretary of Agriculture, the 1964 wheat allotment for this farm would be 90 acres. Thus, the farmer must divert 10 acres (10 percent of his 1963 allotment) to soil-conserving uses. For this diversion he would earn 30 percent x the county support price x established yield x acres diverted, or 30 percent x $2 x 25 bu. x 10 acres equals $150.

This farmer could plant his 90-acre allotment of wheat and market it as explained later, or he could choose to divert an additional 20 percent of his 1964 allotment to soil conserving uses. If he chose to divert this additional acreage, he would earn diversion payments as follows: 90-acre allotment x 20 percent or 18 acres eligible for diversion; therefore, payment would be 50 percent x $2 x 25 bu. x 18 a. or $450.

is assumed to be supported at $2 (sample county average). The marketing allocation is determined by the Secretary of Agriculture and he has indicated that present plans are for 80 percent of normal production to be certified. For this example farm, certificated wheat would be 80 percent x 90 acres x 25 bushels or 1,800 bushels. If we assume an average yield, this 1,800 bushels could be produced on 72 acres. Thus, the farmer could produce wheat on the remaining 18 acres of his allotment for sale at $1.30 x 25 bushels x 18 acres or $585 gross from which would have to be deducted production expenses. The other alternative—that of voluntary diversion—would gross the farmer $450 from which would be deducted the cost of soil-conserving practices applied to the land.

Other Facts

1. The referendum will apply only to the 1964 wheat crop.
2. Marketing certificates are not negotiable except that they may be purchased by CCC at the face value of the difference between the price of certificated wheat and excess wheat.
3. If a feed grain program which includes diverted acreage is in effect in 1964, the feed grain and wheat acreage will be interchangeable in both programs.
4. The Act allows the Secretary of Agriculture to expand the wheat acreage allotment for any type of wheat if he deems that allotments are insufficient to provide the amount of the type of wheat required.

The Decision Is Up To You

1. The program described here You can have:
2. Acreage allotments with support of about $1.20 to $1.25 per bushel, but with no penalty for overplanting except price support.

Some alternatives are: 1. Acreage should be sold to rent or some other use.

Time and Rate of Fertilizer

Knowing the proper time to feed your grass is just as important as knowing what to feed it. Turf requires frequent feedings to remain green and vigorous throughout the growing season. Turfed areas should receive an application of complete fertilizer in the spring and early fall.

The spring application on Bermuda, and St. Augustine should be made about the time the grass is beginning to grow. Fall applications of complete fertilizer should be made about 30 days before the average first frost date. Perennial ryegrass and bluegrass lawns should have the applications about September 1 to 15 and April 1 to 15. Generally a fertilizer with a 1-1-1 or a 2-1-1 ratio should be used and applied at a rate of 2 pounds actual nitrogen per 1,000 sq. ft. Bermuda and St. Augustine lawns should receive 1 pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet every 20 to 30 days during the growing season. These applications of complete fertilizer, will keep the lawn green and vigorous.

Cool-season perennials such as bluegrass usually do not require applications of nitrogen in addition to the complete fertilizer.

Types of Fertilizer

Some home owners may prefer to prepare home mixes. An excellent turf fertilizer may be prepared by mixing one part of commercial fertilizer, such as 12-24-12 to 10-10-10, with two parts of cottonseed meal. These materials may be applied separately or as a mixture at the rate of 25 to 30 pounds per 1,000 square feet in the fall and again in the spring. Twenty to 25 pounds of 10-5-5 organic base fertilizer may be substituted for this mixture.

Watering

Watering in the maintenance practice that most often is done incorrectly. Lawns should never be watered until the grass shows a definite need. Grass suffering from lack of moisture takes on a definite sheen and the plants wilt and curl. When this occurs, the lawn should be soaked thoroughly to a depth of 6 inches or more. Soaking the lawn until top soil and sub-soil moisture meet would be ideal. Apply water only as fast as the soil can absorb it. Light sprinkling are never recommended except during excessively hot spells following a prolonged period of heavy rainfall. Light daily sprinkling during this time reduce scalding.

Deep watering of 6 inches or more encourages development of a deep root system capable of utilizing more efficiently the nutrients deep in the soil.

Aeration

Soil compaction is a major turf problem where the turf is subject to wear. This condition may be corrected by aeration, making small holes in the topsoil. This may be done with a hand-aerifier with a hollow-tined fork or with a four-pronged spading fork. Implements that remove small plugs are best. Power-driven machines are available for use on large areas, such as golf courses and athletic fields.

Aerifying the soil is a means of loosening the soil to allow: (1) air (oxygen) to get into the soil, which is essential for root development; (2) water to move into and through the soil; and (3) the soil to hold more water. It also prevents compaction which in turn prevents soil erosion and plant food loss through surface runoff. Eliminating the compacted condition is necessary for proper air-water relationships which make for vigorous, healthy turf that is resistant to disease and drought. Frequently used parts of the lawn should be aerated as often as necessary to keep the soil in a good physical condition.

Mowing

Improper mowing is responsible for the deterioration of many lawns. Mowing too close encourages thinning of the turf and shallow rooting, resulting in lower resistance to drought, diseases and invasion by weeds. Clipping too high results in many of the same problems. Mowing too close also allows excessive oil drying and baking and heat damage to grass during the summer.

The leaves not only produce the desired green color, but they are necessary for the manufacture of food required by the entire plant. When too much of the leaves are clipped off, the entire plant suffers. Removing 2 inches or more at one mowing is a severe shock to the turfgrass. The grass should be mowed often enough that not more than 1/2 inch of the leaf tip is removed at any one clipping. Most grasses should be mowed when they are 1 1/2 to 2 inches high.

Attendance

Members of the Thursday Review Club attending the convention were Mmes Bob Henderson, E. M. Moore, Harrison Hall, David Britt, R. J. Holt, Jr., and Paul Millet. Mrs. George Porter, Mrs. D. O. Beene and Mrs. R. H. Forrester represented the Wednesday Study Club.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
PAL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	8	1-9
Monday	Psalms	1	1-6
Tuesday	John	15	1-4
Wednesday	John	15	12-17
Thursday	Luke	8	4-15
Friday	Romans	12	9-19
Saturday	John	4	19-24

Lonely, gnarled, and neglected, but a thing of beauty, isn't it?

We know that trees are functional, that is, they hold the soil, the good earth, the rain. But more than that, each tree, in loneliness or forest, sings out the praises of its Creator, God.

Much more so, does man reflect the glory and image of God. He too then, must sing out the praise and honor to God, his Creator. There is a place for that worship and honor; it is your church. Whether lonely, solitary, or in crowds, He awaits you . . . to hear and to answer.

ALL ABOUT YOUR SCHOOL

By Arling Cordell

This weekend brings many out of town activities at Lubbock for the regional entries in Literary, Speech and Track and Field Events—to San Antonio for the Key Club Convention—to Dallas for the F.H.A. Convention.

We are happy to have Dub Goad and Virgil Patterson on our Board of Education. The board, as reorganized on Thursday evening, consists of Harrison Hall, president; Lewis Lancaster, vice-president; Harold Kenady, Secretary; and members Roy Ford, Lindsey McCasland together with Dub and Virgil. We are grateful to Archie Hibler and Clyde Johnson for their years of service to the school and community. We regret that their time on the board has come to an end.

WHEELER COUNTY Soil Conservation News . . .

What has happened to the Wildlife? We often hear comments such as this when we have difficulty in finding game and fish. Often with very little trouble we could keep wildlife on the farm.

No matter what the major purpose, anything done on the land for soil and water conservation also produces something wildlife needs. Many Conservation practices produce additional food and water and other practices provide a safe place to raise their young, hide or travel unseen by their natural enemies.

More and more conservation farmers and ranchers are making double sure that wildlife has what it needs. Small areas can be plowed and allowed to grow wild with weeds for food. Low shrubs and plants that bear fruit and seeds especially liked by wildlife are included in windbreaks and other odd areas. Brush is piled here and there to provide cover for wildlife. A few outer rows of grain crops may be left standing bordering protected areas or game feeders located over the farm to provide additional food supply.

"Odd areas" on farms and ranches can be managed for wild-life.

These areas include such places as fence corners, rocky spots, blowouts, abandoned roads and good land isolated by ditches, streams and gullies. Stock ponds should be protected by fencing and keeping out silt. The shallower portions when properly planted will give suitable cover and food to water fowl and fish.

Wildlife, if managed correctly, can be a very good source of income. Many thousands of dollars are made each year by farmers and ranchers selling fishing and hunting rights. Wildlife is a crop of the land. Hunting and fishing opportunities are affected by the way farmers and ranchers manage their land. Where they apply soil and water conservation practices more wildlife results.
