All the people came to my house for Thanksgiving. I like the turkey and the ham and the green beans, not the dressing and the sweet-a-tatetas. We ate food and played all the days we didn't go to school.

Now I go to school and ballet. It's almost my Christmas program at my school. I have to go to ballet and hurry back for my program then I go to ballet again. Sometimes I go to ballet rehearsal at night. I go to sleep in the car and my Dad has to carry me upstairs. It's a busy-busy time and it's almost my Birthday! That's it.

Lister. The meeting was called to order by President Melissa Lister. Mildred Barefoot introduced Cindy and Lewayne Foshee of Pampa. Cindy is the president of the Gray County Genealogy Society. She is also President/Director of the LDS Family Research Center.

Cindy gave each person a booklet titled "Guide To Using www.familysearch.org"

The booklet explains step by step how to navigate this genealogy website. The LDS Church holds the largest holdings of genealogical records in the world. The LDS Church is striving to provide these records to any interested individual at no cost with only a computer and an internet connection. According to Cindy, they are developing a site that is constantly evolving into what will become the most used site on the internet for genealogical research.

Our next regular meeting will be at 7pm, January 13, 2009, at the Ziegler House in Shamrock. Anyone interested in genealogy is always welcome. We meet on the second Tuesday of each month,

Mrs. Johnsons first grade class at Kelton drew Indian symbols in paper and they placed them in the gymnasium locker rooms. The students then put on their Indian attire and took their flashlights to explore the Indian Caves. The students have been learning about the Indians over the past few weeks.

Spending the Thanksgiving weekend in Irving, Texas, were Paul and Clarise Hathaway of Mobeetie; Shelly and Karsyn Malone and Jimmy and Kimberly Morgan, all of Wheeler; Dale, Kathy, Jada, Sara and Kade Hathaway of Elk City; Roy and Lona Hathaway, Lorinda Allen, Jerry, Benita, Jeric and Bravea Griffin, all of Queen City, Texas; Erika Morgan of Amarillo, Keadron Morgan of Lubbock and Krista Johnston and Grant Carver of Carrollton. Paul and Roy are brothers and some of their families usually meet on this weekend for a family get-together. They enjoyed visiting, eating, and, of course, lots of shopping. The weekend highlight was the engagement announcement of Krista Johnston and Grant Carver. Krista is the daughter of Jimmy and Kimberly Morgan and the late Larry Johnston. Her grandparents are Paul and Clarise Hathaway and Lucy Johnston. The families had a wonderful time and were very thankful for family time.

We had a very enjoyable 5th Sunday Singing at Wheeler Baptist Church Sunday night. Hayley Sparks did sign language to a song; Dianne Sparks sang a song; Gracie Gaines and cousin, Grace Roberson, sang songs; Sue Gaines and sister, Carol Roberson, and Rebekka Roberson and Seth sang songs. Also singing were Weldon Simmons, Abby Bond, Jake Ware with guitar and Mike Bryant with Wes Bradstreet. Martha Meek played the harmonica with good songs; Daniel Roberson gave a good reading, as did Dolores Simmons, Leona Coates and Taylor Sparks. All very inspirational. Thank you all! A great program.

Artie Tidwell had a whole houseful of family and friends to visit with her during the holidays. Know they had fun.

Paul and Clarise Hathaway hosted Thanksgiving lunch on Sunday, Nov. 23, at their home in Mobeetie. Attending were Dale and Kathy Hathaway and Sara, Jada and Kade Hathaway of Elk City, Oklahoma; Jason and Diana Hathaway of Amarillo; Wesley and Katie Hathaway of Canadian; Dean and Nikki Hathaway and Breanne and Brittaney and Jimmy and Kimberly Morgan and Karsyn Malone, of Wheeler; Aspen Hathaway of Amarillo; Joe Hathaway and Wade and Gayla Hathaway and Andrea and Brandon, of Mobeetie and Erika Morgan of Amarillo. Granddaughters Krista Johnston and Shelly Malone were proudly cheering on the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. Ed and Laurel Hershman spent last week at Thousand Trails Campground near Whitesboro, Texas. They had a wonderful Thanksgiving dinner with about 300 other campers. They had a restful, enjoyable time, beautiful weather and colors of fall. Some visiting Ned Burrell over the holidays were Jennifer and Jessie Banks and little Emma Ray (23 months) and LaDonna and Mike Honeycutt of Pampa. Enjoyable visits.

From last week: Sorry I forgot to add the terrible news that Robert Johnson and his family lost their home to fire the weekend before Thanksgiving. Even though the volunteer fire dept. responded quickly, the house seems to be a total loss. We are so sorry that they lost their home and most of their belongings, but, thank goodness, every one was safe! That's the trouble with these old houses...they seem to be such tinderboxes. The firefighters did a good job with what they had to work with and had it under control quite quickly. Then, when it was out, they let a truck and crew make sure that no hot spots flared

That meant so much to each of them. They were sad to see her leave. Shelley will be greatly missed.

Our sympathy to Rita Carol Richardson and the family and friends of Clois Richardson in his death in Perryton very early on Friday morning. to the Perryton hospital and some short stays, he enjoyed being with his boys. Services were held on Tuesday in Elk City. Leola Stuart drove in to Wheeler and met Jerry and Cheryl Richardson to go to Elk City to their cousin's funeral. At least, the weather is supposed to cooperate.

Saturday, Bo Dunn of Amarillo called Peggy Dunn to let her know that he had Kathy in the hospital with a possible heart attack. After doing an angiogram, they found a blood clot so gave her a clot buster shot. She was on her way home Monday afternoon. It was quite scary, but thankfully, wasn't a heart attack. Kathy is the daughter of Wesley and Helen Steen of Wheeler. Thank goodness that Mattie lives close enough that she can help with the children. Hope you're feeling much better, Kathy, and will soon be good as new.

Glad to hear that Dale and Barbara Richardson are doing quite well. Barbara is still working at the hospital.

Clinton and Maurita Stribling had a very happy Thanksgiving when they hosted the smiling faces and hungry tummies of 33 members of their family and extended family. Activities began on Tuesday night with Tom and Debbie and Craig and Brandee's families arriving in their travel trailers with extra food to add to the holiday feast table. Those joining for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner were Tom, Debbie, Jerome Schulze, Darius Kimberling, Wesley, Anna and Kelsy Stribling of Happy; Brandee, Craig, Cory and J.D. Hamilton of Turkey; Roy, Cindy and Shane Stribling; Nikki and Cambrie Filyaw, Crystal, Jason and Tyler of Elk City, OK.; Natasha, Toby and Larah Collins of Wheeler; Johnny and Carol Chatham, Seth Stribling and Candi of Pampa; Ken, Debbie, Grant and Garrett Carpenter of Mustang, OK. and Louise Hogan of Mobeetie. They all had a wondenul time. Craig and Brandee's boys had a blast. Sorry that Brandee got sick on Wednesday and didn't get to help with much. Thursday was even worse and she didn't even come out of the trailer. So sorry you had such a rough time, Brandee. One of the biggest events of the day was the fact that both Darius and Jerome went hunting and each shot an 8point deer. Quite a trophy for them! They were so excited. They had shot them early enough that they had plenty of time to get them up to Grandad's barn and with a little help from the other guys, had them both dressed and hanging out before Granny had dinner ready. Believe me, they were very careful with those beautiful racks. Congratulations, boys; great job! We had some family here for Thanksgiving. Mom and Shannon came down from Dumas early on Thursday morning. Mearl and Frances Guthrie of Pampa followed them in the yard. Then, Tim and Jayden arrived in Dad's big truck...Jayden in his dress-Jerzee sweatsuit, lited tennis shoes and black cowboy hat. Jennifer and the girls were coming in the pickup. Jeff arrived with a load of stuff for storage. They had it all unloaded and settled in when Sky and the girls showed up. Jeff and Sky have been moving all week so are almost ready to go back to work so they don't have to work so hard. HA!HA! Sorry that Mearl Guthrie has another bout with pneumonia, so had to enter the Pampa hospital for a few days. Get well soon, Mearl.

Local Student To Perform In "Nutcracker" At Weatherford

atre, the area's pre-professional ballet company in its 32nd season, is preparing the full-length Christmas ballet classic

The Nutcracker for the stage. Public performances are slated for Saturday, December 13 at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, December 14 at 2:00 p.m. at the Fine Arts Center of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children, students, and senior citizens, and may be reserved by calling (580) 323-7400 or purchased at the door.

Preparations have been underway since October for the production, which includes 63 dancers and performers from seven Western Oklahoma communities this year: Clinton, Weatherford, Elk City, Burns Flat, Butler, Hydro, and Thomas. In addition, two Texas communities - Wheeler and Dallas - have participants as well. This year's production will feature Western Oklahoma Ballet Theatre company dancers and apprentices in all the major dancing roles, plus young dancers from the Western Oklahoma Ballet Academy and other area performers.

The Nutcracker, which premiered in 1892, is a world-famous extravaganza performed in hundreds of cities annually. It is based on a story by E.T.A. Hoffmann about a young girl and the magic of Christmas, and is danced to the well-known music by Peter Ilyich Tchaikovsky. This year marks WOBT's 25th fulllength production, which includes a Christmas tree that grows, an epic battle between giant mice and toy soldiers, a snow forest complete with falling snow, and a delicious Kingdom of the Sweets where dancing delicacies perform.

"This ballet has something for everyone," according to WOBT Artistic Director Penny Askew, in her 21st season of directing the award-winning company. "Comedy, drama, action, and lots of wonderful dancing...it's great holiday entertainment for the whole family!" In addition to the two public shows slated, WOBT is presenting a Children's Concert of the ballet to area elementary schools on Monday, December 15. Schools attending include Carnegie Elementary, Waukomis Elementary, and students from the Western Oklahoma Christian School and Weatherford's

Western Oklahoma Ballet The- Burcham Elementary and East Elementary.

Funding for this production is provided by the Oklahoma Arts Council, the National Endowment for the Arts, and by generous donations from WOBT's Ballet Pa-
