Reinforcements Go To Far East

SINGAPORE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Allied Generalissimo Sir Archibald P. Wavell declared today that Britain and the United States are sending "great reinforcements" to the Southwest Pacific battle area and called upon his fighting men not to retreat another step before the Japanese onslaught.

Churchill Shifts Cabinet Members

LONDON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill created the new cabinet post of minister of war production today, an assignment aimed specifically at peak cooperation between Britain and the United States, and entrusted it to Lord Beaverbrook, one of his most valued aides.

British Move Out Of Fort At Derna

LONDON, Feb. 4 (AP)—The British have withdrawn from Derna, 160 miles northeast of Benghazi and 95 miles from Tobruk, in their retreat in Libya, a military commentator said today.

The commentator said that was the meaning of a Middle East communique from Cairo which announced imperial rearguards had "completed their movement about Derna" and had rejoined the main British column.

The main British force in Libya was declared, however, not yet to have clashed with the Axis assault troops which now have pushed roughly two-thirds of the way back from El Agheila, highwater mark of Britain's westward drive, to the starting point on the Egyptian frontier.

The action so far has involved only patrols and covering units, British sources said.

87 Per Cent Of City Tax Roll Is Paid

A satisfactory record of 1941 tax collections is shown by the city of Big Spring, in a final check of receipts through January 31. The past month brought in $19,440.05, records of Comptroller H. W. Whitney show, to bring the year's total collections to $96,618.25.

Including discounts and collections due under the half-yearly and quarterly payment plan, the collection will be close to 87 per cent of the current roll, Whitney estimated. The city's budget for the current year anticipated 85 per cent collections.

Revenue from delinquent taxes also has been good, January's receipts amounting to $1,287, to bring the year's total to $23,284. This is considerably better than the budget anticipation of $15,000.

Two Boys Taken For Theft Of Bicycle

Two young boys were turned over to the juvenile court Wednesday following their apprehension by city police for theft of a bicycle.

The missing bicycle was reported Tuesday night, and in about an hour officers had recovered it and arrested the lads.

Little Dog Goes To Big Pal's Aid As St. Bernard Breaks Through Ice

CORUNNA, Ont., Feb. 4 (AP)—Inseparable pals are Major, an 18-month-old 175-pound St. Bernard, and Porky, a little mongrel of questionable ancestry.

Major hasn't yet reached maturity as far as dog sense goes, and thereby hangs a tale. In warm weather Major liked to swim in the St. Clair river. Yesterday he went down and tried to pioneer on ice. Major is a lot of dog for thin ice—too much, in fact—and into the water he went.

How long he kept paddling around, breaking more ice as he tried to crawl out, nobody knows. But if it wasn't for his pal Porky—his eight years old—Major mightn't be alive today.

Porky made a beeline for his master, Capt. Bernard Zink of the oil tanker Britanoline, meanwhile sending up distress signals in dog language. Quite a few persons, among them Captain Zink, followed Porky back to the river bank.

They weren't able to do anything so Porky went back to town again. Soon others arrived, but all they could do was to push a long pole to Major, who by this time was too exhausted to do anything but put his paws on it.

It was then that Porky, a runt compared to the St. Bernard, jumped in to aid his pal. There was a lot of splashing, but Porky finally hauled his heavy burden close enough to shore so that the two could be pulled to safety.

Major was too weak to stand, but today he was up to bones again.

Lend-Lease Fund Due To Grow Larger

New, Faster System Of Distributing War Goods Worked Out

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Official sources said today lend-lease appropriations now total $28,400,000,000 and probably would be increased by several more billion dollars in the next few weeks.

At the same time, they revealed fundamental changes in lend-lease procedure designed to simplify and speed up the pooling of the resources of the United Nations in line with President Roosevelt's recent announcement concerning joint raw materials, munitions and shipping arrangements.

Direct appropriations to lend-lease total $13,000,000,000, and officials pointed out provisions were inserted in recent military, naval and maritime appropriations earmarking additional large amounts for lend-lease.

Under new procedure, the direct lend-lease appropriations will be used, in the future, only for food, raw materials and other non-military items.

Hereafter, for instance, lend-lease airplanes will be supplied out of the Army and Navy appropriations. Merchant ships will come out of the maritime commission funds. The recent army air corps appropriation specifically provided that $4,000,000,000 worth of the material could be used for lend-lease purposes.

Similarly, the Navy appropriation which has been approved by both houses of congress contains a $2,000,000,000 lend-lease item. The recent maritime commission appropriation authorized the leasing of $1,000,000,000 of new merchant vessels to our allies.

The new method of handling military supplies for lend-lease was devised to obviate the necessity of negotiating separate contracts for American and lend-lease needs.

Formerly, if the British wanted 1,000 airplanes, they filed a request to the Army or Navy, which did the actual contracting. The lend-lease agency never did any buying itself; only kept the books.

Under the new system, the Army will set out to buy all the airplanes it can, and the new joint United States-British munitions assignment board will figure out what country can use the planes to the best advantage of the allied cause. Lend-lease will still keep the books, however.

Japanese Expeditions Face Heavy Attacks From US Air, Sea Forces

British Hasten Defense Work As Japanese Bomb Singapore

SINGAPORE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Artillery batteries on Singapore island roared into action again today, blasting away at Japanese troop movements on the Malayan mainland as enemy air raiders unleashed new attacks on this island fortress.

Despite the sudden flurry of artillery and air activity, there was no sign that the Japanese were about to begin their expected attempt to cross Johore Strait, and a communique described the general situation as unchanged.

The announcement said the new Japanese air assaults had caused some damage but few military casualties.

It was acknowledged officially, however, that 22 persons were killed and 80 injured by air raiders yesterday.

At the same time it was disclosed that anti-aircraft guns had shot down two, and probably three, Japanese planes over the island Sunday and Monday.

Taking advantage of each passing hour free from attack, soldiers and civilians labored shoulder to shoulder today to strengthen Singapore's defenses while anti-aircraft crews manned their guns to ward off Japanese air raiders.

In the tangled mangrove swamps along Johore Strait, across which the Japanese were massing on the Malayan mainland, troops familiar with the art of camouflage cunningly masked new machine-gun nests, rifle pits and gun emplacements with which every chink in the island's armor was being stoppered.

Battle-hardened imperial troops, meanwhile, worked swiftly to instruct newly arrived reinforcements in tricks of war learned in the Malayan jungles, where for more than six weeks they fought the invaders.

British military men declared every day the Japanese delayed in launching their expected assault would make the attack more difficult and more costly.

A German radio broadcast heard last night in London acknowledged that the Japanese would "face a heavy task" if they tried to take Singapore. "Singapore still has enough and more than enough defense potentialities," the broadcast said.

Singapore's cosmopolitan population appeared to be accepting stoically the repeated raids by Japanese bombers which were generally regarded as preliminary to an attempted push across Johore Strait.

Thirty-nine other members of the crew and one passenger, Stewart Winslow Condon, 26, of Rosindale, Mass., an accountant for the fruit lines, were saved. Four of the crew were injured.

The ship was struck first by a torpedo on the port side, a Navy spokesman said. The two missing members of the crew apparently were killed by an engine-room explosion. They were Beaumont Barbe, 26, of Antwerp, Belgium, and Secundino Castro, 36, of Honduras.

The crew launched two lifeboats and the submarine then shelled the ship. All but about four of 15 shells hit the target. Captain Walter W. Koch, 44, of Canasota, N. Y., reported.

A second torpedo struck the ship as it sank by the stern. A coast guard cutter picked up the survivors after they had spent seven hours in the lifeboats.

Radio Operator Robert S. Thorpe, 41, of East Orange, N. J., was praised by Captain Koch who said Thorpe rigged an emergency antenna and flashed several distress signals after the first torpedo wrecked the vessel's standard antenna equipment.

The U. S. Neches, a 5,000-ton naval tanker, had been sunk by a submarine with 86 men missing.

British Get Dive Bombers From US

LONDON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Air Minister Sir Archibald Sinclair disclosed in the house of commons today that the RAF is receiving its dive bombers from the United States.

The air minister said a special new type was being produced in the United States and, without divulging specifications, commented that "there is good reason to suppose their performance will be satisfactory."

Quick punishment for the hijacking of the Cosden filling station four miles east of Big Spring was meted out to two youths by a district court jury Wednesday.

The pair — Charles Edward Sparks and Everett Lee Adair, Jr., — entered pleas of guilty to robbery with firearms and after presentation of testimony by the state, the jury recommended sentences of five years in the penitentiary.

The robbery occurred January 24—less than two weeks before the conviction.

Now the youths will go to Colorado City, Abilene and other points to face indictments for similar charges.

McArthur Keeps Beating 'Em Back

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—The capital looked to American air and sea forces today to take an increasingly heavy toll of Japanese expeditions now threatening Java, but any large scale plan to reinforce the southwestern Pacific area was yet to become evident.

Disclosure in Batavia that United States planes had sunk two or three more enemy transports in Macassar Strait was taken as just a foretaste of what was in store for new Japanese convoys bound for the war area. The new bombings had not yet been announced in Washington.

Although the destination of a 69-ship Japanese convoy which the Chinese reported off Amoy was undetermined, there was little doubt here that it would be subjected to continual pounding of American ships and planes if it attempted to reach the southwestern Pacific battle zone.

From Amoy, the voyage to either the Macassar Strait district from which the Japanese menace Java, or to the Malay peninsula above Singapore would take about a week.

Beyond the expectation of continued sharp defensive action against Japanese expeditions, official Washington offered no information on the big movement by the allies which Francis M. Forde, the Australian army minister, said in a broadcast yesterday was under way.

A local attack on General Douglas MacArthur's left flank on Bataan peninsula the night of February 3 was sharply repulsed, the war department announced today.

The navy's announcement that a naval battalion composed of bluejackets and marines has been organized and is fighting on Bataan peninsula with Gen. MacArthur's command was taken to refer to forces which had been left behind when the navy withdrew from the Philippines a month ago.

The battalion presumably included several hundred men. Clark Lee, Associated Press correspondent with MacArthur's troops, was permitted to disclose that the sailors and a force of American aviators, fighting on land with rifles in the Bataan jungles, checkmated a Japanese landing attempt several days ago.

The sailors and the aviators were unfamiliar with jungle fighting, but soon became expert at tossing grenades, avoiding ambush and using available natural cover. After the Japanese back to the shore, Filipino scouts took over and annihilated the enemy with the aid of shells from a naval patrol vessel.

In its communique the navy also told of the third successful action of a torpedo boat of the western Pacific mosquito fleet.

"A motor torpedo boat of Admiral Hart's Far Eastern command is believed to have torpedoed an enemy warship in night action inside Manila Bay," the communique said. "Although under heavy fire of the warship's guns, and in the full glare of her searchlights, the motor torpedo boat managed to fire two torpedoes and survive the action without being hit."

Previously, motor torpedo boats have been credited with sinking or hitting two 5,000-ton Japanese ships in Subic Bay. The new action was the first mention of any Japanese warships having run past the big guns of Corregidor fortress at the entrance of Manila Bay and into that bay itself.

The navy also announced that the U. S. Neches, a 5,000-ton naval tanker, had been sunk by a submarine with 86 men missing.

Reds Shove Nazis Back Along Center

MOSCOW, Feb. 4 (AP)—A fierce renewal of the Russian power drive west of Moscow is hurling reinforced German divisions back upon the key invasion base of Smolensk, 200 miles west of the capital, the government newspaper Investia reported today.

It said heavy fighting was in progress in several vital towns in the central sector, where front dispatches reported many villages and towns in Smolensk province already cleared of the invaders.

The powerful red army counter-offensive into the Donets Basin at the same time was said to be progressing without check, with the soviet high command's strategy of constant flanking and outflanking maneuvers keeping the German divisions off-balance all along the line.

Russian troops which captured Petrovskaya, a district center 75 miles east of Kharkov, the Russian Pittsburgh, were said to be pursuing the

Perfume Bottle Collection Has Grown From Three To 300 In Short Time For Miss Nalley

Do you have some pretty perfume bottles that you just don't want to throw away? Well, if you don't want to end up with a hobby, you'd better ditch them now.

At least that was the beginning of a hobby for Miss Emma Cecil Nalley. Miss Nalley had several bottles that she liked and just wanted to throw away and now she has some 300 of them ranging from antiques 70 years old to modern up-to-date bottles.

Her collection includes bottles from Japan, China, France, England, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Hawaii, Mexico, Canada and the United States.

She began her hobby just five years ago at Christmas time and when friends and relatives found out they soon added to her collection.

The bottles are attractively arranged in her living room in a specially built open case of glass backed with white satin. One of her first perfume bottles is a blue bottle which came from Paris and another one from Germany.

One of the prettiest ones is a blue cut glass bottle from Czechoslovakia and another, over 40 years old, is made of crystal. The oldest bottle in the collection however is a frosted glass bottle that is 70 years old and is made in the shape of a cornucopia with a child standing at the base.

An outstanding bottle is the one from China made of handwrought silver and studded with semi-precious stones and has a carved ivory design on the front.

Some of her bottles are novelty bottles including bottles in an hourglass shape, a sailor lantern, a tequila jug and a dinner bell that really rings.

Another interesting sight on Miss Nalley's collection is that she carries little or nothing for perfume and rarely uses it. But the bottles the perfume comes in, now that's a different story.

Among all her collection, she has no real favorites but likes them all. Some are more fun to look at she says, like the bottle that has a hollow stopper. The perfume bottle is tipped over to let the perfume into the stopper handle and then is applied with the stopper.

Another is made in the shape of a Christmas tree and is from Rumania. One that Miss Nalley is proud of is a bottle of ten-cent Hopy's cologne which she says the pioneers used to use and swear by.

The collection was once displayed at the West Texas Fair in Abilene where it came off with two ribbons, one from the hobby show and one from the women's activities contest.

The collection is arranged on the shelves of the case with regard to antiques, novelties, and American made kinds. One she is mighty proud of is from New Orleans and when it was given to her it was filled with dirt as if it might have been buried. It is made of crystal with a silver top.

At first Miss Nalley just saved her nickels until she had enough to buy the kind of a bottle she wanted. But when her friends and relatives began to give her various bottles they found for her, she soon stopped buying them.

Her only fear now is that she may someday have to move to larger quarters to house all her bottles. But Miss Nalley gets a laugh out of telling "when I run out of anything to do, I just stand and look" at the collection.

Backstage with the Clare Tree Major players. That hour before play time is a mighty busy one. In the women's dressing room KAY MALLORY who played the part of the Poor Little Rich Girl was dressing for her part in the first act. Layers of powder, rouge and eye cream are put on. It looks ghastly close up and then seems all right from the stage.

Talked with SUSANNE ROONEY who played the part of the s-s-nake-in-the-glass governess in the play. A really lovely person off-stage but some demon in the play. She told that the company has been playing this same "Poor Little Rich Girl" play since September and will continue on road until May.

IRENE RIKER, who took the part of Jane the nurse, was a meany on the stage but is really an awfully pretty girl with big brown eyes and lashes that long. She told that the troupe gas going from here to San Angelo to give the play.

Also met PETER JON, who had been with the company four months. He was the poor little rich girl's father in the play. He likes this traveling about and says it is the best all around experience an actor can get. They set up their own stage scenery, tend to the props, and literally do all the work.

Over 750 Children Attend "Poor Little Rich Girl" Play Here

Performance Well Received By Group

The woes of a little girl with too much money and not enough love were unfolded Tuesday afternoon in the play "Poor Little Rich Girl"

The play opened on the tenth birthday of the little girl, Gwen, and showed her parents, ably played by Peter Jon and Irene Dailey, so busy making money and playing society that the bringing up of their daughter was left to a retinue of servants.

These included the nurse, Irene Ricker, the French teacher, Leslie Smith, the dancing master, Vincent Morgan, and the music teacher, Milton Carlson, plus the governess, Suzanne Rooney.

Gwen is accidentally given an over-dose of sleeping powder by the nurse and while she is in delirious dreams of all sorts of fantasies, her mother "who has a social bee in her bonnet" is shown carrying the bonnet with the buzzing bee inside. Her father who she had heard was "made of money" and always "in the harness" is shown dressed in a suit made of dollars and wearing a silver harness.

The little bird who had always told off on Gwen is also in her fantasy and this time tells off on the servants and their management of the child.

The happy ending comes when Gwen's life is saved by the family doctor and her parents are reunited with their child in the last scene.

The governess role was well handled by Miss Rooney and brought protests from the child audience, as did the villainous nurse, who gave the sleeping powder.

While much of the satire enjoyed by the grownups was out of reach of the youngest children, the audience seemed to watch the play with more than ordinary interest.

The third play, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," will be given here March 12th.

Sharp Decrease In Texas Poll Tax Payments This Year

War Interest Puts Damper On Politics

By BRACK CURRY
Associated Press Staff

War and taxes may black out politics this year in Texas.

Maneuvering in state contests already is under way, especially in the big United States senatorial contest, but by falling to comply with the mandatory requirement for payment of poll taxes, Texans in substantial numbers declared a partial moratorium on war-time politics.

Poll tax payments in Texas counties for 1942 sagged far below the figure for 1940—last biennial election year—when a record 1,259,878 qualified to vote. Last year the payments totaled $14,336.

Though no state-wide total yet is available, indications are the state's potential vote this year will be somewhere between the 1940 and 1941 figures.

Concerns with the war, increased taxes, investment of surplus funds in war bonds and stamps, absence of controversial political issues and probability of few heated contests for major state offices have shunted politics into the background, say local officials.

Lubbock county reported 8,105 poll tax payments, 511 exemptions and nearly 2,000 permanent exemptions, placing the county's voting strength at nearly 11,000. This is nearly 2,000 fewer than 1940. Payments last year were 4,000.

Harrison county officials at Marshall announced polls and exemptions of 6,550 compared with 7,223 in 1940. Last year's voting strength was 5,094.

Total poll tax payments for Galveston county were 14,754 at the deadline compared with 20,151 last year, but this year's figure will be augmented by a number of mail payments not yet counted, officials at Galveston stated.

Taylor county's final poll tax payments totaled 7,813, more than 1,000 greater than the 1941 figure, but considerably below the 9,138 listed for 1940, officials at Athens said.

Grayson county issued 3,254 poll taxes and 135 exemptions, comparing with 2,882 in 1941 and 3,786 for the 1940 general election year.

A final rush for poll tax receipts brought Nueces county's 1942 voting strength to around 22,000, officials at Corpus Christi said. This compares with a total of 14,500 last year.

Approximately 8,000 paid poll tax receipts were issued by Lamar county officials at Paris compared to approximately 6,000 issued last year. Receipts issued for this year's voting totaled more than those of 1940, when 5,000 were issued.

Soldiers, sailors and Marines don't vote, and that, Tom Green county officials at San Angelo stated, more than counteracted an increase in the county's population during the last year, leaving paid-up voting strength at 7,537 compared with 8,102 in 1940.

A surge of last-minute poll tax payments throughout Wichita county brought voting strength to an unexpectedly high figure. The total reached 11,800, not including 3,000 exemptions. Two years ago poll tax payments in the county were approximately 14,000.

Gregg county had poll tax payments of 11,000, about 3,000 under the figure for the last election year. Lack of interest in politics was one factor, Mann Fuller, county tax collector said, and another was the enlistment of a large number of those who voted in the armed services.

In Harris county officials reported more than 97,000 paid poll taxes already recorded and estimated 4,000 to 5,000 still were in unopened mail.

Assessor-Collector Jim H. Glass predicts Harris county's total voting strength will top all previous records. In 1940 the county recorded 102,799 paid poll taxes, and had a total voting strength, including exemptions, of 137,050.

TraVis county officials at Austin issued 22,356 poll tax certificates, compared with 10,835 last year and 25,109—the all-time high—in 1940.

Though final figures are not available, McLennan county tax officials indicated about 13,500 paid poll taxes, more than 3,000 below the last primary election year.

Jefferson county poll tax payments and exemptions reached 30,022—slightly above the 28,344 total for 1940. W. T. Blackmon, county assessor-collector of taxes, estimated Port Arthur will have 13,750 voters, leaving 16,282 for the remainder of the county, including Beaumont.

Angelo county with Lufkin the county seat, had payments of 6,933 poll taxes, compared with 4,900 last year and 8,136 in 1940.

Potter county's voting strength will be 10,500, some 5,000 short of 1940. About 4,000 voters in the county are exempt from poll payments.

Hutchinson county issued 3,027 poll receipts this year, compared with 3,800 two years ago.

Gray county reported 4,200 poll tax receipts and 540 exemption certificates. In 1940, poll taxes were paid in the county by 6,397 persons.

Hidalgo county will have a voting potential of 18,025, including 12,866 paid poll taxes, officials said.

Poll taxes paid in Midland county totaled 3,106 with the final figure incomplete. In 1940, 2,900 poll certificates were issued.

Cameron county reported 10,538 poll tax payments with about 3,000 exemptions. Normal voting strength is about 11,000.

Paid poll taxes in Ector county were estimated at 3,475 by Robert J. Bates, tax assessor-collector. Exemptions will boost the total voting strength to 3,598 compared with 4,252 two years ago.

They were First Lt. W. H. Sills, 31, of Batesburg, S. C., and Second Lt. Charles Steen, 27, of Richmond Hill, Long Island, N. Y.

Lt. James R. Davidson, III, 25, of Orlando, Fla., died yesterday at the Randolph Field station hospital as a result of injuries suffered last Friday in the crash of a training plane.

Davidson was a Randolph Field flight instructor. In the crash, which occurred six miles northwest of Randolph, Aviation Cadet Louis G. Hood, 23, of Goss, Miss., was killed.

Work Started On REA Extension

COLORADO CITY, Feb. 3—Poles are now being set along an 8-mile extension of the lines of the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, of Colorado City.

The extension will serve approximately 150 members living in sections of Mitchell, Nolan, and Scurry counties, according to O. I. Griffin, project superintendent.

Construction was held up for several months by lack of materials, particularly copper wire, which arrived early in January. Contract was let last May. The Lone Wolf cooperative already serves 345 members in Mitchell, Nolan, and Scurry counties.

Appropriation for a third extension to serve 250 members was approved several months ago, but contract will not be let until materials are available. It is said.

Mann Still Silent On Political Plans

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann was a brief visitor in Big Spring Tuesday, stopping here en route to a speaking engagement at Lubbock.

Mann visited with Obie Bristow, his political leader in this area. The attorney general, whose plans for the 1942 campaign have been a topic of much speculation, gave no indication as to what he will do this year. He has been mentioned as a candidate for the U. S. senatorship, for governor, and for reelection to the attorney general's office.

Spacing Order Puts Curb On Oil Drilling In Texas

AUSTIN, Feb. 4 (AP)—Mounting concern was felt in the oil industry today over a slowdown in new drilling occasioned by lack of sufficient information on a federal government order allowing but one well to drain 40 acres.

While applications for new hole sinkings piled up awaiting interpretation of the spacing order, oil men worried about torpedoing of tankers in eastern shipping lanes, refinery expansion to meet government demands for aviation fuel and an anticipated curtailment in consumption of automobile gasoline.

Intended to help clarify the order, a 40-acre production unit or recommendations of the Texas railroad commission, which regulates the flow of crude in the nation's biggest oil producing state, were in the hands of Federal Oil Coordinator Harold L. Ickes and his staff.

What operators and drillers wanted to know were answers to the questions: Should the hole be drilled in the center of a square 40 acres? Can the average be spread around irregularly? Should the well be located any certain distance from property lines so as not to drain adjoining leases? Should the unit be 40 yards long and one acre wide?

Although some operators were reported taking a chance and drilling wells within spacing regulations promulgated by state conservation agencies, others were holding up work to avoid possible wasted effort.

Submarine sinkings of tankers off the eastern seaboard were felt in Texas when the Humble Oil and Refining company and the Atlantic Refining company reduced purchasing nominations of West Texas crude for lack of transportation facilities. Operators requested the commission to spread curtailed takings rather than permit the reductions to hit one section.

To produce more and still more high-octane gasoline for the flying forces of the navy and army, refinery buildings, much of it unpublicized to obscure its location, continued space. Aviation fuel production was expected to cut into automobile gasoline yield to some extent.

Synthetic Rubber Work Advanced

By The Associated Press

Hopes for a synthetic rubber industry in Texas to augment the nation's war effort were nearer realization today.

Gov. Coke Stevenson authorized a $20,000 deficiency appropriation for construction of a pilot plant which would test production of acetylene from natural gas — A primary step in making the synthetic.

The process was developed by Dr. E. P. Schoch of the University of Texas bureau of industrial chemistry. He discharges electricity in natural gas to obtain acetylene.

President Homer Rainey of the University said the $20,000 appropriation would be made available to the bureau for extension of the scientist's experiments and particularly for the pilot plant.

Josephus Daniels Is Editor Again

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 4 (AP)—Josephus Daniels, secretary of Navy in the first World war and former ambassador to Mexico, has returned to the job he held longest and loved most.

He again took over the editorship yesterday of his morning newspaper, the News and Observer, and wrote in his first editorial: "There is but one business in America today. That is waging the war. There will be but one business when the fighting is over. That will be to win the peace."

Most of the raw material for synthetic rubber will be supplied by the petroleum industry.

Enemy Aliens Restricted On West Coast

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Attorney General E. A. Tamm today designated an area of sharply restricted movements for German, Japanese and Italian nationals, the California coast from the Oregon border south to a point fifty miles above Los Angeles and running inland from 30 to 100 miles.

The order is effective February 24. After that date, enemy aliens in that area must remain in their residences from 9 p. m. to 6 a. m. and at all other times they must be at their homes or their places of employment or en route between the two, or in any case within five miles of their residences.

Internment is the penalty for violations. United States attorneys may grant exceptions to the restrictions, E. A. Tamm said, "only in cases where a compelling reason exists and after completion of a suitable investigation."

Many Laxatives, but few are Leaders!

Year in and year out, spicy, herbal BLACK-DRAUGHT has been a best-seller among laxatives in the Southwest. The reason? It's agreeable and easy to take. When taken as directed, its action is usually punctual, thorough and gentle. The tonic-laxative element which helps tone lax intestinal muscles is probably its most important asset. Next time, try BLACK-DRAUGHT!

Steers Take Another By Close Count, 13-12

Steers Now Share Leadership Only With Abilenians

The on-again, off-again district 3-AA cage race was a two-way affair again today as Big Spring's Steers and the Abilene Eagles pulled ahead with victories over Lamesa and San Angelo.

And, if the dope runs true to form, the Big Springers and the Eagles might hold their position at least through the week. The locals Friday night engage Colorado City's hapless Wolves at Colorado and Abilene travels to Midland. Since the Coloradans have been unable to annex a victory all winter and since Midland has fared little better, the local leaders should be able to cop the Friday night tilts.

Lamesa Quint The Victim In Hectic Affair

By DICK CLIFTON

Big Spring's Steers did it again Tuesday evening—by the skin of their teeth—with another football score on the basketball court.

The score: Big Spring 15, Lamesa 12.

A football result, and almost a football game, for it was a rough and tumble affair throughout and had partisans in an uproar at the end.

Earnest Bostick, making his only points this season, tied the score at 11-11 at the end of the fourth canto when he made good on a free throw after being fouled by Price.

This threw the game into an overtime period. The third time this season the Steers have been thus extended—a and Pappy Blount came through with a field goal to win the game. Bratcher, fouled by Womack, dropped his shot, making the final score 13-12.

At half-time Big Spring was behind, 3-4, when Blair dropped in a long shot within 30 seconds of the intermission. Blair, the thorn in the side of the Steers all night, was high point for the evening, with eight tallies, three more than Blount, the Big Spring scoring ace.

Shortly after the half, Horace Bostick sank a free shot to tie the score and then James Fallon pushed in a field goal to give Big Spring the lead.

Lamesa's 1-3-3 score defense that baffled the Big Springers in their first meeting, didn't work so well Tuesday evening, and the Steer defense was far better than it was in the opening game when Lamesa took the nod.

Night Games Increased By Majors

NEW YORK, Feb. 4 (AP)—Those capital city cities who drew a congressman's reprimand for not going to bed early now have 21 more good reasons to avoid staying in at home evenings with a good book this summer.

Clark Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, obtained permission from baseball's major league bosses yesterday for 21 after-dark contests to aid the war effort by bolstering Washington morale.

The remaining 15 big league clubs may play up to 14 games under the lights in their own parks. Griffith demanded 28 contests but the others opposed it. The compromise was effected by Commissioner K. M. Landis.

Not only did Griffith and his major league pals give the fans more night baseball but they extended the curfew as well. In the past no inning was allowed to start after 11:30. With the coming of wartime, universal daylight saving time, however, the rule was amended to read 12:30 a. m.

The increase of arc contests didn't receive universal approval. Larry MacPhail, general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who introduced the after-dark phase to the majors, said he wasn't sure his club would take advantage of the increase.

Roger Peckinpugh, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, indicated his club might play some of the allotted contests at twilight affairs, starting at 6:30 p. m.

After their joint meeting with the American League bosses, the National League chieftains immediately began revising their schedule to accommodate the extra night games. Both leagues, however, retained Tuesday, April 14, as the starting date, with these pairings:

American League:
New York at Washington.
Philadelphia at Boston.
Cleveland at Detroit.
St. Louis at Chicago.

National League:
Brooklyn at New York.
Boston at Philadelphia.
Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.
Chicago at St. Louis.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (Wide World)—Inside report is that Billy Conn and Manager Johnny Ray aren't actually near a bust-up as has been rumored but they have been exchanging some pretty hot words about Billy's refusal to train.

Conn heads for New York today to start work for Tony Zale.

Wire from Tuscaloosa, Ala., reports Vanderbilt players have been ejected from three of the last six athletic encounters for unnecessary roughness; that Vandy has dropped its foreign language entrance requirement; and asks if the "self-styled Harvard of the South has let hair down." Nat Fleischer has quit giving his championship belts to fighters for the duration. They're now on the priority list of metals. Two hours after the major league meetings ended Judge Landis was aboard a train for Florida. . . . Maybe that's why they settled things so quickly.

Not A Dark Horse

Greg Rice, who will be shooting for his 39th consecutive victory in the Millrose track meet Saturday, won't have to worry about the possibility of a blackout during the race. . . . He trains at night on the Columbia university outdoor track, a half block away from the nearest light. . . . Greg probably won't have to worry about the opposition, either.

Hot Stove Warmup

Connie Mack and Gerry Nugent have been conducting surveys around Philadelphia industrial plants to learn when they should start their daylight ball games in order to catch the customers before and after work. . . . Minor league baseballers, who formerly could hardly wait for spring training and free grub, now are complaining because the training season is too long. It will take a lot of them off high-pay defense jobs. . . . Joe McCarthy says he isn't worrying about his night game pitchers but he'd like to know who is his best night-game hitter. . . . Leo Durocher, trapped in a hotel lobby talking to four umpires, explained: "I never gave them any trouble." He was right. All four were American leaguers.

Today's Guest Star

Wilton Garrison, Charlotte (N.C.) Observer: "Baseball started with sideburns and mustaches. And when the draft is through we'll be right back where we started!"

Future Book

Texas apparently is getting set for another big football season. Four stars of the Temple team that went to the state high school championship final in 1941 are due to become Longhorns at mid-term. If they work through the spring and summer sessions they'll be eligible for the varsity next fall. . . . Orville Tuttle of the pro Glanias is reported headed for the line coaching job at Oklahoma U., with Jap Haskell concentrating on his duties as athletic director.

Confusion Corner

Lawrence Kitchen, Wisconsin basketballer, works in the production department of a Lawrence's restaurant. So, naturally, he's Lawrence Kitchen of Lawrence's Kitchen. . . . And left hand is the name of a player with the Lodge Grass-Indians' court team out in Montana. Reports say he's a deadly one-hand shooter—with his right hand.

Cheap for a Real Queen

DAVIS, Calif.—The U. of C. agricultural college is offering $100 for a queen bee, "that has been tested and found to produce daughters whose colonies are resistant to American foulbrood to a practical degree."

Two Local Youths Get Promotions

Promotions for two Big Spring youths in the military service have been announced from Perrin Field, Texas. Corporal Earl L. McAlpine, son of Mrs. Annie F. Pryor, was advanced to the rank of sergeant at the army air corps basic flying school.

Promoted to the rank of corporal was Chester I. Little, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Little. He is assigned to the 86th air base squadron, while McAlpine is assigned to the 96th air base group.

Chinese Capture Three New Towns

CHUNGKING, Feb. 4. (AP)—The Chinese command reported today the capture of three towns near Yochow, the Hunan province base from which the Japanese launched their recent disastrous thrust at Changsha, and the seizure of two villages on the Canton-Kowloon railway in South China.

The Constitution of the United States originally consisted of a preamble and seven articles.

Home Guard To Benefit— Service Clubs Clash Tonight

It'll be do-or-die for the good old service club tonight, as Lions and American Business club squads mix it up in a basketball tilt; and it's for a good cause.

Teams from the two organizations clash at 7:30 p. m. at the high school gym, with proceeds going to the fund to buy uniforms for the Home Defense guard. The fund stands to be boosted considerably, since all signs point to a sellout. Tickets, at 25 cents, have been selling rapidly, and all seats are due to be snapped up by late comers at the box office.

Some experts are picking the Business club five to win, but you can find plenty of Lion backers to dispute this view. Regardless of the outcome, some interesting action is promised on the hardwood.

Some experts are picking the Business club five to win, but you can find plenty of Lion backers to dispute this view. Regardless of the outcome, some interesting action is promised on the hardwood.

The ABC-ers are likely to start Billy Horn and Ted Phillips, J. D. Jones and Clyde Thomas, and either Ennon Loveady or T. J. Dunlap. The Lion starters are scheduled to include Jack Smith, J. O. Vineyard, Neal Stanley, Randall Fields and Pete Elowse, with Bob Ward and Alex Selkirk as choice reserves.

Immediately following the Lions-ABC club game, there will be a city fast league game between Carnet and Vaughn. It is a make-up tilt and if Carnet wins, the team will get a crack at Crystal Cafe for the first half title in that league. There will be no charge for fans desiring to remain for the extra tilt.

During the half, Maxie Carroll, referee of the Lions-ABC club game and a former member of the House of David basketball squad will put on an exhibition for fans, juggling three basketballs at one time.

No Decision On Moving Bombers To El Paso

There is nothing definite yet on the transfer of the Big Spring Bomber franchise to El Paso this year, Skipper Jodie Tate said Wednesday after he and Tink Reviere returned from conference with sportmen in the Border City.

"There are some angles out there that look pretty good," said Tate, "but we were just getting information, and no effort was made to come to terms."

Tate said that El Pasoans were definitely interested in a berth in the West Texas-New Mexico loop. That city has been in the Texas-Arizona league, but there will be no such circuit operating this season. El Paso has had some good years under the old setup, and would like to continue professional baseball. He thinks that El Paso and Albuquerque stand pretty good chances of being in the WT-NM fold this season.

The Bomber chief said he and Reviere would be in no particular hurry about closing a deal for the season, but that they would have to make a final decision before time to mail out 1942 contracts and line up spring training arrangements, etc. They will continue to operate under their Brooklyn hookup, regardless of where they operate.

Tate & Bristow, Balch Victors

Balch boot shop beat Tate and Bristow and Texas Electric beat J. & L. drug in Tuesday night's competition in the young men's bowling league.

Balch won its three-game series with a total score of 2301, against 2157 for Tate and Bristow, although highest scores of the night were made by a couple of Tate and Bristow men in the first game. Kent rolled a 306 and Alexander knocked 'em flying for a 200.

Texas Electric scored 1902 to 1810 for J. & L. in the other game.

League standings:

Team	W. L. Pct.
Tate & Bristow	20 10 .667
Balch	19 11 .633
Texas Electric	13 14 .481
J. & L.	8 24 .266

Bears Retain A Chance At S'west Title

By The Associated Press

Baylor's embattled Bears were still in the running today for the Southwest conference basketball title.

The Bruins came from behind to whip the Texas Aggies last night in Waco 39 to 35, giving them a season record of four wins and two losses.

Tied for the top are Texas Christian and Arkansas with three wins and one loss.

The Baylor win was an old story in Southwest basketball—the Bears are tough to beat on their own court.

With only 30 seconds to play the score was 35-31.

Then the grand little money-player, Dwight Parks, sank a free shot to give the Bruins a one-point lead and with fifteen seconds left L. V. Arnett made it 39 to 35 with a brilliant field goal.

There never was more than a four-point difference during the game.

Baylor tied with Baylor with four wins and two losses, most dangerous East Texas State tonight at Commerce in a non-conference game. Tomorrow night Texas plays Sam Houston at Austin, also a non-conference affair.

Friday night Arkansas comes to Waco to meet the Bears and Rice tangles with the Phillips Oilers at Bartlesville, Okla., in an exhibition clash.

Saturday night Arkansas plays Baylor again and TCU meets Texas at Austin.

Best Gridders To Be With Uncle Sam

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., Feb. 4. (AP)—Major Bernie Herman, Minnesota coach now on duty with the marines at Quantico, Va., foresees no change in football in 1942 as a result of the war except a possible cut-down in quality.

"We probably will have just as many boys playing," the major said in an interview, "but some of our best talent will be lost to the armed forces of Uncle Sam."

Rookie Comes From Sunday School Team

CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—Chicago's Cubs have gone to Sunday school to get their latest rookie—16-year-old Bill Polston of Louisville, a shortstop. The Sunday school team, incidentally, is the same that produced Billy Herman and Pee Wee Reese, now with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Col. L. P. Hunt was borrowed from the Marine Corps to act as administrator of the first government sponsored housing project in Alaska.

One of the reasons for the success of the Jap fifth column in Hawaii was a U. S. law which tied the hands of the department of justice in the matter of tapping wires and opening mail.

DANGEROUS BAGGAGE

BY ELEANOR ATTERBURY

Chapter Nine FIRST KISS

"In their cages, you mean," Sharon corrected him sharply. "Look, Tom, women aren't goods and chattels any more, remember. Or hadn't you learned about emancipation and suffrage and all that?"

When she got to the apartment, the telephone was ringing furiously. Sharon ran to answer. It was a police sergeant. Dennis had been arrested, was being held at the police station!

"You take your responsibility to that young brother pretty seriously, don't you?" he said after a moment. Sharon nodded. "He's all I have. I love him dearly."

"I don't understand." "Maybe not," cryptically. "Let's hope so." And abruptly he flipped on the ignition, started the car.

Not Serious--This Time For a moment after she hung up, Sharon couldn't believe she had heard correctly. There must be some mistake. Another Dennis Doyle. And yet there was that strange call. Dennis' sudden need for twenty dollars, and then that horrible Mr. Gates' calling.

"I can see that." Smiling, he drew her into his arms again. "He's a lucky lad." "Something in his tone unfurled a danger signal in the back of Sharon's mind. Looking up, she met his eyes, saw there a new expression, a new depth. And for the second time that evening, realized she was about to be kissed.

"I don't understand." "Maybe not," cryptically. "Let's hope so." And abruptly he flipped on the ignition, started the car. That opportunity was gone, she realized. She'd missed it somehow. A leading question, a clever answer might have done the trick.

Frantic, Sharon pieced all the scraps of the picture together. He was in trouble--in jail! And what could she do? Call Mr. Goodwin, of course. He would know. Her trembling fingers whirled the dial.

"You--didn't--" and tried not to tremble so. "You're so lovely--so alone--so very precious. I want to hold you, protect you, never let you go."

Then, abruptly, he released her, shattered the mood of the next moment with a laughing. "Thanks, my sweet. You sang nicely for your supper. Someday I'll buy you another. I'll be seeing you in my dreams. Bye, now."

"To T-I mean -- why would that matter?" "Just don't," Goodwin said flatly. "I'll call you back when I have any news. You get some sleep, now."

"You--didn't--" and tried not to tremble so. "You're so lovely--so alone--so very precious. I want to hold you, protect you, never let you go."

Army Boosts Marriage Rate

BROWNWOOD--The 1,180 marriage licenses issued in Brown county last year -- a 300 per cent increase over 1940--is not hard to explain. Nearly 30,000 soldiers were brought in to Camp Bowie.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds -- Jean Gabin Is Thoroughly French

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD--Jean Gabin is the sort of actor who can leave a big, heavy sack to his shoulders and stride along before the camera without panting. That's what he was doing the other day for a scene in "Moon Tide" -- striding along the stone breakwater at a Pacific harbor, his dog beside him, descending the wooden steps to deposit the sack inside his floating shack.

speaks it hesitantly, works hard on his dialogue. When he first arrived, he asked to meet Ginger Rogers, whose acting he admired. One evening in a cafe mutual friends introduced them, left Ginger and Jean alone to get acquainted. For 40 minutes they sat. Ginger doesn't speak French, either. The silence was brilliant. He has wanted to make amends, with another date, ever since.

America. Nazi agents in Paris invited him to return to make more pictures, but he declined. He likes rugged roles, does not fancy "great lover" stuff. Kidded about a possible rivalry with Charles Boyer, Gabin turned it aside. "We do not conflict," he said. "I am neither suave, nor debonaire."

Aware of the tall-tale flush in her cheeks, Sharon dropped into a chair, began turning the leaves of her notebook busily. "Hello, Stafford," Goodwin greeted him easily.

"Good morning, sir," Tom said, ignoring the situation. "I've a report for you on the furnace deal. Thought you'd be interested to see how it could be worked out."

"I won't need you right now, Sharon," she heard Goodwin dismissing her. "I'll call you when we're through."

She pulled the cover off her typewriter. There, propped against the keys, stood a slip of paper. She read the words at a glance.

"If you know what's good for you, clear out. It's later than you think." The note was unsigned. To Be Continued

Speaker Tells Of Blessings And Curses Of Credit Use

Credit is a trust, one that can be a great blessing or a source of ruin, Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, operator of the Retail Merchants Association told members of the Lions club at their weekly meeting Wednesday.

Too much credit can reduce the efficiency of an individual through constant attention to collectors and by worry. On the other hand, she said, credit is of great benefit when properly used, for it means confidence and a sense of security for average individuals.

While irresponsible individuals often abuse credit, business can be charged with much of its misuse, according to Mrs. Eubanks. The retailer who oversteps is inviting loss and opening the way for a resort to unfair business practices by both himself and the customer.

A peculiar thing about credit, she continued, is that "men will risk bankruptcy rather than tell their families that they have strained their credit." It is not uncommon, she added, that men inquire of the association if there is not some way to stop credit "to the little woman without letting her know why."

Perhaps the war comes as a blessing so far as credit is concerned, in her opinion, for in 1940 retail credit had amounted to a peak of nine billions of dollars, half of it on the installment plan.

Inconveniences and rations imposed by the war effort may serve as a needed brake on rampant selling and buying without regard to the character, earning power and ability of the individual to pay.

The Rev. George Julian, St. Thomas Catholic pastor, spoke briefly at the meeting, declaring that he had found Big Spring a place "with the conveniences of a larger city without the inconveniences of a big city."

Many new members, transfers and reinstated members were introduced, and Dan Conley, secretary, announced membership gain during January.

Some Car Expense Tax Deductible Texas motorists may deduct money paid out during 1941 on the state's four-cent gasoline tax, according to Jack Douglas, Lubbock, general manager of the South Plains Automobile club. The AAA, of which the plains unit is a part, has compiled a booklet available to motorists as income tax guides.

Funds paid to the state in registration and other special fees may be deducted, continued Douglas. There is no deduction for federal taxes—gasoline or otherwise. Other deductible items include loss sustained from damage when not covered by insurance or otherwise compensated, and interest on money borrowed for purchase of a car. Finance charges, as such, are not deductible and whether a portion may be deducted as interest depends upon nature of the contract.

Weather Forecast BIG SPRING AND VICINITY: Mild temperatures this afternoon and tonight.

Salute to the Armed Forces, a new 30-minute informational and musical program, made its first appearance over KBST Tuesday evening, and will be heard Mondays through Fridays in the future, 7:30-8 p. m. The program features official releases from the United States Army and Navy, presented by Howard Kemper, Ken Duke with the "War to This Minute," a five-minute resume of the war activities up to broadcast time, and Leonard Lyon as emcee. Various military bands and orchestras furnish the musical entertainment. Various local speakers will be spotted on the program from time to time, to enable them to place before KBST listeners news of Big Spring's participation in the war effort.

Some Car Expense Tax Deductible Texas motorists may deduct money paid out during 1941 on the state's four-cent gasoline tax, according to Jack Douglas, Lubbock, general manager of the South Plains Automobile club. The AAA, of which the plains unit is a part, has compiled a booklet available to motorists as income tax guides.

Funds paid to the state in registration and other special fees may be deducted, continued Douglas. There is no deduction for federal taxes—gasoline or otherwise. Other deductible items include loss sustained from damage when not covered by insurance or otherwise compensated, and interest on money borrowed for purchase of a car. Finance charges, as such, are not deductible and whether a portion may be deducted as interest depends upon nature of the contract.
